Introduced by M. of A. CHANDLER-WATERMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to requiring a mortgagor to provide notice of imminent foreclosure to their tenant or tenants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 2 235-k to read as follows:
3 § 235-k. Imminent foreclosure. 1. As used in this section, "imminent
4 foreclosure" shall mean a mortgagor has received notice of foreclosure
5 delivered along with a summons and complaint, as required in subdivision
6 two of section thirteen hundred three of the real property actions and 7 proceedings law.
8 2. A mortgagor shall, prior to the tenant or prospective tenant either 9 renewing or signing a lease agreement, disclose to such tenant or 10 prospective tenant of imminent foreclosure.
11 3. A mortgagor shall send a copy of the original summons and complaint
12 by certified mail to a tenant or prospective tenant at least two weeks
13 prior to either renewing or signing a lease agreement.
14 4. A mortgagor who fails to disclose to their tenant or prospective
15 tenant prior to either renewing or signing a lease agreement shall pay a 16 credit of five hundred dollars to the tenant or prospective tenant
17 against the agreed upon rental price of the lease agreement per failure,
18 in addition to any other existing equitable or statutory remedy.
19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
