(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to preempt, diminish, or interfere with a collective bargaining agreement that is in place on the effective date of this article.

2. Franchises with a community within the state shall, as a matter of public policy:

(a) be able to be owned by a government entity or members of the general public; or

(b) be able to have ownership be transferred to a government entity or members of the general public.

3. In accordance with subdivisions four and five of this section, a franchise owner may not move the franchise from their home community, move the franchise from the state, or eliminate the franchise unless the franchise owner offers an entity specified in subdivision four of this section a fair opportunity to purchase such franchise.

4. A fair opportunity to purchase a franchise pursuant to subdivision three of this section shall be provided, in descending priority, to the following entities which, as a term of such purchase, shall be required to keep such franchise within its community:

(a) A local government entity or a home community cooperative.

(b) A nonprofit organization that operates in the community or a public-private partnership composed of a local government entity with a home community cooperative or nonprofit organization headquartered in such unit of local government.

(c) A private person, private consortium, or company that resides in the community or operates in the community.

5. At least six months prior to the relocation or elimination of a franchise, the franchise owner shall:

(a) provide proper notice regarding the proposed new location of the franchise or proposed franchise elimination to the comptroller, as determined by the comptroller, and the community, as determined by the secretary of state;

(b) offer the franchise for purchase for a fair price as determined under section 27.05 of this article; and

(c) if an offer is made which is at or above the fair price, accept an offer made by an entity, giving priority as described under subdivision four of this section.

§ 27.05. Appraisal. 1. Upon a franchise owner providing proper notice under paragraph (a) of subdivision five of section 27.03 of this article, the comptroller shall establish a team of professionally trained appraisers to evaluate a fair price for a franchise.

2. The evaluation of a fair price undertaken pursuant to this section shall deduct from the appraisal amount the total amount of any government payment, credit, or subsidy provided for the construction of any stadium where the franchise played the majority of their home games.

§ 27.07. Enforcement. 1. The attorney general shall assess against a franchise owner in violation of this article a fine of thirty thousand dollars for each day the owner is in violation of this article.

2. A local government entity may bring a civil action for violation of this article in an appropriate district court against a franchise owner for injunctive and monetary relief.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
