Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Vanel) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to providing remote work flexibilities for licensed mortgage loan originators and staff and employees of licensed mortgage bankers, registered mortgage brokers and mortgage loan servicers under certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 590 of the banking law is amended 2 by adding a new paragraph (j) to read as follows:

3 (j) "Remote location" shall mean a location at which an employee of a 4 licensee, registrant, mortgage loan servicer or person exempt from 5 licensing or registration that employs a mortgage loan originator
6 licensed pursuant to article twelve-E of this chapter, may conduct busi-7 ness other than the principal location or branch office of a licensee, 8 registrant, servicer or exempt person.

9 § 2. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 590 of the banking law, 10 as amended by chapter 472 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as 11 follows:

12 (c) A licensee registrant or mortgage loan servicer may apply for 13 authority to open and maintain one or more branch offices. Provided, 14 however, no licensee, registrant or mortgage loan servicer shall be 15 required to apply for authority to open and maintain a branch office 16 with respect to any location that is a remote location.

17 § 3. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 5 of section 590 of the banking law, 18 as relettered by chapter 540 of the laws of 2023, is relettered para-
19 graph (g) and a new paragraph (f) is added to read as follows:

20 (f)(i) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter or any other law, 21 rule or regulation to the contrary, a licensee, registrant, mortgage 22 loan servicer, or person exempt from licensing or registration that 23 employs a licensed mortgage loan originator, may allow an employee, 24 including a mortgage loan originator licensed pursuant to article
25 twelve-E of this chapter and sponsored by the licensee, registrant,

1 servicer or exempt person, to engage in licensable activities from a
2 remote location provided:

3 (A) the remote location may not:

4 (1) be owned or leased by the employer or an affiliate of the employ-5 er, or for the benefit of the employer or an affiliate of the employer;

6 (2) be a location that offers temporary office space unless the 7 employee is using the location on a temporary basis due to the unavail-
8 ability of the employee's regular work location;

9 (3) be held out to the public by use of signage, advertisement, or 10 other means, as a location at which the employer conducts business for 11 which a license or registration is required;

12 (4) be used for the receipt of mail relating to business for which a 13 license or registration is required; or

14 (5) be used to conduct a specific act that applicable law, rule or 15 regulation requires be conducted only at specified locations;

16 (B) the remote location shall be authorized by the licensee, regis-17 trant, servicer or exempt person as a location from which the specific 18 employee may work remotely;

19 (C) the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person has written 20 policies and procedures for supervision of employees working at their 21 residence or another remote location;

22 (D) the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person shall maintain 23 and update, as appropriate, written records with respect to an employee 24 working from remote locations, including the initial authorization to 25 work from any such remote location, any updated authorization, and 26 information regarding the location and any due diligence undertaken to 27 ensure compliance with applicable policies and procedures and this para-
28 graph. Such records shall be maintained for the greater of two years 29 from the date the employee ceases using such remote location in 30 connection with the business for which a license or registration is 31 required or any retention period required by applicable law, rule or 32 regulation;

33 (E) access to company platforms and customer information is in accord-34 ance with the licensee's, registrant's, servicer's or exempt person's 35 written information security plan and cybersecurity program and poli-36 cies;

37 (F) no in-person interaction occurs at the employee's residence unless 38 the residence is an authorized branch location;

39 (G) physical records are not maintained at and cannot be produced at a 40 remote location;

41 (H) the location provides a workspace that is secure and designed to 42 protect personal information as required by law, including ensuring that 43 customer interactions and conversations about consumers will be in 44 compliance with federal and state information security requirements,
45 including applicable provisions under the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act 46 and the Safeguards Rule established by the Federal Trade Commission and 47 set forth in 16 CFR Part 314, as such requirements may be amended from 48 time to time;

49 (I) employees working at a remote location shall access the company's 50 secure systems, including a cloud-based system, directly from any out-51 of-office device the employee uses, including, but not limited to, a 52 laptop, phone, desktop computer, or tablet, via a virtual private 53 network or comparable system that ensures secure connectivity and 54 requires multi-factor authentication or reasonably equivalent or more 55 secure compensating controls in accordance with 23 NYCRR 500.12;

1 (J) the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person ensures that 2 appropriate security updates, patches, or other alterations to the secu-3 rity of all devices used at remote locations are installed and main-4 tained;

5 (K) the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person shall have the 6 ability to remotely lock or erase company-related contents of any device 7 or otherwise remotely limit all access to the company's secure systems;

8 (L) the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person shall employ 9 appropriate risk-based monitoring and oversight processes and any 10 employee that will work from a remote location must agree to comply with 11 such established processes;

12 (M) a licensee, registrant or servicer shall, at least annually, 13 certify to the superintendent that all employees engaged in remote 14 activity from a remote location meet the appropriate standards and safe-15 guards to continue such activity; and

16 (N) the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System/Nationwide Mortgage 17 Licensing System and Registry record of a mortgage loan originator that 18 works from a remote location shall designate the principal location of 19 the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person as the mortgage loan 20 originator's registered location, unless the mortgage loan originator 21 elects another authorized branch office maintained by the licensee, 22 registrant, servicer or exempt person as a registered location.

23 (ii) If the superintendent determines that the licensee, registrant, 24 servicer or exempt person, or the employee working from a remote 25 location, fails to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph or the 26 licensee, registrant or servicer fails to have adequate policies and 27 procedures to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph, the super-28 intendent may, in addition to any penalties authorized by this article 29 and applicable law:

30 (A) after notice and a hearing, limit, restrict or condition the 31 authority for the licensee, registrant, servicer or exempt person to 32 allow employees to engage in a business activity that requires a license 33 or registration from a remote location; or

34 (B) terminate, restrict or condition the eligibility of an employee to 35 engage in business activities that require a license or registration 36 from a remote location.

37 (iii) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to a person exempt 38 from licensing or registration under this article only to the extent 39 such person employs and sponsors a natural person licensed as a mortgage 40 loan originator pursuant to article twelve-E of this chapter. Provided 41 the requirements of this paragraph are satisfied, an individual shall be 42 permitted to work from a remote location regardless of the distance the 43 individual's residence is from a branch office or other location of a 44 licensee, registrant, mortgage loan servicer, or person exempt from 45 licensing or registration. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter 46 or any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, provided the 47 provisions of this paragraph are satisfied, the distance an individual 48 resides from a location of a licensee, registrant, mortgage loan servi-49 cer, or person exempt from licensing or registration, shall not be a 50 factor in licensing an individual pursuant to article twelve-E when the 51 individual will work from a remote location.

52 § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 591 of the banking law, as amended by 53 section 52 of part 0 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2006, is amended to 54 read as follows:

55 3. A licensee may apply for authority to open and maintain a branch 56 office by giving the superintendent prior notice of its intention in

1 such form as shall be prescribed by the superintendent. Unless the
2 superintendent denies the application within thirty days of publication
3 of notice of receipt of a completed application, the licensee shall be 4 permitted to open and maintain such branch office. An application to 5 open and maintain a branch office shall be accompanied by an investi-
6 gation fee as prescribed pursuant to section eighteen-a of this chapter.

7 A licensee shall not be required to apply for authority to open and 8 maintain a branch office for a location that is a remote location.

9 § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 591-a of the banking law, as amended by 10 section 53 of part 0 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2006, is amended to 11 read as follows:

12 2. A registrant may apply for authority to open and maintain a branch 13 office by giving the superintendent prior notice of its intention in 14 such form as shall be prescribed by the superintendent. Unless the 15 superintendent denies the application within thirty days of publication 16 of notice of receipt of a completed application, the registrant shall be 17 permitted to open and maintain such branch office. An application to 18 open and maintain a branch office shall be accompanied by an investi-
19 gation fee as prescribed pursuant to section eighteen-a of this chapter.

20 A registrant shall not be required to apply for authority to open and 21 maintain a branch office for a location that is a remote location.

22 § 6. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 23 have become a law.
