9 occupied rental units in a rental housing property with five units or 10 more, or a bona fide organization working to achieve such status.
11 Tenants' organizations may engage in the following activities, including

2 shall have the right to meet without being required to pay a fee in any 3 location on the premises including a community or social room where use
4 is normally subject to a fee which is devoted to the common use of all
5 tenants in a peaceful manner, at reasonable hours and without obstruct-
6 ing access to the premises or facilities. No landlord shall deny such 7 right.

8 4. Tenants' groups, committees or other tenants' organizations shall 9 have the right to invite outside guests or visitors, including but not 10 limited to elected officials, service providers, and housing lawyers, to 11 their regular meetings without being required to pay a fee in any 12 location on the premises including a community or social room where use
13 is normally subject to a fee which is devoted to the common use of all
14 tenants in a peaceful manner, at reasonable hours and without obstruct-
15 ing access to the premises or facilities. No landlord shall deny such 16 right.

17 5. No landlord or an agent of a landlord shall prohibit or interfere 18 with a tenant of a rental unit in a building, or a guest invited by a 19 tenant, from engaging in lawful organizing activities.

20 6. Tenants in a building may establish a bona fide tenants' organiza-
21 tion pursuant to this section by providing their landlord with a peti-22 tion signed by tenants representing occupied units within a building or 23 property certifying that such tenants desire to form a tenants' organ-24 ization. A copy of such petition may also be filed with the clerk of the 25 governing municipality.

26 7. Landlords and tenants' organizations shall confer with each other

31 reasonable requests for information, allowing participation by non-resi-32 dent advocates, and negotiating and putting agreements into writing. In 33 addition, a landlord shall, on written request of a tenants' organiza-34 tion, attend either themselves or through their representative at least 35 one tenants' organization meeting every six months, although more 36 frequent attendance at the request of the tenants' organization shall be 37 permitted. Such meetings shall occur at a mutually convenient time and 38 place. To request that a landlord or their representative attend a meet-39 ing, the tenants' organization shall send the landlord a written request
40 at least fourteen days in advance. Alternatively, if a tenants' organ-
