AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to priority seating for pregnant, elderly, and disabled passengers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new 2 section 1266-n to read as follows:

3 § 1266-n. Priority seating for pregnant, elderly, and disabled passen-
4 gers. 1. The authority shall post signage, which may take the form of a 5 sticker, in each subway car and bus, in the manner and of the size and 6 number, sufficient to be viewed by passengers in all parts of such 7 subway car and bus which states, either graphically or in the languages
8 the authority deems appropriate: "Please give up your seat for pregnant, 9 elderly, or disabled passengers."

10 2. The authority shall post signage, which may take the form of a 11 sticker, designating certain seats in such subway car and bus as 12 reserved for pregnant, elderly or disabled passengers. Such signage
13 shall state, either graphically or in the languages the authority deems 14 appropriate: "These seats are reserved for pregnant, elderly, and disa-15 bled passengers."

16 3. In addition to the signage required in subdivisions one and two of 17 this section, such information shall be included in any LED banner signs 18 and any announcements made in subway cars or buses.

19 4. The authority shall not pay any costs or expenses related to prior-20 ity seating signage for pregnant, elderly, and disabled passengers from 21 its operating or capital budgets and may only implement priority seating
22 signage for pregnant, elderly, and disabled passengers with funds appro-
23 priated to it by the state of New York for such purpose.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 25 it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
