IN ASSEMBLY

January 14, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to granting members of the city's police force eligibility for retirement and pension based on previous service as traffic enforcement agents

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended 2 by adding a new section 13-633 to read as follows:

3 § 13-633 Transfer of members of the New York city police department
4 from traffic enforcement to the police force. a. The time served as a 5 member of the city's traffic enforcement who has become a member of the 6 police force of the city, whether by transfer or as a result of a 7 competitive examination and appointment, and who is still a member of 8 the police force of the city, shall be included and counted as service 9 in the police force for the police department of the city in determining 10 retirement and pension as provided in this code, provided, however, 11 that no person becoming a member of the police department of the city in 12 the manner herein provided, shall be entitled to participate in the 13 benefits of the police pension fund, unless such member shall pay into 14 such fund the total sum that they would have been required to pay in 15 order to participate therein had they been a member of such force from 16 the time they entered the service of traffic enforcement. These 17 provisions shall not be subject to any restriction relative to transfers 18 contained in the civil service law or in the rules and regulations of 19 the civil service commission of the state, or any subdivision thereof.

20 b. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a member of the New 21 York city police department shall be entitled to buy back and receive 22 service credit for the period of time such member was previously
23 employed as a New York city traffic enforcement agent pursuant to subdi-24 vision a of this section.

25 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
