

STATE OF NEW YORK

2015

2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 14, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. PEOPLES-STOKES, SHRESTHA, KELLES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to actions or practices that establish or maintain a monopoly, monopsony or restraint of trade, and in relation to authorizing a class action lawsuit in the state anti-trust law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Twenty-2 First Century Anti-Trust Act".

3 § 2. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares 4 New York's great concern with the growing accumulation of power in the 5 hands of dominant corporations that harms our marketplace, our democra-6 cy, and that undermines the power of workers, consumers, and small busi-7 nesses. It is time to update, expand, and clarify our laws, consistent 8 with the purposes of the anti-trust reforms of the early Twentieth 9 Century, to police abuses of power by dominant firms. The legislature 10 further finds and declares that unilateral actions which seek to create 11 a monopoly or monopsony are as harmful as contracts or agreements of 12 multiple parties to do the same and should be treated similarly under 13 the law. Firms with monopoly or monopsony power are contrary to the 14 public interest. The legislature further finds and declares that laws 15 governing multi-firm conduct should be updated, consistent with the 16 purposes of anti-trust law, to adequately address abuses of power by 17 dominant firms embodied in coercive vertical restraints on small busi-18 nesses, workers, and consumers. The legislature further finds and 19 declares that effective enforcement against unfair competition, espe-20 cially on the part of dominant firms, has been impeded by courts, for 21 example, applying narrow definitions of monopolies and monopolization, 22 limiting the scope of unilateral conduct, making it excessively diffi-23 cult to challenge unfair competition and unreasonably heightening the

1 legal standards that plaintiffs and government enforcers must overcome 2 to establish violations of those laws. The legislature further finds and 3 declares that one of the purposes of the state's anti-trust laws is to 4 ensure that our labor markets are open and fair. The legislature further 5 finds and declares that anti-competitive practices harm great numbers of 6 citizens and therefore must ensure that those harmed by monopolies or 7 monopsonies may seek redress through private enforcement.

8 § 3. Section 340 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 12 9 of the laws of 1935, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 893 of the laws 10 of 1957, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 805 of the laws of 1984, 11 subdivisions 3 and 4 as renumbered by chapter 502 of the laws of 1948, 12 subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 333 of the laws of 1975 and subdivi-13 sion 6 as amended by chapter 31 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read 14 as follows:

15 § 340. Contracts or agreements for monopoly, monopsony, or in 16 restraint of trade illegal and void. 1. Every contract, agreement, 17 arrangement or combination whereby

18 A monopoly or monopsony in the conduct of any business, trade or 19 commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state, is or may be 20 established or maintained, or whereby

21 Competition or the free exercise of any activity in the conduct of any 22 business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this 23 state is or may be restrained or whereby

24 For the purpose of establishing or maintaining any such monopoly, 25 monopsony, or unlawfully interfering with the free exercise of any 26 activity in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the 27 furnishing of any service in this state any business, trade or commerce 28 or the furnishing of any service is or may be restrained, is hereby 29 declared to be against public policy, illegal and void.

30 2. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to monopolize or 31 monopsonize, or attempt to monopolize or monopsonize, or combine or 32 conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize or monopsonize 33 any business, trade or commerce or the furnishing of any service in this 34 state.

35 (b) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons with a dominant 36 position in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce, in any labor 37 market, or in the furnishing of any service in this state to abuse that 38 dominant position. This paragraph shall not apply to a person or 39 persons that are independently owned and operated and employ one hundred 40 or fewer persons.

41 (i) In any action brought under this paragraph, a person's dominant 42 position may be established by direct evidence, indirect evidence, or a 43 combination of the two.

44 (1) Examples of direct evidence include, but are not limited to, 45 reduction in output or in quality of goods or services, the imposition 46 of supracompetitive prices, or the ability to force, induce, or other-47 wise coerce a supplier to offer a lower price, discount, advertising 48 allowance, or other service than what the supplier offers others. In 49 labor markets, examples of direct evidence of a dominant position 50 include, but are not limited to, the imposition of subcompetitive wages 51 or working conditions; the repeated violation of laws protecting workers 52 such as labor laws, wage-and-hour laws, and workplace health and safety 53 laws; or the interference with, restraint of, or coercion of workers in 54 the exercise of their full freedom of association to obtain acceptable 55 terms and conditions of employment, including through self-organization, 56 designation of workplace representatives, and engagement in concerted

1 activities for the purposes of collective bargaining or other mutual aid
2 or protection. Direct evidence of dominant position includes conduct 3 that is carried out directly or indirectly through another entity or 4 person such as an independent contractor or other intermediary.

5 (2) A person's dominant position may also be established by indirect 6 evidence such as the person's share of a relevant market. A person who 7 has a share of forty percent or greater of a relevant market as a seller 8 shall be presumed to have a dominant position in that market under this 9 paragraph. A person who has a share of thirty percent or greater of a 10 relevant market as a buyer shall be presumed to have a dominant position 11 in that market under this paragraph. When determining a relevant market, 12 courts shall examine factors including, but not limited to, industry or 13 public recognition of the market as separate and distinct, the product's 14 peculiar characteristics and uses, unique protection facilities, 15 distinct customers, distinct prices, sensitivity to price changes, and 16 specialized vendors.

17 (3) If direct evidence is sufficient to demonstrate that a person has 18 a dominant position or has abused such a dominant position, no court 19 shall require definition of a relevant market in order to evaluate the 20 evidence, find liability, or find that a claim has been stated under 21 this paragraph.

22 (ii) In any action brought under this paragraph, abuse of a dominant 23 position may include, but is not limited to, conduct that tends to fore-24 close or limit the ability or incentive of one or more actual or poten-25 tial competitors to compete, such as leveraging a dominant position in 26 one market to limit competition in a separate market; refusing to deal 27 with another person with the effect of unnecessarily excluding or handi-28 capping actual or potential competitors; coercing the purchaser of one 29 product, service, or contract into purchasing or obtaining a separate 30 and distinct product, service, or contract; or engaging in, or coercing 31 a third party into, an exclusive agreement or contract that serves to 32 foreclose or increase costs for a competitor. In labor markets, abuse 33 may include, but is not limited to, imposing restraints, direct or indi-34 rect, on the mobility of workers between employers or on the ability of 35 workers to seek employment from multiple employers; restricting the 36 freedom of workers and independent contractors to disclose wage and 37 benefit information; and wage discrimination based on any undisclosed or 38 hidden considerations.

39 (c) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, the 40 following restraints are presumed to be illegal when engaged in by domi-41 nant firms:

42 (1) Any restraint that requires another person to deal exclusively or 43 primarily with the firm imposing the restraint or another person speci-44 fied by that firm or any restraint that has the necessary effect of 45 requiring another person to deal exclusively or primarily with the firm 46 imposing the restraint or another person specified by that firm;

47 (2) Any restraint that conditions the sale or purchase of any product 48 or services on an agreement to sell or purchase another product or 49 service;

50 (3) Any restraint on a person's ability to engage in a profession, 51 trade, or business of any kind, including any restraint on a person's 52 ability to employ another person;

53 (4) Any restraint on the prices or wages offered by another firm;

54 (5) Any restraint on another firm's right to independently decide 55 whether to recognize a union of its employees or to otherwise agree to 1 negotiate with its employees collectively over terms and conditions of 2 employment;

3 (6) Any restraint that the attorney general, through rulemaking, 4 determines poses a substantial risk of harming competition that is not 5 already presumed illegal;

6 (7) Any additional restraint that the attorney general determines, 7 through rulemaking, generally serves no legitimate business purpose that 8 cannot be achieved in some less restrictive way.

9 (ii) Subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall not apply if the defend-10 ant establishes, by clear and convincing evidence, that the pro-competi-11 tive benefits of the challenged conduct (1) are achievable only through 12 that conduct and (2) outweigh that conduct's harm to competition. The 13 harm to competition in one market from the challenged conduct may not be 14 offset by purported benefits in a separate market; and the harm to a 15 person or persons from the challenged conduct may not be offset by 16 purported benefits to another person or persons.

17 (d) (i) The attorney general is hereby empowered to adopt, promulgate, 18 amend, and repeal rules, as such term is defined in paragraph (a) of 19 subdivision two of section one hundred two of the state administrative 20 procedure act, to carry out the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdivi-21 sion, including those considerations specified in the findings and 22 declarations of the legislature for this act.

23 (ii) Before any such rule shall take effect, at such time that the 24 attorney general is prepared to file a notice of adoption pursuant to 25 subdivision five of section two hundred two of the state administrative 26 procedure act, the attorney general shall transmit a copy of the rule in 27 its final form to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker 28 of the assembly and, in addition, shall provide any relevant information 29 regarding the need for such rule. Such proposed rule, or proposed repeal 30 of a rule, is subject to the denial by both houses of the legislature 31 and shall take the form of a resolution. Each house of the legislature 32 shall have sixty days following the transmission of such rule to issue 33 denial by resolution or take no action. Such rule shall not take effect 34 if both houses pass a resolution denying such proposed rule within the 35 time prescribed by this subparagraph.

36 (iii) The attorney general shall issue guidance on how it will achieve 37 the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdivision. The attorney general 38 may issue other guidance with respect to paragraph (b) of this subdivi-39 sion.

40 (iv) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish the jurisdic-41 tion of the public service commission.

42 3. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided in this section, the 43 provisions of this article shall apply to licensed insurers, licensed 44 insurance agents, licensed insurance brokers, licensed independent 45 adjusters and other persons and organizations subject to the provisions 46 of the insurance law, to the extent not regulated by provisions of arti-47 cle twenty-three of the insurance law; and further provided, that noth-48 ing in this section shall apply to the marine insurances, including 49 marine protection and indemnity insurance and marine reinsurance, 50 exempted from the operation of article twenty-three of the insurance 51 law.

52 [3-] 4. The provisions of this article shall not apply to cooperative 53 associations, corporate or otherwise, of farmers, gardeners, or dairy-54 men, including live stock farmers and fruit growers, nor to contracts, 55 agreements or arrangements made by such associations, nor to bona fide 56 labor unions, nor to the creation, production, and dissemination of a single expressive work that is copyrighted, including but not limited to, a streaming series, television programs and/or motion pictures.

~~[4-]~~ 5. The labor of human beings shall not be deemed or held to be a commodity or article of commerce as such terms are used in this section and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit or restrict the right of workingmen, including employees and independent contractors, to combine in unions, organizations and associations, not organized for the purpose of profit, to establish or maintain union apprenticeship or training programs that may lead to any government-issued trade license, or to bargain collectively concerning their wages and the terms and conditions of their employment. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent or create liability with respect to any actions to comply with article eight or nine of the labor law. A bona fide collective bargaining agreement, project labor agreement or any other agreement lawful under 29 U.S.C. 158(f), as amended, or any term therein, shall not be considered evidence of a violation or dominance under this section. Project labor agreement shall have the meaning specified in section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law.

~~[5-]~~ 6. An action to recover damages caused by a violation of this section must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. The state, or any political subdivision or public authority of the state, or any person who shall sustain damages by reason of any violation of this section, shall recover three-fold the actual damages sustained thereby, as well as costs not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and reasonable attorneys' fees. At or before the commencement of any civil action by a party other than the attorney-general for a violation of this section, notice thereof shall be served upon the attorney-general. Where the aggrieved party is a political subdivision or public authority of the state, notice of intention to commence an action under this section must be served upon the attorney-general at least ten days prior to the commencement of such action. This section shall not apply to any action commenced prior to the effective date of this act.

~~[6-]~~ 7. In any action pursuant to this section, the fact that the state, or any political subdivision or public authority of the state, or any person who has sustained damages by reason of violation of this section has not dealt directly with the defendant shall not bar or otherwise limit recovery; provided, however, that in any action in which claims are asserted against a defendant by both direct and indirect purchasers, the court shall take all steps necessary to avoid duplicate liability, including but not limited to the transfer and consolidation of all related actions. In actions where both direct and indirect purchasers are involved, a defendant shall be entitled to prove as a partial or complete defense to a claim for damages that the illegal overcharge has been passed on to others who are themselves entitled to recover so as to avoid duplication of recovery of damages.

8. Any person harmed by this section, whether harmed directly or indirectly by the purported violation, shall be entitled to bring suit.

9. Any damages recoverable pursuant to this section may be recovered in any action which a court may authorize to be brought as a class action pursuant to article nine of the civil practice law and rules.

10. An arrangement, as this term is used in this article, includes, but is not limited to, a contract, combination, agreement or conspiracy.

11. (a) Any person conducting business in the state which is required to file the Notification and Report Form for Certain Mergers and Acquisitions pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, 15 U.S.C. s. 18a (a), shall provide the same notice and documentation in its entirety to the attorney general at the same time that notice is filed with the Federal Trade Commission and the assistant attorney general in charge of the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

(b) The following classes of transactions are exempt from the requirements of this section:

(i) acquisitions of goods or realty transferred in the ordinary course of business;

(ii) the creation, production, and dissemination of a single expressive work that is copyrighted, including but not limited to, a streaming series, television programs and/or motion pictures;

(iii) acquisitions of bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obligations which are not voting securities;

(iv) transfers to or from a federal agency or a state or political subdivision thereof;

(v) transactions specifically exempted from the provisions of this article;

(vi) transactions by, between, or among manufacturing, importing, or wholesale businesses that are directly regulated by the New York state liquor authority; and

(vii) such other acquisitions, transfers, or transactions, as may be exempted under paragraph (f) of this subdivision hereunder.

(c) Any information or documentary material filed with the attorney general pursuant to this subdivision shall be exempt from disclosure under article six of the public officers law, and no such information or documentary material may be made public, except as may be relevant to any administrative or judicial action or proceeding.

(d) Any person, or any officer, director, or partner thereof, who fails to comply with any provision of this subdivision shall be liable to the state for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each day during which such person is in violation of this section. Such penalty may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general.

(e) In considering any transaction under this subdivision, the attorney general shall consider such transaction's effects on labor markets, including but not limited to effects on workers' countervailing leverage, by establishing a process for affected workers or representatives designated by affected workers to meaningfully comment on such transactions within ten days following the filing of the transacting parties' notice and documentation of their intended transaction pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision eleven of this section. The attorney general shall establish this new process within ninety days following the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-four that amended this section.

(f) The attorney general is hereby empowered to:

(i) define the terms used in this subdivision;

(ii) exempt, from the requirements of this subdivision, classes of persons, acquisitions, transfers, or transactions which are not likely to violate the provisions of this article; and

(iii) adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind other rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.

§ 4. Section 341 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 333 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as follows:

§ 341. Penalty. Every person or corporation, or any officer or agent thereof, who shall ~~make or attempt to make or enter into any such contract, agreement, arrangement or combination or who within this state~~

1 ~~shall~~ do or attempt to do, within this state, any act [~~pursuant there-~~
2 ~~to~~] declared unlawful under subdivision one and paragraph (a) of subdivi-3 vision two of section three hundred forty of this article, or in, toward 4 or for the consummation thereof[, ~~wherever the same may have been made~~], 5 is guilty of a class [E] D felony, and on conviction thereof shall, if a 6 natural person, be punished by a fine not exceeding one [~~hundred thou-~~ 7 ~~sand~~] million dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than four 8 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and if a corporation, by a 9 fine of not exceeding one hundred million dollars. An indictment or 10 information based on a violation of any of the provisions of this 11 section must be found within [~~three~~] five years after its commission. No 12 criminal proceeding barred by prior limitation shall be revived by this 13 act.

14 § 5. Section 342-a of the general business law, as amended by chapter 15 275 of the laws of 1962, is amended to read as follows:

16 § 342-a. Recovery of civil penalty by attorney-general. In lieu of any 17 penalty otherwise prescribed for a violation of a provision of this 18 article and in addition to an action pursuant to section three hundred 19 forty-two of this article, the attorney-general may bring an action in 20 the name and in behalf of the people of the state against any person, 21 trustee, director, manager or other officer or agent of a corporation, 22 or against a corporation, foreign or domestic, to recover a penalty in 23 the sum specified in section three hundred forty-one of this article for 24 the doing in this state of any act [~~herein~~] declared to be illegal in 25 this article, or any act in, toward or for the making or consummation of 26 any contract, agreement, arrangement or combination [~~herein~~] prohibited 27 by this article, wherever the same may have been made. The action must 28 be brought within [~~three~~] five years after the commission of the act 29 upon which it is based.

30 § 6. Section 342-b of the general business law, as amended by chapter 31 420 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as follows:

32 § 342-b. Recovery of damages by attorney general. In addition to 33 existing statutory and common law authority to bring such actions on 34 behalf of the state, [~~and~~] public authorities, and resident persons and 35 entities, the attorney general may also bring action on behalf of any 36 political subdivision or public authority of the state upon the request 37 of such political subdivision or public authority, or in the name of the 38 state, as parens patriae, on behalf of persons and other entities resid-39 ing in the state of New York, to recover damages for violations of 40 section three hundred forty of this article, or to recover damages 41 provided for by federal law for violations of the federal antitrust 42 laws. In any class action the attorney general may bring on behalf of 43 [~~these or other subordinate~~] governmental entities, any governmental 44 entity that does not affirmatively exclude itself from the action, upon 45 due notice thereof, shall be deemed to have requested to be treated as a 46 member of the class represented in that action. The attorney general, 47 on behalf of the state of New York, shall be entitled to retain from any 48 moneys recovered in such actions the costs and expenses of such 49 services.

50 § 7. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 342-d 51 to read as follows:

52 § 342-d. Recovery of expert witnesses' fees and costs by attorney 53 general and private litigants. In any action alleging a violation of a 54 provision of this article, including actions brought under subdivision 55 twelve of section sixty-three of the executive law, the attorney general 56 and private litigants shall recover reasonable fees and costs for its

1 expert witnesses and consultants if the attorney general or private 2 litigants prevail in such action.

3 § 8. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 348
4 to read as follows:

5 § 348. Prohibition on unfair methods of competition. 1. Unfair methods
6 of competition are hereby declared unlawful. As used in this section, 7 "unfair methods of competition" shall mean and include any act or prac-8 tice that threatens an incipient violation of an anti-trust law, or 9 violates the policy or spirit of an anti-trust law because its effects 10 are comparable to or the same as a violation of the law, or otherwise 11 significantly threatens or harms competition.

12 2. The attorney general shall have the authority through rulemaking to 13 declare certain conduct or practices as unfair methods of competition.

14 § 9. Severability. If any provision of this act, or the application 15 thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid or unconstitu-16 tional, that invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other 17 provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without 18 the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this 19 end the provisions of this act are severable.

20 § 10. This act shall take effect immediately.
