1 advocate to represent the interests of residential utility customers.
2 The utility consumer advocate shall be appointed by the governor to a
3 term of six years, upon the advice and consent of the senate. The utili-
4 ty consumer advocate shall possess knowledge and experience in matters 5 affecting residential utility customers and shall be responsible for the 6 direction, control, and operation of the state office of the utility 7 consumer advocate, including its hiring of staff and retention of 8 experts for analysis and testimony in proceedings. The utility consumer 9 advocate shall not be removed for cause, but may be removed only after 10 notice and opportunity to be heard, and only for permanent disability, 11 malfeasance, a felony, or conduct involving moral turpitude. Exercise of 12 independent judgment in advocating positions on behalf of residential 13 utility customers shall not constitute cause for removal of the utility 14 consumer advocate.

15 § 28-c. Powers of the state office of the utility consumer advocate.
16 The state office of the utility consumer advocate shall have the power 17 and duty to: (a) initiate, intervene in, or participate on behalf of 18 residential utility customers in any proceedings before the commission, 19 the federal energy regulatory commission, the federal communications 20 commission, federal, state and local administrative and regulatory agen-
21 cies, and state and federal courts in any matter or proceeding that may 22 substantially affect the interests of residential utility customers, 23 including, but not limited to, a proposed change of rates, charges,
24 terms and conditions of service, the adoption of rules, regulations,
25 guidelines, orders, standards or final policy decisions where the utili-
26 ty consumer advocate deems such initiation, intervention or partic-
27 ipation to be necessary or appropriate;

28 (b) represent the interests of residential utility customers of the 29 state before federal, state and local administrative and regulatory 30 agencies engaged in the regulation of energy, telecommunications, water, 31 and other utility services, and before state and federal courts in 32 actions and proceedings to review the actions of utilities or orders of 33 utility regulatory agencies. Any action or proceeding brought by the 34 utility consumer advocate before a court or an agency shall be brought 35 in the name of the state office of the utility consumer advocate. The 36 utility consumer advocate may join with a residential utility customer 37 or group of residential utility customers in bringing an action;

38 (c) (i) in addition to any other authority conferred upon the utility 39 consumer advocate, such office is authorized, and it shall be their duty 40 to represent the interests of residential utility customers as a party, 41 or otherwise participate for the purpose of representing the interests
42 of such customers before any agencies or courts. The consumer advocate 43 may initiate proceedings if in their judgment doing so may be necessary 44 in connection with any matter involving the actions or regulation of 45 public utility companies whether on appeal or otherwise initiated. The 46 utility consumer advocate may monitor all cases before regulatory agen-
47 cies in the United States, including the federal communications commis-48 sion and the federal energy regulatory commission that affect the inter-49 ests of residential utility customers of the state and may formally 50 participate in those proceedings which in their judgment warrants such 51 participation.

52 (ii) the utility consumer advocate shall exercise their independent
53 discretion in determining the interests of residential utility customers 54 that will be advocated in any proceeding, and determining whether to 55 participate in or initiate any proceeding and, in so determining, shall 56 consider the public interest, the resources available, and the substan-

1 tiality of the effect of the proceeding on the interests of residential 2 utility customers;

3 (d) request and receive from any state or local authority, agency, 4 department or division of the state or political subdivision such 5 assistance, personnel, information, books, records, other documentation 6 and cooperation necessary to perform their duties; and

7 (e) enter into cooperative agreements with other government offices to 8 efficiently carry out their work.

9 § 28-d. Reports. On July first, two thousand twenty-six and annually 10 thereafter, the state office of the utility consumer advocate shall 11 issue a report to the governor and the legislature, and make such report 12 available to the public free of charge on a publicly available website, 13 containing, but not limited to, the following information:

14 (a) all proceedings that the state office of the utility consumer 15 advocate participated in and the outcome of such proceedings, to the 16 extent of such outcome, and if not confidential;

17 (b) estimated savings to residential utility consumers that resulted 18 from intervention by the state office of the utility consumer advocate; 19 and

20 (c) policy recommendations and suggested statutory amendments that the 21 state office of the utility consumer advocate deems necessary.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 23 the date on which it shall have become a law.
