4 secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation
5 against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the 6 client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attor-

10 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final 11 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-

18 or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceed-
19 ing. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January

43 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 44 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 45 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 46 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering
47 services from the reporting individual or [~~his or her~~] the reporting 48 individual's firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The 49 reporting individual need not identify any client to whom [~~he or she~~]
50 the reporting individual or [~~his or her~~] the reporting individual's firm
51 provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prose-
52 cution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate
53 planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting indi-
54 vidual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy 55 but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the 56 entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with

1 respect to matters in which the client's name is required by law to be 2 kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or 3 in matters in which the reporting individual represents or provides 4 services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To 5 the extent that the reporting individual, or [~~his or her~~] the reporting 6 individual's firm, provided legal representation with respect to an 7 initial public offering, and federal law or regulations restricts the 8 disclosure of information relating to such work, the reporting individ-
9 ual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client and the services
10 provided relating to the initial public offering to the office of court 11 administration, who will maintain such information confidentially in a 12 locked box; and (ii) include in [~~his or her~~] the reporting individual's 13 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 14 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 15 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 16 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 17 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response
18 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 19 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 20 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 21 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 22 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 23 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the 24 commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section
25 ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court adminis-
26 tration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the 27 following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking 28 my services in connection with:

29 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 30 reporting period;

31 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state 32 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

33 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency
34 during the reporting period;

35 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 36 reporting period; or

37 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a 38 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

39 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
40 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 41 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 42 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 43 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, 44 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 45 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 46 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 47 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; 48 and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has 49 any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how signif-
50 icant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade
51 secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation
52 against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the
53 client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attor-
54 ney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an 55 unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

1 The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case
 2 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final
 3 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-
 4 nation for its determination. The office of court administration shall 5 issue its final determination within three days of receiving the 6 request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional 7 disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any 8 client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute 9 professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind,
 10 or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceed-
 11 ing. A reporting individual who first enters public office after Decem-
