2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 21, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. HEVESI, EPSTEIN, WILLIAMS, WEPRIN, SIMON, SAYEGH, ROSENTHAL, PAULIN, JACKSON, GONZALEZ-ROJAS, FORREST, LEE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Social Services

AN ACT to amend the social services law, the executive law, and the public health law, in relation to providing for supports and services for unaccompanied minors with no lawful immigration status; and providing for the repeal of certain provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 2 of the social services law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 41 to read as follows:

3 41. "Unaccompanied minor" shall mean a child who, prior to release to 4 a New York resident sponsor, was in the custody of the federal office of 5 refugee resettlement and:

6 (a) has no lawful immigration status in the United States;

7 (b) had not attained eighteen years of age prior to being taken into 8 federal custody; and

9 (c) was not accompanied by a parent or legal guardian upon entry to 10 the United States or was accompanied by a parent or legal guardian but 11 subsequently separated from that parent or legal guardian upon entry to 12 the United States.

13 § 2. Article 5 of the social services law is amended by adding a new 14 title 12-B to read as follows:

TITLE 12-B

SUPPORTS AND SERVICES FOR UNACCOMPANIED MINORS

17 Section 370-f. Supports and services for unaccompanied minors.

18 370-g. Informational materials.

19 § 370-f. Supports and services for unaccompanied minors. 1. Unaccom-20 panied minors, as defined under section two of this chapter, shall be 21 eligible for a range of appropriate services and supports, which shall 22 be beneficial to the health, safety, and well-being of such minors. Such

1 services shall include, but not be limited to: health and behavioral 2 health services covered under paragraph (k) of subdivision two of 3 section twenty-five hundred eleven of the public health law; individual 4 counseling sessions with social workers; legal services provided under 5 section three hundred ninety-three-a of this chapter, which shall 6 include culturally and linguistically appropriate services provided by 7 attorneys, interpreters, and other support staff for representation in 8 state court proceedings, federal immigration proceedings, and any 9 appeals arising from such proceedings; language services; employment 10 assistance; bilingual support groups; and assistance with educational 11 rights and enrollment in public schools. Such support and services shall 12 not be deemed public benefits that would affect an unaccompanied minor's 13 immigration status under 8 USC 1182, as amended, and any regulations 14 promulgated thereunder.

15 2. Such services and supports shall be identified by an immigration 16 services liaison under section ninety-four-b of the executive law, which 17 shall, to the extent practicable, connect each unaccompanied minor with 18 resources in order to access such supports and services identified in 19 subdivision one of this section. The immigration services liaison shall 20 connect with unaccompanied minors prior to release to a sponsor deter-21 mined to be appropriate by the federal office of refugee resettlement, 22 to the extent practicable, but no later than upon referral pursuant to 23 section three hundred seventy-four-g or three hundred ninety-three-b of 24 this chapter.

25 3. Any individual or program providing such services and supports or 26 otherwise providing assistance to the unaccompanied minor shall ensure 27 they receive trauma informed training as well as training on how to 28 identify and appropriately react to unaccompanied minors who may have 29 experienced adverse childhood experiences. In addition, any services, 30 supports or assistance shall be provided in a culturally competent 31 manner.

32 § 370-g. Informational materials. 1. The office of children and family 33 services, in consultation with the office of mental health and the 34 office for new Americans, shall develop informational materials for 35 authorized agencies, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision ten of 36 section three hundred seventy-one of this chapter and out of state care 37 providers. Such informational materials shall include contact informa-38 tion for immigration services liaisons, as well as a general description 39 of the benefits unaccompanied minors as defined in section two of this 40 chapter are eligible for, pursuant to subdivision one of section three 41 hundred seventy-f of this title.

42 2. The informational materials shall be made available in English and 43 the six most common non-English languages spoken by individuals with 44 limited-English proficiency in the state of New York, based on United 45 States census data, and shall be published on the office of children and 46 family services, the office of mental health and the office for new 47 Americans' websites.

48 § 3. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 393-a 49 to read as follows:

50 § 393-a. Legal representation of unaccompanied minors. 1. An unaccom-51 panied minor, as defined in section two of this chapter, or minor in the 52 custody of the federal office of refugee resettlement while in the care 53 of an authorized agency, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision ten 54 of section three hundred seventy-one of this article, who is present in 55 this state and against whom an immigration proceeding may be or has been 56 commenced shall be entitled to representation by counsel through the 1 completion of such proceeding, including appeals and/or obtaining status 2 and other related assistance, pursuant to section ninety-four-d of the 3 executive law, including interpretation or translation services pursuant 4 to subdivision five of this section.

5 2. Representation and related assistance provided in accordance with 6 this section shall be a state charge, pursuant to section ninety-four-d 7 of the executive law.

8 3. (a) Upon receipt from a federal immigration authority of a civil 9 immigration detainer, or a request for transfer, notification, inter-10 view, interrogation or other request, an authorized agency, or agent 11 thereof, shall provide to the child, who is the subject of such detainer 12 or request, such child's sponsor, if sponsored, and such child's coun-13 sel, if represented:

14 (i) notification of such detainer or request;

15 (ii) a copy of such detainer or request;

16 (iii) notice regarding such child's right to counsel pursuant to this 17 section if such child is without counsel at the time of such detainer or 18 request; and

19 (iv) information as to whether or not such agency intends to comply 20 with such detainer or request.

21 (b) If such child is under the age of five at the time such detainer 22 or request is received, such information required pursuant to paragraph 23 (a) of this subdivision shall only be provided to such child's sponsor, 24 if sponsored, and such child's counsel, if represented.

25 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 26 a child in the care of an authorized agency may request to be inter-27 viewed by a federal law enforcement agency or an agent thereof only with 28 written authorization by such child's counsel, provided that if such 29 child is not represented and is entitled to counsel pursuant to this 30 section, the child shall be notified of such right and provided a 31 reasonable opportunity to obtain such counsel before any such interview.

32 5. In addition to any other right to the assistance of interpretation 33 or translation services, any foreign-born child, or child not proficient 34 in the English language, to whom inquiry is made pursuant to this 35 section shall be entitled to the assistance of a neutral and qualified 36 interpreter or translator, as the case may be, with respect to such 37 inquiry, provided at no cost or expense to such child.

38 6. This section shall supersede conflicting local laws, rules, poli-39 cies, procedures and practices, except to the extent that the provisions 40 of any such local law, rule, policy or any such procedure or practice 41 may provide any additional or greater right or protection. Nothing in 42 this section shall prohibit any authorized agency from cooperating with 43 a federal immigration authority to the extent required by federal law.
44 Nothing in this section shall be interpreted or applied so as to create 45 any power, duty or obligation in conflict with federal law.

46 § 4. Paragraphs (m) and (n) of subdivision 5 of section 94-b of the 47 executive law, as added by chapter 206 of the laws of 2014, are amended 48 and a new paragraph (o) is added to read as follows:

49 (m) Encourage and assist local governments in the development of 50 activities to enhance civic engagement among immigrants and in immigrant 51 communities; [~~and~~]

52 (n) Beginning in two thousand fifteen, by June fifteenth of each year, 53 produce a report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, and the 54 temporary president of the senate describing the activities of the 55 office, including but not limited to, summarizing calls received through 56 the hotline and website, information on ESOL training services provided

1 by the office, the number of immigrants assisted through the opportunity 2 centers, or an estimation thereof, the status of any workforce develop-3 ment programs, and any other relevant information[-]; and

4 (o) Establish an immigration services liaison to assist unaccompanied 5 minors as defined in section two of the social services law, in order to 6 access appropriate supports and services for such minors. The office may 7 work in conjunction with the office of temporary and disability assist-8 ance, the office of children and family services and the office of 9 mental health in order to effectuate their duties under this provision.

10 § 5. Paragraphs (o) and (p) of subdivision 5 of section 94-b of the 11 executive law, as added by chapter 625 of the laws of 2024, are amended 12 and a new paragraph (q) is added to read as follows:

13 (o) Encourage the development of and provide for the establishment of 14 a state military immigrant family legacy program liaison, as provided in 15 section twenty-nine-b of the veterans' services law; [and]

16 (p) Request individuals seeking assistance from the office answer the 17 following questions: "Have you served in the United States military?"
18 "Has someone in your family served in the United States military?"
19 Individuals identifying themselves or a family member as "intended 20 recipients" of the staff sergeant Alex R. Jimenez New York state mili-21 tary immigrant family legacy program as such term is defined in para-22 graph (e) of subdivision one of section twenty-nine-b of the veterans' 23 services law, shall be advised of such program. In addition, such indi-24 viduals shall be informed that the department of veterans' services and 25 local veterans' service agencies established pursuant to section seven-26 teen of the veterans' services law provide assistance to uniformed 27 service members, veterans and their families regarding benefits avail-28 able under federal and state law. Information regarding veterans and 29 military status provided by assisted individuals shall be protected as 30 personal confidential material, and used only to identify such individ-31 uals as "intended recipients" of the staff sergeant Alex R. Jimenez New 32 York State military immigrant family legacy program, and to assist such 33 individuals in matters relating to immigration status and citizenship, 34 and in referring such individuals to the department of veterans' 35 services or local veterans' service agencies for information and assist-36 ance with regard to benefits and entitlements under federal and state 37 law[-]; and

38 (q) Establish an immigration services liaison to assist unaccompanied 39 minors as defined in section two of the social services law, in order to 40 access appropriate supports and services for such minors. The office may 41 work in conjunction with the office of temporary and disability assist-42 ance, the office of children and family services and the office of 43 mental health in order to effectuate their duties under this provision.

44 § 6. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 374-g 45 to read as follows:

46 § 374-g. Unaccompanied minors released by authorized agencies. 1.
47 Every authorized agency as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision ten 48 of section three hundred seventy-one of this title, that releases an 49 unaccompanied minor, as defined in section two of this chapter, in New 50 York to a sponsor that is a New York resident, and deemed to be appro-51 priate by the federal office of refugee resettlement, shall provide the 52 unaccompanied minor and their sponsor with: (a) direct referrals to 53 immigration services liaisons under section ninety-four-b of the execu-54 tive law; (b) informational materials developed by the office of chil-55 dren and family services, informing them of available supports and 56 services the unaccompanied minor is eligible for upon release into New York as defined in section three hundred seventy-f of this chapter; and (c) notification of such minor's right to counsel under section three hundred ninety-four of this title.

2. Such informational materials shall be provided to both the unaccompanied minor and the sponsor, unless such unaccompanied minor is under the age of five, in which case such informational materials may be provided solely to the sponsor.

§ 7. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 393-b to read as follows:

§ 393-b. Unaccompanied minors released by out of state care providers.

1. Every out of state care provider that releases an unaccompanied minor, as defined in section two of this chapter, in New York to a sponsor that is a New York resident, and deemed to be appropriate by the federal office of refugee resettlement, shall provide the unaccompanied minor and their sponsor with: (a) direct referrals to an immigration services liaison under section ninety-four-b of the executive law; (b) informational materials developed by the office of children and family services, informing them of available supports and services the unaccompanied minor is eligible for upon release into New York as defined in section three hundred seventy-f of this chapter; and (c) notification of such minor's right to counsel under section three hundred ninety-three-a of this title.

2. Such informational materials shall be provided to both the unaccompanied minor and the sponsor, unless such unaccompanied minor is under the age of five, in which case such informational materials may be provided solely to the sponsor.

§ 8. Subdivision 2 of section 2511 of the public health law is amended by adding a new paragraph (k) to read as follows:

(k) Where an applicant for a subsidy payment pursuant to subdivision three of this section is an unaccompanied minor as defined in section two of the social services law, such unaccompanied minor shall be eligible for such subsidy.

§ 9. Subdivision 7 of section 2510 of the public health law, as amended by section 1 of part DDD of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

7. "Covered health care services" means: the services of physicians, optometrists, nurses, nurse practitioners, midwives and other related professional personnel which are provided on an outpatient basis, including routine well-child visits; diagnosis and treatment of illness and injury; inpatient health care services; laboratory tests; diagnostic x-rays; prescription and non-prescription drugs, ostomy and other medical supplies and durable medical equipment; radiation therapy; chemotherapy; hemodialysis; outpatient blood clotting factor products and other treatments and services furnished in connection with the care of hemophilia and other blood clotting protein deficiencies; emergency room services; ambulance services; hospice services; emergency, preventive and routine dental care, including orthodontia but excluding cosmetic surgery; emergency, preventive and routine vision care, including eyeglasses; speech and hearing services; inpatient and outpatient mental health, alcohol and substance abuse services, including children and family treatment and support services, children's home and community based services, assertive community treatment services and residential rehabilitation for youth services which shall be reimbursed in accordance with the ambulatory patient group (APG) rate-setting methodology as utilized by the department of health, the office of addiction services and supports, or the office of mental health for rate-setting purposes

1 or any such other fees established pursuant to article forty-three of 2 the mental hygiene law; and health-related services provided by volun-
3 tary foster care agency health facilities licensed pursuant to article 4 twenty-nine-I of this chapter; as defined by the commissioner. For unac-5 companied minors, as such term is defined by section two of the social 6 services law, covered health care services shall also include: (a) chil-7 dren's mental health rehabilitation services including, but not limited 8 to, those added to the Medicaid state plan in January of two thousand 9 nineteen, other licensed practitioner services, community psychiatric 10 support and treatment services, and psychosocial rehabilitation 11 services, assuming such children's mental health rehabilitation services 12 are provided by individuals acting within their lawful scope of practice 13 as established under the education law; and (b) trauma informed care 14 that includes the identification of and appropriate reaction and treat-15 ment to adverse childhood experiences. "Covered health care services" 16 shall not include drugs, procedures and supplies for the treatment of 17 erectile dysfunction when provided to, or prescribed for use by, a 18 person who is required to register as a sex offender pursuant to article 19 six-C of the correction law, provided that any denial of coverage of 20 such drugs, procedures or supplies shall provide the patient with the 21 means of obtaining additional information concerning both the denial and 22 the means of challenging such denial.

23 § 10. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 94-e to 24 read as follows:

25 § 94-e. Representation for unaccompanied minors. 1. The office for new 26 Americans, in consultation with the office of court administration and 27 indigent legal services, shall be responsible for facilitating access to 28 representation and related assistance in immigration-related matters 29 provided pursuant to section three hundred ninety-three-a of the social 30 services law. Any services provided shall be compensated in accordance 31 with this section. The office may enter into an agreement with a legal 32 aid society or other not-for-profit organization with appropriate exper-33 tise and experience in immigration-related matters for the society or 34 organization to provide such representation and related services. The 35 agreement shall be in a form approved by the director of the office for 36 new Americans and shall provide a general plan for a program of services 37 to be provided by such society or organization.

38 2. All expenses for services provided under this section shall be a 39 state charge to be paid out of funds appropriated to the office for that 40 purpose. Counsel utilized hereunder shall receive compensation at an 41 hourly rate for time expended in court and for time reasonably expended 42 out of court, and shall receive payment for expenses reasonably 43 incurred. The director of the office for new Americans shall establish 44 rules and regulations regarding reasonable compensation and reimburse-45 ment for other services provided. No counsel or other service provider 46 utilized pursuant to this section shall seek or accept any fee for 47 representing such person.

48 § 11. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 49 part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdic-50 tion to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, 51 the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder there-52 of, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, 53 paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the contro-54 versy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

55 § 12. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that:

1 (a) sections one, two, four, six, seven, eight, nine, and ten of this 2 act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a 3 law;
4 (b) section five of this act shall take effect on the same date and in 5 the same manner as section 4 of chapter 625 of the laws of 2024, takes 6 effect; and
7 (c) paragraph (o) of subdivision 5 of section 94-b of the executive 8 law, as added by section four of this act, shall expire and be deemed 9 repealed on the same date that section 4 of chapter 625 of the laws of 10 2024, takes effect.
