IN ASSEMBLY

January 21, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. LUNSFORD, COLTON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT in relation to directing the president of the state civil service commission to conduct a study on job vacancies across state agencies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The president of the state civil service commission shall 2 conduct a comprehensive study on the number of job vacancies within 3 state agencies to determine which agencies are currently understaffed.

4 § 2. 1. Such study shall examine how many full-time and part-time
5 positions are budgeted for in each agency, how many of those budgeted 6 for positions remain vacant, and how long those positions have been 7 vacant.

8 2. Such study shall include recommendations based on the data examined 9 as to whether the state can take additional action to market or inform 10 the public of state job opportunities and if so, what specific actions 11 should be taken.

12 § 3. For the purposes of this section, the president of the state 13 civil service commission may conduct such study in conjunction with any 14 other department, division, board, bureau, commission, agency, or public 15 authority of the state deemed necessary. To the maximum extent feasible, 16 the president of the state civil service commission shall be authorized 17 to request, receive, and utilize such resources and data of any other 18 department, division, board, bureau, commission, agency, or public
19 authority of the state as such president of the state civil service 20 commission may reasonably request to properly carry such president of 21 the state civil service commission's powers and duties pursuant to this 22 act.

23 § 4. The president of the state civil service commission shall report 24 on the results of the study described in this act within one year from 25 the effective date of this act. Such report shall be made publicly
