Introduced by M. of A. CRUZ, FORREST, ZACCARO, GALLAGHER, GONZALEZ-ROJAS, STIRPE, WEPRIN, BORES, HEVESI, PAULIN, RIVERA, RAGA, RAMOS, SHRESTHA, SIMON, SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, the executive law and the civil service law, in relation to enacting the New York emergency expedited temporary work permit act; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York
2 emergency expedited temporary work permit act".

3 § 2. Legislative finding and intent. The federal immigration law has 4 become outdated and an impediment to New York state's ability to quickly
5 and properly integrate asylum seekers allowed to enter the United States
6 of America. Current federal law requires that an asylum seeker wait
7 150 days before applying for a work permit. Current work permit appli-8 cations can take anywhere from 5 months to 14 months to process, leaving 9 asylum seekers without the legal paperwork to support themselves and 10 their families. Asylum seekers desperate to provide shelter, food, and 11 living expenses for themselves and their families are forced to work 12 without proper documentation leaving them open to exploitation from 13 employers that range from working in dangerous conditions without train-14 ing to having their wages stolen. In view of the current federal 15 inaction to expedite federal work permit applications for asylum seek-16 ers, it is incumbent on New York state to exercise its state's constitu-17 tional duties and the powers reserved to states under the federal 18 constitution and enact a worker permit program.

19 § 3. The labor law is amended by adding a new article 4-B to read as 20 follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

The state and municipal civil service commissions may, by rule, provide for the appointment of persons who are asylum seekers and who are issued worker permits under article four-B of the labor law.
