AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law and the state finance law, in relation to the disposition of certain fees and penalties

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 71-0211 of the environ-2 mental conservation law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 60 of the 3 laws of 1993, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 460 of the laws of 4 1991, are amended to read as follows:
5 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all 6 fines and penalties collected pursuant to title nineteen of this arti-7 cle, except amounts required to be paid into the conservation fund 8 pursuant to subdivision two of section 71-1929 of such title; title 9 twenty-one of this article; title twenty-seven of this article, except 10 amounts required to be paid into the hazardous waste remedial fund 11 pursuant to subdivision two of section 71-2725 of such title; and title 12 forty-one of this article shall be paid into the [~~general fund to the~~ 13 ~~credit of the state purposes account~~] conservation fund to the credit of 14 the conservation enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision
15 (k) of section eighty-three of the state finance law.
16 2. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, not later than the tenth 17 day of each month, all fines, penalties and forfeitures collected for 18 violations of this chapter or rules, regulations, local laws or ordi-

1 nances adopted thereunder under judgment of any town or village court, 2 shall be paid over by such court to the comptroller of the state, with a 3 statement accompanying the same, setting forth the action or proceeding 4 in which such moneys were collected, the name and residence of the 5 defendant, the nature of the offense, and the fines and penalty imposed.
6 The comptroller shall pay these funds into the [~~general fund of the~~ 7 ~~state~~] conservation fund to the credit of the conservation enforcement 8 account established pursuant to subdivision (k) of section eighty-three 9 of the state finance law.

10 § 2. Section 83 of the state finance law is amended by adding a new 11 subdivision (k) to read as follows:

12 (k) All moneys, revenue, and interest thereon received and collected 13 pursuant to titles nineteen, twenty-one and twenty-seven of article 14 seventy-one of the environmental conservation law, and pursuant to 15 section 71-0211 of the environmental conservation law, other than those 16 amounts prescribed by law to be directed into other funds, shall be 17 deposited in a special account within the conservation fund to be known 18 as the conservation enforcement account. All of such moneys, revenues 19 and interest shall be available to the department of environmental 20 conservation, pursuant to appropriation, exclusively for funding the 21 enforcement of the environmental conservation law, including funding for 22 scientists, environmental law enforcement officers, attorneys, adminis-
23 trative support, and such other expenses the commissioner deems neces-24 sary for such enforcement. Such money shall be used to supplement and 25 not supplant funding for the enforcement of the environmental conserva-
26 tion law as of the effective date of this subdivision. The department 27 shall annually submit to the temporary president of the senate, the 28 speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate, and the 29 minority leader of the assembly, following one year after the effective 30 date of this subdivision, an annual expenditure report of the conserva-31 tion fund.

32 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 71-0213 of the environmental conserva-
33 tion law, as added by section 1 of part DDD of chapter 59 of the laws of 34 2009, is amended to read as follows:

35 1. Whenever proceedings result in a conviction for an offense under 36 this chapter there shall be levied, in addition to any sentence required 37 or permitted by law, the following mandatory surcharges: (a) in the 38 amount of twenty-five dollars for violations of sportfishing regulations 39 set forth in 6 NYCRR 10; (b) in the amount of [~~seventy-five dollars~~] one 40 hundred twelve dollars and fifty cents for all other offenses under this 41 chapter provided, however, that convictions for offenses under articles 42 seventeen, nineteen or twenty-seven of this chapter shall be subject to 43 a mandatory surcharge equal to the greater of [~~seventy-five dollars~~] one 44 hundred twelve dollars and fifty cents or [~~six~~] nine percent of any 45 penalty or fine imposed. The mandatory surcharge shall be paid to the 46 clerk of the court who shall remit such mandatory surcharge to the state 47 comptroller provided, however, that in cases where the conviction was 48 rendered by a town or a village justice court, the clerk of such court 49 shall pay twenty-five dollars of such surcharge to the chief fiscal 50 officer of the town or village in the case of surcharges resulting from 51 paragraph (b) of this subdivision and ten dollars in the case of 52 surcharges resulting from paragraph (a) of this subdivision and shall 53 pay the remaining amounts of such mandatory surcharges to the state 54 comptroller in the same manner as provided in section 71-0211 of this 55 article. The comptroller shall pay such monies into the state treasury 56 to the [~~credit of the general fund~~] conservation fund to the credit of

1 the conservation enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision
2 (k) of section eighty-three of the state finance law.

3 § 4. Section 71-0301 of the environmental conservation law, as amended
4 by chapter 400 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 71-0301. Summary abatement.

6 Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, whenever the 7 commissioner finds, after investigation, that any person is causing, 8 engaging in or maintaining a condition or activity which, in ~~[his]~~ the 9 judgment of the commissioner, presents an imminent danger to the health 10 or welfare of the people of the state or results in or is likely to 11 result in irreversible or irreparable damage to natural resources, and 12 relates to the prevention and abatement powers of the commissioner and 13 it therefore appears to be prejudicial to the interests of the people of 14 the state to delay action until an opportunity for a hearing can be 15 provided, the commissioner may, without prior hearing, order such person 16 by notice, in writing wherever practicable or in such other form as in 17 the commissioner's judgment will reasonably notify such person whose 18 practices are intended to be proscribed, to discontinue, abate or alle-19 viate such condition or activity, and thereupon such person shall imme-20 diately discontinue, abate or alleviate such condition or activity. As 21 promptly as possible thereafter, not to exceed fifteen days, the commis-22 sioner shall provide the person an opportunity to be heard and to pres-23 ent proof that such condition or activity does not violate the 24 provisions of this section. The commissioner shall adopt any other 25 appropriate rules and regulations prescribing the procedure to be 26 followed in the issuance of such orders. Any person who violates any of 27 the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by this 28 section, or any rule, regulation or order promulgated by the commis-29 sioner hereunder, shall be liable to a civil penalty of not more than ~~[twen-~~ 30 ~~ty-five hundred]~~ three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars for each 31 such violation and an additional penalty of not more than ~~[five]~~ seven 32 hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such violation contin-33 ues, and, in addition thereto, such person may be enjoined from continu-34 ing such violation. Penalties and injunctive relief provided herein 35 shall be recoverable in an action brought by the attorney general at the 36 request and in the name of the commissioner.

37 § 5. Subdivisions 3 and 4 of section 71-0507 of the environmental 38 conservation law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 400 of the laws of 39 1973, are amended to read as follows:

40 3. Moneys received by a town justice or a village justice in any 41 action for a penalty brought under the provisions of this chapter listed 42 in section 71-0501 of titles 5 through 15 inclusive and title 33 or upon 43 the settlement or compromise thereof, or a fine for a violation of the 44 provisions of this chapter listed in section 71-0501 and titles 5 45 through 15 inclusive and title 33 of this article shall be paid to the 46 State Comptroller as provided in section 27 of the Town Law and section 47 4-410 of the village law. From the moneys so received, the State Comp-48 troller shall pay all lawful fees for services rendered in such actions 49 when instituted by order of the department or upon information of a 50 conservation officer, regional and assistant regional conservation offi-51 cer, special game protector, district ranger, forest ranger, or member 52 of the state police. The balance of such moneys arising from penalties 53 under ~~[articles]~~ article 11 or 13 ~~[or title 9]~~ of this ~~[article]~~ chapter 54 or upon the settlement or compromise thereof or from fines for 55 violations of any of the provisions of ~~[articles]~~ article 11 or 13 ~~[or~~ 56 ~~title 9]~~ of this ~~[article]~~ chapter after the payment of lawful fees

shall be credited by the Comptroller to the conservation fund. The Comptroller shall adjust and settle ~~his~~ their account with the conservation fund in the manner provided by section 99-a of the State Finance Law. The balance of all other such moneys after payment of lawful fees shall be credited by the Comptroller to the ~~[general fund]~~ conservation fund to the credit of the conservation enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision (k) of section eighty-three of the state finance law.

4. All moneys received by any other person or court in an action for a penalty brought under the provisions of this chapter listed in section 71-0501 and titles 5 through 15 inclusive and title 33 of this article or upon the settlement or compromise thereof, or a fine for a violation of the provisions of this chapter listed in section 71-0501 and titles 5 through 15 inclusive and title 33 of this article, shall be paid by such person or court to the department within thirty days after receipt thereof. The department shall pay the expenses of collection and the lawful fees of magistrates and constables for services performed in criminal actions brought upon information of a conservation officer, regional and assistant regional conservation officer, special game protector, district ranger, forest ranger, or member of the state police. Such moneys derived from fines or penalties for violations of ~~[articles]~~ article 11 or 13 [or title 9] of this ~~[article]~~ chapter or from the settlement or compromise thereof shall be paid by the department to the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance and credited to the conservation fund. All other moneys so received by the department shall be paid to the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance and credited to the ~~[general fund]~~ conservation fund to the credit of the conservation enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision (k) of section eighty-three of the state finance law.

§ 6. Section 71-0707 of the environmental conservation law is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-0707. Resisting or obstructing departmental agent or employee.

Any person who resists or obstructs an authorized agent or employee of the department while ~~he~~ such agent or employee is engaged in carrying out any provision of section 9-0305 shall be guilty of a violation which shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars and by an additional fine ~~of~~ not exceeding ~~twenty-five~~ thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents for each additional day of such resistance or obstruction.

§ 7. Section 71-0709 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 640 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-0709. Injury to state lands.

Any person who intentionally or negligently causes a fire which burns on or over state lands shall be liable to the state for treble damages and, in addition, to a civil penalty of ~~ten~~ fifteen dollars for every tree killed or destroyed by such fire. Damages to state lands and timber shall be ascertained and determined at the same rate of value as if such property were privately owned.

§ 8. Section 71-0711 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 640 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-0711. Injury to municipal or private lands.

Any person who causes a fire which burns on or over lands belonging to another person or to a municipality shall be liable to the party injured (a) for actual damages in case of fire negligently caused or (b) for the higher of actual damages or damages at the rate of ~~five~~ seven dollars

1 and fifty cents for each tree killed or destroyed in case of fire 2 wilfully caused.

3 § 9. Section 71-1107 of the environmental conservation law, as amended
4 by chapter 640 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 71-1107. Punishment for violations of title 5 of article 15.

6 1. A violation of section 15-0501, 15-0503 or 15-0505, shall consti-
7 tute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed ~~[ten]~~ fifteen 8 thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed one year or by both 9 such fine and imprisonment and, in addition thereto, by a civil penalty 10 of not more than ~~[five thousand]~~ seven thousand five hundred dollars.

11 2. A subcontractor, employee or agent of such person or public corpo-12 ration, or of a state department who knowingly and intentionally acts, 13 or a prime contractor of such person, public corporation or state 14 department who acts with or without an intention to violate the 15 provisions of title 5 of article 15, in disregard of specifications 16 provided in a construction contract protecting against stream damage, 17 shall be guilty of a violation punishable by a fine of not less than 18 ~~[twenty-five]~~ thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents, nor more than ~~[two~~ 19 ~~hundred-fifty]~~ three hundred seventy-five dollars, or by imprisonment 20 for not more than fifteen days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, 21 and, in addition, thereto, by a civil penalty of not more than ~~[five~~ 22 ~~thousand]~~ seven thousand five hundred dollars.

23 § 10. Section 71-1109 of the environmental conservation law, as 24 amended by chapter 364 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as 25 follows:

26 § 71-1109. Enforcement of subdivisions 1 and 4 of section 15-0507.

27 1. Any owner violating subdivision 1 of section 15-0507 or any regu-28 lations promulgated pursuant thereto may be liable for a penalty not to 29 exceed ~~[five]~~ seven hundred fifty dollars for each and every offense; 30 every violation of such subdivision shall be a separate and distinct 31 offense; and in case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance 32 thereof shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.

33 2. Any owner violating subdivision 4 of section 15-0507 may be liable 34 for a penalty not to exceed ~~[five thousand]~~ seven thousand five hundred 35 dollars for each and every offense; every violation of an order referred 36 to in such subdivision shall be a separate and distinct offense; and in 37 case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance thereof shall be 38 deemed a separate and distinct offense.

§ 71-1711. Willful violation of health laws.

1. A person who willfully violates or refuses or omits to comply with any lawful order or regulation prescribed by any local board of health or local health officer, is guilty of a misdemeanor; except, however, that where such order or regulation applies to a tenant with respect to [~~his~~] such tenant's own dwelling unit or to an owner occupied one or two family dwelling, such person is guilty of an offense for the first violation punishable by a fine not to exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-five dollars and for a second or subsequent violation is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars or by imprisonment not to exceed six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

2. A person who willfully violates any provision of this chapter listed in section 71-1701, or of titles 17 through 21 inclusive of this article, or any regulation lawfully made or established by any public officer or board under authority of such provisions, the punishment for violating which is not otherwise prescribed by such provisions or any other law, is punishable by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding [~~two~~] three thousand dollars or by both.

§ 23. Section 71-1725 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 400 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-1725. Assessment of Penalties.

The commissioner may assess any penalty prescribed for a violation of or a failure to comply with any provision contained in this title or listed in section 71-1701, or any lawful notice, order or regulation prescribed by the commissioner under any such provision, one thousand five hundred dollars for every such violation or failure, which penalty may be assessed after a hearing or an opportunity to be heard.

§ 24. Section 71-1905 of the environmental conservation law is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-1905. Enforcement of section 17-1705.

Any person violating any provision of section 17-1705 shall forfeit to the county where the violation occurred the sum of [~~fifty~~] seventy-five dollars for every such violation.

§ 25. Subdivision 1 of section 71-1907 of the environmental conservation law is amended to read as follows:

1. Every person violating any provision of section 17-1707 shall forfeit to the municipality having a local board of health where the violation occurs the sum of [~~twenty-five~~] thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents for the first day when the violation takes place, and the sum of [~~ten~~] fifteen dollars for every subsequent day that such violation is repeated or continued.

§ 26. Subdivision 2 of section 71-1909 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 35 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

2. Any person violating any provision of section 17-1709 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not more than [~~seven hundred fifty~~] one thousand one hundred twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 27. Section 71-1911 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 36 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-1911. Enforcement of section 17-1711.

Any person violating any provision of section 17-1711 shall be guilty of an offense, and punishable by a fine of not more than [~~seventy-five~~] one hundred twelve dollars and fifty cents.

§ 28. Subdivision 2 of section 71-1913 of the environmental conservation law is amended to read as follows:

2. Any person violating any provision of section 17-1713 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not more than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 29. Subdivision 1 of section 71-1915 of the environmental conservation law is amended to read as follows:

1. Any person violating any provision of section 17-1715 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not more than

1 ~~[five]~~ seven hundred fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than 2 one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

3 § 30. Subdivision 1 of section 71-1921 of the environmental conserva-
4 tion law is amended to read as follows:

5 1. Any person putting in or constructing or maintaining a conduit, 6 discharge pipe or other means of discharging or casting any refuse or 7 waste matter in violation of section 17-1729 shall forfeit to the people 8 of the state ~~[five]~~ seven dollars and fifty cents a day for each day the 9 same is used or maintained for such purpose, to be collected in an 10 action brought by the commissioner.

11 § 31. Subdivision 1 of section 71-1929 of the environmental conserva-
12 tion law, as amended by section 37 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
13 of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

14 1. A person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to 15 perform any duty imposed by titles 1 through 11 inclusive and title 19 16 of article 17, or the rules, regulations, orders or determinations of 17 the commissioner promulgated thereto or the terms of any permit issued 18 thereunder, shall be liable to a penalty of not to exceed ~~[thirty-seven~~ 19 ~~thousand-five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars per 20 day for each violation, and, in addition thereto, such person may be 21 enjoined from continuing such violation as hereinafter provided.
22 Violation of a permit condition shall constitute grounds for revocation 23 of such permit, which revocation may be accomplished either as provided 24 in paragraph f of subdivision 4 of section 17-0303 or by order of judg-25 ment of the supreme court as an alternate or additional civil penalty in 26 an action brought pursuant to subdivision 3 of this section.

29 law, subdivision 1 as amended by section 38 and subparagraphs i, ii, iii 30 and iv of paragraph b of subdivision 8 as amended by section 39 of part 31 C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as follows:

32 1. Any person who, having any of the culpable mental states defined in 33 section 15.05 of the penal law, shall violate any of the provisions of 34 titles 1 through 5, 9 through 11 and 19 of article 17 or the rules, 35 regulations, orders or determinations of the commissioner promulgated 36 thereto, or the terms of any permit issued thereunder, shall be guilty 37 of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a 38 fine of not less than ~~[three thousand seven hundred fifty]~~ five thousand 39 six hundred twenty-five dollars nor more than ~~[thirty-seven thousand~~ 40 ~~five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars per day of 41 violation or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or by 42 both such fine and imprisonment. If the conviction is for an offense 43 committed after a first conviction of such person under this subdivi-44 sion, punishment shall be by a fine of not more than ~~[seventy-five thou-~~ 45 ~~sand]~~ one hundred twelve thousand five hundred dollars per day of 46 violation, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by both.

47 i. ~~[$750,000]~~ $1,125,000 for a class C felony committed by an organ-48 ization as defined in section 71-1932 of this title;

50 iii. ~~[$75,000]~~ $112,500 per day of continuing violation for a class E 51 felony defined under subdivision four of this section but in no event
52 less than ~~[$7,500]~~ $11,250; and ~~[$15,000]~~ $22,500 for a class E felony 53 defined under subdivision seven of this section;

54 iv. ~~[$37,500]~~ $56,250 per day of continuing violation for a class A 55 misdemeanor but in no event less than ~~[$3,750]~~ $5,625.

§ 33. Paragraph b of subdivision 3 of section 71-1939 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 543 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

b. All fines and penalties collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid to the district or county, provided, however, that one-quarter of such fines and penalties received shall be paid to the ~~[general fund to the credit of the state purposes account]~~ conservation fund to the credit of the conservation enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision (k) of section eighty-three of the state finance law.

§ 34. Subdivision 1 of section 71-1941 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 40 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. Except where the owner of or a person in actual or constructive possession or control of more than one thousand one hundred gallons, in bulk, of any liquid including petroleum which, if released, would or would be likely to pollute the lands or waters of the state including the groundwaters thereof can prove that the entry or presence of any part of such liquid onto such lands or into or in such waters causing or contributing to a condition therein in contravention of the standards adopted or deemed adopted by the water pollution control board or any of its legal successors was caused solely by (A) an act of God, (B) an act of war, (C) negligence on the part of the United States or New York State Government or (D) an act or omission of a third party without regard to whether any such act or omission was or was not negligent, or any combination of the foregoing clauses, such owner or person shall be liable for a penalty of not more than ~~[three thousand seven hundred fifty]~~ five thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars for an initial incident resulting in or contributing to such a contravention and for an additional penalty not to exceed ~~[seven hundred fifty]~~ one thousand one hundred twenty-five dollars for each day during which such contravention or contribution thereto continues, and in addition shall be liable to the people of the state of New York for the actual costs incurred by or on behalf of the people of the state for the removal or neutralization of such liquid and for any and all reasonable measures taken or attempted to reduce, limit or diminish the extent or effect of such contravention.

§ 35. Section 71-1943 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 41 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-1943. Enforcement of section 17-1743.

Any person who fails to so notify the department of such release, discharge or spill into the waters of the state as described in section 17-1743 of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than ~~[three thousand seven hundred fifty]~~ five thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

§ 36. Section 71-2111 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 400 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-2111. Enforcement of air pollution emergency rules and regulations.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of any regulation promulgated by the commissioner under authority of paragraph y of subdivision one of section 3-0301 shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than ~~[twenty-five]~~ three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty of not more than ~~[five]~~ seven hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such violation continues, and, in addition thereto, such persons may be enjoined from continuing such violation. Penalties and injunctive relief provided herein shall be recoverable in an action brought by the attorney general at the request and in the name of the commissioner.

§ 37. Section 71-2113 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 942 of the laws of 1984, subdivision 1 as amended by section 23 and subdivision 2 as amended by section 24 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-2113. Violations of section 19-0304 of article 19 of this chapter.

1. Civil and administrative sanctions. Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by section 19-0304 of this chapter, or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determination or order of the commissioner made pursuant to article 19 of this chapter concerning a violation of section 19-0304 of this chapter shall be liable in the case of a first violation, for a civil penalty not to exceed ~~[thirty-seven thousand five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars and an additional penalty of not more than ~~[thirty-seven thousand five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such violation continues, to be assessed by the commissioner after an opportunity to be heard pursuant to the provisions of section 71-1709 of this article, or by the court in any action or proceeding pursuant to section 71-2107 of this title, and, in addition thereto, such person may by similar process be enjoined from continuing such violation and any permit or certificate issued to such person may be revoked or suspended or a pending renewal application denied. In the case of a second and any further violation, the liability shall be for a civil penalty not to exceed ~~[seventy-five]~~ one hundred twelve thousand five hundred dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty not to exceed seventy-five thousand dollars for each day during which such violation continues.

2. Criminal sanctions. Any person who, having any of the culpable mental states defined in section 15.05 of the penal law, shall violate any of the provisions of or who fails to perform any duty imposed by section 19-0304 of this chapter, or any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determination or order of the commissioner made pursuant to article 19 of this chapter concerning a violation of section 19-0304 of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall for a first conviction be punished by a fine not to exceed ~~[thirty-seven thousand five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars per day of violation or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. If the conviction is for an offense committed after a first conviction of such person under this subdivision, punishment shall be by a fine not to exceed ~~[seventy-five]~~ one hundred twelve thousand five hundred dollars per day of violation, or by imprisonment for not more than two years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 38. Section 71-2201 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 740 of the laws of 1978, the opening paragraph and subdivision 1 as amended and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 901 of the laws of 1983, subdivision 4 as added by chapter 294 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-2201. Enforcement of title 23 of article 23 of this chapter.

Administrative and civil sanctions. 1. Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by title 23

1 of article 23 except the duty to accept used oil pursuant to section 2 23-2307 or any person subject to section 23-2308 or any rule or regu-3 lation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any 4 certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determi-5 nation or order of the commissioner made pursuant to this section shall 6 be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand five hundred 7 dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty of not more 8 than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such 9 violation continues, to be assessed by the commissioner after a hearing 10 or opportunity to be heard pursuant to the provisions of section 71-1709 11 of this chapter, and, in addition thereto, such person may by similar 12 process be enjoined from continuing such violation and any permit or 13 certificate issued to such person may be revoked or suspended or a pend-14 ing renewal application denied.

15 2. Any person who refuses to accept used oil as required pursuant to 16 subdivision two of section 23-2307 shall be liable for a civil penalty 17 not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars.

18 3. Any person who violates any provision of section 23-2308 of this 19 chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed [~~two hundred~~ 20 fifty] three hundred seventy-five dollars for each violation.

21 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who shall 22 violate the provisions of paragraph [~~(c)~~] c of subdivision one of 23 section 23-2307 or paragraph [~~(d)~~] d of subdivision two of section 24 23-2307 of this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more 25 than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars, and an additional civil penalty 26 of not more than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each day during 27 which such violation continues, not to exceed [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand 28 dollars.

29 § 39. Paragraph a of subdivision 1 and subdivision 2 of section 30 71-2503 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 666
31 of the laws of 1989, are amended to read as follows:

32 a. Any person who violates, disobeys or disregards any provision of 33 article twenty-five shall be liable to the people of the state for a 34 civil penalty of not to exceed [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand dollars for every 35 such violation, to be assessed, after a hearing or opportunity to be 36 heard, by the commissioner. Each violation shall be a separate and 37 distinct violation and, in the case of a continuing violation, each 38 day's continuance thereof shall be deemed a separate and distinct 39 violation. The penalty may be recovered in an action brought by the 40 commissioner in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such civil penalty 41 may be released or compromised by the commissioner before the matter has 42 been referred to the attorney general; and where such matter has been 43 referred to the attorney general, any such penalty may be released or 44 compromised and any action commenced to recover the same may be settled 45 and discontinued by the attorney general with the consent of the commis-46 sioner.

47 2. Criminal sanctions. Any person who violates any provision of arti-48 cle twenty-five shall, in addition, for the first offense, be guilty of 49 a violation punishable by a fine of not less than [~~five~~] seven hundred 50 fifty nor more than [~~five~~] seven thousand five hundred dollars; for a 51 second and each subsequent offense such person shall be guilty of a 52 misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand five 53 hundred nor more than [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand dollars or a term of impri-54 sonment of not less than fifteen days nor more than six months or both.
55 In addition to or instead of these punishments, any offender shall be 56 punishable by being ordered by the court to restore the affected tidal

1 wetland or area immediately adjacent thereto to its condition prior to 2 the offense, insofar as that is possible. The court shall specify a 3 reasonable time for the completion of the restoration, which shall be 4 effected under the supervision of the commissioner. Each offense shall 5 be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing 6 offense, each day's continuance thereof shall be deemed a separate and 7 distinct offense.

8 § 40. Section 71-2505 of the environmental conservation law, as 9 amended by chapter 249 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as 10 follows:

11 § 71-2505. Enforcement.

12 The attorney general, on [~~his~~] their own initiative or at the request 13 of the commissioner, shall prosecute persons who violate article twen-14 ty-five. In addition the attorney general, on [~~his~~] their own initi-15 ative or at the request of the commissioner, shall have the right to 16 recover a civil penalty of up to [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand dollars for 17 every violation of any provision of such article, and to seek equitable 18 relief to restrain any violation or threatened violation of such article 19 and to require the restoration of any affected tidal wetland or area 20 immediately adjacent thereto to its condition prior to the violation, 21 insofar as that is possible, within a reasonable time and under the 22 supervision of the commissioner. In the case of a continuing violation, 23 each day's continuance thereof shall be deemed a separate and distinct 24 violation.

25 § 41. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of section 71-2703 of the environmental 26 conservation law, subdivisions 1 and 2 as amended by chapter 508 of the 27 laws of 1995, paragraph a of subdivision 1 as amended by section 25, 28 subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph b of subdivision 1 as amended by 29 section 26, paragraph a and subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph b of 30 subdivision 2 as amended by section 27, subparagraphs i and ii of para-31 graph c of subdivision 2 as amended by section 28 and subdivision 3 as 32 amended by section 29 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, are 33 amended to read as follows:

34 1. Civil and administrative sanctions. a. Any person who violates any 35 of the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by title 36 3 or 7 of article 27 of this chapter or any rule or regulation promul-37 gated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any certificate or 38 permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determination or order of 39 the commissioner made pursuant to this title shall be liable for a civil 40 penalty not to exceed [~~seven thousand five hundred~~] eleven thousand two 41 hundred fifty dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty 42 of not more than [~~one thousand five hundred~~] two thousand two hundred 43 fifty dollars for each day during which such violation continues, to be 44 assessed by the commissioner after an opportunity to be heard pursuant 45 to the provisions of section 71-1709 of this article, or by the court in 46 any action or proceeding pursuant to section 71-2727 of this title, and, 47 in addition thereto, such person may by similar process be enjoined from 48 continuing such violation and any permit or certificate issued to such 49 person may be revoked or suspended or a pending renewal application
50 denied.

51 b. i. Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails 52 to perform any duty imposed by, title 3 or 7 of article 27 of this chap-53 ter, or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term 54 or condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto and 55 thereby causes the release of solid waste into the environment, shall be 56 liable for a civil penalty not to exceed [~~eleven thousand two hundred~~

1 ~~fifty~~ sixteen thousand eight hundred seventy-five dollars for each such 2 violation and an additional penalty of not more than ~~[eleven thousand~~ 3 ~~two hundred fifty]~~ sixteen thousand eight hundred seventy-five dollars 4 for each day during which such violation continues, to be assessed by 5 the commissioner after an opportunity to be heard pursuant to the 6 provisions of section 71-1709 of this article, or by the court in any 7 action or proceeding pursuant to section 71-2727 of this title, and, in 8 addition thereto, such person may by similar process be enjoined from 9 continuing such violation and any permit or certificate issued to such 10 person may be revoked or suspended or a pending renewal application
11 denied.

12 ii. Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to 13 perform any duty imposed by, title 3 or 7 of article 27 of this chapter, 14 or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or 15 condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto and 16 thereby causes the release of more than ten cubic yards of solid waste 17 into the environment, shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed 18 ~~[twenty-two thousand five hundred]~~ thirty-three thousand seven hundred 19 fifty dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty of not 20 more than ~~[twenty-two thousand five hundred]~~ thirty-three thousand seven 21 hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such violation contin-
22 ues, to be assessed by the commissioner after an opportunity to be heard 23 pursuant to the provisions of section 71-1709 of this article, or by the 24 court in any action or proceeding pursuant to section 71-2727 of this 25 title, and, in addition thereto, such person may by similar process be 26 enjoined from continuing such violation and any permit or certificate 27 issued to such person may be revoked or suspended or a pending renewal 28 application denied.

29 c. The court in any action or proceeding pursuant to section 71-2727 30 of this chapter may exercise all powers exercisable by the commissioner.

31 2. Criminal sanctions. a. Any person who, having any of the culpable 32 mental states defined in section 15.05 of the penal law, shall violate 33 any of the provisions of or who fails to perform any duty imposed by 34 title 3 or 7 of article 27 of this chapter, or any rules and regulations 35 promulgated pursuant thereto, or any final determination or order of the 36 commissioner made pursuant to this title shall be guilty of a violation 37 and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less 38 than ~~[one thousand five hundred]~~ two thousand two hundred fifty dollars 39 nor more than ~~[fifteen]~~ twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars per day 40 of violation or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen days or by 41 both such fine and imprisonment.

42 b. i. Any person who shall violate paragraph a of this subdivision and 43 thereby causes or attempts to cause the release of more than ten cubic 44 yards of solid waste into the environment shall be guilty of a class B 45 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of 46 not less than ~~[three thousand seven hundred fifty]~~ five thousand six 47 hundred twenty-five dollars per day nor more than ~~[twenty-two thousand~~ 48 ~~five hundred]~~ thirty-three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars per day 49 of violation, or by imprisonment for a term in accordance with the penal 50 law, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

51 ii. Any person who shall violate paragraph a of this subdivision and 52 thereby causes or attempts to cause the release of more than ten cubic 53 yards of solid waste into the environment, after having been convicted 54 of a violation of this subdivision within the preceding five years, 55 shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, 56 shall be punished by a fine of not less than ~~[three thousand seven~~

1 ~~hundred fifty~~ five thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars per day nor 2 more than ~~[thirty-seven thousand five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two 3 hundred fifty dollars per day of violation, or by imprisonment for a 4 term in accordance with the penal law, or by both such fine and impri-5 sonment.

6 c. i. Any person who shall violate paragraph a of this subdivision and 7 thereby causes or attempts to cause the release of more than seventy 8 cubic yards of solid waste into the environment shall be guilty of a 9 class A misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a 10 fine of not less than ~~[three thousand seven hundred fifty]~~ five thousand 11 six hundred twenty-five dollars per day nor more than ~~[thirty-seven~~ 12 ~~thousand five hundred]~~ fifty-six thousand two hundred fifty dollars per 13 day of violation, or by imprisonment for a term in accordance with the 14 penal law, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

15 ii. Any person who shall violate paragraph a of this subdivision and 16 thereby causes or attempts to cause the release of more than seventy 17 cubic yards of solid waste into the environment, after having been 18 convicted of a violation of this subdivision within the preceding five 19 years, shall be guilty of a class E felony and, upon conviction thereof, 20 shall be punished by a fine of not less than ~~[seven thousand five~~ 21 ~~hundred]~~ eleven thousand two hundred fifty dollars per day nor more than 22 ~~[seventy-five]~~ one hundred twelve thousand five hundred dollars per day 23 of violation, or by imprisonment for a term in accordance with the penal 24 law, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

25 3. Additional sanctions. Any person who violates any of the provisions 26 of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by title 7 of article 27, 27 with regard to the construction and operation of facilities for the 28 disposal of construction and demolition debris or any rule or regulation 29 promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any certifi-30 cate or permit issued pursuant thereto or any final determination or 31 order of the commissioner made pursuant to this title shall be liable 32 for a civil penalty not to exceed ~~[fifteen]~~ twenty-two thousand five 33 hundred dollars and each day of such deposition shall constitute a sepa-34 rate violation and said civil penalty is in addition to any other fines 35 or penalties which may be applied pursuant to this title.

36 § 42. Subdivision 2 of section 71-2721 of the environmental conserva-
37 tion law, as amended by section 32 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
38 of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

39 2. Fines. A sentence to pay a fine shall be a sentence to pay an 40 amount fixed by the court, not exceeding the higher of:

41 (a) ~~[Three]~~ Four hundred fifty thousand dollars for a class C felony;

42 (b) ~~[Two hundred twenty-five thousand]~~ Three hundred thirty-seven 43 thousand five hundred dollars for a class D felony;

44 (c) ~~[One hundred fifty thousand]~~ Two hundred twenty-two thousand five 45 hundred dollars for a class E felony;

46 (d) ~~[Thirty-seven thousand five hundred]~~ Fifty-six thousand two 47 hundred fifty dollars for a class A misdemeanor;

48 (e) ~~[Fifteen]~~ Two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars for a class B 49 misdemeanor; or

50 (f) Double the amount of the defendant's gain from the commission of 51 the crime.

52 § 43. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 5 of section 71-2722 of the environmental 53 conservation law, subdivision 1 as amended by section 33 and subdivision
54 2 as amended by section 34 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, 55 and subdivision 5 as added by chapter 152 of the laws of 1990, are 56 amended to read as follows:

1 1. Any person who knowingly or intentionally violates any of the 2 provisions or fails to perform any duty imposed by section 27-1701 of 3 this chapter, except the duty to accept a lead-acid battery pursuant to 4 subdivision four of such section, shall be liable for a civil penalty 5 not to exceed [~~seventy-five~~] one hundred twelve dollars and fifty cents 6 for each violation, provided that such civil penalty shall be in addi-7 tion to any other penalties authorized under other state or local laws 8 governing the illegal disposal of lead-acid batteries.

9 2. Any retailer or distributor who refuses to accept a lead-acid 10 battery as required pursuant to subdivision four of section 27-1701 of 11 this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed [~~seven~~ 12 ~~hundred-fifty~~] one thousand one hundred twenty-five dollars.

13 5. All civil penalties and fines collected for any violation of such 14 title seventeen shall be paid over to the commissioner for deposit in 15 the [~~general fund~~] conservation fund to the credit of the conservation 16 enforcement account established pursuant to subdivision (k) of section 17 eighty-three of the state finance law; provided however, that all civil 18 penalties collected for any violation of such title seventeen which have 19 been imposed by the environmental control board of the city of New York, 20 or a local adjudicatory body pursuant to subdivision four of this 21 section, shall be paid into an environmental fund of such city or local-22 ity.

23 § 44. Subdivision 1 of section 71-2728 of the environmental conserva-
24 tion law, as added by chapter 641 of the laws of 2008, is amended to 25 read as follows:

26 1. Any person who knowingly or intentionally violates any provision of 27 or fails to perform any duty imposed pursuant to title 27 of article 27 28 of this chapter shall upon the first finding of such a violation be 29 provided with a warning that future violations shall result in the im-30 position of a fine. Any person convicted of a second violation shall be 31 liable for a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars. Any 32 person convicted of a third or subsequent violation shall be liable for 33 a civil penalty not to exceed [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars.

34 § 45. Subdivisions 1 and 3 of section 71-2907 of the environmental 35 conservation law, as amended by chapter 285 of the laws of 2000, are 36 amended to read as follows:

37 1. Administrative sanctions. Except as otherwise provided in this 38 subdivision, any person who violates any provision of article 33 of this 39 chapter or any rule, regulation or order issued thereunder or commits 40 any offense described in section 33-1301 of this chapter shall be liable 41 to the people of the state for a civil penalty not to exceed [~~five~~] 42 seven thousand five hundred dollars for a first violation, and not to 43 exceed [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand dollars for a subsequent offense, to be 44 assessed by the commissioner after a hearing or opportunity to be heard.
45 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, an owner or 46 owner's agent of a multiple dwelling or owner, owner's agent or a person 47 in a position of authority for all other types of premises, as such 48 terms are defined in paragraph d of subdivision five of section 33-0905
49 of this chapter, who violates any provision of a local law adopted 50 pursuant to subdivision one of section 33-1004 of this chapter relating 51 to paragraph b of such subdivision, and a person, who violates any 52 provision of a local law adopted pursuant to subdivision one of section 53 33-1004 of this chapter relating to paragraph c of such subdivision, and 54 a person who violates the provisions of subdivision three of section 55 three hundred ninety-c of the social services law shall, for a first 56 such violation, in lieu of a penalty, be issued a written warning and

1 shall also be issued educational materials pursuant to subdivision two 2 of section 33-1005 of this chapter. Such person shall, however, for a 3 second violation, be liable to the people of the state for a civil 4 penalty not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars, and not to exceed [~~two~~ 5 ~~hundred fifty~~] three hundred seventy-five dollars for any subsequent 6 violation, such penalties to be assessed by the commissioner after a 7 hearing or opportunity to be heard.

8 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any person who 9 violates the provisions of a local law adopted pursuant to subdivision 10 one of section 33-1004 of this chapter relating to paragraph a of such 11 subdivision, shall be issued a warning for the first violation and shall 12 be provided seven days to correct such violation; and shall be liable to 13 the people of the state for a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred 14 fifty dollars for a second violation, and not to exceed [~~two hundred~~ 15 ~~fifty~~] three hundred seventy-five dollars for a subsequent violation, to 16 be assessed by the commissioner after a hearing or opportunity to be 17 heard. The commissioner, acting by the attorney general, may bring suit 18 for collection of such assessed civil penalty in any court of competent 19 jurisdiction. Such civil penalty may be released or compromised by the 20 commissioner before the matter has been referred to the attorney gener-21 al; and where such matter has been referred to the attorney general, any 22 such penalty may be released or compromised and any action commenced to 23 recover the same may be settled and discontinued by the attorney general 24 with the consent of the commissioner. Any civil penalty assessed by the 25 commissioner under this subdivision shall be reviewable in a proceeding 26 under article 78 of the civil practice law and rules.

27 3. Criminal sanctions. Any person who, having the culpable mental 28 states defined in subdivision one or two of section 15.05 or in section 29 20.20 of the penal law, violates any provision of article 33 of this 30 chapter or any rule, regulation thereunder or commits any offense 31 described in section 33-1301 of this chapter, except an offense relating 32 to the application of a general use pesticide shall be guilty of a 33 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine 34 not to exceed [~~five~~] seven thousand five hundred dollars for each day 35 during which such violation continues or by imprisonment for a term of 36 not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. If the 37 conviction is for a subsequent offense committed after a first 38 conviction of such person under this subdivision, punishment shall be by 39 a fine not to exceed [~~ten~~] fifteen thousand dollars for each day during 40 which such violation continues or by imprisonment for a term of not more 41 than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. When a violation 42 consists of the manufacture or production of any prohibited article, 43 each day during which or any part of which such manufacture or 44 production is carried on or continued, shall be deemed a separate 45 violation. Any person who violates any provision of article 33 of this 46 chapter or any rule or regulation thereunder or commits any offense 47 described in section 33-1301 of this chapter relating to the use of a 48 general use pesticide shall be guilty of a violation and, upon 49 conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed [~~twenty-~~ 50 ~~five hundred~~] three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars. If the 51 conviction is for a subsequent offense committed after the first such 52 conviction of such person under this subdivision, punishment shall be by 53 a fine not to exceed [~~five~~] seven thousand five hundred dollars. Prose-54 cution hereunder may be conducted by either the attorney general or the 55 district attorney consistent with section 71-0403 of this article. With 56 respect to violations of section 33-1004 of this chapter, penalties

1 imposed pursuant to this subdivision may be assessed only against a 2 person providing a commercial lawn application.

3 § 46. Section 71-3103 of the environmental conservation law is amended 4 to read as follows:

5 § 71-3103. Enforcement of article 35.

6 Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to 7 perform any duties imposed by article 35 or any regulation promulgated 8 by the commissioner thereunder, shall be liable to a civil penalty of 9 not more than [~~twenty-five hundred~~] three thousand seven hundred fifty 10 dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty of not more 11 than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each day during which such 12 violation continues, and, in addition thereto, such person may be 13 enjoined from continuing such violation. Penalties and injunctive relief 14 provided herein shall be recoverable in an action brought by the Attor-
15 ney General at the request and in the name of the commissioner.

16 § 47. Subdivision 1 of section 71-3303 of the environmental conserva-
17 tion law, as added by chapter 617 of the laws of 1987, is amended to 18 read as follows:

19 1. Any person who violates any provision of, or fails to perform any 20 duty imposed by article forty-three of this chapter or any rule or regu-21 lation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any 22 certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determi-23 nation or order of the Lake George park commission made pursuant to 24 article forty-three of this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty 25 not to exceed [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each such violation 26 and an additional penalty of [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each 27 day during which such violation continues, to be assessed by the Lake 28 George park commission after an opportunity to be heard, or by the court 29 in any action or proceeding initiated by the attorney general in the 30 name of the Lake George park commission. In addition thereto, such 31 person may, by similar process, be enjoined from continuing such 32 violation, and any permit or certificate issued to such person may be 33 revoked or suspended, or a pending renewal application denied based upon 34 such violation.

35 § 48. Section 71-3307 of the environmental conservation law, as added
36 by chapter 617 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 71-3307. Criminal sanctions.

38 Any person who, having any of the culpable mental states defined in 39 section 15.05 of the penal law, shall violate any of the provisions of 40 or who fails to perform any duty imposed by article forty-three of this 41 chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, or any final 42 determination or order of the Lake George park commission shall be guil-43 ty of a violation, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a 44 fine not to exceed [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each violation 45 and [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each day such violation shall 46 continue.

47 § 49. Section 71-3501 of the environmental conservation law is amended
48 to read as follows:

49 § 71-3501. Putting noisome or unwholesome substances or maintaining 50 noisome business on or near highway.

51 A person, who deposits, leaves or keeps, on or near a highway or route 52 of public travel, either on the land or on the water, any noisome or 53 unwholesome substance, or establishes, maintains or carries on, upon or 54 near a public highway or route of public travel, either on the land or 55 on the water, any business, trade or manufacture which is noisome or 56 detrimental to public health, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by

1 a fine of not less than one hundred fifty dollars, or by imprisonment 2 not less than three nor more than six months, or both.

3 § 50. Section 71-3803 of the environmental conservation law, as added
4 by chapter 713 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 71-3803. Enforcement of article thirty-eight.

6 Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to 7 perform any duty imposed by article thirty-eight or any regulation 8 promulgated by the commissioner thereunder, shall be liable to a civil 9 penalty of not more than [~~twenty-five hundred~~] three thousand seven 10 hundred fifty dollars for each such violation and an additional penalty 11 of not more than [~~five~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for each day during 12 which such violation continues, and, in addition thereto, such person 13 may be enjoined from continuing such violation. Penalties and injunctive 14 relief provided herein shall be recoverable in an action brought by the 15 attorney general acting alone or at the request of the commissioner.

16 § 51. Section 71-3903 of the environmental conservation law, as added
17 by chapter 732 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

18 § 71-3903. Violations; penalties.

19 1. Administrative sanctions. Any person who violates, disobeys or 20 disregards any provision of article thirty-nine shall be liable to the 21 people of the state for a civil penalty of not to exceed [~~three~~] four 22 thousand five hundred dollars for every such violation, to be assessed 23 by the commissioner after a hearing or opportunity to be heard. The 24 penalty may be recovered in an action brought by the commissioner in any 25 court of competent jurisdiction. Such civil penalty may be released or 26 [~~comprised~~] compromised by the commissioner before the matter has been 27 referred to the attorney general; and where such matter has been 28 referred to the attorney general, any such penalty may be released or 29 [~~comprised~~] compromised and any action commenced to recover the same may 30 be settled and discontinued by the attorney general with the consent of 31 the commissioner. In addition, the commissioner shall have power, 32 following a hearing, to direct the violator to cease [~~his~~] their 33 violation of article thirty-nine and, where appropriate, to recall any 34 sewage system cleaners or additives sold or distributed in violation of 35 said article. Any such order of the commissioner shall be enforceable in 36 an action brought by the commissioner in any court of competent juris-37 diction. Any civil penalty or order issued by the commissioner under 38 this subdivision shall be reviewable in a proceeding under article 39 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules commenced within thir-40 ty days of such penalty or order.

41 2. Criminal sanctions. Any person who knowingly violates any provision 42 of section 39-0105 of this chapter shall, in addition to the sanctions 43 provided in subdivision one of this section, for the first offense, be 44 guilty of a violation punishable by a fine of not less than [~~five~~] seven 45 hundred fifty nor more than one thousand five hundred dollars; for a 46 second and each subsequent offense [~~he~~] such person shall be guilty of a 47 misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand five 48 hundred nor more than [~~three~~] four thousand five hundred dollars or a 49 term of imprisonment of not more than six months or both. In addition to 50 or instead of these sanctions, any offender shall be punishable by being 51 ordered by the court to recall any sewage system cleaners or additives 52 sold or distributed in violation of article thirty-nine. The court shall 53 specify a reasonable time for the completion of the recall. Each offense 54 shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continu-55 ing offense, each day's continuance thereof shall be deemed a separate 56 and distinct offense.

§ 52. Section 71-3905 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 732 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-3905. Enforcement.

The attorney general or a district attorney, at the request of the attorney general or the commissioner, may prosecute persons who violate article thirty-nine. In addition the attorney general, on ~~his~~ their own initiative or at the request of the commissioner, shall have the right to recover a civil penalty of not to exceed ~~three~~ four thousand five hundred dollars for every violation of any provision of said article, and to seek equitable relief to restrain any violation or threatened violation of such article and to require the recall of any sewage system cleaners or additives sold or distributed in violation of said article.

§ 53. Section 71-4001 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 99 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-4001. General criminal penalty.

Except as otherwise specifically provided elsewhere in this chapter or in the penal law, (a) a person who violates any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation or order promulgated pursuant thereto, or the terms or conditions of any permit issued thereunder, shall be guilty of a violation; (b) each day on which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation; and (c) for each such violation the person shall be subject upon conviction to imprisonment for not more than fifteen days or to a fine of not more than ~~nine~~ one thousand three hundred fifty dollars, or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

§ 54. Section 71-4003 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 99 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-4003. General civil penalty.

Except as otherwise specifically provided elsewhere in this chapter, a person who violates any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation or order promulgated pursuant thereto, or the terms or conditions of any permit issued thereunder, shall be liable to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars, and an additional civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars for each day during which each such violation continues. Any civil penalty provided for by this chapter may be assessed following a hearing or opportunity to be heard.

§ 55. Section 71-4103 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 608 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-4103. Enforcement of article seventy-two.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of article seventy-two of this chapter or the regulations promulgated thereunder shall be liable for a civil penalty of up to one thousand five hundred dollars in addition to any amount assessed as a penalty pursuant to subdivision five of section 72-0201 of this chapter, except that any person who fails to pay fees required pursuant to section 72-0303 of this chapter shall be subject to penalty provisions pursuant to subdivision twelve of section 72-0201 of this chapter.

§ 56. Section 71-4303 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 672 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 71-4303. Violations of article forty of this chapter.

1. Civil and administrative sanctions. Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by, article

1 forty of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, 2 or any terms or conditions of any certificate or permit issued pursuant 3 thereto, or any final determination or order of the commissioner made 4 pursuant to this title, shall be liable in the case of a civil penalty 5 not to exceed twenty-five thousand five hundred dollars and an addi-6 tional penalty of not more than [~~twenty-five thousand~~] thirty-seven 7 thousand five hundred dollars for each day during which such violation 8 continues, to be assessed by the commissioner after an opportunity to be 9 heard pursuant to the provisions of section 71-1709 of this article or 10 by a court in any action or proceeding pursuant to this title, and, in 11 addition thereto such person may by similar process be enjoined from 12 continuing such violation. In addition, upon the provision of notice 13 stating the grounds for its action and giving an opportunity for hear-14 ing, the commissioner may revoke, suspend or deny a certificate or a 15 renewal of a certificate issued pursuant to article forty of this chap-16 ter. In the case of a second violation, the liability shall be for a 17 civil penalty not to exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-five thousand dollars for 18 such violation and an additional penalty not to exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-19 five thousand dollars for each day during which such violation contin-20 ues.

21 2. Criminal sanctions. Any person who, having any of the culpable
22 mental states defined in section 15.05 of the penal law, shall violate 23 any of the provisions of or who fails to perform any duty imposed by 24 article forty of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated 25 pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any certificate or permit 26 issued pursuant thereto, or any final determination or order of the 27 commissioner made pursuant to this title shall be guilty of a misdemea-28 nor and, upon conviction thereof, shall for a first conviction be 29 punished by a fine not to exceed [~~twenty-five~~] thirty-seven thousand 30 five hundred dollars per day of violation or by imprisonment for a term 31 of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. If the 32 conviction is for an offense committed after a first conviction of such 33 person under this subdivision, punishment shall be by a fine not to 34 exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-five thousand dollars per day of violation, or by 35 imprisonment for not more than two years or by both such fine and impri-36 sonment.

37 § 57. Section 71-4402 of the environmental conservation law, as added
38 by chapter 180 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

39 § 71-4402. Violations of title 15 of article 27 of this chapter.

40 1. Civil and administrative sanctions.

41 Any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to 42 perform any duty imposed by title 15 of article 27 of this chapter, or 43 any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or 44 condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any 45 final determination or order of the commissioner made pursuant to this 46 title shall be liable in the case of a first violation, for a civil 47 penalty not to exceed [~~twenty-five~~] thirty-seven thousand five hundred 48 dollars and an additional penalty of not more than [~~twenty-five~~] thir-49 ty-seven thousand five hundred dollars for each day during which such 50 violation continues, to be assessed by the commissioner after an oppor-51 tunity to be heard pursuant to the provisions of section 71-1709 of this 52 chapter, or by the court in any action or proceeding pursuant to section 53 71-2727 of this chapter, and, in addition thereto, such persons may by 54 similar process be enjoined from continuing such violation and any 55 permit or certificate issued to such person may be revoked or suspended 56 or a pending renewal application denied. In the case of a second and any

1 further violation, the liability shall be for a civil penalty not to 2 exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-five thousand dollars for each such violation and 3 an additional penalty not to exceed [~~fifty~~] seventy-five thousand 4 dollars for each day during which such violation continues.

5 2. Criminal sanctions.

6 a. Any person who violates any of the provisions of or who fails to 7 perform any duty imposed by title 15 of article 27 of this chapter or 8 any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or 9 condition of any certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any 10 final determination or order of the commissioner made pursuant to this 11 title shall be guilty of a violation and, upon conviction thereof, shall 12 be punished by a fine not to exceed [~~five~~] seven thousand five hundred 13 dollars per day of violation, or by imprisonment for a term of not more 14 than fifteen days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

15 b. Any person who, intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly shall 16 violate any of the provisions of or who fails to perform any duty 17 imposed by title 15 of article 27 of this chapter or any rules and regu-18 lations promulgated pursuant thereto, or any term or condition of any 19 certificate or permit issued pursuant thereto, or any final determi-20 nation or order of the commissioner made pursuant to this title shall be 21 guilty of a class B misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall for 22 a first conviction be punished by a fine not to exceed [~~fifteen~~] twen-23 ty-two thousand five hundred dollars per day of violation or by impri-24 sonment for a term of not more than ninety days, or both such fine and 25 imprisonment. If the conviction is for an offense committed after a 26 first conviction of such person under this paragraph, within the preced-27 ing five years, such person shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor and 28 upon conviction, punishment shall be by a fine not to exceed [~~fifty~~] 29 seventy-five thousand five hundred dollars per day of violation, or by 30 imprisonment for not more than one year or by both such fine and impri-31 sonment.

32 § 58. Subdivision 2 of section 71-4411 of the environmental conserva-
33 tion law, as added by chapter 180 of the laws of 1989, is amended to 34 read as follows:

35 2. Fines. A sentence to pay a fine shall be a sentence to pay any 36 amount fixed by the court, not exceeding the higher of:

37 (a) [~~one hundred fifty~~] two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars for a 38 class D felony;

39 (b) one hundred fifty thousand dollars for a class E felony;

40 (c) [~~fifty~~] seventy-five thousand dollars for a class A misdemeanor;

41 (d) [~~fifteen~~] twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars for a class B 42 misdemeanor; or

43 (e) double the amount of the defendant's gain from the commission of 44 the crime.

45 § 59. The opening paragraph of subdivision 5 and subdivision 12 of 46 section 72-0201 of the environmental conservation law, the opening para-47 graph of subdivision 5 as added by chapter 15 of the laws of 1983, and 48 subdivision 12 as added by chapter 608 of the laws of 1993, are amended 49 to read as follows:

50 If the amount of the fee is not paid within forty-five days of the 51 last date prescribed under subdivision four of this section, a penalty 52 shall be imposed on such deficiency. The amount of such penalty shall 53 not exceed [~~five~~] seven and one half percent of such deficiency per 54 month and the total penalty shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the 55 deficiency.

12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any person who fails to pay fees required pursuant to section 72-0303 of this article shall pay a penalty of [~~fifty~~ seventy-five] per centum of the unpaid fee amount, plus interest on the unpaid fee amount computed in accordance with section 6621(a)(2) of the United States internal revenue code of 1986 (Public Law 99-514, 26 U.S.C. section 1 et seq.) from the date the fee was required to be paid.

§ 60. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 57-0136 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by chapter 289 of the laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:

2. Civil penalties. (a) For a violation that takes place in the "core preservation area" as defined in subdivision eleven of section 57-0107 of this title, any person who violates any provision of this title, the land use plan adopted by the commission, any regulation promulgated by the commission, or the terms or conditions of any order, permit, or determination issued by the commission pursuant to this title shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than [~~twenty-five thousand~~ thirty-seven thousand five hundred] dollars for each violation and an additional civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars for each day that such violation continues.

(b) For a violation that takes place in the "compatible growth area" as defined in subdivision twelve of section 57-0107 of this title, any person who violates any provision of this title, the land use plan adopted by the commission, any regulation promulgated by the commission, or the terms or conditions of any order, permit, or determination issued by the commission pursuant to this title shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than [~~ten~~ fifteen] thousand dollars for each violation and an additional civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars for each day that such violation continues.

3. Criminal penalties. (a) For a violation that takes place in the "core preservation area" as defined in subdivision eleven of section 57-0107 of this title, any person who willfully or intentionally violates any provision of this title, the land use plan adopted by the commission, any regulation promulgated by the commission, or the terms or conditions of any order, permit, or determination issued by the commission pursuant to this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than [~~twenty-five thousand~~ thirty-seven thousand five hundred] dollars for each violation and an additional fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars for each day that such violation continues.

(b) For a violation that takes place in the "compatible growth area" as defined in subdivision twelve of section 57-0107 of this title, any person who willfully or intentionally violates any provision of this title, the land use plan adopted by the commission, any regulation promulgated by the commission, or the terms or conditions of any order, permit, or determination issued by the commission pursuant to this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than [~~ten~~ fifteen] thousand dollars for each violation and an additional fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars for each day that such violation continues.

§ 61. Subdivision 1 of section 37-0211 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 286 of the laws of 1990, such section as renumbered by chapter 307 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

1. A violation of any of the provisions of this title or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto shall be punishable in the case

1 of a first violation, by a civil penalty not to exceed ~~[ten]~~ fifteen 2 thousand dollars. In the case of a second and any further violation, the 3 liability shall be for a civil penalty not to exceed ~~[twenty-five thou-~~ 4 ~~sand]~~ thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars for each violation.

5 § 62. Section 33-0925 of the environmental conservation law, as 6 amended by chapter 43 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as 7 follows:

8 § 33-0925. Sanctions.

9 Notwithstanding any other provision of law or regulation pursuant to 10 this title and/or any provision of this article as it relates to the 11 application of aquatic antifouling paints, any person who violates any 12 provision of this title or any rule, regulation or order issued there-13 under shall be liable to the people of this state for a civil penalty of 14 up to one thousand five hundred dollars for a first violation to be 15 assessed by the commissioner after a hearing or opportunity to be heard.
16 In determining the amount of the penalty, the commissioner shall take 17 into account whether the violation posed an immediate threat to the 18 environment or the health and safety of the public. Any subsequent 19 violation of this title and/or any provision of this article as it 20 relates to the application of aquatic antifouling paints would be 21 subject to the appropriate sanctions pursuant to sections 71-2907 and 22 71-2911 of this chapter.

23 § 63. Paragraph a of subdivision 9 of section 27-1012 of the environ-
24 mental conservation law, as added by section 8 of part SS of chapter 59 25 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

26 a. Any person required to be registered under this section who, with-27 out being so registered, sells or offers for sale beverage containers in 28 this state, in addition to any other penalty imposed by this title, 29 shall be subject to a penalty to be assessed by the commissioner of 30 taxation and finance in an amount not to exceed ~~[five hundred]~~ seven 31 hundred fifty dollars for the first day on which such sales or offers 32 for sale are made, plus an amount not to exceed ~~[five hundred]~~ seven 33 hundred fifty dollars for each subsequent day on which such sales or 34 offers for sale are made, not to exceed ~~[twenty-five thousand]~~ thirty-35 seven thousand five hundred dollars in the aggregate.

36 § 64. Subdivision 4 of section 23-1715 of the environmental conserva-37 tion law, as amended by chapter 233 of the laws of 1979, is amended to 38 read as follows:

39 4. In the event of the failure of the holder of an environmental safe-40 ty permit issued under section 23-1707 of this title, of route certif-41 ication under section 23-1713 of this title, or of a non-conforming 42 facility under section 23-1719 of this title to comply with the terms 43 thereof or the provisions of the rules and regulations adopted under 44 article 70 of this chapter, the department may revoke said permit or 45 certificate pursuant to the provisions of article 70 of this chapter and 46 impose upon the holder of such permit or certificate a civil penalty of 47 up to one thousand five hundred dollars for each day the holder thereof 48 has failed to comply with this title or a permit or certificate issued 49 hereunder, together with the allocated costs of the revocation and 50 enforcement proceeding itself.

51 § 65. Subdivisions 4 and 5 of section 19-0320 of the environmental 52 conservation law, as added by chapter 621 of the laws of 1998, the open-53 ing paragraph of subdivision 4 as amended by section 1 and the opening 54 paragraph of subdivision 5 as amended by section 2 of part W1 of chapter 55 62 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as follows:

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of title twenty-one of article seventy-one of this chapter, operation of a heavy duty vehicle which, when tested, exceeds emission levels set forth in regulations promulgated pursuant to this section shall be a violation, and the following penalties shall apply to any violation found as a result of roadside emissions inspections:

a. First violation: [~~$ 700.00~~] $1050.00

Second and subsequent violations: [~~$1300.00~~] $1950.00.

b. The penalties set forth in paragraph a of this subdivision shall be reduced to [~~one hundred fifty~~] two hundred twenty-five dollars for the first violation and [~~five hundred~~] seven hundred fifty dollars for the second and subsequent violations by the court or administrative tribunal before which the summons or appearance ticket is returnable if the violation set forth in the summons or appearance ticket is corrected not later than thirty days after the issuance of the summons or appearance ticket and proof of such correction, as defined in paragraph c of this subdivision, is submitted to the court or administrative tribunal. The penalties described in this section shall not apply to vehicles defined by section one hundred forty-two of the vehicle and traffic law or owned by a county, town, city, or village for a first violation provided the vehicle is repaired within thirty days of ticket issuance.

c. Acceptable proof of repair or adjustment shall be submitted to the court or administrative tribunal on or before the return date of the summons or appearance ticket in a form and manner prescribed by regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of title twenty-one of article seventy-one of this chapter, operation of any heavy duty vehicle registered or required to be registered in this state without a certificate of inspection resulting from an annual inspection as required by regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall be a violation, and the following violation structure shall apply to such violations:

a. First violation: [~~$ 700.00~~] $1050.00

Second and subsequent violations: [~~$1300.00~~] $1950.00.

b.
