39 8. "Household income" shall mean, for any household, the sum of the

Where more than one group of tenants in the same assisted rental housing claims to be the tenant association for such assisted rental housing, the division shall determine which group, if any, is the tenant association for the purposes of this article in the same manner as the division certifies a tenant association for the purposes of article two of this chapter.

§ 38-a. Notification of impending conversion. 1. Notice shall be provided by the owner to the tenant association, or if no tenant association exists, to each tenant, and to the division of the intention of the owner to take any action that will result in the conversion of the assisted rental housing.

2. Such notice shall be provided no less than twelve months prior to the taking of such action by the owner. Such notice shall include the following information:

1 (a) the name and address of each owner of the assisted rental housing.
2 For any owner that is a corporation, the notice shall contain the names 3 and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation and of 4 any person directly or indirectly holding more than ten percent of any 5 class of the outstanding stock of the corporation. For any owner that is 6 a partnership or joint venture, the notice shall contain the name and 7 address of each individual who is a principal or exercises control of 8 such entities;

10 assisted rental housing and the type of program or programs to which the 11 assisted rental housing is subject;

12 (c) the nature of the action that the owner intends to take that will 13 result in a conversion;

14 (d) the date on which such action resulting in the conversion is 15 anticipated to take place;

16 (e) the provision of law, rule or regulation pursuant to which such 17 action is authorized;

18 (f) the total number and type of dwelling units subject to a conver-19 sion;

20 (g) the current rent schedule for the dwelling units along with an 21 estimation of the rent increases anticipated upon conversion;

22 (h) the income and expense report for the twelve-month period prior to 23 the notice including capital improvements, real property taxes and other 24 municipal charges;

25 (i) the amount of the outstanding mortgage as of the date of the 26 notice;

27 (j) the two most recent inspection reports from the real estate 28 assessment center of the United States department of housing and urban 29 development, for the assisted rental housing or group of multiple dwell-30 ing units operated together under the same ownership for which such 31 inspection reports are required, or, the reports of the two most recent 32 comprehensive building-wide inspection reports that may have been 33 conducted by the division;

34 (k) a statement of notice in a manner approved by the division which 35 advises a tenant association, or if no tenant association exists, 36 advises each tenant, of the first opportunity to purchase as required by 37 section thirty-eight-e of this article, or of the right of first 38 refusal, as required by section thirty-eight-d of this article; and 39 (l) such other information the division may require.

40 3. During the twelve-month notification period provided for in subdivi-41 sion two of this section the owner may not sell or contract to sell 42 the assisted rental housing, but may engage in such discussions with 43 other interested parties.

44 4. Notice shall not be required of an owner who intends to maintain 45 the property as assisted rental housing or intends to transfer, lease or 46 refinance a mortgage in order to maintain the property as assisted 47 rental housing.

48 5. Where an owner decides not to convert the assisted rental housing 49 program, such owner may withdraw the notice of intention to convert the 50 assisted rental housing program, subject to the terms of any accepted 51 offer to purchase or executed purchase and sale agreement, and to exist-52 ing statutory and common law remedies. In such event, the owner shall 53 give notice to the tenant association, or if no tenant association 54 exists, to each tenant, or if applicable, to a qualified entity, and to 55 the division. However, should the owner at any time decide to take an 56 action that will result in conversion, the twelve-month notice period of 1 this section as well as all other applicable requirements of this arti-2 cle shall be complied with.

3 6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, if any appli-4 cable supervening statute or program has a notice requirement substan-5 tially similar to any notice requirement of this section, then the 6 notice requirement under this section shall be that of the supervening 7 statute or program.

8 7. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, if the 9 notices required by this section require more information than is 10 required by any applicable supervening city, state or federal statute or 11 program, then such additional information shall be provided within the 12 time period established by the supervening statute or program.

13 § 38-b. Notification of bona fide offer to purchase. 1. If the owner 14 receives a bona fide offer to purchase and intends to consider, or 15 respond to such bona fide offer to purchase, then notice shall be 16 provided by the owner to a tenant association, or if no tenant associ-17 ation exists, to each tenant, or if applicable, a qualified entity, and 18 the division, no more than fifteen days from the date that such bona 19 fide offer to purchase is delivered to the owner. Such notice shall 20 contain the following information:

21 (a) the name and address of the proposed bona fide purchaser; and 22 (b) the price and terms and conditions of the offer.

23 2. The owner shall not be required to provide notice in accordance 24 with subdivision one of this section if the bona fide purchaser making 25 the offer agrees to maintain the assisted rental housing as affordable.
26 The bona fide purchaser shall be required to inform the division as to 27 how such bona fide purchaser intends to keep the assisted rental housing 28 as affordable.

29 § 38-c. Appraisal determination. 1. The division shall convene an 30 advisory panel, which advisory panel shall determine the appraised value 31 of the assisted rental housing within thirty days of a tenant associ-32 ation's, or if applicable, a qualified entity's notice to the owner and 33 the division pursuant to subdivision one of section thirty-eight-d or 34 subdivision one of section thirty-eight-e of this article.

35 2. The advisory panel shall consist of one appraiser selected by the 36 owner, one appraiser selected by the tenant association, or if applica-37 ble, a qualified entity, and one appraiser to be selected either by 38 mutual agreement between the owner and the tenant association or if 39 applicable, a qualified entity, or by mutual agreement between the 40 appraiser that was selected by the owner and the appraiser selected by 41 the tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, if such 42 condition is deemed acceptable to the owner and the tenants association, 43 or if applicable, a qualified entity, and is agreed upon in writing, 44 except that in the case of where there is no agreement between the owner 45 and the tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, or 46 between the appraiser that was selected by the owner and the appraiser 47 selected by the tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified enti-48 ty, then the appraiser will be selected by the division. The cost for 49 the appraiser shall be borne by the party responsible for providing 50 such appraiser. However, where the division must select the third 51 appraiser, the cost for such appraiser shall be equally borne by the 52 owner and the tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity.

53 3. Notice shall be provided by the division to the owner and the 54 tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, fifteen days 55 before the intended date that such advisory panel is to initiate the 56 performance of the appraisal. In the instance when either the owner

1 fails to provide an appraiser within fifteen days of such notice or when 2 the tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, fails to 3 provide an appraiser within fifteen days of such notice then the divi-4 sion shall select the appraiser on behalf of the party or parties that 5 failed to select an appraiser. In such circumstance, the cost for the 6 appraiser selected by the division shall be borne by the party responsi-7 ble for providing that appraiser.

8 4. The division shall promulgate rules for the timely determination of 9 the appraised value and that such rules are to be consistent with the 10 notice requirements mandated under this chapter. The division shall make 11 such appraised value publicly available within fifteen days from the 12 date of such advisory panel's determination.

13 5. In the instance where the owner and the tenant association, or if 14 applicable, a qualified entity, have mutually agreed upon an appraised 15 value for the assisted rental housing prior to the convening of the 16 advisory panel, the owner and the tenant association, or if applicable, 17 a qualified entity, may in writing apply to the division for a waiver 18 from subdivisions one through four of this section. The division shall 19 make a determination upon such application for a waiver within fifteen 20 days from receipt of such application.

21 § 38-d. Right of first refusal. 1. A tenant association, or if appli-22 cable, a qualified entity, shall notify the owner and the division in 23 writing of its intent to exercise its right of first refusal within 24 sixty days from receipt of notice from the owner pursuant to subdivision 25 one of section thirty-eight-a of this article.

26 2. The tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, 27 following notice by the owner in compliance with subdivision one of 28 section thirty-eight-a of this article, shall have one hundred twenty 29 days from the date of the notice of the determination of the appraised
30 value to submit its offer to purchase.

31 3. The tenant association, or if applicable a qualified entity,
32 following notice by the owner in compliance with subdivision one of 33 section thirty-eight-b of this article, shall have one hundred twenty 34 days from the date of a bona fide offer to purchase to submit its offer 35 to purchase.

36 4. If through no fault of a tenant association, or if applicable, a 37 qualified entity, or the owner, the time periods provided for in subdivi-38 sion two or three of this section need to be extended, then such time 39 periods may be extended by the division. Should such time periods be 40 extended past the notice period provided for in subdivision one of 41 section thirty-eight-a of this article, then the provisions of the 42 applicable assisted rental housing program shall remain in full force 43 and effect to the extent permitted by law.

44 5. Unless the owner and a tenant association, or if applicable, a 45 qualified entity, otherwise agree to purchase the assisted rental hous-
46 ing below its appraised value, the owner shall sell such assisted rental 47 housing at the appraised value or at the price contained in a bona fide 48 offer to purchase price as approved by the division.

49 6. The division shall promulgate rules for the timely completion of 50 all lending program applications, credit reviews and loan closings.

51 7. If a tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, does 52 not submit its offer in writing to the owner and the division within the 53 time periods stated in subdivision two or three of this section follow-54 ing notice by the owner in compliance with subdivision one of section
55 thirty-eight-a of this article, then such right will be deemed waived
56 and the owner shall have no further obligations under this section.

1 However, where a tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified enti-
2 ty, has previously submitted a notice in accordance with subdivision one
3 of this section decides not to exercise such right, it may withdraw such 4 notice by giving written notice to that effect to the owner and to the 5 division.

6 § 38-e. First opportunity to purchase. 1. A tenant association, or if 7 applicable, a qualified entity, shall notify the owner and the division 8 in writing of its intent to exercise its right of first opportunity to 9 purchase within sixty days from receipt of notice from the owner pursu-10 ant to subdivision one of section thirty-eight-a of this article.

11 2. The tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity,
12 following notice by the owner in compliance with subdivision one of 13 section thirty-eight-a of this article, shall have one hundred twenty 14 days from the date of the notice of the determination of the appraised
15 value to submit its offer to purchase.

16 3. If through no fault of a tenant association, or if applicable, a 17 qualified entity, or the owner, the time period provided for in subdivi-18 sion two of this section needs to be extended, then such time period may 19 be extended by the division. Should such time period be extended past 20 the notice period provided for in subdivision one of section thirty-21 eight-a of this article, then the provisions of the applicable assisted 22 rental housing program shall remain in full force and effect to the 23 extent permitted by law.

24 4. Except where the owner and a tenant association, or if applicable, 25 a qualified entity, agree to a purchase price of the assisted rental 26 housing at an amount below the appraised value, any offer made pursuant 27 to this section shall be accepted by the owner.

28 5. If a tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified entity, does 29 not submit its offer in writing to the owner and the division within the 30 time periods stated in subdivision two of this section following notice 31 by the owner in compliance with subdivision one of section
32 thirty-eight-a of this article, then such right will be deemed waived
33 and the owner shall have no further obligations under this section.
34 However, where a tenant association, or if applicable, a qualified enti-
35 ty, has previously submitted a notice in accordance with subdivision one 36 of this section decides not to exercise such right, it may withdraw such 37 notice by giving written notice to that effect to the owner and to the 38 division.

39 § 38-f. Prior notification. Notwithstanding any other provision of 40 this article, where an owner has given notice prior to the effective 41 date of this article and the intent of such notice is to initiate a 42 procedure to withdraw the assisted rental housing from a program set 43 forth in subdivision three of section thirty-eight of this article, and 44 such notice was properly given in accordance with any other applicable 45 provision of law and more than forty-five days remain prior to the expi-46 ration of the time period applicable to such notice, a tenant associ-47 ation, or if applicable, a qualified entity, may complete any action 48 authorized by sections thirty-eight-c, thirty-eight-d and thirty-eight-e 49 of this article at any time prior to the expiration of such time period.

50 § 38-g. Long term affordability. A tenant association, or if applica-51 ble, a qualified entity, including all successors in interest, which 52 chooses to exercise the rights provided for in section thirty-eight-d or 53 section thirty-eight-e of this article will be obligated to maintain the 54 assisted rental housing as affordable.

55 § 38-h. Right of transfer. 1. During the notice period provided for in 56 section thirty-eight-a of this article, the tenants, by written consent

1 of the tenants residing in at least sixty percent of the occupied dwell-2 ing units within the same assisted rental housing, may transfer the 3 rights established by section thirty-eight-d and section thirty-eight-e 4 of this article to a qualified entity.

5 2. Notice of such transfer shall be provided to the owner and the 6 division in writing within sixty days from receipt of notice from the 7 owner pursuant to section thirty-eight-a of this article.

8 § 38-i. Conversion of property. Notwithstanding the provisions of 9 section thirty-eight-d and section thirty-eight-e of this article, when 10 a conversion occurs, an owner or bona fide purchaser shall allow the 11 current tenant or tenants to remain in their respective dwelling units 12 for the longer of six months from the effective date of the conversion 13 or until the tenant's lease expires, and at the same terms and condi-14 tions as before such conversion. Such owner or purchaser may, with the 15 agreement of the tenant or tenants, relocate such tenant or tenants to 16 comparable units with comparable rents in accordance with procedures to 17 be established by the rules of the division. Nothing in this section 18 shall be deemed to limit, restrict or modify the rights of a current 19 tenant or tenants pursuant to the emergency tenant protection act of 20 nineteen seventy-four, the emergency housing rent control law, the city 21 rent and rehabilitation law or the rent stabilization law of nineteen 22 hundred sixty-nine.

23 § 38-j. Penalty. An owner found to have violated any provision of this 24 article shall, in addition to any other monetary and/or equitable 25 damages for which the owner may be liable, be liable for a civil penalty 26 of five thousand dollars per month per dwelling unit in the assisted 27 rental housing, and shall also pay to a tenant association, or if no 28 tenant association exists, each tenant, or if applicable, a qualified 29 entity, fees and costs incurred in bringing an enforcement proceeding.
30 The total civil penalties may not exceed one hundred thousand dollars 31 per dwelling unit. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as 32 prohibiting the tenant association, or if no tenant association exists, 33 the tenants, or if applicable, a qualified entity, from seeking injunc-34 tive relief against a non-compliant owner. Such proceeding shall be 35 brought in a court of competent jurisdiction.

36 § 38-k. Exclusions. 1. Nothing in this article shall affect any exist-37 ing agreement between a tenant association and an owner regarding the 38 management and operation of the assisted rental housing or the transfer 39 of the assisted rental housing to a tenant association or similar organ-40 ization in effect on the effective date of this article, except that any 41 renewal, modification or amendment of such agreement occurring on or 42 after the effective date of this article shall be subject to the 43 provisions of this article.

44 2. Nothing in this article shall affect any existing agreement between 45 an owner and one or more governmental entities relating to the manage-46 ment and operation of a multiple dwelling that is not otherwise subject 47 to this chapter or to federal law.

48 3. Nothing in this article shall affect an owner or purchaser who 49 wants to refinance in order to maintain participation in an assisted 50 rental housing program.

51 4. The provisions of this article shall not apply to a purchase by a 52 governmental entity implementing its powers of eminent domain; a judi-53 cially supervised sale or transfer of property; any bankruptcy 54 proceedings; or operation of law.

55 5. The provisions of this article shall not apply where a notice as 56 described in section thirty-eight-f of this article was properly given

1 in accordance with any other applicable provision of law and forty-five 2 or fewer days remain prior to the expiration of such applicable notice 3 period.

4 6. The provisions of this article shall prevail, notwithstanding any 5 contrary provisions of this chapter, the eminent domain procedure law, 6 or any other law.

7 § 38-1. Judicial review. Any person aggrieved by an appraisal determi-8 nation made pursuant to section thirty-eight-c of this article, or by 9 the failure of the division to approve a bona fide offer to purchase, 10 may, within thirty days of the appraisal determination or action by the 11 division, seek judicial review pursuant to article seventy-eight of the 12 civil practice law and rules in the supreme court for the county in 13 which the assisted rental housing is located. In the event that a court 14 may find that the appraisal or action by the division constitutes the 15 equivalent of a taking without just compensation, the court shall 16 require that a new appraisal or determination be made. The time periods 17 set forth in this article shall be tolled during the pendency of such a 18 proceeding and until a new appraisal or determination, if needed, is 19 made.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 21 have become a law.
