Introduced by M. of A. CRUZ, ZINERMAN, SIMON, KELLES, GONZALEZ-ROJAS, DeSTEFANO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to establishing the farm ownership succession planning program (FOSPP)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new 2 section 323-a to read as follows:

3 § 323-a. Farm ownership succession planning program. 1. The commis-4 sioner, in conjunction with the department of economic development and 5 the department of financial services, shall establish the farm ownership
6 succession planning program (hereinafter referred to as "the FOSPP").
7 Such program shall be established by August first, two thousand twenty-8 six and hold its first forum no later than October first, two thousand 9 twenty-six.

10 2. The FOSPP shall provide farm owners with a succession planning 11 toolkit that can be used by such farm owners who are planning on selling
12 or closing their farm. Such toolkit shall include, but not be limited 13 to, the following:

14 (a) financial resources available to prospective farmers interested in 15 buying farms and farmland for the purpose of farming;

16 (b) an itemized list of all farming related education and support
17 programs in place at public and private institutions of higher learning 18 in the state;

19 (c) a list of state supported economic development funding for farming
20 and for sustaining farming;

21 (d) a list of organizations within the state and in adjoining states
22 that auction and sell farming equipment and farming supplies;

23 (e) a list of all labor laws governing farm labor; and

1 (f) a list of insurance and financial services regulations impacting
2 the sale and purchasing of farms and farmland.

3 3. The FOSPP shall develop a set of statewide live and virtual forums
4 to link and educate farmers who are planning on selling their farm
5 and/or farmland, and for prospective new farmers to learn of farming 6 business opportunities, the opportunities for purchasing farms, and on 7 the established resources to assist in selling and buying farms and 8 farmland for food production. The FOSPP shall include information on 9 other existing farming collaboratives within the state and in adjoining 10 states.

11 4. (a) The FOSPP shall provide information regarding the economic 12 viability of family farming and commercial farming, including but not 13 limited to, data on farm bankruptcies, farmer held debt, state and 14 national trends impacting the farming sector, and a profile of the New 15 York state farming sector in sub-segments, including but not limited to, 16 dairy farming, vegetable farming and fruit farming.

17 (b) The commissioner, in conjunction with the department of economic 18 development, shall establish an outreach plan to chambers of commerce 19 throughout the state, including chambers of commerce that represent all 20 segments of minority businesses within the state and the adjacent states
21 of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Massachusetts, to be admin-
22 istered through the department of economic development. Such outreach 23 plan shall be submitted to the governor, the legislature and the chief 24 diversity officer of the state of New York no later than August first, 25 two thousand twenty-six.

26 5. (a) The commissioner, in conjunction with the superintendent of 27 financial services, is authorized to establish a diversity in farming 28 farm ownership succession planning advisory task force in order to 29 assist in ensuring that the FOSPP is reaching prospective farmers and 30 farming entrepreneurs who are from the list of currently protected
31 classes in the state of New York.

32 (b) The commissioner, or the designee of such commissioner, shall be 33 the chairperson of the task force. Such task force shall consist of ten 34 members and shall include members of the itemized protected classes who 35 have the ability to help promote the FOSPP within communities of such 36 protected classes. The commissioner, the commissioner of the department 37 of economic development and the superintendent of financial services 38 shall appoint one member each. Such task force shall be established and 39 named within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this 40 section.

41 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
