2 taxpayer remains eligible therefor.

3 (B) The commissioner shall determine the eligibility of taxpayers for 4 this credit utilizing the information available to such commissioner as 5 obtained from the applications submitted and from such other sources as 6 the commissioner deems reliable and appropriate. For those taxpayers

10 (C) A taxpayer who has failed to receive an advance payment that such

22 forth in this article, any other relevant procedures referenced within 23 the provisions of this article, and any other law as may be applicable, 24 to recoup the improperly issued amount.

25 (4) Limitation on amount of credit. For the purposes of determining 26 the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection, with respect to 27 a primary residence for the taxable year, there shall not be taken into 28 account rent in excess of an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent 29 of the fair market rent, including the utility allowance, applicable to 30 such residence, as most recently published, as of the beginning of the 31 taxable year, by the United States department of housing and urban 32 development.

33 (5) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under 34 this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for 35 such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be 36 credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six 37 hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest 38 shall be paid thereon.

39 (6) Administration. The commissioner shall have the authority to 40 promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proc-
41 essing, determination and granting of credits under this subsection.
