15 a two year term concurrent with their legislative terms of office.

17 the committee solely for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct

1 5. The speaker of the assembly and the minority leader of the assembly
2 shall each designate one member of the committee as a co-chairperson
3 thereof. The co-chairpersons shall receive compensation as provided for 4 in section five-a of this chapter.

5 6. The committee shall meet at least bi-monthly and at such additional 6 times as may be called for by the co-chairpersons jointly or any four 7 members of the committee.

8 7. Any vacancy occurring on the committee shall be filled within thir-
9 ty days by the appointing authority.

10 8. Five members of the committee shall constitute a quorum, and the 11 committee shall have power to act by majority vote of the total number 12 of members of the committee without vacancy.

13 9. The committee shall be funded separately from the assembly appro-
14 priations provided annually in an amount deemed appropriate by an agree-15 ment of the co-chairs for the maintenance and operation of the commit-
16 tee. Such appropriation for the committee shall be specifically lined 17 out in the legislative budget. The executive director and employees of 18 the committee shall be considered as employees of the assembly for all 19 purposes.

20 10. The committee shall:

21 (a) appoint an executive director who shall act in accordance with the 22 policies of the committee, provided that the committee may remove the 23 executive director by a majority vote for neglect of duty, misconduct in 24 office, or inability or failure to discharge the powers or duties of 25 office;

26 (b) appoint such other staff as are necessary to assist it to carry 27 out its duties under this section;

28 (c) adopt, amend, and rescind policies, rules and regulations consist-29 ent with this section to govern procedures of the committee;

30 (d) administer the provisions of this section;

31 (e) review all rules and policies of the speaker or the assembly
32 relating to conduct of members and employees of the assembly, including 33 but not limited to ethics, sexual harassment and fraternization with 34 student interns, and recommend to the speaker of the assembly and the 35 minority leader of the assembly any changes to such rules and policies 36 or offer motions to amend rules of the assembly, or offer motions to 37 suspend rules of the assembly, or adopt policies relating to conduct of 38 members and employees of the assembly, including but not limited to 39 ethics, sexual harassment and fraternization with student interns. Any 40 such policy relating to conduct of members and employees of the assembly
41 adopted by the committee shall be the policy of the assembly and subject 42 to the provisions of this section;

43 (f) develop and regularly update a course of instruction for all
44 members and employees of the assembly with regard to the laws and poli-45 cies governing their conduct. The committee shall recommend to the 46 speaker of the assembly and the minority leader of the assembly a 47 conduct and ethics training plan for implementing and scheduling such 48 course of instruction for members, employees and newly-hired employees;

49 (g) prepare an annual report to the speaker of the assembly and the 50 minority leader of the assembly summarizing the activities of the 51 committee during the previous year and recommending any changes in the 52 laws governing the conduct of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the 53 committee, or the rules, regulations and procedures governing the 54 committee's conduct. Such report shall include: (i) a listing by 55 assigned number of each complaint including current status of each
56 complaint, (ii) where a matter was deferred, and (iii) where a matter

1 has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanc-
2 tion imposed, subject to the confidentiality requirements of this 3 section; and

4 (h) investigate complaints and impose disciplinary measures against 5 members and employees found in violation of rules and policies of the 6 speaker or the assembly or the public officers law or other law.

7 11. Investigations, mandatory reporting of violations, and enforcement 8 authority:

9 (a) The committee shall have the authority, on its own accord, to 10 initiate by a majority vote an investigation into a possible violation, 11 by any member or employee of the assembly, of the rules or policy of the 12 speaker or the assembly or of the public officers law or other law.

13 (b) Any formal or informal complaint of a violation of rules and poli-14 cies of the speaker or the assembly relating to conduct of members and 15 employees of the assembly or of a violation of the public officers law 16 or other law, must be reported to the committee within five days of such 17 complaint being made to counsel, office of human resources, office of 18 administration and personnel or intake representative.

19 (c) The committee shall review such complaint at the next meeting of 20 such committee and determine by majority vote whether to investigate 21 such complaint further, commence a full formal investigation of such 22 complaint or defer such complaint to the joint commission on public
23 ethics, the legislative ethics commission, or an appropriate prosecutor.
24 The staff of the committee shall provide to the members of the committee 25 prior to such vote information regarding the likely scope and content of 26 the investigation, and a subpoena plan, to the extent such information 27 is available.

28 (d) If the committee determines by majority vote that a full formal 29 investigation shall commence the committee shall notify the individual 30 in writing, describe the possible or alleged violation of rules and 31 policies of the speaker or the assembly related to conduct of members
32 and employees of the assembly or of a violation of the public officers 33 law or other law and provide the person with a fifteen day period in 34 which to submit a written response setting forth information relating to 35 the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of such rules 36 and policies.

37 (e) The committee has the authority to conduct any inquiry pertinent 38 or material to the discharge of the functions, powers and duties imposed 39 by law; and through designated members of the staff, to subpoena 40 witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony and compel the production of 41 such books, papers, records and documents as may be relevant to any such 42 inquiry and investigation.

43 (f) If the committee determines at any stage that there is no
44 violation, it shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if 45 any. All of the foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

46 (g) The jurisdiction of the committee when acting pursuant to this 47 section shall continue notwithstanding that a member of the assembly or 48 assembly employee separates from assembly service, provided that the 49 committee notifies such individual of the alleged violation of rules and 50 policies of the speaker or the assembly relating to conduct of members
51 and employees of the assembly or of a violation of the public officers 52 law pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision within one year from 53 their separation from assembly service.

54 (h) If during the course of its investigation the committee deems that 55 a violation of rules and policies of the speaker or the assembly related 56 to conduct of members and employees of the assembly or a violation of the public officers law or other law has occurred, the committee shall notify the individual in writing.

(i) The committee shall have the authority to (i) recommend punishments for violations of rules and policies of the speaker or the assembly, or the public officers law or other law, including but not limited to censure, stripping members of leadership positions or expulsion pursuant to section three of this chapter and (ii) assess penalties pursuant to applicable law or rule.

(j) No member or employee of the assembly shall take any adverse personnel action with respect to another member or employee of the assembly in retaliation for their making a report to the committee, or for their official duties as a member of the committee, concerning conduct which they know or reasonably believe to be a violation of rules and policies of the speaker or the assembly or the public officers law or other law.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of article six of the public officers law, the only records of the committee which shall be available for public inspection and copying are:

(i) the terms of any settlement or compromise of a complaint or referral or report which includes a fine, penalty or other remedy reached by the committee; and

(ii) all reports required by this section.

12. Notwithstanding the provisions of article seven of the public officers law, no meeting or proceeding of the committee shall be open to the public, except if expressly provided otherwise by this section or the committee.
