Introduced by M. of A. CUNNINGHAM -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to requiring the department of labor to study the long-term impact of artificial intelligence on the state workforce; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 12-a to 2 read as follows:

3 § 12-a. Study on the long-term impact of artificial intelligence on 4 the state workforce. 1. No later than six months after the effective 5 date of this section, the department, in consultation with the depart-
6 ment of civil service and the office of information technology services, 7 shall begin a study on the long-term impact of artificial intelligence 8 on the state workforce including but not limited to job performance, 9 productivity, training, education requirements, privacy and security.
10 The department shall issue an interim report on its current findings and 11 recommendations for legislative action every five years and shall issue 12 a final report and recommendations for legislative action no later than 13 December thirty-first, two thousand thirty-four. The department shall 14 issue its reports and recommendations to the governor, the speaker of 15 the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, the temporary presi-16 dent of the senate, and the minority leader of the senate.

17 2. Until the final report and recommendations are received pursuant to 18 subdivision one of this section, every state department, board, bureau, 19 division, commission, committee, public authority, public corporation, 20 council, office or other governmental entity performing a governmental 21 or proprietary function for the state shall be prohibited from using 22 artificial intelligence in any way that shall result in the displacement
