AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to excluding certain real property conveyances from the written notice requirement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 291 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 2 641 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 291. Recording of conveyances. A conveyance of real property, within 4 the state, on being duly acknowledged by the person executing the same,
5 or proved as required by this chapter, and such acknowledgment or proof 6 duly certified when required by this chapter, may be recorded in the 7 office of the clerk of the county where such real property is situated, 8 and such county clerk or city registrar where applicable shall, upon the 9 request of any party, on tender of the lawful fees therefor, record the 10 same in said office. Every such conveyance not so recorded is void as 11 against any person who subsequently purchases or acquires by exchange or 12 contracts to purchase or acquire by exchange, the same real property or 13 any portion thereof, or acquires by assignment the rent to accrue there-14 from as provided in section two hundred ninety-four-a of this article, 15 in good faith and for a valuable consideration, from the same vendor or 16 assignor, [~~his~~] such vendor or assignor's distributees or devisees, and 17 whose conveyance, contract or assignment is first duly recorded, and is 18 void as against the lien upon the same real property or any portion 19 thereof arising from payments made upon the execution of or pursuant to 20 the terms of a contract with the same vendor, [~~his~~] such vendor's 21 distributees or devisees, if such contract is made in good faith and is 22 first duly recorded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase in the 23 principal balance of a mortgage lien by virtue of the addition thereto 24 of unpaid interest in accordance with the terms of the mortgage shall 25 retain the priority of the original mortgage lien as so increased

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

provided that any such mortgage instrument sets forth its terms of repayment. The clerk of the county or city registrar where such conveyance of residential real property is recorded and maintained shall mail a written notice of such conveyance to the owner of record. The notice shall have the heading printed in 20 point bold type and read as follows:

"NOTICE OF SALE OR TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP OF YOUR RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY.

To: _____

Name of owner of record

Our records show that you are listed as the current owner of record for residential property:

Block # _____ Lot # _____

Located At: _____

street address

in the county of _____ New York

On _____, documents were filed at this date

office to change ownership and transfer title of your property.

To: _____

name of new owner

If you have any questions regarding the validity of the documents, and wish to dispute the recording of the transfer, you should obtain legal counsel. If you believe you are a victim of a crime related to this recording, contact your local law enforcement agency or, if in the City of New York, the office of the sheriff."

The party seeking to record such conveyance shall bear the cost of such written notice. The clerk of the county or city registrar is entitled to charge a reasonable fee to cover the cost of mailing the envelope to the owner of record. Failure to mail such notice or the failure of any party to receive the same, shall not affect the validity of the conveyance of the property. Conveyances by the state of New York or any of its political subdivisions in conjunction with a foreclosure of a tax lien pursuant to a proceeding in rem under title three of article eleven of the real property tax law shall not require written notice.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
