18 include designated spaces for: the recordation of the results of the 19 investigation by the law enforcement agency and the basis for any action

24 be limited to spaces to identify:

25 (a) what other services or agencies, including but not limited to 26 medical, shelter, advocacy and other supportive services are or have 27 previously been involved with the victim; [~~and~~]

28 (b) whether the victim has been provided with the written notice 29 described in subdivision five of section eight hundred twelve of the 30 family court act and subdivision six of section 530.11 of the criminal 31 procedure law[~~-~~]; and

32 (c) the results of a lethality assessment.

33 (i) By January first, two thousand twenty-eight, the division, in 34 consultation with the New York state office for the prevention of domes-35 tic violence and relevant stakeholders, shall update the domestic inci-36 dent report form and develop training for law enforcement on how to 37 administer the lethality assessment questions. Such training shall be 38 delivered by the New York state office for the prevention of domestic 39 violence in consultation with the division. All law enforcement officers 40 shall successfully complete such training by January first, two thousand 41 twenty-nine. Beginning January first, two thousand twenty-nine, such 42 training shall also be incorporated into the training requirements for 43 new law enforcement officers.

44 (ii) Lethality assessment questions shall be set forth in a separate 45 and clearly designated section of the domestic incident report form. The 46 lethality assessment questions may be duplicated or included in any 47 other part of the domestic incident form. To administer the lethality 48 assessment questions, a law enforcement officer shall ask the victim, in 49 the same or similar wording and in the same order, all of the following 50 questions; provided, however, the division, in consultation with the 51 office for the prevention of domestic violence, may issue guidance to 52 amend, supplement, or remove any questions:

53 (1) Have they ever used a weapon against you or threatened you with a 54 weapon?

55 (2) Did they ever threaten to kill you, your children, or your pets?

1 (3) Do you believe they will try to kill you or have they tried to 2 kill you?

3 (4) Have they ever strangled or choked you or attempted to strangle or 4 choke you?

5 (5) Do they have a firearm or could they get one easily?

6 (6) Are they violently or constantly jealous, or do they control most 7 of your daily activities?

9 being married?

10 (8) Are they unemployed?

11 (9) Have they ever threatened to kill themselves?

12 (10) Do you have a child whom they believe is not their biological 13 child?

14 (11) Do they follow, spy on, or send threatening messages to you?

15 (12) Is there anything else that worries you about your safety and, if 16 so, what worries you?

17 (13) Any other questions the division, in consultation with the office 18 for the prevention of domestic violence, shall deem necessary.

19 (iii) A law enforcement officer shall advise the victim of the results

26 risk teams. If the law enforcement officer determines the information 27 collected in response to such questions establishes credible information 28 that an individual is likely to engage in conduct that would result in 30 or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law, the 31 office shall file an application for an extreme risk protection order

33 practice law and rules.

34 (iv) If the victim does not, or is unable to, provide information to a 35 law enforcement officer sufficient to allow the law enforcement officer 36 to administer a lethality assessment, the law enforcement officer shall 37 note the lack of a lethality assessment in a written police report and 38 attempt to refer the victim to the nearest certified domestic violence
39 program or the New York state domestic and sexual violence hotline.

40 § 3. Subdivision (a) of section 214-b of the executive law, as amended
