AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to providing protections for telecommunications tower technicians

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. Installation and maintenance of telecommunications equipment on towers is sensitive work that requires diligent consideration of safety concerns. Tower climbing is an essential yet dangerous job - between 2003 and 2022, 166 workers in the cell tower industry died on the job - but there are few regulations and safety standards in place.

2 Additionally, the existence of multi-layered employment structures in the industry can weaken employer accountability for ensuring safe conditions, impacting both workers and the public.

3 The work tower technicians perform ensures New Yorkers have access to reliable and convenient cell service that is essential to daily life, as well as reliable 911 services. Many of these towers are state assets or on state-owned land. New York state has a proprietary and economic interest in ensuring that its property is properly maintained and safeguarded, that equipment installed on state property does not cause any undue risk to property or livelihood.

4 § 2. The labor law is amended by adding a new article 21-C to read as follows:

ARTICLE 21-C

TOWER TECHNICIAN PROTECTIONS

Section 795. Definitions.
