28 offense as defined in this section or any attempt or conspiracy to 29 commit any of the foregoing offenses where the defendant and the person
30 against whom the offense was committed were members of the same family 31 or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of the 32 criminal procedure law.

33 3. For purposes of this section, a member of the same family or house-
34 hold shall mean the following individuals:

- 35 (a) persons related by consanguinity or affinity;
36 (b) persons legally married to one another;
37 (c) persons formerly married to one another regardless of whether they 38 still reside in the same household;
39 (d) persons who have a child in common regardless of whether such 40 persons are married or have lived together at any time; or
41 (e) unrelated persons who are continually or at regular intervals
42 living in the same household or who have in the past continually or at 43 regular intervals lived in the same household.

44 § 261.05 Sentencing.

45 A person who is found guilty of a domestic violence offense pursuant 46 to this article, and the specified offense occurs in the presence of a
47 child aged fifteen years or less, shall be guilty of a class E felony.
48 Any sentence imposed pursuant to a conviction under this section is to 49 be served consecutive to any sentence imposed for the underlying 50 offense.

51 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 70.25 of the penal law, as amended by 52 chapter 56 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

53 2. When more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed on a person
54 for two or more offenses committed through a single act or omission, or 55 through an act or omission which in itself constituted one of the 56 offenses and also was a material element of the other, the sentences,

1 except if one or more of such sentences is for a violation of section
2 270.20 of this chapter, must run concurrently. Provided, however, that
3 if one or more of such sentences is for a conviction under article two
4 hundred sixty-one of this chapter, the sentence may run consecutively.
5 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 6 have become a law.
