IN ASSEMBLY

March 4, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. WALKER, SEAWRIGHT, ZINERMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the requirements for notaries public and commissioners of deeds relating to certain instruments affecting real property; and to amend the penal law, in relation to forgery and the offering of false documents concerning residential real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 135-d
2 to read as follows:

3 § 135-d. Requirements of notaries public and commissioners of deeds
4 related to certain instruments affecting real property. 1. This section 5 shall apply to every notarial act in the state involving a document of 6 conveyance that transfers or purports to transfer title with respect to 7 residential real property located in the state. It shall also apply to 8 commissioners of deeds appointed pursuant to section one hundred forty 9 of this article.

10 2. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the follow-11 ing meanings:

12 a. "document of conveyance" shall mean a deed, indenture, or other 13 written instrument that transfers or purports to transfer title effect-
14 ing a change in ownership to residential real property, or otherwise 15 presented to evidence the conveyance of real property ownership from one 16 party to another excluding:

17 (i) court ordered transfer or otherwise effected change of residential 18 real property including but not limited to a transfer between spous-
19 es or former spouses as a result of a decree of divorce, dissol-20 ution of marriage, annulment, or legal separation, or as a result of 21 property settlement related thereto, or agreement incidental to a

5. Filing of the notarial record. The notary or commissioner of deeds shall file the notarial record in accordance with the procedures set forth in this subdivision.

a. The notarial record shall be delivered no later than fourteen days after it is created to the clerk or office of the register of the county or city within which the residential property that is the subject of the conveyance is located.

b. If the notarial record was created by a notary public in the scope of their work for a title insurance company, title insurance agent, financial institution, law firm or attorney at law, the notary public shall deliver the notarial record no later than fourteen days after it is created to such title insurance company, financial institution, law firm or attorney at law. Such title insurance company, financial institution, law firm or attorney at law, or any successor or assignee of such title insurance company, financial institution, law firm or attorney at law within the seven-year retention period.

6. The notarial record shall be retained for ten years in accordance with the procedures described in subdivision five of this section. No copies of the original notarial record may be made or retained by the notary. The notary's employer or principal pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision five of this section, or a notary attorney acting within the

1 scope of their employment may retain copies of the notarial records as 2 business records.

3 7. Any person or entity violating the provisions of this section
4 shall, in addition to all other penalties provided by law, be required
5 to file an official bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars 6 for a first offense and fifty thousand dollars for a subsequent offense.
7 The secretary of state shall assess such penalty following an adjudica-8 tory proceeding conducted in accordance with the state administrative 9 procedure act.

10 8. The failure of a notary or a commissioner of deeds to comply with 11 the procedure set forth in this section shall not affect the validity of 12 the residential real property transaction in connection to which the 13 document of conveyance is executed, in the absence of fraud and forgery.

14 § 2. Section 136 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 15 subdivision 4 to read as follows:

16 4. For performing a notarial act related to a document of conveyance 17 for which a notarial record is required pursuant to section one hundred 18 thirty-five-d of this article, the notary or commissioner of deeds may 19 charge a fee of twenty-five dollars in addition to any fees required to 20 file the notarial record.

21 § 3. Section 170.10 of the penal law, subdivision 1 as amended by 22 chapter 949 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

23 § 170.10 Forgery in the second degree.

24 A person is guilty of forgery in the second degree when such person 25 forges an owner's signature on a document purporting to be a document of 26 conveyance under false pretenses or, with intent to defraud, deceive or 27 injure another, [~~he~~] such person falsely makes, completes or alters a 28 written instrument which is or purports to be, or which is calculated to 29 become or to represent if completed:

30 1. A [~~deed,~~] document of conveyance, will, codicil, contract, assign-31 ment, commercial instrument, credit card, as that term is defined in 32 subdivision seven of section 155.00 of this part, or other instrument 33 which does or may evidence, create, transfer, terminate or otherwise 34 affect a legal right, interest, obligation or status; or

35 2. A public record, or an instrument filed or required or authorized 36 by law to be filed in or with a public office or public servant; or

37 3. A written instrument officially issued or created by a public 38 office, public servant or governmental instrumentality; or

39 4. Part of an issue of tokens, public transportation transfers, 40 certificates or other articles manufactured and designed for use as 41 symbols of value usable in place of money for the purchase of property 42 or services; or

43 5. A prescription of a duly licensed physician or other person author-44 ized to issue the same for any drug or any instrument or device used in 45 the taking or administering of drugs for which a prescription is 46 required by law.

47 Forgery in the second degree is a class D felony.

48 § 4. Section 170.15 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

49 § 170.15 Forgery in the first degree.

50 A person is guilty of forgery in the first degree when, with intent to 51 defraud, deceive or injure another, [~~he~~] such person falsely makes, 52 completes or alters a written instrument which is or purports to be, or 53 which is calculated to become or to represent if completed:

54 1. Part of an issue of money, stamps, securities or other valuable 55 instruments issued by a government or governmental instrumentality; [~~or~~]

5 that transfers or otherwise affects residential real property, including 6 a mortgage, an assignment of mortgage, a satisfaction of mortgage, a 7 contract of sale, and any document that is required for recording a deed 8 with a governmental agency.

9 Forgery in the first degree is a class C felony.

10 § 5. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 175.31 and 11 175.32 to read as follows:

12 § 175.31 Offering a false instrument for filing in the second degree;
13 real property.

14 A person is guilty of offering a false instrument for filing in the 15 second degree; real property when, knowing that a written instrument 16 contains a false statement or false information concerning a deed or 17 a part of any type of a deed or other instrument that transfers or 18 otherwise affects residential real property, including a mortgage, an 19 assignment of mortgage, a satisfaction of mortgage, a contract of sale,
20 and any document that is required for recording a deed with a govern-21 mental agency, such person offers or presents it to a public office or 22 public servant with the knowledge or belief that it will be filed 23 with, registered or recorded in or otherwise become a part of the 24 records of such public office or public servant.

25 Offering a false instrument for filing in the second degree; real 26 property is a class E felony.

27 § 175.32 Offering a false instrument for filing in the first degree;
28 real property.

29 A person is guilty of offering a false instrument for filing in the 30 first degree; real property when:

31 1. knowing that a written instrument contains a false statement or 32 false information concerning a deed or a part of any type of a deed or 33 other instrument that transfers or otherwise affects residential real 34 property, including a mortgage, an assignment of mortgage, a satisfac-
35 tion of mortgage, a contract of sale, and any document that is required 36 for recording a deed with a governmental agency, and with intent to 37 defraud the state or any political subdivision, public authority or 38 public benefit corporation of the state, such person offers or 39 presents it to a public office, public servant, public authority
40 or public benefit corporation with the knowledge or belief that it 41 will be filed with, registered or recorded in or otherwise become 42 a part of the records of such public office, public servant, public 43 authority or public benefit corporation.

44 Offering a false instrument for filing in the first degree; real prop-
45 erty is a class D felony.

46 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
