IN ASSEMBLY

March 6, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. SANTABARBARA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to standards of proof for the purposes of establishing a student has a disability in the university of the state of New York or the city university of New York system

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 239-c
2 to read as follows:

3 § 239-c. Proof of disability for the purposes of accommodation. 1. The 4 regents shall establish a policy of accepting the following forms of 5 documentation as proof that a student or prospective student is an indi-
6 vidual with a disability, which shall include, but not be limited to:

7 (a) Documentation that such individual has had an Individualized
8 Education Program (IEP) under the Individuals with Disabilities Educa-
9 tion Act (IDEA) pursuant to part three hundred of title thirty-four of 10 the code of federal regulations, as such regulations may, from time to 11 time, be amended. A university may ask for additional documentation from 12 an individual who had an IEP but who was subsequently evaluated and 13 determined to be ineligible for services under the IDEA, including an 14 individual who was determined to be ineligible for such IEP during 15 elementary school.

16 (b) Documentation that such individual has received services or accom-
17 modations provided to such individual under a section 504 plan provided
18 to such individual pursuant to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 19 1973. A university may ask for additional documentation, if needed, to 20 establish a reasonable accommodation.

21 (c) A plan or record of service for the individual from a private 22 school, a local educational agency, a state educational agency or an institution of higher education provided in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

(d) A record or evaluation from a relevant licensed professional finding that the individual has a disability.

(e) A plan or record of disability from another institution of higher education.

(f) Documentation of a disability due to service in the uniformed services.

2. The regents shall provide such policy to students, faculty, and the public in accessible formats, including during any student orientation, and publicly posted on such university's website.

3. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a university under the jurisdiction of the regents from establishing a less burdensome criteria for determining whether an individual is an individual with a disability.

§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6235 to read as follows:

§ 6235. Proof of disability for the purposes of accommodation. 1. The board of trustees shall establish a policy of accepting the following forms of documentation as proof that a student or prospective student is an individual with a disability, which shall include, but not be limited to:
