IN ASSEMBLY

March 11, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. SIMONE, BENEDETTO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to authorizing electronic absentee ballot applications and absentee ballot submissions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 8-400 of the election law, as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

(c) All applications requesting an absentee ballot be delivered to the voter or an agent by mail or through the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system must be received by the board of elections not later than the tenth day before the election for which a ballot is first requested. Applications for an absentee ballot that will be delivered in person at the board of elections to the voter or to an agent of the voter must be received by such board not later than the day before such election. In addition to postal or personal delivery of the application to the board of elections, the board of elections shall accept delivery of absentee ballot applications from persons residing in a country other than the United States while maintaining eligibility to vote in elections in New York: (i) by telephone facsimile transmission to a phone number which shall be designated by the board of elections; (ii) as an attachment to an electronic mail transmission sent to an electronic mail address which shall be designated by the board of elections; and (iii) through an online electronic absentee ballot application filing system which shall be established by the state board of elections and which shall transmit each application to the appropriate board of elections for processing. The website for each board of elections shall advertise the electronic mail address and telephone facsimile number required by this section and shall provide a link to the online electronic filing system established pursuant to this section. An application delivered to the board of elections by electronic means shall be an original application without necessity for a subsequent conforming paper submission and shall be deemed filed when received by the board of elections, except if received by electronic means after business hours or extended hours as designated by this chapter, such application shall be deemed received as of the next day on which the board is open to receive absentee ballot applications. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the application of the electronic signature provisions of the state technology law with respect to applications for an absentee ballot.

§ 2. Section 8-410 of the election law, as amended by chapter 500 of the laws of 2024, is amended to read as follows:

§ 8-410. Absentee voting; method of. 1. Marking of the ballot. The absentee voter shall mark an absentee ballot as provided for paper ballots or ballots prepared for counting by ballot counting machines. ~~[He or she]~~ Such voter shall make no mark or writing whatsoever upon the ballot, except as above prescribed, and shall see that it bears no such mark or writing. ~~[He or she]~~ Such voter shall make no mark or writing whatsoever on the outside of the ballot. In cases where the express intent of the voter is unambiguous, any stray marks or writing shall not be a basis for voiding a ballot.

2. Submission of the ballot; by mail. After marking the ballot or ballots ~~[he or she]~~ such voter shall fold each such ballot and enclose them in the envelope and seal the envelope. ~~[He or she]~~ Such voter shall then take and subscribe the oath on the envelope, with blanks properly filled in. The envelope, containing the ballot or ballots, shall then be mailed or delivered to the board of elections of the county or city of ~~[his or her]~~ their residence or deposited in an absentee ballot drop box established by the board of elections of the county or city of the voter's residence.

3. Submission of the ballot; by electronic mail. Such voter shall then take and subscribe the oath in the electronic mail, with blanks properly filled in. Such voter shall then return the ballot or ballots via electronic mail to the state board of elections using the electronic absentee ballot transmittal system.

§ 3. Section 11-203 of the election law, as added by chapter 104 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 11-203. Special federal voters; designation of means of transmission by special federal voters. ~~[1.]~~ A special federal voter may designate a preference to receive a voter registration application, a special federal ballot application or a special federal ballot by mail, facsimile transmission or electronic mail. Such designation shall remain in effect until revoked or changed by the special federal voter. If a special federal voter does not designate a preference, the board of elections shall transmit the voter registration application, special federal ballot application or special federal ballot by mail. If a special federal voter designates a preference for facsimile transmission or electronic mail but does not provide the necessary facsimile number or e-mail address, the board of elections shall transmit the voter registration application, special federal ballot application or special federal ballot by mail and request the omitted information. All communications to the special federal voter shall include the mailing address of the board of elections.

~~[2. Irrespective of the preferred method of transmission designated by a special federal voter, a special federal voter's original completed voter registration application, special federal ballot application and~~
