STATE OF NEW YORK

6725

2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 11, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. GRIFFIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to theft of property from a senior citizen and creating the class E felony of fraudulent accosting in the first degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 155.30 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 13 to read as follows:

13. The value of the property exceeds two hundred fifty dollars and is taken from a person who is sixty-five years of age or older.

§ 2. Section 165.30 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 772 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

§ 165.30 Fraudulent accosting in the second degree.

1. A person is guilty of fraudulent accosting in the second degree when [~~he~~] such person accosts [~~a~~] another person in a public place with intent to defraud [~~him~~] such other person of money or other property by means of a trick, swindle or confidence game.

2. A person who, either at the time [~~he~~] such person accosts another in a public place or at some subsequent time or at some other place, makes statements to [~~him~~] such other person or engages in conduct with respect to [~~him~~] such other person of a kind commonly made or performed in the perpetration of a known type of confidence game, is presumed to intend to defraud such other person of money or other property.

Fraudulent accosting in the second degree is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 165.31 to read as follows:

§ 165.31 Fraudulent accosting in the first degree.

1. A person is guilty of fraudulent accosting in the first degree when such person accosts another person, who is sixty-five years of age or EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09940-01-5

older, in a public place with intent to defraud such other person of money or other property by means of a trick, swindle or confidence game.

2. A person who, either at the time such person accosts another in a public place or at some subsequent time or at some other place, makes statements to such other person or engages in conduct with respect to such other person of a kind commonly made or performed in the perpetration of a known type of confidence game, is presumed to intend to defraud such other person of money or other property.

Fraudulent accosting in the first degree is a class E felony.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.