IN ASSEMBLY

March 11, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. SIMONE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law, in relation to the right of tenants to offset payments for repairs of hazardous conditions in certain cases in cities subject to such law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The multiple dwelling law is amended by adding a new 2 section 302-d to read as follows:

3 § 302-d. Right of tenant to offset payments for repairs of hazardous
4 conditions; certain cases. 1. As used in this section, unless another 5 meaning clearly appears from the context:

6 a. "Department" shall mean the department or agency of a city with a 7 population of one million or more that is charged with enforcement of 8 housing laws;

9 b. "Hazardous violation" shall mean a violation of this chapter, the 10 city housing maintenance code or article eighteen of the executive law 11 or the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto identified or 12 classified by the city as hazardous to the life, health and safety of 13 the occupants of a dwelling;

14 c. "Immediately hazardous violation" shall mean a violation of this 15 chapter, the city housing maintenance code or article eighteen of the 16 executive law or the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto 17 identified or classified by the city as immediately hazardous to the 18 life, health and safety of the occupants of a dwelling;

19 d. "City" shall mean a city to which this chapter applies.

20 2. In a city, any tenant acting alone or together with other tenants
21 in a multiple dwelling, wherein there exists a condition constituting a 22 hazardous or immediately hazardous violation, may contract and pay for 23 the repair of such condition in accordance with the provisions of this 24 section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 3. Any payment so made shall be deductible from rent providing the 2 following provisions have been substantially complied with by the tenant 3 or his agent:

4 a. The landlord or their agent have been sent notice of such hazardous
5 or immediately hazardous violation posted by certified mail, return 6 receipt requested.

7 b. In the case of an immediately hazardous violation, such violation 8 has been certified by the department and seven days have passed after 9 written notice was first offered for delivery by the postal service to 10 the landlord or their agent without completion of repairs or commence-11 ment of repairs of such violation by the landlord and provision in writ-12 ing to the tenant of a reasonable schedule for completion of such 13 repairs.

14 c. In the case of a hazardous violation, such violation has been 15 certified by the department and thirty days have passed after written 16 notice was first offered for delivery by the postal service to the land-17 lord or their agent without completion of repairs or commencement of 18 repairs of such violation by the landlord and provision in writing to 19 the tenant of a reasonable schedule for completion of such repairs.

20 4. When a tenant or group of tenants contracts for repair work pursu-21 ant to the provisions of this section, the following conditions shall be 22 met:

23 a. If a tenant or group of tenants do not hire an outside contractor, 24 they may deduct costs for materials.

25 b. If a tenant or group of tenants hire an outside contractor to 26 perform repairs they may deduct charges for materials and labor,
27 provided that reasonable efforts are made to have the repair work done 28 by qualified individuals at prevailing rates.

29 c. Tenants must receive an itemized bill from the person, firm or 30 corporation from whom materials or labor are purchased.

31 d. Where a license to perform services is required by law, a tenant or 32 group of tenants shall hire an outside licensed contractor.

33 e. Any person, firm, corporation or employee thereof providing 34 services under the provisions of this section must be licensed to 35 perform the repairs requested by a tenant or group of tenants, where a 36 license to provide such services is required by law.

37 5. The maximum amount of money an individual tenant may deduct for 38 repair work under the provisions of this section shall be one thousand 39 dollars or the sum of two months rent, whichever is greater. The maximum 40 amount of money two or more tenants acting together may deduct for 41 repair work from their combined rents under the provisions of this 42 section shall be three thousand dollars; provided, however, such maximum 43 amount may be ten thousand dollars if in addition to the other
44 provisions of this section, the tenants have posted by certified mail,
45 return receipt requested, to the landlord or their agent an itemized
46 estimate for repair of an immediately hazardous violation prepared by a 47 qualified person, firm or corporation and, within eight days, the land-
48 lord has neither commenced repair work nor presented a written schedule 49 for reasonable completion of the repair work necessary to remove the 50 immediately hazardous violation.

51 6. The introduction into evidence in any action or proceeding of any 52 statement rendered in compliance with the provisions of paragraph b of 53 subdivision four of this section shall be presumptive of the facts stat-54 ed therein. Sufficient foundation for the allowance into evidence of 55 such statement shall consist of the oral testimony of any person named

1 as a payer of all or part of the amount indicated thereon relating the 2 facts and circumstances in which the statement was rendered.

3 7. Any tenant who has in good faith secured and paid for repairs, 4 otherwise in conformance with the provisions of this section and against 5 whom an action or proceeding to recover possession of the premises for 6 nonpayment of rent or any other action or proceeding attributable at 7 least in part to the tenant seeking or taking a deduction from rent as 8 allowed by this section shall, in addition to any other amounts, be 9 entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees against an 10 owner bringing such action or proceeding.

11 8. No owner or agent shall be entitled to recover any amounts in 12 damages from any tenant or group of tenants who attempt in good faith 13 and act reasonably in carrying out the intendment of this section.

14 9. The remedy provided in this section shall not be exclusive and a 15 court may provide such other relief as may be just and proper in the 16 circumstances. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or 17 deny any existing constitutional, statutory, administrative or common 18 law right of a tenant to contract and pay for any goods and services for 19 such multiple dwelling. This section shall not be construed to preclude 20 any defense, counterclaim or cause of action asserted by a tenant that 21 may otherwise exist with respect to an owner's failure to provide any 22 service.

23 10. Any agreement by a tenant of a dwelling waiving or modifying their 24 rights as set forth in this section shall be void as contrary to public 25 policy.

26 11. The provisions of this section shall be liberally construed so as 27 to give effect to the purpose set forth herein.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 29 in any city which has not heretofore made the classifications referred 30 to in paragraphs b and c of subdivision 1 of section 302-d of the multi-31 ple dwelling law, as added by section one of this act such classifica-
32 tions shall be made within six months of the effective date of this act 33 and this act shall not be deemed to take effect in such city until such 34 classifications are made.
