AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to requiring the department of civil service to allow municipalities to post municipal employment positions on the department of civil service's state jobs website

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 59-d of the civil service law, as amended by chapter 521 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

§ 59-d. Public posting of employment opportunities. 1. For the purposes of this section, the term "municipality" shall mean a village, town, city, or county.

2. The department shall make publicly available on its website all employment opportunities in the civil service of the state and information on obtaining employment with the state, including, but not limited to, vacancies in the competitive, non-competitive and labor jurisdictional classes, announcements for upcoming open-competitive and promotional examinations, test application instructions, and designations of which employment opportunities are eligible to be filled by individuals with disabilities and veterans with disabilities, including whether such positions may be filled on a full-time or part-time basis, pursuant to section fifty-five-b and section fifty-five-c, as amended by a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three, of this title.

3. The department shall provide municipalities in the state with the ability to post municipal employment opportunities on the same website of the department under which state civil service positions are posted pursuant to subdivision two of this section, including all other relevant information as described under subdivision two of this section. Such municipal employment opportunities shall be posted in a format
