AN ACT providing for a grace period in which former employees of the department of corrections and community supervision that participated in a strike may return to work; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. 1. Any employee of the department of corrections and commu-
2 nity supervision who engaged in a strike or work stoppage on or between 3 the dates of February 18, 2025, and the effective date of this act, 4 shall be allowed to be reinstated and return to work on their assigned
5 tour by July 1, 2025. For any department of corrections and community
6 supervision employee who participated in a voluntary work stoppage 7 between February 18, 2025, and the effective date of this act and 8 returns to work before July 1, 2025, there shall be no disciplinary 9 action or demotion of rank. Any department of corrections and community 10 supervision employee who resigned between February 18, 2025, and the 11 effective date of this act shall be allowed full reinstatement to the 12 department of corrections and community supervision and will be allowed 13 to return to full duty without discipline. Any employee who has been 14 terminated or received termination notice shall be returned to full duty
15 without discipline and shall be reinstated to the status they maintained
16 on or before February 18, 2025.

17 2. No department of corrections and community supervision employee on 18 pre-approved leave for family medical leave, workers compensation, paid 19 parental leave, long term sick leave, bereavement, or sick leave at 20 half-pay, shall be ordered to prematurely return to work between Febru-
