(8) When any member assigned to the bureau of criminal investigation completes a year of service entitling them to move to a higher salary, they shall be paid the higher salary at the start of the pay period immediately following their completion of the required years of service in the bureau that move them to the next higher salary.

§ 2. Paragraph b of subdivision 2 of section 207-b of the state finance law is REPEALED and a new paragraph b is added to read as follows:

b. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, and upon audit and warrant of the state comptroller, the director shall provide for the payment of monies to such employee organization for the establishment and maintenance of an employee benefit fund established by the employee organization for the employees in the collective negotiating unit covered by the controlling provisions of such agreement providing for such employee benefit fund, such amount to be determined consistent with said agreement, including any and all monies agreed to be transferred in said agreement, and on the basis of the number of full-time annual salaried employees, other than full-time seasonal employees, on the payroll for the payroll period that includes March first, two thousand twenty-three, for payments to be made on April first, two thousand twenty-three, and on the payroll for the payroll period that includes March first, two thousand twenty-four, for payments to be made on April first, two thousand twenty-four, and on the payroll for the payroll period that includes March first, two thousand twenty-five, for payments to be made on April first, two thousand twenty-five. The amount, which will be determined pursuant to this section, for employees who are paid from special or administrative funds, other than the general fund or the capital projects fund of the state, will be paid from the appropriations as provided by law, in which case the state comptroller shall establish procedures to ensure repayment from said special or administrative funds. The director shall enter into an agreement with an employee organization, which sets forth the specific terms and conditions for the transmittal of monies pursuant to this section.

§ 3. Subdivision 5 of section 216-b of the executive law is REPEALED and a new subdivision 5 is added to read as follows:

5. (a) (1) Effective April first, two thousand twenty-three, all members of the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators and investigative specialists in the division of state police, who on their anniversary date of employment with the division of state police have attained six or more years of such satisfactory service in the division, shall be paid a longevity award according to the following schedule for each year of such satisfactory service up to twenty-five years:

Years of Service	Amount per year
6-10	$556
11-15	$608
16-25	$659

(2) Effective April first, two thousand twenty-four, all members of the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators and investigative specialists in the division of state police, who on their anniversary date of employment with the division of state police have attained six or more years of such satisfactory service in the division, shall be paid a longevity award according to the following schedule for each year of such satisfactory service up to twenty-five years:

Years of Service	Amount per year
6-10	$573
11-15	$626
16-25	$679

(3) Effective April first, two thousand twenty-five, all members of the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators and investigative specialists in the division of state police, who on their anniversary date of employment with the division of state police have attained six or more years of such satisfactory service in the division, shall be paid a longevity award according to the following schedule for each year of such satisfactory service up to twenty-five years:

Years of Service	Amount per year
6-10	$590
11-15	$645
16-25	$699

(4) Individuals with greater than twenty-five years of service shall continue to receive a longevity award at the twenty-five-year amount. Such payment shall commence in the pay period following such anniversary date and shall be annualized and paid over the year-long period between anniversary dates.

(b) The longevity amounts provided by this subdivision shall be in addition to, and shall not be a part of, a member's annual basic salary, and shall not impair any increments or other rights or benefits to which a member may be entitled; provided, however, that longevity awards shall be included as compensation for purposes of computation of overtime pay and for retirement purposes.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 of section 216-c of the executive law is REPEALED and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:

2. In addition to the compensation provided in subdivision one of this section, members of the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators and investigative specialists in the division of state police, on the payroll on November first of each year, shall receive holiday compensation as follows:

April 1, 2023	$1,835
April 1, 2024	$1,890
April 1, 2025	$1,947

Such payments shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's annual basic salary, except for the purpose of retirement and, effective May eighth, two thousand twenty-five, overtime, and shall be made in a separate check during the payroll period which includes December first each year.

§ 5. Health benefits committee. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026, there shall continue to be a committee on health benefits funded in the following amounts:

April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2024	$6,095
April 1, 2024 - March 31, 2025	$6,278
April 1, 2025 - March 31, 2026 and beyond	$6,466

One-half of this amount in each year shall be made available to the state and one-half shall be made available to the employee organization representing such unit.

§ 6. Maintenance allowance. (a) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, each member of such unit shall receive a maintenance allowance as follows:

April 1, 2023	$3,779
April 1, 2024	$3,892
April 1, 2025	$4,009

(b) Such maintenance allowance shall be paid on an annualized basis in regular bi-weekly paychecks. Such additional compensation, as provided in this section, shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for purposes of computation of overtime pay and retirement.

§ 7. Expertise pay. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members in such collective negotiating unit shall receive expertise pay as follows:

April 1, 2023	$4,734
April 1, 2024	$5,109
April 1, 2025	$5,609

(b) Such expertise pay shall be payable to those unit members on the payroll on November 1 of each year during the pay period that includes December 1. Such additional compensation as provided in this section shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for purposes of computation of overtime pay and as compensation for retirement.

§ 8. Professional development and training funds. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026, there shall continue to be a professional development and quality of working life committee funded in the following amounts from which the tuition reimbursement program, the master's program, the employee assistance program and other activities as outlined in the collective bargaining agreement shall be supported:

April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2024	$99,829
April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025	$102,824
April 1, 2025 to March 31, 2026 and beyond	$105,909

§ 9. Expanded duty pay. (a) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, the annual payment for expanded duty pay shall continue to be $9,235. Effective April 1, 2023, this amount shall be $9,512. Effective April 1, 2024, the amount shall be $9,797. Effective April 1, 2025, this amount shall be $11,860.

(b) Such expanded duty pay shall be annualized and paid during regular bi-weekly periods. Such additional compensation as provided in this section shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for purposes of computation of overtime pay and as compensation for retirement.

§ 10. Supervisory responsibility pay. (a) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, effective March 31, 2005, certain members shall continue to receive additional compensation, as prescribed in the interest arbitration award dated February 4, 2005 as modified by and contained within such agreement, when designated by the division of state police to work as a "unit coordinator", "acting senior investigator", or "acting administrative senior investigator".

(b) Such additional compensation as provided in this section shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay and retirement.

§ 11. Location compensation. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, members in the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police whose principal place of employment or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station, as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is located in the county of Monroe, who were on the payroll on March 31, 1985, and who have received this location compensation continually since then, shall continue to receive location pay at the rate of $200 per year; provided that each such member continues to be otherwise eligible.

(b) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members of such unit whose principal place of employment or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station, as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is located in the city of New York or in the counties of Rockland, Westchester, Nassau, or Suffolk shall receive location pay effective April 1, 2023 in the amount of $1,807; $1,861 effective April 1, 2024 and $2,461 effective April 1, 2025. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, pursuant to the terms of the agreement negotiated between the state and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members in this collective negotiating unit whose principal place of employment, or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is located in the county of Orange, Putnam or Dutchess shall receive location pay at the rate of $1,807 effective April 1, 2023; $1,861 effective April 1, 2024 and $2,211 effective April 1, 2025.

(c) Such location pay as provided in this section shall be annualized and paid during the regular bi-weekly periods. Such compensation shall be in addition to and shall not be part of the member's basic annual salary and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that location pay shall be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay and retirement.

§ 12. Supplemental location pay. (a) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members of such unit whose principal place of employment, or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station, as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is located in the city of New York or in the county of Putnam, Orange, Dutchess, Rockland, Westchester, Nassau, or Suffolk shall continue to receive supplemental location pay, in addition to the location pay provided in section eleven of this act, as follows:

Effective Date	April 1, 2023	April 1, 2024	April 1, 2025
Orange/Putnam/ Dutchess	$1,372	$1,413	$1,413
NYC/Rockland/ Westchester	$2,400	$2,472	$2,472
Nassau/Suffolk	$2,400	$2,472	$2,472

(b) Such supplemental location pay shall be annualized and paid during the regular bi-weekly periods. Such compensation shall be in addition to and shall not be part of the member's basic annual salary and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that supplemental location pay shall be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay and retirement.

§ 13. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members in such collective negotiating unit shall, upon reaching eight years of service in the division, continue to receive seniority pay as of April 1, 2023 at the rate of $1519. However, effective May 8, 2025, unit members shall receive seniority pay when such individual reaches eight or more years with the New York state police, holds the rank of sergeant, or takes the sergeant's exam and is placed on the sergeant's list for promotion.

(b) Such seniority pay shall be annualized and paid during the regular bi-weekly periods. Such compensation shall be in addition to and shall not be part of the member's basic annual salary and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that seniority pay shall be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay and retirement.

§ 14. Unused sick leave at retirement. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members of such unit shall continue to receive a lump sum cash payment for accumulated and unused sick leave credits standing to the employee's credit at the time of separation from service by retirement. The amount of such payment shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) Effective April 1, 1998, the number of days of such accumulated and unused sick leave, not to exceed 300 days, less 165 days, shall be multiplied by the member's daily rate of pay in effect at the time of separation from service by retirement.

(b) The lump sum payment shall be one-fifth of such amount provided for in subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) Such additional compensation shall be in addition to and shall not be part of the member's basic annual salary and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for retirement purposes.

§ 15. Lump sum payment. Each eligible member of this unit shall receive a one-time lump sum payment in the amount of $3,000. This payment is not part of basic annual salary, is not subject to any salary increases and is not pensionable. The one-time lump sum payment shall be pro-rated for those employees paid on any basis other than an annual basis. To qualify, employees must be in continuous service in the unit between the period September 26, 2024 through July 25, 2025. Employees who leave state service between September 26, 2024 through July 25, 2025, are not eligible for this bonus unless they retire directly from active state employment. This bonus shall be effective July 25, 2025. If a member received a lump sum payment as a member of another state bargaining unit, they shall not receive a second lump sum payment.

§ 16. Recognized degree pay. (a) Pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members of such unit who possess or obtain a recognized degree from an accredited and recognized college or university on or after April 1, 2001, shall continue to receive a lump sum payment of $250 for an associate degree, $500 for a bachelor's degree, and $750 for a graduate degree. Payment for such degree shall occur annually in June of each year and shall be for one degree only. When such degree is obtained in a fiscal year, such payment shall be made as soon as practicable after conferral of the degree.

(b) Such additional compensation as provided in this section shall be in addition to, and shall not be part of, the member's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any rights or benefits to which the member may be entitled; provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included as compensation for retirement purposes.

§ 17. Short swings. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, effective September 1, 2016, members of this unit who are required to work short swings shall receive compensation of thirty dollars ($30) for each short swing they are required to work and actually work. There shall be no short swing compensation where the short swing is worked at the request of, or for the convenience of the member, as determined by the division of state police. The definition of short swing shall be when there are eight hours or less between the scheduled end time of a member's tour of duty and the start time of the next scheduled tour of duty. Such compensation shall not be payable if such member's hours of work continue from the end time of the member's tour of duty to the commencement of the start time of the next scheduled tour of duty without interruption.

§ 18. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, pursuant to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the executive branch of the state of New York and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, members of such unit shall receive recall overtime only in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement.

§ 19. Payment and publication of grievance arbitration settlements and awards. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the appropriations contained in this act shall be available to the state for the payment and publication of grievance arbitration settlements and awards pursuant to article 15 of the collective negotiating agreement between the state and the employee organization representing the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police, such provisions being in effect pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 209-a of the civil service law.

§ 20. The compensation and benefit modifications provided for by this act for state employees in the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law shall not be implemented until the director of employee relations shall have delivered to the director of the budget and the comptroller a letter certifying that there is in effect with respect to such negotiating unit a collective bargaining agreement which provides for such compensation and benefit modifications and which is fully executed in writing with the state pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law, and ratified pursuant to the ratification procedure of the employee organization certified pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law to represent such collective negotiating unit.

§ 21. Date of entitlement to salary increase. Notwithstanding the provisions of this act or of any other provision of law to the contrary, the increase of salary or compensation of any member of the collective negotiating unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police provided by this act shall be added to the salary of such member at the beginning of that payroll period the first day of which is nearest to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act, or at the beginning of the earlier of two payroll periods the first days of which are nearest but equally near to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act; provided, however, that, for the purposes of determining the salary of such officer or employee upon reclassification, reallocation, appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, reinstatement, or other change of status, such salary increase shall be deemed to be effective on the date thereof as prescribed by this act, with payment thereof pursuant to this section on a date prior thereto, instead of on such effective date, and shall not operate to confer any additional salary rights or benefits on such officer or employee. Payment of such salary increase may be deferred pursuant to section twenty-two of this act.

§ 22. Deferred payment of salary increase. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this act or of any other provision of law to the contrary, pending payment pursuant to this act of the basic annual salaries of incumbents of positions subject to this act, such incumbents shall receive, as partial compensation for services rendered, the rate of compensation otherwise payable in their respective positions. An incumbent holding a position subject to this act at any time during the period from the effective dates of the salary increases provided for in this act until the time when basic annual salaries are first paid pursuant to this act for such services in excess of the compensation actually received therefor, shall be entitled to a lump sum payment for the difference between the salary to which such incumbent is entitled for such service and the compensation actually received therefor. Such lump sum payment shall be made as soon as practicable. Any amount payable in such lump sum paid represents compensation earned in each of the year or years for which it is calculated pursuant to this act and not as compensation earned wholly in the year during which the lump sum is paid. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, no member of the unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police to whom the provisions of this act apply shall be entitled to, or owed, any interest or other penalty for any reason on any monies due to such member pursuant to the terms of the agreement covering employees in the unit consisting of investigators, senior investigators, and investigative specialists in the division of state police.

§ 23. Use of appropriations. Notwithstanding any provision of the state finance law or any other provision of law to the contrary, commencing April 1, 2025, the state comptroller is authorized to pay any amounts required by the provisions of this act to any state department or agency from any appropriation or other funds available to such state department or agency for personal service, other than personal service and fringe benefits. To the extent that such appropriations are insufficient in any fund to accomplish the purposes herein set forth, the director of the budget is authorized to allocate to the various departments and agencies, from any appropriations available in any fund, the amounts necessary to pay such amounts. The aforementioned appropriations shall be available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred during the period April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2026.

§ 24. Notwithstanding any provision of the state finance law or any other provision of law to the contrary, the sum of $43,700,000 is hereby appropriated in the general fund/state purposes account (10050) in miscellaneous-all state departments and agencies solely for apportionment/transfer by the director of the budget for use by any state department or agency in any fund during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026 to supplement appropriations for personal service, other than personal service and fringe benefits, and to carry out the provisions of this act. No money shall be available for expenditure from this appropriation until a certificate of approval has been issued by the director of the budget and a copy of such certificate or any amendment thereto has been filed with the state comptroller, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee. The monies hereby appropriated are available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026. For this purpose, the monies appropriated shall remain in full force and effect for the payment of liabilities incurred on or before March 31, 2026.

§ 25. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the several amounts as hereinafter set forth, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated from the fund so designated for use by any state department or agency during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026 to supplement appropriations from each respective fund available for other than personal service and fringe benefits, and to carry out the provisions of this act. The monies hereby appropriated are available for the payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred during the period April 1, 2023 through March 31, 2026. No money shall be available for expenditure from the monies appropriated until a certificate of approval has been issued by the director of the budget and a copy of such certificate or any amendment thereto has been filed with the state comptroller, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee.
