Introduced by M. of A. ALVAREZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring public school students to take three financial literacy courses between sixth and twelfth grades

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 819 to 2 read as follows:

3 § 819. Courses of study in financial literacy. 1. All public school 4 students shall, within grades six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, and 5 twelve, complete three distinct semester-long courses of study in finan-6 cial literacy.

7 2. The board of education or trustees of the school district is 8 charged with developing and maintaining a financial literacy program
9 which complies with the provisions of this section. Topics of such 10 courses shall include, but not be limited to:

11 a. an introductory financial literacy course, focused on core personal 12 finance;

13 b. investment, interest, credit card debt, student loans, credit
14 scores, and related topics;

15 c. local, state, and federal income tax;

16 d. insurance, including medical, auto, home, and life insurance and 17 related topics; and

18 e. financial planning, saving, and goal-setting.

19 3. The commissioner may prescribe from time to time a course of exer-
20 cises and instruction in the subjects listed in subdivision two of this 21 section, which shall be adopted and observed by the board of education 22 or trustees of public school districts. Upon receipt of copies of such 23 course sufficient in number to supply all the schools under their super-
