AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to directing the department of health to create an informational pamphlet concerning menopause

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 267-c to read as follows:

§ 267-c. Information concerning menopause. 1. The department shall develop an informational pamphlet concerning menopause. Such pamphlet shall include, but shall not be limited to, information concerning:

(a) the stages of menopause;

(b) the signs and side effects of menopause; and

(c) options for the management and treatment of menopause.

2. Such informational pamphlet shall be written in layperson's language and shall be made available in English and the six most common non-English languages spoken by individuals with limited English proficiency in New York state as based on the most recent census.

3. Such informational pamphlet shall be made available on the department's website as a printable file and may also be made available for order as a printed deliverable on the department's website.

4. Practitioners shall make such informational pamphlet available to patients.

5. For purposes of this section, "practitioner" shall mean a health care professional licensed, certified or otherwise authorized to practice under the education law, acting within their scope of practice.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
