IN ASSEMBLY

September 12, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. REYES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to wage requirements for certain support professionals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 224-g to 2 read as follows:

3 § 224-g. Wage requirements for certain support professionals. 1.
4 Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall 5 have the following meanings:

6 (a) "Human services worker" shall mean any employee that either
7 provides direct care, support, or treatment to an individual participat-8 ing in an eligible program and services as defined in this section or 9 any employee who may not provide direct care to an individual but whose 10 job title goals are to help improve or enhance an individual's health 11 and/or welfare by addressing social problems and who are not making the 12 base wage as established in this section. Such definition shall not 13 include executive professionals.

14 (b) "Eligible program" means any state-funded program or service that 15 is provided to individuals or groups of individuals, for the purpose of 16 improving or enhancing such individuals' health and/or welfare, by 17 addressing social problems that are funded, licensed, or certified by 18 the offices, if such program or service is provided to individuals or 19 groups of individuals, for the purpose of improving or enhancing such 20 individuals' health and/or welfare, by addressing social problems.

21 (c) "Downstate region" means the region consisting of Bronx, Kings, 22 New York, Nassau, Queens, Richmond, Suffolk, and Westchester counties.

23 (d) "Rest of the state" means all other counties of the state not 24 included in downstate region.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (e) "Offices" means the office of mental health, office for people 2 with developmental disabilities, office of addiction services and 3 supports, office of temporary and disability assistance, office of chil-
4 dren and family services, the state office for the aging, the department
5 of education, the department of health, the office of victim services, 6 and any other state agency that may have eligible programs, if such 7 program or service is provided to individuals or groups of individuals, 8 for the purpose of improving or enhancing such individuals' health
9 and/or welfare, by addressing social problems.

10 (f) "Social services district" shall have the same meaning as defined 11 by section two of the social services law.

12 2. Human services worker wages. (a) The provisions of this paragraph 13 shall apply to the downstate region. Beginning April two thousand twen-14 ty-six, for the downstate region, and pending federal approval where 15 necessary, the commissioners or other chief officers of the offices
16 shall provide sufficient funding for any contracts between such offices 17 and not-for-profit organizations and any eligible programs funded by 18 allocations or reimbursements from such offices to social services 19 districts to provide a base wage to human services workers employed in 20 eligible programs, and to human services workers employed by any 21 contractors or subcontractors working in any eligible program, to ensure 22 such human services workers are paid a base wage. Such base wage shall 23 be twenty-nine dollars per hour for the downstate region and shall be 24 phased in subject to the following schedule:

25 (i) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-six, the base wage
26 shall be twenty dollars per hour;

27 (ii) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-seven, the base wage
28 shall be twenty-four dollars per hour;

29 (iii) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-eight, the base wage
30 shall be twenty-six dollars per hour; and

31 (iv) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-nine, the base wage 32 shall be twenty-nine dollars per hour or four hundred percent of the 33 federal poverty level, whichever is greater.

34 (b) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the rest of the 35 state. Beginning April first, two thousand twenty-six, and pending
36 federal approval where necessary, the commissioners or other chief offi-
37 cers of the offices, shall provide sufficient funding for any contracts
38 between such offices and not-for-profit organizations and any eligible 39 programs funded by allocations or reimbursements from such offices to 40 social services districts to provide a base wage to human services work-
41 ers employed in eligible programs, and to human services workers
42 employed by any contractors or subcontractors working in any eligible 43 program, to ensure such human services workers are paid a base wage.
44 Such base wage shall be twenty-nine dollars per hour for the rest of 45 state and shall be phased in subject to the following schedule:

46 (i) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-six, the base wage
47 shall be nineteen dollars per hour;

48 (ii) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-seven, the base wage
49 shall be twenty-one dollars per hour;

50 (iii) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-eight, the base wage
51 shall be twenty-three dollars per hour;

52 (iv) beginning April first, two thousand twenty-nine, the base wage
53 shall be twenty-six dollars per hour; and

54 (v) beginning April first, two thousand thirty, the base wage shall be 55 twenty-nine dollars per hour or four hundred percent of the federal 56 poverty level, whichever is greater.

1 (c) Annual human services worker base wage increase. (i) The 2 provisions of this subparagraph shall apply to the downstate region. On 3 and after April first, two thousand thirty, the base wage rate applied 4 under paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be adjusted annually by 5 the offices. Such adjusted base wage rate shall be determined by 6 increasing the then current year's base wage rate by the rate of change
7 in the average of the three most recent consecutive twelve-month periods
8 between the first of August and the thirty-first of July, each over
9 their preceding twelve-month periods published by the United States 10 department of labor non-seasonally adjusted consumer price index for 11 northeast region urban wage earners and clerical workers (CPI-W) or any 12 successor index as calculated by the United States department of labor, 13 with the result rounded to the nearest five cents.

14 (ii) The provisions of this subparagraph shall apply to the rest of 15 the state. On and after April first, two thousand thirty-one, the base 16 wage rate applied under paragraph (b) of this subdivision shall be 17 adjusted annually by the offices. Such adjusted base wage rate shall be 18 determined by increasing the then current year's base wage rate by the 19 rate of change in the average of the three most recent consecutive 20 twelve-month periods between the first of August and the thirty-first of 21 July, each over their preceding twelve-month periods published by the 22 United States department of labor non-seasonally adjusted consumer price
23 index for northeast region urban wage earners and clerical workers
24 (CPI-W) or any successor index as calculated by the United States
25 department of labor, with the result rounded to the nearest five cents.

26 3. Eligible employee list. The commissioners or other chief officers 27 of the offices, in consultation with the division of the budget, shall 28 establish a list of eligible employee titles for base wages in accord-
29 ance with subdivision two of this section. Using forms and processes 30 that shall be developed by the commissioners or other chief officers of 31 the offices, employers shall indicate the number of eligible employees 32 based on such list of eligible titles.

33 4. Allocations. The commissioners or other chief officers of the 34 offices shall distribute an allocation to each eligible provider based 35 on the forms developed pursuant to subdivision three of this section.
36 The funds distributed pursuant to this section shall be used to enhance 37 base wages of eligible employees.

38 5. Reimbursement. Where appropriate, transfers to the department of 39 health shall be made as reimbursement for the state share of medical 40 assistance.

41 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
