AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to permitting admission of spontaneous statements by victims of certain offenses who are elderly, physically disabled, incompetent or determined to be incapacitated

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 60.51 to read as follows:

§ 60.51 Rules of evidence; admissibility of statements of certain victims.

1. This section applies to any proceeding in the prosecution of an offense under article one hundred fifty-five, one hundred seventy or one hundred ninety of the penal law, if committed against a vulnerable elderly person, an incompetent or physically disabled person, or a person who has been determined to be incapacitated under article eighty-one of the mental hygiene law.

2. This section applies only to statements that describe the alleged offense that were made by the vulnerable elderly, incompetent, physically disabled, or incapacitated victim:

(a) to the first person, eighteen years of age or older, other than the defendant, to whom the victim made a statement about the offense;

(b) spontaneously during or immediately after the alleged criminal conduct; or

(c) for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment.

3. A statement that meets the requirements of subdivision two of this section is not inadmissible as hearsay evidence if:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD13529-02-6

(a) on or before the fourteenth day before the date the proceeding begins, the party intending to offer the statement:

(i) notifies the adverse party of its intention to do so;

(ii) provides the adverse party with the name of the witness through whom it intends to offer the statement; and

(iii) provides the adverse party with a written summary of the statement;

(b) the trial court finds, in a hearing conducted outside the presence of the jury, that the statement is reliable based on the time, content, and circumstances of the statement; and

(c) the vulnerable elderly, incompetent, physically disabled or incapacitated person testifies or is available to testify at the proceeding in court or in any other manner.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
