10 (f) Provided the taxpayer has not made an election pursuant to para-11 graph two of subdivision (b) of section 11-642 of this part, there shall 12 be allowed as a deduction in determining entire net income, to the 13 extent not deductible in determining federal taxable income, the 14 adjusted eligible net income of an international banking facility deter-

16 (1) The eligible net income of an international banking facility shall 17 be the amount remaining after subtracting from the eligible gross income 18 the applicable expenses.

19 (2) Eligible gross income shall be the gross income derived by an 20 international banking facility from:

21 (A) making, arranging for, placing or servicing loans to foreign 22 persons, provided, however, that in the case of a foreign person which 23 is an individual, or which is a foreign branch of a domestic corpo-24 ration, other than a bank, or which is a foreign corporation or foreign 25 partnership which is eighty per centum or more owned or controlled, 26 either directly or indirectly, by one or more domestic corporations,

28 substantially all the proceeds of the loan are intended for use outside 29 of the United States;

30 (B) making or placing deposits with foreign persons which are banks or 31 foreign branches of banks, including foreign subsidiaries or foreign 32 branches of the taxpayer, or with other international banking facili-

35 related to any of the transactions described in this paragraph.

36 (3) Applicable expenses shall be any expenses or other deductions 37 attributable, directly or indirectly, to the eligible gross income 38 described in paragraph two of this subdivision.

39 (4) Adjusted eligible net income shall be determined by subtracting 40 from eligible net income the ineligible funding amount, and by subtract-41 ing from the amount then remaining the floor amount.

42 (5) The ineligible funding amount shall be the amount, if any, deter-43 mined by multiplying eligible net income by a fraction, the numerator of 44 which is the average aggregate amount for the taxable year of all 45 liabilities, including deposits, and other sources of funds of the 46 international banking facility which were not owed to or received from 47 foreign persons, and the denominator of which is the average aggregate 48 amount for the taxable year of all liabilities, including deposits and 49 other sources of funds of the international banking facility.

50 (6) The floor amount shall be the amount, if any, determined by multi-51 plying the amount remaining after subtracting the ineligible funding 52 amount from the eligible net income by a fraction, not greater than one, 53 which is determined as follows:

54 (A) The numerator shall be

55 (i) the percentage, as set forth in subparagraph (C) of this para-56 graph, of the average aggregate amount of the taxpayer's loans to 1 foreign persons and deposits with foreign persons which are banks or 2 foreign branches of banks, including foreign subsidiaries or foreign 3 branches of the taxpayer, which loans and deposits were recorded in the 4 financial accounts of the taxpayer for its branches, agencies and 5 offices within the state for taxable years nineteen hundred seventy-6 five, nineteen hundred seventy-six and nineteen hundred seventy-seven, 7 minus

8 (ii) the average aggregate amount of such loans and such deposits for 9 the taxable year of the taxpayer, other than such loans and deposits of 10 an international banking facility, provided, however, that in no case 11 shall the amount determined in this clause exceed the amount determined 12 in clause (i) of this subparagraph; and 13 (B) The denominator shall be the average aggregate amount of the loans 14 to foreign persons and deposits with foreign persons which are banks or 15 foreign branches of banks, including foreign subsidiaries or foreign 16 branches of the taxpayer, which loans and deposits were recorded in the 17 financial accounts of the taxpayer's international banking facility for 18 the taxable year.

19 (C) The percentage shall be one hundred percent for the first taxable 20 year in which the taxpayer establishes an international banking facility 21 and for the next succeeding four taxable years. The percentage shall be 22 eighty percent for the fifth, sixty percent for the sixth, forty percent 23 for the seventh, and twenty percent for the eighth taxable year next 24 succeeding the year such taxpayer establishes such international banking 25 facility, and zero in the ninth succeeding year and thereafter.

26 (7) In the event adjusted eligible net income is a loss, such loss 27 shall be added to entire net income.

28 (8) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "foreign person" means:

29 (A) an individual who is not a resident of the United States,

30 (B) a foreign corporation, a foreign partnership or a foreign trust,

39 shall have the same meaning as set forth in section seventy-seven 40 hundred one of the internal revenue code.

41 (g) Entire net income shall be computed without regard to the 42 reduction in the basis of property that is required by section three 43 hundred sixty-two of the internal revenue code, because of any amount of 44 money or other property received from the federal deposit insurance 45 corporation pursuant to subsection (c) of section thirteen of the feder-46 al deposit insurance act, as amended, or from the federal savings and 47 loan insurance corporation pursuant to paragraph one, two, three or four 48 of subsection (f) of section four hundred six of the federal national 49 housing act, as amended.

50 (h)(1) For purposes of this subdivision, a "thrift institution" is a 51 banking corporation which satisfies the requirements of subparagraphs 52 (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

53 (A) Such banking corporation must be (i) a banking corporation as 54 defined in paragraph one of subdivision (a) of section 11-640 of this 55 part created or authorized to do business under article six or ten of 56 the banking law, (ii) a banking corporation as defined in paragraph two

1 or seven of subdivision (a) of section 11-640 of this part which is 2 doing a business substantially similar to the business which a corpo-

4 the banking law or any business which a corporation or association is 5 authorized by such article to do, or (iii) a banking corporation as 6 defined in paragraph four or five of subdivision (a) of section 11-640 7 of this part.

8 (B) At least sixty percent of the amount of the total assets, at the 9 close of the taxable year, of such banking corporation must consist of 10 (i) cash; (ii) obligations of the United States or of a state or poli-11 tical subdivision thereof, and stock or obligations of a corporation 12 which is an instrumentality of the United States or of a state or poli-

17 or from the proceeds of the loan, will become, residential real property

19 improvement of residential real property or real property used primarily 20 for church purposes, provided that for purposes of this clause, residen-

22 ities in residential developments dedicated to public use or property 23 used on a nonprofit basis for residents, and mobile homes not used on a 24 transient basis; (v) property acquired through the liquidation of 25 defaulted loans described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph; (vi) any

29 hundred sixty-L of the internal revenue code, but only in the proportion 30 which the assets of such REMIC or FASIT consist of property described in 31 clauses (i) through (v) of this subparagraph, except that if ninety-five 32 percent or more of the assets of such REMIC or FASIT are assets 33 described in clauses (i) through (v) of this subparagraph, the entire 34 interest in the REMIC or FASIT shall qualify; (vii) any mortgage-backed 35 security which represents ownership of a fractional undivided interest 36 in a trust, the assets of which consist primarily of mortgage loans,
37 provided that the real property which serves as security for the loans
38 is, or from the proceeds of the loan, will become, the type of property 39 described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph and any collateralized 40 mortgage obligation, the security for which consists primarily of mort-41 gage loans, provided that the real property which serves as security for 42 the loans is, or from the proceeds of the loan, will become, the type of 43 property described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph; (viii) certif-

48 developed for predominantly residential use under an urban renewal plan 49 approved by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development under part A 50 or part B of title I of the Housing Act of nineteen hundred forty-nine, 51 as amended, or located within any area covered by a program eligible for 52 assistance under section one hundred three of the Demonstration Cities 53 and Metropolitan Development Act of nineteen hundred sixty-six, as 54 amended, and loans made for the improvement of any such real property; 55 (x) loans secured by an interest in educational, health, or welfare

3 ties; (xi) loans made for the payment of expenses of college or univer-4 sity education or vocational training; (xii) property used by the 5 taxpayer in the conduct of business which consists principally of 6 acquiring the savings of the public and investing in loans; (xiii) loans 7 for which the taxpayer is the creditor and which are wholly secured by 8 loans described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph, but excluding loans 9 for which the taxpayer is the creditor to any banking corporation 10 described in paragraphs one through seven of subdivision (a) of section 11 11-640 of this part or a real estate investment trust, as such term is 12 defined in section eight hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue code, 13 and excluding loans which are treated by the taxpayer as subsidiary 14 capital for purposes of the deductions provided by paragraph eleven of 15 subdivision (e) of this section; (xiv) small business loans or small 16 farm loans located in low-income or moderate-income census tracts or 17 block numbering areas delineated by the United States bureau of the 18 census in the most recent decennial census; and (xv) community develop-19 ment loans or community development investments. For purposes of clause 20 (xv) of this subparagraph, a "community development loan" is a loan that 21 (I) has as its primary purpose community development, (II) has not been 22 reported or collected by the taxpayer for consideration in the taxpay-23 er's community reinvestment act evaluation pursuant to the federal 24 community reinvestment act of nineteen hundred seventy-seven, as 25 amended, or section twenty-eight-b of the banking law as a mortgage loan 26 described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph or a small business loan, 27 small farm loan, or consumer loan, (III) benefits the taxpayer's assess-28 ment area or areas for purposes of the federal community reinvestment 29 act of nineteen hundred seventy-seven, as amended or section twenty-30 eight-b of the banking law or a broader statewide or regional area that 31 includes the taxpayer's assessment area, and (IV) is identified in the 32 taxpayer's books and records as a community development loan for 33 purposes of its community reinvestment act evaluation pursuant to the 34 federal community reinvestment act of nineteen hundred seventy-seven, as 35 amended or section twenty-eight-b of the banking law. For purposes of 36 clause (xv) of this subparagraph, a "community development investment" 37 is an investment in a security which has as its primary purpose communi-38 ty development and which is identified in the taxpayer's books and 39 records as a qualified investment for purposes of its community rein-40 vestment act evaluation pursuant to the federal community reinvestment 41 act of nineteen hundred seventy-seven, as amended or section twenty-42 eight-b of the banking law. For purposes of this subparagraph, "communi-43 ty development" means (I) affordable housing, including multifamily 44 rental housing for low-income or moderate-income individuals; (II)
45 community services targeted to low-income or moderate-income individ-46 uals; (III) activities that promote economic development by financing 47 businesses or farms that meet the size eligibility standards of the 48 small business administration's development company or small business 49 investment company programs or have gross annual revenues of one million 50 dollars or less; (IV) activities that revitalize or stabilize low-income 51 or moderate-income census tracts or block numbering areas delineated by 52 the United States bureau of the census in the most recent decennial 53 census; or (V) activities that seek to prevent defaults and/or foreclo-54 sures in loans included in items (I) and (III) of this subclause.

55 (C) At the election of the taxpayer, the percentage specified in 56 subparagraph (B) of this paragraph shall be applied on the basis of the

1 average assets outstanding during the taxable year, in lieu of the close 2 of the taxable year. For purposes of clause (iv) of subparagraph (B) of 3 this paragraph, if a multifamily structure securing a loan is used in 4 part for nonresidential use purposes, the entire loan is deemed a resi-5 dential real property loan if the planned residential use exceeds eighty 6 percent of the property's planned use, determined as of the time the 7 loan is made. Also, for purposes of clause (iv) of subparagraph (B) of 8 this paragraph, loans made to finance the acquisition or development of 9 land shall be deemed to be loans secured by an interest in residential 10 real property if there is a reasonable assurance that the property will 11 become residential real property within a period of three years from the 12 date of acquisition of such land; but this shall not apply for any taxa-13 ble year unless, within such three year period, such land becomes resi-14 dential real property. For purposes of determining whether any interest 15 in a REMIC qualifies under clause (vi) of subparagraph (B) of this para-16 graph, any regular interest in another REMIC held by such REMIC shall be 17 treated as a loan described in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) of 18 subparagraph (B) of this paragraph under principles similar to the prin-19 ciple of such clause (vi); except that if such REMICS are part of a 20 tiered structure, they shall be treated as one REMIC for purposes of 21 such clause (vi).

22 (2) For taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 23 ten, a thrift institution must exclude from the computation of its 24 entire net income any amount allowed as a deduction for federal income 25 tax purposes pursuant to section one hundred sixty-six, five hundred 26 eight-five or five hundred ninety-three of the internal revenue code.

27 (3) For taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 28 ten, a thrift institution shall be allowed as a deduction in computing 29 entire net income the amount of a reasonable addition to its reserve for 30 bad debts. This amount shall be equal to the sum of:

31 (A) the amount determined to be a reasonable addition to the reserve 32 for losses on nonqualifying loans, computed in the same manner as is 33 provided with respect to additions to the reserves for losses on loans 34 of banks under paragraph one of subdivision (i) of this section, plus

35 (B) the amount determined by the taxpayer to be a reasonable addition 36 to the reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans, but such 37 amount shall not exceed the amount determined under paragraph four or 38 five of this subdivision, whichever is the larger, but the amount deter-39 mined under this subparagraph shall in no case be greater than the larg-40 er of:

41 (i) the amount determined under paragraph five of this subdivision, or 42 (ii) the amount which, when added to the amount determined under 43 subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, equals the amount by which twelve 44 percent of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of depositors of 45 the taxpayer at the close of such year exceeds the sum of its surplus, 46 undivided profits and reserves at the beginning of such year, taking 47 into account any portion thereof attributable to the period before the 48 first taxable year beginning after December thirty-first, nineteen 49 hundred fifty-one.

50 The taxpayer must include in its tax return for each year a computa-51 tion of the amount of the addition to the bad debt reserve determined 52 under this subdivision. The use of a particular method in the return for 53 a taxable year is not a binding election by the taxpayer.

54 (4)(A) Subject to subparagraphs (B) and (C) of this paragraph, the 55 amount determined under this paragraph for the taxable year shall be an

1 amount equal to thirty-two percent of the entire net income for such 2 year.

3 (B) The amount determined under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 4 shall be reduced, but not below zero, by the amount determined under 5 subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of this subdivision.

6 (C) The amount determined under this paragraph shall not exceed the 7 amount necessary to increase the balance at the close of the taxable 8 year of the reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans to six 9 percent of such loans outstanding at such time.

10 (D) For purposes of this paragraph, entire net income shall be 11 computed

12 (i) by excluding from income any amount included therein by reason of 13 subparagraph (B) of paragraph eight of this subdivision,

14 (ii) without regard to any deduction allowable for any addition to the 15 reserve for bad debts, and 16 (iii) by excluding from income an amount equal to the net gain for the 17 taxable year arising from the sale or exchange of stock of a corporation 18 or of obligations the interest on which is excludable from gross income 19 under section one hundred three of the internal revenue code.

20 (iv) Whenever a thrift institution is properly includable in a 21 combined return, entire net income, for purposes of this paragraph, 22 shall not exceed the lesser of the thrift institution's separately 23 computed entire net income as adjusted pursuant to clauses (i) through 24 (iii) of this subparagraph or the combined group's entire net income as 25 adjusted pursuant to clauses (i) through (iii) of this subparagraph.

26 (5) The amount determined under this paragraph for the taxable year 27 shall be computed in the same manner as is provided under paragraph one 28 of subdivision (i) of this section with respect to additions to reserves 29 for losses on loans of banks. Provided, however, that for any taxable 30 year beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-five, for purposes of such 31 computation, the base year shall be the later of (A) the last taxable 32 year beginning in nineteen hundred ninety-five or (B) the last taxable 33 year before the current year in which the amount determined under the 34 provisions of subparagraph (B) of paragraph three of this subdivision 35 exceeded the amount allowable under this paragraph.

36 (6) (A) (i) Each taxpayer described in paragraph one of this subdivi-37 sion shall establish and maintain a New York reserve for losses on qual-38 ifying real property loans, a New York reserve for losses on nonqualify-39 ing loans and a supplemental reserve for losses on loans. Such reserves 40 shall be maintained for all subsequent taxable years that this subdivi-41 sion applies to the taxpayer.

42 (ii) For purposes of this subdivision, such reserves shall be treated 43 as reserves for bad debts, but no deduction shall be allowed for any 44 addition to the supplemental reserve for losses on loans.

45 (iii) Except as provided in this clause, the balances of each such 46 reserve at the beginning of the first day of the first taxable year 47 beginning after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-five 48 shall be the same as the balances maintained for federal income tax 49 purposes in accordance with paragraph one of subdivision (c) of section 50 five hundred ninety-three of the internal revenue code as in existence 51 on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-five for the last day 52 of the last tax year beginning before January first, nineteen hundred 53 ninety-six. A taxpayer which maintained a New York reserve for loan 54 losses on qualifying real property loans in the last tax year beginning 55 before January first, nineteen hundred ninety-six shall have a continua-

1 tion of such New York reserve balance in lieu of the amount determined 2 under this clause.

3 (iv) Notwithstanding clause (ii) of this subparagraph, any amount 4 allocated to the reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans 5 pursuant to paragraph five of subdivision (c) of section five hundred 6 ninety-three of the internal revenue code as in effect immediately prior 7 to the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of nineteen hundred seventy six 8 shall not be treated as a reserve for bad debts for any purpose other 9 than determining the amount referred to in subparagraph (B) of paragraph 10 three of this subdivision, and for such purpose such amount shall be 11 treated as remaining in such reserve.

12 (B) Any debt becoming worthless or partially worthless in respect of a 13 qualifying real property loan shall be charged to the reserve for losses 14 on such loans and any debt becoming worthless or partially worthless in 15 respect of a nonqualifying loan shall be charged to the reserve for 16 losses on nonqualifying loans, except that any such debt may, at the 17 election of the taxpayer, be charged in whole or in part to the supple-18 mental reserve for losses on loans.

19 (C) The New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans 20 shall be increased by the amount determined under subparagraph (B) of 21 paragraph three of this subdivision and the New York reserve for losses 22 on nonqualifying loans shall be increased by the amount determined under 23 subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of this subdivision.

24 (7)(A) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "qualifying real 25 property loan" shall mean any loan secured by an interest in improved 26 real property or secured by an interest in real property which is to be 27 improved out of the proceeds of the loan. Such term shall include any 28 mortgage-backed security which represents ownership of a fractional 29 undivided interest in a trust, the assets of which consist primarily of 30 mortgage loans, provided that the real property which serves as security 31 for the loans is, or from the proceeds of the loan, will become, the 32 type of property described in clauses (i) through (v) of subparagraph 33 (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision. However, such term shall not 34 include: (i) any loan evidenced by a security, as defined in subpara-35 graph (C) of paragraph two of subdivision (g) of section one hundred 36 sixty-five of the internal revenue code; (ii) any loan, whether or not 37 evidenced by a security, as defined in such subparagraph (C) of para-38 graph two of subdivision (g) of section one hundred sixty-five, the 39 primary obligor of which is (I) a government or political subdivision or 40 instrumentality thereof, (II) a banking corporation, or (III) any corpo-41 ration sixty-five percent or more of whose voting stock is owned or 42 controlled, directly or indirectly, by the taxpayer or by a banking 43 corporation or bank holding company that owns or controls, directly or 44 indirectly, sixty-five percent or more of the voting stock of the 45 taxpayer; (iii) any loan, to the extent secured by a deposit in or share 46 of the taxpayer; or (iv) any loan which, within a sixty-day period 47 beginning in one taxable year of the creditor and ending in its next 48 taxable year, is made or acquired and then repaid or disposed of, unless 49 the transactions by which such loan was made or acquired and then repaid 50 or disposed of are established to be for bona fide business purposes.

51 (B) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "nonqualifying loan" 52 shall mean any loan which is not a qualifying real property loan.

53 (C) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "loan" shall mean debt, 54 as the term "debt" is used in section one hundred sixty-six of the 55 internal revenue code.

1 (D) A regular or residual interest in a REMIC, as such term is defined 2 in section eight hundred sixty-D of the internal revenue code, shall be 3 treated as a qualifying real property loan, except that, if less than 4 ninety-five percent of the assets of such REMIC are qualifying real 5 property loans, determined as if the taxpayer held the assets of the 6 REMIC, such interest shall be so treated only in the proportion which 7 the assets of such REMIC consist of such loans. For purposes of deter-8 mining whether any interest in a REMIC qualifies under the provisions of 9 this paragraph, any interest in another REMIC held by such REMIC shall 10 be treated as a qualifying real property loan under principles similar 11 to the principles of this paragraph, except that if such REMICS are part 12 of a tiered structure, they shall be treated as one REMIC for purposes 13 of this paragraph.

14 (8)(A) Any distribution of property, as defined in subdivision (a) of 15 section three hundred seventeen of the internal revenue code, by a 16 thrift institution to a shareholder with respect to its stock, if such 17 distribution is not allowable as a deduction under section five hundred 18 ninety-one of such code, shall be treated as made

19 (i) first out of its New York earnings and profits accumulated in 20 taxable years beginning after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 21 fifty-one, to the extent thereof,

22 (ii) then out of the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real 23 property loans, to the extent additions to such reserve exceed the addi-24 tions which would have been allowed under paragraph five of this subdivi-25 sion,

26 (iii) then out of the supplemental reserve for losses on loans, to the 27 extent thereof,

28 (iv) then out of such other accounts as may be proper.

29 This subparagraph shall apply in the case of any distribution in redemp-30 tion of stock or in partial or complete liquidation of a thrift institu-31 tion, except that any such distribution shall be treated as made first 32 out of the amount referred to in clause (ii) of this subparagraph, 33 second out of the amount referred to in clause (iii) of this subpara-34 graph, third out of the amount referred to in clause (i) of this subpara-35 graph and then out of such other accounts as may be proper. This 36 subparagraph shall not apply to any transaction to which section three 37 hundred eighty-one of such code, relating to carryovers and certain 38 corporate acquisitions, applies, or to any distribution to the federal 39 savings and loan insurance corporation or the federal deposit insurance 40 corporation in redemption of an interest in an association or institu-41 tion, if such interest was originally received by the federal savings 42 and loan insurance corporation or the federal deposit insurance corpo-43 ration in exchange for financial assistance pursuant to subdivision (f) 44 of section four hundred six of the federal national housing act or 45 pursuant to subsection (c) of section thirteen of the federal deposit 46 insurance act.

47 (B) If any distribution is treated under subparagraph (A) of this 48 paragraph as having been made out of the reserves described in clauses 49 (ii) and (iii) of such subparagraph, the amount charged against such 50 reserve shall be the amount which, when reduced by the amount of tax 51 imposed under the internal revenue code and attributable to the inclu-52 sion of such amount in gross income, is equal to the amount of such 53 distribution; and the amount so charged against such reserve shall be 54 included in the entire net income of the taxpayer.

55 (C) (i) For purposes of clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of this para-56 graph, additions to the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real

1 property loans for the taxable year in which the distribution occurs 2 shall be taken into account.

3 (ii) For purposes of computing under this subdivision the amount of a 4 reasonable addition to the New York reserve for losses on qualifying 5 real property loans for any taxable year, the amount charged during any 6 year to such reserve pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (B) of 7 this paragraph shall not be taken into account.

8 (9) A taxpayer which maintains a New York reserve for losses on quali-9 fying real property loans and which ceases to meet the definition of a 10 thrift institution as defined in paragraph one of this subdivision, must 11 include in its entire net income for the last taxable year such para-12 graph applied the excess of its New York reserve for losses on qualify-13 ing real property loans over the greater of (A) its reserve for losses 14 on qualifying real property loans as of the last day of the last taxable 15 year such reserve is maintained for federal income tax purposes or (B) 16 the balance of the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real prop-17 erty loans which would be allowable to the taxpayer for the last taxable 18 year such taxpayer met such definition of a thrift institution if the 19 taxpayer had computed its reserve balance pursuant to the method 20 described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subdivision (i) of 21 this section.

22 (i) (1) For taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 23 ten, a taxpayer subject to the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 24 five hundred eighty-five of the internal revenue code and not subject to 25 subdivision (h) of this section may, in computing entire net income, 26 deduct an amount equal to or less than the amount determined pursuant to 27 subparagraph (A) of this paragraph or subparagraph (B) of this para-28 graph, whichever is greater. Provided, however, in no event shall the 29 deduction be less than the amount determined pursuant to such subpara-30 graph (A).

31 (A) The amount determined pursuant to this subparagraph shall be the 32 amount necessary to increase the balance of its New York reserve for 33 losses on loans, at the close of the taxable year, to the amount which 34 bears the same ratio to loans outstanding at the close of the taxable 35 year as (i) the total bad debts sustained during the taxable year and 36 the five preceding taxable years, or, with the approval of the commis-37 sioner of finance, a shorter period, adjusted for recoveries of bad 38 debts during such period, bears to (ii) the sum of the loans outstanding 39 at the close of such six or fewer taxable years.

40 (B)(i) The amount determined pursuant to this subparagraph shall be 41 the amount necessary to increase the balance of its New York reserve for 42 losses on loans, at the close of the taxable year, to the lower of:

43 (I) the balance of the reserve at the close of the base year, or

44 (II) if the amount of loans outstanding at the close of the taxable 45 year is less than the amount of loans outstanding at the close of the 46 base year, the amount which bears the same ratio to loans outstanding at 47 the close of the taxable year as the balance of the reserve at the close 48 of the base year bears to the amount of loans outstanding at the close 49 of the base year.

50 (ii) For purposes of this paragraph, the base year shall be (I) for 51 taxable years beginning in nineteen hundred eighty-seven, the last taxa-52 ble year before the most recent adoption of the experience method for 53 federal income tax purposes or for purposes of this part, whichever is 54 earlier, and (II) for taxable years beginning after nineteen hundred 55 eighty-seven, the last taxable year beginning before nineteen hundred 56 eighty-eight.

1 (2) (A) For taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 2 ten, each taxpayer described in paragraph one of this subdivision shall 3 establish and maintain a New York reserve for losses on loans. Such 4 reserve shall be maintained for all subsequent taxable years. The 5 balance of the New York reserve for losses on loans at the beginning of 6 the first day of the first taxable year the taxpayer becomes subject to 7 this subdivision shall be the same as the balance at the beginning of 8 such day of the reserve for losses on loans maintained for federal 9 income tax purposes. The New York reserve for losses on loans shall be 10 reduced by an amount equal to the deduction allowed, but not more than 11 the amount allowable, for worthless debts for federal income tax 12 purposes pursuant to section one hundred sixty-six of the internal 13 revenue code plus the amount, if any, charged against its reserve for 14 losses on loans pursuant to paragraph four of subdivision (c) of section 15 five hundred eighty-five of such code.

16 (B) For purposes of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, a taxpayer 17 which had previously been subject to the provisions of subdivision (h) 18 of this section shall establish a New York reserve for losses on loans 19 equal to the sum of (i) the greater of (I) the balance of its federal 20 reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans as of the first day 21 of the first taxable year the taxpayer becomes subject to the provisions 22 of this subdivision or (II) the greater of the amounts determined under 23 subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph nine of subdivision (h) of this 24 section in the year such paragraph applied to the taxpayer, (ii) the 25 greater of (I) the balance in its federal reserve for losses on nonqual-26 ifying loans as of the first day of the first taxable year the taxpayer 27 becomes subject to this subdivision or (II) the balance in its New York 28 reserve for losses on nonqualifying loans as of the last date the 29 taxpayer was subject to the provisions of subdivision (h) of this 30 section, and (iii) the balance in its supplemental reserve for losses on 31 loans as of the last date the taxpayer was subject to the provisions of 32 subdivision (h) of this section.

33 (3) The determination and treatment of the New York reserve balance, 34 including any additions thereto, subtractions therefrom, or recapture 35 thereof, for:

36 (A) any banking corporation which was subject to tax for federal 37 income tax purposes but not subject to tax under this part for prior 38 taxable years,

39 (B) any taxpayer which ceases to be subject to tax under this part, or 40 (C) any other unusual circumstances,

41 shall be determined by the commissioner of finance. Provided, however, 42 any banking corporation which was subject to tax for federal income tax 43 purposes but not subject to tax under this part for prior taxable years 44 shall have as its opening New York reserve for losses on loans the 45 amount determined by applying the provisions of subparagraph (A) of 46 paragraph one of this subdivision to loans outstanding at the close of 47 its last taxable year for federal income tax purposes ending prior to 48 the first taxable year for which the taxpayer is subject to tax under 49 this part and provided, further, that the provisions of subparagraph (B) 50 of paragraph one of this subdivision shall not apply.

51 (j) (1) For any taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred seventy-52 three or for any period for which a tax is imposed under subdivision (b) 53 of section 11-639 of this part, entire net income shall be computed 54 without regard to the amount allowable as a deduction for bad debts or 55 an addition to a reserve for bad debts in computing federal taxable 56 income for the taxable year, but, in lieu thereof, a deduction shall be

1 allowed to the extent and in the manner authorized by subdivision five 2 of section 11-621 or subdivision (e) of section 11-629 of this subchap-3 ter as if such provisions were set forth in full in this part and by 4 treating such provisions as applicable under this part.

5 (2) In the case of property placed in service prior to January first, 6 nineteen hundred seventy-three, for which the taxpayer properly adopted 7 a different method of computing depreciation under section 11-621 or 8 section 11-629 of this subchapter than was adopted for federal income 9 tax purposes with respect to such property, entire net income under this 10 part shall be computed without regard to the amount allowable as a 11 deduction for depreciation of such property in computing federal taxable 12 income for the taxable year but, in lieu thereof, shall be computed as 13 if such deduction were determined by the method of depreciation adopted 14 with respect to such property under section 11-621 or 11-629 of this 15 subchapter.

16 (3) In computing entire net income, the amount allowable as a
17 deduction for charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes 18 shall be: (a) increased for the first taxable year or period beginning 19 in nineteen hundred seventy-three by the amount of any contributions 20 made during such taxable year or period which were not allowable as a 21 deduction for charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes 22 for such taxable year or period because of an election pursuant to para-23 graph two of subsection (a) of section one hundred seventy of the inter-24 nal revenue code and which were not deductible in computing the tax due 25 under part one or two of this subchapter, and (b) decreased by any 26 amount allowed as a deduction for federal income tax purposes for the 27 taxable year under section one hundred seventy of the internal revenue 28 code as a carryover of excess contributions which are not made in such 29 taxable year and which were deductible in computing the tax due under 30 part one or two of this subchapter.

31 (4) There shall be excluded from the computation of entire net income 32 any amount allowed as a deduction for federal income tax purposes for 33 the taxable year under section twelve hundred twelve of the internal 34 revenue code as a capital loss carry forward to the taxable year, which 35 was deductible as a loss in computing the tax due under part one or two 36 of this subchapter.

37 (5) There shall be excluded from the computation of entire net income 38 the amount of any income or gain from the sale of real or personal prop-39 erty which is includible in determining federal taxable income for the 40 taxable year pursuant to the installment method under section four 41 hundred fifty-three of the internal revenue code, to the extent that 42 such income or gain was includible in the computation of the tax due 43 under part one or two of this subchapter.

44 (6) To the extent not otherwise provided in this part, there shall be 45 excluded from entire net income the amount necessary to prevent the 46 taxation under this part of any other amount of income or gain which was 47 properly included in income or gain and was taxable under part one or 48 two of this subchapter and there shall be disallowed as a deduction in 49 computing entire net income any amount which was allowed as a deduction 50 in computing the tax due under such parts.

51 (k) (1) At the election of the taxpayer, there shall be deducted from 52 the portion of its entire net income allocated within the city, depreci-53 ation with respect to any property such as described in paragraph two of 54 this subdivision, not exceeding twice the depreciation allowed with 55 respect to the same property for federal income tax purposes. Such 56 deduction shall be allowed only upon condition that entire net income be

1 computed without any deduction for depreciation or amortization of the 2 same property, and the total of all deductions allowed under parts one 3 and two of this subchapter three and this part in any taxable year or 4 years with respect to the depreciaton of any such property shall not 5 exceed its cost or other basis.

6 (2) Such deduction shall be allowed only with respect to tangible 7 property which is depreciable pursuant to section one hundred sixty-sev-8 en of the internal revenue code, having a situs in this city and used in 9 the taxpayer's business, (i) constructed, reconstructed or erected after 10 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, pursuant to a 11 contract which was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 12 sixty-seven, and at all times thereafter, binding on the taxpayer or, 13 property, the physical construction, reconstruction or erection of which 14 began on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven 15 or which began after such date pursuant to an order placed on or before 16 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and then only with 17 respect to that portion of the basis thereof which is properly attribut-18 able to such construction, reconstruction or erection after December 19 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, or (ii) acquired after Decem-20 ber thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, pursuant to a contract
21 which was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-22 seven, and at all times thereafter, binding on the taxpayer or pursuant 23 to an order placed on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 24 sixty-seven, by purchase as defined in subdivision (d) of section one 25 hundred seventy-nine of the internal revenue code, if the original use 26 of such property commenced with the taxpayer, commenced in this city and 27 commenced after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, or 28 (iii) acquired, constructed, reconstructed, or erected subsequent to 29 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, if such acquisi-30 tion, construction, reconstruction or erection is pursuant to a plan of 31 the taxpayer which was in existence December thirty-first, nineteen 32 hundred sixty-seven and not thereafter substantially modified, and such 33 acquisition, construction, reconstruction or erection would qualify 34 under the rules in paragraph four, five or six of subsection (h) of 35 section forty-eight of the internal revenue code provided all references 36 in such paragraphs four, five and six to the dates October nine, nine-37 teen hundred sixty-six, and October ten, nineteen hundred sixty-six, 38 shall be read as December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven. A 39 taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of 40 this paragraph only if the tangible property shall be delivered or the 41 construction, reconstruction or erection shall be completed on or before 42 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-nine, except in the case 43 of tangible property which is acquired, constructed, reconstructed or 44 erected pursuant to a contract which was, on or before December thirty-45 first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and at all times thereafter, bind-46 ing on the taxpayer. Provided, however, for any taxable year beginning 47 on or after January first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, a taxpayer 48 shall not be allowed a deduction under paragraph one of this subdivision 49 with respect to tangible personal property leased by it to any other 50 person or corporation, provided, that any contract or agreement to lease 51 or rent or for a license to use such property shall be considered a 52 lease. With respect to property which the taxpayer uses itself for 53 purposes other than leasing for part of a taxable year and leases for a 54 part of a taxable year, the taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction under 55 paragraph one of this subdivision in proportion to the part of the year 56 it uses such property.

1 (3) If the deduction allowable for any taxable year pursuant to this 2 subdivision exceeds the portion of the taxpayer's entire net income 3 allocated to this city for such year, the excess may be carried over to 4 the following taxable year or years and may be deducted from the portion 5 of the taxpayer's entire net income allocated to this city for such year 6 or years.

7 (4) In any taxable year when property is sold or otherwise disposed 8 of, with respect to which a deduction has been allowed pursuant to this 9 subdivision, subdivision twelve of section 11-621 or subdivision (j) of 10 section 11-629 of this subchapter, the gain or loss entering into the 11 computation of federal taxable income shall be disregarded in computing 12 entire net income, and there shall be added or subtracted from the 13 portion of entire net income allocated within the city the gain or loss 14 upon such sale or other disposition. In computing such gain or loss the 15 basis of the property sold or disposed of shall be adjusted to reflect 16 the deduction allowed with respect to such property pursuant to para-17 graph one of this subdivision. Provided, however, that no loss shall be 18 recognized for the purposes of this paragraph with respect to a sale or 19 other disposition of property to a person whose acquisition thereof is 20 not a purchase as defined in subdivision (d) of section one hundred 21 seventy-nine of the internal revenue code.

22 (k-1) A net operating loss deduction shall be allowed which shall be 23 presumably the same as the net operating loss deduction allowed under 24 section one hundred seventy-two of the internal revenue code, except 25 that in every instance where such deduction is allowed under this
26 subchapter:

27 (1) any net operating loss included in determining such deduction 28 shall be adjusted to reflect the inclusions and exclusions from entire 29 net income required by the other provisions of this section;

30 (2) such deduction shall not include any net operating loss sustained 31 during any taxable year beginning prior to January first, two thousand 32 nine, or during any taxable year in which the taxpayer was not subject 33 to the tax imposed by this subchapter;

34 (3) such deduction shall not exceed the deduction for the taxable year 35 allowed under section one hundred seventy-two of the internal revenue 36 code augmented by the excess of the amount allowed as a deduction pursu-37 ant to subdivision (h) or (i) of this section, whichever is applicable, 38 over the amount allowed as a deduction pursuant to section one hundred 39 sixty-six or five hundred eighty-five of the internal revenue code, for 40 each taxable year in which the taxpayer had a net operating loss which 41 is carried to the taxable year of the deduction under this provision, in 42 the aggregate, except to the extent such excess was previously deducted 43 in computing entire net income; and

44 (4) the net operating loss deduction allowed under section one hundred 45 seventy-two of the internal revenue code shall for purposes of this 46 subdivision be determined as if the taxpayer had elected under such 47 section to relinquish the entire carryback period with respect to net 48 operating losses.

49 (k-2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the 50 contrary, for taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 51 twenty-one, any amendment to section one hundred seventy-two of the 52 internal revenue code made after March first, two thousand twenty shall 53 not apply to this part.

54 (1) If the period covered by a return under this part is other than 55 the period covered by the return to the United States treasury depart-56 ment, entire net income and alternative entire net income shall be

1 determined by multiplying the taxable income reported to such depart-2 ment, as adjusted pursuant to the provisions of this part, by the number 3 of calendar months or major parts thereof covered by the return under 4 this part and dividing by the number of calendar months or major parts 5 thereof covered by the return to such department. If it shall appear 6 that such method of determining entire net income or alternative entire 7 net income does not properly reflect the taxpayer's income during the 8 period covered by the return under this part, the commissioner of 9 finance shall be authorized in his or her discretion to determine such 10 entire net income or alternative entire net income solely on the basis 11 of the taxpayer's income during the period covered by its return under 12 this part.

13 (m) The commissioner of finance, may, whenever necessary in order to 14 properly reflect the entire net income of any taxpayer, determine the 15 year or period in which any item of income or deduction shall be 16 included, without regard to the method of accounting employed by the 17 taxpayer.

18 (n) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, for taxa-19 ble years beginning on or after August first, two thousand two, in the 20 case of a taxpayer that is a partner in a partnership subject to the tax 21 imposed by chapter eleven of this title as a utility, as defined in 22 subdivision six of section 11-1101 of such chapter, entire net income 23 shall not include the taxpayer's distributive or pro rata share for 24 federal income tax purposes of any item of income, gain, loss or 25 deduction of such partnership, or any item of income, gain, loss or 26 deduction of such partnership that the taxpayer is required to take into 27 account separately for federal income tax purposes.

28 (n-1) for taxable years ending after September tenth, two thousand 29 one, in the case of qualified property described in paragraph two of 30 subsection k of section one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue 31 code, other than qualified resurgence zone property described in subdivi-32 sion (p) of this section, and other than qualified New York Liberty 33 Zone property described in paragraph two of subsection b of section 34 fourteen hundred-L of the internal revenue code, without regard to 35 clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of such paragraph, a taxpayer shall be 36 allowed with respect to such property the depreciation deduction allow-37 able under section one hundred sixty-seven as such section would have 38 applied to such property had it been acquired by the taxpayer on Septem-39 ber tenth, two thousand one, provided, however, that for taxable years 40 beginning on or after January first, two thousand four, in the case of a 41 passenger motor vehicle or a sport utility vehicle subject to the 42 provisions of subdivision (r) of this section, the limitation under 43 clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subdivision (a) of 44 section two hundred eighty-F of the internal revenue code applicable to 45 the amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall be deter-46 mined as of the date such vehicle was placed in service and not as of 47 September tenth, two thousand one.

48 (o) for taxable years ending after September tenth, two thousand one, 49 upon the disposition of property to which subdivision (n) of this 50 section applies, the amount of any gain or loss includible in entire net 51 income shall be adjusted to reflect the inclusions and exclusions from 52 entire net income pursuant to paragraph thirteen of subdivision (b) and 53 subdivision (n) of this section attributable to such property.

54 (p) for purposes of subdivisions (n) and (o) of this section, quali-55 fied resurgence zone property shall mean qualified property described in 56 paragraph two of subsection k of section one hundred sixty-eight of the 1 internal revenue code substantially all of the use of which is in the 2 resurgence zone, as defined below, and is in the active conduct of a 3 trade or business by the taxpayer in such zone, and the original use of 4 which in the resurgence zone commences with the taxpayer after September 5 tenth, two thousand one. The resurgence zone shall mean the area of New 6 York county bounded on the south by a line running from the intersection 7 of the Hudson River with the Holland Tunnel, and running thence east to 8 Canal Street, then running along the centerline of Canal Street to the 9 intersection of the Bowery and Canal Street, running thence in a south-10 easterly direction diagonally across Manhattan Bridge Plaza, to the 11 Manhattan Bridge, and thence along the centerline of the Manhattan 12 Bridge to the point where the centerline of the Manhattan Bridge would 13 intersect with the easterly bank of the East River, and bounded on the 14 north by a line running from the intersection of the Hudson River with 15 the Holland Tunnel and running thence north along West Avenue to the 16 intersection of Clarkson Street then running east along the centerline 17 of Clarkson Street to the intersection of Washington Avenue, then 18 running south along the centerline of Washington Avenue to the inter-19 section of West Houston Street, then east along the centerline of West 20 Houston Street, then at the intersection of the Avenue of the Americas 21 continuing east along the centerline of East Houston Street to the east-22 erly bank of the East River.

23 (q) Related members expense add back. (1) Definitions. (A) Related 24 member. "Related member" means a related person as defined in subpara-25 graph (c) of paragraph three of subsection (b) of section four hundred 26 sixty-five of the internal revenue code, except that "fifty percent" 27 shall be substituted for "ten percent".

28 (B) Effective rate of tax. "Effective rate of tax" means, as to any 29 city, the maximum statutory rate of tax imposed by the city on or meas-
30 ured by a related member's net income multiplied by the apportionment 31 percentage, if any, applicable to the related member under the laws of 32 said jurisdiction. For purposes of this definition, the effective rate 33 of tax as to any city is zero where the related member's net income tax 34 liability in said city is reported on a combined or consolidated return 35 including both the taxpayer and the related member where the reported 36 transactions between the taxpayer and the related member are eliminated
37 or offset. Also, for purposes of this definition, when computing the 38 effective rate of tax for a city in which a related member's net income 39 is eliminated or offset by a credit or similar adjustment that is 40 dependent upon the related member either maintaining or managing intan-41 gible property or collecting interest income in that city, the maximum 42 statutory rate of tax imposed by said city shall be decreased to reflect 43 the statutory rate of tax that applies to the related member as effec-
44 tively reduced by such credit or similar adjustment.

45 (C) Royalty payments. Royalty payments are payments directly connected 46 to the acquisition, use, maintenance or management, ownership, sale,
47 exchange, or any other disposition of licenses, trademarks, copyrights,
48 trade names, trade dress, service marks, mask works, trade secrets,
49 patents and any other similar types of intangible assets as determined 50 by the commissioner of finance, and include amounts allowable as inter-51 est deductions under section one hundred sixty-three of the internal 52 revenue code to the extent such amounts are directly or indirectly for, 53 related to or in connection with the acquisition, use, maintenance or 54 management, ownership, sale, exchange or disposition of such intangible 55 assets.

1 (D) Valid business purpose. A valid business purpose is one or more
2 business purposes, other than the avoidance or reduction of taxation, 3 which alone or in combination constitute the primary motivation for some 4 business activity or transaction, which activity or transaction changes 5 in a meaningful way, apart from tax effects, the economic position of 6 the taxpayer. The economic position of the taxpayer includes an increase 7 in the market share of the taxpayer, or the entry by the taxpayer into 8 new business markets.

9 (2) Royalty expense add backs. (A) For the purpose of computing entire 10 net income, a taxpayer must add back royalty payments directly or indi-11 rectly paid, accrued, or incurred in connection with one or more direct 12 or indirect transactions with one or more related members during the 13 taxable year to the extent deductible in calculating federal taxable 14 income.

15 (B) Exceptions. (i) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall 16 not apply to the portion of the royalty payment that the taxpayer estab-
17 lishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type and in the form 18 specified by the commissioner of finance, meets all of the following 19 requirements: (I) the related member was subject to tax in this city or 20 another city within the United States or a foreign nation or some combi-
21 nation thereof on a tax base that included the royalty payment paid, 22 accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; (II) the related member during the 23 same taxable year directly or indirectly paid, accrued or incurred such 24 portion to a person that is not a related member; and (III) the trans-25 action giving rise to the royalty payment between the taxpayer and the 26 related member was undertaken for a valid business purpose.

27 (ii) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 28 the taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type 29 and in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 30 related member was subject to tax on or measured by its net income in 31 this city or another city within the United States, or some combination 32 thereof; (II) the tax base for such tax included the royalty payment
33 paid, accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; and (III) the aggregate
34 effective rate of tax applied to the related member in those jurisdic-
35 tions is no less than eighty percent of the statutory rate of tax that 36 applied to the taxpayer under section 11-643.5 of this part for the 37 taxable year.

38 (iii) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 39 the taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type 40 and in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 41 royalty payment was paid, accrued or incurred to a related member organ-
42 ized under the laws of a country other than the United States; (II) the 43 related member's income from the transaction was subject to a comprehen-
44 sive income tax treaty between such country and the United States; (III)
45 the related member was subject to tax in a foreign nation on a tax base 46 that included the royalty payment paid, accrued or incurred by the 47 taxpayer; (IV) the related member's income from the transaction was 48 taxed in such country at an effective rate of tax at least equal to that 49 imposed by this city; and (V) the royalty payment was paid, accrued or 50 incurred pursuant to a transaction that was undertaken for a valid busi-
51 ness purpose and using terms that reflect an arm's length relationship.

52 (iv) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 53 the taxpayer and the commissioner of finance agree in writing to the 54 application or use of alternative adjustments or computations. The 55 commissioner of finance may, in his or her discretion, agree to the 56 application or use of alternative adjustments or computations when he or

1 she concludes that in the absence of such agreement the income of the 2 taxpayer would not be properly reflected.

3 (r) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-4 sand four, in the case of a taxpayer that is not an eligible farmer as 5 defined in subsection (n) of section six hundred six of the tax law, a 6 taxpayer shall be allowed with respect to a sport utility vehicle that 7 is not a passenger automobile as defined in paragraph five of subsection 8 (d) of section two hundred eighty-F of the internal revenue code, the 9 deductions allowable under sections one hundred seventy-nine, one
10 hundred sixty-seven and one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue 11 code, determined as if such sport utility vehicle were a passenger auto-12 mobile as defined in such paragraph five.

13 (s) Upon the disposition of property to which subdivision (r) of this 14 section applies, the amount of any gain or loss includible in entire net 15 income shall be adjusted to reflect the modification provided in such 16 subdivision attributable to such property.

17 (t) Entire net income shall not include the amount of any grant 18 received through either the COVID-19 pandemic small business recovery
19 grant program, pursuant to section sixteen-ff of the New York state 20 urban development corporation act, or the small business resilience 21 grant program administered by the department of small business services, 22 to the extent the amount of either such grant is included in federal 23 taxable income.

24 § 11-641.1 Computation of alternative entire net income. (a) Alterna-25 tive entire net income means entire net income as determined pursuant to 26 section 11-641 of this part, except that the deductions described in 27 paragraphs eleven and twelve of subdivision (e) of section 11-641 of 28 this part shall not be allowed.

29 (b) Any election made pursuant to paragraph two of subdivision (b) of 30 section 11-642 of this part with respect to the modification provided 31 for in subdivision (f) of section 11-641 of this part shall be deemed to 32 have been made for purposes of computing alternative entire net income.

33 § 11-642 Allocation. (a) In general. If a taxpayer's entire net 34 income, alternative entire net income, or taxable assets are derived 35 from business carried on within and without the city, the taxpayer shall 36 for purposes of computing allocation percentages compute payroll, 37 receipts, and deposits percentages in accordance with the following 38 rules:

39 (1) The taxpayer shall ascertain the percentage which eighty percent 40 of the total wages, salaries and other personal service compensation 41 during the taxable year of employees within the city, except wages, 42 salaries and other personal service compensation of general executive 43 officers, bears to the total wages, salaries and other personal service 44 compensation during the taxable year of all the taxpayer's employees 45 within and without the city, except wages, salaries and other personal 46 service compensation of general executive officers.

47 (2) (A) The taxpayer shall ascertain the percentage which the receipts 48 of the taxpayer arising during the taxable year from:

49 (i) loans, including a taxpayer's portion of a participation in a 50 loan, and financing leases within the city, and all other business 51 receipts earned within the city, bear to 52 (ii) the total amount of the taxpayer's receipts from loans, including 53 a taxpayer's portion of a participation in a loan, and financing leases 54 and all other business receipts within and without the city.

1 (B) All interest from loans and financing leases is located where the 2 greater portion of income producing activity related to the loan or 3 financing lease occurred; provided, however:

4 (i) In the case of a taxpayer described in paragraph one, two, three, 5 four, five or seven of subdivision (a) of section 11-640 of this part, a 6 loan or financing lease attributed by such taxpayer to a branch without 7 the city shall be presumed to be properly so attributed provided that 8 such presumption may be rebutted if the commissioner of finance demon-9 strates that the greater portion of income producing activity related to 10 the loan or financing lease did not occur at such branch. Where such 11 presumption has been rebutted, the loan or financing lease shall be 12 presumed to be within the city if the taxpayer had a branch within the 13 city at the time the loan or financing lease was made. The taxpayer may 14 rebut such presumption by demonstrating that the greater portion of 15 income producing activity related to the loan or financing lease did not 16 occur within the city. In the case of a loan or financing lease which is 17 recorded on the books of a place without the city which is not a branch, 18 it shall be presumed that the greater portion of income producing activ-19 ity related to such loan or financing lease occurred within the city if 20 the taxpayer had a branch within the city at the time the loan or 21 financing lease was made. The taxpayer may rebut such presumption by 22 demonstrating that the greater portion of income producing activity 23 related to the loan or financing lease did not occur within the city.

24 (ii) In the case of a taxpayer described in paragraph six or nine of 25 subdivision (a) of section 11-640 of this part, a loan or financing 26 lease attributed by such taxpayer to a bona fide office without the city 27 shall be presumed to be properly so attributed provided that such 28 presumption may be rebutted if the commissioner of finance demonstrates 29 that the greater portion of income producing activity related to the 30 loan or financing lease did not occur without the city.

31 (C) Receipts from lease transactions other than financing leases
32 referred to in subparagraph (B) are located where the property subject 33 to the lease is located.

34 (D) (i) Interest, and fees and penalties in the nature of interest, 35 from bank, credit, travel and entertainment card receivables are earned 36 within the city if the mailing address of the card holder in the records

38 (ii) Service charges and fees from such cards are earned within the 39 city if the card is serviced in the city; and 40 (iii) Receipts from merchant discounts are earned within the city if 42 (E) The portion of total net gains and other income from trading 43 activities, including but not limited to foreign exchange, options and 44 financial futures, and from investment activities which is attributed 45 within the city shall be ascertained by multiplying such total net gains 46 and other income by a fraction the numerator of which is the average 47 value of the trading assets and investment assets attributable to the 48 city and the denominator of which is the average value of all trading 49 and investment assets. A trading asset or investment asset is attribut-50 able to the city if the greater portion of income producing activity 51 related to the trading asset or investment asset occurred within the 52 city.

53 (F) Fees or charges from the issuance of letters of credit, travelers 54 checks and money orders are earned within the city if such letters of

2 (1) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand 3 one, the portion of receipts received from an investment company arising 4 from the sale of management, administration or distribution services to 5 such investment company determined in accordance with clause two of this 6 subparagraph shall be deemed to arise from services performed within the 7 city, such portion referred to herein as the Staten Island city portion.
8 (2) The Staten Island city portion shall be the product of (i) the 9 total of such receipts from the sale of such services and (ii) a frac-10 tion. The numerator of that fraction is the sum of the monthly percent-11 ages, as defined hereinafter, determined for each month of the invest-12 ment company's taxable year for federal income tax purposes which 13 taxable year ends within the taxable year of the taxpayer, but excluding 14 any month during which the investment company had no outstanding shares.
15 The monthly percentage for each such month is determined by dividing (i) 16 the number of shares in the investment company which are owned on the 17 last day of the month by shareholders that are domiciled in the city by 18 (ii) the total number of shares in the investment company outstanding on 19 that date. The denominator of the fraction is the number of such monthly 20 percentages.

22 case of an individual, shall have the meaning as in chapter seventeen of 23 this title; an estate or trust is domiciled in the city if it is a city 24 resident estate or trust as defined in paragraph three of subdivision 25 (b) of section 11-1705 of this code; a business entity is domiciled in 35 subdivision (c) of section seven thousand seven hundred four of such 36 code, and that meets the requirements of subdivision (b) of section 37 eight hundred fifty-one of such code. This shall be applied to the 38 taxable year for federal income tax purposes of the business entity that 39 is asserted to constitute an investment company that ends within the 47 making determinations as to when sales and purchases of securities are 48 to be made on behalf of an investment company, or the selling or 49 purchasing of securities constituting assets of an investment company, 50 and related activities, but only where such activity or activities are 51 performed pursuant to a contract with the investment company entered

3 such service is performed by a person who is, or was, in the case of a 4 closed end company, also engaged in the service of selling such shares.
5 In the case of an open end company, such service of selling shares must 6 be performed pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to subdivision 7 (b) of section fifteen of the federal investment company act of nineteen 8 hundred forty, as amended.

9 (vi) For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "administration 10 services" includes clerical, accounting, bookkeeping, data processing, 11 internal auditing, legal and tax services performed for an investment 12 company but only if the provider of such service or services during the 13 taxable year in which such service or services are sold also sells 14 management or distribution services, as defined in clause (v) of this 15 subparagraph, to such investment company.

16 (H) All receipts from the performance of services not described in 17 this paragraph are earned within the city if the services are performed 18 in the city. When a service is performed both within and without the 19 city, the receipts shall be allocated within and without the city in 20 accordance with rules and regulations of the commissioner of finance.

21 (I) All other receipts not described in subparagraphs (B) through (H) 26 value of deposits maintained at branches within the city during the 27 taxable year, bears to the average value of all the taxpayer's deposits 28 maintained at branches within and without the city during the taxable 29 year.

30 (4) Each percentage computed pursuant to this subsection shall be 31 computed on a cash or accrual basis according to the method of account-

33 only receipts which are included in alternative entire net income for 34 the taxable year. The deposits and payroll percentages shall include 35 only deposits and payroll the expenses of which are included in the 36 computation of alternative entire net income for the taxable year.

37 (5) For purposes of this section:

38 (A) The term "bona fide office" means an office at which the taxpayer 39 carries on its business in a regular and systematic manner and which is 40 continuously maintained, occupied and used by employees of the taxpayer.

41 (B) The term "branch" means a bona fide office which is used by the 42 taxpayer on a regular and systematic basis to (i) approve loans, regard-

44 or final approval by another office of the taxpayer, (ii) accept loan 45 repayments, (iii) disburse funds, and (iv) conduct one or more other 46 functions of a banking business.

47 (6) If it shall appear to the commissioner of finance that the allo-48 cation percentage determined in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of this 49 section does not properly reflect the activity, business, income or 50 assets of a taxpayer within the city, the commissioner of finance shall 51 be authorized in his discretion to adjust it by (1) excluding one or 52 more of the factors therein, (2) including one or more other factors, or 53 (3) any other similar or different method calculated to effect a fair 54 and proper allocation of the income or assets reasonably attributable to 55 the city.

1 (7) The commissioner of finance from time to time shall publish all 2 rulings of general public interest with respect to any application of 3 the provisions of paragraph six of this subdivision.

4 (b) Allocation of entire net income.

5 (1) If a taxpayer's entire net income is derived from business carried 6 on both within and without the city, the portion thereof which is 7 derived from business carried on within the city shall be determined by 8 multiplying its entire net income by the income allocation percentage 9 determined as follows: add the percentages ascertained under paragraphs 10 one, two and three of subdivision (a) of this section, plus an addi-11 tional percentage equal to the receipts percentage ascertained under 12 paragraph two of such subdivision and an additional percentage equal to 13 the deposits percentage ascertained under paragraph three of such subdivi-14 sion, and divide the result by the number of percentages so added 15 together.

16 (1-a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph one of this subdivi-17 sion, each banking corporation described in paragraph nine of subdivi-18 sion (a) of section 11-640 of this part subject to the tax imposed by 19 this part that substantially provides management, administrative or 20 distribution services to an investment company, as such terms are 21 defined in subparagraph (G) of paragraph two of subdivision (a) of this 22 section, shall determine the portion of its entire net income derived 23 from business carried on within the city by multiplying such income by 24 an income allocation percentage obtained as follows:

52 § 11-643 Computation of tax for taxable years ending on or before 53 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-three. For taxable 54 years ending on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seven-55 ty-three, the tax imposed by section 11-639 of this part shall be the 56 greater of the following computations:

1 (a) Basic tax. Five and sixty-three one-hundredths percent of the 2 taxpayer's entire net income, or the portion thereof allocated to this 3 city, for the taxable year or part thereof.

4 (b) Alternative minimum tax. If the tax under subdivision (a) of this 5 section is less than any of the following amounts, the tax shall be the 6 largest of the following amounts:

7 (1) Except for a savings bank and savings and loan association, one 8 and one-quarter mills upon each dollar of such part of the taxpayer's 9 issued capital stock on the last day of the taxable year, at its face 10 value, but if such taxpayer has stock without par value, such stock 11 shall be taken at its actual or market value, and not less than five 12 dollars per share, as may be determined by the commissioner of finance, 13 as the gross income of such taxpayer derived from business carried on 14 within the city, during such taxable year, bears to its gross income 15 derived from all business, both within and without the city during said 16 year; except that if the period covered by the return is other than 17 twelve months, the tax shall be prorated on the basis of the number of 18 months or major portions thereof included in the return. For purposes of 19 this paragraph, the term "gross income" shall have the same meaning as 20 it has in the laws of the United States relating to federal income 21 taxes.

22 (2) For a savings bank and savings and loan association, one and 23 forty-three one-hundredths percent of the interest or dividends credited 24 by it to depositors or shareholders during the taxable year, provided 25 that, in determining such amount, each interest or dividend credit to a 26 depositor or shareholder shall be deemed to be the interest or dividend 27 actually credited or the interest or dividend which would have been 28 credited if it had been computed and credited at the rate of three and 29 one-half percent per annum, whichever is less.

30 (3) Twelve and one-half dollars.

31 § 11-643.1 Computation of tax for taxable years beginning on or after 32 January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four and ending on or before 33 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four. For taxable years 34 beginning on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four and 35 ending on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-36 four, the tax imposed by section 11-639 of this part shall be the great-37 er of the following computations:

38 (a) Basic tax. Six and seven hundred fifty-six one-thousandths
39 percent of the taxpayer's entire net income, or the portion thereof
40 allocated to this city, for the taxable year, or part thereof.

41 (b) Alternative minimum tax. If the tax under subdivision (a) of 42 this section is less than any of the following amounts, the tax shall be 43 the largest of the following amounts:

44 (1) Except for a savings bank and savings and loan association, one 45 and one-half mills upon each dollar of such part of the taxpayer's
46 issued capital stock on the last day of the taxable year, at its face
47 value, but if such taxpayer has stock without par value, such stock
48 shall be taken at its actual or market value, and not less than five 49 dollars per share, as may be determined by the commissioner of finance, 50 as the gross income of such taxpayer derived from business carried on 51 within the city, during such taxable year bears to its gross income
52 derived from all business, both within and without the city during said 53 year; except that if the period covered by the return is other than 54 twelve months, the tax shall be prorated on the basis of the number of 55 months or major portions thereof included in the return. For purposes
56 of this paragraph, the term "gross income" shall have the same meaning

1 as it has in the laws of the United States relating to federal income 2 taxes.

3 (2) For a savings bank and savings and loan association, one and seven 4 hundred sixteen one-thousandths percent of the interest or dividends 5 credited by it to depositors or shareholders during the taxable year, 6 provided that, in determining such amount, each interest or dividend 7 credit to a depositor or shareholder shall be deemed to be the interest 8 or dividend actually credited or the interest or dividend which would 9 have been credited if it had been computed and credited at the rate of 10 three and one-half percent per annum, whichever is less.

11 (3) Fifteen dollars.

12 § 11-643.2 Computation of tax for taxable years beginning in nineteen 13 hundred seventy-three and ending in nineteen hundred seventy-four. For 14 each taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred seventy-three and ending 15 in nineteen hundred seventy-four, two tentative taxes shall be computed, 16 the first as provided in section 11-643 and the second as provided in 17 section 11-643.1 of this part, and the tax for each such year shall be 18 the sum of that proportion of each tentative tax which the number of 19 days in nineteen hundred seventy-three and the number of days in nine-20 teen hundred seventy-four, respectively, which fall within the taxable 21 year, bears to the number of days in the entire taxable year.

22 § 11-643.3 Computation of tax for taxable years beginning on or after 23 January first, nineteen hundred seventy-five and before January first, 24 nineteen hundred eighty-five. For taxable years beginning on or after 25 January first, nineteen hundred seventy-five and before January first, 26 nineteen hundred eighty-five, the tax imposed by section 11-639 of this 27 part shall be the greater of the following computations:

28 (a) Basic tax. (1) Except for a savings bank and savings and loan 29 association, thirteen and eight hundred twenty-three one-thousandths
30 percent of the taxpayer's entire net income, or the portion thereof
31 allocated to this city, for the taxable year, or part thereof.

32 (2) For a savings bank and savings and loan association, twelve and 33 one hundred thirty-four thousandths percent of the taxpayer's entire net 34 income, or the portion thereof allocated to this city, for the taxable 35 year, or part thereof.

36 (b) Alternative minimum tax. If the tax under subdivision (a) of 37 this section is less than any of the following amounts, the tax shall be 38 the largest of the following amounts:

39 (1) Except for a savings bank and savings and loan association, two 40 and six-tenths mills upon each dollar of such part of the taxpayer's 41 issued capital stock on the last day of the taxable year, at its face
42 value, but if such taxpayer has stock without par value, such stock
43 shall be taken at its actual or market value, and not less than five 44 dollars per share, as may be determined by the commissioner of finance, 45 as the gross income of such taxpayer derived from business carried on 46 within the city during such taxable year bears to its gross income
47 derived from all business, both within and without the city during said 48 year; except that if the period covered by the return is other than 49 twelve months, the tax shall be prorated on the basis of the number of 50 months or major portions thereof included in the return. For purposes
51 of this paragraph, the term "gross income" shall have the same meaning 52 as it has in the laws of the United States relating to federal income 53 taxes.

54 (2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph three of this subdivi-55 sion, for a savings bank and savings and loan association, two and five 56 hundred seventy-four one-thousandths percent of the interest or divi-

1 dends credited by it to depositors or shareholders during any taxable 2 year, provided that, in determining such amount, each interest or divi-3 dend credit to a depositor or shareholder shall be deemed to be the 4 interest or dividend actually credited or the interest or dividend which 5 would have been credited if it had been computed and credited at the 6 rate of three and one-half percent per annum, whichever is less.

7 (3) (i) For a savings bank and savings and loan association, for any 8 quarterly accounting period in which such savings bank or savings and 9 loan association credits or pays dividends to its depositors or share-10 holders on or after the first day of October, nineteen hundred eighty-11 one but before the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-six, and 12 after such credit or payment the net worth of such savings bank or 13 savings and loan association is less than five percent of the amount due 14 depositors, one and eight hundred twenty-four one-thousandths percent of 15 the interest or dividends credited by it to a depositor or shareholder 16 during such accounting period, provided that, in determining such 17 amount, each interest or dividend credit to depositors or shareholders 18 shall be deemed to be the interest or dividend actually credited or the 19 interest or dividend which would have been credited if it had been 20 computed and credited at the rate of three and one-half percent per 21 annum, whichever is less. In determining the lesser of the amount of 22 interest or dividends actually credited to depositors or shareholders or 23 the amount of interest or dividends which would have been credited if 24 such interest or dividends had been computed and credited at the rate of 25 three and one-half percent per annum, the provisions of subparagraph 26 (ii) of this paragraph shall not be considered.

27 (ii) For purposes of the computation provided for in subparagraph (i) 28 of this paragraph, except where the tax computed under subparagraph (i) 29 of this paragraph is computed as if the interest or dividends were 30 computed and credited at the rate of three and one-half percent per 31 annum, that portion of the interest or dividends credited on or after 32 the first day of October, nineteen hundred eighty-one but before the 33 first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-six by:

34 (A) a savings bank to a depositor or shareholder which is attributable 35 to an increase or a deemed increase in the gross earnings, surplus fund, 36 or net worth of the savings bank, which increase became available for 37 interest or dividends upon the prior written approval of the superinten-38 dent of banks pursuant to the provisions of subdivision four of section 39 two hundred forty-four of the banking law; or 40 (B) a savings and loan association to a depositor or shareholder which 41 is attributable to an increase or a deemed increase in gross income, 42 undivided profits, surplus account or net worth of the savings and loan 43 association, which increase became available for interest or dividends 44 upon the prior written approval of the superintendent of banks pursuant 45 to the provisions of subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-46 seven of the banking law; or

47 (C) a federal savings bank or a federal savings and loan association 48 to a depositor or shareholder, which would have required and received 49 prior written approval of the superintendent of banks in respect to 50 increases in gross income, gross earnings, undivided profits, surplus 51 funds, surplus accounts or net worth available for dividends pursuant to 52 the provisions of subdivision four of section two hundred forty-four of 53 the banking law and subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-sev-54 en of the banking law, respectively, were the provisions of sections two 55 hundred forty-four and three hundred eighty-seven of the banking law 56 applicable to federal savings banks and federal savings and loan associ-

1 ations shall not be considered to have been credited to depositors or 2 shareholders. Where the tax computed under subparagraph (i) of this 3 paragraph is computed as if the interest or dividends were computed and 4 credited at the rate of three and one-half percent per annum, the amount 5 of interest or dividends which shall not be considered to have been 6 credited to depositors or shareholders is an amount which bears the same 7 ratio to the interest or dividends which would have been credited at the 8 rate of three and one-half percent per annum as the amount of that 9 portion of the interest or dividends paid or credited on or after the 10 first day of October, nineteen hundred eighty-one but before the first 11 day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-six, which is attributable to an 12 increase or deemed increase in gross income, gross earnings, undivided 13 profits, surplus funds, surplus account or net worth available for divi-14 dends pursuant to the provisions of subdivision four of section two 15 hundred forty-four of the banking law or subdivision two of section 16 three hundred eighty-seven of the banking law, bears to the amount of 17 interest or dividends actually credited. For purposes of this clause, 18 the determination of whether a federal savings bank or federal savings 19 and loan association would have required and received prior written 20 approval of the superintendent of banks shall be made by the superinten-21 dent of banks, upon application and upon such forms as he or she may 22 require, by applying the provision of subdivision four of section two 23 hundred forty-four of the banking law, as if such provisions were appli-24 cable to federal savings banks, and subdivision two of section three 25 hundred eighty-seven of the banking law, as if such provisions were 26 applicable to federal savings and loan associations, and the superinten-27 dent of banks may require and examine such information as he or she may 28 deem necessary to make such determinations.

29 (4) (i) Except for a savings bank and savings and loan association, 30 twenty-five dollars.

31 (ii) For a savings bank and savings and loan association, twenty 32 dollars.

33 § 11-643.4 Computation of tax for taxable years beginning in nineteen 34 hundred seventy-four and ending in nineteen hundred seventy-five. For 35 each taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred seventy-four and ending 36 in nineteen hundred seventy-five, two tentative taxes shall be computed, 37 the first as provided in section 11-643.1 and the second as provided in 38 section 11-643.3 of this part, and the tax for each such year shall be 39 the sum of that proportion of each tentative tax which the number of 40 days in nineteen hundred seventy-four and the number of days in nineteen 41 hundred seventy-five, respectively, which fall within the taxable year, 42 bears to the number of days in the entire taxable year.

43 § 11-643.5 Computation of tax for taxable years beginning on or after 44 January first, nineteen hundred eighty-five. For taxable years beginning 45 on or after January first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, the tax imposed 46 by section 11-639 of this part shall be the greater of the following 47 computations:

48 (a) Basic tax. Nine percent of the taxpayer's entire net income, or 49 the portion thereof allocated to the city, for the taxable year or part 50 thereof.

51 (b) Alternative minimum tax. If the tax under subdivision (a) of this 52 section is less than any of the following amounts, the tax shall be the 53 larger of the following amounts:

54 (1) For taxable years beginning before two thousand eleven, except in 55 the case of a corporation organized under the laws of a country other 56 than the United States, one-tenth of a mill upon each dollar of taxable

1 assets, or the portion thereof allocated to the city. For taxable years 2 beginning after two thousand ten, except in the case of a taxpayer 3 described in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) of this subparagraph, one-tenth 4 of a mill upon each dollar of taxable assets, or the portion thereof 5 allocated to the city.

6 (i) In the case of a taxpayer whose net worth ratio is less than five 7 percent but greater than or equal to four percent and whose total assets 8 are comprised of thirty-three percent or more of mortgages, one-twenty-9 fifth of a mill upon each dollar of taxable assets, or the portion ther-10 eof allocated to the city.

11 (ii) In the case of a taxpayer whose net worth ratio is less than four 12 percent and whose total assets are comprised of thirty-three percent or 13 more of mortgages, one-fiftieth of a mill upon each dollar of taxable 14 assets, or the portion thereof allocated to the city.

15 (iii) A taxpayer, whether or not a qualified institution as defined in 16 subparagraph (B) of paragraph five of subsection (f) of section four 17 hundred six of the federal national housing act, as amended, or as 18 defined in paragraph two of subsection (i) of section thirteen of the 19 federal deposit insurance act, as amended, shall not be subject to the 20 provisions of this paragraph for that portion of the taxable year in 21 which it had outstanding net worth certificates issued in accordance 22 with paragraph five of subsection (f) of section four hundred six of the 23 federal national housing act, as amended, or issued in accordance with 24 subsection (i) of section thirteen of the federal deposit insurance act, 25 as amended.

26 (iv) For the purposes of this part: (A) the term "taxable assets" 27 shall mean the average value of total assets reduced by any amount of 28 money or other property received from or attributable to amounts 29 received from the federal deposit insurance corporation pursuant to 30 subsection (c) of section thirteen of the federal deposit insurance act, 31 as amended, or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation pursu-32 ant to paragraph one, two, three or four of subsection (f) of section 33 four hundred six of the federal national housing act, as amended. Total 34 assets are those assets which are properly reflected on a balance sheet 35 the income or expenses of which are properly reflected, or would have 36 been properly reflected if not fully depreciated or expensed or depreci-37 ated or expensed to a nominal amount, in the computation of alternative 38 entire net income for the taxable year or in the computation of the 39 eligible net income of the taxpayer's international banking facility for 40 the taxable year.

41 (B) The term "net worth ratio" shall mean the percentage of net worth 42 to assets on the last day of the taxable year. The term "net worth" 43 means the sum of preferred stock, common stock, surplus, capital 44 reserves, undivided profits, mutual capital certificates, reserve for 45 contingencies, reserve for loan losses and reserve for security losses 46 minus assets classified loss. The term "assets" means the sum of mort-47 gage loans, nonmortgage loans, repossessed assets, real estate held for 48 development or investment or resale, cash, deposits, investment securi-49 ties, fixed assets and other assets, such as financial futures, goodwill 50 and other intangible assets, minus assets classified loss. In no event 51 shall assets be reduced by reserves for losses.

52 (C) The term "mortgages" shall mean loans secured by real property 53 within or without the state, participations in and securities collater-54 alized by pools of residential mortgages, whether or not issued or guar-55 anteed by a United States government agency, and loans secured by stock 56 in a cooperative housing corporation. The percentage of total assets

1 comprised of mortgages shall be an amount equal to the ratio of the 2 average of the four quarterly balances of such mortgages ending within 3 the taxable year, to the average of the four quarterly balances of all 4 assets ending within the taxable year. Such quarterly balances shall be 5 computed in the same manner as the report of condition required for 6 federal deposit insurance corporation or federal savings and loan insur-7 ance corporation purposes, whether or not such report is required. For 8 taxable periods of less than one year, the taxpayer shall compute such 9 ratio using the number of such quarterly balances ending within such 10 taxable period.

11 (2) For taxable years beginning before two thousand eleven, in the 12 case of a corporation organized under the laws of a country other than 13 the United States, (i) two and six-tenths mills upon each dollar of such 14 part of the taxpayer's issued capital stock on the last day of the taxa-15 ble year, at its face value, but if such taxpayer has stock without par 16 value, such stock shall be taken at its actual or market value, and not 17 less than five dollars per share, as may be determined by the commis-18 sioner of finance, or (ii) if the taxpayer does not have issued capital 19 stock, two and six-tenths mills upon each dollar of such part of the 20 amount by which its average total assets exceeds its average total 21 liabilities, as the gross income of such taxpayer derived from business 22 carried on within the city during such taxable year bears to its gross 23 income derived from all business, both within and without the city 24 during said year; except that if the period covered by the return is 25 other than twelve months, the tax shall be prorated on the basis of the 26 number of months or major portions thereof included in the return. For 27 purposes of this paragraph, the term "gross income" shall have the same 28 meaning as it has in the laws of the United States relating to federal 29 income taxes.

30 (3) Three percent of the taxpayer's alternative entire net income, or 31 portion thereof allocated to the city, for the taxable year, or part 32 thereof.

33 (4) One hundred twenty-five dollars.

34 § 11-643.7. Relocation and employment assistance credit. (a) In addi-35 tion to any other credit allowed by this part, a taxpayer that has 36 obtained the certifications required by chapter six-B of title twenty-37 two of the code of the preceding municipality shall be allowed a credit 38 against the tax imposed by this part. The amount of the credit shall be 39 the amount determined by multiplying five hundred dollars or, in the 40 case of a taxpayer that has obtained pursuant to chapter six-B of such 41 title twenty-two a certification of eligibility dated on or after July 42 first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, one thousand dollars or, in the 43 case of an eligible business that has obtained pursuant to chapter six-B 44 of such title twenty-two a certification of eligibility dated on or 45 after July first, two thousand, for a relocation to eligible premises 46 located within a revitalization area defined in subdivision (n) of 47 section 22-621 of the code of the preceding municipality, three thousand 48 dollars, by the number of eligible aggregate employment shares main-49 tained by the taxpayer during the taxable year with respect to partic-50 ular premises to which the taxpayer has relocated; provided, however, 51 with respect to a relocation for which no application for a certificate 52 of eligibility is submitted prior to July first, two thousand three to 53 eligible premises that are not within a revitalization area, if the date 54 of such relocation as determined pursuant to subdivision (j) of section 55 22-621 of the code of the preceding municipality is before July first, 56 nineteen hundred ninety-five, the amount to be multiplied by the number

1 of eligible aggregate employment shares shall be five hundred dollars, 2 and with respect to a relocation for which no application for a certifi-
3 cate of eligibility is submitted prior to July first, two thousand 4 three, to eligible premises that are within a revitalization area, if 5 the date of such relocation as determined pursuant to subdivision (j) of 6 such section is before July first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, the 7 amount to be multiplied by the number of eligible aggregate employment 8 shares shall be five hundred dollars, and if the date of such relocation 9 as determined pursuant to subdivision (j) of such section is on or after 10 July first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, and before July first, two 11 thousand, one thousand dollars; provided, however, that no credit shall 12 be allowed for the relocation of any retail activity or hotel services; 13 and provided that in the case of an eligible business that has obtained 14 pursuant to chapter six-B of such title twenty-two certifications of 15 eligibility for more than one relocation, the portion of the total 16 amount of eligible aggregate employment shares to be multiplied by the 17 dollar amount specified in this subdivision for each such certification 18 of a relocation shall be the number of total attributed eligible aggre-19 gate employment shares determined with respect to such relocation pursu-20 ant to subdivision (o) of section 22-621 of the code of the preceding 21 municipality. For purposes of this section, the terms "eligible aggre-22 gate employment shares," "relocate," "retail activity" and "hotel 23 services" shall have the meanings ascribed by section 22-621 of the code 24 of the preceding municipality.

25 (b) The credit allowed under this section with respect to eligible
26 aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to particular prem-27 ises to which the taxpayer has relocated shall be allowed for the first 28 taxable year during which such eligible aggregate employment shares are 29 maintained with respect to such premises and for any of the twelve
30 succeeding taxable years during which eligible aggregate employment 31 shares are maintained with respect to such premises; provided that the 32 credit allowed for the twelfth succeeding taxable year shall be calcu-
33 lated by multiplying the number of eligible aggregate employment shares
34 maintained with respect to such premises in the twelfth succeeding taxa-35 ble year by the lesser of one and a fraction the numerator of which is 36 such number of days in the taxable year of relocation less the number of 37 days the eligible business maintained employment shares in the eligible 38 premises in the taxable year of relocation and the denominator of which 39 is the number of days in such twelfth succeeding taxable year during 40 which such eligible aggregate employment shares are maintained with 41 respect to such premises. Except as provided in subdivision (d) of this 42 section, if the amount of the credit allowable under this section for 43 any taxable year exceeds the tax imposed for such year, the excess may 44 be carried over, in order, to the five immediately succeeding taxable 45 years and, to the extent not previously deductible, may be deducted from 46 the taxpayer's tax for such years.

47 (c) The credit allowable under this section shall be deducted after 48 the credit allowed by section 11-643.8, but prior to the deduction of 49 any other credit allowed by this part.

50 (d) In the case of a taxpayer that has obtained a certification of 51 eligibility pursuant to chapter six-B of title twenty-two of the code of 52 the preceding municipality dated on or after July first, two thousand 53 for a relocation to eligible premises located within the revitalization 54 area defined in subdivision (n) of section 22-621 of the code of the 55 preceding municipality, the credits allowed under this section, or in 56 the case of a taxpayer that has relocated more than once, the portion of

1 such credits attributed to such certification of eligibility pursuant to 2 subdivision (a) of this section, against the tax imposed by this chapter 3 for the taxable year of such relocation and for the four taxable years 4 immediately succeeding the taxable year of such relocation, shall be 5 deemed to be overpayments of tax by the taxpayer to be credited or 6 refunded, without interest, in accordance with the provisions of section
7 11-677 of this chapter. For such taxable years, such credits or portions 8 thereof may not be carried over to any succeeding taxable year;
9 provided, however, that this subdivision shall not apply to any relo-10 cation for which an application for a certification of eligibility was 11 not submitted prior to July first, two thousand three, unless the date 12 of such relocation is on or after July first, two thousand.

13 § 11-643.8 Credit relating to certain distributions from partnerships.
14 (a) If a banking corporation is a partner in an unincorporated business 15 taxable under chapter five of this title, and is required to include in 16 entire net income its distributive share of income, gain, loss and 17 deductions of, or guaranteed payments from, such unincorporated busi-18 ness, such banking corporation shall be allowed a credit against the tax 19 imposed by this part equal to the lesser of the amounts determined in 20 paragraphs one and two of this subdivision:

21 (1) The amount determined in this paragraph is the product of (A) the 22 sum of (i) the tax imposed by chapter five of this title on the unincor-23 porated business for its taxable year ending within or with the taxable 24 year of the banking corporation and paid by the unincorporated business 25 and (ii) the amount of any credit or credits taken by the unincorporated 26 business under section 11-503 of this title, except the credit allowed 27 by subdivision (b) of such section, for its taxable year ending within 28 or with the taxable year of the banking corporation, to the extent that 29 such credits do not reduce such unincorporated business's tax below 30 zero, and (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the net total of the 31 banking corporation's distributive share of income, gain, loss and 32 deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, the unincorporated business 33 for such taxable year and the denominator of which is the sum, for such 34 taxable year, of the net total distributive shares of income, gain, loss 35 and deductions of, and guaranteed payments to, all partners of the unin-36 corporated business for whom or which such net total, as separately
37 determined for each partner, is greater than zero.

38 (2) The amount determined in this paragraph is the product of (A) the 39 excess of (i) the basic tax computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of 40 section 11-643.5 of this part, without allowance of any credits allowed 41 by this part, over (ii) the basic tax so computed, determined as if the 42 banking corporation had no such distributive share or guaranteed 43 payments with respect to the unincorporated business, and (B) a frac-44 tion, the numerator of which is four and the denominator of which is 45 nine, provided, however, that the amounts computed in clauses (i) and 46 (ii) of this paragraph shall be computed with the following modifica-47 tions:

48 (I) if, prior to taking into account any distributive share or guaran-49 teed payments from any unincorporated business, the entire net income of 50 the partner is less than zero, such entire net income shall be treated 51 as zero; and

52 (II) if such partner's net total distributive share of income, gain, 53 loss and deductions of, and guaranteed payments from any unincorporated 54 business is less than zero, such net total shall be treated as zero.

55 The amount determined in this paragraph shall not be less than zero.

1 (b) (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subdivision (a) of 2 this section, in the case of a banking corporation that, before the 3 application of this section or any other credit allowed by this part, is 4 liable for the basic tax computed under subdivision (a) of section 5 11-643.5 of this part, the credit or the sum of the credits that may be 6 taken by such banking corporation for a taxable year under this section 7 with respect to an unincorporated business or unincorporated businesses 8 in which it is a partner shall not exceed the tax so computed, without 9 allowance of any credits allowed by this part, multiplied by a fraction 10 the numerator of which is four and the denominator of which is nine. If 11 the credit allowed under this subdivision or the sum of such credits 12 exceeds the product of such tax and such fraction, the amount of the 13 excess may be carried forward, in order, to each of the seven immediate-14 ly succeeding taxable years and, to the extent not previously taken, 15 shall be allowed as a credit in each of such years. In applying such 16 provisions, the credit determined for the taxable year under subdivision 17 (a) of this section shall be taken before taking any credit carryforward 18 pursuant to this paragraph and the credit carryforward attributable to 19 the earliest taxable year shall be taken before taking a credit carry-20 forward attributable to a subsequent taxable year.

21 (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subdivision (a) of 22 this section, in the case of a banking corporation that, before the 23 application of this section or any other credit allowed by this part, is 24 liable for the alternative minimum tax on alternative entire net income 25 under paragraph three of subdivision (b) of section 11-643.5 of this 26 part, the maximum credit that may be taken in any taxable year is the 27 amount that will reduce the tax so computed, without allowance of any 28 credits allowed by this part, to zero. For purposes of this paragraph 29 each dollar of credit shall be applied so as to reduce such tax by 30 seventy-five cents. If the amount of credit allowed under this section 31 or the sum of such credits exceeds the amount that may be taken against 32 such tax, the amount of the excess may be carried forward, in order, to 33 each of the seven immediately succeeding taxable years and, to the 34 extent not previously taken, shall be allowed as a credit in each of 35 such years. In applying such provisions, the credit determined for the 36 taxable year under subdivision (a) of this section shall be taken before 37 taking any credit carryforward pursuant to this subdivision and the 38 credit carryforward attributable to the earliest taxable year shall be 39 taken before taking a credit carryforward attributable to a subsequent 40 taxable year.

41 (3) No credit under this section may be taken in a taxable year by a 42 taxpayer that, in the absence of such credit, would be liable for the 43 tax computed on the basis of taxable assets under paragraph one of this 44 subdivision, the tax computed on the basis of issued capital stock under 45 paragraph two of this subdivision or the fixed-dollar minimum tax under 46 paragraph four of subdivision (b) of section 11-643.5 of this part.

47 (c) For banking corporations that file a report on a combined basis 48 pursuant to subdivision (f) of section 11-646 of this part, the credit 49 allowed by this section shall be computed as if the combined group were 50 the partner in each unincorporated business from which any of the 51 members of such group had a distributive share or guaranteed payments, 52 provided, however, if more than one member of the combined group is a 53 partner in the same unincorporated business, for purposes of the calcu-54 lation required in paragraph one of subdivision (a) of this section, the 55 numerator of the fraction described in subparagraph (B) of such para-56 graph one shall be the sum of the net total distributive shares of 1 income, gain, loss and deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, the 2 unincorporated business of all of the partners of the unincorporated 3 business within the combined group for which such net total, as sepa-4 rately determined for each partner, is greater than zero, and the denom-5 inator of such fraction shall be the sum of the net total distributive 6 shares of income, gain, loss and deductions of, and guaranteed payments 7 from, the unincorporated business of all partners in the unincorporated 8 business for whom or which such net total, as separately determined for 9 each partner, is greater than zero.

10 (d) The credit allowed by this section shall not be allowed to a part-11 ner in an unincorporated business with respect to any tax paid by the 12 unincorporated business under chapter five of this title for any taxable 13 year beginning before July first, nineteen hundred ninety-four.

14 (e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, the credit 15 allowable under this section shall be taken prior to the taking of any 16 other credit allowed by this part. Notwithstanding any other provisions 17 of this part, the application of this section shall not change the basis 18 on which the taxpayer's tax is computed under subdivision (a) or (b) of 19 section 11-643.5 of this part.

20 § 11-644 Declarations of estimated tax. (a) Requirements of declara-21 tion. Every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (a) of 22 section 11-639 of this part shall make a declaration of its estimated 23 tax for the current taxable year, containing such information as the 24 commissioner of finance may prescribe by regulations or instructions, if 25 such estimated tax can reasonably be expected to exceed one thousand 26 dollars.

27 (b) Definition of estimated tax. The term "estimated tax" means the 28 amount which a taxpayer estimates to be the tax imposed by subdivision 29 (a) of section 11-639 of this part for the current taxable year, less 30 the amount which it estimates to be the sum of any credits allowable 31 against the tax.

32 (c) Time for filing declaration. A declaration of estimated tax shall 33 be filed on or before June fifteenth of the current taxable year in the 34 case of a taxpayer which reports on the basis of a calendar year, except 35 that if the requirements of subdivision (a) of this section are first 36 met:

37 (1) after May thirty-first and before September first of such current 38 taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before September 39 fifteenth, or

40 (2) after August thirty-first and before December first of such 41 current taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before Decem-42 ber fifteenth.

43 (d) Amendments of declaration. A taxpayer may amend a declaration 44 under regulations of the commissioner of finance.

45 (e) Return as declaration. If, on or before February fifteenth of the 46 succeeding year in the case of a taxpayer whose taxable year is a calen-47 dar year, a taxpayer files its return for the year for which the decla-48 ration is required, and pays therewith the balance, if any, of the full 49 amount of the tax shown to be due on the return:

50 (1) such return shall be considered as its declaration if no declara-51 tion was required to be filed during the taxable year for which the tax 52 was imposed, but is otherwise required to be filed on or before December 53 fifteenth pursuant to paragraph two of subdivision (c) of this section, 54 and

55 (2) such return shall be considered as the amendment permitted by 56 subdivision (d) of this section to be filed on or before December

1 fifteenth if the tax shown on the return is greater than the estimated 2 tax shown on a declaration previously made.

3 (f) Fiscal year. This section shall apply to taxable years of twelve 4 months other than a calendar year by the substitutions of the months of 5 such fiscal year for the corresponding months specified in this section.

6 (g) Short taxable period. If the taxable period for which a tax is 7 imposed by subdivision (a) of section 11-639 of this part is less than 8 twelve months, every taxpayer required to make a declaration of esti-9 mated tax for such taxable period shall make such a declaration in 10 accordance with regulations of the commissioner of finance.

11 (h) Extension of time. The commissioner of finance may grant a 12 reasonable extension of time, not to exceed three months, for the filing 13 of any declaration required pursuant to this section, on such terms and 14 conditions as the commissioner may require.

15 § 11-645 Payments of estimated tax. (a) Every taxpayer subject to 16 the tax imposed by section 11-639 of this part shall pay an amount equal 17 to twenty-five percent of the preceding year's tax, if such preceding 18 year's tax exceeded one thousand dollars. Such amount shall be paid 19 with the return required to be filed for the preceding taxable year or 20 with an application for the extension of the time for filing such 21 return. Provided, however, that for the first taxable year or period 22 commencing on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-three, 23 the installment required by this subdivision shall be paid with the 24 return required to be filed for the tax imposed pursuant to part one or 25 two of this subchapter three computed on the basis of net income for the 26 calendar year nineteen hundred seventy-two, or under the minimum tax 27 provisions of section 11-612 of this subchapter.

28 (b) Other installments. The estimated tax for each taxable year with 29 respect to which a declaration of estimated tax is required to be filed 30 under this part shall be paid, in the case of a taxpayer which reports 31 on the basis of a calendar year, as follows:

32 (1) If the declaration is filed on or before June fifteenth, the esti-33 mated tax shown thereon, after applying thereto the amount, if any, paid 34 during the same taxable year pursuant to subdivision (a) of this 35 section, shall be paid in three equal installments. One of such 36 installments shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, 37 one shall be paid on the following September fifteenth, and one on the 38 following December fifteenth.

39 (2) If the declaration is filed after June fifteenth and not after 40 September fifteenth of such taxable year, and is not required to be 41 filed on or before June fifteenth of such year, the estimated tax shown 42 on such declaration, after applying thereto the amount, if any, paid 43 during the same taxable year pursuant to subdivision (a) of this 44 section, shall be paid in two equal installments. One of such install-45 ments shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration and one 46 shall be paid on the following December fifteenth.

47 (3) If the declaration is filed after September fifteenth of such 48 taxable year, and is not required to be filed on or before September 49 fifteenth of such year, the estimated tax shown on such declaration, 50 after applying thereto the amount, if any, paid in respect of such year 51 pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, shall be paid in full at 52 the time of the filing of the declaration.

53 (4) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed therefor, 54 or after the expiration of any extension of time therefor, paragraphs 55 two and three of this subdivision shall not apply and there shall be 56 paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax paya-

1 ble at or before such time, and the remaining installments shall be paid 2 at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been 3 payable if the declaration had been filed when due.

4 (c) Amendments of declarations. If any amendment of a declaration is 5 filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or 6 decreased, as the case may be, to reflect any increase or decrease in 7 the estimated tax by reason of such amendment, and if any amendment is 8 made after September fifteenth of the taxable year, any increase in the 9 estimated tax by reason thereof shall be paid at the time of making such 10 amendment.

11 (d) Application of installments based on the preceding year's tax.
12 Any amount paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall be 13 applied as a first installment against the estimated tax of the taxpayer 14 for the taxable year shown on the declaration required to be filed 15 pursuant to section 11-644 of this part, or if no declaration of esti-16 mated tax is required to be filed by the taxpayer pursuant to such 17 section, any such amount shall be considered a payment on account of the 18 tax shown on the return required to be filed by the taxpayer for such 19 taxable year.

20 (e) Interest on certain installments based on the preceding year's 21 tax. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-679 of this chapter or 22 of section three-a of the general municipal law, if an amount paid 23 pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section exceeds the tax shown on the 24 return required to be filed by the taxpayer for the taxable year during 25 which the amount was paid, interest shall be allowed and paid on the 26 amount by which the amount so paid pursuant to such subdivision exceeds 27 such tax, at the overpayment rate set by the commissioner of finance 28 pursuant to section 11-687 of this chapter, or, if no rate is set, at 29 the rate of six percent per annum from the date of payment of the amount 30 so paid pursuant to such subdivision to the fifteenth day of the third 31 month following the close of the taxable year, provided, however, that 32 no interest shall be allowed or paid under this subdivision if the 33 amount thereof is less than one dollar.

34 (f) The preceding year's tax defined. As used in this section, "the 35 preceding year's tax" means the tax imposed upon the taxpayer by subdivi-36 sion (a) of section 11-639 of this part for the preceding taxable 37 year, or, for purposes of computing the first installment of estimated 38 tax when an application has been filed for extension of the time for 39 filing the return required to be filed for such preceding taxable year, 40 the amount properly estimated pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision b 41 of section 11-647 of this part as the tax imposed upon the taxpayer for 42 such taxable year. Provided, however, that for the first taxable year 43 or period commencing on or after January first, nineteen hundred seven-44 ty-three, the term "preceding year's tax" as used in this section shall 45 mean the tax imposed upon the taxpayer pursuant to part one or two of 46 this subchapter three which was computed on the basis of net income for 47 the calendar year nineteen hundred seventy-two, or under the minimum tax 48 provisions of subdivision two of section 11-612 of this subchapter, or 49 for purposes of computing the first installment of estimated tax for 50 such first taxable year or period when an application has been filed for 51 an extension of the time for filing the return required to be filed for 52 the tax imposed pursuant to part one or two of this subchapter three 53 which was computed on the basis of net income for the calendar year 54 nineteen hundred seventy-two, or under the minimum tax provisions of 55 section 11-612 of this subchapter, the amount of tax properly estimated

1 for purposes of such part one or two pursuant to section 11-635 of this
2 subchapter.

3 (g) Application to short taxable period. This section shall apply to 4 a taxable period of less than twelve months in accordance with regu-5 lations of the commissioner of finance.

6 (h) Fiscal year. The provisions of this section shall apply to taxa-7 ble years of twelve months other than a calendar year by the substi-
8 tution of the months of such fiscal year for the corresponding months 9 specified in such provisions.

10 (i) Extension of time. The commissioner of finance may grant a 11 reasonable extension of time, not to exceed six months, for payment of 12 any installment of estimated tax required pursuant to this section, on 13 such terms and conditions as the commissioner may require, including the 14 furnishing of a bond or other security by the taxpayer in an amount not 15 exceeding twice the amount for which any extension of time for payment 16 is granted, provided, however that interest at the underpayment rate set 17 by the commissioner of finance pursuant to section 11-687 of this chap-18 ter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent 19 per annum for the period of the extension shall be charged and collected 20 on the amount for which any extension of time for payment is granted 21 under this subdivision.

22 (j) Payment of installments in advance. A taxpayer may elect to pay 23 any installment of estimated tax prior to the date prescribed in this 24 section for payment thereof.

25 § 11-646 Returns. (a) Every taxpayer shall annually on or before 26 the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of each of its 27 taxable years transmit to the commissioner of finance a return in a form 28 prescribed by the commissioner setting forth such information as the 29 commissioner of finance may prescribe and every taxpayer which ceases to 30 exercise its franchise in the city or to be subject to the tax imposed 31 by this part shall transmit to the commissioner of finance a return on 32 the date of such cessation or at such other time as the commissioner of 33 finance may require covering each year or period for which no return was 34 therefore filed.

35 (b) Every taxpayer shall also transmit such other returns and such 36 facts and information as the commissioner of finance may require in the 37 administration of this part.

38 (c) The commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of 39 time for filing returns whenever good cause exists. An automatic exten-40 sion of six months for the filing of its annual return shall be allowed 41 any taxpayer, if within the time prescribed by subdivision (a) of this 42 section, such taxpayer files with the commissioner of finance an appli-43 cation for extension in such form as said commissioner of finance may 44 prescribe by regulation and pays on or before the date of such filing 45 the amount properly estimated as its tax.

46 (d) Every return shall have annexed thereto a certification by the 47 president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief 48 accounting officer or any other officer of the taxpayer duly authorized 49 so to act to the effect that the statements contained therein are true.
50 The fact that an individual's name is signed on a certification of the 51 return shall be prima facie evidence that such individual is authorized 52 to sign and certify the return on behalf of the corporation.

53 (e) If the amount of taxable income, alternative minimum taxable 54 income or other basis of tax for any year of any taxpayer, or of any 55 shareholder of any taxpayer that has elected to be taxed under subchap-56 ters of chapter one of the internal revenue code or of any shareholder

1 of any taxpayer with respect to which an election has been made to be 2 treated as a qualified subchapter s subsidiary under paragraph three of 3 subsection (b) of section thirteen hundred sixty-one of the internal 4 revenue code as returned to the United States treasury department or the 5 New York state commissioner of taxation and finance is changed or 6 corrected by the commissioner of internal revenue or other officer of 7 the United States or the New York state commissioner of taxation and 8 finance or other competent authority, or if a taxpayer or such share-9 holder of a taxpayer, pursuant to subsection (d) of section sixty-two 10 hundred thirteen of the internal revenue code, executes a notice of 11 waiver of the restrictions provided in subsection (a) of said section, 12 or if a taxpayer or such shareholder of a taxpayer, pursuant to 13 subsection (f) of section one thousand eighty-one of the tax law, 14 executes a notice of waiver of the restrictions provided in subsection 15 (c) of such section, such taxpayer shall report such changed or 16 corrected taxable income, alternative minimum taxable income or other 17 basis of tax or such execution of such notice of waiver and the changes 18 or corrections of the taxpayer's federal or New York state taxable 19 income, alternative minimum taxable income or other basis of tax on 20 which it is based, within ninety days, or one hundred twenty days, in 21 the case of a taxpayer making a combined return under this subchapter 22 for such year, after such execution or the final determination of such 23 change or correction, or as required by the commissioner of finance, and 24 shall concede the accuracy of such determination or state wherein it is 25 erroneous. The allowance of a tentative carryback adjustment based upon 26 a net capital loss carryback pursuant to section sixty-four hundred 27 eleven of the internal revenue code, shall be treated as a final deter-28 mination for purposes of this subdivision. Any taxpayer filing an 29 amended return with such department shall also file within ninety days, 30 or one hundred twenty days, in the case of a taxpayer making a combined 31 return under this subchapter for such year, thereafter an amended return 32 with the commissioner of finance which shall contain such information as 33 the commissioner shall require.

34 (f) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "bank holding 35 company" means any corporation subject to article three-A of the banking 36 law, or registered under the federal bank holding company act of nine-37 teen hundred fifty-six, as amended, or registered as a savings and loan 38 holding company, but excluding a diversified savings and loan holding 39 company, under the federal national housing act, as amended.

40 (2) (i) Any banking corporation or bank holding company which is doing 41 business in the city in a corporate or organized capacity, and 42 (A) which owns or controls, directly or indirectly, eighty percent or 43 more of the voting stock of one or more banking corporations or bank 44 holding companies, or

45 (B) whose voting stock is eighty percent or more owned or controlled, 46 directly or indirectly, by a banking corporation or a bank holding 47 company,

48 shall make a return on a combined basis under this part covering 49 itself and such corporations described in clause (A) or (B) of this 50 subparagraph and shall set forth such information as the commissioner of 51 finance may require unless the taxpayer or the commissioner of finance 52 shows that the inclusion of such a corporation in the combined return 53 fails to properly reflect the tax liability of such corporation under 54 this part. Provided, however, that no banking corporation or bank hold-55 ing company not a taxpayer shall be subject to the requirements of this 56 subparagraph unless the commissioner of finance deems that the applica-

1 tion of such requirements is necessary in order to properly reflect the 2 tax liability under this part, because of intercompany transactions or 3 some agreement, understanding, arrangement or transaction of the type 4 referred to in subdivision (g) of this section.

5 (ii) In the discretion of the commissioner of finance, any banking 6 corporation or bank holding company which is doing business in the city 7 in a corporate or organized capacity, and

8 (A) which owns or controls, directly or indirectly, sixty-five percent 9 or more of the voting stock of one or more banking corporations or bank 10 holding companies, or

11 (B) whose voting stock is sixty-five percent or more owned or 12 controlled, directly or indirectly, by a banking corporation or a bank 13 holding company, may be required or permitted to make a return on a 14 combined basis under this part covering itself and such corporations 15 described in clause (A) or (B) of this subparagraph and shall set forth 16 such information as the commissioner of finance may require; provided, 17 however, that no combined return shall be required or permitted unless 18 the commissioner of finance deems such report necessary in order to 19 properly reflect the tax liability under this part of any one or more of 20 such banking corporations or bank holding companies.

21 (iii) In the discretion of the commissioner of finance, banking corpo-22 rations or bank holding companies which are each sixty-five percent or 23 more owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same interest 24 may be permitted or required to make a return on a combined basis under 25 this part and shall set forth such information as the commissioner of 26 finance may require, if at least one such banking corporation or bank 27 holding company is doing business in the city in a corporate or organ-28 ized capacity. No combined return shall be required or permitted unless 29 the commissioner of finance deems such report necessary in order to 30 properly reflect the tax liability under this part of any one or more of 31 such banking corporations or bank holding companies.

32 (iv) (A) Notwithstanding any provision of this paragraph, any bank 33 holding company exercising its corporate franchise or doing business in 34 the city may make a return on a combined basis without seeking the 35 permission of the commissioner with any banking corporation exercising 36 its corporate franchise or doing business in the city in a corporate or 37 organized capacity sixty-five percent or more of whose voting stock is 38 owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by such bank holding compa-39 ny, for the first taxable year beginning on or after January first, two 40 thousand and before January first, two thousand twenty during which such 41 bank holding company registers for the first time under the federal bank 42 holding company act, as amended, and also elects to be a financial hold-43 ing company. In addition, for each subsequent taxable year beginning 44 after January first, two thousand and before January first, two thousand 45 twenty, any such bank holding company may file on a combined basis with-46 out seeking the permission of the commissioner with any banking corpo-47 ration that is exercising its corporate franchise or doing business in 48 the city and sixty-five percent or more of whose voting stock is owned 49 or controlled, directly or indirectly, by such bank holding company if 50 either such banking corporation is exercising its corporate franchise or 51 doing business in the city in a corporate or organized capacity for the 52 first time during such subsequent taxable year, or sixty-five percent or 53 more of the voting stock of such banking corporation is owned or 54 controlled, directly or indirectly, by such bank holding company for the 55 first time during such subsequent taxable year. Provided however, for 56 each subsequent taxable year beginning after January first, two thousand

1 and before January first, two thousand twenty, a banking corporation 2 described in this clause which filed on a combined basis with any such 3 bank holding company in a previous taxable year, must continue to file 4 on a combined basis with such bank holding company if such banking 5 corporation, during such subsequent taxable year, continues to exercise 6 its corporate franchise or do business in the city in a corporate or 7 organized capacity and sixty-five percent or more of such banking corpo-8 ration's voting stock continues to be owned or controlled, directly or 9 indirectly, by such bank holding company, unless the permission of the 10 commissioner has been obtained to file on a separate basis for such 11 subsequent taxable year. Provided further, however, for each subsequent 12 taxable year beginning after January first, two thousand and before 13 January first, two thousand twenty, a banking corporation described in 14 this clause which did not file on a combined basis with any such bank 15 holding company in a previous taxable year, may not file on a combined 16 basis with such bank holding company during any such subsequent taxable 17 year unless the permission of the commissioner has been obtained to file 18 on a combined basis for such subsequent taxable year.

19 (B) Notwithstanding any provision of this paragraph other than clause 20 (A) of this subparagraph, the commissioner may not require a bank hold-21 ing company which, during a taxable year beginning on or after January 22 first, two thousand and before January first, two thousand twenty, 23 registers for the first time during such taxable year under the federal 24 bank holding company act, as amended, and also elects to be a financial 25 holding company, to make a return on a combined basis for any taxable 26 year beginning on or after January first, two thousand and before Janu-27 ary first, two thousand twenty with a banking corporation sixty-five 28 percent or more of whose voting stock is owned or controlled, directly 29 or indirectly, by such bank holding company.

30 (v)(A) For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "closest control-31 ling stockholder" means the corporation that indirectly owns or controls 32 over fifty percent of the voting stock of a captive REIT or captive RIC, 33 is subject to tax under this subchapter or otherwise required to be 34 included in a combined return under this chapter and is the fewest tiers 35 of corporations away in the ownership structure from the captive REIT or 36 captive RIC. The commissioner is authorized to prescribe by regulation 37 or published guidance the criteria for determining the closest control-38 ling stockholder.

39 (B) A captive REIT or a captive RIC must be included in a combined 40 return with the banking corporation or bank holding company that direct-41 ly owns or controls over fifty percent of the voting stock of the 42 captive REIT or captive RIC if that banking corporation or bank holding 43 company is subject to tax or required to be included in a combined 44 return under this subchapter.

45 (C) If over fifty percent of the voting stock of a captive REIT or 46 captive RIC is not directly owned or controlled by a banking corporation 47 or bank holding company that is subject to tax or required to be 48 included in a combined return under this subchapter, then the captive 49 REIT or captive RIC must be included in a combined return with the 50 corporation that is the closest controlling stockholder of the captive 51 REIT or captive RIC. If the closest controlling stockholder of the 52 captive REIT or captive RIC is a banking corporation or bank holding 53 company that is subject to tax or otherwise required to be included in a 54 combined return under this subchapter, then the captive REIT or captive 55 RIC must be included in a combined return under this subchapter.

1 (D) If the corporation which directly owns or controls the voting
2 stock of the captive REIT or captive RIC is described in subparagraph 3 (ii) of paragraph four of this subdivision as a corporation not permit-4 ted to make a combined return, then the provisions in clause (C) of this 5 subparagraph must be applied to determine the corporation in whose 6 combined return the captive REIT or captive RIC should be included. If, 7 under clause (C) of this subparagraph, the corporation that is the clos-8 est controlling stockholder of the captive REIT or captive RIC is 9 described in subparagraph (ii) or (iv) of paragraph four of this subdivi-10 sion as a corporation not permitted to make a combined return, then 11 that corporation is deemed to not be in the ownership structure of the 12 captive REIT or captive RIC, and the closest controlling stockholder 13 will be determined without regard to that corporation.

14 (E) If a captive REIT owns the stock of a qualified REIT subsidiary, 15 as defined in paragraph two of subsection (i) of section eight hundred 16 fifty-six of the internal revenue code, then the qualified REIT subsid-17 iary must be included in any combined return required to be made by the 18 captive REIT that owns its stock.

19 (F) If a captive REIT or a captive RIC is required under this subpara-20 graph to be included in a combined return with another corporation, and 21 that other corporation is required to be included in a combined return 22 with another corporation under other provisions of this subdivision, the 23 captive REIT or captive RIC must be included in that combined return 24 with those corporations.

25 (G) If the banking corporation or bank holding company that directly 26 or indirectly owns or controls over fifty percent of the voting stock of 27 the captive REIT or captive RIC and is the closest controlling stock-28 holder of the captive REIT or captive RIC is a member of an affiliated 29 group (1) that does not include any corporation that is engaged in a 30 business that a subsidiary of a bank holding company would not be 31 permitted to engage in, unless such business is de minimis, and (2) 32 whose members own assets the combined average value of which does not 33 exceed eight billion dollars, then the captive REIT or captive RIC must 34 not be included in a combined return under this subchapter. In that 35 instance, the captive REIT or captive RIC is subject to the provisions 36 of subdivision seven or eight of section 11-603 of this chapter. The 37 term "affiliated group" means "affiliated group" as defined in section 38 fifteen hundred four of the internal revenue code, but without regard to 39 the exceptions provided for in subsection (b) of such section.

40 (vi) For taxable years beginning on or after January first two thou-41 sand eleven, a banking corporation doing business in the city solely 42 because it meets one or more of the tests in subparagraphs (i) through 43 (v) of paragraph one of subdivision (c) of section 11-639 of this chap-44 ter, referred to in this subparagraph as the "credit card bank", will 45 not be included in a combined return pursuant to subparagraph (i) of 46 this paragraph with another banking corporation or bank holding company 47 which is doing business in the city unless the credit card bank or the 48 commissioner shows that the inclusion of the credit card bank in the 49 combined return is necessary to properly reflect the tax liability of 50 the credit card bank, the banking corporation or bank holding company 51 under this subchapter. However, any banking corporation that meets one 52 or more of the tests in subparagraphs (i) through (v) of paragraph one 53 of subsection (c) of section 11-639 of this chapter and was included in 54 a combined return for its last taxable year beginning before January 55 first, two thousand eleven may continue to be included in a combined 56 return for future taxable years, provided that once that banking corpo-

1 ration has been included in a combined return for any taxable year 2 beginning on or after January first, two thousand eleven, it must 3 continue to be included in a combined return until it obtains the 4 consent of the commissioner to cease being included in a combined return 5 because the combined return no longer properly reflects the tax liability 6 under this subchapter of any of the corporations included in the 7 combined return. Further, the credit card bank will be included in a 8 combined return with (A) any banking corporation not subject to tax 9 under this subchapter sixty-five percent or more of whose voting stock 10 is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the credit card bank, 11 or (B) any banking corporation or bank holding company not subject to 12 tax under this subchapter which owns or controls, directly or indirect-13 ly, sixty-five percent or more of the voting stock of the credit card 14 bank, or (C) any banking corporation not subject to tax under this 15 subchapter sixty-five percent or more of the voting stock of which is 16 owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same corporation or 17 corporations that own or control, directly or indirectly, sixty-five 18 percent or more of the voting stock of the credit card bank, if the 19 corporation or corporations described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) of 20 this subparagraph provide services for or support to the credit card 21 bank's operations, unless the credit card bank or the commissioner shows 22 that the inclusion of any of those corporations in the combined return 23 fails to properly reflect the tax liability of the credit card bank. For 24 purposes of this subparagraph, services for or support to the credit 25 card bank's operations include such activities as billing, credit inves-26 tigation and reporting, marketing, research, advertising, mailing, 27 customer service, information technology, lending and financing 28 services, and communications services, but will not include accounting, 29 legal or personnel services.

30 (3) (i) In the case of a combined return, the tax shall be measured by 31 the combined entire net income, combined alternative entire net income 32 or combined assets of all the corporations included in the return, 33 including any captive REIT or captive RIC. The allocation percentage 34 shall be computed based on the combined factors with respect to all the 35 corporations included in the combined return. In computing combined 36 entire net income and alternative entire net income intercorporate divi-37 dends and all other intercorporate transactions shall be eliminated and 38 in computing combined assets intercorporate stockholdings and intercor-39 porate bills, notes and accounts receivable and payable and other inter-40 corporate indebtedness shall be eliminated.

41 (ii) In the case of a captive REIT required under this subdivision to 42 be included in a combined return, "entire net income" means "real estate 43 investment trust taxable income" as defined in paragraph two of subdivi-44 sion (b) of section eight hundred fifty-seven, as modified by section 45 eight hundred fifty-eight, of the internal revenue code, plus the amount 46 taxable under paragraph three of subdivision (b) of section eight 47 hundred fifty-seven of that code, subject to the modifications required 48 by section 11-641 of this chapter. In the case of a captive RIC required 49 under this subdivision to be included in a combined return, "entire net 50 income" means "investment company taxable income" as defined in para-51 graph two of subdivision (b) of section eight hundred fifty-two, as 52 modified by section eight hundred fifty-five, of the internal revenue 53 code, plus the amount taxable under paragraph three of subdivision (b) 54 of section eight hundred fifty-two of such code, subject to the modifi-55 cations required by section 11-641 of this chapter. However, the 56 deduction under the internal revenue code for dividends paid by the

1 captive REIT or captive RIC to any member of the affiliated group that 2 includes the corporation that directly or indirectly owns over fifty 3 percent of the voting stock of the captive REIT or captive RIC shall be 4 limited to twenty-five percent for taxable years beginning on or after 5 January first, two thousand nine and before January first, two thousand 6 eleven and shall not be allowed for taxable years beginning on or after 7 January first, two thousand eleven. The term "affiliated group" means 8 "affiliated group" as defined in section fifteen hundred four of the 9 internal revenue code, but without regard to the exceptions provided for 10 in subsection (b) of such section.

11 (4) (i) In no event shall an item of income or expense of a corpo-12 ration organized under the laws of a country other than the United 13 States be included in a combined return unless it is includible in 14 entire net income or alternative entire net income, as the case may be, 15 nor shall an asset of such a corporation be included in a combined 16 return unless it is included in taxable assets.

17 (ii) In no event shall a corporation organized under the laws of the 18 United States, this state or any other state, be included in a combined 19 return with a corporation organized under the laws of a country other 20 than the United States.

21 (iii) In no event shall a corporation which has made an election 22 pursuant to subdivision (d) of section 11-640 of this part to be subject 23 to the tax imposed by subchapter two of this chapter be included in a 24 combined return for those taxable years for which it is subject to the 25 tax imposed by subchapter two of this chapter.

26 (5) Tax liability under this part may be deemed to be improperly 27 reflected because of intercompany transactions or some agreement, under-28 standing, arrangement or transaction referred to in subdivision (g) of 29 this section.

30 (g) In case it shall appear to the commissioner of finance that any 31 agreement, understanding or arrangement exists between the taxpayer and 32 any other corporation or any person or firm, whereby the activity, busi-33 ness, income or assets of the taxpayer within the city is improperly or 34 inaccurately reflected, the commissioner of finance is authorized and 35 empowered, in his or her discretion and in such manner as he or she may 36 determine, to adjust items of income or deductions in computing entire 37 net income or alternative entire net income and to adjust assets, and to 38 adjust wages, salaries and other personal service compensation, receipts 39 or deposits in computing any allocation percentage, provided only that 40 entire net income or alternative entire net income be adjusted accord-41 ingly and that any asset directly traceable to the elimination of any 42 receipt be eliminated from assets so as to accurately determine the tax.
43 If however, in the determination of the commissioner of finance, such 44 adjustments do not, or cannot effectively provide for the accurate 45 determination of the tax, the commissioner of finance shall be author-46 ized to require the filing of a combined report by the taxpayer and any 47 such other corporations. Where (1) any taxpayer conducts its activity or 48 business under any agreement, arrangement or understanding in such 49 manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit its members or stock-50 holders, or any of them, or any person or persons directly or indirectly 51 interested in such activity or business, by entering into any trans-52 action at more or less than a fair price which, but for such agreement, 53 arrangement or understanding, might have been paid or received therefor, 54 or (2) any taxpayer enters into any transaction with another corporation 55 on such terms as to create an improper loss or net income, the commis-56 sioner of finance may include in the entire net income or alternative

1 entire net income of the taxpayer the fair profits which, but for such 2 agreement, arrangement or understanding, the taxpayer might have derived 3 from such transaction.

4 § 11-647 Payment of tax. (a) To the extent the tax imposed for 5 section 11-639 of this part shall not have been previously paid pursuant 6 to section 11-645 of this part:

7 (1) such tax, or the balance thereof, shall be payable to the commis-8 sioner of finance in full at the time its return is required to be 9 filed, and

10 (2) such tax, or the balance thereof, imposed on any taxpayer which 11 ceased to exercise its franchise or to be subject to the tax imposed by 12 this part shall be payable to the commissioner of finance at the time 13 the return is required to be filed, provided such tax of a domestic 14 corporation which continues to possess its franchise shall be subject to 15 adjustment as the circumstances may require; all other taxes of any such 16 taxpayer, which pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision would 17 otherwise be payable subsequent to the time such return is required to 18 be filed, shall nevertheless be payable at such time.

19 (b) If the taxpayer, within the time prescribed by subdivision (c) of 20 section 11-646 of this part, shall have applied for an automatic exten-21 sion of time to file its annual return and shall have paid to the 22 commissioner of finance on or before the date of such application is 23 filed an amount properly estimated as provided by said subdivision the 24 only amount payable in addition to the tax shall be interest at the 25 underpayment rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to section 26 11-687 of this chapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and 27 one-half percent per annum upon the amount by which the tax, or portion 28 thereof payable on or before the date the return was required to be 29 filed, exceeds the amount so paid, provided that:

30 (1) an amount so paid shall be deemed properly estimated if it is 31 either: (i) not less than ninety per cent of the tax as finally deter-32 mined, or (ii) not less than the tax shown on the taxpayer's return for 33 the preceding taxable year, if such preceding year was a taxable year of 34 twelve months; and

35 (2) the time when a return is required to be filed shall be determined 36 without regard to any extension of time for filing such return.

37 (c) The commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of 38 time for payment of any tax imposed by this part under such conditions 39 as the commissioner deems just and proper.

1 § 11-651 Applicability. 1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in 2 this chapter, this subchapter shall apply to corporations for tax years 3 commencing on or after January first, two thousand fifteen, except that 4 it shall not apply to any corporation that (a) has an election in effect 5 under subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred sixty-two of the inter-6 nal revenue code, as amended, or (b) is a qualified subchapter S subsidi-7 ary within the meaning of paragraph three of subsection (b) of section 8 thirteen hundred sixty-one of the internal revenue code, as amended, in 9 any tax year commencing on or after such date. Subchapters two and three 10 of this chapter shall not apply to corporations to which this subchapter 11 applies for tax years commencing on or after January first, two thousand 12 fifteen, except to the extent provided in this subchapter and to the 13 extent that the effect of the application of subchapters two and three 14 to tax years commencing prior to January first, two thousand fifteen 15 carries over to tax years commencing on or after January first, two 16 thousand fifteen.

17 2. Each reference in the tax law or this code to subchapters two or 18 three of this chapter, or any of the provisions thereof, shall be deemed 19 a reference also to this subchapter, and any of the applicable
20 provisions thereof, where appropriate and with all necessary modifica-
21 tions.

22 § 11-652 Definitions. 1. (a) The term "corporation" includes (1) an 23 association within the meaning of paragraph three of subsection (a) of 24 section seventy-seven hundred one of the internal revenue code, includ-25 ing, when applicable, a limited liability company, (2) a joint-stock 26 company or association, (3) a publicly traded partnership treated as a 27 corporation for purposes of the internal revenue code pursuant to 28 section seventy-seven hundred four thereof and (4) any business 29 conducted by a trustee or trustees wherein interest or ownership is 30 evidenced by certificate or other written instrument;

31 (b) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an unincor-32 porated organization that (i) is described in subparagraph one or three 33 of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, (ii) was subject to the provisions 34 of chapter five of this title for its taxable year beginning in nineteen 35 hundred ninety-five, and (iii) made a one-time election not to be treat-36 ed as a corporation and, instead, to continue to be subject to the 37 provisions of chapter five of this title for its taxable years beginning 38 in nineteen hundred ninety-six and thereafter, shall continue to be 39 subject to the provisions of chapter five of this title for its taxable 40 years beginning in nineteen hundred ninety-six.

41 (2) An election under this paragraph shall continue to be in effect 42 until revoked by the unincorporated organization. An election under this 43 paragraph shall be revoked by the filing of a return under this subchap-44 ter for the first taxable year with respect to which such revocation is 45 to be effective. Such return shall be filed on or before the due date, 46 determined with regard to extensions, for filing such return. In no 47 event shall such election or revocation be for a part of a taxable year.

48 (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a corporation 49 shall not include an entity classified as a partnership for federal 50 income tax purposes.

51 2. The term "subsidiary" means a corporation of which over fifty per 52 centum of the number of shares of stock entitling the holders thereof to 53 vote for the election of directors or trustees is owned by the taxpayer.

54 2-a. The term "taxpayer" means any corporation subject to tax under 55 this subchapter.

56 3. Intentionally omitted.

1 3-a. The term "stock" means an interest in a corporation that is 2 treated as equity for federal income tax purposes.

3 4. (a) The term "investment capital" means investments in stocks that:
4 (i) satisfy the definition of a capital asset under section one thousand 5 two hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code at all times the 6 taxpayer owned such stocks during the taxable year; (ii) are held by the 7 taxpayer for investment for more than one year; (iii) the dispositions 8 of which are, or would be, treated by the taxpayer as generating long-9 term capital gains or losses under the internal revenue code; (iv) for 10 stocks acquired on or after January first, two thousand fifteen, at any 11 time after the close of the day in which they are acquired, have never 12 been held for sale to customers in the regular course of business; and 13 (v) before the close of the day on which the stock was acquired, are 14 clearly identified in the taxpayer's records as stock held for invest-15 ment in the same manner as required under paragraph one of subdivision 16 (a) of section one thousand two hundred thirty-six of the internal 17 revenue code for the stock of a dealer in securities to be eligible for 18 capital gain treatment, whether or not the taxpayer is a dealer of secu-19 rities subject to section one thousand two hundred thirty-six, provided, 20 however, that for stock acquired prior to October first, two thousand 21 fifteen that was not subject to subdivision (a) of section one thousand 22 two hundred thirty-six of the internal revenue code, such identification 23 in the taxpayer's records must occur before October first, two thousand 24 fifteen. Stock in a corporation that is conducting a unitary business 25 with the taxpayer, stock in a corporation that is included in a combined 26 report with the taxpayer pursuant to the commonly owned group election 27 in subdivision three of section 11-654.3 of this subchapter, and stock 28 issued by the taxpayer shall not constitute investment capital. For 29 purposes of this subdivision, if the taxpayer owns or controls, directly 30 or indirectly, less than twenty percent of the voting power of the stock 31 of a corporation, that corporation will be presumed to be conducting a 32 business that is not unitary with the business of the taxpayer.

33 (b) There shall be deducted from investment capital any liabilities 34 which are directly or indirectly attributable to investment capital. If 35 the amount of those liabilities exceeds the amount of investment capi-36 tal, the amount of investment capital shall be zero.

37 (c) Investment capital shall not include any such investments the 38 income from which is excluded from entire net income pursuant to the 39 provisions of paragraph (c-1) of subdivision eight of this section, and 40 that investment capital shall be computed without regard to liabilities 41 directly or indirectly attributable to such investments, but only if air 42 carriers organized in the United States and operating in the foreign 43 country or countries in which the taxpayer has its major base of oper-44 ations and in which it is organized, resident or headquartered, if not 45 in the same country as its major base of operations, are not subject to 46 any tax based on or measured by capital imposed by such foreign country 47 or countries or any political subdivision thereof, or if taxed, are 48 provided an exemption, equivalent to that provided for herein, from any 49 tax based on or measured by capital imposed by such foreign country or 50 countries and from any such tax imposed by any political subdivision 51 thereof.

52 (d) If a taxpayer acquires stock that is a capital asset under section 53 one thousand two hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code during 54 the taxable year and owns that stock on the last day of the taxable 55 year, it will be presumed, solely for the purposes of determining wheth-56 er that stock should be classified as investment capital after it is 1 acquired, that the taxpayer held that stock for more than one year.

2 However, if the taxpayer does not in fact own that stock at the time it 3 actually files its original report for the taxable year in which it 4 acquired the stock, then such presumption shall not apply and the actual 5 period of time during which the taxpayer owned the stock shall be used 6 to determine whether the stock should be classified as investment capi-7 tal after it is acquired. If the taxpayer relies on such presumption but 8 does not own the stock for more than one year, the taxpayer must 9 increase its total business capital in the immediately succeeding taxa-10 ble year by the amount included in investment capital for that stock, 11 net of any liabilities attributable to that stock computed as provided 12 in paragraph (b) of this subdivision and must increase its business 13 income in the immediately succeeding taxable year by the amount of 14 income and net gains, but not less than zero, from that stock included 15 in investment income, less any interest deductions directly or indirect-16 ly attributable to that stock, as provided in subdivision five of this 17 section.

18 (e) When income or gain from a debt obligation or other security 19 cannot be allocated to the city using the business allocation percentage 20 as a result of the United States constitutional principles, the debt 21 obligation or other security will be included in investment capital.

22 5. (a)(i) The term "investment income" means income, including capital 23 gains in excess of capital losses, from investment capital, to the 24 extent included in computing entire net income, less, in the discretion 25 of the commissioner of finance, any interest deductions allowable in 26 computing entire net income which are directly or indirectly attribut-27 able to investment capital or investment income, provided, however, that 28 in no case shall investment income exceed entire net income.

29 (ii) If the amount of interest deductions subtracted under subpara-30 graph (i) of this paragraph exceeds investment income, the excess of 31 such amount over investment income must be added back to entire net
32 income.

33 (iii) If the taxpayer's investment income determined without regard to 34 the interest deductions subtracted under subparagraph (i) of this para-35 graph comprises more than eight percent of the taxpayer's entire net 36 income, investment income determined without regard to such interest 37 deductions cannot exceed eight percent of the taxpayer's entire net
38 income.

39 (b) In lieu of subtracting from investment income the amount of those 40 interest deductions, the taxpayer may make a revocable election to 41 reduce its total investment income, determined after applying the limi-42 tation in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, by 43 forty percent. If the taxpayer makes this election, the taxpayer must 44 also make the elections provided for in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivi-45 sion five-a of this section. If the taxpayer subsequently revokes this 46 election, the taxpayer must revoke the elections provided for in para-
47 graphs (b) and (c) of subdivision five-a of this section. A taxpayer 48 that does not make this election because it has no investment capital 49 will not be precluded from making those other elections.

50 (c) Investment income shall not include any amount treated as divi-
51 dends pursuant to section seventy-eight of the internal revenue code.

52 5-a. (a) The term "other exempt income" means the sum of exempt CFC 53 income and exempt unitary corporation dividends.

54 (b) "Exempt CFC income" means (i) except to the extent described in 55 subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, the income required to be included 56 in the taxpayer's federal gross income pursuant to subsection (a) of 1 section nine hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code, received 2 from a corporation that is conducting a unitary business with the 3 taxpayer but is not included in a combined report with the taxpayer, and 4 (ii) such income required to be included in the taxpayer's federal gross 5 income pursuant to subsection (a) of such section nine hundred fifty-one 6 of the internal revenue code by reason of subsection (a) of section nine 7 hundred sixty-five of the internal revenue code, as adjusted by 8 subsection (b) of section nine hundred sixty-five of the internal revenue 9 code, and without regard to subsection (c) of such section, received 10 from a corporation that is not included in a combined report with the 11 taxpayer, less, (iii) in the discretion of the commissioner of finance, 12 any interest deductions directly or indirectly attributable to that 13 income. In lieu of subtracting from its exempt CFC income the amount of 14 those interest deductions, the taxpayer may make a revocable election to 15 reduce its total exempt CFC income by forty percent. If the taxpayer 16 makes this election, the taxpayer must also make the elections provided 17 for in paragraph (b) of subdivision five of this section and paragraph 18 (c) of this subdivision. If the taxpayer subsequently revokes this 19 election, the taxpayer must revoke the elections provided for in para-20 graph (b) of subdivision five of this section and paragraph (c) of this 21 subdivision. A taxpayer which does not make this election because it has 22 no exempt CFC income will not be precluded from making those other 23 elections. The income described in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph 24 shall not constitute investment income.

25 (c) "Exempt unitary corporate dividends" means those dividends from a 26 corporation that is conducting a unitary business with the taxpayer but 27 is not included in a combined report with the taxpayer, less, in the 28 discretion of the commissioner of finance, any interest deductions 29 directly or indirectly attributable to such income. Other than dividend 30 income received from corporations that are taxable under chapter eleven 31 of this title, except for vendors of utility services that are also 32 taxable under this subchapter, or would be taxable under chapter eleven 33 of this title, except for vendors of utility services that are also 34 taxable under this subchapter, if subject to tax and corporations that 35 would have been taxable as insurance corporations under former part IV, 36 title R, chapter forty-six of the administrative code of the city of New 37 York as in effect on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred seventy-four, in 38 lieu of subtracting from this dividend income those interest deductions, 39 the taxpayer may make a revocable election to reduce the total amount of 40 this dividend income by forty percent. If the taxpayer makes this 41 election, the taxpayer must also make the elections provided for in 42 paragraph (b) of subdivision five of this section and paragraph (b) of 43 this subdivision. If the taxpayer subsequently revokes this election, 44 the taxpayer must revoke the elections provided for in paragraph (b) of 45 subdivision five of this section and paragraph (b) of this subdivision.
46 A taxpayer that does not make this election because it has not received 47 any exempt unitary corporation dividends or is precluded from making 48 this election for dividends received from corporations that are taxable 49 under chapter eleven of this title, except for vendors of utility 50 services that are also taxable under this subchapter, or would be tax-51 able under chapter eleven of this title if subject to tax, except for 52 vendors of utility services that are also taxable under this subchapter, 53 shall not be precluded from making those other elections.

54 (d) If the taxpayer attributes interest deductions to other exempt 55 income and the amount deducted exceeds other exempt income, the excess 56 of the interest deductions over other exempt income must be added back

1 to entire net income. In no case shall other exempt income exceed entire 2 net income.

3 (e) Other exempt income shall not include any amount treated as divi-
4 dends pursuant to section seventy-eight of the internal revenue code.

5 6. (a) The term "business capital" means all assets, other than 6 investment capital and stock issued by the taxpayer, less liabilities 7 not deducted from investment capital; provided, however, business capi-8 tal shall include only those assets the income, loss or expense of which 9 are properly reflected, or would have been properly reflected if not 10 fully depreciated or expensed or depreciated or expensed to a nominal 11 amount, in the computation of entire net income for the taxable year.

12 (b) Provided, further, "business capital" shall not include assets to 25 provisions of such paragraph eight as it was in effect for agreements 26 entered into prior to January first, nineteen hundred eighty-four;

27 (9) except with respect to property which is a qualified mass commut-

49 the case of a taxpayer which is a foreign air carrier holding a foreign 50 air carrier permit issued by the United States department of transporta-51 tion pursuant to section four hundred two of the federal aviation act of 52 nineteen hundred fifty-eight, as amended, and which is qualified under 56 tional operation of aircraft as described in and subject to the 1 provisions of section eight hundred eighty-three of the internal revenue 2 code, (ii) income without the United States which is derived from the 6 sources without the United States. Entire net income shall include 7 income described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph in 8 the case of taxpayers not described in the previous sentence;

22 taxpayer.

23 (e) The entire net income of any bridge commission created by act of 24 congress to construct a bridge across an international boundary means 25 its gross income less the expense of maintaining and operating its prop-

27 the annual charge for the retirement of such bonds or obligations at 28 maturity.

29 (f) Intentionally omitted.

30 (g) At the election of the taxpayer, a deduction shall be allowed for 31 expenditures paid or incurred during the taxable year for the 32 construction, reconstruction, erection or improvement of industrial 33 waste treatment facilities and air pollution control facilities.

34 (1)(i) The term "industrial waste treatment facilities" shall mean 35 facilities for the treatment, neutralization or stabilization of indus-
36 trial waste, as the term "industrial waste" is defined in section
37 17-0105 of the environmental conservation law, from a point immediately 38 preceding the point of such treatment, neutralization or stabilization 39 to the point of disposal, including the necessary pumping and transmit-40 ting facilities, but excluding such facilities installed for the primary 41 purpose of salvaging materials which are usable in the manufacturing 42 process or are marketable.

43 (ii) The term "air pollution control facilities" shall mean facilities 44 which remove, reduce, or render less noxious air contaminants emitted 45 from an air contamination source, as the terms "air contaminant" and 46 "air contamination source" are defined in section 19-0107 of the envi-
47 ronmental conservation law, from a point immediately preceding the point 48 of such removal, reduction or rendering to the point of discharge of 49 air, meeting emission standards as established by the air pollution
50 control board, but excluding such facilities installed for the primary 51 purpose of salvaging materials which are usable in the manufacturing 52 process or are marketable and excluding those facilities which rely for 53 their efficacy on dilution, dispersion or assimilation of air contam-54 inants in the ambient air after emission.

55 (2) However, such deduction shall be allowed only (i) with respect to 56 tangible property which is depreciable, pursuant to section one hundred

1 sixty-seven of the internal revenue code, having a situs in the city and 2 used in the taxpayer's trade or business, the construction, recon-3 struction, erection or improvement of which, in the case of industrial 4 waste treatment facilities, is initiated on or after January first, 5 nineteen hundred sixty-six, and only for expenditures paid or incurred 6 prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-two, or which, in the 7 case of air pollution control facilities, is initiated on or after Janu-8 ary first, nineteen hundred sixty-six, and 9 (ii) on condition that such facilities have been certified by the 10 state commissioner of environmental conservation or the state commis-11 sioner's designated representative, in the same manner as provided for 12 in section 17-0707 or 19-0309 of the environmental conservation law, as 13 applicable, as complying with applicable provisions of the environmental 14 conservation law, the state sanitary code and regulations, permits or 15 orders issued pursuant thereto, and 16 (iii) on condition that entire net income for the taxable year and all 17 succeeding taxable years be computed without any deductions for such 18 expenditures or for depreciation of the same property other than the 19 deductions allowed by this paragraph except to the extent that the basis 20 of the property may be attributable to factors other than such expendi-21 tures, or in case a deduction is allowable pursuant to this paragraph 22 for only a part of such expenditures, on condition that any deduction 23 allowed for federal income tax purposes for such expenditures or for 24 depreciation of the same property be proportionately reduced in comput-25 ing entire net income for the taxable year and all succeeding taxable 26 years, and

27 (iv) where the election provided for in paragraph (d) of subdivision 28 three of section 11-604 of this chapter or the election provided for in 29 subdivision (k) of section 11-641 of this chapter has not been exercised 30 in respect to the same property.

31 (3)(i) If expenditures in respect to an industrial waste treatment 32 facility or an air pollution control facility have been deducted as 33 provided herein and if within ten years from the end of the taxable year 34 in which such deduction was allowed such property or any part thereof is 35 used for the primary purpose of salvaging materials which are usable in 36 the manufacturing process or are marketable, the taxpayer shall report 37 such change of use in its report for the first taxable year during which 38 it occurs, and the commissioner of finance may recompute the tax for the 39 year or years for which such deduction was allowed and any carryback or 40 carryover year, and may assess any additional tax resulting from such 41 recomputation within the time fixed by paragraph (h) of subdivision
42 three of section 11-674 of this chapter.

43 (ii) If a deduction is allowed as herein provided for expenditures
44 paid or incurred during any taxable year on the basis of a temporary 45 certificate of compliance issued pursuant to the environmental conserva-46 tion law and if the taxpayer fails to obtain a permanent certificate of 47 compliance upon completion of the facilities with respect to which such 48 temporary certificate was issued, the taxpayer shall report such failure 49 in its report for the taxable year during which such facilities are 50 completed, and the commissioner of finance may recompute the tax for the 51 year or years for which such deduction was allowed and any carryback or 52 carryover year, and may assess any additional tax resulting from such 53 recomputation within the time fixed by paragraph (h) of subdivision
54 three of section 11-674 of this chapter.

55 (4) In any taxable year when property is sold or otherwise disposed 56 of, with respect to which a deduction has been allowed pursuant to this

1 paragraph, such deduction shall be disregarded in computing gain or 2 loss, and the gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of such 3 property shall be the gain or loss entering into the computation of 4 entire taxable income which the taxpayer is required to report to the 5 United States treasury for such taxable year;

6 (h) With respect to gain derived from the sale or other disposition of 7 any property acquired prior to January first, nineteen hundred sixty-8 six; which had a federal adjusted basis on such date, or on the date of 9 its sale or other disposition prior to January first, nineteen hundred 10 sixty-six, lower than its fair market value on January first, nineteen 11 hundred sixty-six or the date of its sale or other disposition prior 12 thereto, except property described in subsections one and four of 13 section twelve hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code, there 14 shall be deducted from entire net income, the difference between (1) the 15 amount of the taxpayer's federal taxable income, and (2) the amount of 16 the taxpayer's federal taxable income, if smaller than the amount 17 described in subparagraph one of this paragraph, computed as if the 18 federal adjusted basis of each such property, on the sale or other 19 disposition of which gain was derived, on the date of the sale or other 20 disposition had been equal to either (i) its fair market value on Janu-21 ary first, nineteen hundred sixty-six or the date of its sale or other 22 disposition prior to January first, nineteen hundred sixty-six, plus or 23 minus all adjustments to basis made with respect to such property for 24 federal income tax purposes for periods on and after January first, 25 nineteen hundred sixty-six or (ii) the amount realized from its sale or 26 disposition, whichever is lower; provided, however, that the total 27 modification provided by this paragraph shall not exceed the amount of 28 the taxpayer's net gain from the sale or other disposition of all such 29 property.

30 (i) If the period covered by a report under this subchapter is other 31 than the period covered by the report of the United States treasury 32 department, entire net income shall be determined by multiplying the 33 federal taxable income, as adjusted pursuant to the provisions of this 34 subchapter, by the number of calendar months or major parts thereof 35 covered by the report under this subchapter and dividing by the number 36 of calendar months or major parts thereof covered by the report to such 37 department. If it shall appear that such method of determining entire 38 net income does not properly reflect the taxpayer's income during the 39 period covered by the report under this subchapter, the commissioner of 40 finance shall be authorized in his or her discretion to determine such 41 entire net income solely on the basis of the taxpayer's income during 42 the period covered by its report under this subchapter.

43 (j) In the case of property placed in service in taxable years begin-44 ning before nineteen hundred ninety-four, for taxable years beginning 45 after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-one, except with 46 respect to property subject to the provisions of section two hundred 47 eighty-F of the internal revenue code and property subject to the 48 provisions of section one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue 49 code which is placed in service in this state in taxable years beginning 50 after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-four, and provided 51 a deduction has not been excluded from entire net income pursuant to 52 subparagraph nine of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, a taxpayer shall 53 be allowed with respect to property which is subject to the provisions 54 of section one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue code the 55 depreciation deduction allowable under section one hundred sixty-seven 56 of the internal revenue code as such section would have applied to property placed in service on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty. This paragraph shall not apply to property of a taxpayer principally engaged in the conduct of an aviation, steamboat, ferry or navigation business, or two or more of such businesses, which is placed in service before taxable years beginning in nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

(k) In the case of qualified property described in paragraph two of subsection (k) of section one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue code, other than qualified resurgence zone property described in paragraph (m) of this subdivision, and other than qualified New York Liberty Zone property described in paragraph two of subsection (b) of section fourteen hundred-L of the internal revenue code, without regard to clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of such paragraph, the depreciation deduction allowable under section one hundred sixty-seven as such section would have applied to such property had it been acquired by the taxpayer on September tenth, two thousand one, provided, however, that for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand four, in the case of a passenger motor vehicle or a sport utility vehicle subject to the provisions of paragraph (o) of this subdivision, the limitation under clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subdivision (a) of section two hundred eighty-F of the internal revenue code applicable to the amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall be determined as of the date such vehicle was placed in service and not as of September tenth, two thousand one.

(l) Upon the disposition of property to which paragraph (k) of this subdivision applies, the amount of any gain or loss includible in entire net income shall be adjusted to reflect the inclusions and exclusions from entire net income pursuant to subparagraph twelve of paragraph (a) and subparagraph sixteen of paragraph (b) of this subdivision attributable to such property.

(m) For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (l) of this subdivision, qualified resurgence zone property shall mean qualified property described in paragraph two of subsection (k) of section one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue code substantially all of the use of which is in the resurgence zone, as defined below, and is in the active conduct of a trade or business by the taxpayer in such zone, and the original use of which in the resurgence zone commences with the taxpayer after September tenth, two thousand one. The resurgence zone shall mean the area of New York county bounded on the south by a line running from the intersection of the Hudson River with the Holland Tunnel, and running thence east to Canal Street, then running along the centerline of Canal Street to the intersection of the Bowery and Canal Street, running thence in a southeasterly direction diagonally across Manhattan Bridge Plaza, to the Manhattan Bridge, and thence along the centerline of the Manhattan Bridge to the point where the centerline of the Manhattan Bridge would intersect with the easterly bank of the East River, and bounded on the north by a line running from the intersection of the Hudson River with the Holland Tunnel and running thence north along West Avenue to the intersection of Clarkson Street then running east along the centerline of Clarkson Street to the intersection of Washington Avenue, then running south along the centerline of Washington Avenue to the intersection of West Houston Street, then east along the centerline of West Houston Street, then at the intersection of the Avenue of the Americas continuing east along the centerline of East Houston Street to the easterly bank of the East River.

(n) Related members expense add back. (1) For purposes of this paragraph: (i) "Related member" means a related person as defined in subpar-

1 agraph (c) of paragraph three of subsection (b) of section four hundred 2 sixty-five of the internal revenue code, except that "fifty percent"
3 shall be substituted for "ten percent".

4 (ii) "Effective rate of tax" means, as to any city, the maximum statu-5 tory rate of tax imposed by the city on or measured by a related 6 member's net income multiplied by the allocation percentage, if any, 7 applicable to the related member under the laws of said jurisdiction.
8 For purposes of this definition, the effective rate of tax as to any 9 city is zero where the related member's net income tax liability in said 10 city is reported on a combined or consolidated return including both the 11 taxpayer and the related member where the reported transactions between 12 the taxpayer and the related member are eliminated or offset. Also, for 13 purposes of this definition, when computing the effective rate of tax 14 for a city in which a related member's net income is eliminated or 15 offset by a credit or similar adjustment that is dependent upon the 16 related member either maintaining or managing intangible property or 17 collecting interest income in that city, the maximum statutory rate of 18 tax imposed by said city shall be decreased to reflect the statutory 19 rate of tax that applies to the related member as effectively reduced by 20 such credit or similar adjustment.

21 (iii) Royalty payments are payments directly connected to the acquisi-22 tion, use, maintenance or management, ownership, sale, exchange, or any 23 other disposition of licenses, trademarks, copyrights, trade names, 24 trade dress, service marks, mask works, trade secrets, patents and any 25 other similar types of intangible assets as determined by the commis-26 sioner of finance, and include amounts allowable as interest deductions 27 under section one hundred sixty-three of the internal revenue code to 28 the extent such amounts are directly or indirectly for, related to or in 29 connection with the acquisition, use, maintenance or management, owner-30 ship, sale, exchange or disposition of such intangible assets.

31 (iv) A valid business purpose is one or more business purposes, other 32 than the avoidance or reduction of taxation, which alone or in combina-33 tion constitute the primary motivation for some business activity or 34 transaction, which activity or transaction changes in a meaningful way, 35 apart from tax effects, the economic position of the taxpayer. The 36 economic position of the taxpayer includes an increase in the market 37 share of the taxpayer, or the entry by the taxpayer into new business 38 markets.

39 (2) Royalty expense add backs. (i) Except where a taxpayer is included 40 in a combined report pursuant to section 11-654.3 of this subchapter 41 with the applicable related member, for the purpose of computing entire 42 net income or other applicable taxable basis, a taxpayer must add back 43 royalty payments directly or indirectly paid, accrued, or incurred in 44 connection with one or more direct or indirect transactions with one or 45 more related members during the taxable year to the extent deductible in 46 calculating federal taxable income.

47 (ii) Exceptions. (A) The adjustment required in this paragraph shall 48 not apply to the portion of the royalty payment that the taxpayer estab-
49 lishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type and in the form
50 specified by the commissioner of finance, meets all of the following 51 requirements: (I) the related member was subject to tax in this city or 52 another city within the United States or a foreign nation or some combi-
53 nation thereof on a tax base that included the royalty payment paid, 54 accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; (II) the related member during the 55 same taxable year directly or indirectly paid, accrued or incurred such 56 portion to a person that is not a related member; and (III) the trans-

1 action giving rise to the royalty payment between the taxpayer and the 2 related member was undertaken for a valid business purpose.

3 (B) The adjustment required in this paragraph shall not apply if the 4 taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type and 5 in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 6 related member was subject to tax on or measured by its net income in 7 this city or another city within the United States, or some combination
8 thereof; (II) the tax base for said tax included the royalty payment
9 paid, accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; and (III) the aggregate
10 effective rate of tax applied to the related member in those jurisdic-
11 tions is no less than eighty percent of the statutory rate of tax that 12 applied to the taxpayer under section 11-604 of this chapter for the 13 taxable year.

14 (C) The adjustment required in this paragraph shall not apply if the 15 taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type and 16 in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 17 royalty payment was paid, accrued or incurred to a related member organ-
18 ized under the laws of a country other than the United States; (II) the 19 related member's income from the transaction was subject to a comprehen-
20 sive income tax treaty between such country and the United States; (III)
21 the related member was subject to tax in a foreign nation on a tax base 22 that included the royalty payment paid, accrued or incurred by the 23 taxpayer; (IV) the related member's income from the transaction was 24 taxed in such country at an effective rate of tax at least equal to that 25 imposed by this city; and (V) the royalty payment was paid, accrued or 26 incurred pursuant to a transaction that was undertaken for a valid busi-
27 ness purpose and using terms that reflect an arm's length relationship.

28 (D) The adjustment required in this paragraph shall not apply if the 29 taxpayer and the commissioner of finance agree in writing to the appli-30 cation or use of alternative adjustments or computations. The commis-31 sioner of finance may, in his or her discretion, agree to the applica-32 tion or use of alternative adjustments or computations when he or she 33 concludes that in the absence of such agreement the income of the 34 taxpayer would not be properly reflected.

35 (o) In the case of a taxpayer that is not an eligible farmer as 36 defined in subsection (n) of section six hundred six of the tax law, the 37 deductions allowable under sections one hundred seventy-nine, one
38 hundred sixty-seven and one hundred sixty-eight of the internal revenue 39 code with respect to a sport utility vehicle that is not a passenger 40 automobile as defined in paragraph five of subsection (d) of section two 41 hundred eighty-F of the internal revenue code, determined as if such 42 sport utility vehicle were a passenger automobile as defined in such 43 paragraph five. For purposes of subparagraph sixteen of paragraph (b) 44 and paragraph (k) of this subdivision, the terms qualified resurgence 45 zone property and qualified New York Liberty Zone property described in 46 paragraph two of subsection b of section fourteen hundred-L of the 47 internal revenue code shall not include any sport utility vehicle that 48 is not a passenger automobile as defined in paragraph five of subsection
49 (d) of section two hundred eighty-F of the internal revenue code.

50 (p) Upon the disposition of property to which paragraph (o) of this 51 subdivision applies, the amount of any gain or loss includible in entire 52 net income shall be adjusted to reflect the inclusions and exclusions 53 from entire net income pursuant to subparagraph thirteen of paragraph 54 (a) and subparagraph seventeen of paragraph (b) of this subdivision 55 attributable to such property.

1 (q) Subtraction modification for community banks and small thrifts.
2 (1) A taxpayer that is a qualified community bank as defined in subpara-3 graph two of this paragraph or a small thrift institution as defined in 4 subparagraph two-a of this paragraph shall be allowed a deduction in 5 computing entire net income equal to the amount computed under subpara-6 graph three of this paragraph.

7 (2) To be a qualified community bank, a taxpayer must satisfy the 8 following conditions:

9 (i) It is a bank or trust company organized under or subject to the 10 provisions of article three of the banking law or a comparable provision 11 of the laws of another state, or a national banking association.

12 (ii) The average value during the taxable year of the assets of the 13 taxpayer, or, if the taxpayer is included in a combined report, the 14 assets of the combined reporting group of the taxpayer under section 15 11-654.3 of this subchapter, must not exceed eight billion dollars.

16 (2-a) To be a small thrift institution, a taxpayer must satisfy the 17 following conditions:

18 (i) It is a savings bank, a savings and loan association, or other 19 savings institution chartered and supervised as such under federal or 20 state law.

21 (ii) The average value during the taxable year of the assets of the 22 taxpayer, or, if the taxpayer is included in a combined report, the 23 assets of the combined reporting group of the taxpayer under section 24 11-654.3 of this subchapter, must not exceed eight billion dollars.

25 (3)(i) The subtraction modification shall be computed as follows:

26 (A) Multiply the taxpayer's net interest income from loans during the 27 taxable year by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross interest 28 income during the taxable year from qualifying loans and the denominator 29 of which is the gross interest income during the taxable year from all 30 loans.

31 (B) Multiply the amount determined in subclause (A) of this clause by 32 fifty percent. This product is the amount of the deduction allowed under 33 this paragraph.

34 (ii)(A) Net interest income from loans shall mean gross interest 35 income from loans less gross interest expense from loans. Gross interest 36 expense from loans is determined by multiplying gross interest expense 37 by a fraction, the numerator of which is the average total value of 38 loans owned by the thrift institution or community bank during the taxa-39 ble year and the denominator of which is the average total assets of the 40 thrift institution or community bank during the taxable year.

41 (B) Measurement of assets. For purposes of this clause: (I) Total 42 assets are those assets that are properly reflected on a balance sheet, 43 computed in the same manner as is required by the banking regulator of 44 the taxpayers included in the combined return. In addition, total assets 45 includes leased real property that is not properly reflected on a 46 balance sheet.

47 (II) Assets will only be included if the income or expenses of which 48 are properly reflected, or would have been properly reflected if not 49 fully depreciated or expensed, or depreciated or expensed to a nominal 50 amount, in the computation of the taxpayer's entire net income for the 51 taxable year. Assets will not include deferred tax assets and intangible 52 assets identified as "goodwill".

53 (III) Tangible real and personal property, such as buildings, land,
54 machinery, and equipment, shall be valued at cost. Leased real property 55 that is not properly reflected on the balance sheet will be valued at 56 the annual lease payment multiplied by eight. Intangible property, such 1 as loans and investments, shall be valued at book value exclusive of 2 reserves.

3 (IV) Average assets are computed using the assets measured on the 4 first day of the taxable year, and on the last day of each subsequent 5 quarter of the taxable year or month or day during the taxable year.

6 (iii) A qualifying loan is a loan that meets the conditions specified 7 in subclause (A) of this clause and subclause (B) of this clause.

8 (A) The loan is originated by the qualified community bank or small 9 thrift institution or purchased by the qualified community bank or small 10 thrift institution immediately after its origination in connection with 11 a commitment to purchase made by the bank or thrift institution prior to 12 the loan's origination.

13 (B) The loan is a small business loan or a residential mortgage loan, 14 the principal amount of which loan is five million dollars or less, and 15 either the borrower is located in this city as determined under section 16 11-654.2 of this subchapter and the loan is not secured by real proper-17 ty, or the loan is secured by real property located in the city.

18 (C) A loan that meets the definition of a qualifying loan in a prior 19 taxable year, including years prior to the effective date of this para-20 graph, remains a qualifying loan in taxable years during and after which 21 such loan is acquired by another corporation in the taxpayer's combined 22 reporting group under section 11-654.3 of this subchapter.

23 (r) A small thrift institution or a qualified community bank, as 24 defined in paragraph (q) of this subdivision, that maintained a captive 25 REIT on April first, two thousand fourteen shall utilize a REIT 26 subtraction equal to one hundred sixty percent of the dividends paid 27 deductions allowed to that captive REIT for the taxable year for federal 28 income tax purposes and shall not be allowed to utilize the subtraction 29 modification for community banks and small thrifts under paragraph (q) 30 of this subdivision or the subtraction modification for qualified resi-31 dential loan portfolios under paragraph (s) of this subdivision in any 32 tax year in which such thrift institution or community bank maintains 33 that captive REIT.

34 (s) Subtraction modification for qualified residential loan portfo-35 lios. (1)(i) A taxpayer that is either a thrift institution as defined 36 in subparagraph three of this paragraph or a qualified community bank as 37 defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (q) of this subdivision and 38 maintains a qualified residential loan portfolio as defined in subpara-39 graph two of this paragraph shall be allowed as a deduction in computing 40 entire net income the amount, if any, by which (A) thirty-two percent of 41 its entire net income determined without regard to this paragraph 42 exceeds (B) the amounts deducted by the taxpayer pursuant to sections 43 one hundred sixty-six and five hundred eighty-five of the internal 44 revenue code less any amounts included in federal taxable income as a 45 result of a recovery of a loan.

46 (ii)(A) If the taxpayer is in a combined report under section 11-654.3 47 of this subchapter, this deduction will be computed on a combined basis.
48 In that instance, the entire net income of the combined reporting group 49 for purposes of this paragraph shall be multiplied by a fraction, the 50 numerator of which is the average total assets of all the thrift insti-51 tutions and qualified community banks included in the combined report 52 and the denominator of which is the average total assets of all the 53 corporations included in the combined report.

54 (B) Measurement of assets. For purposes of this paragraph: (I) Total 55 assets are those assets that are properly reflected on a balance sheet, 56 computed in the same manner as is required by the banking regulator of

1 the taxpayers included in the combined return. In addition, total assets
2 includes leased real property that is not properly reflected on a
3 balance sheet.

4 (II) Assets will only be included if the income or expenses of which 5 are properly reflected, or would have been properly reflected if not 6 fully depreciated or expensed, or depreciated or expensed to a nominal 7 amount, in the computation of the combined group's entire net income for 8 the taxable year. Assets will not include deferred tax assets and intan-9 gible assets identified as "goodwill".

10 (III) Tangible real and personal property, such as buildings, land,
11 machinery, and equipment shall be valued at cost. Leased real property 12 that is not properly reflected on a balance sheet will be valued at the 13 annual lease payment multiplied by eight. Intangible property, such as 14 loans and investments, shall be valued at book value exclusive of 15 reserves.

16 (IV) Intercorporate stockholdings and bills, notes and accounts 17 receivable, and other intercorporate indebtedness between the corpo-18 rations included in the combined report shall be eliminated.

19 (V) Average assets are computed using the assets measured on the first 20 day of the taxable year, and on the last day of each subsequent quarter 21 of the taxable year or month or day during the taxable year.

22 (2) Qualified residential loan portfolio. (i) A taxpayer maintains a 23 qualified residential loan portfolio if at least sixty percent of the 24 amount of the total assets at the close of the taxable year of the 25 thrift institution or qualified community bank consists of the assets 26 described in subclauses (A) through (L) of this clause, with the appli-27 cation of the rule in the last undesignated subclause of this clause. If 28 the taxpayer is a member of a combined group, the determination of 29 whether there is a qualified residential loan portfolio will be made by 30 aggregating the assets of the thrift institutions and qualified communi-31 ty banks that are members of the combined group. Assets: (A) cash, which 32 includes cash and cash equivalents including cash items in the process 33 of collection, deposits with other financial institutions, including 34 corporate credit unions, balances with federal reserve banks and federal 35 home loan banks, federal funds sold, and cash and cash equivalents on 36 hand. Cash shall not include any balances serving as collateral for 37 securities lending transactions; (B) obligations of the United States or 38 of a state or political subdivision thereof, and stock or obligations of 39 a corporation which is an instrumentality or a government sponsored 40 enterprise of the United States or of a state or political subdivision 41 thereof; (C) loans secured by a deposit or share of a member; (D) loans 42 secured by an interest in real property which is, or, from the proceeds 43 of the loan, will become, residential real property or real property 44 used primarily for church purposes, loans made for the improvement of 45 residential real property or real property used primarily for church 46 purposes, provided that for purposes of this subclause, residential real 47 property shall include single or multi-family dwellings, facilities in 48 residential developments dedicated to public use or property used on a 49 nonprofit basis for residents, and mobile homes not used on a transient 50 basis; (E) property acquired through the liquidation of defaulted loans 51 described in subclause (D) of this clause; (F) any regular or residual 52 interest in a REMIC, as such term is defined in section eight hundred 53 sixty-D of the internal revenue code, but only in the proportion which 54 the assets of such REMIC consist of property described in subclauses (A) 55 through (E) of this clause, except that if ninety-five percent or more 56 of the assets of such REMIC are assets described in such subclauses, the

1 entire interest in the REMIC shall qualify; (G) any mortgage-backed
2 security which represents ownership of a fractional undivided interest
3 in a trust, the assets of which consist primarily of mortgage loans,
4 provided that the real property which serves as security for the loans
5 is, or from the proceeds of the loan, will become, the type of property
6 described in subclause (D) of this clause and any collateralized mort-7 gage obligation, the security for which consists primarily of mortgage 8 loans that maintain as security the type of property described in 9 subclause (D) of this clause; (H) certificates of deposit in, or obli-10 gations of, a corporation organized under a state law which specifically 11 authorizes such corporation to insure the deposits or share accounts of 12 member associations; (I) loans secured by an interest in educational, 13 health, or welfare institutions or facilities, including structures 14 designed or used primarily for residential purposes for students, resi-15 dents, and persons under care, employees, or members of the staff of 16 such institutions or facilities; (J) loans made for the payment of 17 expenses of college or university education or vocational training; (K) 18 property used by the taxpayer in support of business which consists 19 principally of acquiring the savings of the public and investing in 20 loans; and (L) loans for which the taxpayer is the creditor and which 21 are wholly secured by loans described in subclause (D) of this clause.

22 The value of accrued interest receivable and any loss-sharing commit-23 ment or other loan guaranty by a governmental agency will be considered 24 part of the basis in the loans to which the accrued interest or loss 25 protection applies.

26 (ii) At the election of the taxpayer, the percentage specified in 27 clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be applied on the basis of the 28 average assets outstanding during the taxable year, in lieu of the close 29 of the taxable year. The taxpayer can elect to compute an average using 30 the assets measured on the first day of the taxable year and on the last 31 day of each subsequent quarter, or month or day during the taxable year.
32 This election may be made annually.

33 (iii) For purposes of subclause (D) of clause (i) of this subpara-34 graph, if a multifamily structure securing a loan is used in part for 35 nonresidential use purposes, the entire loan is deemed a residential 36 real property loan if the planned residential use exceeds eighty percent 37 of the property's planned use, measured, at the taxpayer's election, by 38 using square footage or gross rental revenue, and determined as of the 39 time the loan is made.

40 (iv) For purposes of subclause (D) of clause (i) of this subparagraph, 41 loans made to finance the acquisition or development of land shall be 42 deemed to be loans secured by an interest in residential real property 43 if there is a reasonable assurance that the property will become resi-44 dential real property within a period of three years from the date of 45 acquisition of such land; provided, however, this shall not apply for 46 any taxable year unless, within such three-year period, such land 47 becomes residential real property. For purposes of determining whether 48 any interest in a REMIC qualifies under subclause (F) of clause (i) of 49 this subparagraph, any regular interest in another REMIC held by such 50 REMIC shall be treated as a loan described in subclauses (A) through (E) 51 under principles similar to the principle of such subclause (F), except 52 that if such REMICs are part of a tiered structure, they shall be treat-53 ed as one REMIC for purposes of such subclause (F).

54 (3) For purposes of this paragraph, a "thrift institution" is a 55 savings bank, a savings and loan association, or other savings institu-56 tion chartered and supervised as such under federal or state law.

1 (t) Subtraction modification for qualified affordable housing and low 2 income community loans.

3 (1) A taxpayer that owns a qualifying loan within the meaning of 4 clause (iii) of subparagraph two of this paragraph shall be allowed a 5 deduction in computing entire net income equal to the amount computed 6 under subparagraph two of this paragraph.

7 (2)(i) The deduction allowed in subparagraph one of this paragraph 8 shall be equal to:

9 (A) if the total average value during the taxable year of the assets
10 of the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer is included in a combined report, 11 the assets of the combined reporting group of the taxpayer under section 12 11-654.3 of this subchapter, does not exceed one hundred billion 13 dollars, the taxpayer's net interest income from qualifying loans, or 14 (B) if the total average value during the taxable year of the assets 15 of the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer is included in a combined report,

16 the assets of the combined reporting group of the taxpayer under section 17 11-654.3 of this subchapter, exceeds one hundred billion dollars but is 18 less than one hundred fifty billion dollars, the taxpayer's net interest 19 income from qualifying loans multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of 20 which is one hundred fifty billion dollars minus the total average value 21 during the taxable year of the assets of the taxpayer, or if the taxpay-22 er is included in a combined report, the assets of the combined report-23 ing group of the taxpayer under section 11-654.3 of this subchapter, and 24 the denominator of which is fifty billion dollars.

25 (ii)(A) Net interest income from qualifying loans shall mean the 26 taxpayer's net interest income from loans during the taxable year multi-27 plied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross interest income 28 during the taxable year from qualifying loans and the denominator of 29 which is the gross interest income from all loans.

30 (B) Net interest income from loans shall mean gross interest income 31 during the taxable year from loans less gross interest expense from 32 loans. Gross interest expense from loans is determined by multiplying 33 gross interest expense by a fraction, the numerator of which is the 34 average total value of loans owned by the taxpayer during the taxable 35 year and the denominator of which is the average total assets of the 36 taxpayer for the year.

37 (C) Measurement of assets. For purposes of this paragraph:

38 (I) Total assets are those assets that are properly reflected on a 39 balance sheet, computed in the same manner as is required by the banking 40 regulator, if applicable, of the taxpayers included in the combined 41 return. In addition, total assets includes leased real property that is 42 not properly reflected on a balance sheet.

43 (II) Assets will only be included if the income or expenses of which 44 are properly reflected, or would have been properly reflected if not 45 fully depreciated or expensed, or depreciated or expensed to a nominal 46 amount, in the computation of the taxpayer's entire net income for the 47 taxable year. Assets will not include deferred tax assets and intangible 48 assets identified as "goodwill".

49 (III) Tangible real and personal property, such as buildings, land,
50 machinery, and equipment, shall be valued at cost. Leased real property 51 that is not properly reflected on a balance sheet will be valued at the 52 annual lease payment multiplied by eight. Intangible property, such as 53 loans and investments, shall be valued at book value exclusive of 54 reserves.

1 (IV) Average assets are computed using the assets measured on the 2 first day of the taxable year, and on the last day of each subsequent 3 quarter of the taxable year or month or day during the taxable year.

4 (iii) A qualifying loan is a loan that meets the conditions specified
5 in subclause (A) through subclause (E) of this clause.

6 (A) The loan is originated by the taxpayer lender or purchased by the 7 taxpayer immediately after its origination in connection with a commit-8 ment to purchase made by the taxpayer prior to the loan's origination.

9 (B) Satisfies conditions of item (I) or (II) of this subclause.

10 (I) The loan is secured by a housing accommodation located within the 11 city, where there are rental units in such housing accommodation that 12 are qualifying units, which for purposes of this subclause, means units 13 subject to rent control, rent stabilization or to a regulatory agree-14 ment, provided that, each such loan will be considered a qualifying loan 15 for purposes of this paragraph only in proportion to a percentage equal 16 to the number of qualifying units divided by the total number of all 17 residential and commercial units located on the site of the real proper-18 ty securing the loan, as determined as of the date the loan is made.

19 (II) To the extent not included in item (I) of this subclause, loans 20 secured by residential real property located in a low-income community.
21 For purposes of this paragraph, low-income community areas are census 22 tracts within the city in which the poverty rate for such tract is at 23 least twenty percent and the median family income for such tract does 24 not exceed eighty percent of metropolitan area median family income.
25 This determination will be made by reference to the poverty and median 26 family income census data for application of section forty-five-D of the 27 internal revenue code.

28 (C) The loan is not treated as a qualifying loan in the computation of 29 a subtraction from entire net income pursuant to paragraph (q) of this 30 subdivision.

31 (D) If the taxpayer applies a subtraction pursuant to paragraph (r) of 32 this subdivision, the interest or net gains from the loan are not recog-33 nized by a captive REIT as defined in section 11-601 of this chapter.

34 (E) A loan that meets the definition of a qualifying loan in a prior 35 taxable year, including years prior to the effective date of this para-36 graph, remains a qualifying loan in taxable years during and after which 37 such loan is acquired by another corporation in the taxpayer's combined 38 reporting group under section 11-654.3 of this subchapter.

39 (iv) For purposes of this paragraph, the following terms shall mean:

40 (A) "Housing accommodations" shall mean a multiple dwelling that 41 contains at least five dwelling units together with the land on which 42 such structure is situated.

18 commissioner of finance may prescribe other means or methods of deter-

33 million dollars, the amount computed in clause (i) of subparagraph one 34 of paragraph (e) of this subdivision shall be at the rate of four and 37 modification required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of subdivision three of 38 this section;

39 (2) Subject to subparagraph three of this paragraph for qualified New 40 York manufacturing corporations as defined in subparagraph four of this 41 paragraph, if the amount of business income allocated within the city as 48 less ten million dollars and the denominator of which is ten million 49 dollars, of its business income or the portion of such business income 50 allocated within the city as hereinafter provided, subject to any 51 modification required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of subdivision three of 52 this section;

12 includes the process, including the assembly process (A) of working raw 13 materials into wares suitable for use or (B) which gives new shapes, new 14 qualities or new combinations to matter which already has gone through 15 some artificial process, by the use of machinery, tools, appliances and 16 other similar equipment. Moreover, in the case of a combined report, a 17 combined group shall be considered a "manufacturing corporation" for 18 purposes of this subparagraph only if the combined group during the 19 taxable year is principally engaged in the activities set forth in this 20 paragraph, or any combination thereof. A taxpayer or, in the case of a 21 combined report, a combined group, shall be "principally engaged" in 22 activities described in this subparagraph if, during the taxable year, 23 more than fifty percent of the gross receipts of the taxpayer or 24 combined group, respectively, are derived from receipts from the sale of 25 goods produced by such activities. In computing a combined group's gross 26 receipts, intercorporate receipts shall be eliminated.

27 (ii) A "qualified New York manufacturing corporation" is a manufactur-28 ing corporation that has property in the state that is described in 29 subparagraph five of this paragraph and either (A) the adjusted basis of 30 such property for New York state tax purposes at the close of the taxa-
31 ble year is at least one million dollars or (B) more than fifty percent 32 of its real and personal property is located in the state.

33 (5) For purposes of subclause (A) of clause (ii) of subparagraph four 34 of this paragraph, property includes tangible personal property and 35 other tangible property, including buildings and structural components 36 of buildings, which are: depreciable pursuant to section one hundred 37 sixty-seven of the internal revenue code, have a useful life of four 38 years or more, are acquired by purchase as defined in subsection (d) of 39 section one hundred seventy-nine of the internal revenue code, have a 40 situs in the state and are principally used by the taxpayer in the 41 production of goods by manufacturing. Property used in the production of 42 goods shall include machinery, equipment or other tangible property
43 which is principally used in the repair and service of other machinery, 44 equipment or other tangible property used principally in the production 45 of goods and shall include all facilities used in the production opera-46 tion, including storage of material to be used in production and of the 47 products that are produced.

48 2. The amount of investment capital and business capital shall be 49 determined by taking the average value of the gross assets included 50 therein, less liabilities deductible therefrom pursuant to the 51 provisions of subdivisions four and six of section 11-652 of this 52 subchapter, and, if the period covered by the report is other than a 53 period of twelve calendar months, by multiplying such value by the 54 number of calendar months or major parts thereof included in such peri-55 od, and dividing the product thus obtained by twelve. For purposes of 56 this subdivision, real property and marketable securities shall be

1 valued at fair market value and the value of personal property other 2 than marketable securities shall be the value thereof shown on the books 3 and records of the taxpayer in accordance with generally accepted 4 accounting principles.

5 3. The portion of the business income of a taxpayer to be allocated to 6 the city shall be determined as follows:

7 (a) multiply its business income by a business allocation percentage 8 to be determined by:

9 (1) ascertaining the percentage which the average value of the taxpay-10 er's real and tangible personal property, whether owned or rented to it, 11 within the city during the period covered by its report bears to the 12 average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property, 13 whether owned or rented to it, wherever situated during such period. For 14 the purpose of this subparagraph, the term "value of the taxpayer's real 15 and tangible personal property" shall mean the adjusted bases of such 16 properties for federal income tax purposes, except that in the case of 17 rented property such value shall mean the product of (i) eight and (ii) 18 the gross rents payable for the rental of such property during the taxa-19 ble year; provided, however, that the taxpayer may make a one-time, 20 revocable election, pursuant to regulations promulgated by the commis-21 sioner of finance to use fair market value as the value of all of its 22 real and tangible personal property, provided that such election is made 23 on or before the due date for filing a report under section 11-655 of 24 this subchapter for the taxpayer's first taxable year commencing on or 25 after January first, two thousand fifteen and provided that such 26 election shall not apply to any taxable year with respect to which the 27 taxpayer is included on a combined report unless each of the taxpayers 28 included on such report has made such an election which remains in 29 effect for such year or to any taxpayer that was subject to tax under 30 subchapter two of this chapter and did not have an election in effect 31 under subparagraph one of paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section 32 11-604 of this chapter on December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen; 33 (2) ascertaining the percentage determined under section 11-654.2 of 34 this subchapter;

35 (3) ascertaining the percentage of the total wages, salaries and other 36 personal service compensation, similarly computed, during such period of 37 employees within the city, except general executive officers, to the 38 total wages, salaries and other personal service compensation, similarly 39 computed, during such period of all the taxpayer's employees within and 40 without the city, except general executive officers; and 41 (4) adding together the percentages so determined and dividing the 42 result by the number of percentages.

50 reference to the percentages determined under subparagraphs one, two and 51 three of this paragraph, shall be computed in the manner set forth in 52 this subparagraph.

53 (i) Intentionally omitted.

23 following percentages:

29 determined under subparagraph three of this paragraph.
30 (x) For taxable years beginning after two thousand seventeen, the 31 business allocation percentage shall be the percentage determined under 32 subparagraph two of this paragraph.
33 (xi) The commissioner of finance shall promulgate rules necessary to 34 implement the provisions of this subparagraph under such circumstances 35 where any of the percentages to be determined under subparagraph one, 36 two or three of this paragraph cannot be determined because the taxpayer 37 has no property, receipts or wages within or without the city.

45 of this subchapter, may make a one-time election to determine its busi-

47 (A) the product of three and one-half percent and the percentage 48 determined under subparagraph one of this paragraph;

2 the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer is included in a combined group, the 3 combined group. An election shall be revoked under this clause on an 4 original or amended report filed pursuant to section 11-655 of this 5 subchapter for the taxpayer's, or if the taxpayer is included in a 6 combined group, the combined group's, first taxable year with respect to 7 which such revocation is to be effective. If the taxpayer is a member of 8 a combined group, an election or revocation by the taxpayer under this 9 clause shall apply to all members of the combined group.

10 (11) A foreign air carrier described in the first sentence of subpara-

15 and denominators involved in such computation shall exclude property to 16 the extent employed in generating income excluded from entire net income 17 for the taxable year pursuant to paragraph (c-1) of subdivision eight of 18 section 11-652 of this subchapter, exclude such receipts as are excluded 19 from entire net income for the taxable year pursuant to paragraph (c-1)

25 (b) Intentionally omitted.

26 (c) Intentionally omitted.

29 subparagraph one or two of paragraph (d) of subdivision three of section 30 11-604 of this chapter or subdivision (k) of section 11-641 of this 31 chapter in any period in which the taxpayer was subject to tax under 32 subchapter two of this chapter, the gain or loss thereon entering into 33 the computation of federal taxable income shall be disregarded in 34 computing entire net income, and there shall be added to or subtracted 35 from the portion of entire net income allocated within the city the gain 36 or loss upon such sale or other disposition. In computing such gain or 37 loss the basis of the property sold or disposed of shall be adjusted to 38 reflect the deduction allowed with respect to such property pursuant to 39 subparagraph one or two of paragraph (d) of subdivision three of section
40 11-604 of this chapter. Provided, however, that no loss shall be recog-41 nized for the purposes of this subparagraph with respect to a sale or 42 other disposition of property to a person whose acquisition thereof is 43 not a purchase as defined in subsection (d) of section one hundred 44 seventy-nine of the internal revenue code.

45 (e) In any taxable year when property is sold or otherwise disposed 46 of, with respect to which a deduction has been allowed pursuant to 47 subparagraph one or two of paragraph (e) of subdivision three of section 48 11-604 of this chapter in any period the taxpayer was subject to tax 49 under subchapter two of this chapter, the gain or loss thereon entering 50 into the computation of federal taxable income shall be disregarded in 51 computing entire net income, and there shall be added to or subtracted 52 from the portion of entire net income allocated within the city the gain
53 or loss upon such sale or other disposition. In computing such gain or 54 loss the basis of the property sold or disposed of shall be adjusted to

56 subparagraph one or two of paragraph (e) of subdivision three of section

1 11-604 of this chapter. Provided, however, that no loss shall be recog-

10 tax under this subchapter using any method required or permitted in 11 regulations of the commissioner of finance.

14 7. Intentionally omitted.

15 8. Intentionally omitted.

16 9. If it shall appear to the commissioner of finance that any business 17 allocation percentage determined as hereinabove provided does not prop-18 erly reflect the activity, business, income or capital of a taxpayer 19 within the city, the commissioner of finance shall be authorized in his 20 or her discretion to adjust it, or the taxpayer may request that the 21 commissioner of finance adjust it, by (a) excluding one or more of the 22 factors therein, (b) including one or more other factors, such as 23 expenses, purchases, contract values, minus subcontract values, (c) 24 excluding one or more assets in computing such allocation percentage, 25 provided the income therefrom, is also excluded in determining entire 26 net income, or (d) any other similar or different method calculated to 27 effect a fair and proper allocation of the income and capital reasonably 28 attributable to the city. The party seeking the adjustment shall bear 29 the burden of proof to demonstrate that the business allocation percent-30 age determined pursuant to this section does not result in a proper 31 reflection of the taxpayer's income or capital within the city and that 32 the proposed adjustment is appropriate. The commissioner of finance from 33 time to time shall publish all rulings of general public interest with 34 respect to any application of the provisions of this subdivision.

36 11. Intentionally omitted.

37 12. Intentionally omitted.

38 13. (a) In addition to any other credit allowed by this section, a 39 taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this 40 subchapter to be credited or refunded without interest, in the manner 41 hereinafter provided in this section.

42 (1)(i) Where a taxpayer shall have relocated to the city from a 43 location outside the state, and by such relocation shall have created a 44 minimum of one hundred industrial or commercial employment opportu-

46 for the relocation premises, the terms of which lease provide for 47 increased additional payments to the landlord which are based solely and 48 directly upon any increase or addition in real estate taxes imposed on 49 the leased premises, the taxpayer upon approval and certification by the 50 industrial and commercial incentive board as hereinafter provided shall 51 be entitled to a credit against the tax imposed by this subchapter. The 52 amount of such credit shall be an amount equal to the annual increased 53 payments actually made by the taxpayer to the landlord which are solely 54 and directly attributable to an increase or addition to the real estate 55 tax imposed upon the leased premises. Such credit shall be allowed only 1 to the extent that the taxpayer has not otherwise claimed said amount as 2 a deduction against the tax imposed by this subchapter.

3 (ii) The industrial and commercial incentive board in approving and 4 certifying to the qualifications of the taxpayer to receive such tax 5 credit shall first determine that the applicant has met the requirements 6 of this section, and further, that the granting of the tax credit to the 7 applicant is in the "public interest". In determining that the granting 8 of the tax credit is in the public interest, the board shall make affir-9 mative findings that: the granting of the tax credit to the applicant 10 will not effect an undue hardship on similar taxpayers already located 11 within the city; the existence of this tax incentive has been instru-12 mental in bringing about the relocation of the applicant to the city; 13 and the granting of the tax credit will foster the economic recovery and 14 economic development of the city.

15 (iii) The tax credit, if approved and certified by the industrial and 16 commercial incentive board, must be utilized annually by the taxpayer 17 for the length of the term of the lease or for a period not to exceed 18 ten years from the date of relocation whichever period is shorter.

19 (2) When used in this subdivision:

20 (i) "Employment opportunity" means the creation of a full time posi-

39 ited or refunded, without interest, in accordance with the provisions of 40 section 11-677 of this chapter.

41 14. (a) In addition to any other credit allowed by this section, a
42 taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this 43 subchapter to be credited or refunded without interest, in the manner 44 hereinafter provided in this section. The amount of such credit shall 45 be:

46 (1) A maximum of three hundred dollars for each commercial employment 47 opportunity and a maximum of five hundred dollars for each industrial 48 employment opportunity relocated to the city from an area outside the 49 state. Such credit shall be allowed to a taxpayer who relocates a mini-50 mum of ten employment opportunities. The credit shall be allowed against 51 employment opportunity relocation costs incurred by the taxpayer. Such 52 credit shall be allowed only to the extent that the taxpayer has not 53 claimed a deduction for allowable employment opportunity relocation 54 costs. The credit allowed hereunder may be taken by the taxpayer in 55 whole or in part in the year in which the employment opportunity is 56 relocated by such taxpayer or either of the two years succeeding such

1 event, provided, however, no credit shall be allowed under this subdivi-2 sion to a taxpayer for industrial employment opportunities relocated to 3 premises (i) that are within an industrial business zone established 4 pursuant to section 22-626 of the code of the preceding municipality and 5 (ii) for which a binding contract to purchase or lease was first entered 6 into by the taxpayer on or after July first, two thousand five.

26 incurred by the taxpayer in moving furniture, files, papers and office 27 equipment into the city from a location outside the state; the costs 28 incurred by the taxpayer in the moving and installation of machinery and 29 equipment into the city from a location outside the state; the costs of 30 installation of telephones and other communications equipment required 31 as a result of the relocation to the city from a location outside the 32 state; the cost incurred in the purchase of office furniture and 33 fixtures required as a result of the relocation to the city from a 34 location outside the state; and the cost of renovation of the premises 35 to be occupied as a result of the relocation; provided, however, that 36 such renovation costs shall be allowable only to the extent that they do 37 not exceed seventy-five cents per square foot of the total area utilized 38 by the taxpayer in the occupied premises.

39 (b) The credit allowed under this section for any taxable year shall 40 be deemed to be an overpayment of tax by the taxpayer to be credited or 41 refunded without interest in accordance with the provisions of section
42 11-677 of this chapter.

44 contrary, in the case of a taxpayer that has received, in a taxable year
45 beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, the credit set 46 forth in subdivision fourteen of section 11-604 of this chapter for an 47 eligible employment relocation, a credit shall be allowed to the taxpay-48 er under this subdivision for any tax year beginning on or after January 49 first, two thousand fifteen, in the same amount and to the same extent 50 that a credit, or the unused portion thereof, would have been allowed 51 under subdivision fourteen of section 11-604 of this chapter, as in 52 effect on December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, if such subdivi-53 sion continued to apply to the taxpayer for such taxable year.

54 15. Intentionally omitted.

55 16. Intentionally omitted.

1 17. (a) In addition to any other credit allowed by this section, a
2 taxpayer that has obtained the certifications required by chapter six-B 3 of title twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality shall be 4 allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this subchapter. The amount 5 of the credit shall be the amount determined by multiplying five hundred 6 dollars or, in the case of a taxpayer that has obtained pursuant to 7 chapter six-B of such title twenty-two a certification of eligibility 8 dated on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, one thousand 9 dollars or, in the case of an eligible business that has obtained pursu-
10 ant to chapter six-B of such title twenty-two a certification of eligi-11 bility dated on or after July first, two thousand, for a relocation to 12 eligible premises located within a revitalization area defined in subdivi-

14 three thousand dollars, by the number of eligible aggregate employment 15 shares maintained by the taxpayer during the taxable year with respect 16 to particular premises to which the taxpayer has relocated; provided, 17 however, with respect to a relocation for which no application for a 18 certificate of eligibility is submitted prior to July first, two thou-

24 five hundred dollars, and with respect to a relocation for which no 25 application for a certificate of eligibility is submitted prior to July 26 first, two thousand three, to eligible premises that are within a revi-27 talization area, if the date of such relocation as determined pursuant 28 to subdivision (j) of such section is before July first, nineteen 29 hundred ninety-five, the amount to be multiplied by the number of eligi-

37 pursuant to subdivision (d) of section 22-622 of the code of the preced-38 ing municipality to take such credit against a gross receipts tax 39 imposed by chapter eleven of this title; and provided that in the case 40 of an eligible business that has obtained pursuant to chapter six-B of 41 such title twenty-two certifications of eligibility for more than one 42 relocation, the portion of the total amount of eligible aggregate 43 employment shares to be multiplied by the dollar amount specified in 44 this subdivision for each such certification of a relocation shall be 45 the number of total attributed eligible aggregate employment shares 46 determined with respect to such relocation pursuant to subdivision (o) 47 of section 22-621 of the code of the preceding municipality. For 48 purposes of this subdivision, the terms "eligible aggregate employment 49 shares," "relocate," "retail activity" and "hotel services" shall have 50 the meanings ascribed by section 22-621 of the code of the preceding 51 municipality.

52 (b) The credit allowed under this subdivision with respect to eligible
53 aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to particular prem-
54 ises to which the taxpayer has relocated shall be allowed for the first 55 taxable year during which such eligible aggregate employment shares are 56 maintained with respect to such premises and for any of the twelve

1 succeeding taxable years during which eligible aggregate employment
2 shares are maintained with respect to such premises; provided that the
3 credit allowed for the twelfth succeeding taxable year shall be calcu-
4 lated by multiplying the number of eligible aggregate employment shares
5 maintained with respect to such premises in the twelfth succeeding taxa-
6 ble year by the lesser of one and a fraction the numerator of which is 7 such number of days in the taxable year of relocation less the number of 8 days the eligible business maintained employment shares in the eligible 9 premises in the taxable year of relocation and the denominator of which 10 is the number of days in such twelfth succeeding taxable year during 11 which such eligible aggregate employment shares are maintained with 12 respect to such premises. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this 13 subdivision, if the amount of the credit allowable under this subdivi-14 sion for any taxable year exceeds the tax imposed for such year, the 15 excess may be carried over, in order, to the five immediately succeeding 16 taxable years and, to the extent not previously deductible, may be 17 deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such years.

18 (c) The credit allowable under this subdivision shall be deducted 19 after the credit allowed by subdivision eighteen of this section, but 20 prior to the deduction of any other credit allowed by this section.

21 (d) In the case of a taxpayer that has obtained a certification of 22 eligibility pursuant to chapter six-B of title twenty-two of the code of 23 the preceding municipality dated on or after July first, two thousand
24 for a relocation to eligible premises located within the revitalization 25 area defined in subdivision (n) of section 22-621 of the code of the 26 preceding municipality, the credits allowed under this subdivision, or 27 in the case of a taxpayer that has relocated more than once, the portion 28 of such credits attributed to such certification of eligibility pursuant 29 to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, against the tax imposed by this 30 chapter for the taxable year of such relocation and for the four taxable 31 years immediately succeeding the taxable year of such relocation, shall 32 be deemed to be overpayments of tax by the taxpayer to be credited or 33 refunded, without interest, in accordance with the provisions of section
34 11-677 of this chapter. For such taxable years, such credits or portions
35 thereof may not be carried over to any succeeding taxable year;
36 provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to any relocation 37 for which an application for a certification of eligibility was not 38 submitted prior to July first, two thousand three, unless the date of 39 such relocation is on or after July first, two thousand.

40 (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision to the 41 contrary, in the case of a taxpayer that has obtained, pursuant to chap-
42 ter six-B of title twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality, 43 a certification of eligibility and has received, in a taxable year
44 beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, the credit set 45 forth in subdivision seventeen of section 11-604 of this chapter or 46 section 11-643.7 of this chapter for the relocation of an eligible busi-
47 ness, a credit shall be allowed under this subdivision to the taxpayer
48 for any taxable year beginning on or after January first, two thousand 49 fifteen in the same amount and to the same extent that a credit would 50 have been allowed under subdivision seventeen of section 11-604 of this 51 chapter or section 11-643.7 of this chapter, as in effect on December 52 thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, if such subdivision continued to 53 apply to the taxpayer for such taxable year.

54 17-a. Intentionally omitted.

55 17-b. (a) In addition to any other credit allowed by this section, an 56 eligible business that first enters into a binding contract on or after

1 July first, two thousand five to purchase or lease eligible premises to 2 which it relocates shall be allowed a one-time credit against the tax 3 imposed by this subchapter to be credited or refunded in the manner
4 hereinafter provided in this subdivision. The amount of such credit 5 shall be one thousand dollars per full-time employee; provided, however, 6 that the amount of such credit shall not exceed the lesser of actual 7 relocation costs or one hundred thousand dollars.

9 following meanings:

11 subchapter that (i) has been conducting substantial business operations

15 immediately preceding relocation, (ii) has leased the premises from 16 which it relocates continuously during the twenty-four consecutive full 17 months immediately preceding relocation, (iii) first enters into a bind-18 ing contract on or after July first, two thousand five to purchase or 47 purposes of this subdivision, the date of relocation shall be (i) the 48 date of the completion of the relocation to the eligible premises or 49 (ii) ninety days from the commencement of the relocation to the eligible 50 premises, whichever is earlier.

51 (8) "Relocation costs" means costs incurred in the relocation of such 52 furniture, fixtures, equipment, machinery and supplies, including, but 53 not limited to, the cost of dismantling and reassembling equipment and

1 the relocation to an eligible premises. Relocation costs shall not 2 include costs for structural or capital improvements or items purchased 3 in connection with the relocation.

4 (c) The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year 5 shall be deemed to be an overpayment of tax by the taxpayer to be cred-6 ited or refunded without interest, in accordance with the provisions of 7 section 11-677 of this chapter.

8 (d) The number of full-time employees for the purposes of calculating 9 an industrial business tax credit shall be the average number of full-10 time employees, calculated on a weekly basis, employed in the eligible 11 premises by the eligible business in the fifty-two week period imme-12 diately following the earlier of (1) the date of the completion of the 13 relocation to eligible premises or (2) ninety days from the commencement 14 of the relocation to the eligible premises.

15 (e) The credit allowed under this subdivision must be taken by the 16 taxpayer in the taxable year in which such twelve month period selected 17 by the taxpayer ends.

18 (f) For the purposes of calculating entire net income in the taxable 19 year that an industrial business tax credit is allowed, a taxpayer must 20 add back the amount of the credit allowed under this subdivision, to the 21 extent of any relocation costs deducted in the current taxable year or a 22 prior taxable year in calculating federal taxable income.

23 (g) The credit allowed under this subdivision shall not be granted for 24 an eligible business for more than one relocation, provided, however, an 25 industrial business tax credit shall not be granted if the eligible 26 business receives benefits pursuant to chapter six-B or six-C of title 27 twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality, through a grant 28 program administered by the business relocation assistance corporation, 29 or through the New York city printers relocation fund grant.

30 (h) The commissioner of finance is authorized to promulgate rules and 31 regulations and to prescribe forms necessary to effectuate the purposes 32 of this subdivision.

33 18. (a) If a corporation is a partner in an unincorporated business 34 taxable under chapter five of this title, and is required to include in 35 entire net income its distributive share of income, gain, loss and 36 deductions of, or guaranteed payments from, such unincorporated busi-
37 ness, such corporation shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed 38 by this subchapter equal to the lesser of the amounts determined in 39 subparagraphs one and two of this paragraph:

40 (1) The amount determined in this subparagraph is the product of (i) 41 the sum of (A) the tax imposed by chapter five of this title on the 42 unincorporated business for its taxable year ending within or with the 43 taxable year of the corporation and paid by the unincorporated business 44 and (B) the amount of any credit or credits taken by the unincorporated 45 business under section 11-503 of this title, except the credit allowed 46 by subdivision (b) of section 11-503 of this title, for its taxable year 47 ending within or with the taxable year of the corporation, to the extent 48 that such credits do not reduce such unincorporated business's tax below 49 zero, and (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the net total of 50 the corporation's distributive share of income, gain, loss and 51 deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, the unincorporated business 52 for such taxable year, and the denominator of which is the sum, for such 53 taxable year, of the net total distributive shares of income, gain, loss 54 and deductions of, and guaranteed payments to, all partners in the unin-
55 corporated business for whom or which such net total, as separately
56 determined for each partner, is greater than zero.

1 (2) The amount determined in this subparagraph is the product of (i)
2 the excess of (A) the tax computed under clause (i) of subparagraph one 3 of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section, without allowance 4 of any credits allowed by this section, over (B) the tax so computed, 5 determined as if the corporation had no such distributive share or guar-6 anteed payments with respect to the unincorporated business, and (ii) a 7 fraction, the numerator of which is four and the denominator of which is 8 eight and eighty-five one-hundredths, except that in the case of a 9 financial corporation as defined in clause (i) of subparagraph one of 10 paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section, such denominator is 11 nine, and in the case of a taxpayer that is subject to paragraph (j) or 12 (k) of subdivision one of this section, such denominator shall be the 13 rate of tax as determined by such paragraph (j) or (k) for the taxable 14 year; provided that the amounts computed in subclauses (A) and (B) of 15 clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be computed with the following 16 modifications:

17 (A) such amounts shall be computed without taking into account any 18 carryforward or carryback by the partner of a net operating loss or a 19 prior net operation loss conversion subtraction;

20 (B) if, prior to taking into account any distributive share or guaran-21 teed payments from any unincorporated business or any net operating loss 22 carryforward or carryback, the entire net income of the partner is less 23 than zero, such entire net income shall be treated as zero; and 24 (C) if such partner's net total distributive share of income, gain, 25 loss and deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, any unincorporated 26 business is less than zero, such net total shall be treated as zero. The 27 amount determined in this subparagraph shall not be less than zero.

28 (b) (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (a) of 29 this subdivision, in the case of a corporation that, before the applica-30 tion of this subdivision or any other credit allowed by this section, is 31 liable for the tax on business income under clause (i) of subparagraph 32 one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section, the credit or 33 the sum of the credits that may be taken by such corporation for a taxa-34 ble year under this subdivision with respect to an unincorporated busi-35 ness or unincorporated businesses in which it is a partner shall not 36 exceed the tax so computed, without allowance of any credits allowed by 37 this section, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is four 38 and the denominator of which is eight and eighty-five one-hundredths, 39 except that in the case of a financial corporation as defined in clause 40 (i) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this 41 section, such denominator is nine, and in the case of a taxpayer that is 42 subject to paragraph (j) or (k) of subdivision one of this section, such 43 denominator shall be the rate of tax as determined by such paragraph (j) 44 or (k) for the taxable year. If the credit allowed under this subdivi-45 sion or the sum of such credits exceeds the product of such tax and such 46 fraction, the amount of the excess may be carried forward, in order, to 47 each of the seven immediately succeeding taxable years and, to the 48 extent not previously taken, shall be allowed as a credit in each of 49 such years. In applying such provisions, the credit determined for the 50 taxable year under paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be taken 51 before taking any credit carryforward pursuant to this paragraph and the 52 credit carryforward attributable to the earliest taxable year shall be 53 taken before taking a credit carryforward attributable to a subsequent 54 taxable year.

55 (2) Intentionally omitted.

1 (2-a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision to the 2 contrary, in the case of a taxpayer that has received, in a taxable year
3 beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, the credit set 4 forth in subdivision eighteen of section 11-604 of this chapter or in 5 section 11-643.8 of this chapter for a tax paid under chapter five of 6 this title in a taxable year beginning before January first, two thou-7 sand fifteen, the taxpayer may carry forward the unused portion of such 8 credit under this subdivision to any taxable year beginning on or after 9 January first, two thousand fifteen in the same amount and to the same 10 extent, including the same limitations, that the credit, or the unused 11 portion thereof, would have been allowed to be carried forward under 12 subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of subdivision eighteen of section 13 11-604 of this chapter or paragraph one of subdivision (b) of section 14 11-643.8 of this chapter, as in effect on December thirty-first, two 15 thousand fourteen, if such subdivision continued to apply to the taxpay-16 er for such taxable year.

17 (3) No credit allowed under this subdivision may be taken in a taxable 18 year by a taxpayer that, in the absence of such credit, would be liable 19 for the tax computed on the basis of business capital under clause (ii) 20 of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section 21 or the fixed-dollar minimum tax under clause (iv) of subparagraph one of 22 paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section.

23 (c) For corporations that file a report on a combined basis pursuant 24 to section 11-654.3 of this subchapter, the credit allowed by this 25 subdivision shall be computed as if the combined group were the partner 26 in each unincorporated business from which any of the members of such 27 group had a distributive share or guaranteed payments, provided, howev-28 er, if more than one member of the combined group is a partner in the 29 same unincorporated business, for purposes of the calculation required 30 in subparagraph one of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the numerator 31 of the fraction described in clause (ii) of such subparagraph one shall 32 be the sum of the net total distributive shares of income, gain, loss 33 and deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, the unincorporated 34 business of all of the partners of the unincorporated business within 35 the combined group for which such net total, as separately determined 36 for each partner, is greater than zero, and the denominator of such 37 fraction shall be the sum of the net total distributive shares of 38 income, gain, loss and deductions of, and guaranteed payments from, the 39 unincorporated business of all partners in the unincorporated business 40 for whom or which such net total, as separately determined for each 41 partner, is greater than zero.

42 (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, the credit 43 allowable under this subdivision shall be taken prior to the taking of 44 any other credit allowed by this section. Notwithstanding any other 45 provision of this subchapter, the application of this subdivision shall 46 not change the basis on which the taxpayer's tax is computed under para-47 graph (e) of subdivision one of this section.

48 19. Lower Manhattan relocation and employment assistance credit. (a) 49 In addition to any other credit allowed by this section, a taxpayer that 50 has obtained the certifications required by chapter six-C of title twen-51 ty-two of the code of the preceding municipality shall be allowed a 52 credit against the tax imposed by this subchapter. The amount of the 53 credit shall be the amount determined by multiplying three thousand 54 dollars by the number of eligible aggregate employment shares maintained 55 by the taxpayer during the taxable year with respect to eligible prem-56 ises to which the taxpayer has relocated; provided, however, that no

1 credit shall be allowed for the relocation of any retail activity or 2 hotel services; provided, further, that no credit shall be allowed under 3 this subdivision to any taxpayer that has elected pursuant to subdivi-4 sion (d) of section 22-624 of the code of the preceding municipality to 5 take such credit against a gross receipts tax imposed under chapter 6 eleven of this title. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms 7 "eligible aggregate employment shares," "eligible premises," "relocate," 8 "retail activity" and "hotel services" shall have the meanings ascribed 9 by section 22-623 of the code of the preceding municipality.

10 (b) The credit allowed under this subdivision with respect to eligible 11 aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to eligible premises
12 to which the taxpayer has relocated shall be allowed for the taxable 13 year of the relocation and for any of the twelve succeeding taxable 14 years during which eligible aggregate employment shares are maintained 15 with respect to eligible premises; provided that the credit allowed for 16 the twelfth succeeding taxable year shall be calculated by multiplying 17 the number of eligible aggregate employment shares maintained with 18 respect to eligible premises in the twelfth succeeding taxable year by 19 the lesser of one and a fraction the numerator of which is such number 20 of days in the taxable year of relocation less the number of days the 21 taxpayer maintained employment shares in eligible premises in the taxa-22 ble year of relocation and the denominator of which is the number of 23 days in such twelfth taxable year during which such eligible aggregate 24 employment shares are maintained with respect to such premises.

25 (c) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this subdivision, if the 26 amount of the credit allowable under this subdivision for any taxable 27 year exceeds the tax imposed for such year, the excess may be carried 28 over, in order, to the five immediately succeeding taxable years and, to 29 the extent not previously deductible, may be deducted from the taxpay-30 er's tax for such years.

31 (d) The credits allowed under this subdivision, against the tax 32 imposed by this chapter for the taxable year of the relocation and for 33 the four taxable years immediately succeeding the taxable year of such 34 relocation, shall be deemed to be overpayments of tax by the taxpayer to 35 be credited or refunded, without interest, in accordance with the 36 provisions of section 11-677 of this chapter. For such taxable years, 37 such credits or portions thereof may not be carried over to any succeed-38 ing taxable year.

39 (e) The credit allowable under this subdivision shall be deducted 40 after the credits allowed by subdivisions seventeen and eighteen of this 41 section, but prior to the deduction of any other credit allowed by this 42 section.

43 (f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision to the 44 contrary, in the case of a taxpayer that has obtained, pursuant to chap-
45 ter six-C of title twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality,
46 a certification of eligibility and has received, in a taxable year
47 beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, the credit set 48 forth in subdivision nineteen of section 11-604 of this chapter or 49 section 11-643.9 of this chapter for the relocation of an eligible busi-
50 ness, a credit shall be allowed under this subdivision to the taxpayer
51 for any taxable year beginning on or after January first, two thousand 52 fifteen in the same amount and to the same extent that a credit would 53 have been allowed under subdivision nineteen of section 11-604 of this 54 chapter or section 11-643.9 of this chapter, as in effect on December 55 thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, if such subdivision continued to 56 apply to the taxpayer for such taxable year.

1 20. Intentionally omitted.

2 21. Biotechnology credit. (a) (1) A taxpayer that is a qualified 3 emerging technology company, engages in biotechnologies, and meets the 4 eligibility requirements of this subdivision, shall be allowed a credit 5 against the tax imposed by this subchapter. The amount of credit shall 6 be equal to the sum of the amounts specified in subparagraphs three, 7 four and five of this paragraph, subject to the limitations in subpara-8 graphs six and seven of this paragraph, paragraph (b) of this subdivi-9 sion, and paragraph three of subdivision (d) of section twelve hundred 10 one-a of the tax law. For the purposes of this subdivision, "qualified 11 emerging technology company" shall mean a company located in the city:
12 (i) whose primary products or services are classified as emerging tech-13 nologies and whose total annual product sales are ten million dollars or 14 less; or

15 (ii) a company that has research and development activities in the 16 city and whose ratio of research and development funds to net sales 17 equals or exceeds the average ratio for all surveyed companies classi-18 fied as determined by the National Science Foundation in the most recent 19 published results from its Survey of Industry Research and Development, 20 or any comparable successor survey as determined by the department of 21 finance, and whose total annual product sales are ten million dollars or 22 less. For the purposes of this subdivision, the definition of research 23 and development funds shall be the same as that used by the National 24 Science Foundation in the aforementioned survey. For the purposes of 25 this subdivision, "biotechnologies" shall mean the technologies involv-26 ing the scientific manipulation of living organisms, especially at the 27 molecular and/or the sub-molecular genetic level, to produce products 28 conducive to improving the lives and health of plants, animals, and 29 humans; and the associated scientific research, pharmacological, mechan-30 ical, and computational applications and services connected with these 31 improvements. Activities included with such applications and services 32 shall include, but not be limited to, alternative mRNA splicing, DNA 33 sequence amplification, antigenetic switching bioaugmentation, bioen-34 richment, bioremediation, chromosome walking, cytogenetic engineering, 35 DNA diagnosis, fingerprinting, and sequencing, electroporation, gene 36 translocation, genetic mapping, site-directed mutagenesis, bio-transduc-37 tion, bio-mechanical and bio-electrical engineering, and bio-informat-38 ics.

39 (2) An eligible taxpayer shall (i) have no more than one hundred full-40 time employees, of which at least seventy-five percent are employed in 41 the city, (ii) have a ratio of research and development funds to net 42 sales, as referred to in section thirty-one hundred two-e of the public 43 authorities law, which equals or exceeds six percent during the calendar 44 year ending with or within the taxable year for which the credit is 45 claimed, and (iii) have gross revenues, along with the gross revenues of 46 its "affiliates" and "related members" not exceeding twenty million 47 dollars for the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year 48 ending with or within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed.
49 For the purposes of this subdivision, "affiliates" shall mean those 50 corporations that are members of the same affiliated group, as defined 51 in section fifteen hundred four of the internal revenue code, as the 52 taxpayer. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "related 53 members" shall mean a person, corporation, or other entity, including an 54 entity that is treated as a partnership or other pass-through vehicle 55 for purposes of federal taxation, whether such person, corporation or 56 entity is a taxpayer or not, where one such person, corporation or enti-

1 ty, or set of related persons, corporations or entities, directly or 2 indirectly owns or controls a controlling interest in another entity.
3 Such entity or entities may include all taxpayers under chapters five, 4 eleven and seventeen of this title, and this subchapter and subchapters 5 two and three of this chapter. A controlling interest shall mean, in the 6 case of a corporation, either thirty percent or more of the total 7 combined voting power of all classes of stock of such corporation, or 8 thirty percent or more of the capital, profits or beneficial interest in 9 such voting stock of such corporation; and in the case of a partnership, 10 association, trust or other entity, thirty percent or more of the capi-11 tal, profits or beneficial interest in such partnership, association, 12 trust or other entity.

13 (3) An eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit for eighteen per 14 centum of the cost or other basis for federal income tax purposes of 15 research and development property that is acquired by the taxpayer by 16 purchase as defined in subsection (d) of section one hundred seventy-17 nine of the internal revenue code and placed in service during the 18 calendar year that ends with or within the taxable year for which the 19 credit is claimed. Provided, however, for the purposes of this paragraph 20 only, an eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit for such percentage 21 of the (i) cost or other basis for federal income tax purposes for prop-22 erty used in the testing or inspection of materials and products, (ii) 23 the costs or expenses associated with quality control of the research 24 and development, (iii) fees for use of sophisticated technology facili-25 ties and processes, and (iv) fees for the production or eventual commer-26 cial distribution of materials and products resulting from the activ-27 ities of an eligible taxpayer as long as such activities fall under 28 activities relating to biotechnologies. The costs, expenses and other 29 amounts for which a credit is allowed and claimed under this paragraph 30 shall not be used in the calculation of any other credit allowed under 31 this subchapter. For the purposes of this subdivision, "research and 32 development property" shall mean property that is used for purposes of 33 research and development in the experimental or laboratory sense. Such 34 purposes shall not be deemed to include the ordinary testing or 35 inspection of materials or products for quality control, efficiency or 36 surveys, management studies, consumer surveys, advertising, promotions, 37 or research in connection with literary, historical or similar projects.

38 (4) An eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit for nine per centum 39 of qualified research expenses paid or incurred by the taxpayer in the 40 calendar year that ends with or within the taxable year for which the 41 credit is claimed. For the purposes of this subdivision, "qualified 42 research expenses" shall mean expenses associated with in-house research 43 and processes, and costs associated with the dissemination of the 44 results of the products that directly result from such research and 45 development activities; provided, however, that such costs shall not 46 include advertising or promotion through media. In addition, costs asso-47 ciated with the preparation of patent applications, patent application 48 filing fees, patent research fees, patent examinations fees, patent post 49 allowance fees, patent maintenance fees, and grant application expenses 50 and fees shall qualify as qualified research expenses. In no case shall 51 the credit allowed under this subparagraph apply to expenses for liti-52 gation or the challenge of another entity's intellectual property 53 rights, or for contract expenses involving outside paid consultants.

54 (5) An eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit for qualified high-55 technology training expenditures as described in this subparagraph paid

1 or incurred by the taxpayer during the calendar year that ends with or 2 within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed.

3 (i) The amount of credit shall be one hundred percent of the training 4 expenses described in clause (iii) of this subparagraph, subject to a 5 limitation of no more than four thousand dollars per employee per calen-6 dar year for such training expenses.

7 (ii) Qualified high-technology training shall include a course or 8 courses taken and satisfactorily completed by an employee of the taxpay-9 er at an accredited, degree granting post-secondary college or universi-10 ty in the city that (A) directly relates to biotechnology activities, 11 and (B) is intended to upgrade, retrain or improve the productivity or 12 theoretical awareness of the employee. Such course or courses may 13 include, but are not limited to, instruction or research relating to 14 techniques, meta, macro, or micro-theoretical or practical knowledge 15 bases or frontiers, or ethical concerns related to such activities. Such 16 course or courses shall not include classes in the disciplines of 17 management, accounting or the law or any class designed to fulfill the 18 discipline specific requirements of a degree program at the associate, 19 baccalaureate, graduate or professional level of these disciplines.
20 Satisfactory completion of a course or courses shall mean the earning 21 and granting of credit or equivalent unit, with the attainment of a 22 grade of "B" or higher in a graduate level course or courses, a grade of 23 "C" or higher in an undergraduate level course or courses, or a similar 24 measure of competency for a course that is not measured according to a 25 standard grade formula.

26 (iii) Qualified high-technology training expenditures shall include 27 expenses for tuition and mandatory fees, software required by the insti-28 tution, fees for textbooks or other literature required by the institu-29 tion offering the course or courses, minus applicable scholarships and 30 tuition or fee waivers not granted by the taxpayer or any affiliates of 31 the taxpayer, that are paid or reimbursed by the taxpayer. Qualified 32 high-technology expenditures do not include room and board, computer 33 hardware or software not specifically assigned for such course or cours-34 es, late-charges, fines or membership dues and similar expenses. Such 35 qualified expenditures shall not be eligible for the credit provided by 36 this section unless the employee for whom the expenditures are disbursed 37 is continuously employed by the taxpayer in a full-time, full-year posi-38 tion primarily located at a qualified site during the period of such 39 coursework and lasting through at least one hundred eighty days after 40 the satisfactory completion of the qualifying course-work. Qualified 41 high-technology training expenditures shall not include expenses for 42 in-house or shared training outside of a city higher education institu-43 tion or the use of consultants outside of credit granting courses, 44 whether such consultants function inside of such higher education insti-45 tution or not.

46 (iv) If a taxpayer relocates from an academic business incubator 47 facility partnered with an accredited post-secondary education institu-48 tion located within the city, which provides space and business support 49 services to taxpayers, to another site, the credit provided in this 50 subdivision shall be allowed for all expenditures referenced in clause 51 (iii) of this subparagraph paid or incurred in the two preceding calen-52 dar years that the taxpayer was located in such an incubator facility 53 for employees of the taxpayer who also relocate from said incubator 54 facility to such city site and are employed and primarily located by the 55 taxpayer in the city. Such expenditures in the two preceding years shall 56 be added to the amounts otherwise qualifying for the credit provided by

1 this subdivision that were paid or incurred in the calendar year that 2 the taxpayer relocates from such a facility. Such expenditures shall 3 include expenses paid for an eligible employee who is a full-time, full-4 year employee of said taxpayer during the calendar year that the taxpay-5 er relocated from an incubator facility notwithstanding (A) that such 6 employee was employed full or part-time as an officer, staff-person or 7 paid intern of the taxpayer when such taxpayer was located at such incu-
8 bator facility or (B) that such employee was not continuously employed 9 when such taxpayer was located at the incubator facility during the one 10 hundred eighty day period referred to in clause (iii) of this subpara-11 graph, provided such employee received wages or equivalent income for at 12 least seven hundred fifty hours during any twenty-four month period when 13 the taxpayer was located at the incubator facility. Such expenditures 14 shall include payments made to such employee after the taxpayer has 15 relocated from the incubator facility for qualified expenditures if such 16 payments are made to reimburse an employee for expenditures paid by the 17 employee during such two preceding years. The credit provided under 18 this paragraph shall be allowed in any taxable year that the taxpayer 19 qualifies as an eligible taxpayer.

20 (v) For purposes of this subdivision the term "academic year" shall 21 mean the annual period of sessions of a post-secondary college or 22 university.

23 (vi) For the purposes of this subdivision the term "academic incubator 24 facility" shall mean a facility providing low-cost space, technical 25 assistance, support services and educational opportunities, including 26 but not limited to central services provided by the manager of the 27 facility to the tenants of the facility, to an entity located in the 28 city. Such entity's primary activity must be in biotechnologies, and 29 such entity must be in the formative stage of development. The academic 30 incubator facility and the entity must act in partnership with an 31 accredited post-secondary college or university located in the city. An 32 academic incubator facility's mission shall be to promote job creation, 33 entrepreneurship, technology transfer, and provide support services to 34 incubator tenants, including, but not limited to, business planning, 35 management assistance, financial-packaging, linkages to financing 36 services, and coordinating with other sources of assistance.

37 (6) An eligible taxpayer may claim credits under this subdivision for 38 three consecutive years. In no case shall the credit allowed by this 39 subdivision to a taxpayer exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars per 40 calendar year for eligible expenditures made during such calendar year.

41 (7) The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year 42 shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount 43 prescribed in clause (iv) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdi-44 vision one of this section. Provided, however, if the amount of credit 45 allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to 46 such amount, any amount of credit not deductible in such taxable year 47 shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in 48 accordance with the provisions of section 11-677 of this chapter; 49 provided, however, that notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-679 50 of this chapter, no interest shall be paid thereon.

51 (8) The credit allowed under this subdivision shall only be allowed 52 for taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand nineteen.

53 (b) (1) The percentage of the credit allowed to a taxpayer under this 54 subdivision in any calendar year shall be:

55 (i) If the average number of individuals employed full time by a 56 taxpayer in the city during the calendar year that ends with or within

1 the taxable year for which the credit is claimed is at least one hundred 2 five percent of the taxpayer's base year employment, one hundred 3 percent, except that in no case shall the credit allowed under this 4 clause exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars per calendar year.
5 Provided, however, the increase in base year employment shall not apply 6 to a taxpayer allowed a credit under this subdivision that was, (A) 7 located outside of the city, (B) not doing business, or (C) did not have 8 any employees, in the year preceding the first year that the credit is 9 claimed. Any such taxpayer shall be eligible for one hundred percent of 10 the credit for the first calendar year that ends with or within the 11 taxable year for which the credit is claimed, provided that such taxpay-12 er locates in the city, begins doing business in the city or hires 13 employees in the city during such calendar year and is otherwise eligi-14 ble for the credit pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

15 (ii) If the average number of individuals employed full time by a 16 taxpayer in the city during the calendar year that ends with or within 17 the taxable year for which the credit is claimed is less than one 18 hundred five percent of the taxpayer's base year employment, fifty 19 percent, except that in no case shall the credit allowed under this 20 clause exceed one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars per calendar 21 year. In the case of an entity located in the city receiving space and 22 business support services by an academic incubator facility, if the 23 average number of individuals employed full time by such entity in the 24 city during the calendar year in which the credit allowed under this 25 subdivision is claimed is less than one hundred five percent of the 26 taxpayer's base year employment, the credit shall be zero.

27 (2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "base year employment" means 28 the average number of individuals employed full-time by the taxpayer in 29 the city in the year preceding the first calendar year that ends with or 30 within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed.

31 (3) For the purposes of this subdivision, average number of individ-32 uals employed full-time shall be computed by adding the number of such 33 individuals employed by the taxpayer at the end of each quarter during 34 each calendar year or other applicable period and dividing the sum so 35 obtained by the number of such quarters occurring within such calendar 36 year or other applicable period.

37 (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section to the contra-38 ry, the credit provided by this subdivision shall be allowed against the 39 taxes authorized by this chapter for the taxable year after reduction by 40 all other credits permitted by this chapter.

41 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision to the 42 contrary, in the case of a taxpayer that has received, in a taxable year
43 beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, the credit set 44 forth in subdivision twenty-one of section 11-604 of this chapter for an 45 eligible acquisition of property and/or expense paid or incurred, a 46 credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this subdivision for any 47 tax year beginning on or after January first, two thousand fifteen in 48 the same amount and to the same extent that a credit would have been 49 allowed under subdivision twenty-one of section 11-604 of this chapter, 50 as in effect on December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, if such 51 subdivision continued to apply to the taxpayer for such taxable year.

52 22. Beer production credit. (a) A taxpayer subject to tax under this 53 subchapter, that is registered as a distributor under article eighteen 54 of the tax law, and that produces sixty million or fewer gallons of beer 55 in this state in the taxable year, shall be allowed a credit against the 56 tax imposed by this subchapter in the amount specified in paragraph (b)

1 of this subdivision. Provided, however, that no credit shall be allowed 2 for any beer produced in excess of fifteen million five hundred thousand 3 gallons in the taxable year. Notwithstanding anything in this title to 4 the contrary, if a partnership is allowed a credit under subdivision (p) 5 of section 11-503 of this title, a taxpayer that is a partner in such 6 partnership shall not be allowed a credit under this subdivision for any 7 taxable year that includes the last day of the taxable year for which 8 the partnership is allowed such credit.

9 (b) The amount of the credit per taxpayer per taxable year for each 10 gallon of beer produced in the city of New York on or after January 11 first, two thousand seventeen shall be determined as follows:

12 (1) for the first five hundred thousand gallons of beer produced in 13 the city of New York in the taxable year, the credit shall equal twelve 14 cents per gallon; and 15 (2) for each gallon of beer produced in the city of New York in the 16 taxable year in excess of five hundred thousand gallons, the credit 17 shall equal three and eighty-six one-hundredths cents per gallon. In no 18 event shall the credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable 19 year reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed 20 in subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of this section.

21 However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any 22 taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus 23 not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment 24 of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of 25 section 11-677 of this chapter; provided, however, that notwithstanding 26 the provisions of section 11-679 of this chapter, no interest shall be 27 paid thereon.

28 23. Credit for the provision of child care. In addition to any other 29 credit allowed under this section, a taxpayer whose application for a 30 credit authorized by section 11-144 of this title has been approved by 31 the department of finance shall be allowed a credit against the tax 32 imposed by this chapter. The amount of the credit shall be determined as 33 provided in such section. To the extent the amount of the credit allowed 34 by this subdivision exceeds the amount of tax due pursuant to this 35 subchapter, as calculated without such credit, such excess amount shall 36 be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in 37 accordance with the provisions of section 11-677 of this chapter, 38 provided, however, that notwithstanding the requirements of section 39 11-679 of this chapter to the contrary, no interest shall be paid there-40 on.

41 § 11-654.1 Net operating loss. 1. In computing the business income 42 subject to tax, taxpayers shall be allowed both a prior net operating 43 loss conversion subtraction under subdivision two of this section and a 44 net operating loss deduction under subdivision three of this section.
45 The prior net operating loss conversion subtraction computed under 46 subdivision two of this section shall be applied against business income 47 before the net operating loss deduction computed under subdivision three 48 of this section.

49 2. Prior net operating loss conversion subtraction. (a) Definitions.
50 (1) "Base year" means the last taxable year beginning on or after Janu-
51 ary first, two thousand fourteen and before January first, two thousand 52 fifteen.

53 (2) "Unabsorbed net operating loss" means the unabsorbed portion of 54 net operating loss as calculated under paragraph (f) of subdivision 55 eight of section 11-602 of this chapter or subdivision (k-1) of section 56 11-641 of this chapter, as such sections were in effect on December

1 thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, that was not deductible in previous 2 taxable years and was eligible for carryover on the last day of the base 3 year subject to the limitations for deduction under such sections, 4 including any net operating loss sustained by the taxpayer during the 5 base year.

6 (3) "Base year BAP" means the taxpayer's business allocation percent-7 age as calculated under paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section 8 11-604 of this chapter for the base year, or the taxpayer's allocation 9 percentage as calculated under section 11-642 of this chapter for 10 purposes of calculating entire net income for the base year, as such 11 sections were in effect on December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen.

12 (4) "Base year tax rate" means the taxpayer's tax rate for the base 13 year as applied to entire net income and calculated under subdivision 14 one of section 11-604 of this chapter or subdivision (a) of section 15 11-643.5 of this chapter, as such provisions were in effect on December 16 thirty-first, two thousand fourteen.

17 (b) The prior net operating loss conversion subtraction shall be 18 calculated as follows:

19 (1) The taxpayer shall first calculate the tax value of its unabsorbed 20 net operating loss for the base year. The value is equal to the product 21 of (i) the amount of the taxpayer's unabsorbed net operating loss, (ii)
22 the taxpayer's base year BAP, and (iii) the taxpayer's base year tax 23 rate.

24 (2) The product determined under subparagraph one of this paragraph 25 shall then be divided by eight and eighty-five one-hundredths per centum 26 or, in the case of a financial corporation, as defined in clause (i) of 27 subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section 11-654 28 of this subchapter, the product determined under subparagraph one of 29 this paragraph shall then be divided by nine per centum. This result 30 shall equal the taxpayer's prior net operating loss conversion 31 subtraction pool.

32 (3) The taxpayer's prior net operating loss conversion subtraction for 33 the taxable year shall equal one-tenth of its prior net operating loss 34 conversion subtraction pool, plus any amount of unused prior net operat-35 ing loss conversion subtraction from preceding taxable years.

36 (4) In lieu of the prior net operating loss conversion subtraction 37 described in subparagraph three of this paragraph, if the taxpayer so 38 elects, the taxpayer's prior net operating loss conversion subtraction 39 for its taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand 40 fifteen and before January first, two thousand seventeen shall equal, in 41 each year, not more than one-half of its prior net operating loss 42 conversion subtraction pool until the pool is exhausted. If the pool is 43 not exhausted at the end of such time period, the remainder of the pool 44 shall be forfeited. The taxpayer shall make such election, which shall 45 be revocable, on its first return for the tax year beginning on or after 46 January first, two thousand fifteen and before January first, two thou-47 sand sixteen by the due date for such return, determined with regard to 48 extensions.

49 (c) (1) Where a taxpayer was properly included or required to be 50 included in a combined report for the base year pursuant to section 51 11-605 of this chapter or a combined return for the base year pursuant 52 to section 11-646 of this chapter, as such sections were in effect on 53 December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen, and the members of the 54 combined group for the base year are the same as the members of the 55 combined group for the taxable year immediately succeeding the base 56 year, the combined group shall calculate its prior net operating loss

1 conversion subtraction pool using the combined group's total unabsorbed 2 net operating loss, base year BAP, and base year tax rate.

3 (2) If a combined group includes additional members in the taxable 4 year immediately succeeding the base year that were not included in the 5 combined group during the base year, each base year combined group and 6 each taxpayer that filed separately for the base year but is included in 7 the combined group in the taxable year succeeding the base year shall 8 calculate its prior net operating loss conversion subtraction pool, and 9 the sum of the pools shall be the combined prior net operating loss 10 conversion subtraction pool of the combined group.

11 (3) If a taxpayer was properly included in a combined report for the 12 base year and files a separate report for a subsequent taxable year, 13 then the amount of remaining prior net operating loss conversion 14 subtraction allowed to the taxpayer filing such separate report shall be 15 proportionate to the amount that such taxpayer contributed to the prior 16 net operating loss conversion subtraction pool on a combined basis, and 17 the remaining prior net operating loss conversion subtraction allowed to 18 the remaining members of the combined group shall be reduced accord-19 ingly.

20 (4) If a taxpayer filed a separate report for the base year and is 21 properly included in a combined report for a subsequent taxable year, 22 then the prior net operating loss conversion subtraction pool of the 23 combined group shall be increased by the amount of the remaining prior 24 net operating loss conversion subtraction allowed to the taxpayer at the 25 time the taxpayer is properly included in the combined group.

26 (d) The prior net operating loss conversion subtraction may be used to 27 reduce the taxpayer's tax on allocated business income to the higher of 28 the tax on business capital under clause (ii) of subparagraph one of 29 paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section 11-654 of this subchapter or 30 the fixed dollar minimum under clause (iv) of subparagraph one of para-31 graph (e) of subdivision one of section 11-654 of this subchapter.
32 Unless the taxpayer has made the election provided for in subparagraph 33 four of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, any amount of unused prior 34 net operating loss conversion subtraction shall be carried forward to a 35 subsequent tax year or subsequent tax years until the prior net operat-36 ing loss conversion subtraction pool is exhausted, but for no longer 37 than twenty taxable years or the taxable year beginning on or after 38 January first, two thousand thirty-five but before January first, two 39 thousand thirty-six, whichever comes first. Such amount carried forward 40 shall not be subject to the one-tenth limitation for the subsequent tax 41 year or years under subparagraph three of paragraph (b) of this subdivi-42 sion. However, if the taxpayer elects to compute its prior net operat-43 ing loss conversion subtraction pursuant to subparagraph four of para-44 graph (b) of this subdivision, the taxpayer shall not carry forward any 45 unused amount of such prior net operating loss conversion subtraction to 46 any tax year beginning on or after January first, two thousand seven-47 teen.

48 3. In computing business income, a net operating loss deduction shall 49 be allowed. A net operating loss deduction shall be the amount of net 50 operating loss or losses from one or more taxable years that are carried 51 forward or carried back to a particular taxable year. A net operating 52 loss shall be the amount of a business loss incurred in a particular tax 53 year multiplied by the business allocation percentage for that year as 54 determined under subdivision three of section 11-654 of this subchapter.
55 The maximum net operating loss deduction that is allowed in a taxable 56 year shall be the amount that reduces the taxpayer's tax on allocated

1 business income to the higher of the tax on business capital under 2 clause (ii) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of 3 section 11-654 of this subchapter or the fixed dollar minimum amount 4 under clause (iv) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision
5 one of section 11-654 of this subchapter. Such net operating loss 6 deduction and net operating loss shall be determined in accordance with 7 the following:

8 (a) Such net operating loss deduction shall not be limited to the 9 amount allowed under section one hundred seventy-two of the internal 10 revenue code or the amount that would have been allowed if the taxpayer 11 did not have an election under subchapter S of chapter one of the inter-12 nal revenue code in effect for the applicable tax year.

13 (b) Such net operating loss deduction shall not include any net oper-
14 ating loss incurred during any taxable year beginning prior to January 15 first, two thousand fifteen, or during any taxable year in which the 16 taxpayer was not subject to the tax imposed by this subchapter.

17 (c) A taxpayer that files as part of a federal consolidated return but 18 on a separate basis for purposes of this subchapter shall compute its 19 deduction and loss as if it were filing on a separate basis for federal 20 income tax purposes.

21 (d) A net operating loss may be carried back three taxable years 22 preceding the taxable year of the loss except that no loss may be 23 carried back to a taxable year beginning before January first, two thou-24 sand fifteen. The loss first shall be carried to the earliest of the 25 three taxable years preceding the taxable year of the loss. If it is not 26 entirely used in that year, it shall be carried to the second taxable 27 year preceding the taxable year of the loss, and any remaining amount 28 shall be carried to the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable 29 year of the loss. Any unused amount of loss then remaining may be 30 carried forward for as many as twenty taxable years following the taxa-31 ble year of the loss. Losses carried forward are carried forward first 32 to the taxable year immediately following the taxable year of the loss, 33 then to the second taxable year following the taxable year of the loss, 34 and then to the next immediately subsequent taxable year or years until 35 the loss is used up or the twentieth taxable year following the taxable 36 year of the loss, whichever comes first.

37 (e) Such net operating loss deduction shall not include any net oper-
38 ating loss incurred during any taxable year commencing after January 39 first, two thousand fifteen if the taxpayer was subject to tax under 40 subchapter two or three of this chapter in that year; provided, however, 41 any year commencing after January first, two thousand fifteen that the 42 taxpayer was subject to tax under subchapter two or three of this chap-43 ter in that year must be treated as a taxable year for purposes of 44 determining the number of taxable years to which a net operating loss 45 may be carried forward.

46 (f) Where there are two or more allocated net operating losses, or 47 portions thereof, carried back or carried forward to be deducted in one 48 particular tax year from allocated business income, the earliest allo-49 cated loss incurred must be applied first.

50 (g) A taxpayer may elect to waive the entire carryback period with 51 respect to a net operating loss. Such election must be made on the 52 taxpayer's original timely filed return, determined with regard to 53 extensions, for the taxable year of the net operating loss for which the 54 election is to be in effect. Once an election is made for a taxable 55 year, it shall be irrevocable for that taxable year. A separate election

1 must be made for each taxable year of the loss. This election applies to 2 all members of a combined group.

3 § 11-654.2 Receipts allocation. 1. The percentage of receipts of the 4 taxpayer to be allocated to the city for purposes of subparagraph two of 5 paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section 11-654 of this subchapter 6 shall be equal to the receipts fraction determined pursuant to this 7 section. The receipts fraction is a fraction, determined by including 8 only those receipts, net income, net gains, and other items described in 9 this section that are included in the computation of the taxpayer's 10 business income, determined without regard to the modification provided 11 in subparagraph fourteen of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of 12 section 11-652 of this subchapter, for the taxable year. The numerator 13 of the receipts fraction shall be equal to the sum of all the amounts 14 required to be included in the numerator pursuant to the provisions of 15 this section and the denominator of the receipts fraction shall be equal 16 to the sum of all the amounts required to be included in the denominator 17 pursuant to the provisions of this section.

18 2. (a) Receipts from sales of tangible personal property where ship-19 ments are made to points within the city or the destination of the prop-20 erty is a point within the city shall be included in the numerator of 21 the receipts fraction. Receipts from sales of tangible personal property 22 where shipments are made to points within and without the city or the 23 destination is within and without the city shall be included in the 24 denominator of the receipts fraction.

25 (b) Receipts from sales of electricity delivered to points within the 26 city shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction.
27 Receipts from sales of electricity delivered to points within and with-28 out the city shall be included in the denominator of the receipts frac-29 tion.

30 (c) Receipts from sales of tangible personal property and electricity 31 that are traded as commodities as the term "commodity" is defined in 32 section four hundred seventy-five of the internal revenue code, shall be 33 included in the receipts fraction in accordance with clause (ix) of 34 subparagraph two of paragraph (a) of subdivision five of this section.

35 (d) Net gains, not less than zero, from the sales of real property 36 located within the city shall be included in the numerator of the 37 receipts fraction. Net gains, not less than zero, from the sales of real 38 property located within and without the city shall be included in the 39 denominator of the receipts fraction.

40 3. (a) Receipts from rentals of real and tangible personal property 41 located within the city shall be included in the numerator of the 42 receipts fraction. Receipts from rentals of real and tangible personal 43 property located within and without the city shall be included in the 44 denominator of the receipts fraction.

45 (b) Receipts of royalties from the use of patents, copyrights, trade-46 marks, and similar intangible personal property within the city shall be 47 included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. Receipts of royalti-48 es from the use of patents, copyrights, trademarks, and similar intan-49 gible personal property within and without the city shall be included in 50 the denominator of the receipts fraction. A patent, copyright, trade-51 mark, or similar intangible personal property is used within the city to 52 the extent that the activities thereunder are carried on within the 53 city.

54 (c) Receipts from the sales of rights for closed-circuit and cable 55 television transmissions of an event, other than events occurring on a 56 regularly scheduled basis, taking place within the city as a result of 1 the rendition of services by employees of the corporation, as athletes, 2 entertainers or performing artists, shall be included in the numerator 3 of the receipts fraction to the extent that such receipts are attribut-4 able to such transmissions received or exhibited within the city.

5 Receipts from all sales of rights for closed-circuit and cable tele-6 vision transmissions of an event, other than events occurring on a regu-7 larly scheduled basis, shall be included in the denominator of the 8 receipts fraction.

9 4. (a) For purposes of determining the receipts fraction under this 10 section, the term "digital product" means any property or service, or 11 combination thereof, of whatever nature delivered to the purchaser 12 through the use of wire, cable, fiber-optic, laser, microwave, radio 13 wave, satellite or similar successor media, or any combination thereof.
14 Digital product includes, but is not limited to, an audio work, audi-15 ovisual work, visual work, book or literary work, graphic work, game, 16 information or entertainment service, storage of digital products and 17 computer software by whatever means delivered. The term "delivered to" 18 includes furnished or provided to or accessed by. A digital product 19 shall not include legal, medical, accounting, architectural, research, 20 analytical, engineering or consulting services provided by the taxpayer.

21 (b) Receipts from the sale of, license to use, or granting of remote 22 access to digital products within the city, determined according to the 23 hierarchy of methods set forth in subparagraphs one through four of 24 paragraph (c) of this subdivision, shall be included in the numerator of 25 the receipts fraction. Receipts from the sale of, license to use, or 26 granting of remote access to digital products within and without the 27 city shall be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction. The 28 taxpayer must exercise due diligence under each method described in 29 paragraph (c) of this subdivision before rejecting it and proceeding to 30 the next method in the hierarchy, and must base its determination on 31 information known to the taxpayer or information that would be known to 32 the taxpayer upon reasonable inquiry. If the receipt for a digital prod-33 uct is comprised of a combination of property and services, it cannot be 34 divided into separate components and shall be considered to be one 35 receipt regardless of whether it is separately stated for billing 36 purposes. The entire receipt must be allocated by this hierarchy.

37 (c) The hierarchy of sourcing methods is as follows: (1) the custom-38 er's primary use location of the digital product; (2) the location where 39 the digital product is received by the customer, or is received by a 40 person designated for receipt by the customer; (3) the receipts fraction 41 determined pursuant to this subdivision for the preceding taxable year 42 for such digital product; or (4) the receipts fraction in the current 43 taxable year for those digital products that can be sourced using the 44 hierarchy of sourcing methods in subparagraphs one and two of this para-45 graph.

46 5. (a) A financial instrument is a "nonqualified financial instrument" 47 if it is not a qualified financial instrument. A qualified financial 48 instrument means a financial instrument that is of a type described in 49 any of clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (vii), (viii) or (ix) of subpara-50 graph two of this paragraph and that has been marked to market in the 51 taxable year by the taxpayer under section four hundred seventy-five or 52 section one thousand two hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue code.
53 Further, if the taxpayer has in the taxable year marked to market a 54 financial instrument of the type described in any of clauses (i), (ii), 55 (iii), (iv), (vii), (viii) or (ix) of subparagraph two of this para-56 graph, then any financial instrument within that type described in the 1 above specified clause or clauses that has not been marked to market by 2 the taxpayer under section four hundred seventy-five or section one 3 thousand two hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue code is a quali-4 fied financial instrument in the taxable year, provided, however, (i) a 5 loan secured by real property shall not be a qualified financial instru-6 ment, (ii) if the only loans that are marked to market by the taxpayer 7 under section four hundred seventy-five or section one thousand two 8 hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue code are loans secured by real 9 property, then no loans shall be qualified financial instruments, (iii) 10 stock that is investment capital as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivi-11 sion four of section 11-652 of this subchapter shall not be a qualified 12 financial instrument, and (iv) stock that generates other exempt income 13 as defined in subdivision five-a of section 11-652 of this subchapter 14 and that is not marked to market under section four hundred seventy-five 15 or section one thousand two hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue 16 code shall not constitute a qualified financial instrument with respect 17 to the income from that stock that is described in such subdivision 18 five-a. If a corporation is included in a combined report, the defi-19 nition of qualified financial instrument shall be determined on a 20 combined basis. In the case of RIC or a REIT that is not a captive RIC 21 or a captive REIT, a qualified financial instrument means a financial 22 instrument that is of a type described in any of clauses (i), (ii),

23 (iii), (iv), (vii), (viii) or (ix) of subparagraph two of this para-24 graph, other than (i) a loan secured by real property, (ii) stock that 25 is investment capital as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision four of 26 section 11-652 of this subchapter, and (iii) stock that generates other 27 exempt income as defined in subdivision five-a of section 11-652 of this 28 subchapter with respect to the income from that stock that is described 29 in such subdivision five-a.

30 (1) In determining the inclusion of receipts and net gains from quali-31 fied financial instruments in the receipts fraction, taxpayers may elect 32 to use the fixed percentage method described in this subparagraph for 33 qualified financial instruments. The election is irrevocable, applies to 34 all qualified financial instruments, and must be made on an annual basis 35 on the taxpayer's original, timely filed return, determined with regard 36 to extensions. If the taxpayer elects the fixed percentage method, then 37 all income, gain or loss, including marked to market net gains as 38 defined in clause (x) of subparagraph two of this paragraph, from quali-39 fied financial instruments constitute business income, gain or loss. If 40 the taxpayer does not elect to use the fixed percentage method, then 41 receipts and net gains are included in the receipts fraction in accord-42 ance with the customer sourcing method described in subparagraph two of 43 this paragraph. Under the fixed percentage method, eight percent of all 44 net income, not less than zero, from qualified financial instruments 45 shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. All net 46 income, not less than zero, from qualified financial instruments shall 47 be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.

48 (2) Receipts and net gains from qualified financial instruments, in 49 cases where the taxpayer did not elect to use the fixed percentage meth-50 od described in subparagraph one of this paragraph, and from nonquali-51 fied financial instruments shall be included in the receipts fraction in 52 accordance with this subparagraph. For purposes of this paragraph, an 53 individual is deemed to be located within the city if his or her billing 54 address is within the city. A business entity is deemed to be located 55 within the city if its commercial domicile is located within the city.

1 (i)(A) Receipts constituting interest from loans secured by real prop-2 erty located within the city shall be included in the numerator of the 3 receipts fraction. Receipts constituting interest from loans secured by 4 real property located within and without the city shall be included in 5 the denominator of the receipts fraction.

6 (B) Receipts constituting interest from loans not secured by real 7 property shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction if 8 the borrower is located within the city. Receipts constituting interest 9 from loans not secured by real property, whether the borrower is located 10 within or without the city, shall be included in the denominator of the 11 receipts fraction.

12 (C) Net gains, not less than zero, from sales of loans secured by real 13 property shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction as 14 provided in this subclause. The amount of net gains from the sales of 15 loans secured by real property included in the numerator of the receipts 16 fraction shall be determined by multiplying the net gains by a fraction, 17 the numerator of which shall be the amount of gross proceeds from sales 18 of loans secured by real property located within the city and the denom-19 inator of which shall be the gross proceeds from sales of loans secured 20 by real property located within and without the city. Gross proceeds 21 shall be determined after the deduction of any cost incurred to acquire 22 the loans but shall not be less than zero. Net gains, not less than 23 zero, from sales of loans secured by real property located within and 24 without the city shall be included in the denominator of the receipts
25 fraction.

26 (D) Net gains, not less than zero, from sales of loans not secured by 27 real property shall be included in the numerator of the receipts frac-28 tion as provided in this subclause. The amount of net gains from the 29 sales of loans not secured by real property included in the numerator of 30 the receipts fraction shall be determined by multiplying the net gains 31 by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the amount of gross 32 proceeds from sales of loans not secured by real property to purchasers 33 located within the city and the denominator of which shall be the amount 34 of gross proceeds from sales of loans not secured by real property to 35 purchasers located within and without the city. Gross proceeds shall be 36 determined after the deduction of any cost incurred to acquire the loans 37 but shall not be less than zero. Net gains, not less than zero, from 38 sales of loans not secured by real property shall be included in the 39 denominator of the receipts fraction.

40 (E) For purposes of this subdivision, a loan is secured by real prop-41 erty if fifty percent or more of the value of the collateral used to 42 secure the loan, when valued at fair market value as of the time the 43 loan was entered into, consists of real property.

44 (ii) Federal, state, and municipal debt. Receipts constituting inter-45 est and net gains from sales of debt instruments issued by the United 46 States, any state, or political subdivision of a state shall not be 47 included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. Receipts constitut-48 ing interest and net gains, not less than zero, from sales of debt 49 instruments issued by the United States and the state of New York or its 50 political subdivisions, including the city, shall be included in the 51 denominator of the receipts fraction. Fifty percent of the receipts 52 constituting interest and net gains, not less than zero, from sales of 53 debt instruments issued by other states or their political subdivisions 54 shall be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.

55 (iii) Asset backed securities and other government agency debt. Eight 56 percent of the interest income from asset backed securities or other

1 securities issued by government agencies, including but not limited to 2 securities issued by the government national mortgage association 3 (GNMA), the federal national mortgage association (FNMA), the federal 4 home loan mortgage corporation (FHLMC), or the small business adminis-
5 tration, or eight percent of the interest income from asset backed secu-6 rities issued by other entities shall be included in the numerator of 7 the receipts fraction. Eight percent of the net gains, not less than 8 zero, from (A) sales of asset backed securities or other securities 9 issued by government agencies, including but not limited to securities 10 issued by GNMA, FNMA, FHLMC, or the small business administration, or 11 (B) sales of other asset backed securities that are sold through a 12 registered securities broker or dealer or through a licensed exchange, 13 shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. The amount 14 of net gains, not less than zero, from sales of other asset backed secu-15 rities not referenced in subclause (A) or (B) of this clause included in 16 the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be determined by multiply-17 ing such net gains by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the 18 amount of gross proceeds from such sales to purchasers located in the 19 city and the denominator of which shall be the amount of gross proceeds 20 from such sales to purchasers located within and without the city.
21 Receipts constituting interest income from asset backed securities and 22 other securities referenced in this clause and net gains, not less than 23 zero, from sales of asset backed securities and other securities refer-24 enced in this clause shall be included in the denominator of the 25 receipts fraction. Gross proceeds shall be determined after the 26 deduction of any cost to acquire the securities but shall not be less 27 than zero.

28 (iv) Receipts constituting interest from corporate bonds shall be 29 included in the numerator of the receipts fraction if the commercial 30 domicile of the issuing corporation is within the city. Eight percent of 31 the net gains, not less than zero, from sales of corporate bonds sold 32 through a registered securities broker or dealer or through a licensed 33 exchange shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction.
34 The amount of net gains, not less than zero, from other sales of corpo-35 rate bonds included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be 36 determined by multiplying such net gains by a fraction, the numerator of 37 which is the amount of gross proceeds from such sales to purchasers 38 located within the city and the denominator of which is the amount of 39 gross proceeds from sales to purchasers located within and without the 40 city. Receipts constituting interest from corporate bonds, whether the 41 issuing corporation's commercial domicile is within or without the city, 42 and net gains, not less than zero, from sales of corporate bonds to 43 purchasers within and without the city shall be included in the denomi-44 nator of the receipts fraction. Gross proceeds shall be determined after 45 the deduction of any cost to acquire the bonds but shall not be less 46 than zero.

47 (v) Eight percent of net interest income, not less than zero, from 48 reverse repurchase agreements and securities borrowing agreements shall 49 be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. Net interest 50 income, not less than zero, from reverse repurchase agreements and secu-51 rities borrowing agreements shall be included in the denominator of the 52 receipts fraction. Net interest income from reverse repurchase agree-53 ments and securities borrowing agreements shall be determined for 54 purposes of this subdivision after the deduction of the interest expense 55 from the taxpayer's repurchase agreements and securities lending agree-56 ments but shall not be less than zero. For this calculation, the amount

1 of such interest expense shall be the interest expense associated with 2 the sum of the value of the taxpayer's repurchase agreements where it is 3 the seller/borrower plus the value of the taxpayer's securities lending 4 agreements where it is the securities lender, provided such sum is 5 limited to the sum of the value of the taxpayer's reverse repurchase 6 agreements where it is the purchaser/lender plus the value of the 7 taxpayer's securities lending agreements where it is the securities 8 borrower.

9 (vi) Eight percent of the net interest, not less than zero, from 10 federal funds shall be included in the numerator of the receipts frac-11 tion. The net interest, not less than zero, from federal funds shall be 12 included in the denominator of the receipts fraction. Net interest from 13 federal funds shall be determined after deduction of interest expense 14 from federal funds.

15 (vii) Dividends from stock, net gains, not less than zero, from sales 16 of stock and net gains, not less than zero, from sales of partnership 17 interests shall not be included in either the numerator or denominator 18 of the receipts fraction unless the commissioner of finance determines 19 pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section that inclusion of such 20 dividends and net gains, not less than zero, is necessary to properly 21 reflect the business income or capital of the taxpayer.

22 (viii)(A) Receipts constituting interest from other financial instru-23 ments shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction if the 24 payor is located within the city. Receipts constituting interest from 25 other financial instruments, whether the payor is within or without the 26 city, shall be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.

27 (B) Net gains, not less than zero, from sales of other financial 28 instruments and other income, not less than zero, from other financial 29 instruments where the purchaser or payor is located within the city 30 shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction, provided 31 that, if the purchaser or payor is a registered securities broker or 32 dealer or the transaction is made through a licensed exchange, then 33 eight percent of the net gains, not less than zero, or other income, not 34 less than zero, shall be included in the numerator of the receipts frac-35 tion. Net gains, not less than zero, from sales of other financial 36 instruments and other income, not less than zero, from other financial 37 instruments shall be included in the denominator of the receipts frac-38 tion.

39 (ix) Net income, not less than zero, from sales of physical commod-40 ities shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction as 41 provided in this clause. The amount of net income from sales of physical 42 commodities included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be 43 determined by multiplying the net income from sales of physical commod-44 ities by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the amount of 45 receipts from sales of physical commodities actually delivered to points 46 within the city or, if there is no actual delivery of the physical 47 commodity, sold to purchasers located within the city, and the denomina-48 tor of which shall be the amount of receipts from sales of physical 49 commodities actually delivered to points within and without the city or, 50 if there is no actual delivery of the physical commodity, sold to 51 purchasers located within and without the city. Net income, not less 52 than zero, from sales of physical commodities shall be included in the 53 denominator of the receipts fraction. Net income, not less than zero, 54 from sales of physical commodities shall be determined after the 55 deduction of the cost to acquire or produce the physical commodities.

1 (x)(A) For purposes of this subdivision, "marked to market" means that 2 a financial instrument is, under section four hundred seventy-five or 3 section twelve hundred fifty-six of the internal revenue code, treated 4 by the taxpayer as sold for its fair market value on the last business 5 day of the taxpayer's taxable year. "Marked to market gain or loss" 6 means the gain or loss recognized by the taxpayer under section four 7 hundred seventy-five or section twelve hundred fifty-six of the internal 8 revenue code because the financial instrument is treated as sold for its 9 fair market value on the last business day of the taxpayer's taxable
10 year.

11 (B) The amount of marked to market net gains, not less than zero, from 12 each type of financial instrument that is marked to market included in 13 the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be determined by multiply-14 ing the marked to market net gains, not less than zero, from such type 15 of financial instrument by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be 16 the numerator of the receipts fraction for net gains from that type of 17 financial instrument determined under the applicable clause of this 18 subparagraph and the denominator of which shall be the denominator of 19 the receipts fraction for net gains from that type of financial instru-20 ment determined under the applicable clause of this subparagraph. Marked 21 to market net gains, not less than zero, from financial instruments for 22 which the numerator of the receipts fraction for net gains is determined 23 under this subparagraph shall be included in the denominator of the 24 receipts fraction.

25 (C) If the type of financial instrument that is marked to market is 26 not otherwise sourced by the taxpayer under this subparagraph, or if the 27 taxpayer has a net loss from the sales of that type of financial instru-28 ment under the applicable clause of this subparagraph, the amount of 29 marked to market net gains, not less than zero, from that type of finan-30 cial instrument included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall 31 be determined by multiplying the marked to market net gains, but not 32 less than zero, from that type of financial instrument by a fraction, 33 the numerator of which shall be the sum of the amount of receipts 34 included in the numerator of the receipts fraction under clauses (i) 35 through (ix) of this subparagraph and subclause (B) of this clause, and 36 the denominator of which shall be the sum of the amount of receipts 37 included in the denominator of the receipts fraction under clauses (i) 38 through (ix) of this subparagraph and subclause (B) of this clause.
39 Marked to market net gains, not less than zero, for which the amount to 40 be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction is determined 41 under this subparagraph shall be included in the denominator of the 42 receipts fraction.

43 (b) Receipts of a registered securities broker or dealer from securi-44 ties or commodities broker or dealer activities described in this para-45 graph shall be deemed to be generated within the city as described in 46 subparagraphs one through eight of this paragraph. Receipts from such 47 activities generated within the city shall be included in the numerator 48 of the receipts fraction. Receipts from such activities generated within 49 and without the city shall be included in the denominator of the 50 receipts fraction. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "securi-51 ties" shall have the same meaning as in paragraph two of subsection (c) 52 of section four hundred seventy-five of the internal revenue code and 53 the term "commodities" shall have the same meaning as in paragraph two 54 of subsection (e) of section four hundred seventy-five of the internal 55 revenue code.

1 (1) Receipts constituting brokerage commissions derived from the 2 execution of securities or commodities purchase or sales orders for the 3 accounts of customers shall be deemed to be generated within the city if 4 the mailing address in the records of the taxpayer of the customer who 5 is responsible for paying such commissions is within the city.

6 (2) Receipts constituting margin interest earned on behalf of broker-7 age accounts shall be deemed to be generated within the city if the 8 mailing address in the records of the taxpayer of the customer who is 9 responsible for paying such margin interest is within the city.

10 (3) (i) Receipts constituting fees earned by the taxpayer for advisory 11 services to a customer in connection with the underwriting of securities 12 for such customer, such customer being the entity that is contemplating 13 issuing or is issuing securities, or fees earned by the taxpayer for 14 managing an underwriting shall be deemed to be generated within the city 15 if the mailing address in the records of the taxpayer of such customer 16 who is responsible for paying such fees is within the city.

17 (ii) Receipts constituting the primary spread of selling concession 18 from underwritten securities shall be deemed to be generated within the 19 city if the customer is located within the city.

20 (iii) The term "primary spread" means the difference between the price 21 paid by the taxpayer to the issuer of the securities being marketed and 22 the price received from the subsequent sale of the underwritten securi-23 ties at the initial public offering price, less any selling concession 24 and any fees paid to the taxpayer for advisory services or any manager's 25 fees, if such fees are not paid by the customer to the taxpayer sepa-26 rately. The term "public offering price" means the price agreed upon by 27 the taxpayer and the issuer at which the securities are to be offered to 28 the public. The term "selling concession" means the amount paid to the 29 taxpayer for participating in the underwriting of a security where the 30 taxpayer is not the lead underwriter.

31 (4) Receipts constituting account maintenance fees shall be deemed to 32 be generated within the city if the mailing address in the records of 33 the taxpayer of the customer who is responsible for paying such account 34 maintenance fees is within the city.

35 (5) Receipts constituting fees for management or advisory services, 36 including fees for advisory services in relation to merger or acquisi-37 tion activities, but excluding fees paid for services described in para-38 graph (d) of this subdivision, shall be deemed to be generated within 39 the city if the mailing address in the records of the taxpayer of the 40 customer who is responsible for paying such fees is within the city.

41 (6) Receipts constituting interest earned by the taxpayer on loans and 42 advances made by the taxpayer to a corporation affiliated with the 43 taxpayer but with which the taxpayer is not permitted or required to 44 file a combined report pursuant to section 11-654.3 of this subchapter 45 shall be deemed to arise from services performed at the principal place 46 of business of such affiliated corporation.

47 (7) If the taxpayer receives any of the receipts enumerated in subpar-48 agraphs one through four of this paragraph as a result of a securities 49 correspondent relationship such taxpayer has with another broker or 50 dealer with the taxpayer acting in this relationship as the clearing 51 firm, such receipts shall be deemed to be generated within the city to 52 the extent set forth in each of such subparagraphs. The amount of such 53 receipts shall exclude the amount the taxpayer is required to pay to the 54 correspondent firm for such correspondent relationship. If the taxpayer 55 receives any of the receipts enumerated in subparagraphs one through 56 four of this paragraph as a result of a securities correspondent

1 relationship such taxpayer has with another broker or dealer with the 2 taxpayer acting in this relationship as the introducing firm, such 3 receipts shall be deemed to be generated within the city to the extent 4 set forth in each of such subparagraphs.

5 (8) If, for the purposes of subparagraph one, subparagraph two, clause 6 (i) of subparagraph three, subparagraph four, or subparagraph five of 7 this paragraph, the taxpayer is unable from its records to determine the 8 mailing address of the customer, eight percent of the receipts shall be 9 included in the numerator of the receipts fraction.

10 (c) Receipts relating to the bank, credit, travel, and entertainment 11 card activities described in this paragraph shall be deemed to be gener-12 ated within the city as described in subparagraphs one through four of 13 this paragraph. Receipts from such activities generated within the city 14 shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction. Receipts 15 from such activities generated within and without the city shall be 16 included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.

17 (1) Receipts constituting interest, and fees and penalties in the 18 nature of interest, from bank, credit, travel and entertainment card 19 receivables shall be deemed to be generated within the city if the mail-20 ing address of the card holder in the records of the taxpayer is within 21 the city;

22 (2) Receipts from service charges and fees from such cards shall be 23 deemed to be generated within the city if the mailing address of the 24 card holder in the records of the taxpayer is within the city;

25 (3) Receipts from merchant discounts shall be deemed to be generated 26 within the city if the merchant is located within the city. In the case 27 of a merchant with locations both within and without the city, only 28 receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from 29 locations within the city are allocated to the city. It shall be 30 presumed that the location of the merchant is the address of the 31 merchant shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer;
32 and

33 (4) Receipts from credit card authorization processing, and clearing 34 and settlement processing received by a credit card processor shall be 35 deemed to be generated within the city if the location where the credit 36 card processor's customer accesses the credit card processor's network 37 is located within the city. The amount of all other receipts received by 38 a credit card processor not specifically addressed in subdivisions one 39 through nine or subdivision twelve of this section deemed to be gener-40 ated within the city shall be determined by multiplying the total amount 41 of such other receipts by the average of (i) eight percent and (ii) the 42 percent of Staten Island access points. The percent of Staten Island 43 access points shall be the number of locations in Staten Island from 44 which the credit card processor's customers access the credit card 45 processor's network divided by the total number of locations in the 46 United States where the credit card processor's customers access the 47 credit card processor's network.

48 (d) Receipts received from an investment company arising from the sale 49 of management, administration or distribution services to such invest-50 ment company shall be included in the denominator of the receipts frac-51 tion. The portion of such receipts included in the numerator of the 52 receipts fraction, such portion referred to herein as the Staten Island 53 portion, shall be determined as provided in this paragraph.

54 (1) The Staten Island portion shall be the product of the total of 55 such receipts from the sale of such services and a fraction. The numera-56 tor of that fraction shall be the sum of the monthly percentages, as

1 defined hereinafter, determined for each month of the investment compa-
2 ny's taxable year for federal income tax purposes which taxable year 3 ends within the taxable year of the taxpayer, but excluding any month 4 during which the investment company had no outstanding shares. The 5 monthly percentage for each such month shall be determined by dividing 6 the number of shares in the investment company that are owned on the 7 last day of the month by shareholders that are located in the city by 8 the total number of shares in the investment company outstanding on that 9 date. The denominator of the fraction shall be the number of such month-10 ly percentages.

11 (2)(i) For purposes of this paragraph, an individual, estate or trust 12 shall be deemed to be located within the city if his, her or its mailing 13 address in the records of the investment company is located within the 14 city. A business entity is deemed to be located within the city if its 15 commercial domicile is located within the city.

16 (ii) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "investment company" 17 means a regulated investment company, as defined in section eight 18 hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code, and a partnership to 19 which subsection (a) of section seven thousand seven hundred four of the 20 internal revenue code applies, by virtue of paragraph three of 21 subsection (c) of section seven thousand seven hundred four of such 22 code, and that meets the requirements of subsection (b) of section eight 23 hundred fifty-one of such code. The provisions of this subparagraph 24 shall be applied to the taxable year for federal income tax purposes of 25 the business entity that is asserted to constitute an investment company 26 that ends within the taxable year of the taxpayer.

27 (iii) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "receipts received from 28 an investment company" includes amounts received directly from an 29 investment company as well as amounts received from the shareholders in 30 such investment company, in their capacity as such.

31 (iv) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "management services" 32 means the rendering of investment advice to an investment company, 33 making determinations as to when sales and purchases of securities are 34 to be made on behalf of an investment company, or the selling or 35 purchasing of securities constituting assets of an investment company, 36 and related activities, but only where such activity or activities are 37 performed pursuant to a contract with the investment company entered 38 into pursuant to subsection (a) of section fifteen of the federal 39 investment company act of nineteen hundred forty, as amended.

40 (v) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "distribution services" 41 means the services of advertising, servicing investor accounts, includ-42 ing redemptions, marketing shares or selling shares of an investment 43 company, but, in the case of advertising, servicing investor accounts, 44 including redemptions, or marketing shares, only where such service is 45 performed by a person who is, or was, in the case of a closed end compa-46 ny, also engaged in the service of selling such shares. In the case of 47 an open end company, such service of selling shares must be performed 48 pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to subsection (b) of 49 section fifteen of the federal investment company act of nineteen
50 hundred forty, as amended.

51 (vi) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "administration
52 services" includes clerical, accounting, bookkeeping, data processing,
53 internal auditing, legal and tax services performed for an investment 54 company but only if the provider of such service or services during the 55 taxable year in which such service or services are sold also sells

1 management or distribution services, as defined in subparagraph (v) of 2 this paragraph, to such investment company.

3 (e) For purposes of this subdivision, a taxpayer shall use the follow-4 ing hierarchy to determine the commercial domicile of a business entity, 5 based on the information known to the taxpayer or information that would 6 be known upon reasonable inquiry: (1) the seat of management and control 7 of the business entity; and (2) the billing address of the business 8 entity in the taxpayer's records. The taxpayer must exercise due dili-9 gence before rejecting the first method in this hierarchy and proceeding 10 to the next method.

11 (f) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "registered securities 12 broker or dealer" means a broker or dealer registered as such by the 13 securities and exchange commission or a broker or dealer registered as 14 such by the commodities futures trading commission, and shall include an 15 OTC derivatives dealer as defined under regulations of the securities 16 and exchange commission at title 17, part 240, section 3b-12 of the code 17 of federal regulations (17 CFR 240.3b-12).

18 5-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, net global 19 intangible low-taxed income shall be included in the receipts fraction 20 as provided in this subdivision. Receipts constituting net global intan-21 gible low-taxed income shall not be included in the numerator of the 22 receipts fraction. Receipts constituting net global intangible low-taxed 23 income shall be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.
24 For purposes of this subdivision, the term "net global intangible low-25 taxed income" means the amount required to be included in the taxpayer's 26 federal gross income pursuant to subsection (a) of section nine hundred 27 fifty-one-D of the internal revenue code less the amount of the 28 deduction allowed under clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph one 29 of subdivision (a) of section two hundred fifty of such code.

30 6. Receipts from the conduct of a railroad business, including surface 31 railroad, whether or not operated by steam, subway railroad, elevated 32 railroad, palace car or sleeping car business, or a trucking business 33 shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction as follows.
34 The amount of receipts from the conduct of a railroad business or a 35 trucking business included in the numerator of the receipts fraction 36 shall be determined by multiplying the amount of receipts from such 37 business by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the miles in 38 such business within the city during the period covered by the taxpay-39 er's report and the denominator of which shall be the miles in such 40 business within and without the city during such period. Receipts from 41 the conduct of the railroad business or a trucking business shall be 42 included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.

43 7. (a) Receipts of a taxpayer acting as principal from the activity of 44 air freight forwarding and like indirect air carrier receipts arising 45 from such activity shall be included in the numerator of the receipts 46 fraction as follows: one hundred percent of such receipts if both the 47 pickup and delivery associated with such receipts are made within the 48 city and fifty percent of such receipts if either the pickup or delivery 49 associated with such receipts is made within this city. Such receipts, 50 whether the pickup or delivery associated with the receipts is within or 51 without the city, shall be included in the denominator of the receipts
52 fraction.

53 (b)(1)(i) The portion of receipts of a taxpayer from aviation 54 services, other than services described in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-55 sion, but including the receipts of a qualified air freight forwarder, 56 to be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be deter-

1 mined by multiplying its receipts from such aviation services by a 2 percentage which is equal to the arithmetic average of the following 3 three percentages:

4 (A) the percentage determined by dividing the aircraft arrivals and 5 departures within the city by the taxpayer during the period covered by 6 its report by the total aircraft arrivals and departures within and 7 without the city during such period; provided, however, arrivals and 8 departures solely for maintenance or repair, refueling, where no debar-9 kation or embarkation of traffic occurs, arrivals and departures of 10 ferry and personnel training flights or arrivals and departures in the 11 event of emergency situations shall not be included in computing such 12 arrival and departure percentage; provided, further, the commissioner of 13 finance may also exempt from such percentage aircraft arrivals and 14 departures of all non-revenue flights including flights involving the 15 transportation of officers or employees receiving air transportation to 16 perform maintenance or repair services or where such officers or employ-17 ees are transported in conjunction with an emergency situation or the 18 investigation of an air disaster, other than on a scheduled flight; 19 provided, however, that arrivals and departures of flights transporting 20 officers and employees receiving air transportation for purposes other 21 than specified above, without regard to remuneration, shall be included 22 in computing such arrival and departure percentage;

23 (B) the percentage determined by dividing the revenue tons handled by 24 the taxpayer at airports within the city during such period by the total 25 revenue tons handled by it at airports within and without the city 26 during such period; and

27 (C) the percentage determined by dividing the taxpayer's originating 28 revenue within the city for such period by its total originating revenue 29 within and without the city for such period.

30 (ii) As used herein the term "aircraft arrivals and departures" means 31 the number of landings and takeoffs of the aircraft of the taxpayer and 32 the number of air pickups and deliveries by the aircraft of such taxpay-33 er; the term "originating revenue" means revenue to the taxpayer from 34 the transportation of revenue passengers and revenue property first 35 received by the taxpayer either as originating or connecting traffic at 36 airports; and the term "revenue tons handled by the taxpayer at 37 airports" means the weight in tons of revenue passengers, at two hundred 38 pounds per passenger, and revenue cargo first received either as origi-39 nating or connecting traffic or finally discharged by the taxpayer at 40 airports.

41 (2) All such receipts of a taxpayer from aviation services described 42 in this paragraph shall be included in the denominator of the receipts 43 fraction.

44 (3) A corporation is a qualified air freight forwarder with respect to 45 another corporation:

46 (i) if it owns or controls either directly or indirectly all of the 47 capital stock of such other corporation, or if all of its capital stock 48 is owned or controlled either directly or indirectly by such other 49 corporation, or if all of the capital stock of both corporations is 50 owned or controlled either directly or indirectly by the same interests;

51 (ii) if it is principally engaged in the business of air freight 52 forwarding; and

53 (iii) if its air freight forwarding business is carried on principally 54 with the airline or airlines operated by such other corporation.

55 8. (a) The amount of receipts from sales of advertising in newspapers 56 or periodicals included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall

1 be determined by multiplying the total of such receipts by a fraction, 2 the numerator of which shall be the number of newspapers and periodicals 3 delivered to points within the city and the denominator of which shall 4 be the number of newspapers and periodicals delivered to points within 5 and without the city. The total of such receipts from sales of advertis-6 ing in newspapers or periodicals shall be included in the denominator of 7 the receipts fraction.

8 (b) The amount of receipts from sales of advertising on television or 9 radio included in the numerator of the receipts fraction shall be deter-10 mined by multiplying the total of such receipts by a fraction, the 11 numerator of which shall be the number of viewers or listeners within 12 the city and the denominator of which shall be the number of viewers or 13 listeners within and without the city. The total of such receipts from 14 sales of advertising on television or radio shall be included in the 15 denominator of the receipts fraction.

16 (c) The amount of receipts from sales of advertising not described in 17 paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision that is furnished, provided or 18 delivered to, or accessed by the viewer or listener through the use of 19 wire, cable, fiber-optic, laser, microwave, radio wave, satellite or 20 similar successor media or any combination thereof, included in the 21 numerator of the receipts fraction shall be determined by multiplying 22 the total of such receipts by a fraction, the numerator of which shall 23 be the number of viewers or listeners within the city and the denomina-24 tor of which shall be the number of viewers or listeners within and 25 without the city. The total of such receipts from sales of advertising 26 described in this paragraph shall be included in the denominator of the 27 receipts fraction.

28 9. Receipts from the transportation or transmission of gas through 29 pipes shall be included in the numerator of the receipts fraction as 30 follows. The amount of receipts from the transportation or transmission 31 of gas through pipes included in the numerator of the receipts fraction 32 shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of such receipts by 33 a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the taxpayer's transporta-34 tion units within the city and the denominator of which shall be the 35 taxpayer's transportation units within and without the city. A transpor-36 tation unit is the transportation of one cubic foot of gas over a 37 distance of one mile. The total amount of receipts from the transporta-38 tion or transmission of gas through pipes shall be included in the 39 denominator of the receipts fraction.

40 10. (a) Receipts from services not addressed in subdivisions one 41 through nine or subdivision twelve of this section and other business 42 receipts not addressed in such subdivisions shall be included in the 43 numerator of the receipts fraction if the location of the customer is 44 within the city. Such receipts from customers within and without the 45 city shall be included in the denominator of the receipts fraction.
46 Whether the receipts are included in the numerator of the receipts frac-47 tion shall be determined according to the hierarchy of methods set forth 48 in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. The taxpayer must exercise due 49 diligence under each method described in such paragraph before rejecting 50 it and proceeding to the next method in the hierarchy, and must base its 51 determination on information known to the taxpayer or information that 52 would be known to the taxpayer upon reasonable inquiry.

53 (b) The hierarchy of methods is as follows: (1) the benefit is 54 received in the city; (2) delivery destination; (3) the receipts frac-55 tion for such receipts within the city determined pursuant to this 56 subdivision for the preceding taxable year; or (4) the receipts fraction

1 in the current taxable year determined pursuant to this subdivision for 2 those receipts that can be sourced using the hierarchy of sourcing meth-3 ods in subparagraphs one and two of this paragraph.

4 11. If it shall appear that the receipts fraction determined pursuant 5 to this section does not result in a proper reflection of the taxpayer's 6 business income or capital within the city, the commissioner of finance 7 is authorized in his or her discretion to adjust it, or the taxpayer may 8 request that the commissioner of finance adjust it, by (a) excluding one 9 or more items in such determination, (b) including one or more other 10 items in such determination, or (c) any other similar or different meth-11 od calculated to effect a fair and proper allocation of the business 12 income and capital reasonably attributed to the city. The party seeking 13 the adjustment shall bear the burden of proof to demonstrate that the 14 receipts fraction determined pursuant to this section does not result in 15 a proper reflection of the taxpayer's business income or capital within 16 the city and that the proposed adjustment is appropriate.

17 12. Receipts from the operation of vessels shall be included in the 18 numerator of the receipts fraction as follows. The amount of receipts 19 from the operation of vessels included in the numerator of the receipts 20 fraction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of such receipts 21 by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the aggregate number of 22 working days of the vessels owned or leased by the taxpayer in territo-23 rial waters of the city during the period covered by the taxpayer's 24 report and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate number of 25 working days of all vessels owned or leased by the taxpayer during such 26 period. Receipts from the operation of vessels shall be included in the 27 denominator of the receipts fraction.

28 § 11-654.3 Combined reports. 1. (a) The tax on a combined report shall 29 be the highest of (1) the combined business income multiplied by the tax 30 rate specified in clause (i) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of 31 subdivision one of section 11-654 of this subchapter; (2) the combined 32 capital multiplied by the tax rate specified in clause (ii) of subpara-33 graph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section 11-654 of this 34 subchapter, but not exceeding the limitation provided for in such clause 35 (ii); or (3) the fixed dollar minimum that is attributable to the desig-36 nated agent of the combined group. In addition, the tax on a combined 37 report shall include the fixed dollar minimum tax specified in clause 38 (iv) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section 39 11-654 of this subchapter for each member of the combined group, other 40 than the designated agent, that is a taxpayer.

41 (b) The combined business income base is the amount of the combined 42 business income of the combined group that is allocated to the city, 43 reduced by any prior net operating loss conversion subtraction and any 44 net operating loss deduction for the combined group. The combined capi-45 tal base is the amount of the combined capital of the combined group 46 that is allocated to the city.

47 2. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, any 48 taxpayer (1) which owns or controls either directly or indirectly more 49 than fifty percent of the voting power of the capital stock of one or 50 more other corporations, or (2) more than fifty percent of the voting 51 power of the capital stock of which is owned or controlled either 52 directly or indirectly by one or more other corporations, or (3) more 53 than fifty percent of the voting power of the capital stock of which and 54 the capital stock of one or more other corporations, is owned or 55 controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same interests, and (4) that 56 is engaged in a unitary business with those corporations, hereinafter

1 referred to as "related corporations", shall make a combined report with 2 those other corporations.

3 (b) A corporation required to make a combined report within the mean-4 ing of this section shall also include (1) a captive REIT and a captive
5 RIC; (2) a combinable captive insurance company; and (3) an alien corpo-6 ration that satisfies the conditions in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-7 sion if (i) under any provision of the internal revenue code, that 8 corporation is treated as a "domestic corporation" as defined in section 9 seven thousand seven hundred one of the internal revenue code, or (ii) 10 it has effectively connected income for the taxable year pursuant to 11 clause (iii) of the opening paragraph of subdivision eight of section
12 11-652 of this subchapter.

13 (c) A corporation required or permitted to make a combined report 14 under this section does not include (1) a corporation that is taxable 15 under a tax imposed by subchapter two or three of this chapter or chap-16 ter eleven of this title, except for a vendor of utility services that 17 is taxable under both chapter eleven of this title and this subchapter, 18 or would be taxable under a tax imposed by subchapter two or three of 19 this chapter or chapter eleven of this title, except for a vendor of 20 utility services that is taxable under both chapter eleven of this title 21 and this subchapter, or would have been taxable as an insurance corpo-22 ration under the former part IV, title R, chapter forty-six of the 23 administrative code as in effect on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred 24 seventy-four; (2) a REIT that is not a captive REIT, and a RIC that is 25 not a captive RIC; or (3) an alien corporation that under any provision 26 of the internal revenue code is not treated as a "domestic corporation" 27 as defined in section seven thousand seven hundred one of such code and 28 has no effectively connected income for the taxable year pursuant to 29 clause (iii) of the opening paragraph of subdivision eight of section 30 11-652 of this subchapter. If a corporation is subject to tax under this 31 subchapter solely as a result of its ownership of a limited partner 32 interest in a limited partnership that is doing business, employing 33 capital, owning or leasing property, or maintaining an office in this 34 city, and none of the corporation's related corporations are subject to 35 tax under this subchapter, such corporation shall not be required or 36 permitted to file a combined report under this section with such related 37 corporations.

38 (d) A combined report shall be filed by the designated agent of the 39 combined group as determined under subdivision seven of this section.

40 3. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of subdivision two 41 of this section, a taxpayer may elect to treat as its combined group all 42 corporations that meet the ownership requirements described in paragraph 43 (a) of subdivision two of this section, such corporations collectively 44 referred to in this subdivision as the "commonly owned group". If that 45 election is made, the commonly owned group shall calculate the combined 46 business income, combined business capital, and fixed dollar minimum 47 amount of all members of the group in accordance with paragraph four of 48 this subdivision, whether or not that business income or business capi-49 tal is from a single unitary business.

50 (b) The election under this subdivision shall be made on an original, 51 timely filed return, determined with regard to extensions, of the 52 combined group. Any corporation entering a commonly owned group subse-53 quent to the year of election shall be included in the combined group 54 and is considered to have waived any objection to its inclusion in the 55 combined group.

1 (c) The election shall be irrevocable, and binding for and applicable 2 to the taxable year for which it is made and for the next six taxable 3 years. The election will automatically be renewed for another seven 4 taxable years after it has been in effect for seven taxable years unless 5 it is affirmatively revoked. The revocation shall be made on an 6 original, timely filed return, determined with regard to extensions, for 7 the first taxable year after the completion of a seven year period for 8 which an election under this subdivision was in place. In the case of a 9 revocation, a new election under this subdivision shall not be permitted 10 in any of the immediately following three taxable years. In determining 11 the seven and three year periods described in this paragraph, short 12 taxable years shall not be considered or counted.

13 4. (a) In computing the tax bases for a combined report, the combined 14 group shall generally be treated as a single corporation, except as 15 otherwise provided, and subject to any regulations or guidance issued by 16 the commissioner of finance or the department of finance.

17 (b)(1) In computing combined business income, all intercorporate divi-18 dends shall be eliminated, and all other intercorporate transactions 19 shall be deferred in a manner similar to the United States treasury 20 department regulations relating to intercompany transactions under 21 section fifteen hundred two of the internal revenue code.

22 (2) In computing combined capital, all intercorporate stockholdings, 23 intercorporate bills, intercorporate notes receivable and payable, 24 intercorporate accounts receivable and payable, and other intercorporate 25 indebtedness, shall be eliminated.

26 (c) Qualification for credits, including any limitations thereon, 27 shall be determined separately for each of the members of the combined 28 group, and shall not be determined on a combined group basis, except as 29 otherwise provided. However, the credits shall be applied against the 30 combined tax of the group. To the extent that a provision of section 31 11-654 of this subchapter, or any other applicable section of this 32 subchapter, limits a credit to the fixed dollar minimum amount 33 prescribed in clause (iv) of subparagraph one of paragraph (e) of subdivi-34 sion one of section 11-654 of this subchapter, such fixed dollar mini-35 mum amount shall be the fixed dollar minimum amount that is attributable 36 to the designated agent of the combined group.

37 (d)(1) A net operating loss deduction is allowed in computing the 38 combined business income base. Such deduction may reduce the tax on the 39 combined business income base to the higher of the tax on the combined 40 capital or the fixed dollar minimum amount that is attributable to the 41 designated agent of the combined group. A combined net operating loss 42 deduction is equal to the amount of combined net operating loss or loss-43 es from one or more taxable years that are carried forward or carried 44 back to a particular taxable year. A combined net operating loss is the 45 combined business loss incurred in a particular taxable year multiplied 46 by the combined business allocation percentage for that year determined 47 as provided in subdivision five of this section.

48 (2) The combined net operating loss deduction and combined net operat-49 ing loss are also subject to the provisions contained in paragraphs (a) 50 through (g) of subdivision three of section 11-654.1 of this subchapter.

51 (3) In the case of a corporation that files a combined report, either 52 in the year the net operating loss is incurred or in the year in which a 53 deduction is claimed on account of the loss, the combined net operating 54 loss deduction is determined as if the combined group is a single corpo-55 ration and, to the extent possible and not otherwise inconsistent with 56 this subdivision, is subject to the same limitations that would apply

1 for federal income tax purposes under the internal revenue code and the 2 code of federal regulations as if such corporation had filed for such 3 taxable year a consolidated federal income tax return with the same 4 corporations included in the combined report. If a corporation files a 5 combined report, regardless of whether it filed a separate return or 6 consolidated return for federal income tax purposes, the net operating 7 loss and net operating loss deduction for the combined group must be 8 computed as if the corporation had filed a consolidated return for the 9 same corporations for federal income tax purposes.

10 (4) In general, any net operating loss carryover from a year in which 11 a combined report was filed shall be based on the combined net operating 12 loss of the group of corporations filing such report. The portion of the 13 combined loss attributable to any member of the group that files a sepa-14 rate report for a succeeding taxable year will be an amount bearing the 15 same relation to the combined loss as the net operating loss of such 16 corporation bears to the total net operating loss of all members of the 17 group having such losses to the extent that they are taken into account 18 in computing the combined net operating loss.

19 (d-1) A prior net operating loss conversion subtraction is allowed in 20 computing the combined business income base, as provided in subdivisions 21 one and two of section 11-654.1 of this subchapter. Such subtraction may 22 reduce the tax on combined business income to the higher of the tax on 23 combined capital or the fixed dollar minimum amount that is attributable 24 to the designated agent of the combined group.

25 (e)(i) Any election made pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision 26 five, paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision five-a of section 11-652 of 27 this subchapter, and paragraph (g) of subdivision three of section 28 11-654.1 of this subchapter shall apply to all members of the combined 29 group.

30 (ii) The determination of whether or not the limitation on investment 31 income provided in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 32 five of section 11-652 of this subchapter to the combined group shall be 33 based on the investment income of the combined group, determined without 34 regard to interest expenses attributable to investment capital or 35 investment income, and the entire net income of the combined group.

36 (f)(1) In the case of a captive REIT or captive RIC required under 37 this section to be included in a combined report, entire net income 38 shall be computed as required under subdivision seven, in the case of a 39 captive REIT, or subdivision eight, in the case of a captive RIC, of 40 section 11-653 of this subchapter. However, the deduction under the 41 internal revenue code for dividends paid by the captive REIT or captive 42 RIC to any member of the affiliated group that includes the corporation 43 that directly or indirectly owns over fifty percent of the voting stock 44 of the captive REIT or captive RIC shall not be allowed. For purposes of 45 this subparagraph, the term "affiliated group" means "affiliated group" 46 as defined in section fifteen hundred four of the internal revenue code, 47 but without regard to the exceptions provided for in subsection (b) of 48 that section.

49 (2) In the case of a combinable captive insurance company required 50 under this section to be included in a combined report, entire net 51 income shall be computed as required by subdivision eight of section 52 11-652 of this subchapter.

53 (g) If more than one member of a combined group is eligible for any of 54 the modifications described in paragraphs (q), (r) or (s) of subdivision 55 eight of section 11-652 of this subchapter, all such members must 56 utilize the same modification.

1 5. (a) In determining the business allocation percentage for a 2 combined report, the receipts, net income, net gains and other items of 3 each member of the combined group, whether or not they are a taxpayer, 4 are included and intercorporate receipts, income and gains are elimi-5 nated. Receipts, net income, net gains and other items are sourced, and 6 the amounts allowed in the receipts fraction are determined, as provided 7 in section 11-654.2 of this subchapter.

8 (b) An election made to allocate income and gains from qualifying 9 financial instruments pursuant to subparagraph one of paragraph (a) of 10 subdivision five of section 11-654.2 of this subchapter shall apply to 11 all members of the combined group.

12 6. Every member of the combined group that is subject to tax under 13 this article shall be jointly and severally liable for the tax due 14 pursuant to a combined report.

15 7. Each combined group shall appoint a designated agent for the 16 combined group, which shall be a taxpayer. Only the designated agent may 17 act on behalf of the members of the combined group for matters relating 18 to the combined report.

19 § 11-655 Reports. 1. Every corporation having an officer, agent or 20 representative within the city, shall annually on or before March 21 fifteenth for taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand 22 sixteen, and annually on or before April fifteenth for taxable years 23 beginning on or after January first, two thousand sixteen, transmit to 24 the commissioner of finance a report in a form prescribed by the commis-25 sioner of finance, setting forth such information as the commissioner of 26 finance may prescribe, except that a corporation that reports on the 27 basis of a fiscal year shall transmit such report, for taxable years 28 beginning before January first, two thousand sixteen, within two and 29 one-half months after the close of its fiscal year, and, for taxable 30 years beginning after January first, two thousand sixteen, within three 31 and one-half months after the close of its fiscal year. Every taxpayer 32 that ceases to do business in the city or to be subject to the tax 33 imposed by this subchapter shall transmit to the commissioner of finance 34 a report on the date of such cessation or at such other time as the 35 commissioner of finance may require covering each year or period for 36 which no report was theretofore filed. Every taxpayer shall also trans-37 mit such other reports and such facts and information as the commission-38 er of finance may require in the administration of this subchapter. The 39 commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of time for 40 filing reports whenever good cause exists.

41 An automatic extension of six months for the filing of its annual 42 report shall be allowed any taxpayer if, within the time prescribed by 43 the opening paragraph of this subdivision, whichever is applicable, such 44 taxpayer files with the commissioner of finance an application for 45 extension in such form as the commissioner of finance may prescribe by 46 regulation and pays on or before the date of such filing the amount 47 properly estimated as its tax.

48 2. Every report shall have annexed thereto a certification by the 49 president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief 50 accounting officer or another officer of the taxpayer duly authorized so 51 to act to the effect that the statements contained therein are true. In 52 the case of an association, within the meaning of paragraph three of 53 section (a) of section seventy-seven hundred one of the internal revenue 54 code, a publicly-traded partnership treated as a corporation for 55 purposes of the internal revenue code pursuant to section seventy-seven 56 hundred four thereof and any business conducted by a trustee or trustees

1 wherein interest or ownership is evidenced by certificates or other 2 written instruments, such certification shall be made by any person duly 3 authorized so to act on behalf of such association, publicly-traded 4 partnership or business. The fact that an individual's name is signed on 5 a certification of the report shall be prima facie evidence that such 6 individual is authorized to sign and certify the report on behalf of the 7 corporation. Blank forms of reports shall be furnished by the commis-8 sioner of finance, on application, but failure to secure such a blank 9 shall not release any corporation from the obligation of making any 10 report required by this subchapter.

11 2-a. The commissioner of finance may prescribe regulations and 12 instructions requiring returns of information to be made and filed in 13 conjunction with the reports required to be filed pursuant to this 14 section, relating to payments made to shareholders owning, directly or 15 indirectly, individually or in the aggregate, more than fifty percent of 16 the issued capital stock of the taxpayer, where such payments are treat-17 ed as payments of interest in the computation of entire net income 18 reported on such reports.

19 3. If the amount of taxable income or other basis of tax for any year 20 of any taxpayer as returned to the United States treasury department or 21 the New York state commissioner of taxation and finance is changed or 22 corrected by the commissioner of internal revenue or other officer of 23 the United States or the New York state commissioner of taxation and 24 finance or other competent authority, or where a renegotiation of a 25 contract or subcontract with the United States or the state of New York 26 results in a change in taxable income or other basis of tax, or where a 27 recovery of a war loss results in a computation or recomputation of any 28 tax imposed by the United States or the state of New York, or if a 29 taxpayer, pursuant to subsection (d) of section sixty-two hundred thir-30 teen of the internal revenue code, executes a notice of waiver of the 31 restrictions provided in subsection (a) of said section, or if a taxpay-32 er, pursuant to subsection (f) of section one thousand eighty-one of the 33 tax law, executes a notice of waiver of the restrictions provided in 34 subsection (c) of said section, such taxpayer shall report such changed 35 or corrected taxable income or other basis of tax, or the results of 36 such renegotiation, or such computation, or recomputation, or such 37 execution of such notice of waiver and the changes or corrections of the 38 taxpayer's federal or New York state taxable income or other basis of 39 tax on which it is based, within ninety days, or one hundred twenty 40 days, in the case of a taxpayer making a combined report under this 41 subchapter for such year, after such execution or the final determi-42 nation of such change or correction or renegotiation, or such computa-43 tion, or recomputation, or as required by the commissioner of finance, 44 and shall concede the accuracy of such determination or state wherein it 45 is erroneous. The allowance of a tentative carryback adjustment based 46 upon a net operating loss carryback or net capital loss carryback pursu-47 ant to section sixty-four hundred eleven of the internal revenue code 48 shall be treated as a final determination for purposes of this subdivi-49 sion. Any taxpayer filing an amended return with such department shall 50 also file within ninety days, or one hundred twenty days, in the case of 51 a taxpayer making a combined report under this subchapter for such year, 52 thereafter an amended report with the commissioner of finance.

53 4. The provisions of section 11-654.3 of this subchapter shall apply 54 to combined reports.

55 5. In case it shall appear to the commissioner of finance that any 56 agreement, understanding or arrangement exists between the taxpayer and

1 any other corporation or any person or firm, whereby the activity, busi-2 ness, income or capital of the taxpayer within the city is improperly or 3 inaccurately reflected, the commissioner of finance is authorized and 4 empowered, in its discretion and in such manner as it may determine, to 5 adjust items of income, deductions and capital, and to eliminate assets 6 in computing any allocation percentage provided only that any income 7 directly traceable thereto be also excluded from entire net income, so 8 as equitably to determine the tax. Where (a) any taxpayer conducts its 9 activity or business under any agreement, arrangement or understanding 10 in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit its members 11 or stockholders, or any of them, or any person or persons directly or 12 indirectly interested in such activity or business, by entering into any 13 transaction at more or less than a fair price which, but for such agree-14 ment, arrangement or understanding, might have been paid or received 15 therefor, or (b) any taxpayer, a substantial portion of whose capital 16 stock is owned either directly or indirectly by another corporation, 17 enters into any transaction with such other corporation on such terms as 18 to create an improper loss or net income, the commissioner of finance 19 may include in the entire net income of the taxpayer the fair profits, 20 which, but for such agreement, arrangement or understanding, the taxpay-21 er might have derived from such transaction. Where any taxpayer owns, 22 directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent of the capital stock of 23 another corporation subject to tax under section fifteen hundred two-a 24 of the tax law and fifty percent or less of whose gross receipts for the 25 taxable year consist of premiums, the commissioner of finance may 26 include in the entire net income of the taxpayer, as a deemed distrib-27 ution, the amount of the net income of the other corporation that is in 28 excess of its net premium income.

29 6. An action may be brought at any time by the corporation counsel at 30 the instance of the commissioner of finance to compel the filing of 31 reports due under this subchapter.

32 7. Reports shall be preserved for five years, and thereafter until the 33 commissioner of finance orders them to be destroyed.

34 8. Where the New York state commissioner of taxation and finance 35 changes or corrects a taxpayer's sales and compensating use tax liabil-36 ity with respect to the purchase or use of items for which a sales or 37 compensating use tax credit against the tax imposed by this subchapter 38 was claimed, the taxpayer shall report such change or correction to the 39 commissioner of finance within ninety days of the final determination of 40 such change or correction, or as required by the commissioner of 41 finance, and shall concede the accuracy of such determination or state 42 wherein it is erroneous. Any taxpayer filing an amended return or report 43 relating to the purchase or use of such items shall also file within 44 ninety days thereafter a copy of such amended return or report with the 45 commissioner of finance.

46 § 11-656 Payment and lien of tax. 1. To the extent the tax imposed by 47 section 11-653 of this subchapter shall not have been previously paid 48 pursuant to section 11-658 of this subchapter:

49 (a) such tax, or the balance thereof, shall be payable to the commis-50 sioner of finance in full at the time the report is required to be 51 filed; and

52 (b) such tax, or the balance thereof, imposed on any taxpayer which 53 ceases to do business in the city or to be subject to the tax imposed by 54 this subchapter shall be payable to the commissioner of finance at the 55 time the report is required to be filed; all other taxes of any such 56 taxpayer, which pursuant to the this subdivision would otherwise be

1 payable subsequent to the time such report is required to be filed, 2 shall nevertheless be payable at such time. If the taxpayer, within the 3 time prescribed by section 11-655 of this subchapter, shall have applied 4 for an automatic extension of time to file its annual report and shall 5 have paid to the commissioner of finance on or before the date such 6 application is filed an amount properly estimated as provided by said 7 section, the only amount payable in addition to the tax shall be inter-8 est at the underpayment rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant 9 to section 11-687 of this chapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of 10 seven and one-half percent per annum upon the amount by which the tax, 11 or the portion thereof payable on or before the date the report was 12 required to be filed, exceeds the amount so paid, provided that:

13 (1) an amount so paid shall be deemed properly estimated if it is 14 either: (i) not less than ninety percent of the tax as finally deter-15 mined, or (ii) not less than the tax shown on the taxpayer's report for 16 the preceding taxable year, if such preceding year was a taxable year of 17 twelve months; and

18 (2) the time when a report is required to be filed shall be determined 19 without regard to any extension of time for filing such report.

20 2. The commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of 21 time for payment of any tax imposed by this subchapter under such condi-22 tions as the commissioner of finance deems just and proper.

23 3. Intentionally omitted.

24 § 11-657 Declaration of estimated tax. 1. Every taxpayer subject to 25 the tax imposed by section 11-653 of this subchapter shall make a decla-26 ration of its estimated tax for the current privilege period, containing 27 such information as the commissioner of finance may prescribe by regu-28 lations or instructions, if such estimated tax can reasonably be 29 expected to exceed one thousand dollars.

30 2. The term "estimated tax" means the amount which a taxpayer esti-31 mates to be the tax imposed by section 11-653 of this subchapter for the 32 current privilege period, less the amount which it estimates to be the 33 sum of any credits allowable against the tax.

34 3. In the case of a taxpayer which reports on the basis of a calendar 35 year, a declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before June 36 fifteenth of the current privilege period, except that if the require-37 ments of subdivision one of this section are first met:

38 (a) after May thirty-first and before September first of such current 39 privilege period, the declaration shall be filed on or before September 40 fifteenth; or

41 (b) after August thirty-first and before December first of such 42 current privilege period, the declaration shall be filed on or before 43 December fifteenth.

44 4. A taxpayer may amend a declaration under regulations of the commis-45 sioner of finance.

46 5. If, on or before February fifteenth of the succeeding year in the 47 case of a taxpayer which reports on the basis of a calendar year, a 48 taxpayer files its report for the year for which the declaration is 49 required, and pays therewith the balance, if any, of the full amount of 50 the tax shown to be due on the report:

51 (a) such report shall be considered as its declaration if no declara-52 tion is required to be filed during the calendar or fiscal year for 53 which the tax was imposed, but is otherwise required to be filed on or 54 before December fifteenth pursuant to subdivision three of this section; 55 and

1 (b) such report shall be considered as the amendment permitted by 2 subdivision four of this section to be filed on or before December 3 fifteenth if the tax shown on the report is greater than the estimated 4 tax shown on a declaration previously made.

5 6. This section shall apply to privilege periods of twelve months 6 other than a calendar year by the substitution of the months of such 7 fiscal year for the corresponding months specified in this section.

8 7. If the privilege period for which a tax is imposed by section 9 11-653 of this subchapter is less than twelve months, every taxpayer 10 required to make a declaration of estimated tax for such privilege peri-11 od shall make such a declaration in accordance with regulations of the 12 commissioner of finance.

13 8. The commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of 14 time, not to exceed three months, for the filing of any declaration 15 required pursuant to this section, on such terms and conditions as it 16 may require.

17 § 11-658 Payments on account of estimated tax. 1. For taxable years 18 beginning before January first, two thousand sixteen, every taxpayer 19 subject to the tax imposed by section 11-653 of this subchapter shall 20 pay with the report required to be filed for the preceding privilege 21 period, if any, or with an application for extension of the time and 22 filing such report, an amount equal to twenty-five per centum of the 23 preceding year's tax if such preceding year's tax exceeded one thousand 24 dollars. For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two 25 thousand sixteen, every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by section 26 11-653 of this subchapter shall pay on or before the fifteenth day of 27 March next succeeding the close of each such calendar year, or, in the 28 case of a taxpayer that reports on the basis of a fiscal year, within 29 two and one-half months after the close of each such fiscal year an 30 amount equal to twenty-five per centum of the second preceding year's 31 tax if the second preceding year's tax exceeded one thousand dollars.

32 2. The estimated tax with respect to which a declaration for such 33 privilege period is required shall be paid, in the case of a taxpayer 34 which reports on the basis of a calendar year, as follows:

35 (a) If the declaration is filed on or before June fifteenth, the esti-
36 mated tax shown thereon, after applying thereto the amount, if any, paid 37 during the same privilege period pursuant to subdivision one of this 38 section, shall be paid in three equal installments. One of such install-39 ments shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, one 40 shall be paid on the following September fifteenth, and one on the 41 following December fifteenth.

42 (b) If the declaration is filed after June fifteenth and not after 43 September fifteenth of such privilege period, and is not required to be 44 filed on or before June fifteenth of such period, the estimated tax 45 shown on such declaration, after applying thereto the amount, if any, 46 paid during the same privilege period pursuant to subdivision one of 47 this section, shall be paid in two equal installments. One of such 48 installments shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration 49 and one shall be paid on the following December fifteenth.

50 (c) If the declaration is filed after September fifteenth of such 51 privilege period, and is not required to be filed on or before September 52 fifteenth of such privilege period, the estimated tax shown on such 53 declaration, after applying thereto the amount, if any, paid in respect 54 to such privilege period pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 55 shall be paid in full at the time of the filing of the declaration.

1 (d) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed therefor, or 2 after the expiration of any extension of time therefor, paragraphs (b) 3 and (c) of this subdivision shall not apply, and there shall be paid at 4 the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax payable at or 5 before such time, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the 6 times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been paya-7 ble if the declaration had been filed when due.

8 3. If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining install-9 ments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased, as the case may 10 be, to reflect any increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason 11 of such amendment, and if any amendment is made after September 12 fifteenth of the privilege period, any increase in the estimated tax by 13 reason thereof shall be paid at the time of making such amendment.

14 4. Any amount paid shall be applied after payment as a first install-15 ment against the estimated tax of the taxpayer for the current privilege 16 period shown on the declaration required to be filed pursuant to section 17 11-657 of this subchapter or, if no declaration of estimated tax is 18 required to be filed by the taxpayer pursuant to such section, any such 19 amount shall be considered a payment on account of the tax shown on the 20 report required to be filed by the taxpayer for such privilege period.

21 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-679 of this chapter or 22 of section three-a of the general municipal law, if an amount paid 23 pursuant to subdivision one of this section exceeds the tax shown on the 24 report required to be filed by the taxpayer for the privilege period 25 during which the amount was paid, interest shall be allowed and paid on 26 the amount by which the amount so paid pursuant to such subdivision 27 exceeds such tax, at the overpayment rate set by the commissioner of 28 finance pursuant to section 11-687 of this chapter, or, if no rate is 29 set, at the rate of four percent per annum from the date of payment of 30 the amount so paid pursuant to such subdivision to the fifteenth day of 31 the third month following the close of the privilege period, provided, 32 however, that no interest shall be allowed or paid under this subdivi-33 sion if the amount thereof is less than one dollar or if such interest 34 becomes payable solely because of a carryback of a net operating loss in 35 a subsequent privilege period.

36 6. As used in this section, "the preceding year's tax" means the tax 37 imposed upon the taxpayer by section 11-653 of this subchapter for the 38 preceding calendar or fiscal year, or, for purposes of computing the 39 first installment of estimated tax when either the mandatory first 40 installment is paid pursuant to subdivision one of this section or an 41 application has been filed for extension of the time for filing the 42 report required to be filed for such preceding calendar or fiscal year, 43 the amount properly estimated pursuant to section 11-657 of this 44 subchapter as the tax imposed upon the taxpayer for such calendar or 45 fiscal year. As used in this section, "the second preceding year's tax" 46 means the tax imposed upon the taxpayer by section 11-653 of this 47 subchapter for the second preceding calendar of fiscal year.

48 7. This section shall apply to a privilege period of less than twelve 49 months in accordance with regulations of the commissioner of finance.

50 8. The provisions of this section shall apply to privilege periods of 51 twelve months other than a calendar year by the substitution of the 52 months of such fiscal year for the corresponding months specified in 53 such provisions.

54 9. The commissioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of 55 time, not to exceed six months, for payment of any installment of esti-56 mated tax required pursuant to this section, on such terms and condi-

1 tions as the commissioner of finance may require including the furnish-2 ing of a bond or other security by the taxpayer in an amount not 3 exceeding twice the amount for which any extension of time for payment 4 is granted, provided, however, that interest at the underpayment rate 5 set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to section 11-687 of this 6 subchapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-half 7 percent per annum for the period of the extension shall be charged and 8 collected on the amount for which any extension of time for payment is 9 granted under this subdivision.

10 10. A taxpayer may elect to pay any installment of estimated tax prior 11 to the date prescribed in this section for payment thereof.

12 11. Intentionally omitted.

13 § 11-659 Collection of taxes. Every foreign corporation, other than a 14 moneyed corporation, subject to the provisions of this subchapter, 15 except a corporation having authority to do business by virtue of 16 section thirteen hundred five of the business corporation law, shall 17 file in the department of state a certificate of designation in its 18 corporate name, signed and acknowledged by its president or a vice-pre-19 sident or its secretary or treasurer, under its corporate seal, desig-20 nating the secretary of state as its agent upon whom process in any 21 action provided for by this subchapter may be served within this state, 22 and setting forth an address to which the secretary of state shall mail 23 a copy of any such process against the corporation which may be served 24 upon the secretary of state. In case any such corporation shall have 25 failed to file such certificate of designation, it shall be deemed to 26 have designated the secretary of state as its agent upon whom such proc-27 ess against it may be served; and until a certificate of designation 28 shall have been filed the corporation shall be deemed to have directed 29 the secretary of state to mail copies of process served upon him or her 30 to the corporation at its last known office address within or without 31 the state. When a certificate of designation has been filed by such 32 corporation the secretary of state shall mail copies of process there-33 after served upon the secretary of state to the address set forth in 34 such certificate. Any such corporation, from time to time, may change 35 the address to which the secretary of state is directed to mail copies 36 of process, by filing a certificate to that effect executed, signed and 37 acknowledged in like manner as a certificate of designation as herein 38 provided. Service of process upon any such corporation or upon any 39 corporation having a certificate of authority under section eight 40 hundred five of the limited liability company law or having authority to 41 do business by virtue of section thirteen hundred five of the business 42 corporation law, in any action commenced at any time pursuant to the 43 provisions of this subchapter, may be made by either: (a) personally 44 delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, a deputy secre-45 tary of state or with any person authorized by the secretary of state to 46 receive such service duplicate copies thereof at the office of the 47 department of state in the city of Albany, in which event the secretary 48 of state shall forthwith send by registered mail, return receipt 49 requested, one of such copies to the corporation at the address desig-50 nated by it or at its last known office address within or without the 51 state, or (b) personally delivering to and leaving with the secretary of 52 state, a deputy secretary of state or with any person authorized by the 53 secretary of state to receive such service, a copy thereof at the office 54 of the department of state in the city of Albany and by delivering a 55 copy thereof to, and leaving such copy with, the president, vice-presi-56 dent, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer, assistant treasurer, or

1 cashier of such corporation, or the officer performing corresponding 2 functions under another name, or a director or managing agent of such 3 corporation, personally without the state. Proof of such personal 4 service without the state shall be filed with the clerk of the court in 5 which the action is pending within thirty days after such service, and 6 such service shall be complete ten days after proof thereof is filed.

7 § 11-660 Limitations of time. The provisions of the civil practice law 8 and rules relative to the limitation of time enforcing a civil remedy 9 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken to levy, appraise, 10 assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or penalty 11 prescribed by this subchapter, provided, however, that as to real estate 12 in the hands of persons who are owners thereof who would be purchasers 13 in good faith but for such tax or penalty and as to the lien on real 14 estate of mortgages held by persons who would be holders thereof in good 15 faith but for such tax or penalty, all such taxes and penalties shall 16 cease to be a lien on such real estate as against such purchasers or 17 holders after the expiration of ten years from the date such taxes 18 became due and payable. The limitations herein provided for shall not 19 apply to any transfer from a corporation to a person or corporation with 20 intent to avoid payment of any taxes, or where with like intent the 21 transfer is made to a grantee corporation, or any subsequent grantee 22 corporation, controlled by such grantor or which has any community of 23 interest with it, either through stock ownership or otherwise.

25 TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION TAX

26 § 11-662 Tax on transportation corporations and associations. 1.
27 The term "corporation" as used in this subchapter shall include any 28 business conducted by a trustee or trustees wherein interest or owner-29 ship is evidenced by certificates or other written instruments.

30 2. For the privilege of doing business or holding property in the 31 city every corporation, joint-stock company or association formed for or 32 principally engaged in the conduct of aviation, steamboat, ferry, except 33 a ferry company operating between the city of Staten Island and any of 34 the boroughs of the city of New York under a lease granted by the city 35 of New York, or navigation business, or formed for or principally 36 engaged in the conduct of two or more of such businesses, except a 37 corporation, joint-stock company or association subject to taxation
38 under chapter eleven of this title, shall pay, in advance, an annual tax 39 to be computed upon the basis of the amount of its capital stock within 40 the city during the preceding year, and upon each dollar of such amount.

41 3. The measure of the amount of capital stock in the city, except as 42 hereinafter provided, shall be such a portion of the issued capital 43 stock as the gross assets, exclusive of obligations issued by the United 44 States and cash on hand and on deposit, employed in any business within 45 the city, bear to the gross assets, exclusive of obligations issued by 46 the United States and cash on hand and on deposit, wherever employed in 47 business. Provided, however, that in the case of a corporation taxable 48 hereunder only for the privilege of holding property, the measure shall 49 be such a portion of the issued capital stock as the gross assets,
50 exclusive of obligations issued by the United States and cash on hand 51 and on deposit, located within the city, bear to the gross assets,
52 exclusive of obligations issued by the United States and cash on hand 53 and on deposit, wherever located. The capital of a corporation invested 54 in the stock of another corporation shall be deemed to be assets located

1 where the assets of the issuing corporation, other than patents, copy-2 rights, trademarks, contracts and good will, are located.

3 4. Every corporation, joint-stock company or association subject to 4 taxation under this section shall, in any event, pay annually, for taxa-5 ble years ending on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 6 seventy-four, a minimum tax of not less than ten dollars nor less than 7 one mill, and for taxable years beginning on or after January first, 8 nineteen hundred seventy-five, a minimum tax of not less than fifteen 9 dollars nor less than one and one-half mills, on each dollar of such a 10 portion of the net value of its issued capital stock, which net value 11 for the purposes of this section shall be deemed to be not less than 12 five dollars per share, as may be determined upon such of the bases 13 herein provided for the measurement thereof as is applicable. The term 14 "net value" as used in this section shall be construed to mean not less 15 than the difference between a corporation's assets and liabilities, and 16 not less than the average price at which such stock sold during the year 17 covered by the report which forms the basis for the tax. But if the 18 dividends paid on the par value of any kind of capital stock during any 19 year ending with the thirty-first day of December amounts to six or more 20 than six per centum, the tax upon such kind of capital stock shall be at 21 the rate of one-quarter of a mill for taxable years ending on or before 22 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four, and at the rate of 23 four-tenths of a mill for taxable years beginning on or after January 24 first, nineteen hundred seventy-five for each one per centum of divi-25 dends paid and shall be computed upon the par value of such capital 26 stock, unless such a tax be less than the minimum tax hereinbefore 27 provided in this section and the commissioner of finance shall, for such 28 purpose, make a fair and equitable apportionment of the assets of the 29 corporation, joint-stock company or association, between or among the 30 different kinds of stock.

31 5. If such corporation, joint-stock company or association shall have 32 more than one kind of capital stock, and upon one of such kinds of stock 33 a dividend or dividends amounting to six or more than six per centum 34 upon the par value thereof, has been paid, and upon the other no divi-35 dend has been paid, or the dividend or dividends paid thereon amount to 36 less than six per centum upon the par value thereof, then the tax shall 37 be fixed upon each kind as hereinbefore provided.

38 6. The dividend rate for a corporation having stock without nominal or 39 par value shall be determined by dividing the amount paid as a dividend 40 or dividends during the year by the amount paid in on such stock and, if 41 the rate is six per centum or more, then for taxable years ending on or 42 before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four, the rate of 43 one-quarter of a mill for each one per centum of dividends shall be 44 applied to the amount paid in on such stock, and for taxable years 45 beginning on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-five, the 46 rate of four-tenths of a mill for each one per centum of dividends shall 47 be applied to the amount paid in on such stock, unless such tax be less 48 than the minimum tax hereinbefore in this section provided for. Any 49 consideration given by a corporation for the purchase of its own stock 50 in excess of the consideration received by it for the issuance of such 51 stock shall for the purposes of this section, be considered as a divi-52 dend.

53 7. The owning or holding in the city by any corporation of property, 54 other than property exclusively in interstate or foreign commerce, shall 55 constitute carrying on business within the city within the intent of 56 this section, except that a corporation having no property in the city

1 other than a bank balance or stocks or bonds, or one or more of such 2 kinds of property, either held for safe keeping or pledged as collateral 3 security shall not be taxable under this section, and further provided 4 that any corporation having only office furniture or fixtures, a bank 5 balance, and stocks or bonds pledged as collateral security or merely 6 deposited for safe keeping, shall not be taxable under this section.

7 8. The measure of the amount of capital stock in the city of an 8 aviation corporation shall be a portion of the issued capital stock 9 determined by applying thereto the arithmetical average of the following 10 three ratios: (a) the ratio which the aircraft arrivals and departures 11 within the city scheduled by any such corporation during the preceding 12 calendar year bear to the total aircraft arrivals and departures within 13 and without the city scheduled by it during the same period, provided 14 that in the case of non-scheduled operations all arrivals and departures 15 shall be substituted for scheduled arrivals and departures; (b) the 16 ratio which the revenue tons handled by such corporation at airports 17 within the city during the preceding calendar year bear to the total 18 revenue tons handled by it at airports within and without the city
19 during the same period; and (c) the ratio which such corporation's orig-20 inating revenue within the city for the preceding calendar years bears 21 to its total originating revenue within and without the city for the 22 same period. As used in this section, the term "aircraft arrivals and 23 departures" means the number of scheduled landings and takeoffs of the 24 aircraft of an aviation corporation, and the number of scheduled air 25 pickups and deliveries by the aircraft of such corporation, and in the 26 case of non-scheduled operations shall include all landings and 27 takeoffs, pickups and deliveries; the term "originating revenue" means 28 revenue to any such corporation from the transportation of revenue 29 passengers and revenue property first received by such corporation 30 either as originating or connecting traffic at airports; and the term 31 "revenue tons handled" by any such corporation at an airport means the 32 weight in tons of revenue passengers, at two hundred pounds per passen-33 ger, and revenue cargo first received either as originating or connect-34 ing traffic or finally discharged by such corporation at such airport.

35 9. The measure of the capital stock in the city of a corporation 36 engaged in the operation of vessels in foreign commerce shall be such 37 portion of the issued capital stock as the aggregate number of working 38 days in territorial waters of the city of all such vessels bears to the 39 aggregate number of working days of all such vessels. The dividend rate 40 for such a corporation shall be determined by dividing the amount paid 41 as a dividend or dividends on all classes of stock during the year by 42 the amount of paid-in capital and, if the rate is six per centum or 43 more, then for taxable years ending on or before December thirty-first, 44 nineteen hundred seventy-four, the rate of one-quarter of a mill for 45 each one per centum of dividends shall be applied to the amount of such 46 paid-in capital, and for taxable years beginning on or after January 47 first, nineteen hundred seventy-five, the rate of four-tenths of a mill 48 for each one per centum of dividends shall be applied to the amount of 49 such paid-in capital.

50 § 11-663 Additional tax on transportation corporations and associ-
51 ations. Every corporation, joint-stock company or association formed 52 for or principally engaged in the conduct of aviation, steamboat, ferry, 53 except a ferry company operating between the city of Staten Island and 54 any of the boroughs of the city of New York under a lease granted by the 55 city of New York, or navigation business or formed for or principally 56 engaged in the conduct of two or more of such businesses, except a

1 corporation, joint-stock company or association subject to taxation
2 under chapter eleven of this title, shall pay for the privilege of 3 carrying on its business in the city, a tax which shall be equal to 4 five-tenths of one per centum for taxable years ending on or before 5 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four, and seventy-five 6 hundredths of one per centum for taxable years beginning on or after 7 January first, nineteen hundred seventy-five upon its gross earnings 8 from all sources within the city, excluding earnings derived from busi-9 ness of a character other than wholly intra-city. Provided, however, 10 gross earnings from transportation business both originating and termi-11 nating within the city and traversing both the city and any other city, 12 any state or states or any country shall be subject to the tax imposed 13 by this section and such earnings shall be allocated to the city in the 14 same ratio that the mileage within the city bears to the total mileage 15 of such business.

16 § 11-664 Receivers, etc., conducting corporate business. Any receiv-17 er, liquidator, referee, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary or offi-18 cer or agent appointed by any court, who conducts the business of any 19 corporation, joint-stock company or association shall be subject to the 20 tax or taxes imposed by this subchapter in the same manner and to the 21 same extent as if the business were conducted by the agents or officers 22 of such corporation, joint-stock company or association. A dissolved 23 corporation, joint-stock company or association which continues to 24 conduct business shall also be subjected to the tax imposed by this 25 subchapter.

26 § 11-665 Service of process; limitation of time. 1. Every foreign 27 corporation, other than a moneyed corporation, subject to the provisions 28 of this subchapter, except a corporation having authority to do business 29 by virtue of section thirteen hundred five of the business corporation 30 law, shall file in the department of state a certificate of designation 31 in its corporate name, signed and acknowledged by its president or vice-32 president or its secretary or treasurer, under its corporate seal, 33 designating the secretary of state as its agent upon whom process in any 34 action provided for by this subchapter or subchapter five of this chap-35 ter may be served within this state, and setting forth an address to 36 which the secretary of state shall mail a copy of any such process 37 against the corporation which may be served upon the secretary of state.
38 In case any such corporation shall have failed to file such certificate 39 of designation, it shall be deemed to have designated the secretary of 40 state as its agent upon whom such process against it may be served; and 41 until a certificate of designation shall have been filed the corporation 42 shall be deemed to have directed the secretary of state to mail copies 43 of process served upon the secretary of state to the corporation at its 44 last known office address within or without the state. When a certif-45 icate of designation has been filed by such corporation the secretary of 46 state shall mail copies of process thereafter served upon the secretary 47 of state to the address set forth in such certificate. Any such corpo-48 ration, from time to time, may change the address to which the secretary 49 of state is directed to mail copies of process, by filing a certificate 50 to that effect executed, signed and acknowledged in like manner as a 51 certificate of designation as herein provided. Service of process upon 52 any such corporation or upon any corporation having authority to do 53 business by virtue of section thirteen hundred five of the business 54 corporation law, in any action commenced at any time pursuant to the 55 provisions of this subchapter or subchapter five of this chapter may be 56 made by either: (1) personally delivering to and leaving with the secre-

1 tary of state, a deputy secretary of state or with any person authorized 2 by the secretary of state to receive such service duplicate copies ther-3 eof at the office of the department of state in the city of Albany, in 4 which event the secretary of state shall forthwith send by registered 5 mail, return receipt requested, one of such copies to the corporation at 6 the address designated by it or at its last known office address within 7 or without the state, or (2) personally delivering to and leaving with 8 the secretary of state, a deputy secretary of state or with any person 9 authorized by the secretary of state to receive such service, a copy 10 thereof at the office of the department of state in the city of Albany 11 and by delivering a copy hereof to, and leaving such copy with, the 12 president, vice-president, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer, 13 assistant treasurer, or cashier of such corporation, or the officer 14 performing corresponding functions under another name, or a director or 15 managing agent of such corporation, personally without the state. Proof 16 of such personal service without the state shall be filed with the clerk 17 of the court in which the action is pending within thirty days after 18 such service, and such service shall be complete ten days after proof 19 thereof is filed.

20 2. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules relative to the 21 limitation of time of enforcing a civil remedy shall not apply to any 22 proceeding or action taken to levy, appraise, assess, determine or 23 enforce the collection of any tax or penalty prescribed by this subchap-24 ter or subchapter five of this chapter, provided, however, that as to 25 real estate in the hands of persons who are owners thereof who would be 26 purchasers in good faith but for such tax or penalty and as to the lien 27 on real estate of mortgages held by persons who would be holders thereof 28 in good faith but for such tax or penalty, all such taxes and penalties 29 shall cease to be a lien on such real estate as against such purchasers 30 or holders after the expiration of ten years from the date such taxes 31 become due and payable. The limitations provided for in this subdivi-32 sion shall not apply to any transfer from a corporation to a person or 33 corporation with intent to avoid payment of any taxes, or where with 34 like intent the transfer is made to a grantee corporation, or any subse-35 quent grantee corporation controlled by such grantor or which has any 36 community of interest with it, either through stock ownership or other-37 wise.

38 § 11-666 Exemption of corporations owned by a municipality. The 39 provisions of this subchapter shall not apply to any corporation all of 40 the capital stock of which is owned by a municipal corporation of this 41 state.

42 § 11-667 Reports of corporations. Corporations liable to pay a tax 43 under this subchapter shall report as follows:

44 1. Every corporation, association or joint-stock company liable to pay 45 a tax under section 11-662 of this subchapter shall, on or before March 46 first in each year, make a written report to the commissioner of finance 47 of its condition at the close of its business on the preceding December 48 thirty-first, stating the amount of its authorized capital stock, the 49 amount of stock paid-in, the date and rate per centum of each dividend 50 paid by it during the year ending with such day, the entire amount of 51 the capital of such corporation, and the capital employed by it in the 52 city during such year.

53 2. Every corporation, joint-stock company or association liable to pay 54 an additional tax under section 11-663 of this subchapter shall also, on 55 or before February fifteenth, May fifteenth, August fifteenth and Novem-56 ber fifteenth in each year, make a written report to the commissioner of 1 finance of the amount of its gross earnings subject to the tax imposed 2 by said section for the quarter year ended on the last day of the second 3 month preceding that in which the report is required to be filed. Any 4 such corporation, joint-stock company or association which ceases to be 5 subject to the tax imposed by section 11-663 of this subchapter by 6 reason of a liquidation, dissolution, merger or consolidation with any 7 other corporation, or any other cause, shall, on the date of such cessa-8 tion or at such other time as the commissioner of finance may require, 9 make a written report to the commissioner of finance of the amount of 10 its gross earnings subject to the tax imposed by section 11-663 of this 11 subchapter for any period for which no report was therefor filed.

12 3. The commissioner of finance may for good cause shown extend the 13 time within which any corporation is required to report by this subchap-14 ter.

15 4. Every report required by this subchapter shall have annexed thereto 16 a certification by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant 17 treasurer, or chief accounting officer or any other officer of the 18 corporation, association or joint-stock company duly authorized so to 19 act, or of the person or one of the persons, or the members of the part-20 nership making the same, to the effect that the statements contained 21 therein are true. The fact that an individual's name is signed on a 22 certification attached to a corporate report shall be prima facie 23 evidence that such individual is authorized to certify the report on 24 behalf of the corporation. Such reports shall contain any other data, 25 information or matter which the commissioner of finance may require to 26 be included therein, and it may prescribe the form in which such reports 27 shall be made. When so prescribed such forms shall be used in making 28 the report. The commissioner of finance may require at any time a 29 further or supplemental report under this subchapter which shall contain 30 information and data upon such matters as the commissioner of finance 31 may specify. Reports shall be preserved for five years, and thereafter 32 until the commissioner of finance orders them to be destroyed.

33 § 11-668 Payment of tax and penalties. 1. The taxes imposed by 34 sections 11-662 and 11-663 of this subchapter shall be due and payable 35 at the time of the filing of the report required by section 11-667 of 36 this subchapter or, in case such a report is not filed when due, on the 37 last day specified for the filing thereof, except that the tax upon 38 dividends imposed by section 11-663 of this subchapter shall be due and 39 payable at the time of filing the report for the period ending June 40 thirtieth, or, in case such report is not filed when due, on the last 41 day specified for the filing thereof.

42 2. Where an application for consent to dissolution, as provided by 43 section one thousand four of the business corporation law, is filed with 44 the commissioner of finance prior to the commencement of any tax year or 45 period by a corporation subject to tax under this subchapter, such 46 corporation shall not be liable for any tax imposed by this subchapter 47 for such following year or period, except as may be otherwise provided 48 in section 11-664 of this subchapter, provided that the certificate of 49 dissolution for such corporation is duly filed in the office of the 50 secretary of state within twenty days after the filing of such applica-
51 tion.

52 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, the commis-53 sioner of finance may grant a reasonable extension of time for payment 54 of any tax imposed by this subchapter under such conditions as the 55 commissioner deems just and proper.

1 § 11-669 Taxable years to which taxes apply. The taxes imposed by 2 this subchapter are imposed for each taxable year or period beginning 3 with taxable years or periods ending in or with the calendar year nine-4 teen hundred sixty-six, provided, however, no tax shall be imposed 5 pursuant to this subchapter for any taxable year or period ending after 6 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight.

7 § 11-670 First reports for payments for nineteen hundred sixty-six.
8 If any report under this subchapter is due prior to September eleventh, 9 nineteen hundred sixty-six, such report and the payments therewith shall 10 be filed and paid by such date.

11 SUBCHAPTER 5

12 CORPORATE TAX PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

13 § 11-671 Application of subchapter. 1. General. The provisions of 14 this subchapter shall apply to the administration of and the procedures 15 with respect to the taxes imposed by subchapters two, three, three-A and 16 four of this chapter.

17 2. Definitions. As used in this subchapter: (a) the term "named 18 subchapters" means subchapters two, three, three-A and four of this 19 chapter;

20 (b) The term "return" means a report or return of tax, but does not 21 include a declaration of estimated tax;

22 (c) The term "corporation" includes a corporation, association, joint-23 stock company or other entity subject to tax under any of the named 24 subchapters; and

25 (d) The term "person" includes a corporation, association, company, 26 partnership, estate, trust, liquidator, fiduciary or other entity or 27 individual liable for the tax imposed by any of the named subchapters or 28 under a duty to perform an act under any of the named subchapters. Upon 29 notice to the commissioner of finance that any person is acting for any 30 corporation in a fiduciary capacity, such fiduciary shall assume the 31 powers, rights, duties and privileges of such corporation in respect of 32 a tax imposed by any of the named subchapters, except as otherwise 33 specifically provided and except that the tax shall be collected from 34 the estate or other assets of such corporation in the hands of such 35 fiduciary, until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has termi-36 nated.

37 § 11-672 Notice of deficiency. 1. General. If upon examination of a 38 taxpayer's return, the commissioner of finance determines that there is 39 a deficiency of tax, the commissioner may mail a notice of deficiency to 40 the taxpayer. If a taxpayer fails to file a tax return, the commissioner 41 of finance is authorized to estimate the taxpayer's city tax liability 42 from any information in the commissioner's possession, and to mail a 43 notice of deficiency to the taxpayer. A notice of deficiency shall be 44 mailed by certified or registered mail to the taxpayer, at its last 45 known address in or out of the city. If the taxpayer has terminated its 46 existence, a notice of deficiency may be mailed to its last known 47 address in or out of the city, and such notice shall be sufficient for 48 purposes of this subchapter. If the commissioner of finance has received 49 notice that a person is acting for the taxpayer in a fiduciary capacity, 50 a copy of such notice shall also be mailed to the fiduciary named in 51 such notice.

52 2. Notice of deficiency as assessment. After ninety days from the 53 mailing of a notice of deficiency or, if the commissioner of finance has 54 established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this

1 title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in 2 accordance therewith, after ninety days from the mailing of the concil-3 iation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the 4 discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, such notice shall be an 5 assessment of the amount of tax specified therein, together with the 6 interest, additions to tax and penalties stated in such notice, except 7 only for any such tax or other amounts as to which the taxpayer has 8 within such ninety day period filed with the tax appeals tribunal a 9 petition under section 11-680 of this subchapter. If the notice of defi-10 ciency or conciliation decision is addressed to a taxpayer whose last 11 known address is outside of the United States, such period shall be one 12 hundred fifty days instead of ninety days.

13 3. Restrictions on assessment and levy. No assessment of a deficiency 14 in tax and no levy or proceeding in court for its collection shall be 15 made, begun or prosecuted, except as otherwise provided in section
16 11-685 of this subchapter, until a notice of deficiency has been mailed 17 to the taxpayer, nor until the expiration of the time for filing a peti-18 tion with the tax appeals tribunal contesting such notice, nor, if a 19 petition with respect to the taxable year has been both served on the 20 commissioner of finance and filed with the tax appeals tribunal, until 21 the decision of the tax appeals tribunal has become final. For excep-22 tion in the case of judicial review of the decision of the tax appeals 23 tribunal, see subdivision three of section 11-681 of this subchapter.

24 4. Exceptions for mathematical errors. If a mathematical error appears 25 on a return, including an overstatement of the amount paid as estimated 26 tax, the commissioner of finance shall notify the taxpayer that an 27 amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that 28 such excess has been assessed. Such notice shall not be considered as a 29 notice of deficiency for the purposes of this section, subdivision six 30 of section 11-678, limiting credits or refunds after petition to the tax 31 appeals tribunal, or subdivision two of section 11-680 of this subchap-32 ter, authorizing the filing of a petition with the tax appeals tribunal 33 based on a notice of deficiency, nor shall such assessment or collection 34 be prohibited by the provisions of subdivision three of this section.

35 5. Exception where federal or New York state change or correction is 36 not reported.

37 (a) If the taxpayer fails to comply with subchapter two, three or 38 three-A of this chapter in not reporting a change or correction or rene-39 gotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, increasing or 40 decreasing its federal or New York state taxable income, alternative 41 minimum taxable income or other basis of tax as reported on its federal 42 or New York state income tax return or in not reporting a change or 43 correction or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, 44 which is treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for 45 federal or New York state income tax purposes or in not filing an 46 amended return or in not reporting the execution of a notice of waiver 47 executed pursuant to subsection (d) of section six thousand two hundred 48 thirteen of the internal revenue code or pursuant to subdivision (f) of 49 section one thousand eighty-one of the tax law, instead of the mode and 50 time of assessment provided for in subdivision two of this section, the 51 commissioner of finance may assess a deficiency based upon such 52 increased or decreased federal or New York state taxable income, alter-53 native minimum taxable income or other basis of tax by mailing to the 54 taxpayer a notice of additional tax due specifying the amount of the 55 deficiency, and such deficiency, together with the interest, additions 56 to tax and penalties stated in such notice, shall be deemed assessed on

1 the date such notice is mailed unless within thirty days after the mail-2 ing of such notice a report of the federal or New York state change or 3 correction or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, or 4 an amended return, where such return was required by subchapter two or 5 three of this chapter, is filed accompanied by a statement showing wher-6 ein such federal or New York state determination and such notice of 7 additional tax due are erroneous.

8 (b) Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency for 9 the purposes of this section, subdivision six of section 11-678, limit-10 ing credits or refunds after petition to the tax appeals tribunal, or 11 subdivision two of section 11-680 of this subchapter, authorizing the 12 filing of a petition with the tax appeals tribunal based on a notice of 13 deficiency, nor shall such assessment or the collection thereof be 14 prohibited by the provisions of subdivision three of this section.

15 (c) If the taxpayer has terminated its existence, a notice of addi-16 tional tax due may be mailed to the taxpayer's last known address in or 17 out of the city, and such notice shall be sufficient for purposes of 18 this subchapter. If the commissioner of finance has received notice that 19 a person is acting for the taxpayer in a fiduciary capacity, a copy of 20 such notice shall also be mailed to the fiduciary named in such notice.

21 6. Waiver of restrictions. The taxpayer shall at any time, whether or 22 not a notice of deficiency has been issued, have the right to waive the 23 restrictions on assessment and collection of the whole or any part of 24 the deficiency by a signed notice in writing filed with the commissioner 25 of finance.

26 7. Two or more corporations. In case of a combined return under 27 subchapter two or three-A or a consolidated return under subchapter 28 three of two or more corporations, the commissioner of finance may 29 determine a deficiency of tax under subchapter two, three or three-A of 30 this chapter with respect to the entire tax due upon such return against 31 any taxpayer included therein. In the case of a taxpayer which might 32 have been included in such a return under subchapter two, three or 33 three-A of this chapter when the tax was originally reported, the 34 commissioner of finance may determine a deficiency of tax under subchap-35 ter two, three or three-A of this chapter against such taxpayer and 36 against any other taxpayers which might have been included in such a 37 return.

38 8. Deficiency defined. For the purposes of this subchapter, a defi-39 ciency means the amount of the tax imposed by the named subchapters, or 40 any of them, less: (a) the amount shown as the tax upon the taxpayer's 41 return, whether the return was made or the tax computed by it or by the 42 commissioner of finance, and less (b) the amounts previously assessed, 43 or collected without assessment, as a deficiency and plus (c) the amount 44 of any rebates. For the purpose of this definition, the tax imposed by 45 subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter and the tax shown on 46 the return shall both be determined without regard to any payment of 47 estimated tax; and a rebate means so much of an abatement, credit, 48 refund or other repayment, whether or not erroneous, as was made on the 49 ground that the amounts entering into the definition of a deficiency 50 showed a balance in favor of the taxpayer.

51 9. Exception where change or correction of sales and compensating use 52 tax liability is not reported.

53 (a) If a taxpayer fails to comply with subchapter two or three-A of 54 this chapter in not reporting a change or correction of its sales and 55 compensating use tax liability or in not filing a copy of an amended 56 return or report relating to its sales and compensating use tax liabil-

1 ity, instead of the mode and time of assessment provided for in subdivi-2 sion two of this section, the commissioner of finance may assess a defi-3 ciency based upon such changed or corrected sales and compensating use 4 tax liability, as same relates to credits claimed under subchapter two 5 or three-A of this chapter, by mailing to the taxpayer a notice of addi-6 tional tax due specifying the amount of the deficiency, and such defi-7 ciency, together with the interest, additions to tax and penalties stat-8 ed in such notice, shall be deemed assessed on the date such notice is 9 mailed unless within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a
10 report of the state change or correction or a copy of an amended return 11 or report, where such copy was required by subchapter two or three-A, is 12 filed accompanied by a statement showing wherein such state determi-13 nation and such notice of additional tax due are erroneous.

14 (b) Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency for 15 the purposes of this section, subdivision six of section 11-678, limit-16 ing credits or refunds after petition to the tax appeals tribunal, or 17 subdivision two of section 11-680, authorizing the filing of a petition 18 with the tax appeals tribunal based on a notice of deficiency, nor shall 19 such assessment or the collection thereof be prohibited by the 20 provisions of subdivision three of this section.

21 (c) If the taxpayer has terminated its existence, a notice of addi-22 tional tax due may be mailed to its last known address in or out of the 23 city, and such notice shall be sufficient for purposes of this subchap-24 ter. If the commissioner of finance has received notice that a person is 25 acting for the taxpayer in a fiduciary capacity, a copy of such notice 26 shall also be mailed to the fiduciary named in such notice.

27 § 11-673 Assessment. 1. Assessment date. The amount of tax which a 28 return shows to be due, or the amount of tax which a return would have 29 shown to be due but for a mathematical error, shall be deemed to be 30 assessed on the date of filing of the return, including any amended 31 return showing an increase of tax. If a notice of deficiency has been 32 mailed, the amount of the deficiency shall be deemed to be assessed on 33 the date specified in subdivision two of section 11-672 of this subchap-34 ter if no petition is both served on the commissioner of finance and 35 filed with the tax appeals tribunal, or if a petition is so served and 36 filed, then upon the date when a decision of the tax appeals tribunal 37 establishing the amount of the deficiency becomes final. If a report or 38 an amended return filed pursuant to subchapter two, three or three-A of 39 this chapter concedes the accuracy of a federal or New York state 40 adjustment or change or correction or renegotiation or computation or 41 recomputation of tax, any deficiency in tax under subchapter two, three 42 or three-A of this chapter resulting therefrom shall be deemed to be 43 assessed on the date of filing such report or amended return, and such 44 assessment shall be timely notwithstanding section 11-674 of this 45 subchapter.

46 If a report filed pursuant to subchapter two of this chapter concedes 47 the accuracy of a state change or correction of sales and compensating 48 use tax liability, any deficiency in tax under subchapter two or three-A 49 of this chapter resulting therefrom shall be deemed assessed on the date 50 of filing such report, and such assessment shall be timely notwithstand-51 ing section 11-674 of this subchapter.

52 If a notice of additional tax due, as prescribed in subdivision five 53 of section 11-672 of this subchapter, has been mailed, the amount of the 54 deficiency shall be deemed to be assessed on the date specified in such 55 subdivision unless within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a 56 report of the federal or New York state adjustment or change or

1 correction or renegotiation or computation or recomputation of tax, or 2 an amended return, where such return was required by subchapter two,
3 three or three-A of this chapter, is filed accompanied by a statement 4 showing wherein such federal or New York state determination and such 5 notice of additional tax due are erroneous.

6 If a notice of additional tax due, as prescribed in subdivision nine 7 of section 11-672 of this subchapter, has been mailed, the amount of the 8 deficiency shall be deemed to be assessed on the date specified in such 9 subdivision unless within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a 10 report of the state change or correction, or a copy of an amended return 11 or report, where such copy was required by subchapter two or three-A of 12 this chapter, is filed accompanied by a statement showing wherein such 13 state determination and such notice of additional tax due are erroneous.

14 Any amount paid as a tax or in respect of a tax, other than amounts 15 paid as estimated tax, shall be deemed to be assessed upon the date of 16 receipt of payment notwithstanding any other provisions.

17 2. Other assessment powers. If the mode or time for the assessment of 18 any tax under the named subchapters, including interest, additions to 19 tax and assessable penalties, is not otherwise provided for, the commis-20 sioner of finance may establish the same by regulations.

21 3. Estimated tax. No unpaid amount of estimated tax under subchapter 22 two, three or three-A of this chapter shall be assessed.

23 4. Supplemental assessment. The commissioner of finance may, at any 24 time within the period described for assessment, make a supplemental 25 assessment, subject to the provisions of section 11-672 of this subchap-26 ter where applicable, whenever it is ascertained that any assessment is 27 imperfect or incomplete in any material respect.

28 5. Cross reference. For assessment in case of jeopardy, see section
29 11-685 of this subchapter.

30 § 11-674 Limitations on assessment. 1. General. Except as otherwise 31 provided in this section, any tax under the named subchapters shall be 32 assessed within three years after the return was filed, whether or not 33 such return was filed on or after the date prescribed.

34 2. Time return deemed filed. For the purposes of this section, a 35 return of tax filed before the last day prescribed by law or by regu-36 lations promulgated pursuant to law for the filing thereof shall be 37 deemed to be filed on such last day.

38 3. Exceptions.

39 (a) Assessment at any time. The tax may be assessed at any time if:

40 (1) no return is filed,

41 (2) a false or fraudulent return is filed with intent to evade tax,

42 (3) in the case of the tax imposed under subchapter two, three or 43 three-A of this chapter, the taxpayer fails to file a report or amended 44 return required thereunder, in respect of an increase or decrease in 45 federal or New York state taxable income, alternative minimum taxable 46 income or other basis of tax or federal or New York state tax, or in 47 respect of a change or correction or renegotiation or in respect of the 48 execution of a notice of waiver report of which is required thereunder, 49 or computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the same 50 manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New York state income 51 tax purposes, or

52 (4) in the case of the tax imposed under subchapter two or three-A of 53 this chapter, the taxpayer fails to file a report or amended return or 54 report required thereunder, in respect of a change or correction of 55 sales and compensating use tax liability, relating to the purchase or

1 use of items for which a sales or compensating use tax credit against 2 the tax imposed by subchapter two or three-A was claimed.

3 (b) Extension by agreement. Where, before the expiration of the time
4 prescribed in this section for the assessment of tax, both the commis-5 sioner of finance and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its 6 assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to 7 the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may 8 be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expira-9 tion of the period previously agreed upon.

10 (c) Report of federal or New York state change or correction. In the 11 case of the tax imposed under subchapter two, three or three-A of this 12 chapter, if the taxpayer files a report or amended return required there-13 under, in respect of an increase or decrease in federal or New York 14 state taxable income, alternative minimum taxable income or other basis 15 of tax or federal or New York state tax, or in respect of a change or 16 correction or renegotiation, or in respect of the execution of a notice 17 of waiver report of which is required thereunder, or computation or 18 recomputation of tax, which is treated in the same manner as if it were 19 a deficiency for federal or New York state income tax purposes, the 20 assessment, if not deemed to have been made upon the filing of the 21 report or amended return may be made at any time within two years after 22 such report or amended return was filed. The amount of such assessment 23 of tax shall not exceed the amount of the increase in city tax attribut-
24 able to such federal or New York state change or correction or renegoti-25 ation, or computation or recomputation of tax. The provisions of this 26 paragraph shall not affect the time within which or the amount for which 27 an assessment may otherwise be made.

28 (d) Deficiency attributable to net operating loss carryback. If a 29 deficiency of tax under subchapter two or three-A of this chapter is 30 attributable to the application to taxpayer of a net operating loss 31 carryback or a capital loss carryback, it may be assessed at any time 32 that a deficiency for the taxable year of the loss may be assessed.

33 (e) Recovery of erroneous refund. An erroneous refund shall be 34 considered an underpayment of tax on the date made, and an assessment of 35 a deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time 36 within two years from the making of the refund, except that the assess-37 ment may be made within five years from the making of the refund if it 38 appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresen-
39 tation of a material fact.

40 (f) Request for prompt assessment. The tax shall be assessed within 41 eighteen months after written request therefor, made after the return is 42 filed, by the taxpayer or by a fiduciary representing the taxpayer, but 43 not more than three years after the return was filed, except as other-44 wise provided in this subdivision and subdivision four of this section.
45 This subdivision shall not apply unless:

46 (1) (A) such written request notifies the commissioner of finance that 47 the taxpayer contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of 48 such eighteen-month period, (B) the dissolution is in good faith begun 49 before the expiration of such eighteen-month period, (C) the dissolution 50 is completed;

51 (2) (A) such written request notifies the commissioner of finance that 52 a dissolution has in good faith been begun, and (B) the dissolution is 53 completed; or

54 (3) a dissolution has been completed at the time such written request 55 is made.

1 (g) Change of the allocation of taxpayer's income or capital. (1)
2 With regard to taxable years beginning before January first, two thou-3 sand fifteen, no change of the allocation of income or capital upon 4 which the taxpayer's return, or any additional assessment, was based 5 shall be made where an assessment of tax is made during the additional 6 period of limitation under subparagraph three or four of paragraph (a) 7 of this subdivision, or under paragraph (c), (d) or (i) of this subdivi-8 sion; and where any such assessment has been made, or where a notice of 9 deficiency has been mailed to the taxpayer on the basis of any such 10 proposed assessment, no change of the allocation of income or capital 11 shall be made in a proceeding on the taxpayer's claim for refund of such 12 assessment or on the taxpayer's petition for redetermination of such 13 deficiency.

14 (2) With regard to taxable years beginning on or after January first, 15 two thousand fifteen, no change of the allocation of income or capital 16 upon which the taxpayer's return, or any additional assessment, was 17 based shall be made where an assessment of tax is made during the addi-18 tional period of limitation under subparagraph three or four of para-19 graph (a) or under paragraph (c), (d) or (i) of this subdivision, except 20 to the extent such assessment is based on an increase or decrease in New 21 York state taxable income or other basis of tax or New York state tax, 22 or based on a change, correction or renegotiation of tax, or based on 23 the execution of a notice of waiver report which is required there-24 under, or computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the 25 same manner as if it were a deficiency for New York state income tax 26 purposes; and where any such assessment has been made, or where a notice 27 of deficiency has been mailed to the taxpayer on the basis of any such 28 proposed assessment, no change of the allocation of income or capital 29 shall be made in a proceeding on the taxpayer's claim for refund of 30 such assessment or on the taxpayer's petition for redetermination of 31 such deficiency, except to the extent such assessment is based on an 32 increase or decrease in New York state taxable income or other basis of 33 tax or New York state tax, or based on a change or correction or renegoti-34 ation of tax, or based on the execution of a notice of waiver report 35 which is required thereunder, or computation or recomputation of tax, 36 which is treated in the same manner as if it were an overpayment for New 37 York state income tax purposes.

38 (h) Report concerning waste treatment facility. Under the circum-
39 stances described in subparagraph three of paragraph (g) of subdivision 40 eight of section 11-602 of this chapter or in subparagraph three of 41 paragraph (g) of subdivision eight of section 11-652 of this chapter, 42 the tax may be assessed within three years after the filing of the 43 report containing the information required by such paragraph.

44 (i) Report of changed or corrected sales and compensating use tax 45 liability. In the case of a tax imposed under subchapter two or three-A 46 of this chapter, if the taxpayer files a report or amended return or 47 report required thereunder, in respect of a change or correction of 48 sales and compensating use tax liability, the assessment, if not deemed 49 to have been made upon the filing of the report, may be made at any time 50 within two years after such report or amended return or report was 51 filed. The amount of such assessment of tax shall not exceed the amount 52 of the increase in city tax attributable to such state change or 53 correction. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the time 54 within which or the amount for which an assessment may otherwise be 55 made.

1 4. Omission of income on return. The tax may be assessed at any time 2 within six years after the return was filed if a taxpayer omits from 3 gross income required to be reported on a return under any of the named 4 subchapters an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 5 twenty-five per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the 6 return.

7 For the purposes of this subdivision:

8 (a) the term "gross income" means gross income for federal income tax 9 purposes as reportable on a return under subchapter two or three-A of 10 this chapter and "gross earnings", "gross income," "gross operating 11 income" and "gross direct premiums less return premiums," as those terms 12 are used in whichever of the named subchapters is applicable;

13 (b) there shall not be taken into account any amount which is omitted 14 in the return if such amount is disclosed in the return, or in a state-15 ment attached to the return, in a manner adequate to apprise the commis-16 sioner of finance of the nature and amount of such item.

17 5. Suspension of running of period of limitations. The running of the 18 period of limitations on assessment or collection of tax or other 19 amount, or of a transferee's liability, shall, after the mailing of a 20 notice of deficiency, be suspended for the period during which the 21 commissioner of finance is prohibited under subdivision three of section 22 11-672 of this subchapter from making the assessment or from collecting 23 by levy.

24 § 11-675 Interest on underpayment. 1. General. If any amount of tax 25 is not paid on or before the last date prescribed in whichever of the 26 named subchapters is applicable for payment, interest on such amount at 27 the underpayment rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to 28 section 11-687 of this subchapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of 29 seven and one-half percent per annum shall be paid for the period from 30 such last date to the date paid, whether or not any extension of time 31 for payment was granted. Interest under this subdivision shall not be 32 paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

33 2. Exception as to estimated tax. This section shall not apply to any 34 failure to pay estimated tax under subchapter two, three or three-A of 35 this chapter.

36 3. Exception for mathematical error. No interest shall be imposed on 37 any underpayment of tax due solely to mathematical error if the taxpayer 38 files a return within the time prescribed in whichever of the named 39 subchapters is applicable, including any extension of time, and pays the 40 amount of underpayment within three months after the due date of such 41 return, as it may be extended.

42 4. Suspension of interest on deficiencies. If a waiver of 43 restrictions on assessment of a deficiency has been filed by the taxpay-44 er, and if notice and demand by the commissioner of finance for payment 45 of such deficiency is not made within thirty days after the filing of 46 such waiver, interest shall not be imposed on such deficiency for the 47 period beginning immediately after such thirtieth day and ending with 48 the date of notice and demand.

49 5. Tax reduced by carryback. If the amount of tax under subchapter
50 two or three-A for any taxable year is reduced by reason of a carryback 51 of a net operating loss or a capital loss, such reduction in tax shall 52 not affect the computation of interest under this section for the period 53 ending with the filing date for the taxable year in which the net oper-54 ating loss or capital loss arises. Such filing date shall be determined 55 without regard to extensions of time to file.

1 6. Interest treated as tax. Interest under this section shall be paid 2 upon notice and demand and shall be assessed, collected and paid in the 3 same manner as the taxes under the named subchapters. Any reference in 4 this subchapter to the tax imposed by the named subchapters, or any of 5 them, shall be deemed also to refer to interest imposed by this section 6 on such tax.

7 7. Interest on penalties or addition to tax. Interest shall be 8 imposed under subdivision one in respect to any assessable penalty or 9 addition to tax only if such assessable penalty or addition to tax is 10 not paid within ten days from the date of the notice and demand therefor 11 under subdivision two of section 11-683 of this subchapter in such case 12 interest shall be imposed only for the period from such date of the 13 notice and demand to the date of payment.

14 8. Payment within ten days after notice and demand. If notice and 15 demand is made for payment of any amount under subdivision two of 16 section 11-683 of this subchapter, and if such amount is paid within ten 17 days after the date of such notice and demand, interest under this 18 section on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after 19 the date of such notice and demand.

20 9. Limitation on assessment and collection. Interest prescribed under 21 this section may be assessed and collected at any time during the period 22 within which the tax or other amount to which such interest relates may 23 be assessed and collected respectively.

24 10. Interest on erroneous refund. Any portion of tax or other amount 25 which has been erroneously refunded, and which is recoverable by the 26 commissioner of finance, shall bear interest at the underpayment rate 27 set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to section 11-687 of this 28 subchapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-half 29 percent per annum from the date of the payment of the refund, but only 30 if it appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or a 31 misrepresentation of a material fact.

32 11. Satisfaction by credits. If any portion of a tax is satisfied by 33 credit of an overpayment, then no interest shall be imposed under this 34 section on the portion of the tax so satisfied for any period during 35 which, if the credit had not been made, interest would have been allow-36 able with respect to such overpayment.

37 § 11-676 Additions to tax and civil penalties. 1. (a) Failure to file
38 return. (A) In case of failure to file a return under the named 39 subchapters on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to 40 any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such failure 41 is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall 42 be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such return five 43 percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than 44 one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or 45 fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 46 twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

47 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
48 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
49 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
50 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
51 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 52 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 53 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

54 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 55 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 56 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the

1 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
2 upon the return.

3 (b) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 4 amounts shown as tax on any return required to be filed under the named 5 subchapters on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to 6 any extension of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure 7 is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall 8 be added to the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one 9 percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than 10 one month, with an additional one-half of one percent for each addi-
11 tional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, 12 not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of 13 computing the addition for any month the amount of tax shown on the 14 return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is 15 paid on or before the beginning of such month and by the amount of any 16 credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return. If the 17 amount of tax required to be shown on a return is less than the amount 18 shown as tax on such return, this paragraph shall be applied by substi-
19 tuting such lower amount.

20 (c) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 21 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 22 a return required to be filed under the named subchapters which is not 23 so shown, including an assessment made pursuant to subdivision one of 24 section 11-673 of this subchapter, within ten days of the date of a 25 notice and demand therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due 26 to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added 27 to the amount of tax stated in such notice and demand one-half of one 28 percent of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 29 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-30 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-31 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 32 for any month, the amount of tax stated in the notice and demand shall 33 be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid before the 34 beginning of such month.

35 (d) Limitations on additions.

36 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-37 graph (a) of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 38 addition under paragraph (b) of this subdivision for any month to which 39 an addition applies under both paragraphs (a) and (b). In any case 40 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the 41 amount of the addition under such paragraph (a) shall not be reduced 42 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

43 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition 44 permitted under paragraph (c) of this subdivision shall be reduced by 45 the amount of the addition under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, 46 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph (a), 47 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made 48 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

49 2. Deficiency due to negligence. (a) If any part of a deficiency is 50 due to negligence or intentional disregard of this subchapter or any of 51 the named subchapters or rules or regulations thereunder, but without 52 intent to defraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to 53 five percent of the deficiency.

54 (b) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-55 mined under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 56 percent of the interest payable under subdivision one of section 11-675

1 with respect to the portion of the deficiency described in such para-2 graph (a) which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-3 gard referred to in such paragraph (a), for the period beginning on the 4 last date prescribed by law for payment of such deficiency, determined 5 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
6 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

7 (c) If any payment is shown on a return made by a payor with respect 8 to dividends, patronage dividends and interest under subsection (a) of 9 section six thousand forty-two, subsection (a) of section six thousand 10 forty-four or subsection (a) of section six thousand forty-nine of the 11 internal revenue code of nineteen hundred fifty-four, respectively, and 12 the payee fails to include any portion of such payment in gross income, 13 as that term is defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision four of section 14 11-674, any portion of an underpayment attributable to such failure
15 shall be treated, for purposes of this subdivision, as due to negligence
16 in the absence of clear and convincing evidence to the contrary. If any 17 addition to tax is imposed under this subdivision by reason of the 18 preceding sentence, the amount of the addition to tax imposed by para-19 graph (a) of this subdivision shall be five percent of the portion of 20 the underpayment which is attributable to the failure described in this 21 paragraph.

22 3. Failure to file declaration or underpayment of estimated tax. If 23 any taxpayer fails to file a declaration of estimated tax under subchap-24 ter two, three or three-A of this chapter, or fails to pay all or any 25 part of an amount which is applied as an installment against such esti-26 mated tax, it shall be deemed to have made an underpayment of estimated 27 tax. There shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount at 28 the underpayment rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to 29 section 11-687 of this subchapter, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of 30 seven and one-half percent per annum upon the amount of the underpayment 31 for the period of the underpayment but not beyond the fifteenth day of 32 the fourth month following the close of the taxable year. Provided, 33 however, that, for taxable years beginning on or after January first, 34 two thousand seventeen and before January first, two thousand eighteen, 35 no amount shall be added to the tax with respect to the portion of such 36 tax related to the amount of any interest deductions directly or indi-37 rectly attributable to the amount included in exempt CFC income pursuant 38 to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision five-a of section 39 11-652 of this chapter or the forty percent reduction of such exempt CFC 40 income in lieu of interest attribution if the election described in 41 paragraph (b) of subdivision five-a of such section is made. The amount 42 of the underpayment shall be, with respect to any installment of esti-43 mated tax computed on the basis of either the preceding year's tax or 44 the second preceding year's tax, the excess of the amount required to be 45 paid over the amount, if any, paid on or before the last day prescribed 46 for such payment or, with respect to any other installment of estimated 47 tax, the excess of the amount of the installment which would be required 48 to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to ninety percent of the tax 49 shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return was filed, 50 ninety percent of the tax for such year, over the amount, if any, of the 51 installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for such payment.
52 In any case in which there would be no underpayment if "eighty percent" 53 were substituted for "ninety percent" each place it appears in this 54 subdivision, the addition to the tax shall be equal to seventy-five 55 percent of the amount otherwise determined. No underpayment shall be

1 deemed to exist with respect to a declaration or installment otherwise 2 due on or after the termination of existence of the taxpayer.

3 4. Exception to addition for underpayment of estimated tax. The addi-4 tion to tax under subdivision three of this section with respect to any 5 underpayment of any amount which is applied as an installment against 6 estimated tax under subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter 7 shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated 8 tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of any 9 such amount equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required 10 to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of 11 the following is the least:

12 (a) The tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding 13 taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the 14 taxpayer for the preceding taxable year and such preceding year was a 15 taxable year of twelve months, or

16 (b) An amount equal to the tax computed at the rates applicable to the 17 taxable year, but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the 18 return of the taxpayer for, and the law applicable to, the preceding 19 taxable year, or

20 (c) (i) An amount equal to ninety per centum of the tax for the taxa-21 ble year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

22 (1) for the first three months or the first five months of the taxable 23 year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the sixth 24 month,

25 (2) for the first six months or the first eight months of the taxable 26 year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth 27 month, and

28 (3) for the first nine months or the first eleven months of the taxa-29 ble year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the 30 twelfth month.

31 (ii) For purposes of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph the taxable 32 income shall be placed on an annualized basis by:

33 (1) multiplying it by twelve, or, in the case of a taxable year of 34 less than twelve months, the number of months in the taxable year, and 35 (2) dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxa-36 ble year, three, five, six, eight, nine or eleven, as the case may be, 37 referred to in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, or

38 (d) (i) If the base period percentage for any six consecutive months 39 of the taxable year equals or exceeds seventy percent, an amount equal 40 to ninety percent of the tax determined in the following manner:

41 (A) take the taxable income for all months during the taxable year 42 preceding the filing month,

43 (B) divide such amount by the base period percentage for all months 44 during the taxable year preceding the filing month,

45 (C) determine the tax on the amount determined under clause (B) of 46 this subparagraph, and

47 (D) multiply the tax determined under clause (C) of this subparagraph 48 by the base period percentage for the filing month and all months during 49 the taxable year preceding the filing month.

50 (ii) For purposes of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph:

51 (A) the base period percentage for any period of months shall be the 52 average percent which the taxable income for the corresponding months in 53 each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income 54 for the three preceding taxable years. The commissioner of finance may 55 by regulations provide for the determination of the base period percent-

1 age in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar 2 circumstances, and

3 (B) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment 4 is required to be paid.

5 5. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, para-6 graphs (a) and (b) of subdivision four of this section shall not apply 7 in the case of any corporation, or any predecessor corporation, which 8 had entire net income, or the portion thereof allocated within the city, 9 of one million dollars or more for any taxable year during the three 10 taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved.

11 (b) The amount treated as the estimated tax under paragraphs (a) and 12 (b) of subdivision four of this section shall in no event be less than 13 seventy-five percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year 14 beginning in nineteen hundred eighty-three or, if no return was filed, 15 seventy-five percent of the tax for such year.

16 6. Deficiency due to fraud. (a) If any part of a deficiency is due to 17 fraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to two times the 18 deficiency.

19 (b) The addition to tax under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any 20 other addition to tax imposed by subdivision one or two of this section.

21 7. Additional penalty. Any person who with fraudulent intent shall 22 fail to pay under the named subchapters any tax, or to make, render, 23 sign or certify any return or declaration of estimated tax, or to supply 24 any information within the time required by or under any of the named 25 subchapters, shall be liable to penalty of not more than one thousand 26 dollars, in addition to any other amounts required under this subchapter 27 to be imposed, assessed and collected by the commissioner of finance.
28 The commissioner of finance shall have the power, in his or her 29 discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any penalty under this subdi-30 vision.

31 8. Additions treated as tax. The additions to tax and penalties
32 provided by this section shall be paid upon notice and demand and shall 33 be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as taxes, and any 34 reference in this subchapter to tax imposed by any of the named subchap-35 ters shall be deemed also to refer to the additions to tax and penalties 36 provided by this section. For purposes of section 11-672 of this 37 subchapter, this subdivision shall not apply to:

38 (a) any addition to tax under subdivision one of this section except 39 as to that portion attributable to a deficiency;

40 (b) any addition to tax under subdivision three or fourteen of this 41 section; and

42 (c) any additional penalties under subdivisions seven and twelve of 43 this section.

44 9. Determination of deficiency. For purposes of subdivisions two and 45 six of this section the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon its 46 return shall be taken into account in determining the amount of the 47 deficiency only if such return was filed on or before the last day 48 prescribed for the filing of such return, determined with regard to any 49 extension of time for such filing.

50 10. Person defined. For purposes of subdivisions seven and twelve of 51 this section, the term "person" includes an individual, corporation or 52 partnership or an officer or employee of any corporation, including a 53 dissolved corporation, or a member or employee of any partnership, who 54 as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act
55 in respect of which the violation occurs.

1 11. Substantial understatement of liability. If there is a substantial 2 understatement of tax for any taxable year, there shall be added to the 3 tax an amount equal to ten percent of the amount of any underpayment
4 attributable to such understatement. For purposes of this subdivision, 5 there is a substantial understatement of tax for any taxable year if the 6 amount of the understatement for the taxable year exceeds the greater of 7 ten percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for the taxa-8 ble year or five thousand dollars. For purposes of this subdivision, the 9 term "understatement" means the excess of the amount of the tax required 10 to be shown on the return for the taxable year, over the amount of the 11 tax imposed which is shown on the return, reduced by any rebate, within 12 the meaning of subdivision eight of section 11-672 of this subchapter.
13 The amount of such understatement shall be reduced by that portion of 14 the understatement which is attributable to the tax treatment of any 15 item by the taxpayer if there is or was substantial authority for such 16 treatment, or any item with respect to which the relevant facts affect-17 ing the item's tax treatment are adequately disclosed in the return or 18 in a statement attached to the return. The commissioner of finance may 19 waive all or any part of the addition to tax provided by this subdivi-20 sion on a showing by the taxpayer that there was reasonable cause for 21 the understatement, or part thereof, and that the taxpayer acted in good 22 faith.

23 12. Aiding or assisting in the giving of fraudulent returns, reports, 24 statements or other documents. (a) Any person who, with the intent that 25 tax be evaded, shall, for a fee or other compensation or as an incident 26 to the performance of other services for which such person receives
27 compensation, aid or assist in, or procure, counsel, or advise the prep-
28 aration or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising 29 under this chapter of any return, report, declaration, statement or 30 other document which is fraudulent or false as to any material matter, 31 or supply any false or fraudulent information, whether or not such 32 falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person author-33 ized or required to present such return, report, declaration, statement 34 or other document shall pay a penalty not exceeding ten thousand
35 dollars.

36 (b) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the term
37 "procures" includes ordering, or otherwise causing, a subordinate to do 38 an act, and knowing of, and not attempting to prevent, participation by 39 a subordinate in an act. The term "subordinate" means any other person, 40 whether or not a director, officer, employee, or agent of the taxpayer 41 involved, over whose activities the person has direction, supervision,
42 or control.

43 (c) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a person 44 furnishing typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance with 45 respect to a document shall not be treated as having aided or assisted 46 in the preparation of such document by reason of such assistance.

47 (d) The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be in addition to 48 any other penalty provided by law.

49 13. Failure to file report of information relating to certain interest 50 payments. In case of failure to file the report of information required 51 under either subdivision two-a of section 11-605 of this chapter or 52 subdivision two-a of section 11-655 of this chapter, unless it is shown 53 that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful 54 neglect, there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five hundred 55 dollars.

1 14. Failure to include on return information relating to issuer's
2 allocation percentage. Where a return is filed but does not contain (1) 3 the information necessary to compute the taxpayer's issuer's allocation
4 percentage, as defined in subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of subdivi-5 sion three of section 11-604 of this chapter, where the same is called 6 for on the return, or, (2) the taxpayer's issuer's allocation percent-7 age, where the same is called for on the return but where all of the 8 information necessary for the computation of such percentage is not 9 called for on the return, then unless it is shown that such failure is 10 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect there shall be 11 added to the tax a penalty of five hundred dollars.

12 15. False or fraudulent document penalty. Any taxpayer that submits a 13 false or fraudulent document to the department shall be subject to a 14 penalty of one hundred dollars per document submitted, or five hundred 15 dollars per tax return submitted. Such penalty shall be in addition to 16 any other penalty or addition provided by law.

17 § 11-677 Overpayment. 1. General. The commissioner of finance, 18 within the applicable period of limitations, may credit an overpayment 19 of tax and interest on such overpayment against any liability in respect 20 of any tax imposed by this title on the taxpayer who made the overpay-21 ment, and the balance shall be refunded out of the proceeds of the tax.
22 Such credit of an overpayment shall be applied before such overpay-23 ment, or any portion thereof, is paid to the state commissioner of taxa-24 tion and finance pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-m of the 25 tax law.

26 2. Credits against estimated tax. The commissioner of finance may 27 prescribe regulations providing for the crediting against the estimated 28 tax under subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter for any taxa-29 ble year of the amount determined to be an overpayment of tax under any 30 such subchapter for a preceding taxable year. If any overpayment of tax 31 is so claimed as a credit against estimated tax for the succeeding taxa-32 ble year, such amount shall be considered as a payment of the tax under 33 subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter for the succeeding 34 taxable year, whether or not claimed as a credit in the declaration of 35 estimated tax for such succeeding taxable year, and no claim for credit 36 or refund of such overpayment shall be allowed for the taxable year for 37 which the overpayment arises.

38 3. Rule where no tax liability. If there is no tax liability for a 39 period in respect of which an amount is paid as tax, such amount shall 40 be considered an overpayment.

41 4. Assessment and collection after limitation period. If any amount 42 of tax is assessed or collected after the expiration of the period of 43 limitations properly applicable thereto, such amount shall be considered 44 an overpayment.

45 5. Assignment of overpayment. A credit for an overpayment of tax 46 under any of the named subchapters may be assigned by the taxpayer to a 47 corporation liable to pay taxes under any of the named subchapters, and 48 the assignee of the whole or any part of such credit, on filing such 49 assignment with the commissioner of finance, shall thereupon be entitled 50 to credit upon the books of the commissioner of finance for the amount 51 thereof on its current account for taxes, in the same manner and to the 52 same effect as though the credit had originally been allowed in its 53 favor.

54 6. Notwithstanding article fifty-two of the civil practice law and 55 rules or any other provision of law to the contrary, the procedures for 56 the enforcement of money judgments shall not apply to the department of 1 finance, or to any officer or employee of such department, as a garnish-2 ee, with respect to any amount of money to be refunded or credited to a 3 taxpayer under this chapter.

4 § 11-678 Limitations on credit or refund. 1. General. Claim for 5 credit or refund of an overpayment of tax under any of the named 6 subchapters shall be filed by the taxpayer within three years from the 7 time the return was filed or two years from the time the tax was paid, 8 whichever of such periods expires the later, or if no return was filed 9 within two years from the time the tax was paid. If the claim is filed 10 within the three year period, the amount of the credit or refund shall 11 not exceed the portion of the tax paid within the three years immediate-12 ly preceding the filing of the claim plus the period of any extension of 13 time for filing the return. If the claim is not filed within the three 14 year period, but is filed within the two year period, the amount of the 15 credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the 16 two years immediately preceding the filing of the claim. Except as 17 otherwise provided in this section, if no claim is filed, the amount of 18 a credit or refund shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable 19 if a claim had been filed on the date the credit or refund is allowed.
20 For special restriction in a proceeding on a claim for refund of tax 21 paid pursuant to an assessment made as a result of: (a) a net operating 22 loss carryback, or (b) an increase or decrease in federal or New York
23 state taxable income or other basis of tax or federal or New York state 24 tax, or (c) a federal or New York state change or correction or renego-25 tiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the 26 same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New York state 27 income tax purposes, see paragraph (g) of subdivision three of section 28 11-674 of this subchapter.

29 2. Extension of time by agreement. If any agreement under the 30 provisions of paragraph (b) of subdivision three of section 11-674 of 31 this subchapter, extending the period of assessment of tax, is made 32 within the period prescribed in subdivision one of this section for the 33 filing of a claim for credit or refund, the period for filing a claim 34 for credit or refund, or for making credit or refund if no claim is 35 filed, shall not expire prior to six months after the expiration of the 36 period within which an assessment may be made pursuant to the agreement
37 or any extension thereof. The amount of such credit or refund shall not 38 exceed the portion of the tax paid after the execution of the agreement 39 and before the filing of the claim or the making of the credit or 40 refund, as the case may be, plus the portion of the tax paid within the 41 period which would be applicable under subdivision one if a claim had 42 been filed on the date the agreement was executed.

43 3. Notice of change or correction of federal or New York state income 44 or other basis of tax. If a taxpayer is required by subchapter two, 45 three or three-A of this chapter to file a report or amended return in 46 respect of (a) a decrease or increase in federal or New York state taxa-47 ble income, alternative minimum taxable income or other basis of tax or 48 federal or New York state tax, (b) a federal or New York state change or 49 correction or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, 50 which is treated in the same manner as if it were an overpayment for 51 federal or New York state income tax purposes, claim for credit or 52 refund of any resulting overpayment of tax shall be filed by the taxpay-53 er within two years from the time such report or amended return was 54 required to be filed with the commissioner of finance. If the report or 55 amended return required by subchapter two, three or three-A of this 56 chapter is not filed within the ninety day period therein specified, no

1 interest shall be payable on any claim for credit or refund of the over-2 payment attributable to the federal or New York state change or 3 correction. The amount of such credit or refund: (c) shall, (i) for 4 taxable years beginning before January first, two thousand fifteen, be 5 computed without change of the allocation of income or capital upon 6 which the taxpayer's return, or any additional assessment, was based,
7 and, (ii) for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two 8 thousand fifteen, be computed without change of the allocation of 9 income or capital upon which the taxpayer's return, or any additional 10 assessment, was based to the extent that the claim for refund arises 11 from a decrease or increase in federal taxable income or other basis 12 of tax or federal tax, or from a federal change, correction, renegoti-13 ation, computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the 14 same manner as if it were an overpayment for federal income tax 15 purposes, and (d) shall not exceed the amount of the reduction in tax 16 attributable to such decrease or increase in federal or New York state 17 taxable income, alternative minimum taxable income or other basis of tax 18 or federal or New York state tax or to such federal or New York state 19 change or correction or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation 20 of tax.

21 This subdivision shall not affect the time within which or the amount 22 for which a claim for credit or refund may be filed apart from this 23 subdivision.

24 4. Overpayment attributable to net operating loss carryback or capital 25 loss carryback. A claim for credit or refund of so much of an overpay-
26 ment under subchapter two or three-A of this chapter as is attributable 27 to the application to the taxpayer of a net operating loss carryback or 28 a capital loss carryback shall be filed within three years from the time 29 the return was due, including extensions thereof, for the taxable year 30 of the loss, or within the period prescribed in subdivision two of this 31 section in respect of such taxable year, or within the period prescribed 32 in subdivision three of this section, where applicable, in respect to 33 the taxable year to which the net operating loss or capital loss is 34 carried back, whichever expires the latest. Where such claim for credit 35 or refund is filed after the expiration of the period prescribed in 36 subdivision one or in subdivision two of this section where applicable, 37 in respect to the taxable year to which the net operating loss is 38 carried back, the amount of such credit or refund shall be computed 39 without change of the allocation of income or capital upon which the 40 taxpayer's return, or any additional assessment, was based.

41 5. Failure to file claim within prescribed period. No credit or 42 refund shall be allowed or made, except as provided in subdivision six 43 of this section or subdivision four of section 11-681 of this subchap-
44 ter, after the expiration of the applicable period of limitation speci-45 fied in this subchapter, unless a claim for credit or refund is filed by 46 the taxpayer within such period. Any later credit shall be void and 47 any later refund erroneous. No period of limitations specified in any 48 other law shall apply to the recovery by a taxpayer of moneys paid in 49 respect of taxes under the named subchapters.

50 6. Effect of a petition to tax appeals tribunal. If a notice of defi-51 ciency for a taxable year has been mailed to the taxpayer under section 52 11-672 of this subchapter and if the taxpayer files a timely petition 53 with the tax appeals tribunal under section 11-680 of this subchapter, 54 the tax appeals tribunal may determine that the taxpayer has made an 55 overpayment for such year, whether or not it also determines a deficien-56 cy for such year. No separate claim for credit or refund for such year

1 shall be filed, and no credit or refund for such year shall be allowed 2 or made, except:

3 (a) as to overpayment determined by a decision of the tax appeals 4 tribunal which has become final; and 5 (b) as to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in 6 accordance with the decision of the tax appeals tribunal which has 7 become final; and

8 (c) as to any amount collected after the period of limitation upon the 9 making of levy for collection has expired; and

10 (d) as to any amount claimed as a result of a change or correction 11 described in subdivision three of this section.

12 7. Limit on amount of credit or refund. The amount of overpayment 13 determined under subdivision six of this section shall, when the deci-14 sion of the tax appeals tribunal has become final, be credited or 15 refunded in accordance with subdivision one of section 11-677 of this 16 subchapter and shall not exceed the amount of tax which the tax appeals 17 tribunal determines as part of its decision was paid:

18 (a) after the mailing of the notice of deficiency, or 19 (b) within the period which would be applicable under subdivision one, 20 two or three of this section, if on the date of the mailing of the 21 notice of deficiency a claim had been filed, whether or not filed, stat-22 ing the ground upon which the tax appeals tribunal finds that there is 23 an overpayment.

24 For special restriction on credit or refund in a proceeding on a peti-25 tion for redetermination of a deficiency where the notice of deficiency 26 is issued as a result of (i) a net operating loss carryback, or (ii) an 27 increase or decrease in federal or New York state taxable income or 28 other basis of tax or federal or New York state tax, or (iii) a federal 29 or New York state change or correction or renegotiation, or computation 30 or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the same manner as if it 31 were a deficiency for federal or New York state income tax purposes, see 32 paragraph (g) of subdivision three of section 11-674 of this subchapter.

33 8. Early return. For purposes of this section, any return filed
34 before the last day prescribed for the filing thereof shall be consid-
35 ered as filed on such last day, determined without regard to any exten-
36 sion of time granted the taxpayer.

37 9. Prepaid tax. For purposes of this section, any tax paid by the 38 taxpayer before the last day prescribed for its payment, including any 39 amount paid by the taxpayer as estimated tax for a taxable year, shall 40 be deemed to have been paid by it on the fifteenth day of the third 41 month following the close of the taxable year the income of which is the 42 basis for tax under subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter, or 43 on the last day prescribed in part one of subchapter three or subchapter 44 four of this chapter for the filing of a final return for such taxable 45 year, or portion thereof, determined in all cases without regard to any 46 extension of time granted the taxpayer.

47 10. Cross reference. For provision barring refund of overpayment 48 credited against tax of a succeeding year, see subdivision two of 49 section 11-677 of this subchapter.

50 11. Notice of change or correction of sales and compensating use tax 51 liability. (a) If a taxpayer is required by subchapter two or three-A of 52 this chapter to file a report or amended return in respect of a change 53 or correction of its sales and compensating use tax liability, claim for 54 credit or refund of any resulting overpayment of tax shall be filed by 55 the taxpayer within two years from the time such report or amended 56 return was required to be filed with the commissioner of finance. The 1 amount of such credit or refund shall be computed without change of the 2 allocation of income or capital upon which the taxpayer's return, or any 3 additional assessment, was based, and shall not exceed the amount of the 4 reduction in tax attributable to such change or correction of sales and 5 compensating use tax liability.

6 (b) This subdivision shall not affect the time within which or the 7 amount for which a claim for credit or refund may be filed apart from 8 this subdivision.

9 § 11-679 Interest on overpayment. 1. General. Notwithstanding the 10 provisions of section three-a of the general municipal law, interest 11 shall be allowed and paid as follows at the overpayment rate set by the 12 commissioner of finance pursuant to section 11-687 of this subchapter, 13 or, if no rate is set, at the rate of six percent per annum upon any 14 overpayment in respect to the tax imposed by any of the named subchap-15 ters:

16 (a) from the date of the overpayment to the due date of an amount 17 against which a credit is taken;

18 (b) from the date of the overpayment to a date, to be determined by 19 the commissioner of finance, preceding the date of a refund check by not 20 more than thirty days, whether or not such refund check is accepted by 21 the taxpayer after tender of such check to the taxpayer. The acceptance 22 of such check shall be without prejudice to any right of the taxpayer to 23 claim any additional overpayment and interest thereon.

24 (c) Late and amended returns and claims for credit or refund.
25 Notwithstanding paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision, in the case of 26 an overpayment claimed on a return of tax which is filed after the last 27 date prescribed for filing such return, determined with regard to exten-
28 sions, or claimed on an amended return of tax or claimed on a claim for 29 credit or refund, no interest shall be allowed or paid for any day
30 before the date on which such return or claim is filed.

31 (d) Interest on certain refunds. To the extent provided for in regu-32 lations promulgated by the commissioner of finance, if an item of 33 income, gain, loss, deduction or credit is changed from the taxable year 34 or period in which it is reported to the taxable year or period in which 35 it belongs and the change results in an underpayment in a taxable year 36 or period and an overpayment in some other taxable year or period, the 37 provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision with respect to an over-38 payment shall not be applicable to the extent that the limitation in 39 such paragraph on the right to interest would result in a taxpayer not 40 being allowed interest for a length of time with respect to an overpay-41 ment while being required to pay interest on an equivalent amount of the 42 related underpayment. However, this paragraph shall be not construed as 43 limiting or mitigating the effect of any statute of limitations or any 44 other provision of law relating to the authority of such commissioner to 45 issue a notice of deficiency or to allow a credit or refund of an over-46 payment.

47 (e) Amounts of less than one dollar. No interest shall be allowed or 48 paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

49 2. Advance payment of tax and estimated tax. The provisions of subdi-50 visions eight and nine of section 11-678 of this subchapter applicable 51 in determining the date of payment of tax for purposes of determining 52 the period of limitations on credit or refund, shall be applicable in 53 determining the date of payment for purposes of this section.

54 3. Tax refund within three months of claim for overpayment. If any 55 overpayment of tax imposed by any of the named subchapters is credited 56 or refunded within three months after the last date prescribed, or

1 permitted by extension of time, for filing the return of such tax on 2 which such overpayment was claimed or within three months after such 3 return was filed, whichever is later, or within three months after an 4 amended return was filed claiming such overpayment or within three 5 months after a claim for credit or refund was filed on which such over-6 payment was claimed, no interest shall be allowed under this section on 7 any such overpayment. For purposes of this subdivision, any amended 8 return or claim for credit or refund filed before the last day 9 prescribed, or permitted by extension of time, for the filing of the 10 return of tax for such year or period shall be considered as filed on 11 such last day.

12 4. Refund of tax caused by carryback. For purposes of this section, 13 if any overpayment of tax imposed by subchapter two or three-A of this 14 chapter results from a carryback of a net operating loss or a net capi-15 tal loss, such overpayment shall be deemed not to have been made prior 16 to the filing date for the taxable year in which such net operating loss 17 or net capital loss arises. Such filing date shall be determined without 18 regard to extensions of time to file. For purposes of subdivision three 19 of this section any overpayment described herein shall be treated as an 20 overpayment for the loss year and such subdivision shall be applied with 21 respect to such overpayment by treating the return for the loss year as 22 not filed before claim for such overpayment is filed. The term "loss 23 year" means the taxable year in which such loss arises.

24 5. No interest until return in processible form.

25 (a) For purposes of subdivisions one and three of this section, a 26 return shall not be treated as filed until it is filed in processible 27 form.

28 (b) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a return is in 29 a processible form if:

30 (A) such return is filed on a permitted form, and

31 (B) such return contains:

32 (i) the taxpayer's name; address, and identifying number and the 33 required signatures, and

34 (ii) sufficient required information, whether on the return or on 35 required attachments, to permit the mathematical verification of tax 36 liability shown on the return.

37 6. Cross reference. For provision with respect to interest after 38 failure to file a report of federal or New York state change or 39 correction or amended return under subchapter two, three or three-A, see 40 subdivision three of section 11-678 of this subchapter.

41 § 11-680 Petition to tax appeals tribunal. 1. General. The form of a 42 petition to the tax appeals tribunal, and further proceedings before the 43 tax appeals tribunal in any case initiated by the filing of a petition, 44 shall be governed by such rules as the tax appeals tribunal shall 45 prescribe. No petition shall be denied in whole or in part without 46 opportunity for a hearing on reasonable prior notice. Such hearing and 47 any appeal to the tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in 48 such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the 49 requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections 50 one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter
51 of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen 52 hundred ninety-four. A decision of the tax appeals tribunal shall be 53 rendered, and notice thereof shall be given, in the manner provided by 54 section one hundred seventy-one of the charter of the preceding munici-55 pality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four.

1 2. Petition for redetermination of a deficiency. Within ninety days, 2 or one hundred fifty days if the notice is addressed to a taxpayer whose 3 last known address is outside of the United States, after the mailing of 4 the notice of deficiency authorized by section 11-672 of this subchap-5 ter, or if the commissioner of finance has established a conciliation 6 procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this title and the taxpayer has 7 requested a conciliation conference in accordance therewith, after nine-8 ty days from the mailing of the conciliation decision or the date of the 9 commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation 10 proceeding, the taxpayer may file a petition with the tax appeals tribu-11 nal for redetermination of the deficiency. Such petition may also assert 12 a claim for refund for the same taxable year or years, subject to the 13 limitations of subdivision seven of section 11-678 of this subchapter.
14 For special restriction where the notice of deficiency relates to a 15 proposed assessment made as a result of: (a) a net operating loss carry-16 back or a capital loss carryback, (b) an increase or decrease in federal 17 or New York state taxable income or other basis of tax or federal or New 18 York state tax, or (c) a federal or New York state change or correction 19 or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, which is 20 treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New 21 York state income tax purposes, see paragraph (g) of subdivision three 22 of section 11-674 of this subchapter.

23 3. Petition for refund. A taxpayer may file a petition with the tax 24 appeals tribunal for the amounts asserted in a claim for refund if:

25 (a) the taxpayer has filed a timely claim for refund with the commis-
26 sioner of finance,

27 (b) the taxpayer has not previously filed with the tax appeals tribu-28 nal a timely petition under subdivision two of this section for the same 29 taxable year unless the petition under this subdivision relates to a 30 separate claim for credit or refund properly filed under subdivision six 31 of section 11-678 of this subchapter, and

32 (c) either: (1) six months have expired since the claim was filed, or 33 (2) the commissioner of finance has mailed to the taxpayer, by regis-34 tered or certified mail, a notice of disallowance of such claim in whole 35 or in part.

36 No petition under this subdivision shall be filed more than two years 37 after the date of mailing of a notice of disallowance, unless prior to 38 the expiration of such two year period it has been extended by written 39 agreement between the taxpayer and the commissioner of finance. If a 40 taxpayer files a written waiver of the requirement that the taxpayer be 41 mailed a notice of disallowance, the two year period prescribed by this 42 subdivision for filing a petition for refund shall begin on the date 43 such waiver is filed.

44 (d) If the commissioner of finance has established a conciliation 45 procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this title, a taxpayer which is 46 eligible to file a petition for refund with the tax appeals tribunal 47 pursuant to this subdivision may request a conciliation conference prior 48 to filing such petition, provided the request is made within the time 49 prescribed for filing the petition. Notwithstanding anything in this 50 subdivision to the contrary, if the taxpayer has requested a concil-51 iation conference in accordance with the procedure established pursuant 52 to section 11-124 of this title, a petition for refund may be filed no 53 later than ninety days from the mailing of the conciliation decision or 54 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 55 conciliation proceeding.

56 4. Assertion of deficiency after filing petition.

1 (a) Petition for redetermination of deficiency. If a taxpayer files
2 with the tax appeals tribunal a petition for redetermination of a defi-3 ciency, the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to determine a greater 4 deficiency than asserted in the notice of deficiency and to determine if 5 there should be assessed any addition to tax or penalty provided in 6 section 11-676 of this subchapter, if claim therefor is asserted at or 7 before the hearing under rules of the tax appeals tribunal.

8 (b) Petition for refund. If the taxpayer files with the tax appeals 9 tribunal a petition for credit or refund for a taxable year, the tax 10 appeals tribunal may:

11 (1) determine a deficiency for such year as to any amount of deficien-12 cy asserted at or before the hearing under rules of the tax appeals 13 tribunal and within the period in which an assessment would be timely 14 under section 11-674 of this subchapter, or 15 (2) deny so much of the amount for which credit or refund is sought in 16 the petition, as is offset by other issues pertaining to the same taxa-17 ble year which are asserted at or before the hearing under rules of the 18 tax appeals tribunal.

19 (c) Opportunity to respond. A taxpayer shall be given a reasonable 20 opportunity to respond to any matters asserted by the commissioner of 21 finance under this subdivision.

22 (d) Restriction on further notices of deficiency. If the taxpayer 23 files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal under this section, no 24 notice of deficiency under section 11-672 of this subchapter may there-25 after be issued by the commissioner of finance for the same taxable 26 year, except in case of fraud or with respect to an increase or decrease 27 in federal or New York state taxable income, alternative minimum taxable 28 income or other basis of tax or federal or New York state tax or a 29 federal or New York state change or correction or renegotiation, or 30 computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the same manner 31 as if it were a deficiency for federal or New York state income tax 32 purposes, required to be reported under subchapter two, three or three-A 33 of this chapter or with respect to a state change or correction of sales 34 and compensating use tax liability required to be reported under 35 subchapter two or three-A of this chapter.

36 5. Burden of proof. In any case before the tax appeals tribunal under 37 this subchapter, the burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner except 38 for the following issues, as to which the burden of proof shall be upon 39 the commissioner of finance:

40 (a) whether the petitioner has been guilty of fraud with intent to 41 evade tax;

42 (b) whether the petitioner is liable as the transferee of property of 43 a taxpayer, but not to show that the taxpayer was liable for the tax;

44 (c) whether the petitioner is liable for any increase in a deficiency 45 where such increase is asserted initially after a notice of deficiency 46 was mailed and a petition under this section filed, unless such increase 47 in deficiency is the result of an increase or decrease in federal or New 48 York state taxable income, alternative minimum taxable income or other 49 basis of tax or federal or New York state tax or a federal or New York 50 state change or correction or renegotiation, or computation or recompu-51 tation of tax, which is treated in the same manner as if it were a defi-52 ciency for federal or New York state income tax purposes, required to be 53 reported under subchapter two, three or three-A of this chapter, and of 54 which increase, decrease, change or correction or renegotiation, or 55 computation or recomputation, the commissioner of finance had no notice 56 at the time he or she mailed the notice of deficiency or unless such

1 increase in deficiency is the result of a change or correction of sales 2 and compensating use tax liability required to be reported under 3 subchapter two or three-A of this chapter, and of which change or 4 correction the commissioner of finance had no notice at the time he or 5 she mailed the notice of deficiency; and 6 (d) whether any person is liable for a penalty under subdivision 7 twelve of section 11-676 of this subchapter.

8 6. Evidence of related federal or state determination. Evidence of a 9 federal or state determination relating to issues raised in a case 10 before the tax appeals tribunal under this section shall be admissible, 11 under rules established by the tax appeals tribunal.

12 7. Jurisdiction over other years. The tax appeals tribunal shall 13 consider such facts with relation to the taxes for other years as may be 14 necessary correctly to determine the tax for the taxable year, but in so 15 doing shall have no jurisdiction to determine whether or not the tax for 16 any other year has been overpaid or underpaid.

17 § 11-681 Review of tax appeals tribunal's decision. 1. General. A 18 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be subject to 19 judicial review at the instance of any taxpayer affected thereby in the 20 manner provided by law for the review of a final decision or action of 21 administrative agencies of the city. An application by a taxpayer for 22 such review must be made within four months after notice of the decision 23 is sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the taxpayer and 24 the commissioner of finance.

25 2. Judicial review exclusive remedy. The review of a decision of the 26 tax appeals tribunal provided by this section shall be the exclusive 27 remedy available to any taxpayer for the judicial determination of the 28 liability of the taxpayer for the taxes imposed by the named subchap-29 ters.

30 3. Assessment pending review; review bond. Irrespective of any 31 restrictions on the assessment and collection of deficiencies, the 32 commissioner of finance may assess a deficiency determined by the tax 33 appeals tribunal in a decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred 34 seventy-one of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed 35 January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four after the expiration of the 36 period specified in subdivision one, notwithstanding that an application 37 for judicial review in respect of such deficiency has been duly made by 38 the taxpayer unless the taxpayer, at or before the time the taxpayer's 39 application for review is made, has paid the deficiency, has deposited 40 with the commissioner of finance the amount of the deficiency, or has 41 filed with the commissioner of finance a bond, which may be a jeopardy 42 bond under subdivision eight of section 11-685 of this subchapter, in 43 the amount of the portion of the deficiency, including interest and 44 other amounts, in respect of which the application for review is made 45 and all costs and charges which may accrue against the taxpayer in the 46 prosecution of the proceeding, including costs of all appeals, and with 47 surety approved by a justice of the supreme court of the state, condi-48 tioned upon the payment of the deficiency, including interest and other 49 amounts, as finally determined and such costs and charges. If, as a 50 result of a waiver of the restrictions on the assessment and collection 51 of a deficiency, any part of the amount determined by the tax appeals 52 tribunal is paid after the filing of the review bond, such bond shall, 53 at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

54 4. Credit, refund or abatement after review. If the amount of a defi-55 ciency determined by the tax appeals tribunal is disallowed in whole or 56 in part by the court of review, the amount so disallowed shall be cred-

1 ited or refunded to the taxpayer, without the making of claim therefor, 2 or, if payment has not been made, shall be abated.

3 5. Date of finality of tax appeals tribunal decision. A decision of 4 the tax appeals tribunal shall become final upon the expiration of the 5 period specified in subdivision one of this section for making an appli-6 cation for review, if no such application has been duly made within such 7 time, or if such application has been duly made, upon expiration of the 8 time for all further judicial review, or upon the rendering by the tax 9 appeals tribunal of a decision in accordance with the mandate of the 10 court on review provided, however, for the purpose of making an applica-11 tion for review, the decision of the tax appeals tribunal shall be 12 deemed final on the date the notice of decision is sent by certified 13 mail to the taxpayer and the commissioner of finance.

14 § 11-682 Mailing rules; holidays; miscellaneous. 1. Timely mailing.
15 (a) If any return, declaration of estimated tax, claim, statement, 16 notice, petition, or other document required to be filed, or any payment 17 required to be made, within a prescribed period or on or before a 18 prescribed date under authority of any provision of this subchapter or 19 of the named subchapters is, after such period or such date, delivered 20 by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, tax appeals tribu-21 nal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with whom such 22 document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such payment is 23 required to be made, the date of the United States postmark stamped on 24 the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This subdivi-25 sion shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the prescribed 26 period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of such docu-27 ment, or for making the payment, including any extension granted for 28 such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was depos-29 ited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the commission-30 er of finance, tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person 31 with which or with whom the document is required to be filed or to which 32 or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any document is sent 33 by United States registered mail, such registration shall be prima facie 34 evidence that such document was delivered to the commissioner of 35 finance, tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person to 36 which or to whom addressed. To the extent that the commissioner of 37 finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal shall prescribe by 38 regulation, certified mail may be used in lieu of registered mail under 39 this subdivision. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivi-40 sion, this subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by 41 the United States postal service only if and to the extent provided by 42 regulations of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax 43 appeals tribunal.

44 (b) (i) Any reference in paragraph (a) of this subdivision to the 45 United States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any 46 delivery service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the 47 United States pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the inter-48 nal revenue code and any reference in paragraph (a) of this subdivision 49 to a United States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to 50 any date recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-51 five hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
52 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service 53 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city, 54 the commissioner may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 55 title. The commissioner may also designate additional delivery services 56 meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred two of the internal

1 revenue code for purposes of this title, or may withdraw any such design-2 nation if the commissioner of finance finds that a delivery service so 3 designated is inadequate for the needs of the city. Any reference in 4 paragraph (a) of this subdivision to the United States mail shall be 5 treated as including a reference to any delivery service designated by 6 the commissioner of finance and any reference in paragraph (a) of this 7 subdivision to a United States postmark shall be treated as including a 8 reference to any date recorded or marked in the manner described in 9 section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue code by a 10 delivery service designated by the commissioner of finance, provided, 11 however, any withdrawal of designation or additional designation by the 12 commissioner of finance shall not be effective for purposes of service 13 upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such withdrawal of 14 designation or additional designation is ratified by the president of 15 the tax appeals tribunal.

16 (ii) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 17 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 18 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 19 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 20 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning 21 of registered or certified mail as used in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-22 sion. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 23 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
24 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
25 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 26 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 27 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 28 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 29 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 30 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

31 2. Last known address. For purposes of this subchapter, a taxpayer's 32 last known address shall be the address given in the last return filed 33 by it, unless subsequently to the filing of such return the taxpayer 34 shall have notified the commissioner of finance of a change of address.

35 3. Last day a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. When the last day 36 prescribed under authority of this subchapter or the named subchapters,
37 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a 38 Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 39 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding 40 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

41 4. Certificate; unfiled return. For purposes of this subchapter and 42 sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the 43 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-44 teen hundred ninety-four, the certificate of the commissioner of finance 45 to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return or declaration 46 of estimated tax has not been filed, or that information has not been 47 supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this chapter, shall 48 be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such 49 return or declaration has not been filed, or that such information has 50 not been supplied.

51 § 11-683 Collection, levy and liens. 1. Collection procedures. The 52 taxes imposed by the named subchapters shall be collected by the commis-53 sioner of finance, and he or she may establish the mode or time for the 54 collection of any amount due him or her thereunder if not otherwise 55 specified. The commissioner of finance shall, upon request, give a 56 receipt for any sum collected thereunder. The commissioner of finance

1 may authorize banks or trust companies which are depositaries or finan-2 cial agents of the city to receive and give a receipt for any tax 3 imposed under the named subchapters in such manner, at such times, and 4 under such conditions as the commissioner of finance may prescribe; and 5 the commissioner of finance shall prescribe the manner, times and condi-6 tions under which the receipt of such tax by such banks and trust compa-7 nies is to be treated as payment of such tax to the commissioner of 8 finance.

9 2. Notice and demand for tax. The commissioner of finance shall as 10 soon as practicable give notice to each taxpayer liable for any amount 11 of tax, addition to tax, penalty or interest, which has been assessed 12 but remains unpaid, stating the amount and demanding payment thereof.
13 Such notice shall be left at the principal office of the taxpayer in the 14 city or shall be sent by mail to such taxpayer's last known address.
15 Except where the commissioner of finance determines that collection 16 would be jeopardized by delay, if any tax is assessed prior to the last 17 date, including any date fixed by extension, prescribed for payment of 18 such tax, payment of such tax shall not be demanded until after such 19 date.

20 3. Issuance of warrant after notice and demand. If any corporation or 21 other person liable under the named subchapters for the payment of any 22 tax, addition to tax, penalty or interest neglects or refuses to pay the 23 same within ten days after notice and demand therefor is given to such 24 corporation or other person under subdivision two of this section, the 25 commissioner of finance may within six years after the date of such 26 assessment issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the 27 state, or to any officer or employee of the department of finance, 28 commanding him or her to levy upon and sell the real and personal prop-29 erty of such corporation or other person for the payment of the amount 30 assessed, with the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such 31 warrant to the commissioner of finance, and pay to the commissioner the 32 money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of 33 the warrant. If the commissioner of finance finds that the collection 34 of the tax or other amount is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immedi-35 ate payment of such tax may be made by the commissioner of finance and 36 upon failure or refusal to pay such tax or other amount the commissioner 37 of finance may issue a warrant without regard to the ten-day period 38 provided in this subdivision.

39 4. Copy of warrant to be filed and lien to be created. Any sheriff or 40 officer or employee who receives a warrant under subdivision three of 41 this section shall within five days thereafter file a copy with the 42 clerk of the appropriate county. The clerk shall thereupon enter in the 43 judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the 44 taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns the tax or 45 other amounts for which the warrant is issued and the date when such 46 copy is filed; and such amount shall thereupon be a binding lien upon 47 the real, personal and other property of the taxpayer.

48 5. Judgment. When a warrant has been filed with the county clerk the 49 commissioner of finance shall, on behalf of the city, be deemed to have 50 obtained judgment against the taxpayer for the tax or other amounts.

51 6. Execution. The sheriff or officer or employee shall thereupon 52 proceed upon the judgment in all respects, with like effect, and in the 53 same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against 54 property upon judgments of a court of record, and a sheriff shall be 55 entitled to the same fees for his or her services in executing the 56 warrant, to be collected in the same manner. An officer or employee of 1 the department of finance may proceed in any county or counties of this 2 state and shall have all the powers of execution conferred by law upon 3 sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of 4 actual expenses paid in connection with the execution of the warrant.

5 7. Foreign corporations. Where a notice and demand under subdivision 6 two of this section shall have been given to a foreign corporation or 7 other person who is not then a resident, and it appears to the commis-8 sioner of finance that it is not practicable to find in the state prop-9 erty of such foreign corporation or nonresident person sufficient to pay 10 the entire balance of tax or other amount owing by such foreign corpo-11 ration or nonresidential person, the commissioner of finance may, in 12 accordance with subdivision three of this section, issue a warrant 13 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance, a copy 14 of which warrant shall be mailed by certified or registered mail to such 15 foreign corporation or nonresident person at its last known address, 16 subject to the rules of mailing provided in subdivision one of section 17 11-672 of this subchapter. Such warrant shall command the officer or 18 employee to proceed in Richmond county, and he or she shall, within five 19 days after receipt of the warrant, file the warrant and obtain a judg-20 ment in accordance with this section. Thereupon the commissioner of 21 finance may authorize the institution of any action or proceeding to 22 collect or enforce the judgment in any place and by any procedure that a 23 civil judgment of the supreme court of the state of New York could be 24 collected or enforced. The commissioner of finance may also, in his or 25 her discretion, designate agents or retain counsel for the purpose of 26 collecting, outside the state, any unpaid taxes, additions to tax, 27 penalties or interest which have been assessed under this subchapter or 28 under any of the named subchapters, against foreign corporations or 29 other non-resident persons, may fix the compensation of such agents and 30 counsel to be paid out of money appropriated or otherwise lawfully 31 available for payment thereof, and may require of them bonds or other 32 security for the faithful performance of their duties, in such form and 33 in such amount as the commissioner of finance shall deem proper and 34 sufficient.

35 8. Action by city for recovery of taxes. Action may be brought by the 36 corporation counsel of the city at the instance of the commissioner of 37 finance to recover the amount of any unpaid taxes, additions to tax, 38 penalties or interest which have been assessed under this subchapter or 39 under the named subchapters within six years prior to the date the 40 action is commenced.

41 9. Release of lien. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds 42 that the interests of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon 43 such conditions as it may require, may release any property from the 44 lien of any warrant filed under subdivision four or seven of this 45 section for unpaid taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest filed 46 pursuant to this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant 47 may be recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such 48 warrant has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge 49 as of the original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

50 10. Lien from due date of return. (a) In addition to any other lien 51 provided for in this section, each tax imposed by the named subchapters 52 shall become a lien on the date on which the return is required to be 53 filed, without regard to any extension of time for filing such return, 54 except that such tax shall become a lien not later than the date the 55 taxpayer ceases to be subject to the tax imposed by any of the named 56 subchapters, or to do business in this state in a corporate or organized

1 capacity. Each such tax shall be a lien and binding upon the real and 2 personal property of the taxpayer, or of a transferee liable to pay the 3 same, until the same is paid in full, except that no lien for any addi-4 tional tax assessed pursuant to this subchapter shall be enforceable 5 against property which prior to the issuance to the taxpayer of a notice 6 of deficiency under section 11-672 of this subchapter had been trans-
7 ferred in good faith to a bona fide transferee for value. But the lien 8 of each such tax shall be subject to the lien of any mortgage indebt-9 edness existing against real property previous to the time when the tax 10 became a lien and where such mortgage indebtedness has been incurred in 11 good faith and was not given, directly or indirectly, to any officer or 12 stockholder of the corporation owning such real property, whether as a 13 purchase money mortgage or otherwise, and shall also be subject to the 14 lien of local taxes and assessments, without regard to when the lien for 15 such taxes and assessments may have accrued. If the return is filed and 16 the tax shown on the report to be due is paid on or before the date on 17 which the report is required to be filed, without regard to any exten-18 sions of time for filing such report, the lien shall not be enforceable 19 against the interest of any purchaser or mortgagee in property which is 20 thereafter, but prior to the issuance to the taxpayer of a notice of 21 deficiency under section 11-672 of this subchapter transferred to a bona 22 fide purchaser for value, or mortgaged where the mortgage indebtedness 23 is incurred in good faith and the mortgage is not given, directly or 24 indirectly, to any officer or stockholder of the corporation. In any 25 action to foreclose any such mortgage, or to foreclose the lien of local 26 taxes or assessments, to which the people of the state, or the city 27 shall have been made a party defendant by reason of the existence of a 28 lien for any such tax, or if no such tax was due or was a lien at the 29 time of the commencement of such action and the filing of the notice of 30 pendency thereof but such a tax becomes due or becomes a lien subsequent 31 to the time of the commencement of such action and the filing of the 32 notice of pendency thereof, such real property shall be sold and 33 conveyed in such action free from any such tax lien, and any such tax 34 lien may become a lien on any surplus moneys which may result from such 35 sale, to be determined in the proceedings for the distribution of such 36 surplus moneys. Where title to real property passes from an individual, 37 or from a corporation owing no tax, to another corporation which is in 38 default for such tax, the lien herein provided shall not be enforceable 39 except as to any equity after the prior mortgage or purchase money mort-40 gage encumbrance.

41 (b) The commissioner of finance may, upon application made to the 42 commissioner and the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars, release 43 any real property from the lien under this subdivision, provided payment 44 be made to the commissioner of finance of such a sum as the commissioner 45 of finance shall deem adequate consideration for such release, or depos-46 it be made of such security or such bond be filed as the commissioner of 47 finance shall deem proper to secure payment of any such tax. The appli-48 cation for such release shall contain an accurate description of the 49 property to be released together with such information as the commis-50 sioner of finance may require. Such release may be recorded in any 51 office in which conveyances of real estate are entitled to be recorded.

52 (c) All taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest which have 53 become a lien under this subdivision shall cease to be a lien after the 54 expiration of twenty years from the date they become due and payable, 55 except that taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest which have 56 become a lien under this subdivision (1) as to real estate in the hands

1 of persons who are owners thereof who would be purchasers in good faith 2 but for such taxes, additions to tax, penalties or interest and (2) as 3 to the lien on real estate of mortgages held by persons who would be 4 holders thereof in good faith but for such taxes, additions to tax, 5 penalties or interest, as against such purchasers or holders, shall 6 cease to be a lien after the expiration of ten years from the date they 7 become due and payable. The limitations herein provided for shall not 8 apply to any transfer from a corporation to a person or corporation with 9 intent to avoid payment of any taxes, or where with like intent the 10 transfer is made to a grantee corporation, or any subsequent grantee 11 corporation, controlled by such grantor or which has any community of 12 interest with it, either through stock ownership or otherwise.

13 § 11-684 Transferees. 1. General. The liability, at law or in equi-14 ty, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer for any tax, additions to 15 tax, penalty or interest due the commissioner of finance under this 16 subchapter or under the named subchapters, shall be assessed, paid, and 17 collected in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and 18 limitations as in the case of the tax to which the liability relates, 19 except that the period of limitations for assessment against the trans-20 feree shall be extended by one year for each successive transfer, in 21 order, from the original taxpayer to the transferee involved, but not by 22 more than three years in the aggregate. The term transferee includes, 23 in case of successive transfers, donee, heir, legatee, devisee, distri-24 butee, and successor by merger, consolidation or other reorganization.

25 2. Exceptions.

26 (a) If before the expiration of the period of limitations for assess-27 ment of liability of the transferee, a claim has been filed by the 28 commissioner of finance in any court against the original taxpayer or 29 the last preceding transferee based upon the liability of the original 30 taxpayer, then the period of limitation for assessment of liability of 31 the transferee shall in no event expire prior to one year after such 32 claim has been finally allowed, disallowed or otherwise disposed of.

33 (b) If, before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision 34 one or paragraph (a) of this subdivision for the assessment of the 35 liability, the commissioner of finance and the transferee have both 36 consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the liability
37 may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed 38 upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agree-39 ments in writing made before the expiration of the period previously 40 agreed upon. For the purpose of determining the period of limitation on 41 credit or refund to the transferee or overpayments of tax made by such 42 transferee or overpayments of tax made by the transferor as to which the 43 transferee is legally entitled to credit or refund, such agreement and 44 any extension thereof shall be deemed an agreement and extension thereof 45 referred to in subdivision two of section 11-678 of this subchapter. If 46 the agreement is executed after the expiration of the period of limita-47 tion for assessment against the original taxpayer, then in applying the 48 limitations under subdivision two of section 11-678 of this subchapter 49 on the amount of the credit or refund, the period specified in subdivi-50 sion one of section 11-678 of this subchapter shall be increased by the 51 period from the date of such expiration to the date of the agreement.

52 3. Period for assessment against certain transferors. For purposes of 53 this section, if any person is deceased or is a corporation which has 54 terminated its existence, the period of limitation for assessment 55 against such person or corporation shall be the period that would be in 56 effect had death or termination of existence not occurred.

1 4. Evidence. The commissioner of finance shall use his or her powers 2 to make available to the transferee evidence necessary to enable the 3 transferee to determine the liability of the original taxpayer and of 4 any preceding transferees, but without undue hardship to the original 5 taxpayer or preceding transferee. See subdivision five of section 6 11-680 of this subchapter for rule as to burden of proof.

7 § 11-685 Jeopardy assessments. 1. Authority for making. If the commis-8 sioner of finance believes that the assessment or collection of a defi-9 ciency will be jeopardized by delay, the commissioner shall, notwith-10 standing the provisions of section 11-672 of this subchapter immediately 11 assess such deficiency, together with all interest, penalties and addi-12 tions to tax provided for by law, and notice and demand shall be made by 13 the commissioner of finance for the payment thereof.

14 2. Notice of deficiency. If the jeopardy assessment is made before any 15 notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates 16 has been mailed under section 11-672 of this subchapter, then the 17 commissioner of finance shall mail a notice under such section within 18 sixty days after the making of the assessment.

19 3. Amount assessable before decision of the tax appeals tribunal. The 20 jeopardy assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or 21 less than that of which notice is mailed to the taxpayer and whether or 22 not the taxpayer has theretofore filed a petition with the tax appeals 23 tribunal. The commissioner of finance may, at any time before tax 24 appeals tribunal renders its decision, abate such assessment, or any 25 unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that the commissioner believes the 26 assessment to be excessive in amount. The tax appeals tribunal may in 27 its decision redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and of all 28 amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

29 4. Amounts assessable after decision of the tax appeals tribunal. If 30 the jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the tax appeals 31 tribunal is rendered, such assessment may be made only in respect of the 32 deficiency determined by the tax appeals tribunal in its decision.

33 5. Expiration of right to assess. A jeopardy assessment may not be 34 made after the decision of the tax appeals tribunal has become final or 35 after the taxpayer has made an application for review of the decision of 36 the tax appeals tribunal.

37 6. Collection of unpaid amounts. When a petition has been filed with 38 the tax appeals tribunal and when the amount which should have been 39 assessed has been determined by a decision of the tax appeals tribunal 40 which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which 41 has been stayed by bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon 42 notice and demand from the commissioner of finance, and any remaining 43 portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already 44 collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have 45 been assessed, such excess shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer 46 as provided in section 11-677 of this subchapter without the filing of 47 claim therefor. If the amount determined as the amount which should 48 have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then 49 the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the 50 tax upon notice and demand from the tax appeals tribunal.

51 7. Abatement if jeopardy does not exist. The commissioner of finance 52 may abate the jeopardy assessment if the commissioner finds that jeopar-53 dy does not exist. Such abatement may not be made after a decision of 54 the tax appeals tribunal in respect of the deficiency has been rendered 55 or, if no petition is filed with the tax appeals tribunal, after the 56 expiration of the period for filing such petition. The period of limita-

1 tion on the making of assessments and levy or a proceeding for 2 collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall be determined as if the 3 jeopardy assessment so abated had not been made, except that the running 4 of such period shall in any event be suspended for the period from the 5 date of such jeopardy assessment until the expiration of the tenth day 6 after the day on which such jeopardy assessment is abated.

7 8. Bond to stay collection. The collection of the whole or any amount 8 of any jeopardy assessment may be stayed by filing with the commissioner 9 of finance, within such time as may be fixed by regulation, a bond in an 10 amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired, conditioned 11 upon the payment of the amount, together with interest thereon, the 12 collection of which is stayed at the time of which, but for the making 13 of the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due. Upon the filing 14 of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is 15 covered by the bond shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the right 16 to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of 17 the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any 18 part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall at 19 the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion 20 of the jeopardy assessment is abated, or if a notice of deficiency under 21 section 11-672 of this subchapter is mailed to the taxpayer in a lesser 22 amount, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportion-23 ately reduced.

24 9. Petition to tax appeals tribunal. If the bond is given before the 25 taxpayer has filed its petition under section 11-680 of this subchapter, 26 the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not 27 filed within the period provided in such section, then the amount, the 28 collection of which is stayed by the bond, will be paid on notice and 29 demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with 30 interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the 31 date of notice and demand under this subdivision. The bond shall be 32 conditioned upon the payment of so much of such assessment, collection 33 of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the 34 tax appeals tribunal which has become final. If the tax appeals tribunal 35 determines that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which 36 should have been assessed, then the bond shall, at the request of the 37 taxpayer, be proportionately reduced when the decision of the tax 38 appeals tribunal is rendered.

39 10. Stay of sale of seized property pending tax appeals tribunal's 40 decision. Where a jeopardy assessment is made, the property seized for 41 the collection of the tax shall not be sold:

42 (a) if subdivision two of this section is applicable, prior to the 43 issuance of the notice of deficiency and the expiration of the time 44 provided in section 11-680 of this subchapter for filing a petition with 45 the tax appeals tribunal, and

46 (b) if a petition is filed with the tax appeals tribunal, whether 47 before or after the making of such jeopardy assessment, prior to the 48 expiration of the period during which the assessment of the deficiency 49 would be prohibited if subdivision one of this section were not applica-50 ble.

51 Such property may be sold if the taxpayer consents to the sale, or if 52 the commissioner of finance determines that the expenses of conservation 53 and maintenance will greatly reduce the net proceeds, or if the property 54 is perishable.

55 11. Interest. For the purpose of subdivision one of section 11-675 of 56 this subchapter, the last date prescribed for payment shall be deter-

1 mined without regard to any notice and demand for payment issued under 2 this section prior to the last date otherwise prescribed for such 3 payment.

4 12. Early termination of taxable year. If the commissioner of finance 5 finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to remove its property from this 6 state, or to conceal its property therein, or to do any other act tend-7 ing to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings 8 to collect the tax for the current or the preceding taxable year unless 9 such proceedings be brought without delay, the commissioner of finance 10 shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately termi-11 nated, and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be 12 given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the 13 tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the 14 preceding taxable year so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not 15 the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax 16 has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and 17 payable. In any proceeding brought to enforce payment of taxes made due 18 and payable by virtue of the provisions of this subdivision, the finding 19 of the commissioner of finance made as herein provided, whether made 20 after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presump-21 tive evidence of jeopardy.

22 13. Reopening of taxable period. Notwithstanding the termination of 23 the taxable period of the taxpayer by the commissioner of finance, as 24 provided in subdivision twelve of this section, the commissioner of 25 finance may reopen such taxable period each time the taxpayer is found 26 by the commissioner of finance to have received income, within the 27 current taxable year, since the termination of such period. A taxable 28 period so terminated by the commissioner of finance may be reopened by 29 the taxpayer if it files with the commissioner of finance a true and 30 accurate return under any of the named subchapters for such taxable 31 period, together with such other information as the commissioner of 32 finance may by regulations prescribe.

33 14. Furnishing of bond where taxable year is closed by the commission-
34 er of finance. Payment of taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings 35 under the provisions of subdivision twelve of this section prior to the 36 expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such taxes if the 37 taxpayer furnishes, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner of 38 finance, a bond to insure the timely making of returns with respect to, 39 and payment of, such taxes or any taxes for prior years.

40 § 11-686 Criminal penalties; cross-reference. For criminal penalties, 41 see chapter forty of this title.

42 § 11-687 General powers of the commissioner of finance. 1. General.
43 The commissioner of finance shall administer and enforce the tax imposed 44 by the named subchapters and the commissioner is authorized to make such 45 rules and regulations, and to require such facts and information to be 46 reported, as the commissioner may deem necessary to enforce the 47 provisions of this subchapter and of the named subchapters; and the 48 commissioner may delegate the commissioner's powers and functions under 49 all subchapters of this chapter to one of the commissioner's deputies or 50 to any employee or employees of his or her department.

51 2. Examination of books and witnesses. The commissioner of finance, 52 for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for 53 the purpose of making an estimate of tax liability of any corporation, 54 shall have power to examine or to cause to have examined, by any agent 55 or representative designated by the commissioner for that purpose, any 56 books, papers, records or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to 1 be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the corpo-2 ration rendering the return through any officer or employee of such 3 corporation, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in 4 the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for the 5 commissioner's information, with power to administer oaths to such 6 person or persons.

7 3. Abatement authority. The commissioner of finance, of the commis-8 sioner's own motion, may abate any small unpaid balance of an assessment 9 of tax, or any liability in respect thereof, if the commissioner of 10 finance determines under uniform rules prescribed by the commissioner 11 that the administration and collection costs involved would not warrant 12 collection of the amount due. The commissioner may also abate, of his 13 or her own motion, the unpaid portion of the assessment of any tax or 14 any liability in respect thereof, which is excessive in amount, or is 15 assessed after the expiration of the period of limitation properly 16 applicable thereto, or is erroneously or illegally assessed. No claim 17 for abatement under this subdivision shall be filed by a taxpayer.

18 4. Special refund authority. Where no questions of fact or law are 19 involved and it appears from the records of the commissioner of finance 20 that any moneys have been erroneously or illegally collected from any 21 taxpayer or other person, or paid by such taxpayer or other person under 22 a mistake of facts, pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter or any 23 of the named subchapters, the commissioner of finance at anytime, with-24 out regard to any period of limitations, shall have the power, upon 25 making a record of his or her reasons therefor in writing, to cause such 26 moneys so paid and being erroneously and illegally held to be refunded.

27 5. (a) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance 28 shall set the overpayment and underpayment rates of interest to be paid 29 pursuant to sections 11-606, 11-608, 11-645, 11-647, 11-656, 11-658, 30 11-675, 11-676, and 11-679 of this chapter, but if no such rate or rates 31 of interest are set, such overpayment rate shall be deemed to be set at 32 six percent per annum and such underpayment rate shall be deemed to be 33 set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such overpayment and 34 underpayment rates shall be the rates prescribed in paragraph (b) of 35 this subdivision but the underpayment rate shall not be less than seven 36 and one-half percent per annum. Any such rates set by the commissioner 37 of finance shall apply to taxes, or any portion thereof, which remain or 38 become due or overpaid on or after the date on which such rates become 39 effective and shall apply only with respect to interest computed or 40 computable for periods or portions of periods occurring in the period 41 during which such rates are in effect.

42 (b) General rule. (A) Overpayment rate. The overpayment rate set under 43 this subdivision shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as 44 provided under paragraph (c) of this subdivision, plus (ii) two percent-45 age points.

46 (B) Underpayment rate. The underpayment rate set under this subdivi-47 sion shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided 48 under paragraph (c) of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage 49 points.

50 (c) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

51 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal 52 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
53 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section 54 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 55 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 56 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest

1 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
2 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

3 (B) Period during which rate applies.

4 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
5 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
6 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 7 such month.

8 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
9 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 10 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the overpayment 11 and underpayment rates for the month of September, nineteen hundred 12 eighty-nine.

13 (d) Publication of interest rates. The commissioner of finance shall 14 cause to be published in the city record, and give other appropriate 15 general notice of, the interest rates to be set under this subdivision 16 no later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quar-
17 ter during which such interest rates apply. The setting and publication 18 of such interest rates shall not be included within paragraph (a) of 19 subdivision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter 20 relating to the definition of a rule.

21 (e) Cross-reference. For provisions relating to the power of the 22 commissioner of finance to abate small amounts of interest, see subdivi-23 sion three of this section.

24 6. In computing the amount of any interest required to be paid under 25 this subchapter or any of the named subchapters by the commissioner of 26 finance or by the taxpayer, or any other amount determined by reference 27 to such amount of interest, such interest and such amount shall be 28 compounded daily. The preceding sentence shall not apply for purposes of 29 computing the amount of any addition to tax for failure to pay estimated 30 tax under subdivision three of section 11-676 of this subchapter.

31 § 11-688 Secrecy required of official; penalty for violation. 1.
32 Except in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided 33 by law, it shall be unlawful for the commissioner of finance, the 34 department of finance of the city, any officer or employee of the 35 department of finance of the city, the tax appeals tribunal, any commis-36 sioner or employee of such tribunal, any person who, pursuant to this 37 section, is permitted to inspect any report or return, or to whom any 38 information contained in any report or return is furnished, any person 39 engaged or retained by such department on an independent contract basis, 40 or any person who in any manner may acquire knowledge of the contents of 41 a report filed pursuant to this chapter, to divulge or make known in any 42 manner the amount of income or any particulars set forth or disclosed in 43 any report or return, under this chapter. The officers charged with the 44 custody of such reports and returns shall not be required to produce any 45 of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any action or 46 proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the city in an action or 47 proceeding involving the collection of a tax due under this chapter to 48 which the city is a party or a claimant, or on behalf of any party to 49 any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the 50 reports, returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such 51 action or proceeding, in any of which events the court may require the 52 production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said reports or 53 returns or of facts shown thereby as are pertinent to the action or 54 proceeding, and no more. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit 55 the delivery to a taxpayer or its duly authorized representative of a 56 copy of any report filed by it, nor to prohibit the publication of

1 statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular 2 reports or returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the 3 corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city of the 4 report or return of any taxpayer which shall bring action to set aside 5 or review the tax based thereon, or against which an action or proceed-6 ing under this chapter or under any local law of the city imposed as 7 authorized by the act authorizing the adoption of this chapter has been 8 recommended by the commissioner of finance or the corporation counsel or 9 has been instituted, or the inspection of the reports or returns of any 10 taxpayer by the duly designated officers or employees of the city for 11 purposes of an audit under this chapter or an audit authorized by the 12 act authorizing the adoption of this chapter; and nothing in this 13 subchapter or chapter eleven of this title shall be construed to prohib-14 it the publication of the issuer's allocation percentage, as defined in 15 subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of subdivision three of section 11-604 16 of this chapter, of any corporation which may be required to be allo-17 cated within the city for purposes of the tax imposed by any of the 18 named subchapters or chapter eleven of this title.

19 2. (a) Any officer or employee of the state or city who willfully 20 violates the provisions of subdivision one of this section shall be 21 dismissed from office and be incapable of holding any public office in 22 the city or this state for a period of five years thereafter.

23 (b) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
24 title.

25 3. Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, the commissioner of 26 finance may permit the secretary of the treasury of the United States or 27 his or her delegates, or the proper officer of this or any other state 28 charged with tax administration, or the authorized representative of 29 either such officer, to inspect the returns or reports filed under any 30 of the named subchapters, or may furnish to such officer or his or her 31 authorized representative an abstract of any such return or report or 32 supply information concerning an item contained in any such return or 33 report, or supply him or her with information concerning an item 34 contained in any such return or report, or disclosed by an investigation 35 of tax liability under any of the named subchapters, but such permission 36 shall be granted or such information furnished to such officer or his or 37 her representative only if the laws of the United States or of such 38 state, as the case may be, grant substantially similar privileges to the 39 commissioner of finance and such information is to be used for tax 40 purposes only; and provided further the commissioner of finance may 41 furnish to the secretary of the treasury of the United States or his or 42 her delegates or to the tax commission of the state of New York or its 43 delegates such returns or reports filed under any of the named subchap-44 ters and other tax information, as he or she may consider proper, for 45 use in court actions or proceedings under the internal revenue code or 46 the tax law of the state of New York, whether civil or criminal, where a 47 written request therefor has been made to the commissioner of finance by 48 the secretary of the treasury or by such tax commission or by their 49 delegates, provided the laws of the United States or the laws of the 50 state of New York grant substantially similar powers to the secretary of 51 the treasury or his or her delegates or to such tax commission or its 52 delegates. Where the commissioner of finance has so authorized use of 53 returns, reports or other information in such actions or proceedings, 54 officers and employees of the department of finance may testify in such 55 actions or proceedings in respect to such returns, reports of other 56 information.

1 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 2 the commissioner of finance, in his or her discretion, may require or 3 permit any or all persons liable for any tax imposed by this chapter to 4 make payments on account of estimated tax and payment of any tax, penal-5 ty or interest imposed by this chapter to banks, banking houses or trust 6 companies designated by the commissioner of finance and to file declara-7 tions of estimated tax, applications for automatic extensions of time to 8 file reports, and reports with such banks, banking houses or trust 9 companies as agents of the commissioner of finance, in lieu of making 10 any such payment directly to the commissioner of finance. However, the 11 commissioner of finance shall designate only such banks, banking houses 12 or trust companies as are depositories or financial agents of the city.

13 5. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
14 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
15 cers law.

16 6. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision one of this section to the 17 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 18 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
19 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
20 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
21 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer, 22 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be 23 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax 24 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 25 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the 26 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
27 teen hundred ninety-four.

28 7. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision one of this section, the 29 commissioner of finance may disclose to a taxpayer or a taxpayer's 30 related member, as defined in paragraph (n) of subdivision eight of 31 section 11-602, paragraph (n) of subdivision eight of section 11-652 or 32 paragraph one of subdivision (q) of section 11-641 of this chapter, 33 information relating to any royalty paid, incurred or received by such 34 taxpayer or related member to or from the other, including the treatment 35 of such payments by the taxpayer or the related member in any report or 36 return transmitted to the commissioner of finance under this title.

37 § 11-689 Disposition of revenues. All revenues resulting from the 38 imposition of the taxes under this chapter shall be paid into the treas-39 ury of the city and shall be credited to and deposited in the general 40 fund of the city, but no part of such revenues may be expended unless 41 appropriated in the annual budget of the city.

55 hundred seventy, every tenant shall pay a tax at the rates shown in the 56 following table:

19 be determined by assuming that the rent is on an equivalent basis for 29 fifty dollars a month, such rent shall be excluded from such tenant's 30 base rent. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be construed as 31 indicating an intent to exclude any base rent from the tax imposed by 32 this chapter merely because it is paid as part of an undivided rent for 33 premises which are only partially used as taxable premises.

34 d. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be in addition to any and 42 the proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the 43 tax hereby imposed it shall be presumed that all premises are taxable 44 premises and that all rent paid or required to be paid by a tenant is 45 base rent until the contrary is established, and the burden of proving 46 that such presumptive base rent or any portion thereof is not included 47 in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be on the 48 tenant.

49 b. Where a tenant uses premises both for residential purposes and as 50 taxable premises and the tenant pays an undivided rent for the premises 51 so used, it shall be conclusively presumed against such tenant that the 52 rent ascribable to so much of such premises as is used as taxable prem-53 ises shall be the amount which such tenant deducts as rent for such 54 premises in determining the tenant's federal income tax, as reduced by 46 tax year, equal to the difference between the total number of days in 47 the tax year of relocation and the number of days in such tax year of 48 relocation commencing with and following the date of relocation, and 49 provided, further, that there shall be no such reduction with respect to 50 premises used for retail activity or hotel services.

51 2. (i) For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "eligible area," 52 "eligible aggregate employment shares," "relocate," "retail activity" 53 and "hotel services" shall have the meanings ascribed by section 22-621 54 of the code of the preceding municipality, provided that whenever the 55 term "taxable year" appears in such section 22-621, such term shall be 56 read as "tax year," as the term "tax year" is defined in subdivision

23 4. No tenant shall be authorized to receive a reduction in base rent 24 subject to tax under the provisions of this subdivision, until the prem-

27 obtained a certification of eligibility from the mayor or an agency 28 designated by the mayor, and an annual certification from the mayor or 29 an agency designated by the mayor as to the number of eligible aggregate 30 employment shares maintained by such tenant which may qualify for 31 obtaining a base rent reduction for the tenant's tax year. Any written 56 submission of such preliminary application; or

1 (b) (1) not later than June thirtieth, two thousand ten, such business 2 has purchased, leased or entered into a contract to purchase or lease 3 particular premises wholly contained in a building in which at least an 4 aggregate of forty per centum or two hundred thousand square feet, 5 whichever is less, of the nonresidential floor area of such building has 6 been purchased or leased by a business or businesses which meet or will 7 meet the requirements of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph with respect 24 from the tenant's sales within such place, the tenant's rent, to the 25 extent paid on the basis of such gross receipts, shall be deemed not to 26 exceed fifteen percent of such gross receipts.

27 h. (1) In the case of any taxable premises located in the borough of 28 Manhattan north of the center line of ninety-sixth street or in the 29 boroughs of the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island, the base rent

51 ninety-eight and thereafter, such reduction to be made after all other 52 exemptions and deductions authorized by this chapter have been taken.

53 i. (1) (a) (i) For purposes of, and to the extent relevant to, this 54 subdivision, the following terms shall, except to the extent hereinafter 55 modified, have the definitions assigned to such terms in section four 56 hundred ninety-nine-a of the real property tax law, and such definitions

1 shall apply with the same force and effect as if they had been set forth 2 in full in this subdivision: "abatement zone," "aggregate floor area," 3 "applicant," "department of finance," "eligible building," "eligibility 4 period," "eligible premises," "expansion premises," "expansion tenant," 5 "governmental agency," "landlord," "lease commencement date," "mixed-use 6 building," "new tenant," "person," "relocation area," "renewal tenant," 7 "rent commencement date," "subtenant" and "tenant."

8 (ii) For purposes of this subdivision, the definitions assigned by 9 clause (i) of this subparagraph to the terms "eligible premises," 10 "expansion tenant," "landlord," "new tenant" and "renewal tenant" shall 11 be modified as follows: (A) whenever the term "eligible building" 12 appears in any of such definitions, such term, notwithstanding anything 13 to the contrary, shall be deemed to include an eligible government-owned 14 building and, for purposes of subparagraph (b-2) of paragraph two of 15 subdivision i of this section, a non-residential or mixed-use building 16 located south of the center line of Canal Street in the borough of 17 Manhattan, regardless of when it received its initial certificate of 18 occupancy or initial temporary certificate of occupancy and regardless 19 of when it was constructed and shall be deemed to include an eligible 20 government-owned building; and (B) a reference in any of such defi-21 nitions to a lease which meets the eligibility requirements of section 22 four hundred ninety-nine-c of the real property tax law shall be deemed 23 to include, in the case of a lease of premises in an eligible govern-24 ment-owned building, a lease which meets the eligibility requirements of 25 paragraph four of this subdivision.

26 (b) When used in this subdivision, the following terms shall mean or 27 include: (i) "Eligible government-owned building." A building that 28 would be an eligible building, as such term is defined in section four 29 hundred ninety-nine-a of the real property tax law, but for the fact 30 that it is owned by a governmental agency.

31 (ii) "Eligible taxable premises." Taxable premises that are eligible 32 premises or expansion premises.

33 (iii) "Eligible tenant." A tenant with respect to whose lease of 34 eligible taxable premises there has been issued a certificate of abate-

43 law.

44 (vii) "Certificate of eligibility." The certificate of eligibility

46 (2) (a) An eligible tenant of eligible taxable premises shall be

49 with respect to the rent for such eligible taxable premises for a period 50 not exceeding sixty months or, with respect to a lease commencing on or 51 after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven with an initial lease 52 term of less than five years, but not less than three years, for a peri-

54 date applicable to such eligible taxable premises, provided, however, 55 that in no event shall any special reduction be allowed for any period 56 beginning after March thirty-first, two thousand thirty-four. For 1 purposes of applying such special reduction, the base rent for the base 2 year shall, where necessary to determine the amount of the special 3 reduction allowable with respect to any number of months falling within 4 a tax period, be prorated by dividing the base rent for the base year by 5 twelve and multiplying the result by such number of months.

6 (a-1) Notwithstanding paragraph one of this subdivision, for purposes 7 of, and to the extent relevant to, the special reduction allowed by this 8 subparagraph, the definitions set forth in section four hundred ninety-9 nine-aa of the real property tax law shall apply with the same force and 10 effect as if they had been set forth in full in this subdivision, except 11 as such definitions are hereinafter modified. An eligible tenant of 12 eligible taxable premises shall be allowed a special reduction in deter-

20 (iii) the lease for such eligible taxable premises commences within the 21 eligibility period applicable to the abatement zone defined in paragraph 22 (c) of subdivision two of section four hundred ninety-nine-aa of the 23 real property tax law, (iv) the lease for such eligible taxable premises 24 has an initial lease term of at least three years and (v) such special 25 reduction is limited to the benefit period, as defined in subdivision

28 sand five for eligible premises located within the abatement zone 29 defined in paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section four hundred 30 ninety-nine-aa of the real property tax law.

31 (a-2) The amount of the special reduction allowed by subparagraph 32 (a-1) of this paragraph shall be determined as follows: (i) For the 33 base year the amount of such special reduction shall be equal to the 34 base rent for the base year.

35 (ii) For the first through ninth twelve-month periods following the 36 base year the amount of such special reduction shall be equal to the 37 lesser of (A) the base rent for each such twelve-month period or (B) the 38 base rent for the base year.

39 (a-3) When used in this subdivision, for purposes of the special 40 reduction allowed by subparagraph (a-1) of this paragraph, the following 41 terms shall mean or include: (i) "Eligible taxable premises." Taxable 42 premises that are eligible premises or expansion premises.

43 (ii) "Eligible tenant." A tenant with respect to whose lease of eligi-

48 taxable premises for the base year, determined without the special 49 reduction allowed by subparagraph (a-1) of this paragraph.

50 (v) "Certificate of abatement." The certificate of abatement issued 51 pursuant to section four hundred ninety-nine-dd of the real property tax 52 law.

53 (b) Except as provided in subparagraphs (b-1) and (b-2) of this para-54 graph, the amount of the special reduction allowed by this subdivision 55 shall be determined as follows: (i) For the base year the amount of 1 such special reduction shall be equal to the base rent for the base

2 year.

3 (ii) For the first and second twelve-month periods following the base 4 year the amount of such special reduction shall be equal to the lesser 5 of (A) the base rent for each such twelve-month period or (B) the base 6 rent for the base year.

7 (iii) For the third twelve-month period following the base year the 8 amount of such special reduction shall be equal to two-thirds of the 9 lesser of (A) the base rent for such twelve-month period or (B) the base 10 rent for the base year.

11 (iv) For the fourth twelve-month period following the base year the 12 amount of such special reduction shall be equal to one-third of the 13 lesser of (A) the base rent for such twelve-month period or (B) the base 14 rent for the base year.

15 (b-1) The amount of the special reduction allowed by this subdivision
16 with respect to a lease commencing on or after April first, nineteen 17 hundred ninety-seven with an initial lease term of less than five years, 18 but not less than three years, shall be determined as follows: (i) For 19 the base year the amount of such special reduction shall be equal to the 20 base rent for the base year.

21 (ii) For the first twelve-month period following the base year the 22 amount of such special reduction shall be equal to two-thirds of the 23 lesser of (A) the base rent for such twelve-month period or (B) the base 24 rent for the base year.

25 (iii) For the second twelve-month period following the base year the 26 amount of such special reduction shall be equal to one-third of the 27 lesser of (A) the base rent for such twelve-month period or (B) the base 28 rent for the base year.

29 (b-2) The amount of the special reduction allowed by this subdivision
30 with respect to a lease other than a sublease commencing between July 31 first, two thousand five and June thirtieth, two thousand twenty-seven

33 determined as follows: (i) For the base year the amount of such special 34 reduction shall be equal to the base rent for the base year.

35 (ii) For the first, second, third and fourth twelve-month periods 36 following the base year the amount of such special reduction shall be 37 equal to the lesser of (A) the base rent for each such twelve-month 38 period or (B) the base rent for the base year.

39 (c) For purposes of determining (i) whether a tenant is, pursuant to 40 the provisions of paragraph two of subdivision b of this section, exempt 41 from payment of the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to the base 42 rent for eligible taxable premises or (ii) whether, and the extent to 43 which, a tenant is eligible for the credit allowed pursuant to the 44 provisions of section 11-704.3 of this chapter with respect to eligible 45 taxable premises, the term "base rent" as used in such provisions shall 46 be the base rent as determined prior to the allowance of any special 47 reduction allowed by this subdivision.

48 (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, for purposes of this 49 subdivision, expansion premises shall be treated as separate and 50 distinct from any other premises of the expansion tenant in the same 51 eligible building.

52 (3) The special reduction allowed by this subdivision shall be allowed 53 commencing on the rent commencement date; however, if the date of the 54 certificate of abatement or certificate of eligibility is later than the 55 rent commencement date, the tenant shall not, in the first instance, 56 claim the special reduction on any return required to be filed for a tax

1 period ending prior to the date of such certificate of abatement or 2 certificate of eligibility. If the date of such certificate of abatement 3 or certificate of eligibility falls in a tax period subsequent to the 4 tax period in which the rent commencement date falls, but both such 5 dates fall within the same tax year, the special reduction that was not 6 claimed in the first instance for any period preceding the date of such 7 certificate of abatement or certificate of eligibility shall be 8 reflected in the final return for the tax year. If the date of the 9 certificate of abatement or certificate of eligibility falls in the tax 10 year following the tax year in which the rent commencement date falls, 11 an amended final return shall be filed for such earlier tax year in 12 which shall be reflected any special reduction allowable for such tax 13 year; in addition, the final return for such later tax year shall 14 reflect any special reduction that was not claimed in the first instance 15 for any period in such tax year preceding the date of the certificate of 16 abatement or certificate of eligibility.

17 (4) (a) With respect to premises located in an eligible government-18 owned building, no special reduction shall be allowed under this subdi-19 vision unless: (i) the landlord enters into a lease for eligible prem-20 ises with a new tenant or a renewal tenant and: (A) the lease 21 commencement date is within the eligibility period; and (B) (I) if, by 22 the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, such new or 23 renewal tenant employs fifty or fewer employees in the eligible prem-24 ises, the initial lease term is for a period of at least five years, 25 provided, however, that with respect to a lease commencing on or after 26 July first, nineteen hundred ninety-six if, by the sixtieth day follow-27 ing the rent commencement date, such new or renewal tenant employs one 28 hundred twenty-five or fewer employees in the eligible premises, the 29 initial lease term is for a period of at least five years, and provided, 30 further, that with respect to a lease commencing on or after April 31 first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven if, by the sixtieth day following 32 the rent commencement date, such new or renewal tenant employs one 33 hundred twenty-five or fewer employees in the eligible premises, the 34 initial lease term is for a period of at least three years, or (II) if, 35 by the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, such new or 36 renewal tenant employs more than fifty employees in the eligible prem-37 ises, the initial lease term is for a period of at least ten years, 38 provided, however, that with respect to a lease commencing on or after 39 July first, nineteen hundred ninety-six if, by the sixtieth day follow-40 ing the rent commencement date, such new or renewal tenant employs more 41 than one hundred twenty-five employees in the eligible premises, the 42 initial lease term is for a period of at least ten years; or 43 (ii) the landlord enters into a lease with an expansion tenant for 44 expansion premises and: (A) the lease commencement date is within the 45 eligibility period; (B) if the expansion premises are located in the 46 eligible building previously occupied by such expansion tenant, the 47 lease term for the premises in the eligible building previously occupied 48 by such expansion tenant will expire no earlier than the expiration date 49 of the initial lease term for the expansion premises, provided that 50 where such expansion tenant occupies premises in the eligible building 51 under more than one lease, the provisions of this subclause shall be 52 applied with reference to the lease for the premises containing the 53 largest amount of square feet, provided, however, that this subclause 54 shall not apply to a lease commencing on or after July first, nineteen 55 hundred ninety-six; and (C) (I) if, by the sixtieth day following the 56 rent commencement date, such expansion tenant employs fifty or fewer

1 employees in the eligible building in which the expansion premises are 2 located, the initial lease term for the expansion premises is for a 3 period of at least five years, provided, however, that with respect to a 4 lease commencing on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety-six if,
5 by the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, such expansion 6 tenant employs one hundred twenty-five or fewer employees in the expansion 7 premises, the initial lease term for the expansion premises is for 8 a period of at least five years, and provided, further, that with 9 respect to a lease commencing on or after April first, nineteen hundred 10 ninety-seven if, by the sixtieth day following the rent commencement 11 date, such expansion tenant employs one hundred twenty-five or fewer 12 employees in the expansion premises, the initial lease term for the 13 expansion premises is for a period of at least three years, or (II) if,
14 by the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, such expansion 15 tenant employs more than fifty employees in such eligible building, the 16 initial lease term for the expansion premises is for a period of at 17 least ten years, provided, however, that with respect to a lease 18 commencing on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety-six if, by 19 the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, such expansion 20 tenant employs more than one hundred twenty-five employees in the expansion 21 premises, the initial lease term for the expansion premises is for 22 a period of at least ten years.

23 (b) Notwithstanding anything in this subdivision to the contrary, with 24 respect to premises located in an eligible government-owned building, no 25 certificate of eligibility shall be issued and no special reduction 26 shall be allowed under this subdivision if: (i) the tenant has relo-27 cated to such premises from any area in the borough of Manhattan north 28 of the center line of 96th street or from any portion of the boroughs of 29 the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens, or Staten Island; or (ii) the lease for 30 such premises provides that during the initial lease term required under 31 subparagraph (a) of this paragraph either the landlord or the tenant may 32 terminate such lease prior to the expiration of such required initial 33 lease term, provided that such lease may provide that either the land-34 lord or the tenant may terminate such lease if (A) the other party is in 35 default of any of such party's obligations under the lease, (B) the 36 eligible premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, 37 (C) the eligible premises are rendered unusable for any reason not 38 attributable to any act or failure to act of either tenant or landlord 39 or (D) the eligible premises are acquired by eminent domain.

40 (c) For purposes of this paragraph, the expiration date of a lease 41 shall be determined by the expiration date set forth in such lease, 42 without giving effect to any rights of the landlord or the tenant to 43 terminate such lease prior to the expiration date set forth therein.

44 (5) (a) (i) With respect to premises located in an eligible govern-45 ment-owned building, an application for a certificate of eligibility 46 entitling a tenant to claim the special reduction allowed by this subdivi-47 sion shall be filed by such tenant with the department of finance on 48 or after the date on which the lease for the eligible premises is 49 executed by the landlord and tenant but in no event more than one 50 hundred eighty days following the later of the rent commencement date or 51 the date that chapter four of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-five 52 became a law, and no such certificate of eligibility shall be issued 53 unless such application is filed within such time.

54 (ii) Notwithstanding clause (i) of this subparagraph and any other 55 provision of law to the contrary, with respect to a lease commencing on 56 or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety-six in premises located in

1 an eligible government-owned building, an application for a certificate 2 of eligibility entitling a tenant to claim the special reduction allowed 3 by this subdivision shall be filed by such tenant with the department of 4 finance on or after the date on which the lease for the eligible prem-5 ises is executed by the landlord and tenant but in no event more than 6 one hundred eighty days following the rent commencement date or sixty 7 days following the date that the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred 8 ninety-seven that added this clause became a law, whichever is later, 9 and no such certificate of eligibility shall be issued unless such 10 application is filed within such time.

11 (iii) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, an 12 application for the special reduction allowed by subparagraph (b-2) of 13 paragraph two of this subdivision shall be considered timely filed if 14 filed by such tenant with the department of finance on or after the date 15 on which the lease for the eligible premises is executed by the landlord 16 and tenant but in no event more than one hundred eighty days following 17 the rent commencement date or by May thirtieth, two thousand fourteen, 18 whichever is later, and no such special reduction shall be permitted 19 unless such application is filed within such time.

20 (b) In addition to any other information required by the department of 21 finance, such application for a certificate of eligibility shall include 22 (i) an abstract of the lease for the eligible taxable premises, which 23 shall include the lease commencement date, the rent commencement date 24 and the expiration date of such lease, (ii) a statement as to the number 25 of persons employed by the tenant in the eligible taxable premises and, 26 where applicable, in the eligible building containing such premises, by 27 the sixtieth day following the rent commencement date, (iii) a statement 28 as to the location of all office or retail space in the city occupied by 29 the tenant prior to the execution of the lease for the eligible taxable 30 premises and the commencement and expiration dates of all leases for 33 subject to such rules as may be issued from time to time by the depart-34 ment of finance.

35 (c) The department of finance shall issue a certificate of eligibility 36 upon determining that an application filed pursuant to this paragraph 37 meets the requirements set forth in this subdivision, provided, however, 38 that no such certificate of eligibility shall be issued if any payments 39 in lieu of taxes, water or sewer charges or other lienable charges are 40 due and owing with respect to such eligible government-owned building at 41 the time such application is pending, unless such payments in lieu of 42 taxes or charges are at such time being paid in timely installments 43 pursuant to a written agreement with the department of finance or other 44 appropriate agency.

45 (d) The burden of proof shall be on the tenant to show by clear and 46 convincing evidence that the requirements for granting a certificate of 47 eligibility have been satisfied. The department of finance shall have 48 the authority to require that statements in connection with applications 49 pursuant to this paragraph be made under oath.

50 (e) The department of finance may provide by rule for the payment by 51 tenants of premises in eligible government-owned buildings of reasonable 52 administrative charges or fees necessary to defray expenses in 53 connection with the determination of initial and continuing eligibility 54 for the special reduction allowed by this subdivision.

55 (6) (a) If an eligible tenant (i) sublets any portion of the eligible 56 taxable premises to any other person, or (ii) otherwise ceases to occupy

1 or use any portion of the premises as eligible taxable premises, such 2 tenant shall, immediately upon the occurrence of any such event, cease 3 to be eligible for the special reduction allowed by this subdivision 4 with respect to the portion of the premises which is sublet or which 5 ceases to be occupied or used by such tenant as eligible taxable prem-6 ises, and for any period following the occurrence of any such event, the 7 special reduction otherwise allowed by this subdivision shall be reduced 8 by an amount determined by multiplying the amount of such special 9 reduction by the percentage of the premises which is sublet or which has 10 ceased to be occupied or used as eligible taxable premises.

11 Such tenant shall give written notice of the occurrence of any such 12 event to the department of finance within thirty days thereof. If the 13 tenant fails to give such notice, an assessment of any additional tax 14 that may become due as a result of the occurrence of any such event may 15 be made at any time, notwithstanding anything in section 11-717 of this 16 chapter to the contrary.

17 (b) Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, a tenant 18 claiming the special reduction allowed by this subdivision shall file a 19 return for each tax period with respect to which such special reduction 20 is claimed. Each such return shall contain a certification by the 21 tenant, in such form as the department of finance may prescribe, to the 22 effect that such tenant meets all the requirements of this subdivision, 23 and no special reduction shall be allowed if such return does not 24 contain such certification by such tenant.

25 (c) If any special reduction allowed under this subdivision was 26 obtained by a tenant as a result of having made a false or misleading 27 statement as to a material fact or having omitted to state any material 28 fact necessary in order to make such statement not false or misleading, 29 no such special reduction shall be allowed and any additional tax that 30 becomes due as a result of such disallowance may be assessed at any 31 time, notwithstanding anything in section 11-717 of this chapter to the 32 contrary. In addition, the department of finance may declare any such 33 tenant to be ineligible to claim any special reduction under this subdivi-34 sion in the future with respect to the same or any other premises.

35 7. A determination by the department of finance pursuant to subdivi-36 sion six of section four hundred ninety-nine-f of the real property tax 37 law to deny, terminate or revoke any abatement applied for or granted 38 pursuant to title four of article four of the real property tax law 39 based on the relationship between the landlord and the tenant shall not 40 be dispositive of whether such tenant is eligible for a special 41 reduction under this subdivision. The department of finance may deter-42 mine that such tenant is eligible for a special reduction under this 43 subdivision and may issue a certificate of eligibility to such tenant in 44 accordance with the procedures and pursuant to the standards applicable 45 to a tenant of premises located in an eligible government-owned build-46 ing, provided, however, that any application filed pursuant to paragraph 47 five of this subdivision by a tenant whose application for a certificate 48 of abatement pursuant to title four of article four of the real property 49 tax law was denied by the department of finance pursuant to subdivision 50 six of section four hundred ninety-nine-f of the real property tax law 51 based on the relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by a 52 tenant whose application for a certificate of abatement pursuant to 53 title four of article four of the real property tax law was granted by 54 the department of finance, but whose abatement was terminated or revoked 55 by the department of finance pursuant to subdivision six of section four 56 hundred ninety-nine-f of the real property tax law based on the 1 relationship between the landlord and the tenant, may be deemed by the 2 department of finance to have been filed on the date the application for 3 such certificate of abatement was filed. This paragraph shall only apply 4 to leases commencing on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-5 seven.

6 § 11-704.2 Special credit. A tenant whose base rent for the tax year
 7 beginning June first, nineteen hundred ninety-three and ending May thir-

 12 twenty-five percent of the tax imposed on such base rent for such tax 13 year. Where the base rent of a tenant is for a period of less than one 14 year, such base rent shall, for purposes of this section, be determined 15 as if it had been on an equivalent basis for the entire year. The credit 16 allowed under this section shall be deducted prior to the deduction of 17 any credit allowable under section 11-704.1 of this chapter.

18 § 11-704.3 Tax credit. (a) (1) For the period beginning September

 22 the following table:

12 If the tenant's base rent is over one hundred thirty-nine thousand 13 nine hundred ninety-nine dollars, no credit shall be allowed under this 14 paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, 'base rent' shall be calcu-15 lated without regard to any reduction in base rent allowed by paragraph 16 two of subdivision h of section 11-704 of this chapter.

29	$130,000	$139,999	20%

30 If the tenant's annualized base rent for such period is over one 31 hundred thirty-nine thousand nine hundred ninety-nine dollars, no credit 32 shall be allowed under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph 33 'base rent' shall be calculated without regard to any reduction in base 34 rent allowed by paragraph two of subdivision h of section 11-704 of this
35 chapter.

36 (5) For the period beginning December first, two thousand and ending 37 May thirty-first, two thousand one, a credit shall be allowed against 38 the tax imposed by this chapter, such credit to be determined in accord-39 ance with the following table:

1 shall be allowed under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph,
2 'base rent' shall be calculated without regard to any reduction in base 3 rent allowed by paragraph two of subdivision h of section 11-704 of this
4 chapter.

5 (6) For each tax year beginning on or after June first, two thousand 6 one, a credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter 7 as follows: a tenant whose base rent is at least two hundred and fifty 8 thousand dollars but not more than three hundred thousand dollars shall 9 be allowed a credit in an amount determined by multiplying three and 10 nine-tenths percent of base rent by a fraction the numerator of which is 11 three hundred thousand dollars minus the amount of base rent and the 12 denominator of which is fifty thousand dollars. If the tenant's base 13 rent is over three hundred thousand dollars, no credit shall be allowed 14 under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, 'base rent' shall 15 be calculated without regard to any reduction in base rent allowed by 16 paragraph two of subdivision h of section 11-704 of this chapter.

17 (b) (1) Where the base rent of a tenant is for a period of less than 18 one year, such base rent shall, for purposes of this section, be deter-19 mined as if it had been on an equivalent basis for the entire year. The 20 credits allowed under this section shall be deducted prior to the 21 deduction of any credit allowable under section 11-704.1 of this chap-
22 ter.

23 (2) For purposes of paragraphs four and five of subdivision (a) of 24 this section, base rent for the period specified in each of such para-25 graphs shall be separately annualized as if it had been on an equivalent 26 basis for an entire year, irrespective of the actual base rent for the 27 tax year including the period specified in such paragraph.

28 § 11-704.4. Small business tax credit. a. As used in this section, the 29 following terms have the following meanings:

30 1. Income factor. The term "income factor" shall mean:

31 (i) for a tenant with total income of not more than five million 32 dollars, one;

33 (ii) for a tenant with total income of more than five million dollars 34 but not more than ten million dollars, a fraction the numerator of which 35 is ten million dollars minus the amount of total income and the denomi-36 nator of which is five million dollars; and 37 (iii) for a tenant with total income of more than ten million dollars, 38 zero.

39 2. Rent factor. The term "rent factor" shall mean:

40 (i) for a tenant whose small business tax credit base rent is less 41 than five hundred thousand dollars, one; and 42 (ii) for a tenant whose small business tax credit base rent is at 43 least five hundred thousand dollars but not more than five hundred fifty 44 thousand dollars, a fraction the numerator of which is five hundred 45 fifty thousand dollars minus the amount of small business tax credit 46 base rent and the denominator of which is fifty thousand dollars.

47 3. Small business tax credit base rent. The term "small business tax 48 credit base rent" shall mean the base rent calculated without regard to 49 any reduction in base rent allowed by paragraph two of subdivision h of 50 section 11-704 of this chapter.

51 4. Total income. The term "total income" shall mean the amount 52 reported by a person, as defined by section seven thousand seven hundred 53 one of the internal revenue code, to the internal revenue service for 54 the purpose of the federal income tax in the tax year immediately 55 preceding the period for which the tenant is applying for the credit set 56 forth in subdivision b that is equal to the gross receipts or sales of 1 the person minus any returns and allowances, minus the cost of goods

2 sold plus the amount of any dividends, interest, gross rents, gross 3 royalties, capital gain net income, net gain or loss from the sale of 4 business property, net farm profit or loss, ordinary income or loss from 5 other partnerships, estates or trusts or other income or loss; except 6 that, if the tenant is a limited liability company or other business 7 entity that is not separate from its owner for federal income tax 8 purposes under section 301.7701-2(c)(2) of title 26 of the code of 9 federal regulations, total income as defined in this section shall mean 10 the total income of the person that reports the activities of the tenant 11 as its sole owner for federal income tax purposes.

12 b. Beginning on June first, two thousand eighteen and for each tax 13 year beginning thereafter, a credit shall be allowed against the tax 14 imposed by this chapter as follows: a tenant whose small business tax 15 credit base rent is at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars but not 16 more than five hundred fifty thousand dollars shall be allowed a credit 17 in the amount determined by multiplying the tax imposed on the tenant 18 pursuant to section 11-702 of this chapter minus any allowable credits 19 or exemptions set forth outside this section by the income factor and by 20 the rent factor. If the tenant's small business tax credit base rent is 21 over five hundred fifty thousand dollars, no credit shall be allowed 22 under this section.

23 c. The department of finance may promulgate any rules necessary to 24 implement the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, 25 rules that prevent abuse of this section by related parties.

26 § 11-705 Returns. a. Every tenant subject to tax under this chapter 27 shall file with the commissioner of finance a return with respect to the 28 taxes payable for the three month periods ending on the last days of 29 August, November and February of each year and a final return with 30 respect to the taxes payable for the tax year ending on the last day of 31 May of each year. Such returns shall be filed within twenty days from 32 the expiration of the period covered thereby. A tenant who is exempt 33 from the tax by reason of paragraph two of subdivision b of section 34 11-704 of this chapter shall nevertheless be required to file a final 35 return, provided, however, that for tax years beginning on or after June 36 first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and ending on or before May thirty-37 first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven, no such final return shall be 38 required from such exempt tenant with respect to taxable premises if (1) 39 the tenant's rent for such premises, determined without regard to any 40 deduction from or reduction in rent or base rent allowed by this chap-
41 ter, does not exceed fifteen thousand dollars for the tax year and (2) 42 in the case of a tenant who has more than one taxable premises, the 43 aggregate rents for all such premises, determined without regard to any 44 deduction from or reduction in rent or base rent allowed by this chap-
45 ter, do not exceed fifteen thousand dollars for the tax year. For tax 46 years beginning on June first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven and ending 47 on or before May thirty-first, two thousand one, no such final return 48 shall be required from such exempt tenant with respect to any taxable 49 premises if (1) the tenant's rent for such premises, determined without 50 regard to any deduction from or reduction in rent or base rent allowed 51 by this chapter, does not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars for the 52 tax year and (2) the amount of rent received or due from any subtenant 53 of such exempt tenant with respect to such premises does not exceed 54 seventy-five thousand dollars for the tax year. For tax years beginning 55 on or after June first, two thousand one, no such final return shall be 56 required from such exempt tenant with respect to any taxable premises if

1 (1) the tenant's rent for such premises, determined without regard to 2 any deduction from or reduction in rent or base rent allowed by this 3 chapter, does not exceed two hundred thousand dollars for the tax year 4 and (2) the amount of rent received or due from any subtenant of such 5 exempt tenant with respect to such premises does not exceed two hundred 6 thousand dollars for the tax year. Notwithstanding anything in this 7 subdivision to the contrary, for tax periods beginning on or after 8 September first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, no return shall be 9 required pursuant to this subdivision with respect to any taxable prem-10 ises located in that part of the city specified in paragraph one of 11 subdivision h of section 11-704 of this chapter, and no such taxable 12 premises shall be taken into account for purposes of clause two of this 13 subparagraph. The commissioner of finance may permit or require returns, 14 including final returns, to be made for other periods and upon such 15 dates as the commissioner may specify and if he or she deems it neces-16 sary, in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, 17 the commissioner may require such returns to be made for shorter periods 18 than those prescribed by this subdivision of this section, and upon such 19 dates as he or she may specify.

20 b. The commissioner of finance may by regulation require the filing 21 of information returns and supplemental information returns by landlords 22 and by tenants of taxable premises, whether or not they are required to 23 pay the tax imposed by this chapter, upon such dates or at such times as 24 the commissioner may specify if he or she deems the filing of such 25 information returns necessary for proper administration of this chapter.

26 c. The form of returns and information returns shall be prescribed by 27 the commissioner of finance and shall contain such information as the 28 commissioner may deem necessary for the proper administration of this 29 chapter. The commissioner of finance may require amended returns or 30 amended information returns to be filed within twenty days after notice 31 and to contain the information specified in the notice.

32 d. If a return or information return is not filed, or if a return of 33 any kind when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face, the 34 commissioner of finance shall take the necessary steps to enforce the 35 filing of such a return or of a corrected return.

36 § 11-706 Payment of tax. a. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be 37 due and payable on or before the twentieth day of the calendar month 38 following the end of each tax period and shall be paid to the commis-39 sioner of finance, as follows: The tax to be paid at such time shall be 40 based on the base rent for such tax period and the rate of tax shall be 41 the one which would be applicable if the base rent for such period were 42 the same for each tax period during the tax year, except that the 43 payment required to be made together with the final return or at the 44 time that the final return should be filed shall be the amount by which 45 the actual tax for the tax year exceeds the amounts previously paid for 46 the tax year.

47 b. Where the final return shows that the amount of tax paid for the 48 tax year exceeds the actual tax for such year, the commissioner of 49 finance shall make the appropriate refund as promptly as possible, 50 provided, however, that where the commissioner of finance has reason to 51 believe that the final return is inaccurate, the commissioner may with-52 hold the refund in whole or in part. The making of a refund pursuant to 53 this subdivision shall not prevent the commissioner of finance from 54 making a determination that additional tax is due or from pursuing any 55 other method to recover the full amount of the actual tax due for the 56 tax year.

1 c. Where a tenant ceases to do business the tax, as measured by the 2 tenant's base rent for the prior part of the tax year, shall be due 3 immediately, and the tenant shall file a final return, but, should the 4 tenant continue to pay rent for the taxable premises, the tenant shall 5 file the normally required returns and a final return for the tax year, 6 provided, however, that any such tax payment shall be applied in 7 reduction of the tax payments required to be made with such returns or 8 with the final return for such tax year.

9 § 11-707 Records to be kept. Every landlord of taxable premises and 10 every tenant of taxable premises shall keep records of rent paid and 11 received by him or her in such form as the commissioner of finance may 12 by regulation require, all leases or agreements which fix the rents or 13 rights of tenants of taxable premises, and such other records, receipts 14 and other papers relevant to the ascertainment of the tax due under this 15 chapter as the commissioner of finance may by regulation require. Such 16 records shall be offered for inspection and examination at any time upon 17 demand by the commissioner of finance. Such records, unless the commis-18 sioner of finance consents to a sooner destruction or requires that they 19 be kept for a longer time, shall be preserved for a period of three 20 years except that leases or agreements which fix the rents or rights of 21 a tenant shall be kept for a period of three years after the expiration 22 of the tenancy thereunder.

23 § 11-708 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter is 24 not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the 25 commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of tax due from such 26 information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, may estimate the tax 27 on the basis of external indices. Notice of such determination shall be 28 given to the person liable for the payment of the tax. Such determi-
29 nation shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person 30 against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after the giving of 31 notice of such determination or, if the commissioner of finance has 32 established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this 33 title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in 34 accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing of a concil-35 iation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the 36 discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a peti-37 tion upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a petition with the 38 tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the commissioner of 39 finance of the commissioner's own motion shall redetermine the same.
40 Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc 41 from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the 42 manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
43 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
44 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
45 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing 46 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person
47 against whom the tax is assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A 48 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable
49 for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatso-
50 ever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 51 law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by 52 the person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after 53 the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision, 54 provided, however, that any such proceeding under article seventy-eight 55 of the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted by a taxpay-56 er unless: (a) the amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with inter-

1 est and penalties thereon, if any, shall be first deposited and there is 2 filed an undertaking with the commissioner of finance, issued by a sure-3 ty company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by 4 the superintendent of insurance of this state as to solvency and respon-5 sibility, in such amount as a justice of the supreme court shall approve 6 to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed 7 the taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the 8 prosecution of such proceeding or (b) at the option of the taxpayer such 9 undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, interest and 10 penalties stated in such decision plus the costs and charges which may 11 accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event 12 the taxpayer shall not be required to pay such taxes, interest or penal-13 ties as a condition precedent to the application.

14 § 11-709 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 15 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 16 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally
17 collected or paid, if written application to the commissioner of finance 18 for such refund shall be made within eighteen months from the date fixed 19 by this chapter for filing the return on which such payment was based or 20 within six months of the payment thereof, whichever of such periods 21 expire the later. Whenever a refund or credit is made or denied, the 22 commissioner of finance shall state his or her reason therefor and give 23 notice thereof to the taxpayer in writing. The commissioner of finance 24 may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on 25 payments due from the applicant.

26 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund 27 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 28 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-29 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 30 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-
31 ant to section 11-124 of this title and the applicant has requested a 32 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 33 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's 34 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 35 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 36 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for 37 a refund or credit, made as herein provided, shall be deemed an applica-
38 tion for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained of. Such 39 hearing of any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from 40 the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner 41 and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal 42 pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seven-
43 ty-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed Janu-
44 ary first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax 45 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the applicant and 46 to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled to 47 institute a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 48 practice law and rules to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal
49 sitting en banc if application to the supreme court be made therefor 50 within four months after the giving of notice of such decision, and 51 provided, in the case of an application by a taxpayer, that a final 52 determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a proceeding
53 shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless an undertaking shall first 54 be filed with the commissioner of finance, in such amount and with such 55 sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect
56 that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer

1 will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of 2 the proceeding.

3 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
4 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
5 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-708 of this 6 chapter where such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 7 hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 8 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 9 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 10 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-708 of this chapter 11 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 12 unconstitutional, or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal 13 after a hearing, or, if such tax appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in 14 part the determination of the commissioner of finance, in a proceeding 15 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, pursu-
16 ant to the provisions of said section, in which event refund or credit 17 without interest shall be made of the tax, interest or penalty found to 18 have been overpaid.

19 § 11-710 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by this chapter
20 shall be the exclusive remedies available to any person for the review 21 of tax liability imposed by this chapter; and no determination or 22 proposed determination of tax or determination on any application for 23 refund by the commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax 24 appeals tribunal or any of its administrative law judges, shall be 25 enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 26 for money had and received or by any action or proceeding other than, in 27 the case of a decision by the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a 28 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 29 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory
30 judgment if he or she institutes suit within thirty days after a defi-
31 ciency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency assess-32 ment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of such 33 suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-708 of this
34 chapter.

35 § 11-711 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has applied for a
36 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 37 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 38 the taxpayer on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall 39 set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

40 § 11-712 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 41 fail to pay any tax or penalty or interest imposed by this chapter as 42 herein provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the request of the 43 commissioner of finance, bring or cause to be brought an action to 44 enforce payment of the same against the person liable for the same on 45 behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court of the state of New 46 York or of any other state or of the United States. If, however, the 47 commissioner of finance in his or her discretion believes that a 48 taxpayer subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease 49 business, leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which 50 tax or penalties might be satisfied and that any such tax or penalty 51 will not be paid when due, he or she may declare such tax or penalty to 52 be immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

53 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance 54 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the sheriff
55 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of such person
56 which may be found within the city, for the payment of the amount there-

1 of, with any penalties and interest, and the cost of executing the 2 warrant, and to return such warrant to the commissioner of finance and 3 to pay to the commissioner the money collected by virtue thereof within 4 sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The city sheriff shall,
5 within five days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the county
6 clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judg-7 ment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant and the 8 amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the warrant is 9 issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon the amount of 10 such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and 11 interest in real and personal property of the person against whom the 12 warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant 13 in the same manner and with like effect as that provided by law in 14 respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court 15 of record, and for services in executing the warrant the sheriff shall 16 be entitled to the same fees which the sheriff may collect in the same 17 manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of finance a warrant of 18 like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any officer 19 or employee of the department of finance, and in the execution thereof 20 such officer or employee shall have all the powers conferred by law upon 21 sheriffs, but he or she shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in 22 excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If 23 a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commissioner of finance 24 may from time to time issue new warrants and shall also have the same 25 remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the city had recov-26 ered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned unsatis-
27 fied.

28 c. Whenever there is made a sale, transfer or assignment in bulk of 29 any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or 30 merchandise and of fixtures pertaining to the conducting of the business 31 of the seller, transferor or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary 32 course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the 33 purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking 34 possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures,
35 or paying therefor, notify the commissioner of finance by registered 36 mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof 37 whether or not the seller, transferor or assignor, has represented to,
38 or informed the purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any tax 39 pursuant to this chapter and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or 40 assignee has knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether any such 41 taxes are in fact owing.

42 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 43 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by the opening para-44 graph of this subdivision, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall 45 inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for 46 such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property or choses in 47 action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or 48 assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor or 49 assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 50 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-51 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 52 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor 53 any such sums of money, property or choses in action to the extent of 54 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 55 provisions of this subdivision, the purchaser, transferee or assignee,
56 in addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed

1 under the provisions of former section forty-four of the personal prop-
2 erty law, shall be personally liable for the payment to the city of any 3 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city 4 from the seller, transferor or assignor, and such liability may be 5 assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under
6 this chapter.

7 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests 8 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 9 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 10 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-11 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 12 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 13 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant 14 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 15 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

16 § 11-713 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 17 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, 18 the commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered:

19 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 20 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

21 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 22 period not exceeding ninety days; and to compromise disputed claims in 23 connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

24 3. To request information from the tax commission of the state on New 25 York or the treasury department of the United States relative to any 26 person; and to afford information to such tax commission or such treas-27 ury department relative to any person;

28 4. To delegate the commissioner's functions pursuant to this section 29 to a deputy commissioner of finance or other employee or employees of 30 the commissioner's department;

31 5. To assess, determine, revise and adjust the taxes imposed under
32 this chapter;

33 6. To require any tenant who uses premises for both residential 34 purposes and as taxable premises and who pays an undivided rent for the 35 entire premises so used to provide the commissioner with a signed and 36 notarized request to the United States director of internal revenue for 37 photostatic copies of the tenant's income tax return for any year when 38 the commissioner deems such income tax return necessary to determine the 39 rent ascribable to so much of such premises as is used as taxable prem-40 ises; and, if the tenant refuses to provide the commissioner with such a 41 signed written request, to treat the rent for the entire premises as the 42 rent for so much as is used as taxable premises;

43 7. To prescribe methods for determining how much of any tenant's base 44 rent is ascribable to a use which results in a reduction of the base 45 rent or for determining any other division of rent or of use of premises 46 necessary for the determination of the base rent or the amount of base 47 rent subject to tax under this chapter;

48 8. To authorize banks or trust companies which are depositories or 49 financial agents of the city to receive and give a receipt for any tax 50 imposed under this chapter in such manner, at such times, and under such 51 conditions as the commissioner of finance may prescribe; and the commis-52 sioner of finance shall prescribe the manner, times and conditions under 53 which the receipt of such tax by such banks and trust companies is to be 54 treated as payment of such tax to the commissioner of finance.

55 § 11-714 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 56 commissioner of finance, the commissioner's employees duly designated

1 and authorized by the commissioner, the tax appeals tribunal and any of 2 its duly designated and authorized employees shall have power to admin-
3 ister oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding
4 in the exercise of their powers and duties under this chapter. The 5 commissioner of finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to 6 subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of 7 books, papers and documents to secure information pertinent to the 8 performance of the duties of the commissioner or of the tax appeals 9 tribunal hereunder and of the enforcement of this chapter and to examine 10 them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions for the examination 11 of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before the 12 commissioner or the tax appeals tribunal or excused from attendance.

13 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 14 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 15 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 16 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 17 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

18 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas 19 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 20 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4002 of this
21 title.

22 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 23 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal hereunder and witnesses attending 24 in response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 25 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as 26 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff, and 27 the sheriff's duly appointed deputies or any officers or employees of 28 the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to 29 serve such process.

30 § 11-715 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayment; quar-
31 terly return. If any amount of tax required to be paid together with a 32 return, other than the final return for a tax year, is not paid on or 33 before the last date prescribed for payment, without regard to any 34 extension of time granted for payment, interest on such amount at the 35 rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to subdivision (h) of 36 this section, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-half 37 percent per annum, shall be paid for the period from such last date 38 until twenty days after the end of the tax year during which such 39 payments were due or until such prior time as the tax paid for the tax 40 year equals seventy-five percent of the full tax required to be paid for 41 the tax year. Such interest shall be paid with the final return for the 42 tax year to which it relates. In computing the amount of interest to be 43 paid, such interest shall be compounded daily. Interest under this 44 subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof is less than one 45 dollar.

46 (b) Interest on underpayment; final return. If any amount of tax 47 required to be paid together with the final return for a tax year is not 48 paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment, without regard 49 to any extension of time granted for payment, interest on such amount at 50 the rate set by the commissioner of finance pursuant to subdivision (h) 51 of this section, or, if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-52 half percent per annum, shall be paid for the period from such last date 53 to the date of payment. In computing the amount of interest to be paid, 54 such interest shall be compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision 55 shall not be paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

1 (c) (1) Failure to file final return. (A) In case of failure to file 2 a final return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, 3 determined with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is 4 shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to will-5 ful neglect, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as 6 tax on such return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure 7 is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each 8 additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure contin-9 ues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate, and, in addi-10 tion thereto, where a tenant, with respect to any taxable premises, is 11 exempt from tax by reason of paragraph two of subdivision b of section 12 11-704 of this chapter, there shall be imposed a penalty of one hundred 13 dollars.

14 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
15 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
16 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
17 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
18 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 19 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 20 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

21 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 22 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 23 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 24 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
25 upon the return.

26 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on final return. In case of failure to 27 pay the amount shown as tax on a final return required to be filed under 28 this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to 29 any extension of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure 30 is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall 31 be added to the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one 32 percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than 33 one month, with an additional one-half of one percent for each addi-
34 tional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, 35 not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of 36 computing the addition for any month the amount of tax shown on the 37 return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is 38 paid on or before the beginning of such month and by the amount of any 39 credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return. If the 40 amount of tax required to be shown on a return is less than the amount
41 shown as tax on such return, this paragraph shall be applied by substi-
42 tuting such lower amount.

43 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on final return. In case 44 of failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown 45 on a final return required to be filed under this chapter which is not 46 so shown, including a determination made pursuant to section 11-708 of 47 this chapter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand there-48 for, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and 49 not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax 50 stated in such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if 51 the failure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half 52 of one percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during 53 which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the 54 aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the 55 amount of tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the 1 amount of any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such 2 month.

3 (4) Limitations on additions.

4 (A) With respect to any final return, the amount of the addition under 5 paragraph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 6 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 7 an addition applies under both such paragraphs one and two. In any case
8 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 9 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced
10 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

11 (B) With respect to any final return, the maximum amount of the addi-12 tion permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be 13 reduced by the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivi-14 sion, determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph 15 one, which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is 16 made and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

17 (d) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment 18 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 19 any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there 20 shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the under-
21 payment.

22 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
23 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 24 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (b) of this section
25 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
26 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-27 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 28 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined 29 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
30 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

31 (e) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 32 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 33 fifty percent of the underpayment.

34 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty deter-
35 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 36 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (b) of this section
37 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
38 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 39 the last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-40 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 41 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 42 tax.

43 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other 44 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (c) or (d) of this section.

45 (f) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 46 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 47 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
48 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 49 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts 50 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 51 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 52 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 53 penalty under this subdivision.

54 (g) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid 55 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.

1 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 2 tax imposed by this chapter.

3 (h) (1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance 4 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivisions (a) 5 and (b) of this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such 6 rate shall be deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum.
7 Such rate shall be the same for each subdivision and shall be the rate 8 prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but shall not be less 9 than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such rate set by the 10 commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any portion thereof, 11 which remain or become due on or after the date on which such rate 12 becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to interest computed 13 or computable for periods or portions of periods occurring in the period 14 in which such rate is in effect.

15 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
16 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 17 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

18 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

19 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
20 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
21 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
22 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 23 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 24 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 25 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
26 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

27 (B) Period during which rate applies.

28 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
29 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
30 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 31 such month.

32 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
33 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 34 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 35 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

36 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 37 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
38 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
39 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
40 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 41 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-42 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the 43 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 44 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

45 (i) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 46 to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been 47 filed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the 48 provisions of this chapter shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

49 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of 50 this title.

51 (j) Substantial understatement of liability. If there is a substan-52 tial understatement of tax for any tax year, there shall be added to the 53 tax an amount equal to ten percent of the amount of any underpayment
54 attributable to such understatement. For purposes of this subdivision, 55 there is a substantial understatement of tax for any tax year if the 56 amount of the understatement for the tax year exceeds the greater of ten

1 percent of the tax required to be shown on the final return for the tax 2 year or five thousand dollars. For purposes of this subdivision, the 3 term "understatement" means the excess of the amount of the tax required 4 to be shown on the final return for the tax year, over the amount of the 5 tax imposed which is shown on the return, reduced by any rebate. The 6 amount of such understatement shall be reduced by that portion of the 7 understatement which is attributable to the tax treatment of any item by 8 the taxpayer if there is or was substantial authority for such treat-9 ment, or any item with respect to which the relevant facts affecting the 10 item's tax treatment are adequately disclosed in the return or in a 11 statement attached to the return. The commissioner of finance may waive 12 all or any part of the addition to tax provided by this subdivision on a 13 showing by the taxpayer that there was reasonable cause for the under-14 statement, or part thereof, and that the taxpayer acted in good faith.

15 (k) Aiding or assisting in the giving of fraudulent returns, reports, 16 statements or other documents. (1) Any person who, with the intent that 17 tax be evaded, shall, for a fee or other compensation or as an incident
18 to the performance of other services for which such person receives
19 compensation, aid or assist in, or procure, counsel, or advise the prep-
20 aration or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising 21 under this chapter of any return, report, statement or other document 22 which is fraudulent or false as to any material matter, or supply any 23 false or fraudulent information, whether or not such falsity or fraud is 24 with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to 25 present such return, report, statement or other document shall pay a 26 penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

27 (2) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, the term
28 "procures" includes ordering, or otherwise causing, a subordinate to do 29 an act, and knowing of, and not attempting to prevent, participation by 30 a subordinate in an act. The term "subordinate" means any other person, 31 whether or not a director, officer, employee, or agent of the taxpayer
32 involved, over whose activities the person has direction, supervision,
33 or control.

34 (3) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, a person
35 furnishing typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance with 36 respect to a document shall not be treated as having aided or assisted 37 in the preparation of such document by reason of such assistance.

38 (4) The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be in addition to 39 any other penalty provided by law.

40 § 11-716 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 41 judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for 42 the commissioner of finance, the department of finance of the city, any 43 officer or employee of the department of finance of the city, any person 44 engaged or retained by such department on an independent contract basis, 45 the tax appeals tribunal, any commissioner or employee of such tribunal, 46 or any person who, pursuant to this section, is permitted to inspect any 47 return or to whom a copy, an abstract or a portion of any return is 48 furnished, or to whom any information contained in any return is 49 furnished, to divulge or make known in any manner any information relat-50 ing to the business of a taxpayer contained in any return required under 51 this chapter. The officers charged with the custody of such returns 52 shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of anything 53 contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on 54 behalf of the commissioner of finance in an action or proceeding under 55 the provisions of this chapter, or on behalf of any party to any action 56 or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the returns or

1 facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, 2 in either of which events the courts may require the production of, and 3 may admit in evidence so much of said returns or of the facts shown
4 thereby, as are pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more.
5 Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the delivery
6 to a taxpayer or the taxpayer's duly authorized representative of a 7 certified copy of any return filed in connection with his or her tax; 8 nor to prohibit the delivery of such a certified copy of such return or 9 of any information contained in or relating thereto, to the United 10 States of America or any department thereof, the state of New York or 11 any department thereof, any agency or any department of the city of 12 Staten Island provided the same is requested for official business; nor 13 to prohibit the inspection for official business of such returns by the 14 corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city or by the 15 district attorney of the county of Richmond; nor to prohibit the publi-16 cation of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of 17 particular returns or items thereof.

18 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 19 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 20 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
21 period of five years thereafter.

22 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
23 title.

24 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
25 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
26 cers law.

27 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 28 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 29 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the 30 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
31 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
32 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
33 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be
34 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax 35 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 36 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
37 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
38 teen hundred ninety-four.

39 § 11-717 Notices and limitation of time. a. Any notice authorized or 40 required under the provisions of this chapter may be given to the person 41 for whom it is intended by mailing it in a postpaid envelope addressed 42 to such person at the address given in the last return filed by such 43 person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or in any application 44 made by such person or if no return has been filed or application made, 45 then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing of a notice as in 46 this paragraph provided for shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt 47 of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is 48 determined according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of 49 notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice as 50 in this subdivision provided.

51 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
52 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
53 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy, 54 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 55 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a
56 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no

1 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more 2 than three years from the date of the final return for the tax year to 3 which the assessment relates; provided, however, that where no return 4 has been made as provided by law, the tax may be assessed at any time.

5 c. Where before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for the 6 assessment of an additional tax, a person has consented in writing that 7 such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax due may be 8 determined at any time within such extended period. The period so 9 extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made 10 before the expiration of the extended period.

11 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other 12 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-13 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
14 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
15 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 16 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 17 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such 18 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
19 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 20 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 21 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 22 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-23 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 24 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the 25 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
26 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 27 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 28 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 29 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
30 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
31 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
32 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance or, 33 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal is authorized to provide by 34 regulation the extent to which the provisions of this subdivision with 35 respect to prima facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall 36 apply to certified mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this 37 section, this subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made
38 by the United States postal service only if and to the extent provided 39 by regulation of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax 40 appeals tribunal.

41 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
42 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
43 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 44 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
45 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

46 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
47 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
48 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
49 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
50 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 51 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
52 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five 53 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
54 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
55 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
56 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes

1 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 2 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 3 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 4 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 5 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 6 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
7 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery 8 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 9 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 10 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 11 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 12 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 13 finance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any withdrawal of designation or 14 additional designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be 15 effective for purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless 16 and until such withdrawal of designation or additional designation is 17 ratified by the president of the tax appeals tribunal.

18 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 19 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 20 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 21 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 22 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning 23 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 24 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 25 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
26 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
27 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 28 title. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, any withdrawal 29 of designation or additional designation by the commissioner of finance 30 shall not be effective for purposes of service upon the tax appeals 31 tribunal, unless and until such withdrawal of designation or additional 32 designation is ratified by the president of the tax appeals tribunal.

33 § 11-718 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be construed 34 in conformity with chapter two hundred fifty-seven of the laws of nine-35 teen hundred sixty-three, pursuant to which it is enacted.

36 § 11-719 Annual report. a. No later than September first, two thousand 37 twenty-five, and every September first thereafter, the department of 38 finance shall submit to the mayor and speaker of the council, and make 39 publicly available online, a report on the commercial rent tax. Such

- 8 rent range and industry who received the credit set forth in section
- 9 11-704.4 of this chapter; and

8 hundred sixty, a tax on the use in the city of motor vehicles to be paid 9 by the owners of such vehicles as follows:

10 1. (A) For tax years ending on or before May thirty-first, nineteen 11 hundred seventy-two, on commercial vehicles, twenty dollars for each 12 such vehicle having a maximum gross weight of five tons or less, and 13 thirty dollars for each such vehicle having a maximum gross weight of 14 more than five tons, provided, however, that for each such vehicle 15 having a registration fee prescribed in the vehicle and traffic law of 16 the state of New York which is less than twenty dollars, the tax shall 17 be an amount equal to such registration fee;

18 (B) For tax years beginning on and after June first, nineteen hundred 19 seventy-two but before June first, nineteen hundred ninety, on commer-20 cial vehicles, forty dollars for each such vehicle having a maximum 21 gross weight of five tons or less, and sixty dollars for each such vehi-22 cle having a maximum gross weight of more than five tons, provided, 23 however, that for each such vehicle having a registration fee prescribed 24 in the vehicle and traffic law of the state of New York which is less 25 than forty dollars, the tax shall be an amount equal to such registra-26 tion fee.

27 (C) For tax years beginning on and after June first, nineteen hundred 28 ninety, on commercial vehicles, forty dollars for each such vehicle 29 having a maximum gross weight of ten thousand pounds or less, two 30 hundred dollars for each such vehicle having a maximum gross weight of 31 more than ten thousand pounds but not more than twelve thousand five 32 hundred pounds, two hundred seventy-five dollars for each such vehicle 33 having a maximum gross weight of more than twelve thousand five hundred 34 pounds but not more than fifteen thousand pounds and three hundred 35 dollars for each such vehicle having a maximum gross weight of more than 36 fifteen thousand pounds, provided, however, that for each such vehicle 37 having a registration fee prescribed in the vehicle and traffic law of 38 the state of New York which is less than forty dollars, the tax shall be 39 an amount equal to such registration fee.

40 2. (A) For tax years ending on or before May thirty-first, nineteen 41 hundred ninety, on motor vehicles for the transportation of passengers 42 other than medallion taxicabs, and for tax years ending on or before May 54 teen, on all motor vehicles for transportation of passengers, including 55 medallion taxicabs, four hundred dollars for each such vehicle.

1 b. To the extent that the tax as imposed by subdivision a of this 2 section may be invalid solely because it is based on the use in the city 3 of the motor vehicles, the tax shall also be deemed to be based on the 4 privilege of using the public highways or streets of the city by such 5 motor vehicle. Under such circumstances the rate of tax shall be the 6 same and all other provisions of this chapter shall be equally applica-7 ble.

8 c. If the first use of any motor vehicle subject to the tax imposed 9 under this chapter occurs on or after December first and before March 10 first in any tax year, the tax for that year shall be one-half of the 11 tax hereinabove provided; and, if the first such use occurs on or after 12 March first in any tax year, the tax for that tax year shall be one-13 fourth of such tax.

14 d. In applying the tax on commercial motor vehicles with respect to 15 tractors, trailers and semi-trailers, the tax shall be measured by the 16 weight of the tractor plus the maximum gross weight of the trailer or 17 semi-trailer with the greatest such maximum gross weight to be drawn by 18 such tractor. No trailer or semi-trailer shall be subject to any sepa-19 rate or additional tax under this chapter.

20 § 11-803 Exemptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply 21 to motor vehicles owned and operated, or leased for their exclusive use 22 by:

23 1. The state of New York, or any public corporation, including a 24 corporation created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state 25 or the Dominion of Canada, improvement district or other political 26 subdivision of the state;

27 2. The United States of America;

28 3. The United Nations or other world-wide international organizations
29 of which the United States of America is a member;

32 table or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to chil-33 dren or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the 34 benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no substantial part 35 of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 36 attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in 37 this subdivision shall include an organization operated for the primary 38 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 39 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 40 this subdivision;

41 5. Any foreign nation or representative of a foreign nation with 42 respect to motor vehicles for which they need not pay a registration fee 43 under the provisions of the vehicle and traffic law;

45 vehicle is confined solely to demonstrations to prospective customers or 46 to delivery by or to the dealer and the vehicle bears dealer's license 47 plates.

48 § 11-804 Presumption and burden of proof. For the purpose of the 49 proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the tax 50 hereby imposed, it shall be presumed that all motor vehicles used in the 51 city of the types described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivi-52 sion three of section 11-801 of this chapter are used principally in the 53 city or used principally in connection with a business carried on within 54 the city and are subject to the tax until the contrary is established; 55 and it shall be presumed that all motor vehicles used in the city of the 56 types described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision four of section

1 11-801 of this chapter are used regularly, even though not principally 2 in the city and are subject to the tax until the contrary is estab-
3 lished. The burden of proving that a motor vehicle is not taxable under 4 this chapter shall be on the owner of the motor vehicle.

5 § 11-805 Records to be kept. Every owner of a motor vehicle subject 6 to tax under this chapter shall keep such records of his or her vehicles 7 and of their use in the city in such form as the commissioner of finance 8 may by regulation require. Such records shall be offered for inspection 9 and examination at any time upon demand by the commissioner of finance 10 or the commissioner's duly authorized agent or employee and shall be 11 preserved for a period of three years except that the commissioner of 12 finance may consent to their destruction within that period or may 13 require that they be kept longer.

14 § 11-806 Registration. a. By July thirteenth, nineteen hundred sixty 15 or, upon acquiring any motor vehicle subject to tax hereunder after such 16 date, within two days of such acquisition, every owner shall file with 17 the commissioner of finance a certificate of registration in such form 18 as prescribed by the commissioner of finance.

19 b. In order to determine whether motor vehicles are subject to the tax 20 under this chapter and to facilitate administration thereof an informa-21 tion registration certificate in such form as is prescribed by the 22 commissioner of finance shall be filed with the commissioner of finance 23 by any person who owns or acquires:

24 1. A motor vehicle of a type described in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of 25 subdivision three of section 11-801 of this chapter which is registered 26 in the city under the vehicle and traffic law or is used in the city in 27 connection with a business carried on within the city; or 28 2. A motor vehicle of the type described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of 29 subdivision four of section 11-801 of this chapter which is registered 30 in the city under the vehicle and traffic law or is used in the city.

31 Such an information registration certificate shall be filed by July 32 thirteenth, nineteen hundred sixty or, if a motor vehicle is acquired 33 after such date, within two days after such acquisition. An information 34 registration certificate, however, need not be filed with respect to any 35 motor vehicle for which a registration certificate has been filed pursu-36 ant to subdivision a of this section. The commissioner of finance may, 37 by regulation, provide that information registration certificates need 38 not be filed with respect to a type of motor vehicle or with respect to 39 any general group within a type of motor vehicle.

40 § 11-807 Returns. a. On or before the twentieth day of June in each 41 year commencing with the year nineteen hundred sixty, every owner of a 42 motor vehicle subject to tax under this chapter shall file a return with 43 the commissioner of finance. A supplemental return shall also be filed 44 by every owner with regard to each motor vehicle subject to tax acquired 45 during any tax year at a time subsequent to the filing of the owner's 46 regular return. Such supplemental return shall be filed with the 47 commissioner of finance within a stated time, as fixed by regulation of 48 the commissioner of finance, after the acquisition of the motor vehicle.
49 An owner who acquires a motor vehicle subject to the tax after the 50 commencement of a tax year and who has not filed a return or supple-51 mental return with respect to such motor vehicle shall file a return 52 with respect to it within two days after its acquisition by the owner.

53 b. The commissioner of finance, by regulation, may require that each 54 person required under this chapter to file an information registration 55 certificate file an information return with the commissioner of finance 56 annually or at such other times as the commissioner deems appropriate

1 for proper administration of this chapter. The commissioner of finance 2 may, by regulation, provide that information returns need not be filed 3 or that they be filed at different times with respect to a type of motor 4 vehicle or with respect to any general group within a type of motor 5 vehicle or with respect to any particular circumstances.

6 c. The commissioner of finance may permit or require returns, supple-7 mental returns or information returns to be filed at times other than 8 those specified in the commissioner's regulations. If the commissioner 9 deems it necessary in order to insure payment of the tax imposed by this 10 chapter, the commissioner of finance may require any return, supple-11 mental return or information return to be filed with him or her at a 12 time other than that fixed by such commissioner.

13 d. The form of returns, supplemental returns and information returns 14 shall be prescribed by the commissioner of finance and shall contain 15 such information as the commissioner may deem necessary for the proper 16 administration of this chapter. The commissioner of finance may require 17 amended returns, amended supplemental returns or amended information 18 returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the 19 information specified in the notice.

20 e. If a return, supplemental return or information return is not 21 filed, or if a return of any kind when filed is incorrect or insuffi-22 cient on its face, the commissioner of finance shall take the necessary 23 steps to enforce the filing of such a return or of a corrected return.

24 § 11-808 Payment of tax. a. At the time of filing a return or supple-25 mental return the owner shall pay to the commissioner of finance the tax 26 imposed by this chapter. Such tax shall be due and payable on the last 27 day on which such return or supplemental return is required to be filed, 28 regardless of whether such a return is filed or whether the return which 29 is filed correctly indicates the amount of tax due.

30 b. Where an owner of a motor vehicle subject to tax under this chapter 31 replaces it with another motor vehicle during a tax year, the owner 32 shall be entitled, upon approval by the commissioner of finance, to have 33 any tax paid with respect to the replaced vehicle credited toward the 34 tax payable with respect to the replacement vehicle for the balance of 35 such tax year, and the owner shall pay no additional tax for such tax 36 year with respect to it unless its nature or its maximum gross weight 37 requires the payment of a higher amount of tax than that paid with 38 respect to the replaced vehicle. A supplemental return, where required, 39 shall be filed with respect to a replacement vehicle irrespective of 40 whether additional tax is payable. Upon the grant of a waiver of tax by 41 the commissioner of finance a purchaser of a motor vehicle subject to 42 tax under this chapter who purchases it during a tax year from an owner 43 who has paid the tax shall not be required to pay the tax with respect 44 to such motor vehicle for the balance of such tax year if, and only if, 45 the owner obtains, and submits to the commissioner of finance together 46 with his or her return or supplemental return, a certificate or its 47 equivalent, as prescribed by the commissioner of finance, signed by the 48 prior owner to the effect that the prior owner has not had the tax paid 49 credited toward any replacement vehicle and will not seek to obtain such 50 a credit for any replacement vehicle purchased in the future. Nothing 51 contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to authorize a refund 52 merely because a motor vehicle with respect to which the tax has been 53 paid is sold or otherwise disposed of during the course of the tax year.

54 c. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the tax 55 imposed on medallion taxicabs pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph 56 two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this chapter shall be due and

1 payable in two equal installments, the first of which shall be due and 2 payable on or before the last day on which the return or supplemental 3 return for the tax year is required to be filed, and the second of which 4 shall be due and payable on or before the first day of December in such 5 tax year; provided, however, that if a medallion taxicab is acquired 6 subsequent to the first day of November in such tax year, the full 7 amount of the tax imposed for the tax year shall be due and payable on 8 or before the last day on which the supplemental return with respect to 9 such medallion taxicab is required to be filed.

10 d. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the tax 11 imposed on medallion taxicabs pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph 12 two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this chapter shall, to the 13 extent not previously paid, be due and payable on or before December 14 first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine; provided, however, that if the tax 15 imposed on a medallion taxicab would, but for the provisions of this 16 subdivision, be due and payable subsequent to December first, nineteen 17 hundred eighty-nine, the due date of such tax shall be determined with-18 out regard to this subdivision; and provided, further, that nothing in 19 this subdivision shall be deemed to extend the date for payment of any 20 tax imposed by paragraph two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this
21 chapter.

22 e. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter or of chapter five of 23 title nineteen of the code of the preceding municipality to the contra-24 ry, the taxi and limousine commission may require by rule the payment of 25 the tax imposed on medallion taxicabs pursuant to this chapter as a 26 condition precedent of the licensing or license renewal of such medal-27 lion taxicabs, and the taxi and limousine commission shall have the 28 authority to deny the license or the renewal thereof for any medallion 29 taxicab that fails to pay such tax.

30 § 11-809 Stamps and other indicia of payment. a. The commissioner of 31 finance may, by regulation, provide that the payment of the tax imposed 32 by this chapter shall be evidenced by suitable stamps or other indicia 33 of payment in a form prescribed by the commissioner of finance and that 34 every owner shall affix such stamps or other indicia of payment in the 35 manner prescribed by regulation to each motor vehicle for which a tax 36 had been paid, or shall otherwise keep the indicia of payment with the 37 vehicle, readily available for inspection, in the manner prescribed by 38 regulation. The owner or driver of the vehicle, upon demand, shall 39 exhibit the indicia of payment to the commissioner of finance or the 40 commissioner's duly authorized agent or employee or to any police offi-41 cer of this city or state. The commissioner of finance may, by regu-42 lation, make similar provision for the use of stamps or other indicia 43 that no tax is payable with respect to particular motor vehicles.

44 b. An owner who sells a motor vehicle shall not transfer any stamp or 45 other indicia of payment to the purchaser except on a sale to a purchas-46 er to whom the owner has properly given the certificate provided for in 47 section 11-808 of this chapter with regard to not obtaining a credit 48 toward any tax payable with respect to a replacement vehicle. The 49 commissioner of finance shall, by regulation, provide for the 50 destruction of the stamp or other indicia of payment or its return to 51 the commissioner of finance upon all sales except where transfer to the 52 purchaser is permitted and, where the motor vehicle sold has been 53 replaced, for the issuance of replacement stamps or indicia of payment.

54 § 11-809.1 Collection of tax by commissioner of motor vehicles. a.
55 Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, the tax 56 imposed by this chapter on any commercial motor vehicle with a maximum

1 gross weight of ten thousand pounds or less and on any motor vehicle for 2 transportation of passengers, other than a medallion taxicab, shall be 3 collected by the commissioner of motor vehicles, provided that any such 4 motor vehicle is registered or required to be registered pursuant to any 5 provision of section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law.

6 The owner of each such motor vehicle shall pay the tax due thereon to 7 the commissioner of motor vehicles on or before the date upon which such 8 owner registers or renews the registration of such motor vehicle or is 9 required to register or renew the registration thereof pursuant to 10 section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law.

11 b. Notwithstanding any provision of section four hundred of the vehi-12 cle and traffic law to the contrary, payment of the tax with respect to 13 a motor vehicle described in subdivision a of this section shall be a 14 condition precedent to the registration or renewal thereof of such motor 15 vehicle and to the issuance of any certificate of registration and 16 plates or removable date tag in accordance with the vehicle and traffic 17 law and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and no such 18 certificate of registration, plates or tag shall be issued unless such 19 tax has been paid. If the registration period applicable to any such 20 vehicle is a period of not less than two years, as a result of the 21 application of the provisions of paragraph c of subdivision five of 22 section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law, the tax 23 required to be paid pursuant to this section shall be the annual tax 24 specified in section 11-802 of this chapter multiplied by the number of 25 years in the registration period. The commissioner of motor vehicles, 26 upon payment of the tax pursuant to this section or upon the application 27 of any person exempt therefrom, shall furnish to each taxpayer paying 28 the tax a receipt for such tax and to each other taxpayer or exempt 29 person a statement, document or other form prescribed by the commis-30 sioner of motor vehicles, showing that such tax has been paid or is not due 31 with respect to such motor vehicle.

32 c. Notwithstanding the definition of the term "tax year" contained in 33 subdivision fourteen of section 11-801 of this chapter, for purposes of 34 the taxes payable to the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant to this 35 section, "tax year" shall mean the twelve-month registration period 36 applicable to the subject motor vehicle under the vehicle and traffic 37 law and, in the case of a registration period of at least two years, 38 shall mean each succeeding twelve-month period falling within such 39 registration period.

40 d. Where the tax imposed by this chapter has been paid to the commis-41 sioner of finance with respect to a motor vehicle for a tax year 42 described in subdivision fourteen of section 11-801 of this chapter, and 43 subsequent thereto but within such tax year the same taxpayer pays a tax 44 to the commissioner of the motor vehicles with respect to such motor 45 vehicle pursuant to this section, such taxpayer shall be entitled to a 46 refund or credit from the commissioner of finance for the portion of the 47 tax paid to the commissioner of finance which is attributable to the 48 period beginning on the first day of the first tax year, as the term 49 "tax year" is defined in subdivision c of this section, for which the 50 tax is paid to the commissioner of motor vehicles and ending on the 51 following May thirty-first, provided, however, that no such refund or 52 credit shall be allowed if the amount thereof is less than five dollars.

53 Any refund or credit to which a taxpayer is entitled pursuant to this 54 subdivision shall be promptly refunded or credited, without interest, by 55 the commissioner of finance, and the commissioner of finance may promul-56 gate such rules as he or she deems necessary to carry out the provisions

1 of this subdivision. Any amount for which the taxpayer is entitled to a 2 refund or credit pursuant to this subdivision may be allowed as a credit 3 against the tax payable to the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant 4 to this section to the extent and in the manner provided for in the 5 agreement authorized by subdivision k of this section.

6 e. Whenever any fee or portion of a fee paid for the registration of a 7 motor vehicle under the provisions of the vehicle and traffic law is 8 refunded pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one or one-a of 9 section four hundred twenty-eight thereof, the amount of any tax paid to 10 the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant to this section upon such 11 registration shall also be refunded by the commissioner of motor vehi-12 cles, provided that where a fee is refunded pursuant to subdivision 13 one-a of such section four hundred twenty-eight, the amount of tax to be 14 refunded shall be limited to the tax paid for a tax year commencing 15 subsequent to the end of the first twelve-month period of such registra-
16 tion.

17 f. Where the annual registration period applicable to a particular 18 class of motor vehicle begins and ends on the same dates for all motor 19 vehicles within such class, the tax payable to the commissioner of motor 20 vehicles pursuant to this section with respect to a motor vehicle within 21 such class which is registered or required to be registered after the 22 commencement of such annual registration period shall be determined for 23 such period as follows:

24 1. If such motor vehicle is registered or required to be registered 25 before the first day of the seventh month of such period, the tax shall 26 be the amount specified in subdivision a of section 11-802 of this chap-
27 ter.

28 2. If such motor vehicle is registered or required to be registered on 29 or after the first day of the seventh month of such period but before 30 the first day of the tenth month of such period, the tax shall be one-31 half of the amount specified in subdivision a of section 11-802 of this 32 chapter.

33 3. If such motor vehicle is registered or required to be registered on 34 or after the first day of the tenth month of such period, the tax shall 35 be one-fourth of the amount specified in subdivision a of section 11-802
36 of this chapter.

37 g. The provisions of subdivision b of section 11-808 of this chapter 38 shall apply to this section with such modifications or adaptations as 39 are necessary to carry out the purposes of this section and to ensure 40 collection of the appropriate annual tax specified in subdivision a of 41 section 11-802 of this chapter, and with due regard to the respective 42 responsibilities of the commissioner of finance and the commissioner of 43 motor vehicles under this section and to the definitions of "tax year" 44 contained in subdivision c of this section and subdivision fourteen of 45 section 11-801 of this chapter. The agreement between the commissioner 46 of finance and the commissioner of motor vehicles authorized by subdivi-47 sion k of this section may contain such provisions concerning the divi-48 sion of responsibility for collection of the taxes imposed by this chap-49 ter and the granting of refunds or credits as are consistent with this 50 section and subdivision b of section 11-808 of this chapter, and the 51 commissioner of finance and the commissioner of motor vehicles may also 52 adopt such rules as they deem necessary for such purposes.

53 h. Notwithstanding any provision of section 11-807 of this chapter to 54 the contrary, at the time a tax is required to be paid to the commis-55 sioner of motor vehicles pursuant to this section, the person required 56 to pay such tax shall file a return with the commissioner of motor vehi-

1 cles in such form and containing such information as he or she may 2 prescribe. The taxpayer's application for registration or the renewal 3 thereof shall constitute the return required under this subdivision 4 unless the commissioner of motor vehicles shall otherwise provide by 5 rule. A return filed pursuant to this subdivision with respect to a 6 motor vehicle for a tax year or years shall be in lieu of any return 7 otherwise required to be filed with respect thereto pursuant to section
8 11-807 of this chapter.

9 i. In any case in which the tax imposed by this chapter is required to 10 be paid to the commissioner of motor vehicles but is not so paid, the 11 commissioner of finance shall collect such tax and all of the provisions 12 of this chapter relating to collection of taxes by the commissioner of 13 finance shall apply with respect thereto.

14 j. Notwithstanding any provision of section four hundred of the vehi-15 cle and traffic law to the contrary, in those cases in which the commis-16 sioner of finance is responsible for collecting the tax imposed by this 17 chapter, the commissioner of motor vehicles shall not issue a certif-18 icate of registration, plates or removable date tag for any motor vehi-19 cle subject to such tax with respect to which the commissioner of 20 finance has notified the commissioner of motor vehicles that such tax 21 has not been paid, unless the registrant submits proof, in a form 22 approved by the commissioner of motor vehicles, that such tax has been 23 paid, or is not due, with respect to such motor vehicle.

24 k. The commissioner of finance is hereby authorized and empowered to 25 enter into an agreement with the commissioner of motor vehicles to 26 govern the collection of the taxes imposed by this chapter which are 27 required to be paid to the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant to 28 this section. Such agreement shall provide for the exclusive method of 29 collection, custody and remittal to the commissioner of finance of the 30 proceeds of any such tax; for the payment by the city of the reasonable 31 expenses incurred by the department of motor vehicles in connection with 32 the collection of any such tax; for the commissioner of finance, or a 33 duly designated representative, upon his or her request, not more 34 frequently than once in each calendar year at a time agreed upon by the 35 state comptroller, to audit the accuracy of the payments, distributions 36 and remittances to the city; and for such other matters as may be neces-37 sary and proper to effectuate the purposes of such agreement. Such 38 agreement shall have the force and effect of a rule or regulation of the 39 commissioner of motor vehicles and shall be filed and published in 40 accordance with any statutory requirements relating thereto.

41 l. The commissioner of motor vehicles shall promptly notify the corpo-42 ration counsel of the city of any litigation instituted against such 43 commissioner which challenges the constitutionality or validity of any 44 provision of this chapter, or of the enabling act pursuant to which it 45 was adopted, or which attempts to limit or question the application of 46 either such law, and such notification shall include copies of the 47 papers served upon such commissioner.

48 m. The commissioner of motor vehicles shall begin to collect taxes in 49 accordance with the provisions of this section at such time as is speci-50 fied in the agreement between the commissioner of motor vehicles and the 51 commissioner of finance provided for in subdivision k of this section.

52 n. In addition to any other powers granted to the commissioner of 53 motor vehicles in this chapter or any other law, he or she is hereby 54 authorized and empowered: 1. to adopt and amend rules appropriate to 55 the carrying out of his or her responsibilities under this chapter; 2.
56 to request information concerning motor vehicles and persons subject to 1 the provisions of this chapter from the department of motor vehicles of 2 any other state, the treasury department of the United States or the 3 appropriate officials of any city or county of the state of New York;

4 and to afford such information to such department of motor vehicles,
5 treasury department or officials of such city or county, any provision 6 of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding; 3. to delegate his or 7 her functions under this section to a deputy commissioner in the depart-8 ment of motor vehicles or any employee of such department or to any 9 county clerk or other officer who acts as the agent of such commissioner 10 in the registration of motor vehicles; 4. to require all persons owning 11 motor vehicles with respect to which the tax imposed by this chapter is 12 payable to the commissioner of motor vehicles to keep such records as he 13 or she may prescribe and to furnish such information upon his or her 14 request; and 5. to extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any 15 return required to be filed with the commissioner of motor vehicles for 16 a period not exceeding sixty days.

17 o. To the extent that any provision of this section is in conflict
18 with any other provision of this chapter, the provisions of this section 19 shall be controlling, but in all other respects such other provisions of 20 this chapter shall remain fully applicable with respect to the imposi-21 tion, administration and collection of the taxes imposed by this chap-
22 ter.

23 § 11-809.2 Collection of tax by the taxi and limousine commission on 24 behalf of the commissioner of finance. a. Notwithstanding any provision 25 of this chapter to the contrary, the tax imposed by this chapter on any 26 designated licensed vehicle, as defined in this subdivision, shall be 27 collected by the taxi and limousine commission on behalf of the commis-28 sioner of finance. Except as otherwise provided by subdivision m of this 29 section, the owner of each such designated licensed vehicle shall pay 30 the tax due thereon to the taxi and limousine commission on or before 31 the date upon which such owner licenses or renews the license of such 32 designated licensed vehicle or is required to license or renew the 33 license thereof pursuant to chapter five of title nineteen of the code 34 of the preceding municipality. For purposes of this section, the term 35 "designated licensed vehicle" shall mean a motor vehicle for the trans-36 portation of passengers, other than a medallion taxicab, the tax on 37 which is not collected by the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant to 38 section 11-809.1 of this chapter and which is licensed or required to be 39 licensed by the taxi and limousine commission pursuant to any provision 40 of chapter five of title nineteen of the code of the preceding munici-41 pality.

42 b. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter five of title nineteen of 43 the code of the preceding municipality to the contrary, payment of the 44 tax with respect to a designated licensed vehicle shall be a condition 45 precedent to the licensing or license renewal of such designated 46 licensed vehicle with the taxi and limousine commission, and no such 47 license or renewal thereof shall be issued unless such tax has been 48 paid. Except as provided in subdivisions f and m of this section, if the 49 license period applicable to any such designated licensed vehicle is a 50 period of more than one year, the tax required to be paid pursuant to 51 this section shall be the annual tax specified in section 11-802 of this 52 chapter multiplied by the number of years in the license period. The 53 taxi and limousine commission, upon payment of the tax pursuant to this 54 section or upon the application of any person exempt therefrom, shall 55 furnish to each taxpayer paying the tax a receipt for such tax and to 56 each other taxpayer or exempt person a statement, document or other form

1 prescribed by the taxi and limousine commission, showing that such tax 2 has been paid or is not due with respect to such designated licensed 3 vehicle.

4 c. For purposes of this section, the term "tax period" shall mean the 5 license period applicable to the designated licensed vehicle under chap-6 ter five of title nineteen of the code of the preceding municipality 7 and, in the case of a license period of other than one year, shall mean 8 the number of twelve-month periods and any period of less than twelve 9 months within such license period. The term "tax period" shall also 10 include any periods described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of 11 subdivision m of this section.

12 d. Except as provided in subdivision m of this section, where the tax 13 imposed by this chapter has been paid to the commissioner of finance 14 with respect to a motor vehicle for a tax year described in subdivision 15 fourteen of section 11-801 of this chapter, and subsequent thereto but 16 within such tax year the same taxpayer pays a tax to the taxi and limou-17 sine commission with respect to such motor vehicle pursuant to this 18 section, such taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund or credit from the 19 commissioner of finance for the portion of the tax paid to the commis-20 sioner of finance that is attributable to the period beginning on the 21 first day of the first tax period for which the tax is paid to the taxi 22 and limousine commission and ending on the following May thirty-first, 23 provided, however, that no such refund or credit shall be allowed if the 24 amount thereof is less than five dollars. Any refund or credit to which 25 a taxpayer is entitled pursuant to this subdivision shall be promptly 26 refunded or credited, without interest, by the commissioner of finance, 27 and the commissioner of finance may promulgate such rules as he or she 28 deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this subdivision.

29 e. If the license for the designated licensed vehicle is transferred, 30 surrendered or terminated for reasons other than revocation, and the 31 applicable license period under chapter five of title nineteen of the 32 code of the preceding municipality is for more than one year, and the 33 tax paid to the taxi and limousine commission was for a tax period of 34 more than twelve months, except as otherwise provided in the agreement 35 between the taxi and limousine commission and the commissioner of 36 finance authorized pursuant to subdivision k of this section, the 37 commissioner of finance shall refund the tax paid for any twelve-month 38 period commencing subsequent to the transfer, surrender or other termi-39 nation of the license described in this subdivision.

40 f. Except as provided in subdivision m of this section, for designated 41 licensed vehicles whose license period is a two year period that begins 42 and ends on the same dates, the tax payable to the taxi and limousine 43 commission pursuant to this section with respect to a designated 44 licensed vehicle that is licensed or required to be licensed after the 45 commencement of such license period shall be determined as follows:

46 1. If such designated licensed vehicle is licensed or required to be 47 licensed before the first day of the seventh month of such period, the 48 tax shall be the amount determined pursuant to subdivision b of this 49 section.

50 2. If such designated licensed vehicle is licensed or required to be 51 licensed on or after the first day of the seventh month of such period 52 but before the first day of the thirteenth month of such period, the tax 53 shall be three-fourths of the amount determined pursuant to subdivision 54 b of this section.

55 3. If such designated licensed vehicle is licensed or required to be 56 licensed on or after the first day of the thirteenth month but before

1 the first day of the nineteenth month of such period, the tax shall be 2 one-half of the amount determined pursuant to subdivision b of this
3 section.

4 4. If such designated licensed vehicle is licensed or required to be 5 licensed on or after the first day of the nineteenth month of such peri-6 od, the tax shall be one-fourth of the amount determined pursuant to 7 subdivision b of this section.

8 5. When the license period described in this section is for a period 9 of less than two years, the commissioner of finance shall have the 10 authority to provide by rule the amount to be payable under this subdi-11 vision.

12 g. The provisions of subdivision b of section 11-808 of this chapter 13 shall apply to this section with such modifications or adaptations as 14 are necessary to carry out the purposes of this section and to ensure 15 collection of the appropriate annual tax specified in subdivision a of 16 section 11-802 of this chapter, and with due regard to the respective 17 responsibilities of the commissioner of finance and the taxi and limou-18 sine commission under this section and to the definition of "tax year" 19 contained in subdivision fourteen of section 11-801 of this chapter and 20 to the definition of "tax period" contained in subdivision c of this 21 section. The agreement between the commissioner of finance and the taxi 22 and limousine commission authorized by subdivision k of this section may 23 contain such provisions concerning the division of responsibility for 24 collection of the taxes imposed by this chapter and the granting of 25 refunds or credits as are consistent with this section and subdivision b 26 of section 11-808 of this chapter, and the commissioner of finance and 27 the taxi and limousine commission may also adopt such rules as they deem 28 necessary for such purposes.

29 h. Notwithstanding any provision of section 11-807 of this chapter to 30 the contrary, at the time a tax is required to be paid to the taxi and 31 limousine commission pursuant to this section, the person required to 32 pay such tax shall file a return with the taxi and limousine commission 33 in such form and containing such information as the taxi and limousine 34 commission may prescribe. The taxpayer's application for a license or 35 the renewal thereof shall constitute the return required under this 36 subdivision unless the taxi and limousine commission shall otherwise 37 provide by rule. A return filed pursuant to this subdivision with 38 respect to a designated licensed vehicle for a tax period or periods 39 shall be in lieu of any return otherwise required to be filed with 40 respect thereto pursuant to section 11-807 of this chapter. Unless the 41 taxi and limousine commission otherwise requires, the filing of a return 42 shall not be required for the tax periods described in subparagraph (A) 43 of paragraph one of subdivision m of this section.

44 i. In any case in which the tax imposed by this chapter is required to 45 be paid to the taxi and limousine commission but is not so paid, the 46 commissioner of finance shall collect such tax and all of the provisions 47 of this chapter relating to collection of taxes by the commissioner of 48 finance shall apply with respect thereto.

49 j. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter five of title nineteen of 50 the code of the preceding municipality to the contrary, in those cases 51 in which the commissioner of finance is responsible for collecting the 52 tax imposed by this chapter, the taxi and limousine commission shall not 53 issue or renew a license for any designated licensed vehicle subject to 54 such tax with respect to which the commissioner of finance has notified 55 the taxi and limousine commission that such tax has not been paid, 56 unless the applicant for such license or renewal submits proof, in a 1 form approved by the taxi and limousine commission, that such tax has 2 been paid, or is not due, with respect to such designated licensed vehi-3 cle.

4 k. The commissioner of finance is hereby authorized and empowered to 5 enter into an agreement with the taxi and limousine commission to govern 6 the collection of the taxes imposed by this chapter which are required 7 to be paid to the taxi and limousine commission pursuant to this 8 section. Such agreement may provide for the exclusive method of 9 collection, custody and remittal to the commissioner of finance of the 10 proceeds of any such tax; for the payment by the commissioner of finance 11 of reasonable expenses incurred by the taxi and limousine commission in 12 connection with the collection of any such tax; for the commissioner of 13 finance, or a duly designated representative, upon his or her request, 14 not more frequently than once in each calendar year at a time agreed 15 upon by the city comptroller, to audit the accuracy of the payments, 16 distributions and remittances to the commissioner of finance; and for 17 such other matters as may be necessary and proper to effectuate the 18 purposes of such agreement.

19 l. The taxi and limousine commission shall promptly notify the corpo-20 ration counsel of the city and the commissioner of finance of any liti-21 gation instituted against such commission which challenges the constitu-22 tionality or validity of any provision of this chapter, or which 23 attempts to limit or question the application of this chapter, and such 24 notification shall include copies of the papers served upon such commis-25 sion.

26 m. Except as otherwise provided in the agreement between the taxi and 27 limousine commission and the commissioner of finance authorized by 28 subdivision k of this section, or with respect to the periods described 29 in paragraph two of this subdivision, the taxi and limousine commission 30 shall begin to collect taxes in accordance with the provisions of this 31 section on the first day of April in the year two thousand twelve as 32 follows:

33 1. The tax due on a designated licensed vehicle, the license for which 34 expires on or after the first day of June in the year two thousand 35 twelve and before the first day of June in the year two thousand four-36 teen, shall be determined as follows:

37 (A) For a designated licensed vehicle whose license expires on or 38 after the first day of June in the year two thousand twelve and before 39 the first day of June in the year two thousand fourteen, the amount of 40 tax for the tax period between the first day of June in the year two 41 thousand twelve and the date the license shall expire for such desig-42 nated licensed vehicle pursuant to chapter five of title nineteen of the 43 code of the preceding municipality shall be the sum of (i) the annual 44 tax specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph two of subdivision a of 45 section 11-802 of this chapter for any twelve-month period within such 46 tax period, and (ii) the amount determined under subparagraph (B) of 47 this paragraph for any period of less than twelve months within such tax 48 period. The amount of tax so determined shall be payable on or before 49 the first day of June in the year two thousand twelve. In the event the 50 amount of tax due and payable under this subparagraph shall not have 51 been paid within thirty days of the first day of June in the year two 52 thousand twelve, the taxi and limousine commission shall suspend the 53 license for such designated licensed vehicle, and the license for any 54 such designated licensed vehicle which has expired shall not be renewed 55 until such time as such tax is paid.

1 (B) For purposes of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the amount of 2 tax for a period of less than twelve months shall be determined as 3 follows: (i) if such period is nine months or more, the amount for such 4 period shall be the full amount of annual tax provided in subparagraph 5 (C) of paragraph two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this chapter; 6 (ii) if such period is more than six months but less than nine months, 7 the amount for such period shall be three-fourths of the amount of annu-8 al tax provided in subparagraph (C) of paragraph two of subdivision a of 9 section 11-802 of this chapter; (iii) if such period is more than three 10 months but less than six months, the amount for such period shall be 11 one-half of the amount of annual tax provided in subparagraph (C) of 12 paragraph two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this chapter; and 13 (iv) if such period is less than three months, the amount for such peri-14 od shall be one-fourth of the amount of annual tax provided in subpara-15 graph (C) of paragraph two of subdivision a of section 11-802 of this 16 chapter.

17 2. Upon the date for payment set forth in subparagraph (A) of para-18 graph one of this subdivision, the taxi and limousine commission shall 19 require the taxpayer to provide a proof of payment of the tax to the 20 commissioner of finance for the period beginning on the first day of 21 June in the year two thousand eleven and ending on the thirty-first day 22 of May in the year two thousand twelve or any part of such period for 23 which the taxpayer was subject to the tax. In the event the taxpayer has 24 not paid such tax to the commissioner of finance: (i) the license for 25 any designated licensed vehicle described in subparagraph (A) of this 26 paragraph shall not be renewed until such time as such tax, together 27 with any applicable interest or penalties, has been paid to the commis-28 sioner of finance and (ii) if such tax remains unpaid as of the end of 29 the thirty-day period set forth in subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of 30 this subdivision, the license for any designated licensed vehicle 31 described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of this subdivision shall 32 be suspended until such time as such tax, together with any applicable 33 interest or penalties, is paid to the commissioner of finance.

34 n. In addition to any other powers granted to the taxi and limousine 35 commission in this chapter or any other law, the taxi and limousine 36 commission is hereby authorized and empowered:

37 1. to adopt and amend rules appropriate to the carrying out of its 38 responsibilities under this chapter;

39 2. to request information concerning motor vehicles and persons 40 subject to the provisions of this chapter from the commissioner of motor 41 vehicles, the department of motor vehicles of any other state, the trea-42 sury department of the United States or the appropriate officials of any 43 city or county of the state of New York; and to afford such information 44 to such department of motor vehicles, treasury department or officials 45 of such city or county, any provision of this chapter to the contrary 46 notwithstanding;

47 3. to delegate its functions under this section to any commissioner or 48 employee of such commission;

49 4. to require any person who is an owner, as defined in chapter five 50 of title nineteen of the code of the preceding municipality, of a desig-51 nated licensed vehicle to keep such records as it prescribes and to 52 furnish such information upon its request; and

53 5. to extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return required 54 to be filed with the taxi and limousine commission for a period not 55 exceeding sixty days.

1 o. To the extent that any provision of this section is in conflict
2 with any other provision of this chapter, the provisions of this section 3 shall be controlling, but in all other respects such other provisions of 4 this chapter shall remain fully applicable with respect to the imposi-
5 tion, administration and collection of the taxes imposed by this chap-
6 ter.

7 § 11-810 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter is 8 not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the 9 commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of tax due from such 10 information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, may estimate the tax 11 on the basis of external indices such as motor vehicle registration with 12 the department of motor vehicles and/or any other factors. Notice of 13 such determination shall be given to the person liable for the payment 14 of the tax. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax 15 unless the person against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after 16 the giving of notice of such determination or, if the commissioner of 17 finance has established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 18 11-124 of this title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation
19 conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing 20 of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirma-
21 tion of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1)
22 serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a peti-
23 tion with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the commis-
24 sioner of finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same.
25 Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc 26 from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the 27 manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
28 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
29 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
30 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing 31 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person
32 against whom the tax is assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A
33 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable
34 for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatso-
35 ever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 36 law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by 37 the person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after 38 the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision. A
39 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 40 rules shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless: (a) the amount of 41 any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest thereon, if 42 any, shall be first deposited with the commissioner of finance and there 43 shall be filed with the commissioner of finance an undertaking, issued 44 by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and 45 approved by the superintendent of insurance of this state as to solvency
46 and responsibility, in such amount and with such sureties as a justice 47 of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceed-48 ing be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all costs 49 and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the proceeding, or 50 (b) at the option of the taxpayer such undertaking filed with the 51 commissioner of finance may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes,
52 penalties and interest thereon stated in such decision plus the costs 53 and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the 54 proceeding, in which event the taxpayer shall not be required to deposit 55 such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition precedent to the 56 application.

1 § 11-811 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the
2 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any
3 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally
4 collected or paid, if written application to the commissioner of finance
5 for such refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof.
6 Whenever a refund or credit is made or denied, the commissioner of 7 finance shall state his or her reason therefor and give notice thereof 8 to the taxpayer in writing. The commissioner of finance may, in lieu of 9 any refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on payments due 10 from the applicant.

11 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund 12 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 13 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-14 ty days from the mailing or notice of such determination, or, if the 15 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-
16 ant to section 11-124 of this title and the applicant has requested a 17 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 18 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's
19 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 20 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 21 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for 22 a refund or credit, made as herein provided, shall be deemed an applica-
23 tion for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained of. Such 24 hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from 25 the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner
26 and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal
27 pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seven-
28 ty-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed Janu-
29 ary first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax 30 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the applicant and 31 to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled to 32 institute a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 33 practice law and rules to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal
34 sitting en banc if application to the supreme court be made therefor 35 within four months after the giving of notice of such decision, and 36 provided, in the case of an application by a taxpayer, that a final 37 determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a proceeding
38 shall not be instituted by a taxpayer, unless an undertaking shall first 39 be filed with the commissioner of finance in such amount and with such 40 sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect
41 that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer 42 will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of 43 the proceeding.

44 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
45 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
46 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-810 of this 47 chapter where such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 48 hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 49 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 50 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 51 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-810 of this chapter 52 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 53 unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal
54 after a hearing or on the commissioner's own motion, or, if such tax 55 appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the determination of the 56 commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-eight of

1 the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of said
2 section, in which event refund or credit without interest shall be made
3 of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

4 § 11-812 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by this chapter
5 shall be the exclusive remedies available to any person for the review 6 of tax liability imposed by this chapter; and no determination or 7 proposed determination of tax or determination on any application for 8 refund by the commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax
9 appeals tribunal or any of its administrative law judges, shall be 10 enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 11 for money had and received or by any action or proceeding other than, in 12 the case of a decision by the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a 13 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 14 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory
15 judgment if the taxpayer institutes suit within thirty days after a 16 deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency 17 assessment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of 18 such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-810 of 19 this chapter.

20 § 11-813 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has applied for a
21 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 22 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 23 the taxpayer on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall 24 set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

25 § 11-814 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 26 fail to pay any tax or penalty or interest imposed by this chapter as 27 herein provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the request of the 28 commissioner of finance, bring or cause to be brought an action to 29 enforce payment of the same against the person liable for the same on 30 behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court of the state of New 31 York or of any other state or of the United States. If, however, the 32 commissioner of finance in his or her discretion believes that a taxpay-33 er subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease business, 34 leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which tax or 35 penalties might be satisfied and that any such tax or penalty will not 36 be paid when due, the commissioner may declare such tax or penalty to be 37 immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

38 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance
39 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the sheriff
40 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of such person
41 which may be found within the city, for the payment of the amount there-42 of, with any penalties and interest, and the cost of executing the 43 warrant, and to return such warrant to the commissioner of finance and 44 to pay to the commissioner the money collected by virtue thereof within 45 sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The city sheriff shall,
46 within five days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the county 47 clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judge-48 ment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant and the 49 amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the warrant is 50 issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon the amount of 51 such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and 52 interest in real and personal property of the person against whom the 53 warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant 54 in the same manner and with like effect as that provided by law in 55 respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court 56 of record, and for services in executing the warrant the sheriff shall

1 be entitled to the same fees which he or she may collect in the same
2 manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of finance a warrant of 3 like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any officer
4 or employee of the department of finance, and in the execution thereof
5 such officer or employee shall have all the powers conferred by law upon 6 sheriffs, but such officer or employee shall be entitled to no fee or 7 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 8 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-9 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 10 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 11 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 12 returned unsatisfied.

13 c. Whenever there is made a sale, transfer or assignment in bulk of 14 any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or 15 merchandise and of fixtures pertaining to the conducting of the business 16 of the seller, transferor or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary 17 course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the 18 purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking 19 possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures,
20 or paying therefor, notify the commissioner of finance by registered
21 mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof
22 whether or not the seller, transferor or assignor, has represented to,
23 or informed the purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any tax 24 pursuant to this chapter and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or 25 assignee has knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether any such 26 taxes are in fact owing.

27 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 28 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by the opening para-29 graph of this subdivision, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall 30 inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for 31 such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property or choses in 32 action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or 33 assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor or 34 assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 35 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-
36 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 37 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor 38 any such sums of money, property or choses in action to the extent of 39 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 40 provisions of this subdivision, the purchaser, transferee or assignee,
41 in addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed
42 under the provisions of former section forty-four of the personal prop-43 erty law, shall be personally liable for the payment to the city of any 44 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city 45 from the seller, transferor or assignor, and such liability may be 46 assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under 47 this chapter.

48 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
49 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 50 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 51 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
52 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 53 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 54 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
55 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 56 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

1 § 11-815 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition
2 to all other powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chap-
3 ter, the commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered:

4 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 5 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

6 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any kind of return 7 for a period not exceeding sixty days; and to compromise disputed claims 8 in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

9 3. To request information concerning motor vehicles and persons
10 subject to the provisions of this chapter from the department of motor 11 vehicles and from the department of taxation and finance of the state of 12 New York or any successor to their duties, or the treasury department of 13 the United States relative to any person; and to afford information to 14 such department of motor vehicles, department of taxation and finance or 15 any successor to their duties, or to such treasury department relative 16 to any person, any other provision of this chapter to the contrary 17 notwithstanding;

18 4. To delegate the commissioner's functions hereunder to a deputy 19 commissioner of finance or any employee or employees of the department
20 of finance;

21 5. To assess, reassess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes
22 imposed under this chapter;

23 6. To provide methods for identifying motor vehicles not subject to or 24 exempt from the tax imposed under this chapter;

25 7. To provide that a certificate of registration need not be filed 26 with respect to any or all types of motor vehicles, or to provide that 27 such certificate of registration with respect to any or all types of 28 motor vehicles shall be contained on or combined with any return or 29 supplemental return required to be filed under this chapter.

30 § 11-816 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 31 commissioner of finance, the commissioner's employees duly designated 32 and authorized by the commissioner, the tax appeals tribunal and any of 33 its duly designated and authorized employees shall have power to admin-
34 ister oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding
35 in the exercise of their powers and duties under this chapter. The 36 commissioner of finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to 37 subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of 38 books, papers and documents to secure information pertinent to the 39 performance of the duties of the commissioner or of the tax appeals
40 tribunal hereunder and of the enforcement of this chapter and to examine 41 them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions for the examination 42 of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before the 43 commissioner or the tax appeals tribunal or excused from attendance.

44 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 45 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 46 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books,
47 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 48 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

49 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas 50 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of the code of the 51 preceding municipality; for supplying false or fraudulent information, 52 see section 11-4009 of the code of the preceding municipality.

53 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 54 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal hereunder and witnesses attending 55 in response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 56 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as

1 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff, and 2 the sheriff's duly appointed deputies or any officers or employees of 3 the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to 4 serve such process.

5 § 11-817 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 6 any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 7 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment,
8 interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner of finance 9 pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate is set, at 10 the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be paid for the 11 period from such last date to the date of payment. In computing the 12 amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be compounded daily.
13 Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof
14 is less than one dollar.

15 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
16 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 17 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 18 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 19 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 20 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 21 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 22 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 23 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

24 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
25 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
26 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
27 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
28 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 29 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 30 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

31 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 32 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 33 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 34 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
35 upon the return.

36 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 37 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
38 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-39 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 40 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 41 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 42 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 43 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-44 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
45 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 46 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 47 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-48 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 49 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be 50 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return, 51 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

52 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 53 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 54 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
55 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-810 of this chap-
56 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless

1 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 2 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in 3 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
4 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one 5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 6 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
7 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 8 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 9 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

10 (4) Limitations on additions.

11 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-12 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 13 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 14 an addition applies under both such paragraphs one and two. In any case
15 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 16 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced
17 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

18 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition 19 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 20 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
21 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one,
22 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
23 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

24 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment
25 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 26 any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there 27 shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the under-
28 payment.

29 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
30 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 31 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
32 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
33 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
34 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 35 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
36 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
37 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

38 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 39 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 40 fifty percent of the underpayment.

41 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty deter-
42 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 43 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
44 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
45 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 46 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
47 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 48 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 49 tax.

50 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
51 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

52 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 53 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 54 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
55 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 56 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts

1 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the
2 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the
3 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 4 penalty under this subdivision.

5 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
6 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this subchap-7 ter. Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as 8 the tax imposed by this chapter.

9 (g) (1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance 10 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 11 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be 12 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate 13 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 14 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 15 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 16 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 17 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 18 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
19 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

20 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
21 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 22 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

23 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

24 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
25 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
26 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section 27 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 28 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 29 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 30 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
31 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

32 (B) Period during which rate applies.

33 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
34 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar 35 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 36 such month.

37 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
38 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 39 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 40 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

41 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 42 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
43 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
44 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
45 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 46 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdivi-47 sion five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the 48 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 49 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

50 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 51 to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a motor vehicle has not 52 been registered, that a return has not been filed, or that information 53 has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall 54 be presumptive evidence thereof.

55 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
56 title.

1 § 11-818 Information and records to be secret. a. Except in accord-2 ance with proper judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it 3 shall be unlawful for the commissioner of finance, the tax appeals 4 tribunal, any other agency, officer or employee of the city, the commis-5 sioner of motor vehicles, any officer or employee of the department of 6 motor vehicles, any agent of the commissioner of motor vehicles, or any 7 other person who, pursuant to this section, is permitted to inspect any 8 registration or return filed pursuant to this chapter, or to whom a 9 copy, an abstract or portion of any registration or return filed pursu-10 ant to this chapter is furnished, or to whom any information contained 11 in any registration or return filed pursuant to this chapter is 12 furnished, to divulge or make known in any manner any information relat-13 ing to or contained in any registration or any kind of return filed 14 pursuant to this chapter. The officers charged with the custody of such 15 registration and returns pertaining to the tax assessed pursuant to this 16 chapter shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of 17 anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, 18 except on behalf of the city, the commissioner of finance, the state or 19 the commissioner of motor vehicles, in an action or proceeding under the 20 provisions of this chapter, or on behalf of any party to any action or 21 proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the registration, 22 return or facts shown therein are directly involved in such action or 23 proceeding, in either of which events, the court may require the 24 production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said registration, 25 return, or of the facts shown therein, as are pertinent to the action or 26 proceeding and no more. The commissioner of finance may, nevertheless, 27 publish a copy or a summary of any determination or decision rendered 28 after a formal hearing held pursuant to section 11-810 or 11-811 of this 29 chapter. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a 30 person or such person's duly authorized representative of a certified 31 copy of any registration or return filed by such person; nor to prohibit 32 the delivery of any original return, with any notation that the commis-33 sioner of finance or the commissioner of motor vehicles may cause to be 34 made thereon, to the person filing the return, whether such person files 35 the return on his or her own behalf or on behalf of another, or to the 36 person on whose behalf the return is filed; nor to prohibit the commis-37 sioner of finance from providing by rule for the display or production 38 of any original return, as an indicium of payment of the tax imposed by 39 this chapter; nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so classi-40 fied as to prevent the identification of particular registrations and 41 returns and the items thereof; nor to prohibit the delivery of a certi-42 fied copy of any registration or return to the United States of America 43 or any department thereof, the state of New York or any department ther-44 eof, the city of New York or any department thereof provided it is 45 requested for official business, nor to prohibit the inspection by the 46 corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city, the 47 attorney general of the state of New York or other legal representatives 48 of the department of motor vehicles, or by the district attorney of any 49 county within the city of the registration or return of any person who 50 shall bring action to set aside or review any tax assessed pursuant to 51 this section, or against whom an action or proceeding under this chapter 52 is instituted. Returns, or reproductions thereof, pertaining to any 53 motor vehicle registered pursuant to this section shall be preserved for 54 three years and thereafter until the commissioner of finance or the 55 commissioner of motor vehicles permits them to be destroyed.

1 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city or the state of New York
2 who willfully violates the provisions of subdivision a of this section 3 shall be dismissed from office and be incapable of holding any public 4 office in this city or the state of New York for a period of five years 5 thereafter.

6 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
7 title.

8 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
9 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
10 cers law.

11 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 12 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 13 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the 14 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
15 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
16 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
17 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be 18 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax 19 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 20 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the 21 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
22 teen hundred ninety-four.

23 § 11-819 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized or 24 required under the provisions of this chapter may be given to the person
25 for whom it is intended by mailing it in a postpaid envelope addressed 26 to such person at the address given in the last registration of a motor 27 vehicle filed by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, 28 or in any application made by such person, or if no such registration 29 has been filed or application made, then to such address as may be 30 obtainable. The mailing of a notice as in this subdivision provided for 31 shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person 32 to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined according to 33 the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to 34 run from the date of mailing of such notice as in this subdivision 35 provided.

36 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
37 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
38 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy,
39 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 40 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a 41 wilfully false or fraudulent registration or return with intent to evade 42 the tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expira-43 tion of more than three years from the date of such return; provided, 44 however, that where no registration or no return has been made as 45 provided by law, the tax may be assessed at any time.

46 c. Where before the expiration of the period prescribed in this 47 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a person has consented 48 in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such additional 49 tax due may be determined at any time within such extended period. The 50 period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in 51 writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

52 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other 53 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
54 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
55 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
56 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, commis-

1 sioner of motor vehicles, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, 2 officer or person with which or with whom such document is required to 3 be filed, or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made,
4 the date of the United States postmark stamped on the envelope shall be 5 deemed to be the date of delivery. This subdivision shall apply only if 6 the postmark date falls within the prescribed period or on or before the 7 prescribed date for the filing of such document, or for making the 8 payment, including any extension granted for such filing or payment, and 9 only if such document or payment was deposited in the mail, postage
10 prepaid, properly addressed to the commissioner of finance, commissioner 11 of motor vehicles, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or 12 person with which or with whom the document is required to be filed or 13 to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any document 14 is sent by United States registered mail, such registration shall be 15 prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the commission-16 er of finance, commissioner of motor vehicles, the tax appeals tribunal, 17 bureau, office, officer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the 18 date of registration shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner 19 of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal is authorized to 20 provide by regulation the extent to which the provisions of this subdivi-21 sion with respect to prima facie evidence of delivery and the postmark 22 date shall apply to certified mail. Except as provided in subdivision f 23 of this section, this subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks 24 not made by the United States postal service only if and to the extent 25 provided by rule of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the 26 tax appeals tribunal.

27 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
28 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a 29 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state of New York, the perform-30 ance of such act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the 31 next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

32 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
33 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
34 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
35 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
36 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 37 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
38 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
39 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
40 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
41 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
42 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
43 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 44 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 45 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 46 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 47 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 48 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
49 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
50 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 51 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 52 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 53 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 54 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 55 finance. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, any with-56 drawal of designation or additional designation by the commissioner of

1 finance shall not be effective for purposes of service upon the tax
2 appeals tribunal, unless and until such withdrawal of designation or 3 additional designation is ratified by the president of the tax appeals 4 tribunal.

5 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 6 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 7 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 8 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 9 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
10 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 11 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 12 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
13 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
14 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 15 title. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, any withdrawal 16 of designation or additional designation by the commissioner of finance 17 shall not be effective for purposes of service upon the tax appeals 18 tribunal, unless and until such withdrawal of designation or additional 19 designation is ratified by the president of the tax appeals tribunal.

20 § 11-820 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 21 construed and enforced in conformity with chapter one thousand thirty-22 two of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty, pursuant to which it is 23 enacted.

54 to all other powers granted to the commissioner of finance under this 55 chapter, the commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered:

1 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 2 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof.

3 2. To compromise disputed claims in connection with taxes hereby 4 imposed.

5 3. To delegate his or her functions hereunder to any officer or 6 employee of the department of finance.

7 4. To prescribe reasonable methods, approved by the New York state 8 superintendent of insurance, for determining the amounts of premiums 9 subject to the tax.

10 5. To require any foreign or alien insurer subject to the tax to keep 11 detailed records of the premiums in a manner reasonably designed to show

13 on request.

14 6. To assess, determine, revise and adjust the tax imposed under this
15 chapter.

16 7. To audit the reports of any insurer.

17 8. To allow an extension of time not in excess of thirty days for 18 filing the report and paying the tax required by this chapter, provided 19 the taxpayer requests such extension in writing prior to the date 20 prescribed for such filing and such payment by sections 11-904 and 21 11-903 of this chapter.

22 § 11-903 Tax on premiums on policies of foreign and alien insurers.
23 There shall be paid to the department of finance for the use and benefit 24 of the fire department of the city, on or before the first day of March, 25 in each year by every foreign and alien fire insurance corporation, 26 association or individuals which insure property against loss or damage 27 by fire, the sum of two percent of all gross direct premiums less return 28 premiums which, during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day 29 of December, shall have been received by any such insurer for any insur-30 ance against loss or damage by fire in the city. Any such insurer which 31 in any year shall cease or terminate doing business in the city shall 32 pay the tax for such year within thirty days after such cessation or 33 termination.

34 § 11-904 Report of premiums by insurers. Each insurer required to pay 35 a tax under this chapter shall, at the time such tax is paid or payable, 36 whichever is sooner, render to the commissioner of finance a verified 37 report setting forth such information as may be required by the commis-38 sioner for the determination of the tax and the proper administration of 39 this chapter. The commissioner of finance shall prescribe the form and 40 furnish the necessary forms to enable such insurers to make such 41 reports. The commissioner or the commissioner's designated represen-42 tative or the tax appeals tribunal or its designated representative 43 shall have power to examine any such insurer under oath and to require 44 the production by such insurer of all books and papers as the commis-45 sioner or the tax appeals tribunal may deem necessary. All expenses of 46 collecting such tax shall be paid by the commissioner of finance from 47 the funds received under this chapter prior to the distribution thereof 48 as hereinafter authorized.

49 § 11-905 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If any 50 amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 51 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment, 52 interest on such amount at the underpayment rate set by the commissioner 53 of finance pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate 54 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be 55 paid for the period from such last date to the date of payment. In 56 computing the amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be

1 compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if 2 the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

3 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
4 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined
5 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 6 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect,
7 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 8 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 9 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 10 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 11 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

12 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
13 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
14 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
15 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
16 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 17 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 18 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

19 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 20 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 21 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 22 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
23 upon the return.

24 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 25 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
26 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-27 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 28 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 29 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 30 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 31 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-
32 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
33 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 34 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 35 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-36 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 37 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be 38 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
39 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

40 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 41 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 42 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
43 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-906 of this chap-
44 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless 45 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 46 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in 47 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
48 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one
49 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 50 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
51 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 52 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 53 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

54 (4) Limitations on additions.

55 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-56 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the

1 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 2 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two of this subdivi-
3 sion. In any case described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of 4 this subdivision, the amount of the addition under such paragraph one
5 shall not be reduced below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

6 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition
7 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 8 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
9 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one
10 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
11 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

12 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment
13 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 14 any rules and regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, 15 there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the 16 underpayment.

17 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
18 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision an amount equal to fifty 19 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
20 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
21 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
22 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 23 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
24 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
25 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

50 with penalties and interest thereon, if any, shall be first deposited 51 with the commissioner of finance and there shall be filed with the 52 commissioner of finance an undertaking in such amount and with such 53 sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect 54 that if such proceeding be dismissed or the decision confirmed, the 55 taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue against the 56 taxpayer in the prosecution of the proceeding, or (2) in the case of a

52 fund, for the benefit of indigent volunteer firefighters, their surviv-

- 36 3. That the premises are occupied by a co-operative corporation organ-37 ized under the provisions of the cooperative corporations law of the 38 state of New York, or an agricultural co-operative organized under the 39 authority of the federal government.
- 40 4. That the premises are occupied by the state of New York, or any 41 public corporation, including a public corporation created pursuant to 42 agreement or compact with another state or the dominion of Canada, 43 improvement district or other political subdivision of the state where 44 it is the purchaser, user or consumer.
- 45 5. That the premises are occupied by the United Nations or other 46 world-wide international organizations of which the United States of 47 America is a member.
- 48 6. That the premises are occupied by a corporation, or association, or 49 trust, or community chest, fund or foundation, organized and operated 50 exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational purposes, or for 51 the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net 52 earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or 53 individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carry-54 ing on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; 55 provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall include an 56 organization operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or

1 business for profit, whether or not all of its profits are payable to 2 one or more organizations described in this subdivision.

3 7. That the premises are occupied by the United States of America 4 under circumstances which make the premises immune from taxation.

5 § 11-1007 Returns; payment of taxes. On or before the twentieth day 6 of June in each year, every person subject to a tax hereunder, shall 7 file a return with the commissioner of finance on the form to be 8 furnished by the commissioner of finance. At the time of filing such 9 return each person shall pay to the commissioner of finance the tax 10 imposed pursuant to this chapter. Such tax shall be due and payable 11 annually upon the twentieth day of June, whether or not a return is 12 filed.

13 § 11-1008 Presumption and burden of proof. It shall be presumed that 14 the occupant of any premises is subject to the tax until the contrary is 15 established, and the burden of proving that any occupation of premises 16 is exempt from taxation shall be upon such occupant.

17 § 11-1009 Determination of tax by the commissioner of finance. a. If 18 a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when 19 filed is incorrect or insufficient and the maker fails to file a 20 corrected or sufficient return within twenty days after it is required 21 by a notice from the commissioner of finance, the commissioner of 22 finance shall tentatively determine the amount of tax due from such 23 information as he or she may be able to obtain and, if necessary, may 24 estimate the tax on the basis of external indices. The commissioner of 25 finance shall give notice of the amount so fixed to the person liable 26 for the tax. Unless the person against whom the tax is assessed shall 27 within fifteen days after the giving of such notice apply in writing to 28 the commissioner of finance for a hearing to correct such assessment, 29 such notice shall constitute a final and irrevocable determination of 30 the tax. After such hearing the commissioner of finance shall give 31 notice of his or her decision to the person liable for the tax.

32 b. Such determination and the decision of the commissioner of finance 33 upon any application to correct may be reviewed for error, illegality or 34 unconstitutionality or for any reason whatsoever by a proceeding under 35 article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules in the nature 36 of a certiorari proceeding if application therefor is made to the 37 supreme court within thirty days after the giving of notice thereof.
38 Whenever under this chapter a proceeding to review is instituted, it 39 shall not be allowed unless the amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, 40 with penalties thereon, if any, shall be first deposited with the 41 commissioner of finance, and an undertaking filed with the commissioner 42 of finance, in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the 43 supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceeding be 44 dismissed or the tax confirmed, such person will pay all costs and 45 charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

46 § 11-1010 Refunds. The commissioner of finance shall refund any tax 47 erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected by or paid to him 48 or her, under protest in writing, stating in detail the ground or 49 grounds of the protest, if application therefor shall be made to the 50 commissioner of finance within one year from the payment thereof. For 51 like cause and within the same period a refund may be made on the initi-52 ative of the commissioner of finance. Whenever a refund is made the 53 commissioner of finance shall state his or her reasons therefor in writ-54 ing. A person shall not be entitled to a hearing in connection with any 55 application for a refund if he or she has already been given the oppor-
56 tunity of a hearing as provided in section 11-1009 of this chapter. No

1 refund shall be made of a tax or penalty paid pursuant to a determi-2 nation of the commissioner of finance as provided in section 11-1009 of 3 this chapter, unless the commissioner of finance, after a hearing as in 4 said section provided, or of his or her own motion, shall have reduced 5 the tax or penalty, or it shall have been established in a proceeding 6 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules that 7 such determination was erroneous, illegal, unconstitutional, or other-8 wise improper, in which event a refund with interest shall be made as 9 provided upon the determination of such proceeding. An application for 10 a refund made as provided in this chapter shall be deemed an application 11 for a revision of any tax or penalty complained of and the commissioner 12 of finance may receive evidence with respect thereto. After making his 13 or her determination the commissioner of finance shall give notice ther-14 eof to the person interested who shall be entitled to review such deter-15 mination by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-16 tice law and rules if application to the supreme court be made therefor 17 within thirty days after such determination and an undertaking shall 18 first be filed with the commissioner of finance in such amount and with 19 such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the 20 effect that if such order be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the appli-21 cant for the order will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in 22 the prosecution of the certiorari proceeding.

23 § 11-1011 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by section 24 11-1009 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies available to any 25 person for the review of tax liability imposed by this chapter; and no 26 determination of tax or determination on an application for refund shall 27 be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 28 for money had and received or by any legal or equitable action or 29 proceeding other than one under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-30 tice law and rules.

31 § 11-1012 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has paid any tax 32 under written protest stating in detail the ground or grounds therefor, 33 or has applied for a refund and an order under article seventy-eight of 34 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 35 the taxpayer on the taxpayer's application for refund, or has deposited 36 the amount of tax assessed in connection with a proceeding under section 37 11-1009 of this chapter the commissioner of finance shall set up appro-38 priate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

39 § 11-1013 Proceeding to recover tax. a. The commissioner of finance 40 may issue a warrant directed to any officer or employee of the depart-41 ment of finance commanding him or her to levy upon and sell the real and 42 personal property of the person from whom the tax is due for the payment 43 of the amount thereof, with penalties, and the cost of executing the 44 warrants, and to return such warrant to the commissioner of finance and 45 to pay to him or her the money collected by virtue thereof, and in the 46 execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
47 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but he or she shall be entitled to no 48 fee or compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the 49 performance of such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in 50 full, the commissioner of finance may from time to time issue new 51 warrants and shall also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due 52 pursuant to this section as if the city had recovered judgment therefor 53 and the execution thereon had been returned not satisfied. A copy of 54 any warrant issued may be filed with the county clerk in Richmond county 55 and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of 56 the person mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax and penal-

1 ty for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed.
2 Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien 3 upon the title to and interest in the real and personal property of the 4 person against whom the warrant is issued.

5 b. As an additional or alternate remedy the commissioner of finance 6 may request the corporation counsel to bring an action in the name of 7 the city to enforce payment of a tax or penalty which any person has 8 failed to pay.

9 c. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
10 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 11 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 12 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-13 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision a of 14 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 15 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
16 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 17 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

18 § 11-1014 Notices and limitation of time. a. Any notice authorized or 19 required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
20 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a post paid envelope 21 addressed to such person at the address given in the return filed by 22 such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or if no return 23 has been filed then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing 24 of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same
25 by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined 26 according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice
27 shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

28 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules relative to 29 limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy shall not 30 apply to any proceeding or action by the city taken to levy, appraise,
31 assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or penalty
32 provided by this chapter.

33 § 11-1015 Penalties and interest. a. Any person failing to file a 34 return or corrected return or to pay any tax or any portion thereof that 35 may be required by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of five 36 times the amount of the tax due, plus five per centum of such tax for 37 each month of delay or fraction thereof, but the commissioner of 38 finance, if satisfied that the delay was excusable, may remit all or any 39 part of such penalty, but not interest. Penalties shall be paid to the 40 commissioner of finance and disposed of in the manner as other receipts 41 under this chapter. Unpaid penalties may be enforced in the same manner 42 as the tax imposed by this chapter.

43 b. Any person filing or causing to be filed any return, certificate, 44 affidavit or statement required or authorized by this chapter, which is 45 wilfully false and any person who shall fail to file a return or to 46 furnish a statement or other information as required under this chapter, 47 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishment for which shall be a fine 48 of not more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than 49 one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

50 A certificate of the commissioner of finance to the effect that a tax 51 has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information 52 has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall 53 be prima facie evidence thereof.

54 § 11-1016 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In the 55 administration of this chapter, the commissioner of finance is author-56 ized to:

1 1. Make and publish reasonable rules and regulations as may be neces-2 sary for the exercise of the commissioner's powers and the performance 3 of the commissioner's duties under this chapter.

4 2. Assess the tax authorized to be imposed under this chapter.

5 3. Subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production 6 of books, papers and other documents, and to take testimony and proofs, 7 under oath, with reference to any matter within the line of the commis-8 sioner's official duty under this chapter.

9 4. Delegate the commissioner's functions hereunder to a deputy commis-10 sioner of finance or other employee or employees of the department of 11 finance.

12 5. Prescribe methods for determining the rental values of premises, 13 the occupant of which is taxable pursuant to the provisions of this 14 chapter.

15 6. Require any person who receives or is entitled to receive a consid-16 eration for the occupation of premises to furnish a statement to the 17 commissioner of finance, upon his or her request, containing information 18 as to the name of each occupant and rental value of each for the occupa-19 tion of such premises.

20 7. Nothing contained in section 11-1017 of this chapter or in any 21 other provision of this chapter shall be construed to limit the authori-22 ty of the commissioner of finance, hereby authorized, to furnish any 23 information, whether or not contained in a return, to the tax commission 24 or any other agency or department of the state of New York, or to the 25 treasury department of the United States, or to any agency of the city 26 of Staten Island, or to the district attorney of Richmond county.

27 8. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 28 period not exceeding twenty days.

29 § 11-1017 Returns to be secret. Except in accordance with judicial 30 order, or upon subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, it 31 shall be unlawful for the commissioner of finance or any officer or 32 employee of the city to divulge or make known in any manner, any infor-33 mation contained in any return required under this chapter. Nothing in 34 this section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer 35 of a certified copy of any return filed by the taxpayer, nor to prohibit 36 the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identifi-37 cation of particular returns, or the inspection by the corporation coun-38 sel of the return to any taxpayer who shall bring action or proceeding 39 to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action 40 or proceeding has been instituted or is contemplated for the collection 41 of a tax or penalty. Returns shall be preserved for three years and 42 thereafter until the commissioner of finance orders them to be 43 destroyed.

44 § 11-1018 Disposition of revenue. All revenues and moneys heretofore 45 or hereafter collected resulting from the imposition of taxes and penal-46 ties imposed by this chapter shall be deposited in the city treasury, 47 and credited to a separate account. During each fiscal year, an amount 48 not in excess of the amount of the subsidies to be made, and the amount 49 of indebtedness incurred for low rent or slum clearance projects to be 50 paid, during such fiscal year shall be charged to such account and cred-51 ited to the general fund. No other payments shall be charged to such an 52 account. The mayor may contract to make capital or periodic subsidies 53 to the city housing authority in aid of a low rent project, or may incur 54 indebtedness for a low rent slum clearance project, but such periodic 55 subsidies shall not be contracted for a period longer than the life of 56 such project and in no event for more than fifty years. If the amount

1 of any such periodic subsidy shall be equal to or greater than the 2 interest on and the amounts required annually for the payment of the 3 indebtedness contracted by the authority on account of such project in 4 each year, such contract shall constitute a guarantee of the principal 5 of and the interest on such indebtedness, and such contract and the 6 payments thereunder may be pledged by the authority as security in addi-7 tion to all other security which the authority may give for such bonds.
8 No such contract or periodic subsidies shall be made until the plan for 9 such project shall have been approved in the manner provided by the 10 public housing law.

11 § 11-1019 Application; construction. If any provision of this chapter 12 shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, 13 such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder ther-14 eof, but shall be confined in its operation to the provision directly 15 involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been 16 rendered. This chapter shall be construed in conformity with the public 17 housing law.

15 corporation for industrial, commercial, or residential heating or cool-

30 § 11-1102 Imposition of excise tax. a. Notwithstanding any other 31 provisions of law to the contrary, for the privilege of exercising its 32 franchise or franchises, or of holding property, or of doing business in 33 the city, on or after August first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, every 34 utility shall pay to the commissioner of finance an excise tax which 35 shall be equal to two per centum of its gross income until and including 36 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, and shall be equal 37 to two and thirty-five hundredths per centum thereafter, except that the 38 rate as to persons engaged in the business of operating omnibuses with a 39 carrying capacity of more than seven persons shall be one per centum 40 until and including December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, 41 and one and seventeen hundredths per centum thereafter, and except that 42 as to persons engaged in the business of operating or leasing sleeping 43 and parlor railroad cars or of operating railroads other than street 44 surface, rapid transit, subway and elevated railroads, the rate shall be 45 three per centum until and including December thirty-first, nineteen 46 hundred sixty-five, and three and fifty-two one hundredths per centum 47 thereafter, and every vendor of utility services in the city shall pay 48 to the commissioner of finance an excise tax which shall be equal to two 49 per centum of its gross operating income until and including December 50 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, and shall be equal to two and 51 thirty-five one hundredths per centum thereafter, except that as to 52 persons engaged in the business of operating omnibuses with a carrying 53 capacity of more than seven persons other than omnibuses used exclu-54 sively for the transportation of children to and from schools operated 55 under contracts made pursuant to the provisions of the education law, 56 and not subject to the jurisdiction of the department of public service,

1 the rate shall be one per centum of its gross operating income until and 2 including December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, and one 3 and seventeen hundredths per centum thereafter. Such tax shall be in 4 addition to any and all other taxes, charges and fees imposed by any 5 other provision of law and shall be paid at the time and in the manner 6 provided in this section, but any person to the extent that it is 7 subject to tax pursuant to this section shall not be liable to any tax 8 under any other of the local laws of the preceding municipality as it 9 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four enacted pursuant to 10 chapter ninety-three of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five as 11 amended, or the former article two-b of the general city law, with 12 respect to its gross income or gross operating income taxed pursuant to 13 this section, as the case may be.

14 b. So much of the gross income of a utility shall be excluded from the 15 measure of the tax imposed by this chapter, as is derived from sales for 16 resale to vendors of utility services validly subject to the tax imposed 17 by this chapter, except to the extent that such gross income is derived 18 from sales of gas, electricity, steam, water or refrigeration or sales 19 or rendering of gas, electric, steam, water or refrigeration service to 20 a vendor of utility services for resale to its tenants as an incident to 21 such vendor's activity of renting premises to tenants.

22 c. For the purpose of proper administration of this chapter and to 23 prevent evasion of the tax imposed by this section, it shall be presumed 24 that the gross income or gross operating income of any person taxable 25 pursuant to this section is taxable and is derived from business 26 conducted wholly within the territorial limits of the city until the 27 contrary is established, and the burden of proving that any part of its 28 gross income or gross operating income is not so derived shall be upon 29 such person. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this subdivi-30 sion or in any provision of section twenty-b of the general city law or 31 any other provision of law, for taxable periods beginning on or after 32 August first, two thousand two, gross income and gross operating income 33 derived from the provision of mobile telecommunications services shall 34 be deemed to be derived from business conducted wholly within the terri-35 torial limits of the city where the place of primary use of the mobile 36 telecommunications services is within the territorial limits of the 37 city.

38 d. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be inapplicable to the gross 39 income received by a limited fare omnibus company until and including 40 August thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty. Thereafter, such tax shall 41 be applicable to such gross income received as follows: (1) for gross 42 income received from commuter service from September first, nineteen 43 hundred eighty until and including December thirty-first, nineteen 44 hundred eighty-three, the rate of tax shall be one hundredth of one per 45 centum; (2) for gross income received from commuter service from January 46 first, nineteen hundred eighty-four and thereafter, the rate of tax 47 shall be one tenth of one per centum; and (3) for gross income received 48 from all other sources, the rate of tax shall be as provided in subdivi-49 sion a of this section.

50 e. The gross operating income of a vendor of utility services derived 51 from sales to its tenants of gas, electricity, steam, water, or refrig-52 eration or sales or rendering to its tenants of gas, electric, steam, 53 water or refrigeration service, as an incident to such vendor's activity 54 of renting premises to tenants, shall be excluded from the measure of 55 the tax imposed by this chapter, but, with regard to sales to its 56 tenants of gas, electricity, or steam or sales or rendering to its 1 tenants of gas, electric or steam service, only to the extent that the 2 tax imposed by this chapter has been validly paid or accrued with 3 respect to a prior sale of such gas, electricity or steam or sale or 4 rendering of gas, electric or steam service.

5 f. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter to the 6 contrary, for taxable periods beginning on or after August first, two 7 thousand two, if a partnership is subject to the tax imposed by this 8 chapter as a utility or as a vendor of utility services, no person who 9 is a partner in such a partnership shall be subject to the tax imposed 10 by this chapter on such partner's distributive share of the gross income 11 or gross operating income of such partnership.

12 (2) If a person is a partner in a partnership subject to the tax 13 imposed by this chapter and that person is separately subject to the 14 supervision of the state department of public service or is a utility or 15 a vendor of utility services based on its activities exclusive of any 16 activities of such partnership, for taxable periods beginning on or 17 after August first, two thousand two, such person shall be subject to 18 the tax imposed by this chapter only on its separate gross income or 19 separate gross operating income, which shall not include such person's 20 distributive share of the gross income or gross operating income of such 21 partnership.

22 (3) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "partner" shall include 23 a person who receives a distributive share of the gross income or gross 24 operating income, directly or indirectly through one or more tiers of 25 partnerships, of a partnership subject to the tax imposed by this chap-
26 ter.

27 g. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this chapter to the 28 contrary, for the taxable periods beginning on or after January first, 29 two thousand six, if a cooperative corporation containing at least 30 fifteen hundred apartments furnishes or sells electricity, steam, 31 refrigeration or water, or furnishes or sells electric, steam, refriger-32 ation or water services that are (i) metered, (ii) generated or produced 33 by a cogeneration facility owned or operated by such cooperative corpo-34 ration, and (iii) such electricity, steam, refrigeration or water and/or 35 electric, steam, refrigeration or water services are distributed to 36 tenants and/or occupants of a cooperative corporation, then such cooper-37 ative corporation shall pay to the commissioner of finance an excise tax 38 which shall be equal to zero per centum of its gross income or its gross 39 operating income, as the case may be.

40 § 11-1103 Records to be kept. Every person subject to tax pursuant to 41 this chapter shall keep records of its business and in such form as the 42 commissioner of finance may by regulation require. Such records shall 43 be offered for inspection and examination at any time upon demand by 44 such commissioner or his or her duly authorized agent or employee and 45 shall be preserved for a period of three years, except that the commis-46 sioner of finance may consent to their destruction within that period or 47 may require that they be kept longer.

48 § 11-1104 Returns; requirements as to. a. Except as otherwise 49 provided in subdivision e of this section with respect to taxable peri-50 ods beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-eight, on or before the 51 twenty-fifth day of September, nineteen hundred sixty-five, and on or 52 before the twenty-fifth day of every month thereafter, every person 53 subject to tax pursuant to this chapter shall file a return with the 54 commissioner of finance on a form to be prescribed by such commissioner.
55 Such return shall state the gross income or gross operating income as 56 the case may be for the preceding calendar month, and shall contain any

1 other data, information or other matter which the commissioner of 2 finance may require to be included therein. The commissioner of finance 3 may require at any further time a supplemental return, which shall 4 contain any data upon such matters as such commissioner may specify.
5 Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision and notwithstanding 6 the provisions of subdivision e of this section, a vendor of utility 7 services, all of whose gross operating income is excluded from the meas-8 ure of the tax imposed by this chapter pursuant to subdivision e of 9 section 11-1102 of this chapter during any taxable period, shall not be 10 required to file a return for such taxable period, provided, however, 11 that on or before the first day of September of each year, any such 12 vendor of utility services who was not required to file a return for any 13 taxable period during the period covered by the statement required to be 14 filed by such date pursuant to subdivision a of section 11-208.1 of this 15 title shall file an information return covering such period in such form 16 and containing such information as the commissioner of finance may spec-17 ify.

18 b. The commissioner of finance may require amended returns to be filed 19 within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified 20 in the notice.

21 c. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return 22 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face, the commissioner of 23 finance shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such 24 return or of a corrected return.

25 d. Where the state tax commission changes or corrects a taxpayer's 26 sales and compensating use tax liability with respect to the purchase or 27 use of items for which a sales or compensating use tax credit against 28 the tax imposed by this chapter was claimed, the taxpayer shall report 29 such change or correction to the commissioner of finance within ninety 30 days of the final determination of such change or correction, or as 31 required by the commissioner of finance, and shall concede the accuracy 32 of such determination or state wherein it is erroneous. Any taxpayer 33 filing an amended return or report with the state tax commission relat-34 ing to the purchase or use of such items shall also file within ninety 35 days thereafter a copy of such amended return or report with the commis-36 sioner of finance.

37 e. With respect to taxable periods beginning after nineteen hundred 38 ninety-eight, notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision a of this 39 section, if the amount of tax imposed pursuant to this section on any 40 person in the base year does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, 41 the taxable period for which such person is required to file a return is 42 the semiannual period described in paragraph i of subdivision fourteen 43 of section 11-1101 of this chapter, and such person shall file a return 44 for each semiannual period of the first calendar year beginning after 45 the base year on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following 46 the end of each such taxable period. Such return shall be filed with the 47 commissioner of finance on a form to be prescribed by such commissioner.

48 Such return shall state the gross income or gross operating income as 49 the case may be for the preceding taxable period and shall contain any 50 other data, information or other matter which the commissioner of 51 finance may require to be included therein. The commissioner of finance 52 may require at any further time a supplemental return, which shall 53 contain any data upon such matters as such commissioner may specify. For 54 the purposes of this subdivision, if the amount of tax imposed pursuant 55 to this chapter on such person in the base year is for a period of less 56 than one year, the amount of tax imposed on such person shall be annual-

1 ized by multiplying the amount of tax imposed by a fraction, the denomi-2 nator of which is the number of months or parts thereof during which the 3 person was subject to the tax imposed pursuant to this chapter and the 4 numerator of which is twelve. Notwithstanding the provisions of this 5 subdivision, a person that first becomes subject to the tax pursuant to 6 this chapter shall file a return for each month in the calendar year in 7 which such person first becomes subject to such tax in accordance with 8 subdivision a of this section.

9 § 11-1105 Payment of tax; credit for certain sales and compensating 10 use taxes. a. At the time of filing each return, as provided under 11 section 11-1104 of this chapter, each person taxable pursuant to this 12 chapter shall pay to the commissioner of finance the taxes imposed by 13 this chapter upon its gross income or gross operating income, as the 14 case may be, for the taxable period covered by such return, less any 15 credit to which such person may be entitled under subdivision b of this 16 section. Such taxes shall be due and payable on the last day on which 17 the return for such period is required to be filed, regardless of wheth-18 er a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly 19 indicates the amount of tax due.

20 b. (1) A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed 21 by this chapter for the amount of sales and compensating use taxes 22 imposed by section eleven hundred seven of the tax law which became 23 legally due on or after, and which were paid on or after, July first, 24 nineteen hundred seventy-seven but within the taxable period for which a 25 credit is claimed, with respect to the purchase or use by the taxpayer 26 of machinery or equipment for use or consumption directly and predomi-27 nantly in the production of steam for sale, by manufacturing, process-28 ing, generating, assembling, refining, mining or extracting, or tele-29 phone central office equipment or station apparatus or comparable 30 telegraph equipment for use directly and predominantly in receiving at 31 destination or initiating and switching telephone or telegraph communi-32 cation, but not including parts with a useful life of one year or less 33 or tools or supplies used in connection with such machinery, equipment 34 or apparatus.

35 (2) The amount of the credit provided in paragraph one of this subdi-36 vision shall be limited to the amount of such sales and compensating use 37 taxes paid during the taxable period covered by the return under this 38 chapter on which the credit is taken less the amount of any credit or 39 refund of such sales and compensating use taxes during such taxable 40 period. If such credit exceeds the amount of tax under this chapter 41 payable for the taxable period in question, such excess amount shall be 42 refunded or credited except in the case of a vendor of utility services 43 who is entitled to a credit and/or refund for such sales and compensat-
44 ing use taxes under chapter five or six of this title. The credit 45 allowed under this subdivision shall be deemed an erroneous payment of 46 tax by the taxpayer to be credited or refunded in accordance with the 47 provisions of section 11-1108 of this chapter, except as otherwise 48 provided in this paragraph.

49 (3) Where the taxpayer receives a refund or credit of any tax imposed 50 under section eleven hundred seven of the tax law for which the taxpayer 51 has claimed a credit under the provisions of this subdivision in a prior 52 taxable period, the amount of such refund or credit shall be added to 53 the tax imposed by section 11-1102 of this chapter of the taxable period 54 in which such refund or credit of tax under section eleven hundred seven 55 of the tax law is received.

1 § 11-1105.1 Credit for rebates of charges for energy. A taxpayer shall 2 be allowed a credit against the amount of taxes imposed by this chapter 3 for the amount of special rebates and discounts made in accordance with 4 the provisions of section 22-602 of the code of the preceding municipi-5 pality and for the amount of special rebates and discounts made in 6 accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five-bb of the general 7 city law. Such credit shall be applied against the amount of tax other-8 wise required to be paid as provided in subdivision a of section 11-1105 9 of this chapter and shall be claimed for the taxable period immediately 10 succeeding the taxable period in which such rebates or discounts are 11 made.

12 § 11-1105.2 Relocation and employment assistance program credit. (a) A
13 taxpayer that has obtained the certifications required by chapter six-B 14 of title twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality shall be 15 allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter, provided, 16 however, that a taxpayer that is a vendor of utility services shall not 17 be allowed the credit against the tax imposed by this chapter unless it 18 elects as provided in subdivision (d) of section 22-622 of the code of 19 the preceding municipality to take the credit against the tax imposed by 20 this chapter. The amount of the credit shall be the amount determined by 21 multiplying one thousand dollars or, in the case of an eligible business 22 that has obtained pursuant to chapter six-B of such title twenty-two a 23 certification of eligibility dated on or after July first, two thousand, 24 for a relocation to eligible premises located within a revitalization 25 area defined in subdivision (n) of section 22-621 of the code of the 26 preceding municipality, three thousand dollars, by the number of eligi-27 ble aggregate employment shares maintained by the taxpayer during the 28 calendar year with respect to particular premises to which the taxpayer 29 has relocated; provided, however, with respect to a relocation for which 30 no application for a certificate of eligibility is submitted prior to 31 July first, two thousand three, to eligible premises that are within a 32 revitalization area, if the date of such relocation as determined pursu-33 ant to subdivision (j) of section 22-621 of the code of the preceding 34 municipality is on or after January first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, 35 and before July first, two thousand, the amount to be multiplied by the 36 number of eligible aggregate employment shares shall be one thousand 37 dollars; provided, however, that no credit shall be allowed for the 38 relocation of any retail activity or hotel services; and provided that 39 in the case of an eligible business that has obtained pursuant to chap-40 ter six-B of such title twenty-two certifications of eligibility for 41 more than one relocation, the portion of the total amount of eligible 42 aggregate employment shares to be multiplied by the dollar amount speci-43 fied in this subdivision for each such certification of a relocation 44 shall be the number of total attributed eligible aggregate employment 45 shares determined with respect to such relocation pursuant to subdivi-46 sion (o) of section 22-621 of the code of the preceding municipality.
47 For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "eligible aggregate employ-48 ment shares", "relocate", "retail activity" and "hotel services" shall 49 have the meanings ascribed by section 22-621 of the code of the preced-50 ing municipality.

51 (b) The credit allowed under this subdivision with respect to eligible
52 aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to particular prem-53 ises to which the taxpayer has relocated shall be allowed for the taxa-54 ble periods in the first calendar year during which such eligible aggre-55 gate employment shares are maintained with respect to such premises and 56 for taxable periods in any of the twelve succeeding calendar years

1 during which eligible aggregate employment shares are maintained with 2 respect to such premises, provided that the credit allowed for the taxa-3 ble periods in the twelfth succeeding calendar year shall be calculated 4 by multiplying the number of eligible aggregate employment shares main-5 tained with respect to such premises in the twelfth succeeding calendar 6 year by the lesser of one and a fraction the numerator of which is the 7 number of days in the calendar year of relocation less the number of 8 days the eligible business maintained employment shares in the eligible 9 premises in the calendar year of relocation and the denominator of which 10 is the number of days in such twelfth succeeding year during which such 11 eligible aggregate employment shares are maintained with respect to such 12 premises. The credit allowable under this section shall be applied 13 against the amount of tax otherwise required to be paid for the last 14 taxable period of the calendar year as provided in subdivision a of 15 section 11-1105 of this chapter, shall be deducted from the taxpayer's 16 tax prior to the deduction of the credit provided in subdivision b of 17 such section, and shall be claimed on the tax return for the last taxa-
18 ble period of the calendar year. Except as provided in subdivision (c) 19 of this section, if the amount of the credit allowable under this subdivi-20 sion for any calendar year exceeds the tax imposed for such last taxa-21 ble period in such calendar year, the excess may be carried over, in 22 order, to the immediately succeeding taxable periods in the five imme-23 diately succeeding calendar years and, to the extent not previously 24 allowable, shall be applied against the tax otherwise required to be 25 paid for such periods. Such carryover credit shall be deducted from the 26 taxpayer's tax prior to the deduction of the credit provided in subdivi-27 sion b of section 11-1105 of this chapter. With respect to the last 28 taxable period in a calendar year, the credit for such calendar year 29 shall be taken prior to any carryover credit. If in any period there are 30 carryover credits available from more than one year, such credits shall 31 be applied against the tax in the order in which they were earned with 32 the oldest available credit being taken first.

33 (c) In the case of a taxpayer that has obtained a certification of 34 eligibility pursuant to chapter six-B of title twenty-two of the code of 35 the preceding municipality dated on or after July first, two thousand 36 for a relocation to eligible premises located within the revitalization 37 area defined in subdivision (n) of section 22-621 of the code of the 38 preceding municipality, the credits allowed under this section, or in 39 the case of a taxpayer that has relocated more than once, the portion of 40 such credits attributed to such certification of eligibility pursuant to 41 subdivision (a) of this section, against the tax imposed by this chapter 42 for the calendar year of such relocation and for the four calendar years 43 immediately succeeding the calendar year of such relocation, shall be 44 deemed to be erroneous payments of tax by the taxpayer to be credited or 45 refunded, in accordance with the provisions of section 11-1108 of this 46 chapter. For such calendar years, such credits or portions thereof may 47 not be carried over to any succeeding taxable year; provided, however, 48 that this subdivision shall not apply to any relocation for which an 49 application for a certification of eligibility was not submitted prior 50 to July first, two thousand three unless the date of such relocation is 51 on or after July first, two thousand.

52 § 11-1105.3 Lower Manhattan relocation employment assistance credit.
53 (a) A taxpayer that has obtained the certifications required by chapter 54 six-C of title twenty-two of the code of the preceding municipality 55 shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter, 56 provided, however, that a taxpayer that is a vendor of utility services

1 shall not be allowed the credit against the tax imposed by this chapter 2 unless it elects as provided in subdivision (d) of section 22-624 of the 3 code of the preceding municipality to take the credit against the tax 4 imposed by this chapter. The amount of the credit shall be the amount 5 determined by multiplying three thousand dollars by the number of eligi-
6 ble aggregate employment shares maintained by the taxpayer during the 7 calendar year with respect to eligible premises to which the taxpayer 8 has relocated; provided, however, that no credit shall be allowed for 9 the relocation of any retail activity or hotel services. For purposes of 10 this subdivision, the terms "eligible aggregate employment shares", 11 "eligible premises", "relocate", "retail activity" and "hotel services" 12 shall have the meanings ascribed by section 22-623 of the code of the 13 preceding municipality.

14 (b) The credit allowed under this section with respect to eligible
15 aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to eligible premises
16 to which the taxpayer has relocated shall be allowed for the taxable 17 period in which the relocation to eligible premises takes place and for 18 succeeding taxable periods in the calendar year of the relocation and in 19 any of the twelve succeeding calendar years during which eligible aggre-20 gate employment shares are maintained with respect to eligible premises, 21 provided that the credit allowed for the taxable periods in the twelfth 22 succeeding calendar year shall be calculated by multiplying the number 23 of eligible aggregate employment shares maintained with respect to 24 eligible premises in the twelfth succeeding calendar year by the lesser 25 of one and a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in 26 the calendar year of relocation less the number of days the taxpayer 27 maintained employment shares in eligible premises in the calendar year 28 of relocation and the denominator of which is the number of days in such 29 twelfth succeeding calendar year during which such eligible aggregate 30 employment shares are maintained with respect to such premises. The 31 credit allowable under this section shall be applied against the amount 32 of tax otherwise required to be paid for the last taxable period of the 33 calendar year as provided in subdivision a of section 11-1105 of this 34 chapter, shall be deducted from the taxpayer's tax prior to the 35 deduction of the credit provided in subdivision b of such section but 36 after the credit provided for in section 11-1105.2 of this chapter, and 37 shall be claimed on the tax return for the last taxable period of the 38 calendar year. Except as provided in subdivision (c) of this section, if 39 the amount of the credit allowable under this subdivision for any calen-40 dar year exceeds the tax imposed for such last taxable period in such 41 calendar year, the excess may be carried over, in order, to the imme-42 diately succeeding taxable periods in the five immediately succeeding 43 calendar years and, to the extent not previously allowable, shall be 44 applied against the tax otherwise required to be paid for such periods.
45 Such carryover credit shall be deducted from the taxpayer's tax prior to 46 the deduction of the credit provided in subdivision b of section 11-1105 47 of this chapter but after the credit provided for in section 11-1105.2
48 of this chapter. With respect to the last taxable period in a calendar 49 year, the credit for such calendar year shall be taken prior to any 50 carryover credit. If in any period there are carryover credits available 51 from more than one year, such credits shall be applied against the tax 52 in the order in which they were earned with the oldest available credit 53 being taken first.

54 (c) The credits allowed under this section, against the tax imposed by 55 this chapter for the calendar year of the relocation and for the four 56 taxable years immediately succeeding the calendar year of such relo-

1 cation, shall be deemed to be overpayments of tax by the taxpayer to be 2 credited or refunded, without interest, in accordance with the 3 provisions of section 11-1108 of this chapter. For such calendar years, 4 such credits or portions thereof may not be carried over to any succeed-
5 ing calendar year.

6 § 11-1106 Determination of tax. In case the return required by this 7 chapter shall be insufficient or unsatisfactory or if such return is not 8 filed, the commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of the tax 9 due from such information as is obtainable, and if necessary the tax may 10 be estimated upon the basis of external indices. Notice of such determi-11 nation shall be given to the person liable for the payment of the tax.
12 Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix such tax unless the 13 person against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after the giving 14 of notice of such determination or, if the commissioner of finance has 15 established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this 16 title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in 17 accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing of a concil-18 iation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the 19 discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a peti-20 tion upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a petition with the 21 tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless such commissioner of his 22 or her own motion shall redetermine the same. Such hearing and any 23 appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the decision 24 rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to 25 the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to 26 sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the
27 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-28 teen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing the tax appeals tribunal 29 shall give notice of its decision to the person against whom the tax is 30 assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A decision of the tax 31 appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable for error, illegal-
32 ity, unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding 33 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if 34 instituted by the person against whom the tax was assessed within four 35 months after the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal deci-36 sion. A proceeding under such article of such law and rules shall not be 37 instituted by a taxpayer unless (a) the amount of any tax sought to be 38 reviewed with penalties and interest thereon, if any, shall first be 39 deposited with the commissioner of finance and there shall be filed with 40 such commissioner an undertaking, issued by a surety company authorized 41 to transact business in this state and approved by the superintendent of 42 insurance of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in such 43 amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall 44 approve, to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax 45 confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue 46 in the prosecution of the proceeding, or (b) at the option of the 47 taxpayer such undertaking filed with the commissioner of finance may be 48 in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, penalties and interest thereon 49 stated in such decision, plus the costs and charges which may accrue 50 against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the 51 taxpayer shall not be required to deposit such taxes, penalties and 52 interest as a condition precedent to the application.

53 § 11-1107 Assessment of tax where change or correction of sales and 54 compensating use tax liability involved. a. If a taxpayer fails to 55 comply with subdivision d of section 11-1104 of this chapter in not 56 reporting a change or correction of its sales and compensating use tax

1 liability or in not filing a copy of an amended return or report relat-2 ing to its sales and compensating use tax liability, instead of the mode 3 and time of assessment provided for in section 11-1106 of this chapter, 4 the commissioner of finance may assess a deficiency based upon such 5 changed or corrected sales and compensating use tax liability, as same 6 relates to credits claimed under this chapter, by mailing to the taxpay-7 er a notice of additional tax due specifying the amount of the deficien-8 cy, and such deficiency, together with the interest and penalties stated 9 in such notice, shall be deemed assessed on the date such notice is 10 mailed unless within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a
11 report of the state change or correction or a copy of an amended return 12 or report, where such copy was required, is filed accompanied by a 13 statement showing wherein such state determination and such notice of 14 additional tax due are erroneous. Such notice shall not be considered as 15 a notice of determination for the purposes of section 11-1106 of this 16 chapter.

17 b. If a report filed pursuant to subdivision d of section 11-1104 of 18 this chapter concedes the accuracy of a state change or correction of 19 sales and compensating use tax liability, any deficiency in tax result-20 ing therefor shall be deemed assessed on the date of filing such report.

21 § 11-1108 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 22 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 23 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally 24 collected or paid, if application for such refund shall be made to the 25 commissioner of finance within three years from the time the return was 26 filed or two years from the time the tax was paid, whichever of such 27 periods expires later, or if no return was filed, within two years from 28 the time the tax was paid. If the claim is filed within the three-year 29 period, the amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion 30 of the tax paid within the three years immediately preceding the filing 31 of the claim plus the period of any extension of time for filing the 32 return. Whenever a refund or credit is made or denied by the commission-33 er of finance, he or she shall state his or her reason therefor and give 34 notice thereof to the taxpayer in writing. The commissioner of finance 35 may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on 36 payments due from the applicant.

37 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund
38 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 39 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-40 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 41 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-
42 ant to section 11-124 of this title and the applicant has requested a 43 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 44 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's
45 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 46 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 47 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for 48 a refund or credit, made as provided in this section, shall be deemed an 49 application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained
50 of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en 51 banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in 52 the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
53 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
54 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
55 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, 56 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the appli-

1 cant and to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled 2 to institute a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-3 tice law and rules to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal
4 sitting en banc if application to the supreme court be made therefor
5 within four months after the giving of notice of such decision, and 6 provided, in the case of an application by a taxpayer, a final determi-7 nation of tax due was not previously made.

8 c. If a taxpayer is required by subdivision d of section 11-1104 of 9 this chapter to file a report or amended return in respect of a change 10 or correction of its sales and compensating use tax liability, claim for 11 credit or refund of any resulting overpayment of tax shall be filed by 12 the taxpayer within one year from the time such report or amended return 13 was required to be filed with the commissioner of finance. This subdivi-14 sion shall not affect the time within which or the amount for which a 15 claim for credit or refund may be filed apart from this subdivision.

16 d. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
17 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-18 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-1106 or 11-1107 19 of this chapter where he or she has had a hearing or an opportunity for 20 a hearing, as provided in such sections, or has failed to avail himself 21 or herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall 22 be made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 23 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-1106 or 11-1107 of 24 this chapter unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, 25 illegal or unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals 26 tribunal after a hearing or of the commissioner of finance's own motion 27 or, if such tax appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the deter-
28 mination of the commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article 29 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules pursuant to the 30 provisions of said section, in which event refund or credit without 31 interest shall be made of the tax, interest or penalty found to have 32 been overpaid.

33 § 11-1109 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has applied for a
34 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 35 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 36 him or her on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall 37 set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

38 § 11-1110 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by this chapter
39 shall be the exclusive remedies available to any person for the review 40 of tax liability imposed by this chapter; and no determination or 41 proposed determination of tax or determination on any application for 42 refund by the commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax
43 appeals tribunal or any of its administrative law judges, shall be 44 enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 45 for money had and received or by any action or proceeding other than, in 46 the case of a decision by the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a 47 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 48 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by a declaratory
49 judgment if he or she institutes suit within thirty days after a defi-
50 ciency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency assess-51 ment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of such 52 suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-1106 of this
53 chapter.

54 § 11-1111 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 55 fail to pay any tax or penalty or interest imposed by this chapter as 56 provided in this section, the corporation counsel shall, upon the

1 request of the commissioner of finance, bring or cause to be brought an 2 action to enforce payment of the same against the person liable for the 3 same on behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court of the state of 4 New York or of any other state or of the United States. If, however, 5 such commissioner in his or her discretion believes that a taxpayer
6 subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease business, 7 leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which tax or 8 penalties might be satisfied and that any such tax or penalty will not 9 be paid when due, he or she may declare such tax or penalty to be im-10 mediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

11 b. As a further additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of 12 finance may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff, commanding 13 him or her to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of such 14 person which may be found within the city, for the payment of the amount 15 thereof, with any penalties and the cost of executing the warrant and to 16 return such warrant to such commissioner and to pay to him or her the 17 money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of 18 such warrant. The city sheriff shall, within five days after the 19 receipt of the warrant, file with the county clerk a copy thereof and 20 thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the 21 person mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax and penalties 22 for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed.
23 Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall have the full 24 force and effect of a judgment and shall become a lien upon the title to 25 and interest in real and personal property of the person against whom 26 the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the 27 warrant in the same manner and with like effect as that provided by law 28 in respect to executions against property upon judgments of a court of 29 record, and for services in executing the warrant he or she shall be 30 entitled to the same fees which he or she may collect in the same 31 manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of finance a warrant of 32 like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any officer
33 or employee of the department of finance and in the execution thereof 34 such officer or employee shall have all the power conferred by law upon 35 sheriffs, but he or she shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in 36 excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If 37 a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commissioner of finance
38 may from time to time issue new warrants and shall also have the same
39 remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the city had recov-40 ered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned unsatis-
41 fied.

42 c. Whenever there is made a sale, transfer or assignment in bulk of 43 any part or the whole of a stock of merchandising or of fixtures, or 44 merchandise and of fixtures pertaining to the conducting of the business
45 of the seller, transferor or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary 46 course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the 47 purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking 48 possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures,
49 or paying therefor, notify the commissioner of finance by registered 50 mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions there-51 of, whether or not the seller, transferor or assignor, has represented 52 to, or informed the purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any 53 tax pursuant to this chapter, whether or not the purchaser, transferee 54 or assignee has knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether or not 55 any such taxes are in fact owing.

1 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give the 2 notice to the commissioner of finance required by this subdivision, or 3 whenever such commissioner shall inform the purchaser, transferee or 4 assignee that a possible claim for such tax or taxes exists, any sums of 5 money, property or choses in action, or other consideration, which the 6 purchaser, transferee or assignee is required to transfer over to the 7 seller, transferor or assignor shall be subject to a first priority 8 right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined 9 to be due from the seller, transferor or assignor to the city, and the 10 purchaser, transferee or assignee is forbidden to transfer to the sell-11 er, transferor or assignor any such sums of money, property or choses in 12 action to the extent of the amount of the city's claim. For failure to 13 comply with the provisions of this subdivision the purchaser, transferee 14 or assignee, in addition to being subject to the liabilities and reme-15 dies imposed under the provisions of former article six of the uniform 16 commercial code shall be personally liable for the payment to the city 17 of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the 18 city from the seller, transferor or assignor and such liability may be 19 assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax is 20 imposed under this chapter.

21 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
22 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 23 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 24 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
25 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 26 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be
27 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
28 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 29 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

30 § 11-1112 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 31 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, he 32 or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

33 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 34 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof; and to prescribe 35 the form of blanks, reports and other records relating to the enforce-36 ment and administration of this chapter;

37 2. To prescribe methods for determining the amount of "gross income" 38 and "gross operating income" received by a person subject to tax pursu-39 ant to this chapter;

40 3. To request information from the tax commission of the state of New 41 York or treasury department of the United States relative to any person; 42 and to afford returns, reports and other information to such tax commis-43 sion or such treasury department relative to any person, any other 44 provision in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

45 4. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 46 period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 47 connection with the taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter;

48 5. To delegate his or her functions hereunder to a deputy commission-49 er of finance or other employee or employees of the department of 50 finance of the city;

51 6. To assess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes imposed under
52 this chapter.

53 § 11-1113 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 54 commissioner of finance, his or her employees duly designated and 55 authorized by him or her, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its duly 56 designated and authorized employees shall have power to administer oaths

1 and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceedings in the 2 exercise of their powers and duties under this chapter. Such commis-3 sioner and the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to subpoena and 4 require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers 5 and documents to secure information pertinent to the performance of the 6 duties of such commissioner or of the tax appeals tribunal hereunder and 7 of the enforcement of this chapter, and to examine them in relation 8 thereto, and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who 9 are out of the state or unable to attend before the commissioner or the 10 tax appeals tribunal or excused from attendance.

11 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 12 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 13 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 14 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 15 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

16 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
17 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 18 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4002 of this
19 title.

20 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 21 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal and witnesses attending in 22 response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 23 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as 24 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff, and 25 his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers or employees of the 26 department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to serve 27 such process.

28 § 11-1114 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 29 any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 30 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment, 31 interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner of finance 32 pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate is set, at 33 the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be paid for the 34 period from such last date to the date of payment. In computing the 35 amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be compounded daily.
36 Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof
37 is less than one dollar.

38 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
39 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 40 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 41 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 42 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 43 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 44 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 45 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 46 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

47 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
48 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
49 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
50 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
51 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 52 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 53 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

54 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 55 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 56 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the

1 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
2 upon the return.

3 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 4 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
5 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
6 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 7 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added 8 to the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 9 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 10 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-
11 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
12 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 13 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 14 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-15 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 16 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be 17 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
18 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

19 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 20 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 21 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
22 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-1106 of this chap-
23 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless 24 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 25 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in 26 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
27 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one 28 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 29 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
30 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 31 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 32 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

33 (4) Limitations on additions.

34 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-
35 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 36 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 37 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two of this subdivi-
38 sion. In any case described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of 39 this subdivision, the amount of the addition under such paragraph one 40 shall not be reduced below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

41 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition 42 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 43 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
44 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one
45 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
46 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

47 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment
48 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 49 any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there 50 shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the under-
51 payment.

52 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
53 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 54 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
55 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
56 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-

1 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the
2 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
3 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
4 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

5 (3) If any payment is shown on a return made by a payor with respect 6 to dividends, patronage dividends and interest under subsection (a) of 7 section six thousand forty-two, subsection (a) of section six thousand 8 forty-four or subsection (a) of section six thousand forty-nine of the 9 internal revenue code of nineteen hundred fifty-four, respectively, and 10 the payee fails to include any portion of such payment in gross income 11 or gross operating income, when required under this chapter to be so 12 included, any portion of an underpayment attributable to such failure 13 shall be treated, for purposes of this subdivision, as due to negligence
14 in the absence of clear and convincing evidence to the contrary. If any 15 penalty is imposed under this subdivision by reason of this paragraph, 16 the amount of the penalty imposed by paragraph one of this subdivision 17 shall be five percent of the portion of the underpayment which is 18 attributable to the failure described in this paragraph.

19 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 20 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 21 two times of the underpayment.

22 (2) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
23 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

24 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 25 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 26 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
27 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 28 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts
29 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 30 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 31 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 32 penalty under this subdivision.

33 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
34 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
35 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 36 tax imposed by this chapter.

37 (g) (1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance 38 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 39 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
40 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate
41 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 42 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 43 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 44 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 45 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 46 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
47 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

48 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
49 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 50 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

51 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

52 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal 53 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
54 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
55 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 56 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the

1 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest
2 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
3 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

4 (B) Period during which rate applies.

5 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
6 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
7 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 8 such month.

9 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
10 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 11 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 12 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

13 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 14 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
15 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
16 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
17 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 18 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-19 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the 20 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 21 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

22 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 23 to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been 24 filed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the 25 provisions of this chapter shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

26 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
27 title.

28 (i) Substantial understatement of liability. If there is a substantial 29 understatement of tax for any taxable period, there shall be added to 30 the tax an amount equal to ten percent of the amount of any underpayment
31 attributable to such understatement. For purposes of this subdivision, 32 there is a substantial understatement of tax for any taxable period if 33 the amount of the understatement for the taxable period exceeds the 34 greater of ten percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for 35 the taxable period or five thousand dollars. For purposes of this subdi-36 vision, the term "understatement" means the excess of the amount of the 37 tax required to be shown on the return for the taxable period, over the 38 amount of the tax imposed which is shown on the return, reduced by any 39 rebate. The amount of such understatement shall be reduced by that 40 portion of the understatement which is attributable to the tax treatment 41 of any item by the taxpayer if there is or was substantial authority for 42 such treatment, or any item with respect to which the relevant facts 43 affecting the item's tax treatment are adequately disclosed in the 44 return or in a statement attached to the return. The commissioner of 45 finance may waive all or any part of the addition to tax provided by 46 this subdivision on a showing by the taxpayer that there was reasonable 47 cause for the understatement, or part thereof, and that the taxpayer 48 acted in good faith.

49 (j) Aiding or assisting in the giving of fraudulent returns, reports, 50 statements or other documents. (1) Any person who, with the intent that 51 tax be evaded, shall, for a fee or other compensation or as an incident
52 to the performance of other services for which such person receives
53 compensation, aid or assist in, or procure, counsel, or advise the prep-
54 aration or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising 55 under this title of any return, report, statement or other document 56 which is fraudulent or false as to any material matter, or supply any

1 false or fraudulent information, whether or not such falsity or fraud is 2 with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to
3 present such return, report, statement or other document shall pay a
4 penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

5 (2) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, the term
6 "procures" includes ordering, or otherwise causing, a subordinate to do 7 an act, and knowing of, and not attempting to prevent, participation by 8 a subordinate in an act. The term "subordinate" means any other person, 9 whether or not a director, officer, employee, or agent of the taxpayer
10 involved, over whose activities the person has direction, supervision,
11 or control.

12 (3) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, a person
13 furnishing typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance with 14 respect to a document shall not be treated as having aided or assisted 15 in the preparation of such document by reason of such assistance.

16 (4) The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be in addition to 17 any other penalty provided by law.

18 (k) Failure to include on return information relating to issuer's
19 allocation percentage. Where a return is filed but does not contain (1) 20 the information necessary to compute the taxpayer's issuer's allocation
21 percentage, as defined in subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of subdivi-22 sion three of section 11-604 of this title, where the same is called for 23 on the return, or, (2) the taxpayer's issuer's allocation percentage, 24 where the same is called for on the return but where all of the informa-25 tion necessary for the computation of such percentage is not called for 26 on the return, then unless it is shown that such failure is due to 27 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect there shall be added to 28 the tax a penalty of five hundred dollars.

29 (1) False or fraudulent document penalty. Any taxpayer that submits a 30 false or fraudulent document to the department shall be subject to a 31 penalty of one hundred dollars per document submitted, or five hundred 32 dollars per tax return submitted. Such penalty shall be in addition to 33 any other penalty or addition provided by law.

34 § 11-1115 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized 35 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
36 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
37 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed 38 by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or in any 39 application made by him or her, or, if no return has been filed or 40 application made, then to such address as may be obtainable. The mail-41 ing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the 42 same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is 43 determined according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of 44 notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

45 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
46 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
47 shall not apply to any proceeding or action by the city taken to levy, 48 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or
49 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a
50 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no 51 assessment of additional tax imposed under a local law for the preceding 52 municipality enacted subsequent to July first, nineteen hundred thirty-53 eight, shall be made after the expiration of more than three years from 54 the date of the filing of a return, provided, however, that where no 55 return has been filed, or where the taxpayer fails to file a report or 56 return in respect of a change or correction in the amount of sales and

1 compensating use tax liability as provided by law, the tax may be 2 assessed at any time. Where the taxpayer files a report or return in 3 respect of a change or correction in sales and compensating use tax 4 liability, as required by subdivision d of section 11-1104 of this chap-5 ter, an assessment may be made at any time within two years after such 6 report or return was filed, provided, however, that this sentence shall 7 not affect the time within which an assessment may otherwise be made.

8 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for 9 the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented in writing 10 that such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax due may 11 be determined at any time within such extended period. The period so 12 extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made 13 before the expiration of the extended period.

14 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other 15 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
16 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
17 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
18 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 19 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 20 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such 21 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
22 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 23 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 24 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 25 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-26 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 27 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the
28 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
29 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 30 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any
31 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 32 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
33 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
34 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
35 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance or,
36 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal is authorized to provide by 37 regulation the extent to which the provisions such with respect to prima 38 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall apply to certi-
39 fied mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this 40 subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United 41 States postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation 42 of the commissioner of finance or where relevant, the tax appeals tribu-43 nal.

44 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
45 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
46 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 47 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
48 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

49 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
50 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
51 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
52 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
53 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 54 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
55 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
56 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery

1 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
2 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
3 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
4 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 5 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 6 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 7 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 8 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 9 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
10 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery 11 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 12 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 13 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 14 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 15 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 16 finance; provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 17 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 18 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 19 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 20 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

21 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 22 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 23 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 24 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 25 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
26 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 27 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 28 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
29 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
30 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 31 title. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any withdrawal of designation or 32 additional designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be 33 effective for purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless 34 and until such withdrawal of designation or additional designation is 35 ratified by the president of the tax appeals tribunal.

36 § 11-1116 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 37 judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for 38 the commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, or any officer or 39 employee of the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal to 40 divulge or make known in any manner, the receipts or any other informa-41 tion relating to the business of a taxpayer contained in any return 42 required under this chapter. The officers charged with the custody of 43 such returns shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of 44 anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, 45 except on behalf of the city or the commissioner of finance, or on 46 behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of 47 this chapter when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly 48 involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which events, the 49 court may require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much 50 of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the 51 action or proceeding and no more. Nothing in this subdivision shall be 52 construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his or her duly 53 authorized representative of a certified copy of any return filed in 54 connection with his or her tax, nor to prohibit the publication of 55 statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular 56 returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation

1 counsel of the city or other legal representatives of such city of the 2 return of any taxpayer who shall bring action or proceeding to set aside 3 or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding 4 has been instituted or is contemplated for the collection of a tax, 5 penalty or interest. Returns shall be preserved for three years and 6 thereafter until the commissioner of finance permits them to be 7 destroyed.

8 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 9 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 10 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
11 period of five years thereafter.

12 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
13 title.

14 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
15 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
16 cers law.

17 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 18 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 19 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the 20 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
21 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
22 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
23 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be 24 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax
25 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 26 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
27 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
28 teen hundred ninety-four.

29 § 11-1117 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 30 construed and enforced in conformity with chapter ninety-three of the 31 laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, as amended, pursuant to which it is 32 enacted.

33 § 11-1118 Disposition of revenues. All revenues resulting from the 34 imposition of the tax under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury 35 of the city and shall be credited to and deposited in the general fund
36 of the city, but no part of such revenues may be expended unless appro-
37 priated in the annual budget of the city.

38 § 11-1119 Determinations of place of primary use of wireless telecom-39 munications services. a. A home service provider shall be responsible 40 for obtaining and maintaining the customer's place of primary use as 41 defined in subdivision twenty of section 11-1101 of this chapter. Except 42 as provided in subdivision b of this section, if the home service 43 provider's reliance on the information provided by its customer is in 44 good faith: (1) the home service provider can rely on the applicable 45 residential or business street address supplied by the home service 46 provider's customer; and (2) the home service provider shall not be held 47 liable for any additional taxes under this chapter based on a different 48 determination of the place of primary use.

49 b. The commissioner of finance, or the commissioner of taxation and 50 finance of the state of New York on behalf of the commissioner of 51 finance, may determine that the address used by a home service provider 52 for purposes of this chapter does not meet the definition of place of 53 primary use as defined in subdivision twenty of section 11-1101 of this 54 chapter and may give binding notice to the home service provider to 55 change the place of primary use on a prospective basis from the date of 56 notice of determination if:

1 (1) where the determination is made by the commissioner of finance, 2 such commissioner obtains the consent of all affected taxing jurisdic-3 tions within this state before giving such notice of determination; and 4 (2) before the commissioner of finance or the commissioner of taxation

5 and finance of the state of New York gives such notice of determination, 6 the customer is given an opportunity to demonstrate, in accordance with 7 applicable procedures established by the commissioner of finance making 8 the determination, that that address is the customer's place of primary 9 use.

10 c. Except as provided in subdivision b of this section, a home service 11 provider may treat the address used by the home service provider for 12 purposes of this chapter for the last taxable period beginning before 13 August first, two thousand two, for any customer under a service 14 contract or agreement in effect on July twenty-eighth, two thousand two 15 as that customer's place of primary use for the remaining term of such 16 service contract or agreement, excluding any extension or renewal of 17 such service contract or agreement.

18 § 11-1120 Assignment of place of primary use of telecommunications 19 services to the city. a. If an electronic database meeting the require-20 ments of subsection a of section one hundred nineteen of title four of 21 the United States Code is provided by the state of New York, or by a 22 designated database provider as defined in subsection three of section 23 one hundred twenty-four of such title, and the requirements of 24 subsection b of such section one hundred nineteen are met, a home 25 service provider shall use that database to determine whether the 26 customer's place of primary use is within the territorial limits of the 27 city and shall reflect changes to such database in accordance with 28 subsection c of such section one hundred nineteen.

29 b. A home service provider using the data contained in an electronic 30 database described in subdivision a of this section shall be held harm-31 less from any tax liability that otherwise would be due under this chap-32 ter solely as a result of any error or omission in such database 33 provided the home service provider has properly reflected changes to 34 such database in accordance with subsection c of section one hundred 35 nineteen of title four of the United States Code.

36 c. (1) If no electronic database is provided as described in subdivi-37 sion a of this section, a home service provider shall be held harmless 38 from any tax liability under this chapter that otherwise would be due 39 solely as a result of an assignment of a street address to an incorrect 40 taxing jurisdiction if, subject to subdivision d of this section, the 41 home service provider employs an enhanced zip code to assign each street 42 address to a specific taxing jurisdiction for each level of taxing 43 jurisdiction and exercises due diligence at each level of taxing juris-44 diction to ensure that each such street address is assigned to the 45 correct taxing jurisdiction. If an enhanced zip code overlaps boundaries 46 of taxing jurisdictions of the same level, the home service provider 47 must designate one specific jurisdiction within such enhanced zip code 48 for use in taxing the activity for such enhanced zip code for each level 49 of taxing jurisdiction. Any enhanced zip code assignment changed in 50 accordance with subdivision d of this section is deemed to be in compli-51 ance with this subdivision. For purposes of this subdivision, there is a 52 rebuttable presumption that a home service provider has exercised due 53 diligence if such home service provider demonstrates that it has: (i) 54 expended reasonable resources to implement and maintain an appropriately 55 detailed electronic database of street address assignments to taxing 56 jurisdictions; (ii) implemented and maintained reasonable internal

1 controls to promptly correct misassignments of street addresses to 2 taxing jurisdictions; and (iii) used all reasonably obtainable and 3 usable data pertaining to municipal annexations, incorporations, reor-4 ganizations and any other changes in jurisdictional boundaries that 5 materially affect the accuracy of such database.

6 (2) Paragraph one of this subdivision applies to a home service 7 provider that is in compliance with the requirements of such paragraph 8 until the later of: (i) eighteen months after the nationwide standard 9 numeric code described in subsection (a) of section one hundred nineteen 10 of title four of the United States Code has been approved by the feder-11 ation of tax administrators and the multistate tax commission; or (ii)
12 six months after the state of New York or a designated database provider 13 provides a database as prescribed in subdivision a of this section.

14 d. The commissioner of finance, or the commissioner of taxation and 15 finance of the state of New York on behalf of the commissioner of 16 finance, may determine that the assignment of a street address to a 17 taxing jurisdiction by a home service provider under subdivision c of 18 this section does not reflect the correct taxing jurisdiction and give 19 binding notice to the home service provider to change the assignment on 20 a prospective basis from the date of notice of determination if: (1) 21 where the determination is made by the commissioner of finance, such 22 commissioner obtains the consent of all affected taxing jurisdictions 23 within this state before giving such notice of determination; and (2) 24 the home service provider is given an opportunity to demonstrate in 25 accordance with applicable procedures established by the commissioner of 26 finance making the determination that the assignment reflects the 27 correct taxing jurisdiction.

52 7. "Tax appeals tribunal." The tax appeals tribunal established by 53 section one hundred sixty-eight of the charter of the preceding munici-

1 § 11-1202 Imposition of tax. A tax is hereby imposed on all admis-
2 sions to running horse race meetings conducted at race meeting grounds 3 or enclosures located wholly or partly within the city of Staten Island 4 at the rate of three percent of the admission price. The racing associ-5 ation or corporation conducting a running horse race meeting shall, in 6 addition to the admission price, collect such tax on all tickets sold or 7 otherwise disposed of to patrons for admission with the sole exception 8 of those issued free passes, cards or badges in accordance with the 9 specific authority of the laws of the state of New York. In case of 10 failure to collect such tax the tax shall be imposed on the racing 11 corporation or association conducting such meeting.

12 § 11-1203 Payment of the tax. a. The tax imposed by this chapter 13 shall be paid by the racing corporation or association to the commis-14 sioner of finance daily after each day of each race meeting, by deposit-15 ing it to the account of the city in such bank or banks as may be desig-16 nated by the city in accordance with the provisions of section four 17 hundred twenty-one of the charter of the preceding municipality as it 18 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four or at such regular 19 intervals as the commissioner of finance may require.

20 b. The amount of the tax paid on admissions pursuant to this chapter 21 shall be the property of the city of Staten Island and shall be held by 22 the racing corporation or association as trustee for and on account of 23 the city of Staten Island and the racing corporation or association 24 shall be liable for the tax. Officers of the racing corporation or 25 association shall be personally liable for the tax collected or required 26 to be collected hereunder.

27 c. Every racing corporation or association conducting running horse 28 race meetings at race meeting grounds or enclosures located wholly or 29 partly within the city of Staten Island shall, on or before April first, 30 nineteen hundred fifty-two and annually thereafter, before the opening 31 of any race meeting in each year, execute and file with the commissioner 32 of finance a bond issued by a surety company authorized to transact
33 business in this state and approved by the superintendent of insurance 34 of this state as to solvency and responsibility in an amount sufficient 35 to secure the payment of the taxes and/or penalties and interest due or 36 which may become due pursuant to this section, to be fixed by the 37 commissioner of finance.

38 § 11-1204 Returns. a. Every racing corporation or association 39 shall file with the commissioner of finance daily after each day of each 40 race meeting or at such regular intervals as the commissioner of finance 41 may require and upon such forms as shall be prescribed by the commis-42 sioner of finance a return showing the taxes collected pursuant to this 43 chapter and the number of persons admitted to meetings conducted by the 44 racing corporation or association during the periods covered by the 45 return, together with any and all other information which the commis-46 sioner of finance shall require to be included and reported in such 47 return. The commissioner of finance may require at any time supple-48 mental or amended returns of such additional information or data as he 49 or she may specify.

50 b. Every return required pursuant to this section shall have annexed 51 thereto an affidavit of an officer of the racing corporation or associ-52 ation to the effect that the statements contained therein are true.

53 § 11-1205 Records to be kept and audits by commissioner of finance.
54 Every racing corporation or association shall keep such records as may 55 be prescribed by the commissioner of finance, of all admissions and 56 taxes collected pursuant to this chapter. Such records shall be avail-

1 able for inspection and examination at any time upon demand by the 2 commissioner of finance or the commissioner's duly authorized agents or 3 employees, and such records shall be preserved for a period of three 4 years, except that the commissioner of finance may consent to their 5 destruction within that period, and may require that they be kept longer 6 than three years.

7 § 11-1206 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter 8 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient the 9 amount of tax due shall be determined by the commissioner of finance 10 from such information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, the tax 11 may be estimated on the basis of external indices, such as number of 12 race meetings held, admissions, paid attendance, and/or other factors.
13 Notice of such determination shall be given to the person liable for the 14 collection and/or payment of the tax. Such determination shall finally 15 and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is 16 assessed, within ninety days after giving the notice of such determi-17 nation, or, if the commissioner of finance has established a concil-18 iation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this title and the 19 taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-20 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 21 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 22 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commis-23 sioner of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 24 a hearing, or unless the commissioner of finance of his or her own 25 motion shall redetermine the same. Such hearing and any appeal to the 26 tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in such 27 hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the requirements 28 prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred 29 sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter of the 30 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 31 ninety-four. After such hearing the tax appeals tribunal shall give 32 notice of its decision to the person liable for the tax and to the 33 commissioner of finance. A decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting 34 en banc shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitutionality 35 or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article seventy-36 eight of the civil practice law and rules if application therefor is 37 made to the supreme court by the person against whom the tax was 38 assessed within four months after the giving of the notice of such tax 39 appeals tribunal decision. A proceeding under article seventy-eight of 40 the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted by a person 41 liable for the tax unless the amount of any tax sought to be reviewed 42 with interest and penalties thereon, if any, shall be first deposited 43 with the commissioner of finance and there shall be filed with the 44 commissioner of finance an undertaking, issued by a surety company 45 authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the super-46 intendent of insurance of this state as to solvency and responsibility, 47 in such amount as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the 48 effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, such 49 person will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prose-50 cution of the proceeding, or at the option of such person such undertak-51 ing filed with the commissioner of finance may be in a sum sufficient to 52 cover the taxes, penalties and interest thereon stated in such decision 53 plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prose-54 cution of the proceeding, in which event such person shall not be 55 required to deposit such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition
56 precedent to the application.

1 § 11-1207 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the
2 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any
3 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally, or unconstitutionally 4 collected or paid if application to the commissioner of finance for such 5 refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever 6 a refund or credit is made or denied by the commissioner of finance, he 7 or she shall state his or her reason therefor and give notice thereof to 8 the applicant in writing. The commissioner of finance may, in lieu of 9 any refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on payments due 10 from the applicant.

11 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund 12 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 13 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-14 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 15 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure, pursu-
16 ant to section 11-124 of this title and the applicant has requested a 17 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days of 18 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's
19 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 20 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 21 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for 22 a refund or credit, made as provided under this section, shall be deemed 23 an application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained
24 of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en 25 banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in 26 the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals 27 tribunal pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred 28 seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed 29 January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax 30 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the applicant and 31 to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled to 32 institute a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 33 practice law and rules to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal 34 sitting en banc, provided such proceeding is instituted within four 35 months after the giving of the notice of such decision, and provided, in 36 the case of an application by a person liable for the tax, that a final 37 determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a proceeding 38 shall not be instituted by a person liable for the tax unless an under-39 taking is filed with the commissioner of finance in such amount and with 40 such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the 41 effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, such 42 person will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prose-
43 cution of such proceeding.

44 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
45 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which has been deter-
46 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-1206 of this 47 chapter where such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 48 hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 49 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 50 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 51 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-1206 of this chapter 52 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 53 unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal
54 after a hearing or of the commissioner's own motion, or, if such tax 55 appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the determination of the 56 commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-eight of

1 the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of said
2 section, in which event refund or credit without interest shall be made
3 of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

4 § 11-1208 Reserves. In cases where a person has applied for a
5 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 6 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 7 such person on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall 8 set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

9 § 11-1209 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
10 11-1206 and 11-1207 of this chapter shall be exclusive remedies avail-
11 able to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this chap-
12 ter, and no determination or proposed determination of tax or determi-13 nation on any application for refund by the commissioner of finance, nor 14 any decision by the tax appeals tribunal or any of its administrative 15 law judges, shall be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory 16 judgment, an action for money had and received or by any action or 17 proceeding other than, in the case of a decision by the tax appeals 18 tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding in the nature of a certiorari
19 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 20 rules; provided, however, that such person may proceed by declaratory 21 judgment if such person institutes suit within ninety days after a defi-22 ciency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency assess-23 ment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of such 24 suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-1206 of this
25 chapter.

26 § 11-1210 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any racing 27 corporation or association or any of its officers or any other person 28 shall fail to collect and pay over any tax or to pay any tax, penalty or 29 interest imposed by this chapter as therein provided, the corporation 30 counsel shall, upon the request of the commissioner of finance bring or 31 cause to be brought an action to enforce the payment of the same on 32 behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court of the state of New 33 York or of any other state or of the United States. If, however, the 34 commissioner of finance in his or her discretion believes that a person 35 subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease business,
36 leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which the tax 37 or penalties might be satisfied, and that any such tax or penalty will 38 not be paid when due, the commissioner of finance may declare such tax 39 or penalty to be immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant 40 immediately.

41 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance 42 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the sheriff 43 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the racing 44 corporation or association or its officers or any other person which may 45 be found within the city, for the payment of the amount thereof, with 46 any penalties and interest, and the cost of executing the warrant, and 47 to return such warrant to the commissioner of finance and to pay to the 48 commissioner of finance the money collected by virtue thereof within 49 sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The city sheriff shall 50 within five days after the receipt of the warrant file with the county
51 clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judg-52 ment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant and the 53 amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the warrant is 54 issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon the amount of 55 such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and 56 interest in real and personal property of the person against whom the

1 warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant 2 in the same manner, and with like effect, as that provided by law in 3 respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court 4 of record and for services in executing the warrants the city sheriff 5 shall be entitled to the same fees, which the city sheriff may collect 6 in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of finance a 7 warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to 8 any officer or employee of the department of finance, and in the 9 execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
10 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 11 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 12 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-
13 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 14 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 15 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 16 returned unsatisfied.

17 c. Whenever a corporation or association shall make a sale, transfer 18 or assignment in bulk or any part or the whole of its race meeting 19 grounds or enclosures and the building and structures thereon, or its 20 lease, license or other agreement or right to possess or operate such 21 race meeting grounds or enclosures or of the equipment, machinery, 22 fixtures or supplies, or of the said race meeting grounds or enclosures 23 and the building and structures thereon, or lease, license or other 24 agreement or right to possess or operate such race meeting grounds or 25 enclosures, and the equipment, machinery, fixtures or supplies pertain-26 ing to the conduct or the operation of the said race meeting grounds or 27 enclosures, otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade and in the 28 regular prosecution of said business, the purchaser, transferee or 29 assignee shall at least ten days before taking possession of such race 30 meeting grounds or enclosures and the building and structures thereon, 31 or lease, license or other agreement or right to possess or operate such 32 race meeting grounds or enclosures or the equipment, machinery, fixtures 33 or supplies, or of the said race meeting grounds or enclosures and the 34 building and structures thereon, or lease, license or other agreement or 35 right to possess or operate such race meeting grounds or enclosures, and 36 the equipment, machinery, fixtures or supplies or paying thereof, notify 37 the commissioner of finance by registered mail of the proposed sale and 38 of the price, terms and conditions thereof whether or not the seller, 39 transferor or assignor, has represented to, or informed the purchaser, 40 transferee or assignee that it owes any tax pursuant to this chapter and 41 whether or not the purchaser, transferee or assignee has knowledge that 42 such taxes are owing, and whether any such taxes are in fact owing.

43 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 44 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by the opening para-45 graph of this subdivision, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall 46 inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for 47 such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property or choses in 48 action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or 49 assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor or 50 assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 51 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-
52 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 53 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor
54 any such sums of money, property or choses in action to the extent of 55 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 56 provisions of this subdivision, the purchaser, transferee or assignee,

1 in addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed
2 under the provisions of former article six of the uniform commercial 3 code, shall be personally liable for the payment to the city of any such 4 taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city from 5 the seller, transferor or assignor, and such liability may be assessed 6 and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this
7 chapter.

8 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
9 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as
10 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 11 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
12 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 13 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 14 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
15 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 16 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

17 § 11-1211 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 18 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, 19 such commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered:

20 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 21 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

22 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 23 period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 24 connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

25 3. To request information from the racing commission and the tax 26 commission of the state of New York, or any other state or the treasury 27 department of the United States relative to any person; and to afford 28 information to such commission or such treasury department relative to 29 any person, any other provision of this chapter to the contrary notwith-30 standing;

31 4. To delegate his or her functions under this section to a deputy 32 commissioner of finance or any employee or employees of the department
33 of finance;

34 5. To prescribe methods for determining the amount of the admissions 35 and for determining the tax;

36 6. To require racing corporations or associations to keep detailed 37 records of all race meetings and all attendance thereat, and to furnish 38 such information upon request to the commissioner of finance;

39 7. To require that the amount of the tax be printed, separate from 40 the price of admission, on tickets of admission.

41 § 11-1212 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 42 commissioner of finance, his or her employees or agents duly designated 43 and authorized by the commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal 44 and any of its duly designated and authorized employees or agents shall 45 have power to administer oaths and take affidavits in relation to any 46 matter or proceeding in the exercise of their powers and duties under 47 this chapter. The commissioner of finance and the tax appeals tribunal 48 shall have power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and 49 the production of books, papers and documents to secure information 50 pertinent to the performance of the duties of the commissioner or of the 51 tax appeals tribunal under this section and of the enforcement of this 52 chapter and to examine them in relation thereto, and to issue commis-53 sions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or 54 unable to attend before the commissioner of finance or the tax appeals 55 tribunal or excused from attendance.

1 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 2 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and
3 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books,
4 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 5 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

6 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
7 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 8 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
9 title.

10 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 11 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal and witnesses attending in 12 response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 13 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as 14 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff and 15 his or her duly appointed deputies, or any officers or employees of the 16 department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to serve 17 such process.

18 § 11-1213 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 19 any amount of tax is not paid over or paid on or before the last date 20 prescribed for payment, without regard to any extension of time granted 21 for payment, interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner 22 of finance pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate 23 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be 24 paid for the period from such last date to the date of payment. In 25 computing the amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be 26 compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if 27 the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

28 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
29 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 30 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 31 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect,
32 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 33 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 34 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 35 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 36 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

37 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
38 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
39 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
40 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
41 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 42 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 43 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

44 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 45 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 46 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 47 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed 48 upon the return.

49 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 50 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
51 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
52 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 53 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 54 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 55 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 56 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-

tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the beginning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return, this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

(3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown, including a determination made pursuant to section 11-1206 of this chapter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

(4) Limitations on additions. (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two. In any case described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

(B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision, determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one, which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

(c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the underpayment.

(2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount determined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such paragraph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disregard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

(d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to fifty percent of the underpayment.

(2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty determined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-

1 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on
2 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
3 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 4 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 5 tax.

6 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
7 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

8 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 9 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 10 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
11 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 12 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts 13 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 14 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 15 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 16 penalty under this subdivision.

17 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
18 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
19 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 20 tax imposed by this chapter.

21 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance
22 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 23 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
24 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate 25 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 26 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 27 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 28 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 29 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 30 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
31 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

32 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
33 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 34 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

35 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

36 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
37 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
38 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
39 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 40 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 41 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 42 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
43 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

44 (B) Period during which rate applies.

45 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
46 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
47 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 48 such month.

49 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
50 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 51 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 52 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

53 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 54 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
55 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
56 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter

1 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 2 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdivi-
3 sion five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the
4 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred
5 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

6 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) Officers of a racing corporation or association 7 shall be personally liable for the tax collected or required to be 8 collected under this chapter, and subject to the penalties imposed by 9 this section.

10 (2) The certificate of the commissioner of finance to the effect that 11 a tax has not been paid, that a return or bond has not been filed, or 12 that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of 13 this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

14 (3) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
15 title.

16 § 11-1214 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 17 judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful 18 for the commissioner of finance or the tax appeals tribunal or any offi-19 cer or employee of the department of finance to divulge or make known in 20 any manner any of the information relating to the business of any person 21 contained in any return required under this chapter. The officers 22 charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to 23 produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any 24 action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner 25 of finance in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chap-26 ter, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the 27 provisions of this chapter, when the returns or facts shown thereby are 28 directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which 29 events the courts may require the production of, and may admit in 30 evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are 31 pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. The commissioner of 32 finance may, nevertheless, publish a copy or a summary of any determi-33 nation or decision rendered after a formal hearing held pursuant to 34 section 11-1206 or 11-1207 of this chapter. Nothing in this section 35 shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a person or such person's 36 duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return filed 37 by such person nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so classi-38 fied as to prevent the identification of particular returns and the 39 items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel or other 40 legal representatives of the city, or by the district attorney of Rich-41 mond county, of the return of any person who shall bring action to set 42 aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or 43 proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty.
44 Returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until the 45 commissioner of finance permits them to be destroyed.

46 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 47 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 48 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
49 period of five years thereafter.

50 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
51 title.

52 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
53 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
54 cers law.

55 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 56 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for

1 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
2 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
3 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
4 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
5 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be
6 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax
7 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 8 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
9 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
10 teen hundred ninety-four.

11 § 11-1215 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice author-12 ized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by 13 mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid 14 envelope addressed to such person at the address given in the last 15 return filed by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter 16 or in any application made by such person or if no return has been filed 17 or application made, then to such address as may be obtainable. The 18 mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of 19 the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is 20 determined according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of 21 notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

22 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other 23 law relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil reme-24 dy shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to 25 levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax
26 or penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a
27 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no
28 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more 29 than three years from the date of the filing of a return, provided, that 30 where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax may be 31 assessed at any time.

32 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed under this 33 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a person has consented 34 in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such additional 35 tax due may be determined at any time within such extended period. The 36 period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in 37 writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

38 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other
39 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
40 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
41 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
42 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 43 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 44 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such 45 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
46 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 47 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 48 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 49 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-50 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 51 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the 52 commissioner of finance, bureau, office, officer or person with which or 53 with whom the document is required to be filed or to which or to whom 54 such payment is required to be made. If any document is sent by United 55 States registered mail, such registration shall be prima facie evidence 56 that such document was delivered to the commissioner of finance, the tax

1 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person to which or to whom 2 addressed, and the date of registration shall be deemed the postmark
3 date. The commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals 4 tribunal is authorized to provide by regulation the extent to which the 5 provisions of the preceding sentence with respect to prima facie
6 evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall apply to certified
7 mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this subdivi-
8 sion shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United States 9 postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation of the 10 commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal.

11 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
12 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
13 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 14 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
15 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

16 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
17 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
18 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
19 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
20 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 21 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
22 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
23 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
24 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
25 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
26 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
27 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 28 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 29 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 30 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 31 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 32 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
33 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
34 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 35 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 36 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 37 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 38 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 39 finance. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, any with-40 drawal of designation or additional designation by the commissioner of 41 finance shall not be effective for purposes of service upon the tax 42 appeals tribunal, unless and until such withdrawal of designation or 43 additional designation is ratified by the president of the tax appeals 44 tribunal.

45 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 46 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 47 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 48 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred
49 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
50 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 51 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 52 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
53 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
54 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 55 title. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any withdrawal of designation or 56 additional designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be

1 effective for purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless 2 and until such withdrawal of designation or additional designation is 3 ratified by the president of the tax appeals tribunal.

4 § 11-1216 Disposition of revenues. All revenues resulting from the 5 imposition of the tax under this chapter at race meeting grounds or 6 enclosures located wholly within the city of Staten Island shall be 7 credited and deposited in the general fund of the city.

47 university or hospital, and is not offered for sale or sold to consumers 48 for any purpose.
- 49 § 11-1302 Imposition of tax. a. There is hereby imposed and shall 50 be paid a tax on:

52 in this section;
- 53 2. The use of all cigarettes in the city except as provided in this
54 section;
- 55 3. It is intended that the ultimate incidence of and liability for the 56 tax shall be upon the consumer, and that any agent, distributor or deal-

1 er who shall pay the tax to the commissioner of finance shall collect 2 the tax from the purchaser or consumer. Such tax shall be at the rate of 3 four cents for each ten cigarettes or fraction thereof, provided, howev-

10 cigarettes contains more than twenty cigarettes, the rate of tax on the 11 cigarettes in such package in excess of twenty shall be thirty-eight 12 cents for each five cigarettes or fraction thereof. Such tax shall be 13 imposed only once on the same package of cigarettes.

14 b. The tax imposed by this section shall not apply to:

21 tive agency of the United States;

22 4. Cigarettes possessed in the city by any agent or wholesale dealer 23 for sale to a dealer outside the city or for sale and shipment to any 24 person in another state for use there, provided such agent or wholesale 25 dealer complies with the regulations relating thereto.

26 c. The tax imposed under this section shall be in addition to any and 27 all other taxes.

28 d. It shall be presumed that all sales or uses mentioned in this 29 section are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the 30 burden of proof that a sale or use is not taxable under this section 31 shall be upon the vendor or the purchaser.

32 e. Except as provided in this section, the tax shall be advanced and 33 paid by the agent or distributor. The agent shall be liable for the 34 collection and payment of the tax to the commissioner of finance by 35 purchasing from the commissioner of finance adhesive stamps of such 44 finance may prescribe, together with a remittance of the tax shown to be 45 due thereon.

46 g. Agents located within or without the city shall purchase stamps 47 and affix them in the manner prescribed to packages of cigarettes to be 48 sold within the city.

49 h. The amount of taxes advanced and paid by the agent or distributor 50 as provided in this section shall be added to and collected as part of 51 the sales price of the cigarettes.

52 i. The commissioner of finance, notwithstanding any other provision 53 of this chapter, may, subject to the approval of the state commissioner 54 of taxation and finance, provide by regulation that the tax imposed by 55 this section shall be collected without the use of stamps.

1 § 11-1302.1. Imposition of tax on tobacco products. a. In accordance 2 with section one hundred ten of the public housing law, an excise tax on 3 the sale of tobacco products is hereby imposed and shall be paid on all 4 tobacco products possessed in the city for sale, except as provided 5 under this section. It is intended that the ultimate incidence of and 6 liability for the tax shall be upon the consumer. Any dealer or distrib-7 utor who pays the tax to the commissioner of finance shall collect the 8 tax from the purchaser or consumer. Such tax shall be at the rate of ten 9 percent of the price floor for a package of the specified category of 10 tobacco product, exclusive of sales tax, set forth in the following 11 table, which shall be consistent with the price floors described in 12 subdivision d of section 17-176.1 of the code of the preceding munici-
 13 pality:

29 Snus	30 $8.00 per 0.32 oz. pack- 31 age plus $2.00 for each 32 additional 0.08 oz. or 33 any fraction thereof in excess of 0.32 oz.	$0.80 per 0.32 oz. plus an additional $0.20 for each 0.08 oz. or any fraction thereof in excess of 0.32 oz.
34 Shisha	35 $17.00 per 3.5 oz. pack- 36 age plus $3.40 for each 37 additional 0.7 oz. or 38 any fraction thereof in excess of 3.5 oz.	$1.70 per 3.5 oz. plus an additional $0.34 for each 0.7 oz. or any fraction thereof in excess of 3.5 oz.
39 Loose tobacco	40 $2.55 per 1.5 oz. pack- 41 age plus $0.51 for each 42 additional 0.3 oz. or 43 any fraction thereof in excess of 1.5 oz.	$0.25 per 1.5 oz. pack- age plus an additional $0.05 for each 0.3 oz. or any fraction thereof in excess of 1.5 oz.

44 b. The tax imposed hereunder shall not apply to:

45 1. The state of New York, or any public corporation, including a 46 public corporation created pursuant to agreement or compact with another 47 state or the Dominion of Canada, improvement district or other political 48 subdivision of the state where it is the purchaser, user or consumer;

1 2. The United States of America, in so far as it is immune from taxa-
2 tion;

3 3. The United Nations or other world-wide international organizations
4 of which the United States of America is a member;

5 4. Any corporation, or association, or trust, or community chest, fund 6 or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, chari-7 table, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to 8 children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the 9 benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial 10 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 11 attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in 12 this paragraph shall include an organization operated for the primary 13 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 14 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 15 this paragraph; and

16 5. Tobacco products possessed in the city by any dealer for sale 17 outside the city or for sale and shipment to any person in another state 18 for use there, provided such dealer complies with the regulations relat-19 ing thereto.

20 c. Nothing in subdivision b of this section shall exempt sales by any 21 shop or store operated by any college, university or other public or 22 private institution for higher education from the taxes described in 23 this section.

24 d. The tax imposed under this section shall be in addition to any and 25 all other taxes.

26 e. It shall be presumed that all sales mentioned in this section are 27 subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the burden of 28 proof that a sale is not taxable under this section shall be upon the 29 dealer or the purchaser.

30 f. 1. Except as provided in this subdivision, the tax shall be 31 advanced and paid by the wholesale dealer. The wholesale dealer shall be 32 liable for the collection and payment of the tax to the commissioner of 33 finance as required under subdivision g of this section. The commis-34 sioner may require the wholesale dealer to keep tobacco products for which 35 the tax has not yet been paid separately from tobacco products for which 36 the tax has been paid. For purposes of this chapter, retention by the 37 wholesale dealer of any tobacco products beyond the time prescribed for 38 payment under this section, without having made the requisite payment, 39 or storing any such products in violation of any separation requirements 40 prescribed by the commissioner, shall be presumptive evidence that such 41 tobacco products are possessed in violation of the provisions of this 42 chapter.

43 2. Every retail dealer shall be liable for the tax on all tobacco 44 products in his or her possession at any time, upon which tax has not 45 been paid, and the failure of any retail dealer to produce and exhibit 46 to the commissioner of finance or such commissioner's duly authorized 47 representatives upon demand, an invoice by a licensed wholesale dealer 48 for any tobacco products in his or her possession, shall be presumptive 49 evidence the tax thereon has not been paid, that such retail dealer is 50 liable for the tax thereon, and the tobacco products are possessed in 51 violation of this chapter, unless evidence of such invoice or payment 52 shall later be produced.

53 g. 1. Each wholesale dealer shall file with the commissioner of 54 finance a return, on a form required by such commissioner, indicating 55 the amount of tax due pursuant to this section and any other information 56 the commissioner may require, on a monthly basis, or on such other regu-

1 lar interval as such commissioner may prescribe. Each wholesale dealer 2 shall file the return on the twentieth day of the month following the 3 end of the month or other interval covered by the return, unless the 4 commissioner of finance prescribes a greater number of days following 5 the end of the month or a different reporting interval. Each wholesale 6 dealer shall pay the amount of tax due upon filing the return unless the 7 commissioner prescribes a different date or time for such payment.

8 2. The commissioner of finance may:

9 (A) Authorize another person, including a distributor as defined in 10 subdivision twelve of section four hundred seventy of the tax law, who 11 is not a wholesale dealer, to advance and pay the tax imposed under this 12 section;

13 (B) Exempt wholesale dealers from the requirements of this subdivi-14 sion, upon such conditions as may be imposed by such commissioner, if he 15 or she is satisfied the tax on the tobacco products has been or is being 16 advanced and paid by another wholesale dealer or a distributor author-17 ized under this subdivision.

18 h. The amount of taxes advanced and paid by the wholesale dealer 19 pursuant to this section shall be added to and collected as part of the 20 sales price of the tobacco products.

21 § 11-1303 License. a. License required of wholesale and retail deal-22 ers. 1. It shall be unlawful for a person to engage in business as a 23 wholesale or retail dealer without a license as prescribed in this 24 section or subchapter one of chapter two of title twenty of the code of 25 the preceding municipality, whichever is applicable.

26 2. It shall be unlawful for a person to permit any premises under such 27 person's control to be used by any other person in violation of para-28 graph one of subdivision a of this section.

29 b. Application for license. 1. Wholesale tobacco license. In order to 30 obtain a license to engage in business as a wholesale dealer, a person 31 shall file application with the commissioner of finance for one license 32 for each place of business that he or she desires to have for the sale 33 of cigarettes or tobacco products in the city. Every application for a 34 wholesale tobacco license shall be made upon a form prescribed and 35 prepared by the commissioner of finance and shall set forth such infor-36 mation as the commissioner shall require. The commissioner of finance 37 may, for cause, refuse to issue a wholesale tobacco license. Upon 38 approval of the application, the commissioner of finance shall grant and 39 issue to the applicant a wholesale tobacco license for each place of 40 business within the city set forth in the application. Wholesale tobacco 41 licenses shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the persons 42 in whose names such licenses have been issued and for the transaction of 43 business in the places designated therein and shall at all times be 44 conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued.

45 2. Retail tobacco license. In order to obtain a license to engage in 46 business as a retail dealer, a person shall file application with the 47 commissioner of consumer affairs and worker protection in accordance 48 with the provisions of section 20-202 of the code of the preceding muni-49 cipality.

50 c. Duplicate licenses. Whenever any license issued by the commissioner 51 of finance under the provisions of this section is defaced, destroyed or 52 lost, the commissioner of finance shall issue a duplicate license to the 53 holder of the defaced, destroyed or lost license upon the payment of a 54 fee of fifteen dollars. A duplicate retail dealer license may be 55 obtained from the commissioner of consumer and worker protection as 56 provided in section 20-204 of the code of the preceding municipality.

1 d. Suspension or revocation of licenses. (1) After a hearing, the 2 commissioner of finance may suspend or revoke a wholesale tobacco 3 license and the commissioner of consumer and worker protection, upon 4 notice from the commissioner of finance, may suspend or revoke a retail 5 tobacco license whenever the commissioner of finance finds that the 6 holder thereof has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this 7 chapter or any rules of the commissioner of finance prescribed, adopted 8 and promulgated under this chapter.

9 (2) The commissioner of finance may also suspend or revoke a wholesale 10 tobacco license in accordance with the requirements of any other 11 sections of this code or any rules promulgated thereunder which author-12 izes the suspension or revocation of a wholesale tobacco license.

13 (3) The commissioner of consumer and worker protection may also 14 suspend or revoke a retail tobacco license in accordance with the 15 requirements of any other section of this code or any rules promulgated 16 thereunder which authorize suspension or revocation of a retail tobacco 17 license.

18 (4) Upon suspending or revoking any wholesale tobacco license, the 19 commissioner of finance shall direct the holder thereof to surrender to 20 the commissioner of finance immediately all wholesale tobacco licenses 21 or duplicates thereof issued to such holder and the holder shall surren-22 der promptly all such licenses to the commissioner of finance as 23 directed. Before the commissioner of finance suspends or revokes a 24 wholesale tobacco license or notifies the commissioner of consumer and 25 worker protection of a finding of a violation of this chapter with 26 respect to a retail tobacco license pursuant to paragraph one of this 27 subdivision, the commissioner of finance shall notify the holder and the 28 holder shall be entitled to a hearing, if desired, if the holder, within 29 ninety days from the date of such notification, or, if the commissioner 30 of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 31 11-124 of this title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation
32 conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing
33 of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirma-34 tion of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (A) 35 serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (B) files a peti-36 tion with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. After such hearing, 37 the commissioner of finance, good cause appearing therefor, may suspend 38 or revoke the wholesale tobacco license, and, in the case of a retail 39 tobacco license, notify the commissioner of consumer and worker 40 protection of a violation of this chapter or any rules promulgated ther-41 eunder. Upon such notification, the commissioner of consumer and worker 42 protection may suspend or revoke a retail cigarette license as provided 43 in subdivision b of section 20-206 of the code of the preceding munici-44 pality. The commissioner of finance may, by rule, provide for granting a 45 similar hearing to an applicant who has been refused a wholesale ciga-46 rette license by the commissioner of finance.

47 e. Prohibited sales and purchases. No agent or dealer shall sell ciga-48 rettes or tobacco products to an unlicensed wholesale or retail dealer, 49 or to a wholesale or retail dealer whose license has been suspended or 50 revoked.

51 No dealer shall purchase cigarettes or tobacco products from any 52 person other than a manufacturer or a licensed wholesale dealer.

53 f. Retail dealers. The commissioner of finance may, after hearing, 54 issue an order prohibiting a retail dealer from selling cigarettes, for 55 such period as the order shall specify, for failure to comply with any 56 of the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations of the 1 commissioner of finance prescribed, adopted and promulgated under this

2 chapter.

3 g. License fees; numbering and registering of licenses; term. 1. The 4 annual fee for a wholesale dealer's license shall be six hundred 5 dollars, and the annual fee for a retail dealer's license shall be as 6 provided in subdivision c of section 20-202 of the code of the preceding 7 municipality.

8 2. Wholesale tobacco licenses shall be regularly numbered and duly 9 registered.

10 3. Wholesale tobacco licenses shall expire on January thirty-first 11 next succeeding the date of issuance unless sooner suspended or revoked.

12 § 11-1304 Preparation and sale of stamps; commissions. a. The 13 commissioner of finance shall, subject to the approval of the state tax 14 commission, prescribe, prepare and furnish stamps of such denominations 15 and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed by 16 this chapter, and may, from time to time, provide for the issuance and 17 exclusive use of stamps of a new design and forbid the use of stamps of 18 any other design. Such stamps shall be in the form of a single stamp 19 for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter or, in lieu thereof, 20 a joint single stamp to be prepared and issued by the state of New York 21 and the city for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and the 22 taxes imposed by article twenty of the tax law. The commissioner of 23 finance may make such arrangements with the state tax commission for the 24 method of acquiring and the manner of sharing the costs of such joint 25 single stamps as he or she deems appropriate. The commissioner of 26 finance, subject to the approval of the state commissioner of taxation 27 and finance, shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps at such 28 places as he or she may deem necessary, and may appoint fiscal agents 29 for such purpose.

30 b. The commissioner of finance may appoint wholesale dealers of ciga-31 rettes and any other person within or without the city as agents to 32 affix stamps to be used in paying the tax hereby imposed, but an agent 33 shall at all times have the right to appoint the person in his or her 34 employ who is to affix the stamps to any cigarettes under the agent's 35 control. Whenever the commissioner of finance shall sell, consign or 36 deliver to any such agent any such stamps, such agent shall be entitled 37 to receive as compensation for his or her services and expenses in 38 affixing such stamps, and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by the 39 agent for such stamps, a commission on the par value thereof. The 40 commissioner of finance is hereby authorized to prescribe a schedule of 41 commissions not exceeding five per centum, allowable to such agent for 42 affixing such stamps; provided, however, that the commissioner of 43 finance may authorize commissions to agents and temporary agents not 44 exceeding ten per centum for a special period not exceeding fifteen days 45 immediately following the enactment of this chapter to cover the initial 46 stamping of packages of cigarettes. Such schedule shall be uniform for 47 each type and denomination of stamp used, and may be on a graduated 48 scale with respect to the number of stamps purchased. In the event that 49 a joint stamp is issued, the commissions allowed shall be determined 50 jointly by the state commissioner of taxation and finance and the 51 commissioner of finance and shall be based on the full par value of such 52 stamp. The extent to which the city and the state of New York shall 53 bear the expense of such commissions shall be determined by agreement 54 between the commissioner of taxation and finance and the commissioner 55 of finance. The commissioner of finance may in his or her discretion 56 permit an agent to pay for such stamps within thirty days after the date

1 of sale, consignment or delivery of such stamps to such agents, and may 2 require any such agent to file with the commissioner of finance a bond, 3 issued by a surety company approved by the superintendent of insurance 4 as to solvency and responsibility and authorized to transact business in 5 the state, in such amounts as the commissioner of finance may fix, to 6 secure the payment of any sums from such agent pursuant to this chapter.

7 c. The commissioner of finance may redeem unused stamps lawfully in 8 the possession of any person. No person shall sell or offer for sale 9 any stamp issued under this chapter, except by written permission of the 10 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance may prescribe 11 rules and regulations concerning refunds, sales of stamps and redemp-12 tions under the provisions of this chapter.

13 d. (1) Except as provided in this subdivision, it shall be unlawful 14 for any person to sell, offer for sale, possess or transport any affixed 15 or unaffixed false, altered or counterfeit cigarette tax stamps, 16 imprints or impressions.

17 (2) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not apply to:

18 (A) a person, other than a retail dealer, in possession of twenty or 19 fewer affixed tax stamps;

20 (B) public officers or employees in the performance of their official 21 duties requiring possession or control of affixed or unaffixed false, 22 altered or counterfeit cigarette tax stamps, imprints or impressions; or 23 (C) any person authorized by the commissioner of finance or the 24 commissioner of the department of taxation and finance of the state of 25 New York to perform law enforcement functions.

26 § 11-1305 Affixation and cancellation of stamps; presumptions. a.
27 Each agent shall affix to each package of cigarettes stamps evidencing 28 the payment of tax imposed by this chapter and shall cancel such stamps 29 prior to delivery of such cigarettes to any dealer in the city, unless 30 stamps have been affixed to such packages of cigarettes and cancelled 31 before such agent received them.

32 b. Each dealer, other than an agent, in the city shall immediately 33 upon the receipt of any cigarettes at his or her place of business mark 34 in ink on each unopened box, carton or other container of such ciga-35 rettes the word "received" and the year, month, day and hour of such 36 receipt and shall affix his or her signature thereto or shall mark them 37 in any other manner prescribed by the commissioner of finance. In addi-38 tion, each retail dealer shall, within twenty-four hours after receipt 39 of any cigarettes at his or her place of business and prior to exposing 40 for sale or sale by such retail dealer of such cigarettes, open such 41 box, carton or other container and, unless such stamps have been previ-42 ously affixed, immediately notify the dealer from whom he or she 43 purchased such cigarettes and arrange for the replacement by the dealer 44 of such cigarettes by cigarettes with such stamps affixed within twen-45 ty-four hours.

46 c. Stamps shall be cancelled in the manner prescribed by regulation.

47 d. Whenever any cigarettes are found in the place of business of a 48 dealer without the stamps affixed and cancelled, or not marked as having 49 been received within the preceding twenty-four hours, the prima facie 50 presumption shall arise that such cigarettes are kept therein in 51 violation of the provisions of this chapter.

52 e. Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes of an aggre-53 gate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents 54 therein, and shall be affixed in such manner as to be visible to the 55 purchaser.

1 § 11-1306 Possession and transportation of unstamped cigarettes.
2 Every person who shall possess or transport upon the public highways, 3 roads or streets of this city more than four hundred cigarettes in 4 unstamped packages, shall be required to have in his or her actual 5 possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes. All such 6 invoices or delivery tickets shall show the true name and address of the 7 consignor or seller, the true name and address of the consignee or 8 purchaser and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes transported.
9 The absence of such invoices or delivery tickets shall be prima facie 10 evidence that such person is a dealer in cigarettes in the city and 11 subject to the provisions of this chapter.

12 § 11-1307 Records to be kept; examination. a. 1. At the time of 13 delivering cigarettes to any person in the city, each agent or wholesale 14 dealer shall make a true duplicate invoice showing the date of delivery, 15 the number of packages and the number of cigarettes contained therein in 16 each shipment of cigarettes delivered, and the name of the purchaser to 17 whom delivery is made, and shall retain the same for a period of three 18 years subject to the use and inspection of the commissioner of finance.
19 Each dealer shall procure and retain invoices showing the number of 20 packages and the number of cigarettes contained therein in each shipment 21 of cigarettes received by such dealer, the date thereof, and the name of 22 the shipper, and shall retain the same for a period of three years 23 subject to the use and inspection of the commissioner of finance.

24 2. At the time of delivering tobacco products to any person in the 25 city, each wholesale dealer shall make a true duplicate invoice showing 26 the date of delivery, the number of packages and the number of tobacco 27 products contained therein as well as any tobacco products not in pack-28 ages in each shipment of tobacco products delivered, and the name of the 29 purchaser to whom delivery is made and shall retain the same for a peri-30 od of three years subject to the use and inspection of the commissioner 31 of finance. Each dealer shall procure and retain invoices showing the 32 number of packages and the number of tobacco products contained therein 33 as well as any tobacco products not in packages in each shipment of 34 tobacco products received by such dealer, the date thereof, and the name 35 of the shipper, and shall retain the same for a period of three years 36 subject to the use and inspection of the commissioner of finance.

37 3. Each dealer shall retain any other records and in such form as may 38 be required by the commissioner of finance indicating proof of the 39 payment of the tax imposed under section 11-1302.1 of this chapter. Any 40 failure to provide such records upon request by the commissioner of 41 finance or such commissioner's duly authorized representatives shall be 42 presumptive evidence that the dealer has violated the provisions of this 43 chapter.

44 b. The commissioner of finance by regulation may provide that whenever 45 cigarettes or tobacco products are shipped into the city, the railroad 46 company, express company, trucking company, or carrier transporting any 47 shipment thereof shall file with the commissioner of finance a copy of 48 the freight bill within ten days after the delivery in the city of each 49 shipment.

50 c. All dealers shall maintain and keep for a period of three years 51 such other records of cigarettes or tobacco products received or sold 52 within the city as may be required by the commissioner of finance. All 53 wholesale dealers shall maintain and keep for a period of three years 54 such other records of cigarettes or tobacco products delivered within 55 the city.

1 d. Without limiting the powers granted the commissioner of consumer 2 and worker protection pursuant to title twenty of the code of the 3 preceding municipality and any rules promulgated thereunder, the commis-4 sioner of finance or the commissioner's duly authorized representatives 5 are hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, invoices and other 6 records, and stock of cigarettes or tobacco products in and upon any 7 premises where the same are placed, stored and sold, and equipment of 8 any such agent or dealer pertaining to the sale and delivery of ciga-9 rettes or tobacco products taxable under this chapter. To verify the 10 accuracy of the tax imposed and assessed by this chapter, each such 11 person is hereby directed and required to give to the commissioner of 12 finance or the commissioner's duly authorized representatives, the 13 means, facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are herein 14 provided for and required.

15 e. The commissioner of finance shall investigate any failure to pay 16 the tax required by this chapter or any other failure to comply with 17 this chapter or the rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, and 18 shall take the necessary steps to enforce compliance therewith.

19 § 11-1308 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 20 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, he 21 or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

22 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 23 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof; and to require 24 the filing of reports by agents and/or dealers;

25 2. To prescribe the method and the means to be used in the cancella-26 tion of stamps;

27 3. To fix the denominations and the method of sale of stamps;

28 4. To delegate his or her powers to a deputy or other employee or 29 employees of the department of finance;

30 5. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return or 31 reports for a period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise 32 disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

33 6. To assess, determine, revise and adjust the taxes imposed under
34 this chapter;

35 7. To request information from the state commissioner of taxation and 36 finance, the treasury department of the United States or the taxing 37 officials of any other state or city that imposes a similar tax to any 38 tax imposed by this chapter, and to afford information to such commis-39 sion, department or other taxing official, any other provision of this 40 chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

41 8. To enter into an arrangement with the state commissioner of taxa-42 tion and finance with respect to cooperative collection, auditing or 43 administration of the taxes imposed by this chapter and the taxes 44 imposed by article twenty of the tax law of the state of New York.

45 9. To prescribe forms to be filled out by the vendor or purchaser, or 46 both, in each instance in which a sale is made by an agent or wholesale 47 dealer to a person outside the state or the city or to a dealer in the 48 city for purposes of resale outside the state or the city.

49 10. To appoint any dealer as a temporary agent to buy and affix 50 stamps for a period not in excess of fifteen days.

51 11. In furtherance of the purposes of paragraph three of subdivision 52 a of section 11-1302 of this chapter, to provide by appropriate regu-53 lation for the maintenance of such differentials in wholesale and retail 54 prices of cigarettes sold by any vendor, other than the manufacturer, so 55 as to reflect the amounts of tax attributable to the tar and nicotine 56 content of cigarettes sold. In so doing he or she may use and consider

1 the factory price of various brands of cigarettes. In addition, the 2 commissioner may consider the mode or method by which retail sales are 3 effected and limit his or her regulations so as to affect any one or 4 more or all of such modes or methods.

5 § 11-1309 Notifying taxpayers of assessments. a. The owner of any 6 lot, piece or parcel of land in the city of Staten Island or any person 7 interested in such lot, piece or parcel, may file with the bureau of 8 city collections a statement containing a brief description of such 9 land, together with the section, block and lot number thereof, or such 10 other designation as at the time is established by the department of 11 finance, and a statement of the applicant's interest therein, together 12 with a written request that such lot, piece or parcel of land be regis-13 tered in such bureau, in the name of the applicant. In such statement 14 the applicant shall designate a post office address to which notifica-15 tions addressed to such applicant shall be sent. A brief description of 16 such lot, piece or parcel of land corresponding to the description ther-17 eof in the statement so filed, together with the name of the applicant 18 and his or her post office address and the date of such application, 19 shall thereupon be registered in the offices of such bureau as herein-20 after provided.

21 b. As soon as any assessment for a local improvement shall have been 22 confirmed, including assessments confirmed by a court of record, and the 23 list thereof shall have been entered and filed in the bureau of city 24 collections, such assessment list shall be examined and thereupon, with-25 in twenty days after such entry there shall be mailed a notice addressed 26 to each person in whose name any lot, piece or parcel of land, affected 27 by such assessment, is registered, at the post office address registered 28 in the records of such bureau, which notice shall contain the brief 29 description of the lot, piece or parcel of land registered in the name 30 of the person to whom such notice is addressed, together with the amount 31 assessed thereon, date of entry, and title of the improvement for which 32 such assessment is made, and a statement of the rate of interest or 33 penalty imposed for the nonpayment of such assessment, and the date from 34 which the interest or penalty will be computed. Failure to comply with 35 the provisions of this section, however, shall in no manner affect the 36 validity or collectibility of any assessment heretofore or hereafter 37 confirmed, nor shall any claim arise or exist against the comptroller, 38 the commissioner of finance, the city collector or any officer of the 39 city by reason of such failure.

40 c. The city collector shall for the purpose of this section provide 41 appropriate records for each section of the city as the same shall 42 appear upon the tax maps of the city.

43 § 11-1310 Determination of tax. If any person fails to pay the tax, or 44 to file a return required by this chapter or if a return, when filed, is 45 insufficient and the maker fails to file a corrected or sufficient 46 return within ten days after the same may be required by notice from the 47 commissioner of finance, the commissioner of finance shall determine the 48 amount of tax due from such information as may be obtainable or on the 49 basis of external indices, such as number of cigarettes purchased or 50 sold, number of tobacco products purchased or sold, stock on hand, 51 volume of sales by similar dealers or other factors. Notice of such 52 determination shall be given to the person liable for the payment of the 53 tax. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless 54 the person against whom it is assessed shall, within ninety days of the 55 giving of such notice, or, if the commissioner of finance has estab-56 lished a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this title

1 and the person liable for the tax has requested a conciliation confer-2 ence in accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing of a 3 conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of 4 the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a 5 petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a petition with 6 the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the commissioner of 7 finance shall of his or her own motion redetermine such tax. Such hear-8 ing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the 9 decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and 10 subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal
11 pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seven-
12 ty-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed Janu-
13 ary first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing the tax 14 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person liable 15 for the tax and to the commissioner of finance. A decision of the tax 16 appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable for error, illegal-
17 ity, unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding 18 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if 19 instituted by the person against whom the tax was assessed within four 20 months after the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal deci-21 sion; provided however, that if such decision regards the tax imposed 22 under section 11-1302.1 of this chapter, such proceeding must be insti-23 tuted by the person against whom the tax was assessed within thirty days 24 after the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision.
25 Such proceeding shall not be instituted by a person liable for the tax 26 unless the amount of any tax sought to be reviewed with interest and 27 penalties thereon, if any, shall have first been deposited with the 28 commissioner of finance and an undertaking filed with the commissioner 29 of finance in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the 30 supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceeding be 31 dismissed or the tax confirmed, such person will pay all costs and 32 charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the proceeding.

33 § 11-1311 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this subdivision the 34 commissioner of finance shall refund, without interest, any tax, inter-35 est or penalty erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected or 36 paid. In addition, whenever any cigarettes upon which stamps have been 37 affixed have been sold and shipped to a dealer outside the city for sale 38 there or to any person in another state for use there, or have become 39 unfit for use and consumption or unsalable, or have been destroyed, the 40 dealer shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of tax paid, less the 41 applicable commission, with respect to such cigarettes.

42 In any event no refund shall be granted unless application to the 43 commissioner of finance therefor is made within two years after the 44 stamps were affixed to such cigarettes or the tax was paid, except if a 45 person has consented in writing to an extension of the period for 46 assessment of additional tax pursuant to subdivision c of section 47 11-1315 of this chapter, and such consent is given within the two-year 48 period for making a refund application provided in this subdivision, the 49 period for making a refund application shall not expire prior to six 50 months after the expiration of the period within which an assessment 51 could be made pursuant to such consent or any extension thereof.

52 Whenever a refund is made or denied by the commissioner of finance, 53 the commissioner shall state his or her reasons therefor and give notice 54 thereof to the applicant in writing. A person shall not be entitled to a 55 hearing in connection with such application for a refund if such person 56 has already had a hearing or had been given the opportunity of a hearing

1 as provided in section 11-1310 of this chapter or has failed to avail 2 himself or herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund shall be 3 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid pursuant to a determination of 4 the commissioner of finance as provided in section 11-1310 of this chap-5 ter, unless the tax appeals tribunal, after a hearing as in said section 6 provided or the commissioner of finance, of his or her own motion, shall 7 have reduced the tax or penalty, or it shall have been established in a 8 proceeding, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law 9 and rules that such determination was erroneous, illegal, unconstitu-10 tional or otherwise improper, in which event a refund without interest 11 shall be made as provided upon the determination of such proceeding. Any 12 determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund pursuant 13 to this subdivision shall be final and irrevocable unless the applicant 14 for such refund, within ninety days from the mailing of notice of such 15 determination, or, if the commissioner of finance has established a 16 conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of this title and the 17 applicant has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-18 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 19 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 20 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commission-21 er of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 22 a hearing.

23 Such petition for a refund made as provided in this subdivision shall 24 be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest 25 complained of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal 26 sitting en banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be 27 conducted in the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by 28 the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight 29 through one hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municip-30 ality. After such hearing, the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice 31 of its decision to the applicant and to the commissioner of finance.
32 The applicant shall be entitled to maintain a proceeding under article 33 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to review a decision 34 of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, provided, however, that 35 such proceeding is instituted within four months after such decision, 36 provided however, that if such decision regards the tax imposed under 37 section 11-1302.1 of this chapter, such proceeding must be instituted 38 within thirty days after such decision, and provided, further, in the 39 case of an application by a person liable for the tax, that a final 40 determination of tax due was not previously made, and that an undertak-41 ing shall first be filed by such person with the commissioner of finance 42 in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court 43 shall approve, to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the 44 tax confirmed such person will pay all costs and charges which may 45 accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

46 b. If the commissioner of finance is satisfied that any dealer is 47 entitled to a refund the commissioner shall issue to such dealer stamps 48 of sufficient value to cover the refund or to make such refund.

49 § 11-1312 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has applied for a 50 refund and has instituted proceedings under article seventy-eight of the 51 civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to the 52 taxpayer on his or her application for refund or has deposited the 53 amount of tax assessed in connection with proceedings under section 54 11-1310 of this chapter, the comptroller shall set up appropriate 55 reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

1 § 11-1313 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
2 11-1310 and 11-1311 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies
3 available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this 4 chapter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or deter-5 mination on an application for refund by the commissioner of finance, 6 nor any decision by the tax appeals tribunal or any of its administra-
7 tive law judges, shall be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declara-8 tory judgment, an action for money had and received, or by any legal or 9 equitable action or proceeding other than, in the case of a decision by 10 the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding under article 11 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules; provided, however, 12 that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory judgment if the taxpayer
13 institutes suit within thirty days after a deficiency assessment is made 14 and pays the amount of the deficiency assessment to the commissioner of 15 finance prior to the institution of such suit and posts a bond for costs
16 as provided in section 11-1310 of this chapter.

17 § 11-1314 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 18 fail to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this chapter as 19 herein provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the request of the 20 commissioner of finance, bring or cause to be brought an action to 21 enforce the payment of the same on behalf of the city in any court of 22 the state of New York or of any other state or of the United States.
23 If, however, the commissioner of finance in his or her discretion 24 believes that a taxpayer subject to the provisions of this chapter is 25 about to cease business, leave the state or remove or dissipate the 26 assets out of which the tax, interest or penalties might be satisfied 27 and that any such tax, interest or penalty will not be paid when due, he 28 or she may declare such tax, interest or penalty to be immediately due 29 and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

30 b. In addition to all other remedies for the collection of any taxes, 31 penalties or interest due under the provisions of this chapter, the 32 commissioner of finance may with respect to any tax imposed under 33 section 11-1302 of this chapter or any penalties or interest related 34 thereto issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the 35 sheriff to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the 36 person liable for the tax which may be found within the city, for the 37 payment of the amount thereof, with any penalties and interest and the 38 cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the commis-39 sioner of finance and to pay to the commissioner the money collected by 40 virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The 41 city sheriff shall within five days after the receipt of the warrant 42 file with the county clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk 43 shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person mentioned in 44 the warrant and the amount of the taxes, penalty and interest for which 45 the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon 46 the amount of such warrant shall become a lien upon the title to and 47 interest in real and personal property of the person against whom the 48 warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant 49 in the same manner and with like effect as that provided by law in 50 respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court 51 of record, and for services in executing the warrant the city sheriff 52 shall be entitled to the same fees which he or she may collect in the 53 same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of finance a warrant 54 of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any offi-55 cer or employee of the department of finance, and in the execution ther-56 eof such officer or employee shall have all the powers conferred by law

1 upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess
2 of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a
3 warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commissioner of finance 4 may from time to time issue new warrants and shall have the same remedies 5 to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the city had recovered 6 judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned unsatisfied.

7 c. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
8 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 9 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 10 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, additions 11 to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 12 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 13 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
14 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 15 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

16 § 11-1315 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized 17 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by 18 mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid
19 envelope addressed to such person at the address given in the last 20 return filed by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter 21 or in any application made by such person or, if no return has been 22 filed or application made, then to such address as may be obtainable.
23 The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt 24 of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which 25 is determined according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving 26 of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

27 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other 28 law relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy 29 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to 30 levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax, 31 interest or penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the 32 case of a wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the 33 tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration 34 of more than three years from the date of the filing of a return, 35 provided, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax 36 may be assessed at any time.

37 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for 38 the assessment of an additional tax, a person has consented in writing 39 that such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax due may 40 be determined at any time within such extended period. The period so 41 extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made 42 before the expiration of the extended period.

43 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other 44 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, within 45 a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
46 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
47 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 48 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 49 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such
50 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
51 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 52 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 53 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 54 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension granted 55 for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 56 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the

1 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
2 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be
3 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any
4 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration
5 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
6 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
7 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
8 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance or,
9 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal is authorized to provide by 10 regulation the extent to which the provisions of this subdivision with 11 respect to prima facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall 12 apply to certified mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this 13 section, this subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made
14 by the United States postal service only if and to the extent provided 15 by regulation of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax 16 appeals tribunal.

17 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
18 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
19 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 20 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
21 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

22 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
23 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
24 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
25 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
26 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 27 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
28 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
29 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
30 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
31 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
32 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
33 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 34 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 35 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 36 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 37 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 38 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
39 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
40 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 41 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 42 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 43 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 44 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 45 finance, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 46 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 47 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 48 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 49 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

50 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 51 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 52 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 53 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 54 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
55 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 56 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of

1 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
2 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
3 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 4 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 5 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 6 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 7 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 8 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

9 § 11-1317 Penalties and interest. a. (1) Any person failing to pay a 10 tax payable under section 11-1302 of this chapter when due shall be 11 subject to a penalty of fifty per centum of the amount of tax due, but 12 the commissioner of finance, if satisfied that the delay was excusable, 13 may remit all or any part of such penalty. Such penalty shall be paid 14 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues under this chapter.
15 Unpaid penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed 16 by section 11-1302 of this chapter.

17 (2) Any person failing to pay a tax payable under section 11-1302.1 of 18 this chapter when due shall be subject to a penalty of three hundred per 19 centum of the amount of tax due, but the commissioner of finance, if 20 satisfied that the delay was excusable, may remit all or any part of 21 such penalty. Such penalty shall be paid and disposed of in the same 22 manner as other revenues from the tax imposed under section 11-1302.1 of 23 this chapter. Unpaid penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 24 tax imposed by section 11-1302.1 of this chapter.

25 b. (1) In addition to any other penalty imposed by this section, the 26 commissioner of finance may (a) impose a penalty of not more than one 27 hundred dollars for each two hundred cigarettes or fraction thereof in 28 excess of one thousand cigarettes in unstamped or unlawfully stamped 29 packages in the possession or under the control of any person and (b) 30 impose a penalty of not more than two hundred dollars for each ten 31 affixed or unaffixed false, altered or counterfeit cigarette tax stamps, 32 imprints or impressions, or fraction thereof, in excess of one hundred 33 affixed or unaffixed false, altered or counterfeit cigarette tax stamps, 34 imprints or impressions in the possession or under the control of any 35 person. Such penalty shall be determined as provided in section 11-1310
36 of this chapter, and may be reviewed only pursuant to such section. Such 37 penalty may be enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this 38 chapter. The commissioner of finance, in his or her discretion, may 39 remit all or part of such penalty. Such penalty shall be paid and 40 disposed of in the same manner as other revenues under this chapter.

41 (2) The penalties imposed by this paragraph may be imposed by the 42 commissioner of finance in addition to any other penalty imposed by this 43 section, but in lieu of the penalties imposed by subparagraph (a) of 44 paragraph one of this subdivision: (a) not less than thirty dollars but 45 not more than two hundred dollars for each two hundred cigarettes, or 46 fraction thereof, in excess of one thousand cigarettes but less than or 47 equal to five thousand cigarettes in unstamped or unlawfully stamped 48 packages knowingly in the possession or knowingly under the control of 49 any person; (b) not less than seventy-five dollars but not more than two 50 hundred dollars for each two hundred cigarettes, or fraction thereof, in 51 excess of five thousand cigarettes but less than or equal to twenty 52 thousand cigarettes in unstamped or unlawfully stamped packages know-53 ingly in the possession or knowingly under the control of any person; and 54 (c) not less than one hundred dollars but not more than two hundred 55 dollars for each two hundred cigarettes, or fraction thereof, in excess 56 of twenty thousand cigarettes in unstamped or unlawfully stamped pack-

1 ages, knowingly in the possession or knowingly under the control of any 2 person. Such penalty shall be determined as provided in section 11-1310
3 of this chapter, and may be reviewed only pursuant to such section. Such 4 penalty may be enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this 5 chapter. The commissioner of finance, in his or her discretion, may 6 remit all or part of such penalty. Such penalty shall be paid and 7 disposed of in the same manner as other revenues under this chapter.

8 c. (1) The possession within the city of more than four hundred ciga-9 rettes in unstamped or unlawfully stamped packages shall be presumptive 10 evidence that such cigarettes are subject to tax as provided by this 11 chapter.

12 (2) Nothing in this section shall apply to common or contract carriers 13 or warehousemen while engaged in lawfully transporting or storing 14 unstamped packages of cigarettes as merchandise, nor to any employee of 15 such carrier or warehouseman acting within the scope of his or her 16 employment, nor to public officers or employees in the performance of 17 their official duties requiring possession or control of unstamped or 18 unlawfully stamped packages of cigarettes, nor to temporary incidental 19 possession by employees or agents of persons lawfully entitled to 20 possession, nor to persons whose possession is for the purpose of aiding 21 police officers in performing their duties.

22 d. (1) If any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date
23 prescribed for payment, without regard to any extension of time granted
24 for payment, interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner 25 of finance pursuant to paragraph two of this subdivision, or, if no rate 26 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be 27 paid for the period from such last date to the date of payment. In 28 computing the amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be 29 compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if 30 the amount thereof is less than one dollar. The interest imposed by this 31 subdivision shall be paid and disposed of in the same manner as other 32 revenues from this chapter. Unpaid interest may be enforced in the same 33 manner as the tax imposed by this chapter.

34 (2) (A) The commissioner of finance shall set the rate of interest to 35 be paid pursuant to paragraph one of this subdivision, but if no such 36 rate of interest is set, such rate shall be deemed to be set at seven 37 and one-half percent per annum. Such rate shall be the rate prescribed 38 in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph but shall not be less than seven 39 and one-half percent per annum. Any such rate set by the commissioner of 40 finance shall apply to taxes, or any portion thereof, which remain or 41 become due on or after the date on which such rate becomes effective and 42 shall apply only with respect to interest computed or computable for 43 periods or portions of periods occurring in the period in which such 44 rate is in effect.

45 (B) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
46 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 47 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

48 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

49 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
50 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
51 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
52 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 53 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 54 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 55 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
56 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

1 (B) Period during which rate applies.

2 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
3 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
4 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 5 such month.

6 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
7 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen
8 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 9 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

10 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 11 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
12 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
13 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
14 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 15 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-16 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the charter of the 17 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 18 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

19 e. Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this 20 title.

21 § 11-1318 Disposition of revenues. a. All revenues resulting from the 22 imposition of the tax under section 11-1302 of this chapter shall be 23 paid into the treasury of the city and shall be credited to and deposit-24 ed in the general fund of the city, except that, after the payment of 25 refunds with respect to such tax, effective on and after July second, 26 two thousand two, forty-six and one-half percent and, effective on and 27 after April first, two thousand three, forty-six percent of such reven-28 ues, including taxes, interest and penalties, collected or received 29 shall be paid to the state comptroller.

30 (b) All revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under 31 section 11-1302.1 of this chapter during a fiscal year, including any 32 interest and penalties, shall be paid into the treasury of the city in 33 accordance with section one hundred twelve of the public housing law, 34 and shall be payable from the city to the New York city housing authori-35 ty in such fiscal year.

14 has been paid. All moneys received as such payments by the taxi and

53 table, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to 54 children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to 55 the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial 56 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise

4 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 5 this subdivision.

6 b. The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to the transfer of 7 a taxicab license or interest therein by means of a lease, license or 8 other rental arrangement, where the term of such lease, license or other 9 rental arrangement, including the maximum period for which it can be 10 extended or renewed, does not exceed six months.

11 § 11-1406 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter 12 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, 13 the amount of tax due shall be determined by the commissioner of finance 14 from external indices and such other information as may be obtainable.
15 Notice of such determination shall be given to the person liable for the 16 tax. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless 17 the person against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after the 18 giving of notice of such determination, or, if the commissioner of 19 finance has established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 20 11-124 of this title and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation
21 conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing
22 of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirma-
23 tion of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1)
24 serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a peti-
25 tion with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the commis-
26 sioner of finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same.
27 Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc 28 from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the 29 manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
30 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
31 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
32 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing 33 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person
34 against whom the tax is assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A
35 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable
36 for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatso-
37 ever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 38 law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by 39 the person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after 40 the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision. A
41 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 42 rules shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless: (a) the amount of 43 any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest thereon, if 44 any, shall be first deposited with the commissioner of finance and there
45 shall be filed with the commissioner of finance an undertaking, issued 46 by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and 47 approved by the superintendent of insurance of this state as to solvency
48 and responsibility, in such amount and with such sureties as a justice
49 of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceed-
50 ing be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all costs 51 and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the proceeding; or 52 (b) at the option of the taxpayer such undertaking filed with the 53 commissioner of finance may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes,
54 penalties and interest thereon stated in such decision plus the costs 55 and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the 56 proceeding, in which event the taxpayer shall not be required to deposit

1 such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition precedent to the 2 application.

3 § 11-1407 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 4 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 5 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally
6 collected or paid if application to the commissioner of finance for such 7 refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever 8 a refund is made or denied by the commissioner of finance, the commis-9 sioner shall state his or her reason therefor and give notice thereof to 10 the taxpayer in writing. Such application may be made by the transferee 11 or transferor who has actually paid the tax. The commissioner of 12 finance may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit 13 therefor on payments due from the applicant.

14 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund 15 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 16 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-17 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 18 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-
19 ant to section 11-124 of this title and the applicant has requested a 20 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 21 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's 22 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 23 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 24 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for 25 a refund or credit, made pursuant to this section, shall be deemed an 26 application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained
27 of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en 28 banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in 29 the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
30 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
31 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
32 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, 33 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the appli-
34 cant and to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled 35 to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc by a 36 proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law 37 and rules, provided such proceeding is instituted within four months 38 after the giving of notice of such decision, and provided, in the case 39 of an application by a taxpayer, that a final determination of tax due 40 was not previously made. Such a proceeding shall not be instituted by a 41 taxpayer unless an undertaking is filed with the commissioner of finance 42 in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court 43 shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the 44 tax confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may 45 accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

46 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit 47 under this section of a tax, or penalty which had been determined to be 48 due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-1406 of this chapter where 49 such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a hearing, as 50 provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or herself of 51 the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be made of a 52 tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the commissioner 53 of finance made pursuant to section 11-1406 of this chapter unless it be 54 found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or unconstitutional 55 or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal after a hearing, or 56 on the commissioner's own motion, or, is such tax appeals tribunal

1 affirms in whole or in part the determination of the commissioner of 2 finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-3 tice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of said section, in which 4 event refund or credit without interest shall be made of the tax, inter-5 est or penalty found to be overpaid.

6 § 11-1408 Reserves. In cases where the transferee or transferor has 7 applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding under article
8 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to review a determi-9 nation adverse to the transferee or transferor on his or her applicati-10 on for refund, the comptroller shall set up appropriate reserves to meet 11 any decisions adverse to the city.

12 § 11-1409 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
13 11-1406 and 11-1407 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies
14 available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this 15 chapter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or deter-
16 mination on any application for refund by the commissioner of finance, 17 nor any decision by the tax appeals tribunal or any of its administra-
18 tive law judges shall be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declara-19 tory judgment, an action for money had and received or by any action or 20 proceeding other than, in the case of a decision by the tax appeals
21 tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding in the nature of a certiorari
22 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 23 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory
24 judgment if the taxpayer institutes suit within thirty days after a
25 deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency 26 assessment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of 27 such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-1406 of 28 this chapter.

29 § 11-1410 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any transferee or 30 transferor shall fail to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by 31 this chapter as herein provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the 32 request of the commissioner of finance bring or cause to be brought an 33 action to enforce the payment of the same on behalf of the city of 34 Staten Island in any court of the state of New York or of any other
35 state or of the United States. If, however, the commissioner of finance 36 in his or her discretion believes that any such transferee or transferor 37 subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease business,
38 leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which the tax 39 or penalty might be satisfied, and that any such tax or penalty will not 40 be paid when due, the commissioner may declare such tax or penalty to be 41 immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

42 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance 43 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the sheriff 44 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the transferee 45 or transferor or other person liable for the tax which may be found 46 within the city, for the payment of the amount thereof, with any penalty 47 and interest, and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such 48 warrant to the commissioner of finance and to pay to the commissioner 49 the money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the 50 receipt of such warrant. The city sheriff shall within five days after 51 the receipt of the warrant file with the county clerk a copy thereof, 52 and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of 53 the person mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax, penalty 54 and interest for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy 55 is filed. Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become 56 a lien upon the title to and the interest in real and personal property

1 of the person against whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall 2 then proceed upon the warrant in the same manner, and with like effect, 3 as that provided by law in respect to executions issued against property 4 upon judgments of a court of record and for services in executing the 5 warrant the sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees, which he or she 6 may collect in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of 7 finance a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and 8 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance, and in 9 the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
10 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 11 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 12 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-
13 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 14 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 15 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 16 returned unsatisfied.

17 c. Whenever there is made a sale, transfer or assignment in bulk or 18 any part of the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or 19 merchandise and of fixtures pertaining to the conducting of the business 20 of the seller, transferor or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary 21 course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the 22 purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking 23 possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures,
24 or paying therefor, notify the commissioner of finance by registered 25 mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof 26 whether or not the seller, transferor or assignor, has represented to,
27 or informed the purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any tax 28 pursuant to this chapter and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or 29 assignee has knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether any such 30 taxes are in fact owing.

31 d. Whenever, the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 32 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by subdivision c of 33 this section, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall inform the 34 purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for such tax or 35 taxes exists, any sums of money, property or choses in action, or other 36 consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or assignee is required 37 to transfer over to the seller or assignor shall be subject to a first 38 priority right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or thereafter 39 determined to be due from the seller, transferor or assignor to the 40 city, and the purchaser, transferee or assignee is forbidden to transfer 41 to the seller, transferor or assignor any such sums of money, property 42 or choses in action to the extent of the amount of the city's claim. For 43 failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision, the purchas-44 er, transferee or assignee shall be personally liable for the payment to 45 the city of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be 46 due to the city from the seller, transferor or assignor, and such 47 liability may be assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liabil-48 ity for tax under this chapter.

49 e. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
50 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 51 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 52 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
53 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 54 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be
55 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant

1 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 2 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

3 § 11-1411 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 4 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, he 5 or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

6 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 7 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

8 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 9 period not exceeding ninety days; and to compromise disputed claims in 10 connection with the taxes imposed under this chapter;

11 3. To request information from the taxi and limousine commission, the 12 tax commission of the state of New York or the treasury department of 13 the United States relative to any person; and to afford returns, reports 14 and other information to such taxi and limousine commission, tax commis-15 sion or treasury department relative to any person, any other provision 16 of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

17 4. To delegate his or her functions hereunder to a deputy commissioner 18 of finance or any employee or employees of the department of finance;

19 5. To prescribe the methods for determining the consideration subject 20 to the tax, and if there is a transfer of a taxicab or other property in 21 conjunction with the transfer of a taxicab license or interest therein, 22 to prescribe rules and methods for determining the fair market value of 23 such taxicab or other property;

24 6. To require any transferee or transferor to keep such records, and 25 for such lengths of time as may be required for the proper adminis-
26 tration of this chapter and to furnish such records to the commissioner 27 of finance or the taxi and limousine commission upon request;

28 7. To assess, determine, revise and adjust the taxes imposed under 29 this chapter.

30 § 11-1412 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 31 commissioner of finance, the employees or agents duly designated by him 32 or her, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its duly designated and 33 authorized employees or agents shall have power to administer oaths and 34 take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding in the exercise 35 of their powers and duties under this chapter. The commissioner of 36 finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to subpoena and 37 require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers 38 and documents to secure information pertinent to the performance of the 39 duties of the commissioner or of the tax appeals tribunal hereunder and 40 of the enforcement of this chapter and to examine them in relation ther-41 eto, and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are 42 out of the state or unable to attend before the commissioner or the tax 43 appeals tribunal or excused from attendance.

44 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 45 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 46 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books,
47 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 48 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

49 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
50 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 51 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
52 title.

53 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 54 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal and witnesses attending in 55 response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 56 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as

1 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff and 2 his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers or employees of the 3 department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to serve 4 such process.

5 § 11-1413 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 6 any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 7 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment,
8 interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner of finance 9 pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate is set, at 10 the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be paid for the 11 period from such last date to the date of payment. In computing the 12 amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be compounded daily.
13 Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof
14 is less than one dollar.

15 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
16 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 17 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 18 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 19 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 20 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 21 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 22 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 23 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

24 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
25 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
26 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
27 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
28 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 29 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 30 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

31 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 32 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 33 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 34 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
35 upon the return.

36 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 37 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
38 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
39 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 40 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 41 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 42 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 43 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-44 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
45 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 46 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 47 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-48 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 49 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be
50 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
51 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

52 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 53 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 54 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
55 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-1406 of this chap-
56 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless

1 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to
2 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in
3 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
4 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one
5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 6 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
7 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 8 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 9 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

10 (4) Limitations on additions.

11 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-
12 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 13 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 14 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two. In any case
15 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 16 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced
17 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

18 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition
19 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 20 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
21 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one,
22 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
23 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

24 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpay-
25 ment of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chap-26 ter or any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to 27 defraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent 28 of the underpayment.

29 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
30 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 31 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
32 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
33 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
34 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 35 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
36 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
37 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

38 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 39 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 40 fifty percent of the underpayment.

41 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty deter-
42 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 43 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
44 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
45 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 46 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
47 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 48 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 49 tax.

50 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
51 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

52 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 53 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 54 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
55 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 56 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts

1 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the
2 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the
3 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 4 penalty under this subdivision.

5 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
6 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
7 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 8 tax imposed by this chapter.

9 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance
10 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 11 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be 12 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate
13 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 14 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 15 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 16 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 17 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 18 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
19 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

20 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
21 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 22 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

23 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

24 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
25 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
26 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section 27 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 28 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 29 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 30 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
31 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

32 (B) Period during which rate applies.

33 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
34 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar 35 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 36 such month.

37 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
38 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 39 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 40 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

41 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 42 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
43 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
44 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
45 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 46 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-47 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the charter of the 48 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 49 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

50 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 51 to the effect that a tax has not been paid or that information has not 52 been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be 53 presumptive evidence thereof.

54 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
55 title.

1 § 11-1414 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper
2 judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for 3 the commissioner of finance, the chairperson of the taxi and limousine 4 commission, the tax appeals tribunal or any officer or employee of the 5 department of finance or taxi and limousine commission or the tax 6 appeals tribunal, to divulge or make known in any manner any information 7 contained in or relating to any return provided for by this chapter. The 8 officers charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required 9 to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any 10 action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner 11 of finance in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chap-12 ter, or on behalf of any party to an action or proceeding under the 13 provisions of this chapter when the returns or facts shown thereby are 14 directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which 15 events the court may require the production of, and may admit in 16 evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are 17 pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. Nothing in this 18 section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a transferee or 19 transferor or to the duly authorized representative of either of them of 20 a certified copy of any return filed in connection with the tax imposed 21 by this chapter; nor to prohibit the delivery of such a certified copy 22 of such return or of any information contained in or relating thereto to 23 the United States of America or any department thereof, the state of New 24 York or any department thereof, the city of Staten Island or any depart-25 ment thereof provided the same is required for official business; nor to 26 prohibit the inspection for official business of such returns by the 27 chairperson of the taxi and limousine commission, the corporation coun-28 sel or other legal representatives of the city or by the district attor-
29 ney of Richmond county; nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so 30 classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or 31 items thereof.

32 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 33 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 34 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
35 period of five years thereafter.

36 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
37 title.

38 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
39 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
40 cers law.

41 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 42 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 43 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
44 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
45 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
46 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
47 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be
48 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax
49 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 50 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
51 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
52 teen hundred ninety-four.

53 § 11-1415 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized
54 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
55 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
56 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed

1 by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, in any appli-2 cation made by such person, or in the records maintained by the taxi and 3 limousine commission, or, if no return has been filed or application 4 made or address found in the records of the taxi and limousine commis-5 sion, then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing of such 6 notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the 7 person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined accord-8 ing to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall 9 commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

10 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
11 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
12 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy, 13 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 14 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a
15 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no
16 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more 17 than three years from the date of the filing of a return; provided,
18 however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax 19 may be assessed at any time.

20 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for 21 the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented in writing 22 that such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax due may 23 be determined at any time within such extended period. The period so 24 extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made 25 before the expiration of the extended period.

26 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other
27 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
28 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
29 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
30 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 31 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 32 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such 33 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
34 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 35 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 36 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 37 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-38 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 39 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the
40 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
41 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 42 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 43 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 44 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
45 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
46 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
47 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance and,
48 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal are authorized to provide by 49 regulation the extent to which such provisions with respect to prima
50 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall apply to certi-
51 fied mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this 52 subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United 53 States postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation 54 of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals
55 tribunal.

1 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
2 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
3 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 4 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
5 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

6 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
7 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
8 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
9 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
10 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 11 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
12 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
13 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
14 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
15 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
16 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
17 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 18 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 19 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 20 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 21 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 22 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
23 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
24 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 25 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 26 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 27 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 28 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 29 finance, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 30 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 31 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 32 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 33 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

34 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 35 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 36 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 37 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 38 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
39 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 40 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 41 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
42 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
43 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 44 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 45 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 46 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 47 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 48 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

49 § 11-1416 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 50 construed and enforced in conformity with subdivision (j) of section 51 twelve hundred one of the tax law.

52 § 11-1417 Disposition of revenues. All revenues resulting from the 53 imposition of the tax under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury
54 of the city and shall be credited to and deposited in the general fund
55 of the city, but no part of such revenue may be expended unless appro-
56 priated in the annual budget of the city.

1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the carrying chapter and the purposes thereof;

2. To extend, for cause shown, the time of filing any return for a period not exceeding thirty days; and for cause shown, to remit penalties but not interest computed at the rate of six per cent per annum; and to compromise disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

3. To request information from the tax commission of the state of New York or the treasury department of the United States relative to any person; and to afford information to such tax commission or such treas-

1 ury department relative to any person, any other provision of this chap-
2 ter to the contrary notwithstanding;

3 4. To delegate the commissioner's functions under this section to an 4 assistant commissioner or deputy commissioner in the department of 5 finance or to any employee or employees of the commissioner of finance;

6 5. To prescribe methods for determining the containers sold or 7 supplied or purchased and to determine which are taxable and nontaxable;

8 6. To require sellers and suppliers and retailers within the city to 9 keep detailed records with respect to containers bought, sold, used, 10 manufactured or produced, and stock and production records with respect 11 to such containers whether or not subject to the tax imposed by this 12 chapter, and to furnish any information with respect thereto upon 13 request to the commissioner of finance;

14 7. To assess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes imposed under
15 this chapter.

16 § 11-1603 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 17 commissioner of finance or the commissioner's employees or agents duly 18 designated and authorized by the commissioner shall have power to admin-
19 ister oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding
20 in the exercise of their powers and duties under this chapter. The 21 commissioner of finance shall have power to subpoena and require the 22 attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and docu-
23 ments to secure information pertinent to the performance of the commis-24 sioner's duties hereunder and of the enforcement of this chapter and to 25 examine them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions for the exam-26 ination of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before 27 the commissioner or excused from attendance.

28 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 29 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 30 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 31 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 32 finance under this chapter.

33 c. Any person who shall refuse to testify or to produce books or 34 records or who shall testify falsely in any material matter pending 35 before the commissioner of finance under this chapter shall be guilty of 36 a misdemeanor, punishment for which shall be a fine of not more than one 37 thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both 38 such fine and imprisonment.

39 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 40 of finance and witnesses attending in response thereto shall be entitled 41 to the same fees as are allowed to officers and witnesses in civil cases 42 in courts of record, except as otherwise provided. Such officers shall 43 be the city sheriff and the city sheriff's duly appointed deputies or 44 any officers or employees of the commissioner of finance, designated to 45 serve such process.

46 § 11-1604 Imposition of tax. 1. On and after July first, nineteen 47 hundred seventy-one, there is hereby imposed within the city and there 48 shall be paid a tax upon every sale of a plastic container at the rate 49 of two cents for each container sold.

50 2. A credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed by this chap-51 ter of one cent for each taxable container if manufactured with a mini-52 mum of thirty percent of recycled material.

53 § 11-1605 Presumptions and burden of proof. For the purpose of 54 proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the tax 55 hereby imposed, it shall be presumed that all sales of plastic contain-56 ers are taxable, and not entitled to any credit allowed against the 1 taxes imposed. Such presumptions shall prevail until the contrary is 2 established and the burden of proving the contrary shall be upon the 3 taxpayer.

4 § 11-1606 Payment of the tax. The tax imposed pursuant to this 5 chapter shall be paid by the seller or supplier. However, where the tax 6 has not been paid on a sale by such seller or supplier, the retailer 7 shall be liable for tax thereon upon purchasing the container. Should 8 sellers and suppliers having no business situs in the city, who sell 9 containers to retailers within the city, pay the tax, the retailer 10 purchasing the containers shall not be liable for the tax.

11 § 11-1607 Records to be kept. Every seller or supplier and every 12 retailer shall keep records of all plastic containers taxed pursuant to 13 this chapter and of all purchases and sales thereof and of the taxes due 14 and payable on the sale or on the purchase thereof, in such form as the 15 commissioner of finance may by regulation require. Such records shall 16 be available for inspection and examination at any time upon demand by 17 the commissioner of finance or the commissioner's duly authorized agent 18 or employee and shall be preserved for a period of three years, except 19 that the commissioner of finance may consent to their destruction within 20 that period or may require that they be kept longer.

21 § 11-1608 Exemptions. 1. The following shall be exempt from the 22 payment of the tax imposed by this chapter:

23 (a) The state of New York, or any of its agencies, instrumentalities, 24 public corporations, including a public corporation created pursuant to 25 agreement or compact with another state or Canada, or political subdivi-26 sions where it is the purchaser, user or consumer;

27 (b) The United States of America, and any of its agencies and instru-28 mentalities insofar as it is immune from taxation where it is the 29 purchaser, user or consumer;

30 (c) The United Nations or other international organizations of which 31 the United States of America is a member; and

32 (d) Any corporation, or association, or trust, or community chest,
33 fund or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, 34 charitable, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to 35 children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to 36 the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial 37 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 38 attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in 39 this paragraph shall include an organization operated for the primary 40 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 41 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 42 this paragraph.

43 2. The following containers shall be exempt from the tax imposed by 44 this chapter: a. Containers sold or furnished containing products 45 intended for use in manufacturing processes and not for final retail 46 sale.

47 b. Containers used as receptacles for food, food products, beverages, 48 dietary foods and health supplements, sold for human consumption but not 49 including: (i) candy and confectionery, (ii) fruit drinks which contain 50 less than seventy percent of natural fruit juice, (iii) soft drinks, 51 sodas and beverages such as are ordinarily dispensed at soda fountains 52 or in connection therewith, other than coffee, tea and cocoa, and (iv) 53 beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages.

54 § 11-1609 Returns. 1. Every seller or supplier shall file with the 55 commissioner of finance a return of containers sold and of the taxes due 56 and payable thereon for the period from July first, nineteen hundred

1 seventy-one until the last day of September, nineteen hundred seventy-2 one and thereafter for each of the four-monthly periods ending on the 3 last day of January, May and September of each year.

4 2. Every retailer shall file with the commissioner of finance a 5 return of containers purchased by such retailer from sellers or suppli-6 ers having no situs within the city and of the taxes due thereon for the 7 same periods provided in subdivision one of this section.

8 3. The returns shall be filed within twenty days after the end of the 9 periods covered thereby. The commissioner of finance may permit or 10 require returns to be made for other periods and upon such dates as the 11 commissioner may specify. If the commissioner of finance deems it 12 necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this 13 chapter, the commissioner may require returns to be made for shorter 14 periods than those prescribed pursuant to the provisions of this subdi-15 vision and upon such dates as he or she may specify.

16 4. The forms of returns shall be prescribed by the commissioner of 17 finance and shall contain such information as the commissioner may deem 18 necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The commis-19 sioner of finance may require amended returns to be filed within twenty 20 days after notice and to contain the information specified in the 21 notice.

22 5. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return 23 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face the commissioner of 24 finance shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a 25 return or a corrected return.

26 § 11-1610 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter 27 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient,
28 the amount of tax due shall be determined by the commissioner of finance
29 from such information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, the tax 30 may be estimated on the basis of external indices, such as volume of 31 sales, inventories, purchases of containers, or of raw materials, 32 production figures, or other factors. Notice of such determination shall 33 be given to the person liable for the collection or payment of the tax.
34 Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the 35 person against whom it is assessed, within thirty days after giving 36 notice of such determination, shall apply to the commissioner of finance 37 for a hearing, or unless the commissioner of finance of his or her own 38 motion shall redetermine the same. After such hearing the commissioner 39 of finance shall give notice of his or her determination to the person 40 against whom the tax is assessed. The determination of the commissioner 41 of finance shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitution-42 ality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article 43 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application there-44 for is made to the supreme court within four months after the giving of 45 the notice of such determination. A proceeding under article seventy-46 eight of the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted 47 unless: (a) the amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties 48 and interest thereon, if any, shall be first deposited with the commis-49 sioner of finance and there shall be filed with the commissioner of 50 finance an undertaking, issued by a surety company authorized to trans-51 act business in this state and approved by the superintendent of insur-52 ance of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as 53 a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such 54 proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the petitioner will pay 55 all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the 56 proceeding; or (b) at the option of the applicant such undertaking filed

1 with the commissioner of finance may be in a sum sufficient to cover the 2 taxes, penalties and interest thereon stated in such determination plus 3 the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of 4 the proceeding, in which event the applicant shall not be required to 5 deposit such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition precedent to 6 the application.

7 § 11-1611 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 8 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 9 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally
10 collected or paid if application to the commissioner of finance for such 11 refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever 12 a refund is made by the commissioner of finance, the commissioner shall 13 state his or her reasons therefor in writing. Such application may be 14 made by the seller or supplier or the retailer or other person who has 15 actually paid the tax. The commissioner of finance may, in lieu of any 16 refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on payments due from 17 the applicant.

18 b. An application for a refund or credit made as herein provided shall 19 be deemed an application for revision of any tax, penalty or interest 20 complained of. If the commissioner of finance, prior to any hearing 21 held, initially denies the application for refund, the commissioner 22 shall give notice of such determination of denial to the applicant. Such 23 determination shall be final and irrevocable unless the applicant, with-24 in thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, shall 25 apply to the commissioner of finance for a hearing, or unless the 26 commissioner of finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the 27 same. After such hearing the commissioner of finance shall give notice 28 of his or her determination to the applicant, who shall be entitled to 29 review such determination by a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-30 eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided such proceeding is 31 instituted within four months after the giving of the notice of such 32 determination, and provided that a final determination of tax was not 33 previously made. Such a proceeding shall not be instituted unless an 34 undertaking is filed with the commissioner of finance in such amount and 35 with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to 36 the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, 37 the petitioner shall pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the 38 prosecution of such proceeding.

39 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
40 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
41 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-1610 of this 42 chapter where such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 43 hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 44 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 45 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 46 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-1609 of this chapter
47 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 48 unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the commissioner of finance 49 after a hearing or of the commissioner's own motion, or in a proceeding
50 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, pursu-
51 ant to the provisions of said section, in which event refund or credit 52 without interest shall be made of the tax, interest or penalty found to 53 have been overpaid.

54 § 11-1612 Reserves. In cases where the seller or supplier or the 55 retailer has applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding under 56 article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to review a

1 determination adverse to him or her on his or her application for 2 refund, the comptroller shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any 3 decision adverse to the city.

4 § 11-1613 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
5 11-1610 and 11-1611 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies
6 available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this 7 chapter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or deter-8 mination on any application for refund shall be enjoined or reviewed by 9 an action for declaratory judgment, an action for money had and received 10 or by any action or proceeding other than a proceeding in the nature of 11 a certiorari proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-12 tice law and rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by 13 declaratory judgment if such taxpayer institutes suit within thirty days 14 after a deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the defi-15 ciency assessment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institu-16 tion of such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section
17 11-1610 of this chapter.

18 § 11-1614 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any seller or 19 supplier or retailer or other person shall fail to pay any tax, penalty 20 or interest imposed by this chapter, the corporation counsel shall, upon 21 the request of the commissioner of finance bring or cause to be brought 22 an action to enforce the payment of the same on behalf of the city of 23 Staten Island in any court of the state of New York or of any other
24 state or of the United States. If, however, the commissioner of finance 25 in his or her discretion believes that any such seller or supplier or 26 retailer or other person is about to cease business, leave the state or 27 remove or dissipate the assets out of which the tax, penalties or inter-28 est might be satisfied, and that any such tax, penalty or interest will 29 not be paid when due, the commissioner of finance may declare such tax, 30 penalty or interest to be immediately due and payable and may issue a 31 warrant immediately.

32 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance 33 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding the city 34 sheriff to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the 35 seller or supplier or retailer or other person liable for the tax, which 36 may be found within the city, for the payment of the amount thereof, 37 with any penalties and interest, and the cost of executing the warrant, 38 and to return such warrant to the commissioner of finance and to pay to 39 the commissioner of finance the money collected by virtue thereof within 40 sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The city sheriff shall 41 within five days after the receipt of the warrant file with the county
42 clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judg-43 ment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant and the 44 amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the warrant is 45 issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon the amount of

48 warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant, 49 in the same manner, and with like effect, as that provided by law in 50 respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court
51 of record, and for services in executing the warrant the city sheriff 52 shall be entitled to the same fees, which he or she may collect in the

2 of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a
3 warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commissioner of finance
4 may from time to time issue new warrants and shall also have the same 5 remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the city had recover-6 ed judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned unsatis-7 fied.

8 c. Whenever a seller or supplier or the retailer shall make a sale, 9 transfer, or assignment in bulk of any part of the whole of his or her 10 fixtures, or of his or her stock of merchandise, or of stock or merchan-

12 of the seller or supplier or the retailer, otherwise than in the ordi-

14 transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking possession 15 of the subject of said sale, transfer or assignment, or paying therefor, 17 sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof whether or not the 18 seller, transferor or assignor, has represented to, or informed the 19 purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any tax pursuant to this 20 chapter, and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or assignee has 21 knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether any such taxes are in 22 fact owing.

23 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 24 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by the opening para-25 graph of this subdivision, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall 26 inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for 27 such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property or chooses in 28 action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or 29 assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor or 30 assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 31 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-
32 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 33 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor 34 any such sums of money, property or chooses in action to the extent of 35 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 36 provisions of this subdivision, the purchaser, transferee or assignee,
37 in addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed
38 under the provisions of article six of the uniform commercial code,
39 shall be personally liable for the payment to the city of any such taxes 40 theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city from the 41 seller, transferor or assignor, and such liability may be assessed and 42 enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this chapter.

43 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
44 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 45 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 46 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
47 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 48 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be
49 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
50 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 51 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

52 § 11-1615 Penalties and interest. a. Any person failing to file a 53 return or to pay any tax to the commissioner of finance within the time 54 required by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of five percent 55 of the amount of tax due; plus interest at the rate of one percent of 56 such tax for each month of delay excepting the first month after such

1 return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the commis-
2 sioner of finance if satisfied that the delay was excusable, may remit 3 all or any part of such penalty, but not interest at the rate of six 4 percent per year. Such penalties and interest shall be paid and disposed 5 of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter. Unpaid penal-

7 by this chapter.

8 b. Any seller or supplier or any retailer or any officer of a corpo-

15 or supplier or retailer failing to keep the records required by subdivi-16 sion six of section 11-1602 of this chapter, shall, in addition to the 17 penalties under this subdivision or elsewhere prescribed, be guilty of a 18 misdemeanor, punishment for which shall be a fine of not more than one 19 thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both 20 such fine and imprisonment. It shall not be any defense to a prosecution 21 under this subdivision that the failure to file a return or that the 22 actions or failures to act mentioned in this subdivision was uninten-23 tional or not willful.

24 c. The certificate of the commissioner of finance to the effect that a 25 tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that infor-

27 shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

28 § 11-1616 Return to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 29 judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful

33 to inspect any return or to whom a copy, an abstract or a portion of any 34 return is furnished, or to whom any information contained in any return 35 is furnished, to divulge or make known in any manner any information 36 contained in or relating to any return required under this chapter. The 37 officers charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required 38 to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any 39 action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner 40 of finance in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chap-41 ter, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the 42 provisions of this chapter, when the returns or facts shown thereby are 43 directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which 44 events the court may require the production of, and may admit in 45 evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are 46 pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. Nothing under this 47 subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or 48 such taxpayer's duly authorized representative of a certified copy of 49 any return filed in connection with such taxpayer's tax; nor to prohibit 50 the delivery of such a certified copy of such return or of any informa-51 tion contained in or relating thereto, the United States of America or 52 any department thereof, to the state of New York or any department ther-53 eof, or to any agency or department of the city of Staten Island, 54 provided the same is requested for official business; nor to prohibit 55 the inspection for official business of such returns by the corporation 56 counsel or other legal representatives of the city or by the district

1 attorney of Richmond county; nor to prohibit the publication of statis-

15 envelope addressed to such person at the address given in the last 16 return filed by such person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter 17 or in any application made by such person or, if no return has been 18 filed or application made, then to such address as may be obtainable.
19 The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt 20 of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which 21 is determined according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving 22 of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

23 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other
24 law relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil reme-
25 dy shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to 26 levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax
27 or penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a 28 willfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no
29 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more 30 than three years from the date of the filing of a return; provided,
31 however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax 32 may be assessed at any time.

33 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed under this 34 section for assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented in 35 writing that such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax 36 due may be determined at any time within such extended period. The 37 period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in 38 writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

44 tax determined pursuant to section 11-1701 of this subchapter is based 45 on city taxable income over ninety thousand dollars, then the additional 46 tax shall be the sum of 5.25% of such tax on city taxable income up to 47 and including ninety thousand dollars and 12.25% of such tax on city 48 taxable income in excess of ninety thousand dollars.

13 11-1701 of this subchapter of every city resident estate and trust shall 14 be determined as follows: (A) If the tax determined pursuant to section 15 11-1701 of this subchapter is based on city taxable income equal to or 16 less than fifty thousand dollars, then the additional tax shall be 5.25% 17 of such tax; (B) If the tax determined pursuant to section 11-1701 of 18 this subchapter is based on city taxable income over fifty thousand

22 dollars.

23 (b) The additional tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be 24 administered, collected and distributed by the commissioner of taxation 25 and finance in the same manner as the other taxes imposed pursuant to 26 this chapter, and all of the provisions of this chapter, including 27 sections 11-1706, 11-1721 and 11-1773, shall apply to the additional tax 28 imposed by this section.

29 § 11-1705 General provisions and definitions. (a) Accounting periods 30 and methods. (1) Accounting periods. A taxpayer's taxable year under 31 this chapter shall be the same as his or her taxable year for federal 32 income tax purposes.

33 (2) Change of accounting periods. If a taxpayer's taxable year is 34 changed for federal income tax purposes, his or her taxable year for 35 purposes of this chapter shall be similarly changed. If a taxable year 36 of less than twelve months results from a change of taxable year, the 37 city standard deduction and the city exemptions shall be prorated under 38 regulations of the tax commission.

39 (3) Accounting methods. A taxpayer's method of accounting under this 40 chapter shall be the same as his or her method of accounting for federal 41 income tax purposes. In the absence of any method of accounting for 42 federal income tax purposes, city taxable income shall be computed under 43 such method as in the opinion of the tax commission clearly reflects 44 income.

45 (4) Change of accounting methods. (A) If a taxpayer's method of 46 accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, his or her method 47 of accounting for purposes of this chapter shall be similarly changed.

48 (B) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed, other than from 49 an accrual to an installment method, any additional tax which results 50 from adjustments determined to be necessary solely by reason of the 51 change shall not be greater than if such adjustments were ratably allo-
52 cated and included for the taxable year of the change and the preceding 53 taxable years, not in excess of two, during which the taxpayer used the 54 method of accounting from which the change is made.

55 (C) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed from an accrual to 56 an installment method, any additional tax for the year of such change of

1 method and for any subsequent year which is attributable to the receipt 2 of installment payments properly accrued in a prior year, shall be 3 reduced by the portion of tax for any prior taxable year attributable to 4 the accrual of such installment payments, in accordance with regulations 5 of the tax commission.

6 (b) City resident and city nonresident defined. (1) City resident 7 individual. A city resident individual means an individual:

8 (A) who is domiciled in this city, unless (i) the taxpayer maintains 9 no permanent place of abode in this city, maintains a permanent place of 10 abode elsewhere, and spends in the aggregate not more than thirty days 11 of the taxable year in this city, or (ii) (I) within any period of five 12 hundred forty-eight consecutive days the taxpayer is present in a 13 foreign country or countries for at least four hundred fifty days, and 14 (II) during the period of five hundred forty-eight consecutive days the 15 taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, unless such spouse is legally sepa-16 rated, and the taxpayer's minor children are not present in this city 17 for more than ninety days, and (III) during any period of less than 18 twelve months, which would be treated as a separate taxable period 19 pursuant to section 11-1754 of this chapter, and which period is 20 contained within the period of five hundred forty-eight consecutive 21 days, the taxpayer is present in this city for a number of days which 22 does not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to ninety as the 23 number of days contained in that period of less than twelve months bears 24 to five hundred forty-eight, or

25 (B) who maintains a permanent place of abode in this city and spends 26 in the aggregate more than one hundred eighty-three days of the taxable 27 year in this city, whether or not domiciled in this city for any portion 28 of the taxable year, unless such individual is in active service in the 29 armed forces of the United States.

30 (2) City nonresident individual. A city nonresident individual means 31 an individual who is not a city resident.

32 (3) City resident estate or trust. A city resident estate or trust 33 means:

34 (A) the estate of a decedent who at his or her death was domiciled in 35 this city,

36 (B) a trust, or a portion of a trust, consisting of property trans-37 ferred by will of a decedent who at his or her death was domiciled in 38 this city, or

39 (C) a trust, or portion of a trust, consisting of the property of:

40 (i) a person domiciled in this city at the time such property was 41 transferred to the trust, if such trust or portion of a trust was then 42 irrevocable, or if it was then revocable and has not subsequently become 43 irrevocable; or

44 (ii) a person domiciled in this city at the time such trust, or 45 portion of a trust, became irrevocable, if it was revocable when such 46 property was transferred to the trust but has subsequently become irrev-47 ocable.

48 For the purposes of this paragraph, a trust or portion of a trust is 49 revocable if it is subject to a power, exercisable immediately or at any 50 future time, to revest title in the person whose property constitutes 51 such trust or portion of a trust, and a trust or portion of a trust
52 becomes irrevocable when the possibility that such power may be exer-
53 cised has been terminated.

54 (D) (i) Provided, however, a resident trust is not subject to tax 55 under this article if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

56 (I) all the trustees are domiciled outside the city of New York; (II)

1 the entire corpus of the trusts, including real and tangible property,
2 is located outside the city of New York; and (III) all income and gains 3 of the trust are derived from or connected with sources outside of the 4 city of New York, determined as if the trust were a non-resident trust.

5 (ii) For purposes of item (II) of clause (i) of this subparagraph, 6 intangible property shall be located in this city if one or more of the 7 trustees are domiciled in the city of New York.

8 (iii) Provided further, that for the purposes of item (I) of clause 9 (i) of this subparagraph, a trustee which is a banking corporation as 10 defined in subdivision (a) of section 11-640 of this title and which is 11 domiciled outside the city of New York at the time it becomes a trustee 12 of the trust shall be deemed to continue to be a trustee domiciled 13 outside the city of New York notwithstanding that it thereafter other-14 wise becomes a trustee domiciled in the city of New York by virtue of 15 being acquired by, or becoming an office or branch of, a corporate trust-16 tee domiciled within the city of New York.

17 For the purposes of this subparagraph, a trust or portion of a trust 18 is revocable if it is subject to a power, exercisable immediately or at 19 any future time, to revest title in the person whose property consti-20 tutes such trust or portion of a trust, and a trust or portion of a 21 trust becomes irrevocable when the possibility that such power may be 22 exercised has been terminated.

23 (4) City nonresident estate or trust. A city nonresident estate or 24 trust means an estate or trust which is not a city resident estate or 25 trust.

26 (5) Cross reference. For effect of a change of resident status, see 27 section 11-1754 of this chapter.

28 § 11-1706 Credits against tax. (a) Credit relating to net capital 29 gain. For taxable years beginning in nineteen hundred eighty-seven, a 30 credit against the tax imposed under section 11-1701 of this subchapter 31 shall be allowed. The amount of the credit shall be one-half of one 32 percent of net capital gain includible in city adjusted gross income for 33 the taxable year. The credit allowed by this subdivision shall not 34 exceed the tax imposed by section 11-1701 of this subchapter reduced by 35 the credits permitted under section 11-1721 of this chapter and subdivi-36 sion (b) of this section.

37 (b) Household credit. (1) For taxable years beginning after nineteen 38 hundred eighty-six, a credit against the city personal income tax 39 imposed by section 11-1701 of this subchapter shall be allowed. The 40 credit, computed as described in paragraph two of this subdivision, 41 shall not exceed the tax imposed by section 11-1701 of this subchapter, 42 reduced by the credit permitted under section 11-1721 of this chapter.

43 (2) (A) For any individual who is not married nor the head of a house-44 hold nor a surviving spouse, the amount of the credit shall be deter-45 mined in accordance with the following table:

6 (B) For any husband and wife, head of household or surviving spouse, 7 the amount of the credit shall be determined by multiplying the number 8 of exemptions for which the taxpayer, or in the case of a husband and 9 wife, taxpayers, is entitled to a deduction for the taxable year for 10 federal income tax purposes under subsections (b) and (c) of section one 11 hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code by the credit factor for 12 the taxable year as specified in the following table:

32 (3) For purposes of this subdivision:

33 (A) "Household gross income" shall mean the aggregate federal adjusted 34 gross income of a household, as the term household is defined in subpar-35 agraph (B) of this paragraph, for the taxable year.

36 (B) "Household" means a husband and wife, a head of household, a 37 surviving spouse, or an individual who is not married nor the head of a 38 household nor a surviving spouse nor a taxpayer with respect to whom a 39 deduction under subsection (c) of section one hundred fifty-one of the 40 internal revenue code is allowable to another taxpayer for the taxable 41 year.

42 (C) "Household gross income of a husband and wife" shall be the aggre-43 gate of their federal adjusted gross incomes for the taxable year irre-44 spective of whether joint or separate city income tax returns are filed.
 45 Provided, however, that a husband or wife who is required to file a 46 separate city income tax return shall be permitted one-half the credit 47 otherwise allowed his or her household, except as limited by paragraph 48 one of this subdivision.

49 (D) "Household gross income" shall be computed in all cases as if each 50 member of the household were a resident for the entire taxable year.

(E) If a taxpayer changes his or her status during his or her taxable year from resident to nonresident, or from nonresident to resident, the household credit shall be prorated according to the number of months in the period of residence. In the case of a husband and wife, if either or both changes his or her status from resident to nonresident or from nonresident to resident and separate returns are filed, the credit computed for the entire year shall be divided first as provided in subparagraph (C) of this paragraph and then prorated according to the number of months in the period of residence.

(c) State school tax reduction credit.

(1) For taxable years beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-seven and ending before two thousand sixteen, a state school tax reduction credit shall be allowed as provided in the following tables. The credit shall be allowed against the taxes authorized by this article reduced by the credits permitted by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess. For purposes of this subdivision, no credit shall be granted to an individual with respect to whom a deduction under subsection (c) of section one hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code is allowable to another taxpayer for the taxable year.

(2) The amount of the credit under this paragraph shall be determined based upon the taxpayer's income as defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision four of section four hundred twenty-five of the real property tax law. For purposes of this paragraph, any taxpayer under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph with income of more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars shall not receive a credit.

Beginning in the two thousand ten tax year and each tax year thereafter through two thousand fifteen, the "more than two hundred fifty thousand dollar" income limitation shall be adjusted by applying the inflation factor set forth herein, and rounding each result to the nearest multiple of one hundred dollars. The department shall establish the income limitation to be associated with each subsequent tax year by applying the inflation factor set forth herein to the figures that define the income limitation that were applicable to the preceding tax year, as determined pursuant to this subdivision, and rounding each result to the nearest multiple of one hundred dollars. Such determination shall be made no later than March first, two thousand ten and each year thereafter.

(A) Married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses. In the case of a husband and wife who make a single return jointly and of a surviving spouse:

For taxable years beginning:	The credit shall be:
in 2001-2005	$125
in 2006	$230
in 2007-2008	$290
in 2009-2015	$125

(B) All others. In the case of an unmarried individual, a head of a household or a married individual filing a separate return:

For taxable years beginning:	The credit shall be:
in 2001-2005	$62.50
in 2006	$115
in 2007-2008	$145
in 2009-2015	$62.50

1 (4) Husband and wife who make a joint return. If a husband and wife 2 make a single return jointly, the credit under this subdivision shall be 3 determined under paragraph two of this subdivision, if either of them 4 has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the close of the taxable 5 year.

6 (5) Part-year residents. If a taxpayer changes status during the taxa-7 ble year from resident to nonresident, or from nonresident to resident, 8 the state school tax reduction credit shall be prorated according to the 9 number of months in the period of residence.

10 (c) Credit for unincorporated business taxes paid. (1) A city resident 11 individual, estate or trust whose city adjusted gross income includes 12 income, gain, loss or deductions from one or more unincorporated busi-13 nesses conducted by such city resident individual, estate or trust that 14 are subject to the tax imposed by chapter five of this title, or a 15 distributive share of income, gain, loss and deductions of, or guaran-16 teed payments from, one or more partnerships that are subject to the tax 17 imposed by such chapter, shall be allowed a credit as provided in para-18 graph two of this subdivision against the tax otherwise due under 19 sections 11-1701, 11-1703, 11-1704 and 11-1704.1 of this subchapter.

20 (2) (A) Subject to the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) of 21 this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable year
22 under this subdivision shall be determined as follows:

23 (i) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, nineteen 24 hundred ninety-seven and before January first, two thousand seven:

25 (I) If the city taxable income is forty-two thousand dollars or less, 26 the credit shall be sixty-five percent of the amount determined in para-27 graph three of this subdivision.

28 (II) If the city taxable income is greater than forty-two thousand 29 dollars but not greater than one hundred forty-two thousand dollars, the 30 amount of the credit shall be a percentage of the amount determined in 31 paragraph three of this subdivision, such percentage to be determined by 32 subtracting from sixty-five percent, one-tenth of a percentage point 33 (.001) for every increment of two hundred dollars, or fractional part 34 thereof, of city taxable income in excess of forty-two thousand dollars.

35 (III) If the city taxable income is greater than one hundred forty-two 36 thousand dollars, the credit shall be fifteen percent of the amount 37 determined in paragraph three of this subdivision.

38 (ii) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-39 sand seven:

40 (I) If the city taxable income is forty-two thousand dollars or less, 41 the credit shall be one hundred percent of the amount determined in 42 paragraph three of this subdivision.

43 (II) If the city taxable income is greater than forty-two thousand 44 dollars but less than one hundred forty-two thousand dollars, the amount 45 of the credit shall be a percentage of the amount determined in para-46 graph three of this subdivision, such percentage to be determined by 47 subtracting from one hundred percent, a percentage determined by 48 subtracting forty-two thousand dollars from city taxable income, divid-49 ing the result by one hundred thousand dollars and multiplying by seven-50 ty-seven percent.

51 (III) If the city taxable income is one hundred forty-two thousand 52 dollars or greater, the credit shall be twenty-three percent of the 53 amount determined in paragraph three of this subdivision.

54 (B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subparagraph (A) of 55 this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable year 56 under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the taxes that would

1 otherwise be imposed by sections 11-1701, 11-1703, 11-1704 and 11-1704.1 2 of this subchapter on such taxpayer for such taxable year after the 3 allowance of any other credits allowed by this section or section
4 11-1721 of this chapter.

5 (3) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, 6 the amount determined in this paragraph is the sum of:

7 (A) for each unincorporated business conducted by the taxpayer, the 8 tax imposed by chapter five of this title on such unincorporated busi-9 ness for its taxable year ending with the taxable year of the taxpayer 10 and paid by the unincorporated business; and 11 (B) for each unincorporated business in which the taxpayer is a part-12 ner, the product of:

13 (i) the sum of (I) the tax imposed by chapter five of this title on 14 such unincorporated business for its taxable year ending within or with 15 the taxable year of the partner and paid by the unincorporated business
16 and (II) the amount of any credit or credits taken by the unincorporated 17 business under subdivision (j) of section 11-503 of this title for its 18 taxable year ending within or with the taxable year of the partner; and 19 (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the net total of the part-20 ner's distributive share of income, gain, loss and deductions of, and 21 guaranteed payments from, the unincorporated business for such taxable 22 year, and the denominator of which is the sum, for such taxable year, of 23 the net total distributive shares of income, gain, loss and deductions 24 of, and guaranteed payments to, all partners in the unincorporated busi-25 ness for whom or which such net total, as separately determined for each 26 partner, is greater than zero.

27 (C) For a taxpayer that changes its status from a city resident to a 28 city nonresident or from a city nonresident to a city resident during 29 the taxable year:

30 (i) the amount determined in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall 31 be, with respect to each unincorporated business conducted by the 32 taxpayer, the tax imposed by chapter five of this title on such unincor-33 porated business for its taxable year ending with the taxable year of 34 the taxpayer and paid by the unincorporated business, multiplied by a 35 fraction, the numerator of which is that portion of the income, gain, 36 loss and deductions of the unincorporated business included in the 37 taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the portion of the taxable year 38 during which the taxpayer was a city resident, and the denominator of 39 which is the total, for such taxable year, of the income, gain, loss and 40 deductions of the unincorporated business, and

41 (ii) the amount determined in clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) of this 42 paragraph shall be a fraction, the numerator of which is that portion of 43 the taxpayer's net total distributive share of income, gain, loss and 44 deductions of, and that portion of guaranteed payments from, the unin-45 corporated business included in the taxpayer's city adjusted gross 46 income for the portion of the taxable year during which the taxpayer was 47 a city resident, and the denominator of which is the sum, for such tax-48 able year, of the net total distributive shares of income, gain, loss and 49 deductions of, and guaranteed payments to, all partners in the unincor-50 porated business, for whom or which such net total, as separately deter-51 mined for each partner, is greater than zero.

52 (4) For purposes of subdivision (c) of section 11-1902 of this title, 53 in determining the amount of tax that a nonresident would be required to 54 pay if such nonresident were a resident of the city and subject to the 55 tax on personal income of residents, the credit allowed by this subdivi-56 sion shall be taken into account.

1 (d) Earned income tax credit. (1) For taxable years beginning after 2 two thousand three, a credit against the city personal income tax shall 3 be allowed, equal to five percent of the earned income credit allowed 4 under section thirty-two of the internal revenue code for the same taxa-5 ble year, and, for taxable years beginning after two thousand twenty-6 one, a credit against the city personal income tax shall be allowed, 7 equal to a percentage determined pursuant to subparagraphs (A) through 8 (I) of this paragraph, of the earned income credit allowed under section 9 thirty-two of the internal revenue code for the same taxable year. For 10 purposes of this paragraph, "adjusted gross income" means New York 11 adjusted gross income as determined pursuant to article twenty-two of 12 the tax law. The percentage shall be:

13 (A) thirty percent, where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for 14 such taxable year is less than five thousand dollars;

15 (B) thirty percent reduced by the product of two-tenths of a percent-16 age point (0.002) and the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income 17 for such taxable year in excess of four thousand nine hundred ninety-18 nine dollars, where such taxpayer's adjusted gross income for such taxa-19 ble year is equal to or greater than five thousand dollars and less than 20 seven thousand five hundred dollars;

21 (C) twenty-five percent, where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income 22 for such taxable year is equal to or greater than seven thousand five 23 hundred dollars and less than fifteen thousand dollars;

24 (D) twenty-five percent reduced by the product of two-tenths of a 25 percentage point (0.002) and the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted gross 26 income for such taxable year in excess of fourteen thousand nine hundred 27 ninety-nine dollars, where such taxpayer's adjusted gross income for 28 such taxable year is equal to or greater than fifteen thousand dollars 29 and less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars;

30 (E) twenty percent, where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for 31 such taxable year is equal to or greater than seventeen thousand five 32 hundred dollars and less than twenty thousand dollars;

33 (F) twenty percent reduced by the product of two-tenths of a percent-34 age point (0.002) and the amount of such taxpayer's adjusted gross 35 income for such taxable year in excess of nineteen thousand nine hundred 36 ninety-nine dollars, where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for such 37 taxable year is equal to or greater than twenty thousand dollars and 38 less than twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars;

39 (G) fifteen percent, where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for 40 such taxable year is equal to or greater than twenty-two thousand five 41 hundred dollars and less than forty thousand dollars;

42 (H) fifteen percent reduced by the product of two-tenths of a percent-43 age point (0.002) and the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income 44 for such taxable year in excess of thirty-nine thousand nine hundred 45 ninety-nine dollars, where such taxpayer's adjusted gross income for 46 such taxable year is equal to or greater than forty thousand dollars and 47 less than forty-two thousand five hundred dollars; and 48 (I) ten percent where the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for such 49 taxable year is equal to or greater than forty-two thousand five hundred 50 dollars.

51 (2) In the case of a resident taxpayer, the credit provided by this 52 subdivision shall be allowed against the taxes authorized by this chap-53 ter for the taxable year reduced by the credits permitted by this chap-54 ter. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may 55 receive, and the state comptroller, subject to a certificate of the 1 commissioner of the state department of taxation and finance, shall pay 2 as an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess.

3 (3) If a taxpayer changes his or her status during the taxable year
4 from city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city 5 resident, the credit determined under this subdivision shall be limited 6 to the amount determined by multiplying the amount of such credit by a 7 fraction, the numerator of which is such taxpayer's city adjusted gross 8 income, for the period of residence, and the denominator of which is 9 such taxpayer's city adjusted gross income determined as if he or she 10 were a city resident for the entire taxable year. City adjusted gross 11 income shall be adjusted as provided in section 11-1754 of this chapter.
12 The credit as so limited shall be applied as provided in paragraph two 13 of this subdivision.

14 (4) Subject to the provisions of paragraph three of this subdivision, 15 in the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return, but who are 16 required to determine their city personal income taxes separately, the 17 credit authorized pursuant to this subdivision may be applied against 18 the tax of either or divided between them as they may elect. In the case 19 of a husband and wife who are not required to file a federal return, the 20 credit under this subsection shall be allowed only if such taxpayers 21 file a joint city personal income tax return.

22 (5) If the state commissioner of taxation and finance determines that 23 the taxpayer is eligible to receive the credit provided under this 24 subdivision but has not claimed such credit on his or her return, the 25 state commissioner of taxation and finance shall compute and issue any 26 refund for the allowable credit amount provided under this subdivision.
27 Any refund paid pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to be a 28 refund of an overpayment of tax as provided in section 11-1786 of this 29 chapter, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

30 (e) Credit for certain household and dependent care services necessary 31 for gainful employment. (1) For taxable years beginning on or after 32 January first, two thousand seven, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit 33 as provided herein equal to the applicable percentage of the credit 34 allowed under subsection (c) of section six hundred six of the tax law 35 with respect to qualifying individuals as defined in paragraph one of 36 subsection (b) of section twenty-one of the internal revenue code, with-37 out regard to whether the taxpayer in fact claimed the credit under such 38 section twenty-one for the taxable year, who are dependents of the 39 taxpayer and who have not attained the age of four as of the end of the 40 taxable year. The applicable percentage shall be determined as follows:

41 (A) If household gross income as defined in subparagraph (A) of para-42 graph three of subdivision (b) of this section is twenty-five thousand 43 dollars or less, the applicable percentage shall be seventy-five 44 percent.

45 (B) If such household gross income is greater than twenty-five thou-46 sand dollars but not greater than thirty thousand dollars, the applica-47 ble percentage shall be seventy-five percent multiplied by one minus a 48 fraction, the numerator of which is such household gross income less 49 twenty-five thousand dollars and the denominator of which is five thou-50 sand dollars.

51 (C) If such household gross income is greater than thirty thousand 52 dollars, the applicable percentage shall be zero.

53 (2) The credit under this subdivision shall be allowed against the 54 taxes imposed by this chapter reduced by the credits permitted by this 55 chapter. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may 56 receive, and the state comptroller, subject to the certificate of the 1 state commissioner of taxation and finance, shall pay as an overpayment, 2 without interest, the amount of such excess, provided, however, in the 3 case of a taxpayer who is a part-year resident of New York city any such 4 overpayment under this paragraph shall be limited to the amount of such 5 excess multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is federal 6 adjusted gross income for the period of residence, computed as if the 7 taxable year for federal income tax purposes were limited to the period 8 of residence, and the denominator of which is federal adjusted gross 9 income for the taxable year.

10 (3) In the case of a husband and wife who filed a joint federal 11 return, but who are required to determine their New York city taxes 12 separately, the credit allowed pursuant to this subdivision may only be 13 applied against the tax imposed on the spouse with the lower taxable 14 income, computed without regard to such credit, provided, however, if 15 the spouse with the lower taxable income is a nonresident of the city, 16 no credit shall be allowed under this subdivision. In the case of a 17 husband and wife who are not required to file a federal return, the 18 credit under this subdivision shall be allowed only if such taxpayers 19 file a joint New York city income tax return.

20 (f) Credit for general corporation tax paid. (1) A city resident indi-21 vidual, estate or trust whose city adjusted gross income includes a pro 22 rata share of income, loss and deductions described in paragraph one of 23 subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred sixty-six of the internal 24 revenue code, from one or more New York S corporations as defined in 25 subdivision one-A of section two hundred eight of the tax law, or from 26 one or more QSSSSs as defined in subdivision one-B of section two hundred 27 eight of the tax law, that are exempt QSSSSs by reason of clause (A) of 28 subparagraph one of paragraph (k) of subdivision nine of section two 29 hundred eight of the tax law, on which a tax is imposed by subchapter 30 two of chapter six of this title, shall be allowed a credit as provided 31 in paragraph two of this subdivision against the tax otherwise due under 32 sections 11-1701, 11-1703, 11-1704 and 11-1704.1 of this chapter.

33 (2) (A) Subject to the limitations set forth in subparagraphs (B) and 34 (C) of this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable 35 year under this subdivision shall be determined as follows:

36 (i) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-37 sand fourteen and before July first, two thousand nineteen:

38 (I) If the city taxable income is thirty-five thousand dollars or 39 less, the amount of the credit shall be one hundred percent of the 40 amount determined in paragraph three of this subdivision.

41 (II) If the city taxable income is greater than thirty-five thousand 42 dollars but less than one hundred thousand dollars, the amount of the 43 credit shall be a percentage of the amount determined in paragraph three 44 of this subdivision, such percentage to be determined by subtracting 45 from one hundred percent, a percentage determined by subtracting thir-46 ty-five thousand dollars from city taxable income, dividing the result 47 by sixty-five thousand dollars and multiplying by one hundred percent.

48 (III) If the city taxable income is one hundred thousand dollars or 49 greater, no credit shall be allowed.

50 (IV) Provided further that for any taxable year of a taxpayer for 51 which this credit is effective that encompasses days occurring after 52 June thirtieth, two thousand nineteen, the amount of the credit deter-53 mined in item (I) or (II) of this clause shall be multiplied by a frac-54 tion, the numerator of which is the number of days in the taxpayer's 55 taxable year occurring on or before June thirtieth, two thousand nine-

1 teen, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the taxpay-2 er's taxable year.

3 (B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subparagraph (A) of 4 this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable year
5 under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the taxes that would 6 otherwise be imposed by sections 11-1701, 11-1703, 11-1704 and 11-1704.1 7 of this subchapter on such taxpayer for such taxable year after the 8 allowance of any other credits allowed by subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) 9 of this section, and section 11-1721 of this chapter.

10 (C) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subparagraph (A) of 11 this paragraph, no credit shall be allowed for any amount of tax 12 imposed, or credit allowed, by subchapter two of chapter six of this 13 title on, or to, a combined group of corporations including a New York S 14 corporation or an exempt QSSS, except where the combined group consists 15 exclusively of one or more New York S corporations and one or more 16 exempt QSSSs of such corporations as described in paragraph one of this 17 subdivision, provided that each of the New York S corporations included 18 in the group is wholly owned by the same interests and in the same 19 proportions as each other New York S corporation included in the group.

20 (3) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph 21 and subparagraph (C) of paragraph two of this subdivision, the amount 22 determined in this paragraph is the sum of the taxpayer's pro rata share 23 of the amounts determined in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph for each 24 New York S corporation, or exempt QSSS, described in paragraph one of 25 this subdivision, a pro rata share of whose income, loss and deductions 26 described in paragraph one of subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred 27 sixty-six of the internal revenue code, is included in the taxpayer's 28 city adjusted gross income.

29 (A) The amount determined in this subparagraph is the sum of:

30 (i) the taxes imposed by subchapter two of chapter six of this title 31 on such corporation, or a combined group including such corporation, for 32 its taxable year ending within or with the taxable year of the taxpayer 33 and paid by such corporation, or combined group; and 34 (ii) the amount of any credit or credits taken by such corporation, or 35 a combined group including such corporation, under subdivision eighteen 36 of section 11-604 of this title for its taxable year ending within or 37 with the taxable year of the taxpayer.

38 (B) For purposes of this subdivision, the taxpayer's pro rata share of 39 the amount in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph for the taxable year 40 shall be the amount determined with respect to the taxpayer:

41 (i) by assigning an equal portion of the amount in subparagraph (A) of 42 this paragraph to each day of the corporation's taxable year on which 43 the corporation has shares outstanding,

44 (ii) then by dividing that portion pro rata among the shares outstand-45 ing on that day; provided, however,

46 (iii) if the taxable year of such corporation for purposes of chapter 47 six of this title is different from its New York S year or S short year 48 as defined in subdivision one-A of section two hundred eight of the tax 49 law, only those portions that are assigned to days of the taxable year 50 that are also days of the New York S year or S short year shall be taken 51 into account in determining the shareholder's pro rata share of the 52 amount determined in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

53 (g) Credit for city pass-through entity tax. (1) A taxpayer who is a 54 partner or member of an electing city partnership and a taxpayer share-55 holder of an electing city resident S corporation subject to tax under 56 article twenty-four-B of the tax law shall be entitled to a credit

1 against the tax imposed by such article. For purposes of this subdivi-
2 sion, the terms "electing city partnership," "electing city resident S 3 corporation," "city pass-through entity tax," and "direct share of city 4 pass-through entity tax" shall have the same meanings as used in article 5 twenty-four-B of the tax law.

6 (2) The amount of the credit shall be equal to the partner's, member's 7 or shareholder's direct share of the city pass-through entity tax.

8 (3) If a taxpayer is a partner, member or shareholder in more than one 9 electing city partnership and/or electing city resident S corporation 10 that is subject to tax pursuant to article twenty-four-B of the tax law, 11 the amount of the credit of such taxpayer shall be equal to the sum of 12 the amounts of such credits calculated pursuant to paragraph two of this 13 subdivision with regard to each entity in which such taxpayer has a 14 direct ownership interest.

15 (4) If the amount of the credit allowable pursuant to this subdivision 16 for any taxable year exceeds the tax due for such year pursuant to arti-17 cle twenty-four-B of the tax law, the excess amount shall be treated as 18 an overpayment, to be credited or refunded, without interest.

19 (5) Limitation on credit. No credit shall be allowed to a taxpayer 20 under this subdivision unless the electing city partnership or electing 21 city resident S corporation provided sufficient information to identify 22 such taxpayer on its city pass-through entity tax return as required 23 under paragraph two of subsection (c) of section eight hundred seventy-24 two of the tax law for an electing city partnership or paragraph two of 25 subsection (d) of section eight hundred seventy-two of the tax law for 26 an electing city resident S corporation. The credit allowed to a taxpay-27 er under this subdivision shall not exceed the direct share of city 28 pass-through entity tax reported by such electing city partnership or 29 electing city resident S corporation attributable to such taxpayer on 30 such electing city partnership's or such electing city resident S corpo-31 ration's return filed pursuant to section eight hundred seventy-two of 32 the tax law.

33 § 11-1707 Meaning of terms. (a) General. Any term used in this chap-34 ter shall have the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in 35 the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, unless a 36 different meaning is clearly required but such meaning shall be subject 37 to the exceptions or modifications prescribed in this chapter or by 38 statute. Any reference in this chapter to the laws of the United States 39 shall mean the provisions of the internal revenue code of nineteen 40 hundred eighty-six, unless a reference to the internal revenue code of 41 nineteen hundred fifty-four is clearly intended, and amendments thereto, 42 and other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to feder-43 al income taxes, as the same may be or become effective at any time or 44 from time to time for the taxable year, as included and quoted in the 45 appendices, including any supplements and additions thereto, to this 46 chapter. Provided however, for taxable years beginning before January 47 first, two thousand twenty-two, any amendments made to the internal 48 revenue code of nineteen hundred eighty-six after March first, two thou-49 sand twenty shall not apply to this chapter. Such quotation of the 50 aforesaid laws of the United States is intended to make them a part of 51 this chapter and to avoid constitutional uncertainties which might 52 result if such laws were merely incorporated by reference. The quotation 53 of a provision of the internal revenue code or of any other law of the 54 United States in such appendices shall not necessarily mean that it is 55 applicable or has relevance to this chapter.

1 (b) Marital or other status. An individual's marital or other status 2 under section 11-1701 of this chapter and section 11-1714 of this chap-3 ter shall be the same as his or her marital or other status for purposes 4 of establishing the applicable federal income tax rates.

5 (c) "City" and "this city" as used in this chapter means the city of 6 Staten Island; "tax commission" as used in this chapter means the tax 7 commission of the state of New York; and "state" or "this state" as used 8 in this chapter means the state of New York.

26 (B) separate taxes may be determined on their separate city taxable 27 incomes if they both so elect.

28 (4) If either husband or wife is a resident and the other is a nonres-29 ident, a separate tax shall be determined on the city taxable income of 30 the resident spouse on a separate form unless such husband and wife 31 determine their federal taxable income jointly and both elect to deter-32 mine their joint city taxable income as if both were residents.

33 § 11-1712 City adjusted gross income of a city resident individual.

34 (a) General. The city adjusted gross income of a city resident indi-

53 S corporation, with respect to taxes imposed upon or payable by the 54 corporation, the term "income taxes" in subparagraph (A) of this para-

1 graph shall also include the tax imposed under article nine-A of the tax 2 law, regardless of the measure of such tax, but shall not otherwise 3 include taxes imposed by this or any other state of the United States, 4 or any political subdivision of this or any other state, or the District 12 chapter, or (ii) the management, conservation or maintenance of property 13 held for the production of such income, and the amortizable bond premium 14 for the taxable year on any bond the interest on which is exempt from 15 tax under this chapter, to the extent that such expenses and premiums

31 such taxpayer's taxable year. In the case of a taxpayer on whose behalf 32 contributions are paid under more than one plan to which this paragraph 33 applies or under a plan, contributions to which on his or her behalf are 34 subject to the limitations provided in subsection (e) of section four 35 hundred four of the internal revenue code, this paragraph shall apply 50 additional mortgage recording taxes imposed by subdivision one-a of 51 section two hundred fifty-three of the tax law in determining federal 52 adjusted gross income for such taxable year.

53 (16) Unless the credit allowed pursuant to subsection (f) of section 54 six hundred six of the tax law is reflected in the computation of the 55 gain or loss so as to result in an increase in such gain or decrease in 56 such loss, for federal income tax purposes, from the sale or other

1 disposition of the property with respect to which the special additional 2 mortgage recording tax imposed pursuant to subdivision one-a of section 3 two hundred fifty-three of such law was paid, the amount of the special 4 additional mortgage recording tax imposed by subdivision one-a of 5 section two hundred fifty-three of such law which was paid and which is 34 of the internal revenue code which represent income not previously 35 subject to tax under this chapter because the election provided for in 36 subsection (a) of section six hundred sixty of the tax law had not been 37 made. Any such distribution treated in the manner described in paragraph 38 two of subsection (b) of section thirteen hundred sixty-eight of the 22 designated as the amount of such interest income in a written notice to 23 shareholders not later than sixty days following the close of its taxa-

25 year of such regulated investment company, at least fifty percent of the 26 value of its total assets, as defined in subsection (c) of section eight 27 hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code, consists of obligations 28 of the United States and its possessions. The aggregate amount so desig-

30 exceed the amount determined by multiplying the total distributions paid 31 by such regulated investment company to its shareholders with respect to 32 that taxable year, attributable to income earned in that year, including 33 any such distributions paid after the close of the taxable year, as 34 described in section eight hundred fifty-five of the internal revenue 35 code, by the ratio that the interest income received in that taxable 36 year on obligations of the United States and its possessions, after 37 reduction for the deductions and expenses directly or indirectly attrib-38 utable thereto, bears to the investment company taxable income of such 39 regulated investment company for such taxable year, determined without

50 ca, any territory or possession or political subdivision of such terri-51 tory or possession, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instru-52 mentality of such, to the extent includible in gross income for federal 53 income tax purposes;

54 (3-a) Pensions and annuities received by an individual who has

2 of twenty thousand dollars, which are periodic payments attributable to 3 personal services performed by such individual prior to his or her 4 retirement from employment, which arise: (i) from an employer-employee

12 and one-half from self-employed individual and owner-employee retirement 13 plans which qualify under section four hundred one of the internal 20 modification provided for in this paragraph shall be computed as if they 21 were filing separate city personal income tax returns. Where a payment 22 would otherwise come within the meaning of the term "pensions and annui-23 ties" as set forth in this paragraph except that such individual is 24 deceased, such payment shall, nevertheless, be treated as a pension or 25 annuity for purposes of this paragraph if such payment is received by 26 such individual's beneficiary.

31 had such provisions continued in effect for taxable years commencing 32 after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-three as they were 33 in effect immediately prior to the repeal of such subsection. Notwith-

35 income excluded pursuant to this paragraph, and pension and annuity 36 income excluded pursuant to paragraph three-a of this subdivision, shall 37 not exceed twenty thousand dollars.

39 wife determine their federal income tax on a joint return but are 40 required to determine their city income taxes separately, the amounts of 42 determined in the same joint manner as such amounts would have been 43 determined under the provisions of paragraph five of subsection (d) of 44 section one hundred five of the internal revenue code as such provisions 45 were in effect immediately prior to the repeal of such subsection, but 46 shall be attributed for city income tax purposes to the spouse who would 47 have been required to report any such amount as income if the spouses 48 had determined their federal income taxes separately.

49 (iii) Where a husband and wife file a joint city income tax return, 50 the twenty thousand dollar limitation provided in subparagraph (i) of 51 this paragraph shall be applied as if they were filing separate city 52 income tax returns.

26 month the taxpayer was engaged in such service. For the purposes of 27 this paragraph, the words "active service in the armed forces of the 3 corporations. The amounts of modifications required to be made under 4 this section by a partner or by a shareholder of an S corporation, other 5 than an S corporation which is a New York C corporation, which relate to 6 partnership or S corporation items of income, gain, loss or deduction 7 shall be determined under section 11-1717 of this subchapter and, in the 8 case of a partner of a partnership doing an insurance business as 9 members of the New York insurance exchange described in section six 10 thousand two hundred one of the insurance law, under section 11-1717.1

11 of this subchapter.

12 (2) Shareholders of S corporations which are New York C corporations.
13 In the case of a shareholder of an S corporation which is a New York C 14 corporation, the modifications under this section which relate to the 15 corporation's items of income, loss and deduction shall not apply, 16 except for the modifications provided under paragraph nineteen of subdi-17 vision (b) and paragraph twenty-two of subdivision (c) of this section.

18 (3) New York S termination year. In the case of a New York S termi-19 nation year, the amounts of the modifications required under this 20 section which relate to the S corporation's items of income, loss, 21 deduction and reductions for taxes, as described in paragraphs two and 22 three of subsection (f) of section thirteen hundred sixty-six of the 23 internal revenue code, shall be adjusted in the same manner that the S 24 corporation's items are adjusted under subdivision (s) of this section.

25 (f) Husband and wife. If husband and wife determine their federal 26 income tax on a joint return but are required to determine their city 27 income taxes separately, they shall determine their city adjusted gross 28 incomes separately as if their federal adjusted gross incomes had been 29 determined separately.

30 (g) Optional modifications. Subject to the conditions provided in 31 paragraphs three and four of this subdivision, at the election of the 32 taxpayer there shall also be subtracted from federal adjusted gross 33 income either or both of the items set forth in paragraphs one and two 34 of this subdivision, except that only one of such items shall be 35 subtracted with respect to any one item of property, and except that a 36 subtraction of the item set forth in such paragraph two may not be taken 37 with respect to taxable years commencing on or after January first, 38 nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

39 (1) Depreciation with respect to any property such as described in 40 paragraph three or four of this subdivision, and subject to the condi-41 tions provided therein, not exceeding twice the depreciation allowed 42 with respect to the same property for federal income tax purposes. Such 43 modification shall be allowed only upon condition that any depreciation 44 or amortization allowed with respect to the same property in determining 45 federal adjusted gross income shall be added to federal adjusted gross 46 income pursuant to paragraph six of subdivision (b) of this section.
47 The total of all deductions allowed pursuant to this paragraph in any 48 taxable year or years with respect to any property described in para-49 graph three of this subdivision shall not exceed its cost or other basis 50 and, with respect to property described in paragraph four of this subdi-51 vision, which is used in a business carried on both within and without 52 the state shall not exceed its cost or other basis multiplied by a 53 percentage of the excess of the taxpayer's business income over its 54 business deductions allocated to this state for the first year such 55 depreciation is deducted. Such percentage shall be determined by appor-56 tionment and allocation under regulations of the tax commission.

1 (2) Expenditures paid or incurred during the taxable year for the 2 construction, reconstruction, erection or acquisition of any property 3 such as described in paragraph three or four of this subdivision, and 4 subject to the conditions provided therein, which is used or to be used 5 for purposes of research and development in the experimental or labora-6 tory sense. Such purposes shall not be deemed to include the ordinary 7 testing or inspection of materials or products for quality control, 8 efficiency surveys, management studies, consumer surveys, advertising, 9 promotions or research in connection with literary, historical or simi-10 lar projects. Such modification shall be allowed only on condition 11 that, with respect to property described in paragraph four of this 12 subdivision, which is used in a business carried on both within and 13 without the state the deduction shall not exceed the expenditures multi-14 plied by a percentage of the excess of the taxpayer's business income 15 over its business deductions allocated to this state for the first year 16 such expenditures are deducted. Such percentage shall be determined by 17 apportionment and allocation under regulations of the tax commission, 18 and for the taxable year and all succeeding taxable years, any 19 deductions allowed for federal income tax purposes on account of such 20 expenditures or on account of depreciation of the same property, except 21 to the extent that its basis may be attributable to factors other than 22 such expenditures, shall be added to federal adjusted gross income 23 pursuant to paragraph six of subdivision (b) of this section, or in case 24 a modification is allowable pursuant to this paragraph for only a part 25 of such expenditures, on condition that a proportionate part of any such 26 deductions allowed for federal income tax purposes be added to federal 27 adjusted gross income. With respect to property which is used or to be 28 used for research and development only in part, or during only part of 29 its useful life, the modification allowable pursuant to this paragraph 30 shall be limited to a proportionate part of the expenditures relating 31 thereto. If a modification shall have been allowed pursuant to this 32 paragraph for all or part of such expenditures with respect to any prop-33 erty, and such property is used for purposes other than research and 34 development to a greater extent than originally reported, the taxpayer 35 shall report such use in his or her return for the first taxable year 36 during which it occurs, and the tax commission may recompute the tax for 37 the year or years for which such deduction was allowed, and may assess 38 any additional tax resulting from such recomputation within the time 39 fixed by subdivision (c) of section 11-1783 of this chapter.

40 (3) For purposes of this paragraph, such modifications shall be 41 allowed only with respect to tangible property which is depreciable
42 pursuant to section one hundred sixty-seven of the internal revenue 43 code, having a situs in this state and used in the taxpayer's trade or 44 business: (A) constructed, reconstructed or erected after December thir-45 ty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, pursuant to a contract which 46 was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, 47 and at all times thereafter, binding on the taxpayer or, property, the 48 physical construction, reconstruction or erection of which began on or 49 before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven or which 50 began after such date pursuant to an order placed on or before December 51 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and then only with respect 52 to that portion of the basis thereof or the expenditures relating there-53 to which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction
54 or erection after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, 55 or (B) acquired after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-56 three, pursuant to a contract which was, on or before December thirty-

1 first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and at all times thereafter, bind-
2 ing on the taxpayer or pursuant to an order placed on or before December 3 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, by purchase as defined in 4 subsection (d) of section one hundred seventy-nine of the internal 5 revenue code, if the original use of such property commenced with the 6 taxpayer, commenced in this state and commenced after December thirty-7 first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, or (C) acquired, constructed, 8 reconstructed, or erected subsequent to December thirty-first, nineteen 9 hundred sixty-seven, if such acquisition, construction, reconstruction 10 or erection is pursuant to a plan of the taxpayer which was in existence 11 December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven and not thereafter 12 substantially modified, and such acquisition, construction, recon-13 struction or erection would qualify under the rules in paragraph four, 14 five or six of subdivision (h) of section forty-eight of the internal 15 revenue code provided all references in such paragraphs four, five and 16 six to the dates October nine, nineteen hundred sixty-six, and October 17 ten, nineteen hundred sixty-six, shall be read as December thirty-first, 18 nineteen hundred sixty-seven. A taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction 19 under clause (A), (B) or (C) of this paragraph only if the tangible 20 property shall be delivered or the construction, reconstruction or 21 erection shall be completed on or before December thirty-first, nineteen 22 hundred sixty-nine, except in the case of tangible property which is 23 acquired, constructed, reconstructed or erected pursuant to a contract
24 which was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-25 seven, and at all times thereafter, binding on the taxpayer. However, 26 for any taxable year beginning on or after January first, nineteen 27 hundred sixty-eight, a taxpayer shall not be allowed a modification 28 under paragraph one of this subdivision with respect to tangible 29 personal property leased to any other person or corporation, provided, 30 any contract or agreement to lease or rent or for a license to use such 31 property shall be considered a lease. With respect to property which a 32 taxpayer uses for purposes other than leasing for part of a taxable year 33 and leases for a part of a taxable year, a modification under paragraph 34 one of this subdivision shall be allowed in proportion to the part of 35 the year such property is used by the taxpayer.

36 (4) For purposes of this paragraph, such modifications shall be 37 allowed only with respect to tangible property which is depreciable
38 pursuant to section one hundred sixty-seven of the internal revenue 39 code, having a situs in this state and used in the taxpayer's trade or 40 business. The modifications provided for in paragraph one of this 41 subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to tangible property 42 which is: (A) constructed, reconstructed or erected after December thir-43 ty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, pursuant to a contract which 44 was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, 45 and at all times thereafter, binding on the taxpayer or, property, the 46 physical construction, reconstruction or erection of which began on or 47 before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight or which 48 began after such date pursuant to an order placed on or before December 49 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, and then only with respect
50 to that portion of the basis thereof or the expenditures relating there-
51 to which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction
52 or erection after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, 53 or (B) acquired after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-sev-54 en, pursuant to a contract which was, on or before December thirty-55 first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, and at all times thereafter, bind-
56 ing on the taxpayer or pursuant to an order placed on or before December

1 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, by purchase as defined in 2 section one hundred seventy-nine (d) of the internal revenue code, if 3 the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer, commenced 4 in this state and commenced after December thirty-first, nineteen 5 hundred sixty-seven, or (C) acquired, constructed, reconstructed, or 6 erected subsequent to December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-7 eight, if such acquisition, construction, reconstruction or erection is 8 pursuant to a plan of the taxpayer which was in existence December thir-9 ty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, and not thereafter substantially 10 modified, and such acquisition, construction, reconstruction or erection 11 would qualify under the rules in paragraph four, five or six of subdivi-12 sion (h) of section forty-eight of the internal revenue code provided 13 all references in such paragraphs four, five and six to the dates Octo-14 ber nine, nineteen hundred sixty-six, and October ten, nineteen hundred 15 sixty-six, shall be read as December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 16 sixty-eight. A taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction under clause (A), 17 (B) or (C) of the preceding sentence of this paragraph only if the 18 tangible property shall be delivered or the construction, reconstruction 19 or erection shall be completed on or before December thirty-first, nine-20 teen hundred seventy, except in the case of tangible property which is 21 acquired, constructed, reconstructed or erected pursuant to a contract
22 which was, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-
23 eight, and at all times thereafter binding on the taxpayer. The modifi-24 cation provided for in paragraph two of this subdivision shall be 25 allowed only with respect to tangible property: (A) the construction, 26 reconstruction or erection of which is completed after December thirty-27 first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and then only with respect to that 28 portion of the basis thereof or the expenditures relating thereto which 29 is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction or 30 erection after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, or 31 (B) acquired after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, 32 by purchase as defined in section one hundred seventy-nine (d) of the 33 internal revenue code, if the original use of such property commenced 34 with the taxpayer, commenced in this state and commenced after December 35 thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three. Provided, however, a 36 modification under paragraph one of this subdivision shall be allowed 37 with respect to property described in this paragraph only on condition 38 that such property shall be principally used by the taxpayer in the 39 production of goods by manufacturing; processing; assembling; refining;
40 mining; extracting; farming; agriculture; horticulture; floriculture;
41 viticulture; or commercial fishing. Manufacturing shall mean the proc-42 ess of working raw materials into wares suitable for use or which gives 43 new shapes, new qualities or new combinations to matter which already 44 has gone through some artificial process by the use of machinery, tools, 45 appliances and other similar equipment. Property used in the production 46 of goods shall include machinery, equipment or other tangible property 47 which is principally used in the repair and service of other machinery,
48 equipment or other tangible property used principally in the production 49 of goods and shall include all facilities used in the manufacturing 50 operation, including storage of material to be used in manufacturing and 51 of the products that are manufactured. At the option of the taxpayer, 52 air and water pollution control facilities which qualify for elective 53 deductions under subdivision (h) of this section may be treated, for 54 purposes of this paragraph, as tangible property principally used in the 55 production of goods by manufacturing; processing; assembling; refining;
56 mining; extracting; farming; agriculture; horticulture; floriculture;

1 viticulture; or commercial fishing, in which event, a deduction shall 2 not be allowed under such subdivision (h). However, for any taxable
3 year beginning on or after January first, nineteen hundred sixty-eight, 4 a taxpayer shall not be allowed a modification under paragraph one of 5 this subdivision with respect to tangible personal property leased to 6 any other person or corporation, provided, any contract or agreement to 7 lease or rent or for a license to use such property shall be considered 8 a lease. With respect to property which a taxpayer uses for purposes 9 other than leasing for part of a taxable year and leases for a part of a 10 taxable year, a modification under paragraph one of this subdivision 11 shall be allowed in proportion to the part of the year such property is 12 used by the taxpayer.

13 (5) If the modifications allowable for any taxable year pursuant to 14 this subdivision exceed the taxpayer's city adjusted gross income, 15 determined without the allowance of such modifications, the excess may 16 be carried over to the following taxable year or years and may be 17 subtracted from federal adjusted gross income for such year or years.

18 (6) In any taxable year when property is sold or otherwise disposed 19 of, with respect to which a modification has been allowed pursuant to 20 paragraph one or two of this subdivision, the basis of such property 21 shall be adjusted to reflect the modifications so allowed, and if the 22 basis as so adjusted is lower than the adjusted basis of the same prop-23 erty for federal income tax purposes, there shall be added to federal 24 adjusted gross income the amount of the difference between such adjusted 25 bases.

26 (h) Optional modification for waste treatment facility expenditures.
27 For taxable years commencing prior to January first, nineteen hundred 28 eighty-nine, at the election of the taxpayer, there shall also be 29 subtracted from federal adjusted gross income expenditures paid or 30 incurred during the taxable year for the construction, reconstruction, 31 erection or improvement of industrial waste treatment facilities and air 32 pollution control facilities.

33 (1)(A) The term "industrial waste treatment facilities" shall mean
34 facilities for the treatment, neutralization, or stabilization of indus-
35 trial waste, as the term "industrial waste" is defined in section
36 17-0105 of the environmental conservation law, from a point immediately
37 preceding the point of such treatment, neutralization or stabilization
38 to the point of disposal, including the necessary pumping and transmit-
39 ting facilities, but excluding such facilities installed for the primary 40 purpose of salvaging materials which are usable in the manufacturing 41 process or are marketable.

42 (B) The term "air pollution control facilities" shall mean facilities 43 which remove, reduce, or render less noxious air contaminants emitted 44 from an air contamination source, as the terms "air contaminant" and 45 "air contamination source" are defined in section 19-0107 of the envi-
46 ronmental conservation law, from a point immediately preceding the point 47 of such removal, reduction or rendering to the point of discharge of 48 air, meeting emission standards as established by the air pollution
49 control board, but excluding such facilities installed for the primary
50 purpose of salvaging materials which are usable in the manufacturing 51 process or are marketable and excluding those facilities which rely for 52 their efficacy on dilution, dispersion or assimilation of air contam-
53 inants in the ambient air after emission.

54 (2) Such modifications shall be allowed only:

55 (A) with respect to tangible property which is depreciable, pursuant 56 to section one hundred sixty-seven of the internal revenue code, having

1 a situs in this state and used in the taxpayer's trade or business, the 2 construction, reconstruction, erection or improvement of which, in the 3 case of industrial waste treatment facilities, is initiated on or after 4 January first, nineteen hundred sixty-five, or which, in the case of air 5 pollution control facilities, is initiated on or after January first, 6 nineteen hundred sixty-six, and 7 (B) on condition that such facilities have been certified by the 8 commissioner of environmental conservation or his or her designated 9 representative, in the same manner as provided for in section 17-0707 or 10 19-0309 of the environmental conservation law, as applicable, as comply-11 ing with the provisions of such environmental conservation law, the 12 state sanitary code and regulations, permits or orders promulgated 13 pursuant thereto, and

14 (C) on condition that for the taxable year and all succeeding taxable 15 years, any deductions allowed for federal income tax purposes for such 16 expenditures or for depreciation or amortization of the same property, 17 except to the extent that its basis may be attributable to factors other 18 than such expenditures, be added to federal adjusted gross income pursu-19 ant to paragraph five of subdivision (b) of this section, or in case a 20 modification is allowable pursuant to this paragraph for only a part of 21 such expenditures, on condition that a proportionate amount of any such 22 deductions allowed for federal income tax purposes be added to federal 23 adjusted gross income, and 24 (D) where the election provided for in subdivision (g) of this 25 section has not been exercised in respect to the same property.

26 (3)(A) If expenditures in respect to an industrial waste treatment 27 facility or an air pollution control facility have been allowed as a 28 modification as provided herein and if within ten years from the end of 29 the taxable year in which such modification was allowed such property or 30 any part thereof is used for the primary purpose of salvaging materials 31 which are usable in the manufacturing process or are marketable, the 32 taxpayer shall report such change of use in its return for the first 33 taxable year during which it occurs, and the tax commission may recom-34 pute the tax for the year or years for which such modification was 35 allowed, and may assess any additional tax resulting from such recompu-36 tation within the time fixed by paragraph eight of subdivision (c) of 37 section 11-1783 of this chapter.

38 (B) If a modification is allowed as herein provided for expenditures 39 paid or incurred during any taxable year on the basis of a temporary 40 certificate of compliance issued pursuant to the environmental conserva-
41 tion law, and if the taxpayer fails to obtain a permanent certificate of 42 compliance upon completion of the facilities with respect to which such 43 temporary certificate was issued, the taxpayer shall report such failure 44 in its report for the taxable year during which such facilities are 45 completed, and the tax commission may recompute the tax for the year or 46 years for which such modification was allowed, and may assess any addi-47 tional tax resulting from such recomputation within the time fixed by 48 paragraph eight of subdivision (c) of section 11-1783 of this chapter.

49 (C) If a modification is allowed as herein provided for expenditures 50 paid or incurred during any taxable year in respect to an air pollution 51 control facility on the basis of a certificate of compliance issued 52 pursuant to the environmental conservation law and the certificate is 53 revoked pursuant to section 19-0309 of the environmental conservation 54 law, the tax commission may recompute the tax for the year or years for 55 which the facility is not or was not in compliance with the applicable 56 provisions of the environmental conservation law, the state sanitary

1 code or codes, rules, regulations, permits or orders issued pursuant 2 thereto, and for which a modification was allowed, and may assess any 3 additional tax resulting from such recomputation within the time fixed 4 by paragraph eight of subdivision (c) of section 11-1783 of this chap-
 5 ter.

6 (4) In any taxable year when property is sold or otherwise disposed 7 of, with respect to which a modification has been allowed pursuant to 8 this paragraph, such modification shall be disregarded in computing gain 9 or loss, and the gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of such 10 property shall be the gain or loss entering into the computation of 11 federal adjusted gross income for such taxable year.

12 (i) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells and other natural depos-13 its, any allowance for percentage depletion pursuant to section six 14 hundred thirteen or section six hundred thirteen-A of the internal 15 revenue code, shall be added to federal adjusted gross income. However, 16 with respect to the property as to which such addition to federal 17 adjusted gross income is required, an allowance for depletion shall be 18 subtracted from federal adjusted gross income in the amount that would 19 be deductible under section six hundred eleven of such code if the 20 deduction for an allowance for depletion were computed without reference 21 to such section six hundred thirteen or section six hundred thirteen-A.
 22 With respect to the computation of depletion pursuant to this subdivi-23 sion, the basis for such computation shall be the basis for state income 24 tax purposes provided for in subsection (i) of section six hundred 25 twelve of the tax law. The portion of any gain from the sale or other 26 disposition of such property having a higher adjusted basis for city 27 income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not 28 exceed such difference in basis, shall be subtracted from federal 29 adjusted gross income.

30 (j) Modification for nonpublic school tuition. (1) General. An indi-31 vidual shall be entitled to subtract from his or her federal adjusted 32 gross income an amount shown in the table set forth in this paragraph 33 for his or her city adjusted gross income for the taxable year, computed 34 without the benefit of this modification, multiplied by the number of 35 his or her dependents, not exceeding three, attending a nonpublic school 36 on a full-time basis for at least four months during the regular school 37 year for the education of such dependent in grades one through twelve, 38 provided such individual is allowed an exemption under section 11-1716
 39 of this chapter for such dependent. Provided, further, that the modifi-40 cation under this paragraph may be taken only if such individual has 41 paid at least fifty dollars for each such dependent in tuition to such 42 nonpublic school for such education of such dependent. No taxpayer 43 shall be entitled to the modification provided for in this paragraph if 44 he or she claims a tuition reimbursement payment pursuant to article 45 twelve-A of the education law.

46	If city adjusted	The amount allowable

3 (2) Husband and wife. In determining the applicable city adjusted 4 gross income of a husband and wife for purposes of the table set forth 5 in paragraph one of this subdivision, the city adjusted gross income of 6 a husband and wife shall be the aggregate of their city adjusted gross 7 incomes for the taxable year, determined without the benefit of the 8 modification provided for in this subdivision, and the number of depen-9 dents with respect to which this modification may be claimed shall be no 10 more than three in the aggregate.

11 (3) Definitions. (A) "Tuition", as used in this subdivision, shall 12 mean the amount actually paid during the taxable year by the taxpayer 13 for the enrollment of a dependent during the regular school year at a 14 nonpublic school.

15 (B) "Nonpublic school", as used in this subdivision, shall mean any 16 non-profit elementary or secondary school in the state of New York, 17 other than a public school, which: (i) is providing instruction in 18 accordance with article seventeen and section thirty-two hundred four of 19 the education law, (ii) has not been found to be in violation of title 20 VI of the civil rights act of nineteen hundred sixty-four, 78 Stat. 252, 21 42 U.S.C. § 2000(d) and (iii) which is entitled to a tax exemption under 22 sections five hundred one (a) and five hundred one (c) (3) of the feder-23 al internal revenue code of nineteen hundred fifty-four, as amended.
24 The commissioner of education shall furnish to the tax commission by 25 February first of each year, a certified list of nonpublic schools which 26 comply with clause (i) of this subparagraph for the preceding calendar 27 year and shall provide such other assistance with respect to whether 28 nonpublic schools come within clause (i) as the tax commission may 29 require.

30 (C) "Regular school year", as used in this subdivision, shall mean the 31 months of the taxable year exclusive of July and August.

32 (4) Additional information. Any claim for a modification under this 33 subdivision shall be accompanied by such information as the tax commis-34 sion may require.

35 (k) Modification for contributions to a qualified higher education
36 fund. (1) A taxpayer may subtract from his or her federal adjusted 37 gross income amounts which during the taxable year are contributed by 38 him or her to a qualified higher education fund, as defined in paragraph 39 three of this subdivision, established by him or her, limited to the 40 product of seven hundred fifty dollars and the number of eligible bene-41 ficiaries, as defined in subparagraph (C) of paragraph three of this 42 subdivision, as of the first or last day of the taxable year, whichever 43 yields the higher limit. Provided, however, that a taxpayer whose taxa-44 ble year began on January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight may 45 subtract from his or her federal adjusted gross income for such taxable 46 year, amounts contributed by him or her to a qualified higher education 47 fund during the fifteen month period beginning January first, nineteen 48 hundred seventy-eight and ending April fifteenth, nineteen hundred 49 seventy-nine. Contributions to a qualified higher education fund made 50 during the period beginning January first, nineteen hundred seventy-nine 51 and ending April fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-nine and subtracted 52 from a taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year 53 beginning January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight shall be deemed 54 to have been made during such taxable year. However, such number of 55 eligible beneficiaries shall not include any individual who was a

1 student at an institution of higher education during the previous tax-2 ble year. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "student" shall have 3 the same meaning as that ascribed to it by paragraph four of subsection 4 (e) of section one hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code, 5 except that the reference therein to "5 calendar months" shall be deemed 6 to be a reference to "3 calendar months."

7 (2) A taxpayer who establishes a qualified higher education fund may 8 subtract from his or her federal adjusted gross income amounts included 9 in gross income for federal income tax purposes by reason of any income 10 realized by the fund or because of any payment by the fund to, or on 11 behalf of, an eligible beneficiary for the purpose specified in clause 12 (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of this subdivision.

13 (3) For purposes of this subdivision, a qualified higher education 14 fund is a fund established pursuant to a written plan described in 15 subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, but only if the fund meets the 16 requirements of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

17 (A) For purposes of this subdivision a "plan" means a plan estab-
18 lished:

19 (i) solely for the purpose of defraying costs associated with attend-20 ance subsequent to graduation or separation from secondary school at an 21 institution of higher education, as defined in subparagraph (F) of this 22 paragraph, of one or more eligible beneficiaries, as defined in subpara-23 graph (C) of this paragraph, such costs to include: (I) applicable 24 tuition and fees, exclusive of fees levied as a penalty for laboratory 25 breakage, dormitory damage and similar fees, (II) room and board as 26 charged by the institution pursuant to a contract entered into by the 27 institution and a student or, if no such contract is entered into, an 28 amount not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars per year, which 29 amount shall include any expenses of transportation, and (III) books, 30 supplies and equipment,

31 (ii) which provides that no distribution shall be made by the fund, 32 except upon termination thereof, other than to, or on behalf of, eligi-33 ble beneficiaries for the purpose specified in clause (i) of this 34 subparagraph,

35 (iii) which provides that upon termination of the fund all assets of 36 the fund shall be distributed to the creator of the fund, to his or her 37 estate or to a trust established for the purpose of making contributions 38 to the fund, and

39 (iv) which prohibits contributions to the fund in excess of amounts 40 which may be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income under para-41 graph one of this subdivision.

42 (B) A fund meets the requirements of this subparagraph only if:

43 (i) it constitutes a custodial account, the assets of which are held 44 by a bank, as defined in paragraph one of subsection (d) of section four 45 hundred one of the internal revenue code, an insurance company qualified 46 to do business in this state, or another person who demonstrates, to the 47 satisfaction of the tax commission, that the manner in which he or she 48 will hold the assets will be consistent with the requirements of this 49 subdivision, or

50 (ii) it is a trust.

51 In the case of a trust referred to in clause (ii) of this subpara-52 graph, the assets may be held by a bank or other person who demonstrates 53 to the satisfaction of the tax commission that the manner in which he or 54 she will administer the trust will be consistent with the requirements 55 of this subdivision. Such a trust shall not be disqualified under this 56 subparagraph merely because a person other than the trustee so adminis-

1 tering the trust may be granted, under the trust instrument, the power 2 to control the investment of the trust funds either by directing invest-3 ments, including reinvestments, disposals and exchanges, or by disap-4 proving proposed investments, including reinvestments, disposals and 5 exchanges. Such a trust may use annuity, endowment or life insurance 6 contracts of a life insurance company exclusively as the funding media 7 of the trust, if so provided by regulations of the state tax commis-8 sion, and if the life insurance company supplies annually such informa-9 tion about trust transactions as the tax commission shall by regulations 10 prescribe. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "bank" shall have 11 the same meaning ascribed to it by the last sentence of paragraph one of 12 subsection (d) of section four hundred one of the internal revenue code.

13 (C) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "eligible beneficiary" 14 means a person:

15 (i) having a relationship to the creator of the fund specified in 16 paragraphs one, two, three or six of subsection (a) of section one 17 hundred fifty-two of the internal revenue code,

18 (ii) who is a dependent of the creator of the fund pursuant to section 19 one hundred fifty-two of the internal revenue code, or is a member of 20 the armed forces of the United States on active duty, is a volunteer in 21 the peace corps, or is a full-time volunteer under the domestic volun-22 teer service act of 1973, and 23 (iii) who either: (I) has not attained the age of twenty-one, except 24 that where his or her twenty-first birthday falls within a taxable year 25 with respect to which a modification based on contributions to a quali-26 fied higher education fund with respect to which he or she is a benefi-27 ciary is allowed to a taxpayer, for purposes of this subclause such 28 beneficiary shall be deemed not to have attained the age of twenty-one 29 until the day next succeeding the last day of such taxable year, or (II) 30 is a student, as defined in paragraph four of subsection (e) of section 31 one hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code or, for a period of 32 up to four years, is a member of the armed forces of the United States 33 on active duty, is a volunteer in the peace corps, or is a full-time 34 volunteer under the domestic volunteer service act of 1973. Where the 35 determination of an individual's status as a student is required for a 36 purpose other than determining the permissibility of a modification 37 under this subdivision, an individual shall be deemed not to be a 38 student as of the last day of any calendar year during which he or she 39 fails to satisfy the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of para-40 graph four of subsection (e) of section one hundred fifty-one of the 41 internal revenue code during each of five calendar months during such 42 calendar year.

43 (D) A person who meets the requirements of subparagraph (C) of this 44 paragraph shall cease to be an eligible beneficiary:

45 (i) if payments by the fund to him or her, or on his or her behalf, 46 for the purpose specified in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of this 47 paragraph do not commence within five years after the date on which such 48 person was graduated or separated from secondary school, excluding any 49 period of up to four years during which an otherwise eligible benefi-50 ciary was a member of the armed forces of the United States on active 51 duty, a volunteer in the peace corps, or in service as a full-time 52 volunteer under the domestic volunteer service act of 1973, or 53 (ii) after the expiration of ten years from the date of such gradu-54 ation or separation, excluding any period of up to four years during 55 which an otherwise eligible beneficiary was a member of the armed forces 56 of the United States on active duty, a volunteer in the peace corps, or

1 in service as a full-time volunteer under the domestic volunteer service 2 act of 1973, or

3 (iii) if within six months after either his or her eighteenth birthday 4 or the date on which such fund is established, whichever is later, he or 5 she does not file with the tax commission, on a form and in the manner 6 prescribed by regulation, a notice of consent relating to the tax treat-7 ment of payments from a qualified higher education fund imposed under 8 paragraph fourteen of subdivision (b) of this section.

9 (E) Where a fund is continued subsequent to its creator's death, an 10 individual shall not cease to be an eligible beneficiary by reason of 11 failure to fulfill the requirement set forth in clause (ii) of subpara-12 graph (C) of this paragraph.

13 (F) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "institution of higher 14 education" means an educational organization described in clause (ii) of 15 subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subsection (b) of section one 16 hundred seventy of the internal revenue code,

17 (i) which provides an educational program for which it awards an asso-18 ciate, baccalaureate or higher degree or provides a program which is 19 acceptable for full credit toward such a degree,

20 (ii) contributions to or for the use of which constitute charitable 21 contributions within the meaning of section one hundred seventy (c) of 22 the internal revenue code,

23 (iii) which is legally authorized to provide and does provide a 24 program of postsecondary education, and 25 (iv) which is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency 26 or association listed by the United States commissioner of education.

27 (4) A qualified higher education fund shall terminate:

28 (A) if a contribution is made to the fund in excess of the amount 29 allowable as a subtraction from federal adjusted gross income under 30 paragraph one of this subdivision,

31 (B) if a distribution is made by the fund other than to, or on behalf 32 of, an eligible beneficiary for the purpose specified in clause (i) of 33 subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of this subdivision,

34 (C) if the plan ceases to have an eligible beneficiary, or 35 (D) in the absence of a testamentary disposition or inter vivos trust 36 provision to the contrary, upon the death of the creator of the fund, or 37 (E) if the fund is otherwise terminated under the tax law.

38 (5) The tax commission may by regulation require the filing of a 39 report annually by the creator of a qualified higher education fund or 40 other person designated by such regulation, such report to set forth the 41 amounts contributed to a qualified higher education fund, as well as the 42 amount, purpose and beneficiary of each disbursement made therefrom.
43 The tax commission may also by regulation require written notification 44 annually to each beneficiary of such disbursements made on his or her 45 behalf.

46 (6) The provisions of subparagraph (B) of paragraph four of this 47 subdivision shall not apply in the case of a rollover. A rollover occurs 48 where the creator of a qualified higher education fund withdraws all of 49 the assets of such fund and not later than sixty days subsequent to such 50 withdrawal establishes a new qualified higher education fund and depos-51 its therein an amount equal to the value of the assets so withdrawn.
52 Such deposit shall not constitute a contribution within the meaning of 53 this subdivision. This paragraph shall not apply if at any time during 54 the one year period ending on the date of such withdrawal from the qual-55 ified higher education fund the creator had made a similar withdrawal 56 from another qualified higher education fund, both such funds having at 1 least one beneficiary in common, where such prior withdrawal was 2 followed by the establishment of a new qualified higher education fund 3 such that a rollover was effected pursuant to the provisions of this 4 paragraph.

5 (1) Qualified higher education fund. (1) Upon termination of a 6 qualified higher education fund under subparagraph (A), (B) or (E) of 7 paragraph four of subdivision (k) of this section, a taxpayer to whom 8 the assets of the fund are required to be distributed pursuant to clause 9 (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of subdivision (k) of this 10 section shall add to his or her federal adjusted gross income for the 11 taxable year during which the terminating event occurs an amount equal 12 to one hundred ten per centum of an amount which bears the same ratio to 13 the value of the assets of such fund immediately prior to termination as 14 the total contributions made to such fund by a city resident individual, 15 estate or trust bears to the total contributions made to such fund. For 16 purposes of this subdivision the value of the assets of the fund imme-17 diately prior to termination shall include the value of any distrib-18 utions made to or on behalf of an eligible beneficiary who subsequently 19 ceased to be an eligible beneficiary pursuant to clause (iii) of subpar-20 agraph (D) of paragraph three of subdivision (k) of this section.

21 (2) Payments made to or on behalf of an eligible beneficiary from a 22 qualified higher education fund for the purpose specified in clause (i) 23 of subparagraph (A) of paragraph three of subdivision (k) of this 24 section shall be added to the federal adjusted gross income of the indi-25 vidual taxpayer to whom or on whose behalf the payment is made, in 26 accordance with the following. For the first taxable year of such 27 taxpayer in which no payment described in this paragraph is made with 28 respect to him or her and during which such taxpayer is not a student, 29 as defined in paragraph four of subsection (e) of section one hundred 30 fifty-one of the internal revenue code, treating the terms "individual" 31 and "taxpayer" therein as referring to such taxpayer, or, for a period 32 of up to four years, a member of the armed forces of the United States 33 on active duty, a volunteer in the peace corps, or a full-time volunteer 34 under the domestic volunteer service act of 1973, which taxable year 35 commences after the last day of the first calendar year in which such a 36 payment is made, one-fifth of the aggregate of all such payments there-37 tofore made, such aggregate amount pro-rated, pursuant to regulations 38 promulgated by the tax commission, according to the portion of the total 39 contributions made to the fund prior to the first day of such taxable 40 year which constitute amounts contributed by a city resident individual, 41 estate or trust, shall be added to the federal adjusted gross income of 42 such taxpayer for such taxable year and for each of the four succeeding 43 taxable years in which no such payment is made and in which such taxpay-44 er is not a student, as defined above, or, for a period of up to four 45 years, a member of the armed forces of the United States on active duty, 46 a volunteer in the peace corps, or a full-time volunteer under the 47 domestic volunteer service act of 1973. If in a taxable year subsequent 48 to a taxable year in which such addition to federal adjusted gross 49 income is required, a payment described in this paragraph is made, one-50 fifth of the amount of such payment, pro-rated, pursuant to regulations
51 promulgated by the tax commission, according to the portion of the total 52 contributions made to the fund prior to the first day of such taxable
53 year which constitute amounts contributed by a city resident individual, 54 estate or trust, shall be added to the federal adjusted gross income of 55 such taxpayer for each of the five immediately succeeding taxable years 56 in which no such payment is made and in which such taxpayer is not a

1 student, as defined above, or, for a period of up to four years, a 2 member of the armed forces of the United States on active duty, a volun-3 teer in the peace corps, or a full-time volunteer under the domestic 4 volunteer service act of 1973.

5 (n) Where gain or loss is recognized for federal income tax purposes 6 upon the disposition of stock or indebtedness of a corporation electing 7 under subchapter s of chapter one of the internal revenue code:

8 (1) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount 9 of increase in basis with respect to such stock or indebtedness pursuant 10 to subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred seventy-six of the inter-11 nal revenue code as such section was in effect for taxable years begin-12 ning before January first, nineteen hundred eighty-three and subpara-13 graphs (A) and (B) of paragraph one of subsection (a) of section 14 thirteen hundred sixty-seven of such code, for each taxable year of the 15 corporation beginning, in the case of a corporation taxable under arti-
16 cle nine-A of the tax law, after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred 17 eighty, for which the election provided for in subsection (a) of section 18 six hundred sixty of the tax law was not in effect, and 19 (2) There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

20 (A) the amount of reduction in basis with respect to such stock or 21 indebtedness pursuant to subsection (b) of section thirteen hundred 22 seventy-six of the internal revenue code as such section was in effect 23 for taxable years beginning before January first, nineteen hundred 24 eighty-three and subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph two of 25 subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred sixty-seven of such code, for 26 each taxable year of the corporation beginning, in the case of a corpo-27 ration taxable under article nine-A of the tax law, after December thir-28 ty-first, nineteen hundred eighty, for which the election provided for 29 in subsection (a) of section six hundred sixty of the tax law was not in 30 effect and

31 (B) the amount of any modifications to federal gross income with 32 respect to such stock pursuant to paragraph twenty-one of subdivision 33 (b) of this section.

34 (o) Modifications for new business investment gains and certain new 35 business investments.

36 1. For purposes of this subdivision, the following definitions shall 37 apply:

38 (A) "New business investment gain" means gain from the sale of a new 39 business investment issued to the taxpayer before January first, nine-40 teen hundred eighty-eight, if:

41 (i) such new business investment is, in the hands of the person sell-42 ing the same, whether or not the taxpayer, a capital asset as defined in 43 section twelve hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code of nine-44 teen hundred fifty-four, as amended, and 45 (ii) such new business investment was held by such person for the 46 period specified in paragraph two of this subdivision.

47 (B) "New business" means a corporation or partnership organized or 48 formed under the laws of any state which:

49 (i) adopts a plan on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-one 50 and before January first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight, to conduct a 51 new business within the meaning and intent of this section and to issue 52 new business investments, as defined in this subdivision, and

53 (ii) is, at the date of adoption of such plan, subject to taxation, 54 whether or not any amount is owing, under section one hundred eighty-55 three or one hundred eighty-four of article nine of the tax law, or 56 under article nine-A of the tax law or article twenty-three of the tax

1 law, or would have been subject to tax under article twenty-three of 2 such law, as such article was in effect on January first, nineteen 3 hundred eighty, if such article were still in effect, and the first 4 taxable period for which such new business became subject to such taxa-5 tion commenced on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-one and 6 before January first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight, and such first 7 taxable period includes the date of adoption of such plan; if not so 8 subject to taxation, the new business must be subject to taxation under 9 such sections or articles for the first time within one year from the 10 date of adoption of such plan, and 11 (iii) is conducted, or will be conducted, as evidenced by such plan, 12 whereby at least ninety percent of the assets, valued at original cost, 13 are located and employed in this state and eighty percent of the employ-14 ees, in addition, in the case of a partnership, excluding partners, are 15 principally employed in this state during each taxable period, or part 16 thereof, as required by clause (iv) of this subparagraph, and 17 (iv) within ninety days after adoption of such plan, or, if a return 18 is required, as part of such return, under such article nine, article 19 nine-A or article twenty-three of the tax law, whichever is sooner, 20 shall file a new business certificate with the tax commission attesting 21 to whether it meets, if subject to taxation under such articles, or 22 intends to meet, if not so subject, all of the conditions stated in 23 clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph within the time set 24 forth therein. Thereafter, during the first four taxable years of such 25 new business, along with, and as part of, any return required under such 26 articles, such new business shall make and file a new business certif-27 icate for the period covered by such return attesting to whether it has 28 met the conditions specified in this subparagraph during the taxable 29 period covered by such return. If no return is required under such arti-30 cles, such certificate shall be filed annually on or before the 31 fifteenth day of March which shall cover the twelve consecutive calendar 32 month period ending on the last day of December immediately preceding 33 such March fifteenth. If such new business fails to meet such conditions 34 specified in this subparagraph, it shall, in addition, give notice of 35 this fact, within the time prescribed by the tax commission, to the 36 holders of its "new business investments." The tax commission shall 37 prescribe the form and content of such new business certification and 38 may require a new business to file such certificate for periods, even if 39 no return is filed or required, but for this section, covering up to 40 eight years from the date of adoption of such plan, as in its 41 discretion, it deems the same necessary for the enforcement of this 42 section, and

43 (v) Special rules:

44 (1) For any taxable period, in order to constitute a new business, a 45 business enterprise must have derived more than sixty percent of its 46 aggregate gross receipts from sources other than royalties, rents, divi-47 dends, interest, annuities and sales or exchanges of stock or securi-48 ties.

49 (2) A new business does not include: (i) any new business of which 50 twenty-five percent or more of the number of shares of stock that enti-51 tle the holders thereof to vote for the election of directors or trus-52 tees is owned, directly or indirectly, by a taxpayer subject to tax 53 under section one hundred eighty-three, one hundred eighty-four, former 54 section one hundred eighty-five or former section one hundred eighty-six 55 of article nine of the tax law, or under article nine-A, or thirty-three 56 of the tax law or (ii) any new business substantially similar in operation and in ownership, directly or indirectly, to a business entity, or entities, taxable, or previously taxable, under such section, such article, article twenty-three of the tax law or which would have been subject to tax under such article twenty-three, as such article was in effect on January first, nineteen hundred eighty, or the income, or losses, of which is, or was, includible under article twenty-two of such tax law whereby the intent and purpose of this section would be evaded.

(C) "New business investment" means and includes the following investments issued before January first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight by a new business pursuant to a plan described in clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph for money or other property, other than stock or securities, on or before the expiration of the third taxable year of such new business, excluding any short period immediately preceding such taxable year because the new business was not in existence for an entire taxable year, or forty-two months from the adoption of such plan, whichever is sooner: (i) original issuance capital stock as part of a new issue, (ii) other original issuance securities of a new issue of a like nature as stocks which are designed as a means of investment and issued for the purpose of financing corporate enterprises and providing for a distribution of rights in such enterprises, (iii) debt obligations such as bonds and debentures for a term of at least one year, whether secured or unsecured, and (iv) certificates and other instruments representing proprietary interests, whether limited or otherwise, in and assumption of general liabilities, whether limited or otherwise, of a partnership enterprise.

2. A taxpayer may subtract from his federal adjusted gross income a portion of an amount constituting a new business investment gain, as follows:

If new business investment held for:	The modification is equal to the following proportion of the gain includible in federal adjusted gross income:
At least four years, but less than five years	twenty-five percent
At least five years, but less than six years	fifty percent
At least six years	one hundred percent

3. Where, within six months of the realization of a new business investment gain allowable as the basis of a modification under paragraph two of this subdivision, such modification is equal to less than one hundred percent of the portion of the gain includible in federal adjusted gross income and the taxpayer purchases a new business investment which is then held for a period of at least six months, the taxpayer may subtract from his or her federal adjusted gross income ten percent, but not an amount that will reduce the portion of such gain included in his or her New York income below zero, of the amount of such gain where the purchase price of the new business investment is equal to or greater than the proceeds of the sale giving rise to such gain. Where the purchase price of the new business investment is less than an amount equal to the proceeds of such sale, the modification allowable under this paragraph shall be equal to ten percent of an amount equal to the product of: (A) the amount of the gain and (B) a fraction the numerator of which is the purchase price of the new investment and the denominator of which is an amount equal to the proceeds of such sale. The modification allowable under this paragraph may be utilized, at the option of the taxpayer, with respect to the taxable year in which the new business

1 investment gain is realized or the year containing the last day of the 2 six-month retention period described in this paragraph.

3 4. The tax commission may prescribe such rules and regulations as may 4 be necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.

5 (p) New business investment deferral. For taxable years beginning 6 before January first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight, at the option of 7 the taxpayer, there may be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income 8 a reinvested amount of long-term capital gain realized in a taxable year 9 from the sale of a capital asset, as such term is defined in section 10 twelve hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code, which is not a 11 new business investment. A reinvested amount of long-term capital gain 12 shall mean an amount which bears the same ratio to the long-term capital 13 gain realized from the sale of a capital asset which was includible in 14 New York adjusted gross income as that portion of the sale proceeds 15 which is reinvested, within one year from date of sale, in a New York 16 new business bears to the total sale proceeds. For the purposes of this 17 subdivision, a New York new business is a business enterprise which: (1) 18 has been a taxpayer under article nine-A, twenty-two, or thirty-three of 19 the tax law for no more than three taxable years, including short taxa-20 ble years, (2) over fifty percent of the number of shares of stock that 21 entitle the holders thereof to vote for the election of directors or 22 trustees is not owned, directly or indirectly, by a taxpayer subject to 23 tax under section one hundred eighty-three, one hundred eighty-four or 24 one hundred eighty-five of article nine of the tax law, or under article 25 nine-A, thirty-two or thirty-three of the tax law, (3) is not substan-26 tially similar in operation or ownership, directly or indirectly, to a 27 business entity, or entities taxable, or previously taxable, under such 28 sections, such articles, article twenty-three of the tax law or which 29 would have been subject to tax under article twenty-three, as such arti-30 cle was in effect on January first, nineteen hundred eighty, or the 31 income, or losses, of which is, or was, includible under article twen-32 ty-two of the tax law whereby the intent and purpose of this subdivision 33 would be evaded, (4) locates and employs at least ninety percent of its 34 assets in the state, (5) employs principally in the state eighty percent 35 of its employees, and (6) derives less than forty percent of its gross 36 income from dividends, interest, royalties, other than mineral, oil, or 37 gas royalties or copyright royalties, annuities and (7) reports at least 38 twenty-five hundred dollars in gross income in any taxable year. The 39 reinvested amount must qualify as a capital asset as defined pursuant to 40 section twelve hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code and must 41 be retained by the taxpayer for at least twelve months. The modification 42 allowable under this subdivision shall be utilized with respect to the 43 taxable year in which the twelve month retention period ends.

44 (q) An amount deferred under subdivision (p) of this section shall be 45 added to federal adjusted gross income when the reinvestment in the New 46 York new business which qualified a taxpayer for such deferral is sold.

47 (r) In the case of a sale or other disposition of property acquired 48 from a decedent and valued by the executor of the estate of such dece-49 dent for the purposes of the tax under article twenty-six of the tax law 50 pursuant to paragraph two of subsection (b) of section nine hundred 51 fifty-four of the tax law, where such estate was insufficient to require 52 the filing of a federal estate tax return, the amount necessary to prop-53 erly reflect the gain or loss from such sale or other disposition which 54 would have been realized under this chapter, had, in the case of clause 55 (i) of this subdivision, a federal estate tax return been filed similar-56 ly valuing such property pursuant to section two thousand thirty-two of 1 the internal revenue code, or in the case of clause (ii) of this subdivi-

2 vision, pursuant to section two thousand thirty-two-A of such code.

3 (s) New York S termination year. (1) General. In the case of a New 4 York S termination year, the amount of any item of S corporation income, 5 loss and deduction included in the shareholder's federal adjusted gross 6 income and any reductions for taxes, as described in paragraphs two and 7 three of subsection (f) of section thirteen hundred sixty-six of the 8 internal revenue code, shall be adjusted in accordance with the treat-9 ment provided in paragraph two or three of this subdivision.

10 (2) Pro rata allocation. Unless paragraph three of this subdivision 11 applies, an equal portion of each S corporation item shall be assigned 12 to each day of the S corporation's taxable year for federal income tax 13 purposes. The portion of each such item thereby assigned to the S short 14 year shall be treated as an item of a New York S corporation, and the 15 portion of each such item thereby assigned to the C short year shall be 16 treated as an item of an S corporation which is a New York C corpo-17 ration.

18 (3) Normal tax accounting. The portion of each S corporation item 19 assigned to the S short year and the C short year shall be determined 20 using normal tax accounting rules if:

21 (A) there is a sale or exchange of fifty percent or more of the stock 22 in such corporation during the New York S termination year or 23 (B) the corporation so elects, as provided in subparagraph (B) of 24 paragraph two of subsection (s) of section six hundred twelve of the tax 25 law.

26 (t) Related members expense add back. (1) Definitions. (A) Related 27 member. "Related member" means a related person as defined in subpara-
28 graph (c) of paragraph three of subsection (b) of section four hundred 29 sixty-five of the internal revenue code, except that "fifty percent"
30 shall be substituted for "ten percent".

31 (B) Effective rate of tax. "Effective rate of tax" means, as to any 32 city, the maximum statutory rate of tax imposed by the city on or meas-
33 ured by a related member's net income multiplied by the apportionment 34 percentage, if any, applicable to the related member under the laws of 35 said jurisdiction. For purposes of this definition, the effective rate 36 of tax as to any city is zero where the related member's net income tax
37 liability in said city is reported on a combined or consolidated return
38 including both the taxpayer and the related member where the reported
39 transactions between the taxpayer and the related member are eliminated
40 or offset. Also, for purposes of this definition, when computing the 41 effective rate of tax for a city in which a related member's net income 42 is eliminated or offset by a credit or similar adjustment that is 43 dependent upon the related member either maintaining or managing intan-
44 gible property or collecting interest income in that city, the maximum 45 statutory rate of tax imposed by said city shall be decreased to reflect 46 the statutory rate of tax that applies to the related member as effec-
47 tively reduced by such credit or similar adjustment.

48 (C) Royalty payments. Royalty payments are payments directly connected 49 to the acquisition, use, maintenance or management, ownership, sale,
50 exchange, or any other disposition of licenses, trademarks, copyrights,
51 trade names, trade dress, service marks, mask works, trade secrets,
52 patents and any other similar types of intangible assets as determined 53 by the state commissioner of taxation and finance, and include amounts 54 allowable as interest deductions under section one hundred sixty-three 55 of the internal revenue code to the extent such amounts are directly or 56 indirectly for, related to or in connection with the acquisition, use,

1 maintenance or management, ownership, sale, exchange or disposition of 2 such intangible assets.

3 (D) Valid business purpose. A valid business purpose is one or more
4 business purposes, other than the avoidance or reduction of taxation,
5 which alone or in combination constitute the primary motivation for some 6 business activity or transaction, which activity or transaction changes 7 in a meaningful way, apart from tax effects, the economic position of 8 the taxpayer. The economic position of the taxpayer includes an increase 9 in the market share of the taxpayer, or the entry by the taxpayer into 10 new business markets.

11 (2) Royalty expense add backs. (A) For the purpose of computing city 12 adjusted gross income, a taxpayer must add back royalty payments direct-13 ly or indirectly paid, accrued, or incurred in connection with one or 14 more direct or indirect transactions with one or more related members 15 during the taxable year to the extent deductible in calculating federal 16 taxable income.

17 (B) Exceptions. (i) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall 18 not apply to the portion of the royalty payment that the taxpayer estab-
19 lishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type and in the form 20 specified by the commissioner of finance, meets all of the following 21 requirements: (I) the related member was subject to tax in this city or 22 another city within the United States or a foreign nation or some combi-
23 nation thereof on a tax base that included the royalty payment paid, 24 accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; (II) the related member during the 25 same taxable year directly or indirectly paid, accrued or incurred such 26 portion to a person that is not a related member; and (III) the trans-27 action giving rise to the royalty payment between the taxpayer and the 28 related member was undertaken for a valid business purpose.

29 (ii) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 30 the taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type 31 and in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 32 related member was subject to tax on or measured by its net income in 33 this city or another city within the United States, or some combination
34 thereof; (II) the tax base for said tax included the royalty payment
35 paid, accrued or incurred by the taxpayer; and (III) the aggregate
36 effective rate of tax applied to the related member in those jurisdic-
37 tions is no less than eighty percent of the statutory rate of tax that 38 applied to the taxpayer under section 11-1701 of this chapter for the 39 taxable year.

40 (iii) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 41 the taxpayer establishes, by clear and convincing evidence of the type 42 and in the form specified by the commissioner of finance, that: (I) the 43 royalty payment was paid, accrued or incurred to a related member organ-
44 ized under the laws of a country other than the United States; (II) the 45 related member's income from the transaction was subject to a comprehen-
46 sive income tax treaty between such country and the United States; (III)
47 the related member was subject to tax in a foreign nation on a tax base 48 that included the royalty payment paid, accrued or incurred by the 49 taxpayer; (IV) the related member's income from the transaction was 50 taxed in such country at an effective rate of tax at least equal to that 51 imposed by this city; and (V) the royalty payment was paid, accrued or 52 incurred pursuant to a transaction that was undertaken for a valid busi-
53 ness purpose and using terms that reflect an arm's length relationship.

54 (iv) The adjustment required in this subdivision shall not apply if 55 the taxpayer and the commissioner of finance agree in writing to the 56 application or use of alternative adjustments or computations. The

1 commissioner of finance may, in his or her discretion, agree to the 2 application or use of alternative adjustments or computations when he or 3 she concludes that in the absence of such agreement the income of the 4 taxpayer would not be properly reflected.

5 (u) Alimony modifications. (1) In the case of applicable alimony or 6 separate maintenance payments, the following modifications shall apply:

7 (A) There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income any 8 applicable alimony or separate maintenance payments made by the taxpayer 9 during the taxable year.

10 (B) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income any applica-11 ble alimony or separate maintenance payments received by the taxpayer 12 during the taxable year.

13 (2) (A) The term "alimony or separate maintenance payments" means 14 payments as defined under section seventy-one of the internal revenue 15 code in effect immediately prior to the enactment of Public Law 115-97.

16 (B) The term "applicable alimony or separate maintenance payments" 17 means payments made under an alimony or separation instrument, as 18 defined in section seventy-one of the internal revenue code in effect 19 immediately prior to the enactment of Public Law 115-97, that was 20 executed after December thirty-first, two thousand eighteen, and any 21 divorce or separation instrument executed on or before such date and 22 modified after such date if the modification expressly provides that the 23 amendments made by this section apply to such modification.

24 (v) Qualified moving expense reimbursement and moving expenses. (1) In 25 the case of applicable qualified moving expense reimbursement and moving 26 expenses, the following modifications shall apply:

27 (A) There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income any 28 applicable qualified moving expense reimbursement received by the 29 taxpayer during the taxable year.

30 (B) There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income any 31 applicable moving expenses paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year.

32 (2) Applicable qualified moving expense reimbursement and moving 33 expenses are those deductions as allowed by paragraph (g) of section one 34 hundred thirty-two and section two hundred seventeen, respectfully, of 35 the internal revenue code immediately prior to the enactment of Public 36 Law 115-97.

37 § 11-1713 City deduction of a resident individual. The city

41 11-1715 of this chapter.

42 § 11-1714 City standard deduction of a city resident individual. (a)

40 § 11-1715 City itemized deduction of a city resident individual.

41 (a) General. If federal taxable income of a city resident individual 42 is determined by itemizing deductions or claiming the federal standard 43 deduction from his or her federal adjusted gross income, such resident 44 individual may elect to deduct his or her city itemized deduction or 45 claim his or her city standard deduction.

46 The city itemized deduction of a city resident individual means the 47 total amount of his or her deductions from federal adjusted gross income 48 allowed, other than federal deductions for personal exemptions, as 49 provided in the laws of the United States for the taxable year, as such 53 (b) Husband and wife.

54 (1) A husband and wife, both of whom are required to file returns 55 under this chapter, shall be allowed city itemized deductions only if 56 both elect to take city itemized deductions.

1 (2) The total of the city itemized deductions of a husband and wife 2 whose federal taxable income is determined on a joint return, but whose

6 (c) Modifications reducing federal itemized deductions. The total 7 amount of deductions from federal adjusted gross income shall be reduced 8 by the amount of such federal deductions for:

16 (e) Modification of partners and shareholders of S corporations. (1)

33 under subdivision (s) of section 11-1712 of this subchapter.

34 (f) Except as otherwise provided under subdivision (g) of this 35 section, the city itemized deduction otherwise allowable under this 39 under subdivision (a) of this section, multiplied by a percentage, such 40 percentage to be determined by multiplying, for taxable years beginning 41 in nineteen hundred eighty-eight, ten percent, and for taxable years 42 beginning after nineteen hundred eighty-eight, twenty-five percent, by a 43 fraction,

14 section one hundred seventy of the internal revenue code, as limited by 15 this subdivision. (1) With respect to an individual whose New York 16 adjusted gross income is over one million dollars but no more than ten 17 million dollars, the New York itemized deduction shall be an amount 18 equal to fifty percent of any charitable contribution deduction allowed

41 zero shall be allowed a city exemption of nine hundred dollars for each 42 exemption for which he or she is entitled to a deduction for the taxable 43 year for federal income tax purposes.

44 (b) Husband and wife. If the city income taxes of a husband and wife 45 are required to be separately determined but their federal income tax is 46 determined on a joint return, each of them shall be separately entitled 47 to the city exemptions under subdivision (a) of this section to which 48 each would be separately entitled for the taxable year if their federal 49 income taxes had been determined on separate returns.

50 § 11-1717 Resident partners and shareholders of S corporations. (a)
51 Partner's and shareholder's modifications. In determining city adjusted 52 gross income and city taxable income of a city resident partner or a 53 city resident shareholder of an S corporation, other than an S corpo-

1 or three of subdivision (d) of such section, which relates to an item of 2 partnership or S corporation income, gain, loss or deduction shall be 3 made in accordance with the partner's distributive share or the share-4 holder's pro rata share, for federal income tax purposes, of the item to 5 which the modification relates. Where a partner's distributive share or 6 a shareholder's pro rata share of any such item is not required to be 7 taken into account separately for federal income tax purposes, the part-8 ner's or shareholder's share of such item shall be determined in accord-9 ance with his or her share, for federal income tax purposes, of partner-10 ship or S corporation taxable income or loss generally. In the case of 11 a New York S termination year, his or her pro rata share of any such 12 item shall be determined under subdivision (s) of section 11-1712 of 13 this subchapter.

14 (b) Character of items. Each item of partnership and S corporation 15 income, gain, loss, or deduction shall have the same character for a 16 partner or shareholder under this subchapter as for federal income tax 17 purposes. Where an item is not characterized for federal income tax 18 purposes, it shall have the same character for a partner or shareholder 19 as if realized directly from the source from which realized by the part-20 nership or S corporation or incurred in the same manner as incurred by 21 the partnership or S corporation.

23 share of an item of partnership income, gain, loss or deduction is 24 determined for federal income tax purposes by special provision in the 25 partnership agreement with respect to such item, and where the principal 26 purpose of such provision is the avoidance or evasion of tax under this 27 chapter, the partner's distributive share of such item, and any modifi-28 cation required with respect thereto, shall be determined as if the 29 partnership agreement made no special provision with respect to such 30 item.

37 of such business, which is the individual's distributive or pro rata 38 share for federal income tax purposes or which the individual is 39 required to take into account separately for federal income tax 40 purposes. Provided however, such individual's city adjusted gross 41 income shall include his or her distributive or pro rata share of the 42 allocated entire net income as determined by such business under 43 sections fifteen hundred three and fifteen hundred four of the tax law.
44 In the event such allocated entire net income is a loss, there shall not 54 property, to the extent such gains are excluded from federal distribut-55 able net income of the estate or trust.

1 (3) There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the share 2 of the estate or trust in the city fiduciary adjustment determined under 3 section 11-1719 of this subchapter.

4 (4) There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the 5 modifications described in paragraphs six, ten, seventeen, eighteen, 6 nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, 7 twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-nine, thirty-four and 8 thirty-five of subdivision (b) and in paragraphs eleven, thirteen,

10 ty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six and twenty-eight of subdivision (c) of 11 section 11-1712 of this subchapter.

12 (5) In the case of a trust, there shall be added the amount of any 13 includible gain, reduced by any deductions properly allocable thereto, 14 upon which tax is imposed for the taxable year pursuant to section six 15 hundred forty-four of the internal revenue code.

16 § 11-1719 Share of a resident estate, trust or beneficiary in city 17 fiduciary adjustment. (a) General. An adjustment shall be made in 18 determining city taxable income of a city resident estate or trust under 19 section 11-1718 of this subchapter, or city adjusted gross income of a 20 city resident beneficiary of any estate or trust under subdivision (d) 21 of section 11-1712 of this subchapter, in the amount of the share of 22 each in the city fiduciary adjustment as determined in this section.

23 (b) Definition. The city fiduciary adjustment shall be the net 24 amount of the modifications described in section 11-1712 of this 25 subchapter, including subdivision (d) if the estate or trust is a bene-26 ficiary of another estate or trust, in subdivision (c) and paragraphs 27 two and three of subdivision (d) of section 11-1715 of this subchapter, 28 and in subdivision (e) of this section, which relate to items of income, 29 gain, loss or deduction of an estate or trust. The net amount of such 30 modifications shall not include:

31 (1) Any modification described in paragraphs one and two of subdivi-32 sion (b) and paragraphs one, two, four, five, six, and seven of subdivi-33 sion (c) of section 11-1712 of this subchapter with respect to any 34 amount which, pursuant to the terms of the governing instrument, is paid 35 or permanently set aside for a charitable purpose during the taxable 36 year, and

37 (2) Any modification described in paragraph four or five of subdivi-38 sion (c) of section 11-1712 of this subchapter, with respect to gains

40 are excluded from federal distributable net income of the estate or 41 trust.

42 (c) Shares of city fiduciary adjustment.

43 (1) The respective shares of an estate or trust and its benefici-44 aries, including, solely for the purpose of this allocation, nonresident 45 beneficiaries, in the city fiduciary adjustment shall be in proportion 46 to their respective shares of federal distributable net income of the 47 estate or trust.

48 (2) If the estate or trust has no federal distributable net income 49 for the taxable year, the share of each beneficiary in the city fiduci-

52 ment, which is required to be distributed currently and any other 53 amounts of such income distributed in such year. Any balance of the 54 city fiduciary adjustment shall be allocated to the estate or trust.

55 (d) Alternate attribution of modifications. The tax commission may 56 by regulation establish such other method or methods of determining to 1 whom the items comprising the fiduciary adjustment shall be attributed, 2 as may be appropriate and equitable. Such method may be used by the 3 fiduciary in his or her discretion whenever the allocation of the fidu-4 ciary adjustment pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section would 5 result in an inequity which is substantial both in amount and in 6 relation to the amount of the fiduciary adjustment.

7 (e) Additional modifications. (1) For any taxable year beginning after 8 December thirty-first, two thousand seventeen, and before January first, 9 two thousand twenty-six, to the extent that the estate or trust claimed 11 nal revenue code that was limited to ten thousand dollars as provided in 12 subparagraph (B) of paragraph six of subdivision (b) of such section one 13 hundred sixty-four or was denied as a result of subparagraph (A) of 14 paragraph six of subdivision (b) of such section one hundred sixty-four, 15 there shall be subtracted the taxes paid or accrued in that taxable year 16 by an estate or trust that the estate or trust was not able to deduct 17 for federal income tax purposes because of such limitation or denial, 18 other than state and local sales taxes and income taxes described in 19 paragraph one of subdivision (c) of section 11-1715 of this subchapter.

20 In determining the makeup of the ten thousand dollars of deduction 21 claimed by the estate or trust under section one hundred sixty-four of 22 the internal revenue code, it shall be presumed that the ten thousand 23 dollars of deduction first comprises the state and local sales taxes or 24 income taxes the estate or trust accrued or paid during the taxable
25 year.

26 (2) For any taxable year beginning after December thirty-first, two 27 thousand seventeen, and before January first, two thousand twenty-six, 28 there shall be subtracted the miscellaneous itemized deductions as 29 described in and limited by section sixty-seven of the internal revenue 30 code, but excluding the deductions described in subsection (e) of 31 section sixty-seven of such code, but determined without regard to 32 subsection (g) of such section.

33 (3) For any taxable year, there shall be added the amount of any 34 deduction allowed pursuant to section one hundred ninety-nine-A of the 35 internal revenue code.

45 former title T of chapter forty-six of the code of the preceding munici-46 pality, as it was in effect prior to September first, nineteen hundred 47 eighty-six, for any preceding taxable year which would not have been 48 payable if the trust had in fact made distributions to its beneficiaries 49 at the times and in the amounts specified in section six hundred sixty-50 six of the internal revenue code; and (2) a credit against the taxes 51 imposed by this chapter for the taxable year for any income tax imposed 52 for the taxable year or any prior taxable year by another state of the 53 United States, a political subdivision thereof, or the District of 54 Columbia, upon income both derived therefrom and subject to tax under 55 this chapter, provided that the amount of the credit shall not exceed 56 the percentage of the tax otherwise due under this chapter determined by

1 dividing the portion of the income that is both taxable to the trust in 2 such other jurisdiction and taxable to the beneficiary under this chap-
3 ter by the total amount of the beneficiary's New York city income.

4 (b) Limitation. The credits under this section shall not reduce the 5 tax otherwise due from the beneficiary under this chapter to an amount 6 less than would have been due if the accumulation distribution or his or 12 section 11-1703 of this chapter for any taxable year, with respect to 13 the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution received by a 14 city resident individual, estate or trust is an amount equal to five 15 times the tax which would be imposed by section 11-1701 of this chapter 16 at the rate set forth in paragraph three of subdivision (a) or (b), 17 whichever may be applicable, if the recipient of such lump sum distrib-18 ution were an individual referred to in such subdivision and the city 19 taxable income were an amount equal to one-fifth of the excess of:

20 (1) the total taxable amount of the lump sum distribution for the 21 taxable year, over

22 (2) the minimum distribution allowance.

23 (b) Minimum distribution allowance. For purposes of this section, the 24 minimum distribution allowance shall be that which is calculated accord-25 ing to subparagraph (C) of paragraph one of subsection (e) of section 26 four hundred two of the internal revenue code.

27 (c) Multiple distributions and distributions of annuity contracts.
28 For purposes of this section, the rules concerning multiple distrib-

32 (A)" shall be deemed to be references to this section, and except that 33 only lump sum distributions, or portions thereof, and distributions of 34 annuity contracts subject to tax under this chapter shall be included, 35 and except that references to the secretary shall be deemed to be refer-

44 gains, as specified in paragraphs three, four, five and six of 45 subsection (h) of section eleven hundred twenty-two of the tax reform 46 act of nineteen hundred eighty-six as enacted by public law 99-514, but 47 (i) in the event that paragraph three of such subsection is applicable, 48 clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) of such paragraph shall be applied using 49 a rate of one and seventy-two hundredths percent, and (ii) in the event 50 that paragraph five of such subsection is applicable, the words "five" 51 and "one-fifth" in subdivision (a) of this section shall be read as 52 "ten" and "one-tenth", respectively, and subdivision (a) of this section 53 shall be applied by using the rate of tax specified in subdivision (a) 54 of section 11-1702 of this chapter as such subdivision was in effect for 7 New York state personal income tax, including a separate tax on the 8 ordinary income portion of lump sum distributions, return for the taxa-

10 (b) Husband and wife. (1) If the New York state personal income tax 11 liability of husband and wife is determined on a separate return, their 12 city personal income tax liabilities and returns shall be separate.

13 (2) If the New York state personal income tax liabilities of husband 14 and wife, other than a husband and wife described in paragraph three of 15 this subdivision, are determined on a joint return, they shall file a 16 joint city personal income tax return, and their tax liabilities shall 17 be joint and several except as provided in paragraphs four and five of 18 this subdivision and in subsection (e) of section six hundred eighty-19 five of the tax law.

20 (3) If the New York state personal income tax liabilities of husband 21 and wife, other than a husband and wife described in paragraph three of 22 this subdivision are determined on a joint return, they shall file a 23 joint city personal income tax return, and their tax liabilities shall 24 be joint and several except as provided in paragraph five of this subdi-25 vision, section 11-1755 of this subchapter and subsection (e) of section 26 six hundred eighty-five of the tax law.

27 (4) If either husband or wife is a city resident and the other is a 28 city nonresident, and their New York state personal income tax liabil-29 ities are determined on a joint return:

30 (A) they may elect to file a joint city personal income tax return as 31 if both were residents, in which case their city personal income tax

35 (B) they may elect to file a joint city personal income tax return as 36 if both were residents, in which case their city personal income tax 37 liabilities shall be joint and several except as provided in paragraph 38 five of this subdivision, section 11-1755 of this subchapter and 39 subsection (e) of section six hundred eighty-five of the tax law, or

41 income tax return, in which case his or her city personal income tax 42 liability shall be determined as if he or she were filing a separate New 43 York state personal income tax return.

44 (5) If a joint return has been made under this subdivision for a taxa-45 ble year and only one spouse is liable for past-due support, or a past-
46 due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax warrant judgment 47 debt, or an amount of a default in repayment of a guaranteed student, 48 state university or city university loan of which the state commissioner 49 of taxation and finance has been notified pursuant to section one 50 hundred seventy-one-c, one hundred seventy-one-d, one hundred seventy-

54 enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax warrant judgment debt, or 55 such amount of a default in repayment of a guaranteed student, state

1 university or city university loan, unless the spouse not liable for 2 such past-due support, or a past-due legally enforceable debt, or a city 3 of New York tax warrant judgment debt, or such amount of a default in 4 repayment of a guaranteed student, state university or city university 5 loan demands, on a declaration made in accordance with regulations or 6 instructions prescribed by the state commissioner of taxation and 7 finance, that the portion of the overpayment and interest attributable 8 to such spouse not be credited against the past-due support, or a past-
9 due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax warrant judgment 10 debt, or amount of a default in repayment of a guaranteed student, state 11 university or city university loan owed by the other spouse. Upon such 12 demand, the state commissioner of taxation and finance shall determine 13 the amount of the overpayment attributable to each spouse in accordance 14 with regulations prescribed by the state commissioner of taxation and 15 finance and credit only that portion of the overpayment and interest 16 thereon attributable to the spouse liable for past-due support, or a 17 past-due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax warrant 18 judgment debt, or amount of a default in repayment of a guaranteed 19 student, state university or city university loan against such past-due 20 support, or a past-due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York 21 tax warrant judgment debt, or such amount of a default in repayment of a 22 guaranteed student, state university or city university loan. Such 23 demand may be filed (A) with the return of the spouse not liable for 24 past-due support or past-due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New 25 York tax warrant judgment debt, or default in repayment of a guaranteed 26 student, state university, or city university loan or (B) with the 31 of section one hundred seventy-one-e, subdivision seven of section one 32 hundred seventy-one-f or subdivision six of section one hundred seven-33 ty-one-1 of the tax law.

34 (6) The state commissioner of taxation and finance shall clearly alert 35 married taxpayers, on all appropriate publications and instructions, 36 that their liability for tax will be joint and several if they file 37 joint income tax returns. The state commissioner of taxation and finance 38 shall include notice of an individual's right to relief from joint and 39 several liability pursuant to section six hundred fifty-four of the tax 40 law in the disclosure of rights statement required by section three 41 thousand four of the tax law and in any notice regarding collection of 42 tax due with respect to a liability on a joint return.

43 (c) Decedents. The return for any deceased individual shall be made 44 and filed by his or her executor, administrator, or other person charged
45 with his or her property. If a final return of a decedent is for a 46 fractional part of a year, the due date of such return shall be the 47 fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the twelve-48 month period which began with the first day of such fractional part of 49 the year.

50 (d) Individuals under a disability. The return for an individual who 51 is unable to make a return by reason of minority or other disability

6 or penalty thereon, shall, from the time it is due and payable, be a 7 personal debt of the person liable to pay the same, to the city of New 8 York.

9 (i) Cross reference. For provisions as to information returns by part-10 nerships, employers and other persons, see section 11-1758 of this
11 subchapter.

12 § 11-1752 Time and place for filing returns and paying tax. (a) 13 Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, a person required 14 to make and file a return under this chapter shall, without assessment, 15 notice or demand, pay any tax due thereon to the commissioner of taxa-16 tion and finance on or before the date fixed for filing such return, 17 determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the 18 return. The commissioner shall prescribe by regulation the place for 19 filing any return, statement, or other document required pursuant to 20 this chapter and for payment of any tax.

21 (b) The commissioner of taxation and finance may allow individuals who 22 have income only from wages, salaries, tips and like remuneration for 23 services performed as an employee, interest, dividends and unemployment 24 compensation to elect to have the commissioner compute the tax due. To 25 provide for expeditious and uniform administration of the tax computa-26 tions which involve numerous variables, the commissioner may further 27 qualify, with regard to period of residency, deductions, credits, 28 exemptions, amount and character of gross income, and any other appro-29 priate factors relative to calculation of tax, those individuals who may 30 elect to have their taxes computed by the commissioner. Any such 31 election shall be made on the form prescribed by the commissioner for 32 this purpose. If a qualified taxpayer elects to have the commissioner 33 compute the tax, the amount determined by the commissioner shall be paid 34 (i) within ten days from the date of the issuance of a notice and demand 35 therefor or (ii) on the date fixed for filing such return, determined 36 without regard to any extension of time for filing, whichever is later.

37 § 11-1753 Signing of returns and other documents. (a) General. Any 38 return, statement or other document required to be made pursuant to this 39 chapter shall be signed in accordance with regulations or instructions 40 prescribed by the tax commission. The fact that an individual's name is 41 signed to a return, statement, or other document, shall be prima facie
42 evidence for all purposes that the return, statement or other document 43 was actually signed by such individual.

44 (b) Partnerships. Any return, statement or other document required of 45 a partnership shall be signed by one or more partners. The fact that a 46 partner's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document, 47 shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that such partner is 48 authorized to sign on behalf of the partnership.

49 (c) Certifications. The making or filing of any return, statement or 50 other document or copy thereof required to be made or filed pursuant to 51 this chapter, including a copy of a federal return, shall constitute a 52 certification by the person making or filing such return, statement or 53 other document or copy thereof that the statements contained therein are 54 true and that any copy filed is a true copy.

55 § 11-1754 Change of resident status during year. (a) General. If an 56 individual changes his or her status during his or her taxable year from

1 city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city 2 resident, such individual shall file one return as a resident for the 3 portion of the year during which he or she is a city resident, and a 4 return under chapter nineteen of this title, for the portion of the year 5 during which he or she is a city nonresident, subject to such exceptions 6 as the tax commission may prescribe by regulation.

7 (b) City taxable income as city resident. The city taxable income for 8 the portion of the year during which he or she is a city resident shall 9 be determined, except as provided in subdivision (c) of this section, as 10 if his or her taxable year for federal income tax purposes were limited 11 to the period of his or her city resident status.

12 (c) Special accruals.

13 (1) If an individual changes his or her status from city resident to 14 city nonresident, he or she shall, regardless of his or her method of 15 accounting, accrue for the portion of the taxable year prior to such 16 change of status any items of income, gain, loss or deduction accruing 17 prior to the change of status, if not otherwise properly includible, 18 whether or not because of an election to report on an installment basis, 19 or allowable for city income tax purposes for such portion of the taxa-20 ble year or for a prior taxable year. The amounts of such accrued items 21 shall be determined with the applicable modifications described in 22 sections 11-1712 and 11-1715 of this chapter as if such accrued items 23 were includible or allowable for federal income tax purposes.

24 (2) If an individual changes his or her status from city nonresident 25 to city resident, he or she shall, regardless of his or her method of 26 accounting, accrue for the portion of the taxable year prior to such 27 change of status any items of income, gain, loss or deduction accruing 28 prior to the change of status, other than items derived from or 29 connected with New York state sources, if not otherwise properly inclu-30 dible, whether or not because of an election to report on an installment 31 basis, or allowable for federal income tax purposes for such portion of 32 the taxable year or for a prior taxable year. The amounts of such 33 accrued items shall be determined with the applicable modifications 34 described in sections 11-1712 and 11-1715 of this chapter as if such 35 accrued items were includible or allowable for federal income tax 36 purposes.

37 (3) No item of income, gain, loss or deduction which is accrued under 38 this subdivision shall be taken into account in determining city 39 adjusted gross income or the city itemized deduction for any subsequent 40 taxable period.

41 (4) The accruals under this subdivision shall not be required if the 42 individual files with the tax commission a bond or other security 43 acceptable to the tax commission, conditioned upon the inclusion of 44 amounts accruable under this subdivision in city adjusted gross income 45 for one or more subsequent taxable years as if the individual had not 46 changed his or her resident status.

47 (5) The provisions of subdivisions (a), (b) and paragraphs one through 48 four of this subdivision shall apply if an individual changes his or her 49 status from a city resident to city nonresident or from a city nonresi-50 dent to a city resident during a taxable year, or at the beginning of a 51 taxable year, as a result of a change of domicile or as a result of 52 becoming a city resident or city nonresident based on the definition 53 contained in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of subdivision (b) of 54 section 11-1705 of this chapter.

55 (6) Except as provided in this paragraph, where an individual who is a 56 member of a partnership or shareholder of an S corporation changes

1 status from city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident 2 to city resident, the portion of the distributive or pro rata share of 3 income, gain and loss, less deductions attributable thereto, from a 4 partnership or S corporation shall be allocated to the resident and 5 nonresident periods of the partner or shareholder on a proportionate 6 basis throughout the taxable year of the partnership or S corporation.

7 In such event, the portion of the distributive or pro rata share allo-8 cated to the period of residency shall be determined based on the number 9 of days of residency within the reporting period of the partnership or S 10 corporation over the total number of days in the reporting period of the 11 partnership or S corporation. Provided, however, that the commissioner 12 may require, or the individual may elect, to accrue to the period of 13 residence, and the period of nonresidence, the portion of the distribu-14 tive or pro rata share of partnership or S corporation income, gain and 15 loss, less deductions attributable thereto, accruing during the individ-16 ual's respective resident and nonresident periods in a manner that 17 reflects the date of accrual of said income, gain and loss by the part-18 nership or S corporation.

19 (7) Except as provided in this paragraph, where an individual who is a 20 beneficiary of an estate or trust changes status from city resident to 21 city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city resident, the portion 22 of any estate or trust income credited, distributable, payable or 23 required to be distributed to such beneficiary shall be allocated to the 24 resident and nonresident periods of the beneficiary on a proportionate 25 basis throughout the taxable year of the estate or trust. In such event, 26 the portion of such estate or trust income allocated to the period of 27 residency shall be determined based on the number of days of residency 28 within the reporting period of the estate or trust over the total number 29 of days in the reporting period of the estate or trust. Provided, howev-30 er, that the commissioner may require, or the beneficiary may elect, to 31 accrue to the period of residence, and the period of nonresidence, the 32 portion of such estate or trust income accruing during the beneficiary's 33 respective resident and nonresident periods in a manner that reflects 34 the date of accrual of said estate or trust income by the estate or 35 trust.

36 (d) City minimum tax. Where two returns are required under this 37 section, the total of the taxes due thereon shall not be less than would 38 be due if the city taxable incomes reportable on the two returns were 39 included in one return.

40 (e) Proration. Where a return is required under this section, the 41 city personal exemptions allowable under section 11-1716 of this chapter 42 shall be prorated, under regulations of the tax commission, to reflect 43 the portions of the entire taxable year during which the individual was 44 a resident.

45 (f) Standard deduction. Where a return is required under this 46 section, the city standard deduction allowable on such return shall be 47 the amount allowed pursuant to the provisions of section 11-1714 of this 48 chapter, prorated according to the period covered by the return.

49 (g) Trusts. If the status of a trust changes during its taxable year
50 from city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city 51 resident, the fiduciary shall file one return as a city resident trust 52 for the portion of the year during which the trust is a city resident 53 trust, and one return under chapter nineteen of this title for the 54 portion of the year during which the trust is a city nonresident trust, 55 subject to such exceptions as the tax commission may prescribe by regu-56 lations. The provisions of subdivisions (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this

1 section shall apply for the purposes of this subdivision, except to the 2 extent that any of such provisions may be inconsistent with the 3 provisions of section 11-1718 of this chapter, and except that the term 4 "individual" shall be read as "trust", the term "city adjusted gross 5 income" shall be read as "city taxable income", reference to "gain" 6 shall include any modification for includible gain under subdivision 7 five of section 11-1718 of this chapter, and the phrase "personal 8 exemptions allowable under section 11-1716 of this chapter" shall be 9 read as "city exemptions allowable under section 11-1718 of this chap-
10 ter."

11 (h) Lump sum distributions. If the status of a taxpayer changes 12 during his or her taxable year from city resident to city nonresident, 13 or from city nonresident to city resident, the taxpayer shall, regard-14 less of his method of accounting, accrue for the portion of the taxable 15 year prior to such change of status the total taxable amount of a lump 16 sum distribution accruing prior to the change of status, if the ordinary 17 income portion thereof is not otherwise subject to tax under section 18 11-1703 of this chapter for such portion of the taxable year or for a 19 prior taxable year. No ordinary income portion of a lump sum distrib-20 ution the total taxable amount of which is accrued under this subdivi-21 sion shall be subject to tax under section 11-1703 of this chapter for 22 any subsequent taxable period. The accrual under this subdivision shall 23 not be required if the taxpayer files with the tax commission a bond or 24 other security acceptable to the tax commission, conditioned upon the 25 payment of tax under section 11-1703 of this chapter, with respect to 26 such amount accruable under this subdivision, for a subsequent taxable 27 year as if the taxpayer had not changed its resident status.

28 (i) Deduction for two-earner married couples. Where a return is 29 required under this section, the amount of deduction under paragraph 30 twenty-nine of subdivision (c) of section 11-1712 of this chapter shall 31 be equal to ten percent of the lesser of:

32 (1) thirty thousand dollars, pro rated according to the period covered 33 by the return or

34 (2) the qualified earned income of the spouse with the lower qualified 35 earned income for the period covered by the return.

36 § 11-1755 Relief from joint and several liability on joint return.

37 (a) General. The provisions of section six thousand fifteen of the 38 internal revenue code applicable to the liability of individuals who 39 file joint income tax returns shall apply to the same extent as if such 40 section of such code were contained in and made part of this section, 41 except to the extent that any provision of such section is either incon-42 sistent with or not relevant to this chapter and except as modified in 43 subdivision (b) of this section, or with such other modifications as may 44 be necessary to adapt the language of such provisions to the provisions
45 of this chapter.

53 (4) In the heading of subsection (a) and in clause (ii) of subpara-54 graph (A) of paragraph three of subsection (c), the phrase "section 55 6013(d)(3)" shall be read as "paragraphs two and three of subdivision 56 (b) of section 11-1751 of this chapter".

1 (5) In paragraph three of subsection (b), the phrase "section 2 6662(d)(2)(A)" shall be read as "subdivision (p) of section 11-1785 of 19 shall be disregarded: (A) The phrase "notwithstanding the provisions of 20 section 7421(a)" contained in clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) of para-21 graph one of subsection (e); and (B) subparagraph (C) of paragraph three 22 of subsection (e).

23 (c) Federal determination. If an individual is relieved of a federal 24 income tax liability pursuant to subsection (b) of section six thousand 25 fifteen of the internal revenue code, there shall be a rebuttable 26 presumption that such individual shall also be entitled to equivalent 27 relief from liability under this section, to the extent that such indi-28 vidual has an understatement of tax under this chapter for the same 29 taxable year that is attributable to the same erroneous item or items to 30 which the individual's federal income tax liability was attributable.

31 § 11-1757 Extensions of time. (a) General. The commissioner of taxa-32 tion and finance may grant a reasonable extension of time for payment of 33 tax or estimated tax, or any installment, or for filing any return, 34 statement, or other document required pursuant to this chapter, on such 35 terms and conditions as it may require. Except for a taxpayer who is 36 outside the United States or who intends to claim nonresident status 37 pursuant to clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subdivi-38 sion (b) of section 11-1705 of this chapter, no such extension for 39 filing any return, statement or other document, shall exceed six months.

40 (b) Furnishing of security. If any extension of time is granted for 41 payment of any amount of tax, the tax commission may require the taxpay-42 er to furnish a bond or other security in an amount not exceeding twice 43 the amount for which the extension of time for payment is granted on 44 such terms and conditions as the tax commission may require.

45 § 11-1758 Requirements concerning returns, notices, records and state-46 ments. (a) General. The tax commission may prescribe regulations as to 47 the keeping of records, the content and form of returns and statements, 48 and the filing of copies of federal income tax returns and determi-49 nations. The tax commission may require any person, by regulation or 50 notice served upon such person, to make such returns, render such state-51 ments, or keep such records, as the tax commission may deem sufficient 52 to show whether or not such person is liable under this chapter for tax 53 or for collection of tax.

54 (b) Identifying numbers. (1) When required by regulations prescribed 55 by the tax commission:

1 (A) Inclusion in returns. Any person required under the authority of 2 this chapter to make a return, statement, or other document shall 3 include in such return, statement or other document such identifying 4 number as may be prescribed for securing proper identification of such 5 person.

6 (B) Furnishing number to other persons. Any person with respect to 7 whom a return, statement or other document is required under the author-8 ity of this chapter to be made by another person shall furnish to such 9 other person such identifying number as may be prescribed for securing 10 his or her proper identification.

11 (C) Furnishing number of another person. Any person required under the 12 authority of this chapter to make a return, statement, or other document 13 with respect to another person shall request from such other person, and 14 shall include in any such return, statement, or other document, such 15 identifying number as may be prescribed for securing proper identifica-16 tion of such other person.

17 (2) Limitation.

18 (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, a return 19 of any person with respect to his or her liability for tax, or any 20 statement or other document in support thereof, shall not be considered 21 for purposes of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph one of this 22 subdivision as a return, statement or other document with respect to 23 another person.

24 (B) For purposes of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph one of this 25 subdivision, a return of an estate or trust with respect to its liabil-26 ity for tax, and any statement or other document in support thereof, 27 shall be considered as a return, statement, or other document with 28 respect to each beneficiary of such estate or trust.

29 (3) Requirement of information. For purposes of this section, the tax 30 commission is authorized to require such information as may be necessary 31 to assign an identifying number to any person.

32 (c) Partnerships and S corporations.

33 (1) Partnerships. Every partnership having a city resident partner 34 shall make a return for the taxable year setting forth all items of 35 income, gain, loss and deduction and such other pertinent information as 36 the tax commission may by regulations and instructions prescribe. Such 37 return shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month 38 following the close of each taxable year except that the due date for 39 the return of a partnership consisting entirely of nonresident aliens 40 shall be the date prescribed for the filing of its federal partnership 41 return for the taxable year. For purposes of this paragraph, "taxable 42 year" means a year or a period which would be a taxable year of the 43 partnership if it were subject to tax under this chapter.

44 (2) S corporations. Every S corporation for which the election 45 provided for in subsection (a) of section six hundred sixty of the tax 46 law is in effect shall make a return setting forth all items of income, 47 loss and deduction and such other pertinent information as the tax 48 commission may by regulations and instructions prescribe. Such return 49 shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the third month follow-50 ing the close of each taxable year.

51 (d) Information at source. The tax commission may prescribe regu-52 lations and instructions requiring returns of information to be made and 53 filed on or before February twenty-eighth of each year as to the payment 54 or crediting in any calendar year of amounts of six hundred dollars or 55 more to any taxpayer under this chapter. Such returns may be required of 56 any persons, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal proper-

1 ty, fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of this 2 state, or of any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this 3 state, having the control, receipt, custody, disposal or payment of 4 interest, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, 5 remunerations, emoluments or other fixed or determinable gains, profits 6 or income, except interest coupons payable to bearer. A duplicate of the 7 statement as to tax withheld on wages, required to be furnished by an 8 employer to an employee, shall constitute the return of information 9 required to be made under this section with respect to such wages.

10 (e) Notice of qualification as receiver, etc. Every receiver, trustee 11 in bankruptcy, assignee for benefit of creditors, or other like fiduci-12 ary shall give notice of his or her qualification as such to the tax 13 commission, as may be required by regulation.

14 (g) Requirements applicable to tax return preparer.

15 (1) Signature of tax return preparer. Any individual who is a tax 16 return preparer and prepares any return or claim for refund, shall sign 17 such return or claim for refund in accordance with regulations or 18 instructions prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance.

19 (2) Furnishing identifying numbers. Any return or claim for refund 20 which is prepared by a tax return preparer shall include the identifying 21 number of the preparer required by paragraph one of this subdivision to 22 sign such return or claim for refund. In addition, where such individual 23 preparer is an employee of an employer which is a tax return preparer 24 with respect to such return or claim for refund, or where such preparer 25 is a partner in a partnership which is a tax return preparer with 26 respect to such return or claim for refund, then such return or claim 27 for refund shall also include the identifying number of such employer or 28 partnership. Such identifying numbers shall be as prescribed by the 29 commissioner of taxation and finance in order to secure the proper iden-30 tification of such individual preparer, partnership or employer. The 31 responsibility for the inclusion of such identifying numbers shall be as 32 set forth in paragraph two of subdivision (t) of section 11-1785 of this 33 chapter.

34 (3) Furnishing copy to taxpayer. Any person who is a tax return 35 preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund shall furnish a 36 completed copy of such return or claim for refund to the taxpayer not 37 later than the time such return or claim for refund is presented for 38 such taxpayer's signature.

39 (4) Copy or list to be retained by tax return preparer. Any person who 40 is a tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund 41 shall for a three year retention period described in paragraph nine of 42 this subdivision:

43 (A) retain a completed copy of such return or claim for refund, or 44 retain, on a list, the name and identification number of the taxpayer 45 for whom such return or claim was prepared, and 46 (B) make such copy or list available for inspection upon request by 47 the commissioner of taxation and finance.

48 (5) Tax return preparer defined. For purposes of this chapter, the 49 term "tax return preparer" means any person who prepares for compen-50 sation, or who employs or engages one or more persons to prepare for 51 compensation any return or claim for refund. The preparation of a 52 substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as 53 if it were the preparation of such return or claim for refund. Where an 54 employer and one or more employees of such employer are tax return 55 preparers with respect to the same return or claim for refund, or where 56 a partnership and one or more partners in such partnership are tax

1 return preparers with respect to the same return or claim for refund, 2 for purposes of paragraphs three and four of this subdivision, such 3 employer or such partnership shall be deemed to be the sole tax return 4 preparer. A person shall not be a "tax return preparer" merely because 5 such person:

6 (A) furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance,

7 (B) prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer, or of an 8 officer or employee of the employer, by whom he or she is regularly and 9 continuously employed, or

10 (C) prepares as a fiduciary a return or claim for refund for any 11 person.

12 (6) Person defined. For purposes of this subdivision, the term
13 "person" includes an individual, corporation, including a dissolved 14 corporation, or partnership.

15 (7) Return defined. For purposes of this subdivision, the term 16 "return" shall mean any return required under this chapter.

17 (8) Claim for refund defined. For purposes of this subdivision, the 18 term "claim for refund" shall mean a claim for refund of or credit 19 against any tax imposed under this chapter, and shall include any claim 20 for refund of any credit treated as an overpayment of tax under this 21 chapter.

22 (9) Retention period defined. For purposes of this subdivision, the 23 term "retention period" shall mean:

24 (A) in the case of a tax return, the period ending the later of three 25 years after the due date of such return, without regard to extensions, 26 or three years after the date such return was presented to the taxpayer 27 for such taxpayer's signature, and 28 (B) in the case of a claim for refund, the period ending three years 29 after such claim for refund was presented to the taxpayer for such 30 taxpayer's signature.

31 (10) Mandatory electronic filing by certain tax return preparers.

32 (A)(i) If a tax return preparer prepared more than two hundred original 33 returns during the calendar year beginning on January first, two thou-34 sand five, and if, in the calendar year beginning on January first, two 35 thousand six, such tax return preparer prepares one or more authorized 36 returns using tax software, then, for such calendar year two thousand 37 six and for each subsequent calendar year thereafter, all authorized 38 returns prepared by such tax return preparer shall be filed electron-39 ically, in accordance with instructions prescribed by the commissioner 40 of taxation and finance.

41 (ii) If a tax return preparer prepared more than one hundred original 42 returns during any calendar year beginning on or after January first, 43 two thousand six, and if, in any succeeding calendar year such tax 44 return preparer prepares one or more authorized returns using tax soft-45 ware, then, for such succeeding calendar year and for each subsequent 46 calendar year thereafter, all authorized returns prepared by such tax 47 return preparer shall be filed electronically, in accordance with 48 instructions prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance.

49 (B) For purposes of this paragraph: (i) "Electronic" means computer 50 technology; provided, however, that the commissioner of taxation and 51 finance may, in instructions, provide that use of barcode technology 52 will also satisfy the mandatory electronic filing requirements of this 53 section.

54 (ii) "Authorized return" means any return required under this article 55 which the commissioner of taxation and finance has authorized to be 56 filed electronically.

1 (iii) "Original return" means a return required under this article 2 that is filed, without regard to extensions, during the calendar year 3 for which that return is required to be filed.

4 (iv) "Tax software" means any computer software program intended for 5 tax return preparation purposes.

6 § 11-1759 Report of federal changes, corrections or disallowances. If 7 the amount of a taxpayer's federal taxable income, total taxable amount 8 or ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution or includible gain 9 of a trust reported on his federal income tax return for any taxable 10 year, or the amount of any claim of right adjustment, is changed or 11 corrected by the United States internal revenue service or other compe-12 tent authority, or as the result of a renegotiation of a contract or 13 subcontract with the United States or the amount an employer is required 14 to deduct and withhold from wages for federal income tax withholding 15 purposes is changed or corrected by such service or authority or if a 16 taxpayer's claim for credit or refund of federal income tax is disal-17 lowed in whole or in part, the taxpayer or employer shall report such 18 change or correction or disallowance within ninety days after the final 19 determination of such change, correction, renegotiation, or disallow-20 ance, or as otherwise required by the commissioner, and shall concede 21 the accuracy of such determination or state wherein it is erroneous. The 22 allowance of a tentative carryback adjustment based upon a net operating 23 loss carryback pursuant to section sixty-four hundred eleven of the 24 internal revenue code shall be treated as a final determination for 25 purposes of this section. Any taxpayer filing an amended federal income 26 tax return and any employer filing an amended federal return of income 27 tax withheld shall also file within ninety days thereafter an amended 28 return under this chapter, and shall give such information as the 29 commissioner may require. The commissioner may by regulation prescribe 30 such exceptions to the requirements of this section as he or she deems 31 appropriate. For purposes of this section, (i) the term "taxpayer" shall 32 include a partnership having a resident partner or having any income 33 derived from New York sources, and a corporation with respect to which 34 the taxable year of such change, correction, disallowance or amendment 35 is a year with respect to which the election provided for in subsection 36 (a) of section six hundred sixty of the tax law is in effect, and (ii) 37 the term "federal income tax return" shall include the returns of income 38 required under sections six thousand thirty-one and six thousand thir-39 ty-seven of the internal revenue code. In the case of such a corpo-40 ration, such report shall also include any change or correction of the 41 taxes described in paragraphs two and three of subsection (f) of section 42 thirteen hundred sixty-six of the internal revenue code. Reports made 43 under this section by a partnership or corporation shall indicate the 44 portion of the change in each item of income, gain, loss or deduction, 45 and, in the case of a corporation, of each change in, or disallowance of 46 a claim for credit or refund of such tax, allocable to each partner or 47 shareholder and shall set forth such identifying information with 48 respect to such partner or shareholder as may be prescribed by the 49 commissioner.

50 § 11-1761 Change of election. Any election expressly authorized by 51 this chapter may be changed on such terms and conditions as the tax 52 commission may prescribe by regulation.

53 § 11-1762 Computation of tax where taxpayer restores substantial 54 amount held under claim of right. (a) General. If:

1 (1) an item was included in city adjusted gross income for a prior 2 taxable year, or years, because it appeared that the taxpayer had an 3 unrestricted right to such item, and 4 (2) for the current taxable year the provisions of paragraph five of 5 subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred forty-one of the internal 6 revenue code apply to such item, then the tax imposed by this chapter 7 for the taxable year shall be an amount equal to 8 (3) the tax for the taxable year computed without regard to this 9 section, minus

10 (4) the decrease in tax under this chapter for the prior taxable year, 11 or years, which would result solely from the exclusion of such item, or 12 portion thereof, from city adjusted gross income for such prior taxable 13 year, or years.

14 (b) Special rules. If the decrease in tax ascertained under paragraph 15 four of subdivision (a) of this section exceeds the tax imposed by this 16 chapter for the taxable year, such excess shall be considered a payment 17 of tax on the last day prescribed by law for the payment of tax for the 18 taxable year, and shall be refunded or credited in the same manner as if 19 it were an overpayment for such taxable year.

21 WITHHOLDING OF TAX

22 § 11-1771 Requirement of withholding tax from wages. (a) General. (1)
23 Every employer maintaining an office or transacting business within this 24 city or state and making payment on and after January first, nineteen 25 hundred seventy-seven of any wages taxable under this chapter, or under 26 section two of chapter eight hundred eighty-two of the laws of nineteen 27 hundred seventy-five, as amended by chapter eight hundred eighty-six of 28 the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-five, shall deduct and withhold 29 from such wages for each payroll period a tax computed in such manner as 30 to result, so far as practicable, in withholding from the employee's 31 wages during each calendar year an amount substantially equivalent to 32 the tax reasonably estimated to be due under this chapter or such 33 section two resulting from the inclusion in the employee's city adjusted 34 gross income of his or her wages received during such calendar year.
35 The method of determining the amount to be withheld shall be prescribed 36 by regulations of the tax commission, with due regard to the city with-37 holding exemptions of the employee and the sum of any credits allowable 38 against his or her tax. The section shall not apply to payments by the 39 United States for service in the armed forces of the United States so 40 long as the right to require deduction and withholding of tax from such 41 payments is prohibited by the laws of the United States. Service in the 42 armed forces of the United States shall have the same meaning as when 43 used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States relating 44 to withholding of city income taxes.

45 (2) The tax commission may provide, by regulations, for withholding:

46 (A) from remuneration for services performed by an employee for his or 47 her employer which does not constitute wages, and 48 (B) from remuneration for services performed by an employee for his or 49 her employer which does not constitute wages, and (B) from any other 50 type of payment, with respect to which the tax commission finds that 51 withholding would be appropriate under the provisions of this chapter, 52 if the employer and the employee, or in the case of any other type of 53 payment the person making and the person receiving the payment, agree to 54 such withholding. Such agreement shall be made in such form and manner

1 as the tax commission may by regulations provide. For purposes of this 2 chapter, remuneration or other payments with respect to which such 3 agreement is made shall be treated as if they were wages paid by an 4 employer to an employee to the extent that such remuneration is paid or 5 other payments are made during the period for which the agreement is in 6 effect.

7 (3) The tax commission shall provide by regulation for an exemption 8 from withholding for: (i) employees under eighteen years of age, (ii) 9 employees under twenty-five years of age who are full-time students and 10 (iii) employees over sixty-five years of age, provided such employees 11 had no income tax liability in the prior year and can reasonably antic-12 ipate none in the current year.

13 (b) Extension of withholding to certain periodic payments and gambling 14 winnings.

15 (1) For purposes of this chapter, any payment subject to withholding, 16 within the meaning of paragraph two of this subdivision, shall be treat-17 ed as if it were wages paid by an employer to an employee.

18 (2) Payments subject to withholding. For purposes of paragraph one of 19 this subdivision, a payment subject to withholding means:

20 (A) Any supplemental unemployment compensation benefit paid to an 21 individual to the extent includible in such individual's city adjusted 22 gross income.

23 (B) Any member or employee contributions to a retirement system or 24 pension fund picked up by the employer pursuant to subdivision f of 25 section five hundred seventeen or subdivision d of section six hundred 26 thirteen of the retirement and social security law or section 13-225.1, 27 13-327.1, 13-125.1, 13-125.2 or 13-521.1 of the code of the preceding 28 municipality or subdivision nineteen of section twenty-five hundred 29 seventy-five of the education law.

30 (C) Any payment of an annuity to an individual to the extent includi-31 ble in such individual's city adjusted gross income, if at the time the 32 payment is made a request that such annuity be subject to withholding 33 under this chapter is in effect.

34 (D) Any payment of winnings from a wager placed in a lottery conducted 35 by the division of the lottery, if the proceeds from such wager exceed 36 five thousand dollars and such proceeds are payable pursuant to a prize 37 claim made by an individual who was a resident of the city at the time 38 of the selection of the prize winning lottery ticket.

39 (F) Any amount deducted or deferred from an employee's salary under a 40 flexible benefits program established pursuant to section twenty-three 41 of the general municipal law or section one thousand two hundred ten-a 42 of the public authorities law.

43 (G) Any amount by which an employee's salary is reduced pursuant to 44 the provisions of subdivision b of section 12-126.1 and subdivision b of 45 section 12-126.2 of the code of the preceding municipality.

46 (3) Additional provisions applicable to this subdivision.

47 (A) Request for annuity withholding. A request that an annuity be 48 subject to withholding under this chapter shall be made by the payee in 49 writing to the person making the annuity payments.

50 Such a request may, notwithstanding any provision of law to the 51 contrary, be terminated by furnishing to the person making the payments 52 a written statement of termination. Such a request for withholding or 53 statement of termination shall take effect in such manner as the commis-54 sioner of taxation and finance shall prescribe.

55 (B) Withholding on lottery winnings upon change of residence. If a 56 payee of lottery winnings subject to the provisions of subparagraph (D)

1 of paragraph two of this subdivision changes status from resident to 2 nonresident, withholding in accordance with such subparagraph shall 3 constitute other security acceptable to the commissioner of taxation and 4 finance within the meaning of paragraph four of subdivision (c) of 5 section 11-1754 of this chapter, unless such payee elects, in such 6 manner as the commissioner of taxation and finance shall prescribe, to 7 apply the provisions of paragraph one of such subdivision (c) to the 8 proceeds, in which case withholding under this subdivision shall no 9 longer apply to such proceeds.

10 (C) Proceeds. For purposes of subparagraphs (D) and (E) of paragraph 11 two of this subdivision, proceeds from a wager shall be determined by 12 reducing the amount received by the amount of the wager.

13 (D) Taxes withheld at maximum rate. The tax withheld on any payment 14 subject to withholding under subparagraph (D) or (E) of paragraph two of 15 this subdivision shall be withheld at the highest rate of tax on city 16 taxable income, without any allowance for deductions or exemptions, in 17 effect under this chapter for the taxable year in which the payment is 18 made.

19 (E) Determination of residence. For purposes of applying the 20 provisions of subparagraphs (D) and (E) of paragraph two of this subdivi-21 sion, any payor of proceeds shall determine the residence of the payee 22 of such proceeds in accordance with regulations or instructions of the 23 commissioner of taxation and finance or, in the absence of any such 24 regulations or instructions, in accordance with the address of the payee 25 required under the provisions of paragraph six of subsection (q) of 26 section thirty-four hundred two of the internal revenue code.

27 (b) Extension of withholding to unemployment compensation benefits, 28 annuity payments, and lottery winnings.

29 (1) For purposes of this chapter:

30 (A) any supplemental unemployment compensation benefit paid to an 31 individual to the extent includible in such individual's city adjusted
32 gross income,

33 (B) any payment of an annuity to an individual to the extent includi-34 ble in such individual's city adjusted gross income, if at the time the 35 payment is made a request that such annuity be subject to withholding 36 under this chapter is in effect, and

37 (C) any periodic payment (but only where such payment is part of a 38 series of payments extending over a period greater than one year), of 39 lottery winnings by the division of the lottery, if at the time the 40 payment is made a request that such lottery winnings be subject to with-41 holding under this chapter is in effect, shall be treated as if it were 42 a payment of wages by an employer to an employee for a payroll period.

43 (D) any member or employee contributions to a retirement system or 44 pension fund picked up or paid by the employer for members of the 45 Manhattan and Bronx surface transportation authority pension plan and 46 treated as employer contributions in determining income tax treatment 47 under subdivision (h) of section four hundred fourteen of the Internal 48 Revenue Code.

49 (2) Request for withholding. A request that an annuity be subject to 50 withholding under this chapter shall be made by the payee in writing to 51 the person making the annuity payments, and a request that lottery 52 winnings be subject to withholding under this chapter shall be made by 53 the payee in writing to the division of the lottery, in the manner 54 prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance. A request that 55 an annuity be subject to withholding may, notwithstanding any provision 56 of law to the contrary, be terminated by furnishing to the person making

1 the payments a written statement of termination. A request that lottery 2 winnings be subject to withholding under this chapter shall not be revo-3 cable while the payee is a nonresident, and shall constitute other secu-4 rity acceptable to the tax commission within the meaning of paragraph 5 four of subdivision (c) of section 11-1754 of this chapter.

6 Such a request for withholding or statement of termination shall take 7 effect in such manner as the commissioner of taxation and finance shall 8 provide by regulation.

9 (c) Withholding exemptions. For purposes of this section:

10 (1) The number of city withholding exemptions which an employee 11 receiving wages taxable under this chapter may claim shall not exceed 12 the number of city exemptions allowed pursuant to the provisions of 13 section 11-1716 of this chapter and such additional city withholding 14 exemptions as may be prescribed by regulations or instructions of the 15 commissioner of taxation and finance, taking into account the applicable 16 standard deduction and such other factors as he or she finds appropri-17 ate.

18 (2) The amount of each city withholding exemption shall be the amount 19 of the city exemption allowed pursuant to the provisions of section
20 11-1716 of this chapter.

21 (3) Withholding exemption certificate. An employee shall be required 22 to file with his or her employer a withholding exemption certificate in 23 accordance with regulations or instructions prescribed by the commis-24 sioner of taxation and finance.

25 § 11-1772 Information statement for employee. Every employer required 26 to deduct and withhold tax under this chapter from the wages of an 27 employee, or who would have been required so to deduct and withhold tax 28 if the employee had claimed no more than one withholding exemption, 29 shall furnish to each such employee in respect of the wages paid by such 30 employer to such employee during the calendar year on or before February 31 fifteenth of the succeeding year, or, if his or her employment is termi-32 nated before the close of such calendar year, within thirty days from 33 the date on which the last payment of the wages is made, a written 34 statement as prescribed by the tax commission showing the amount of 35 wages paid by the employer to the employee, the amount deducted and 36 withheld as tax, and such other information as the tax commission shall 37 prescribe.

38 § 11-1773 Credit for tax withheld. Wages upon which tax is required 39 to be withheld shall be taxable under this chapter as if no withholding 40 were required, but any amount of tax actually deducted and withheld 41 under this chapter in any calendar year shall be deemed to have been 42 paid to the tax commission on behalf of the person from whom withheld, 43 and such person shall be credited with having paid that amount of tax 44 for the taxable year beginning in such calendar year.

45 For a taxable year of less than twelve months, the credit shall be 46 made under regulations of the tax commission.

47 § 11-1774 Employer's return and payment of withheld taxes. (a) Gener-
48 al. Every employer required to deduct and withhold tax under this chap-49 ter shall file a withholding return and pay over to the tax commission 50 or to a depository designated by the tax commission, the taxes so 51 required to be deducted and withheld, as hereafter prescribed.

52 (1) If, after having made a payroll, an employer has been required to 53 deduct and withhold, but has not paid over, a cumulative aggregate 54 amount of seven hundred dollars or more of tax during a calendar quar-55 ter, such employer shall file a return and pay over the tax. If an 56 employer was required to remit a cumulative aggregate amount of less

1 than fifteen thousand dollars in withholding tax during the calendar
2 year which precedes the previous calendar year, the tax shall be paid 3 over on or before the fifth business day following the date of making 4 such a payroll. If an employer was required to remit a cumulative aggregate 5 amount more than or equal to fifteen thousand dollars in withholding 6 tax during the calendar year which precedes the previous calendar 7 year, the tax shall be paid over on or before the third business day 8 following the date of making such a payroll. In the case of an "educational 9 organization" as defined in paragraph two of subsection (a) of 10 section nine of the tax law or a "health care provider" as defined in 11 paragraph four of subsection (a) of section nine of the tax law, the tax 12 shall be paid over on or before the fifth business day following the 13 date of making such a payroll.

14 (2) If, at the close of any calendar quarter, an employer has been 15 required to deduct and withhold, but has not paid over, a cumulative 16 aggregate amount of less than seven hundred dollars of tax during such 17 calendar quarter, such employer shall pay over the tax with the quarterly 18 combined withholding, wage reporting and unemployment insurance 19 return required to be filed for such quarter by paragraph four of this 20 subdivision, on or before the last date prescribed by such paragraph for 21 filing such return.

22 (3) If an employer makes more than one payroll per week, then such 23 employer shall determine the applicability of the rules described in 24 paragraphs one and two of this subdivision measured by the last payroll 25 made within the week by such employer; provided, however, that in any 26 week in which the end of a quarter occurs between the making of payrolls 27 by an employer, any tax required to be deducted and withheld in a 28 payroll or payrolls made during such week prior to or on the end of the 29 quarter shall be paid over. If an employer was required to remit a cumulative 30 aggregate amount of less than fifteen thousand dollars in withholding 31 tax during the calendar year preceding the previous calendar
32 year, the tax shall be paid over on or before the fifth business day 33 following the date of making the last payroll in such quarter. If an 34 employer was required to remit a cumulative aggregate amount more than 35 or equal to fifteen thousand dollars in withholding tax during the 36 calendar year preceding the previous calendar year, the tax shall be 37 paid over on or before the third business day following the date of 38 making the last payroll in such quarter. In the case of an "educational 39 organization" as defined in paragraph two of subsection (a) of section 40 nine of the tax law or a "health care provider" as defined in paragraph 41 four of subsection (a) of section nine of the tax law, the tax shall be 42 paid over on or before the fifth business day following the date of 43 making such a payroll. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "week" 44 shall mean the period Sunday through Saturday.

45 (4)(A) All employers described in paragraph one of subdivision (a) of 46 section 11-1771 of this subchapter, including those whose wages paid are 47 not sufficient to require the withholding of tax from the wages of any 48 of their employees, all employers required to provide the wage reporting 49 information for the employees described in subdivision one of section 50 one hundred seventy-one-a of the tax law, and all employers liable for 51 unemployment insurance contributions or for payments in lieu of such 52 contributions pursuant to article eighteen of the labor law, shall file 53 a quarterly combined withholding, wage reporting and unemployment insurance 54 return with the department of taxation and finance detailing the 55 preceding calendar quarter's withholding tax transactions, such quarter's 56 wage reporting information, such quarter's unemployment insurance

1 contributions, and such other related information as the commissioner of 2 taxation and finance or the commissioner of labor, as applicable, may 3 prescribe. In addition, the return covering the last calendar quarter of 4 each year shall also include withholding reconciliation information for 5 such calendar year. Such returns shall be filed no later than the last 6 day of the month following the last day of each calendar quarter; 7 provided, however, that an employer may provide the wage reporting 8 information covering the last calendar quarter of each year, and the 9 withholding reconciliation information for such year no later than 10 February twenty-eighth of the succeeding year.

11 (B) An employer shall, at the time prescribed by subparagraph (A) of 12 this paragraph for filing each quarterly combined withholding, wage 13 reporting and unemployment insurance return, pay over, in a single 14 remittance, the unemployment insurance contributions and aggregate with-15 holding taxes required to be paid over with such return.

16 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, an overpayment 17 of unemployment insurance contributions or of aggregate withholding 18 taxes made by an employer with the quarterly combined withholding, wage 19 reporting and unemployment insurance return for a calendar quarter may 20 be only credited by such employer against such employer's liability for 21 unemployment insurance contributions or aggregate withholding taxes, 22 respectively.

23 (5) The tax commission may, if it believes such action necessary for 24 the protection of the revenues, require any employer to make such return 25 and pay to it the tax deducted and withheld at any time, or from time to 26 time.

27 (6) "Aggregate amount" as used in paragraphs one, two and three of 28 this subdivision means the aggregate of the aggregate amounts of New 29 York state personal income tax, city personal income tax on residents 30 and city earnings tax on nonresidents authorized to be deducted and 31 withheld.

32 (b) Deposit in trust for tax commission. Whenever any employer fails 33 to collect, truthfully account for, pay over the tax, or make returns of 34 the tax as required in this section, the tax commission may serve a 35 notice requiring such employer to collect the taxes which become collec-36 tible after service of such notice, to deposit such taxes in a bank 37 approved by the tax commission, in a separate account, in trust for and 38 payable to the tax commission, and to keep the amount of such tax in 39 such account until payment over to the tax commission. Such notice 40 shall remain in effect until a notice of cancellation is served by the 41 tax commission.

42 § 11-1775 Employer's liability for withheld taxes. Every employer
43 required to deduct and withhold tax under this chapter is hereby made 44 liable for such tax. For purposes of assessment and collection, any 45 amount required to be withheld and paid over to the tax commission, and 46 any additions to tax, penalties and interest with respect thereto, shall 47 be considered the tax of the employer. Any amount of tax actually 48 deducted and withheld under this chapter shall be held to be a special 49 fund in trust for the tax commission. No employee shall have any right 50 of action against his or her employer in respect to any moneys deducted 51 and withheld from his or her wages and paid over to the tax commission 52 in compliance or in intended compliance with this chapter.

53 § 11-1776 Employer's failure to withhold. If an employer fails to 54 deduct and withhold tax as required, and thereafter the tax against 55 which such tax may be credited is paid, the tax so required to be 56 deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer, but the

1 employer shall not be relieved from liability for any penalties, inter-2 est, or additions to the tax otherwise applicable in respect of such 3 failure to deduct and withhold.

4 § 11-1777 Designation of third parties to perform acts required of 5 employers. In case a fiduciary, agent, or other person has the control, 6 receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays the wages of an employee or 7 group of employees, employed by one or more employers, the tax commis-8 sion, under regulations promulgated by it, is authorized to designate 9 such fiduciary, agent, or other person to perform such acts as are 10 required of employers under this chapter and as the tax commission may 11 specify. Except as may be otherwise prescribed by the tax commission, 12 all provisions of law, including penalties, applicable in respect of an 13 employer shall be applicable to a fiduciary, agent, or other person so 14 designated but, except as so provided, the employer for whom such fidu-15 ciary, agent, or other person acts shall remain subject to the 16 provisions of law, including penalties, applicable in respect of employ-17 ers.

18 § 11-1778 Liability of third parties paying or providing for wages.

19 (a) Direct payment by third party. If a lender, surety or other person, 20 who is not an employer with respect to an employee or group of employ-21 ees, pays wages directly to such an employee or group of employees, 22 employed by one or more employers, or to an agent on behalf of such 23 employee or employees, such lender, surety or other person shall be 24 liable for the amount of taxes, together with interest, required to be 25 deducted and withheld from such wages by the employer.

26 (b) Funds supplied to employer by third parties. If a lender, surety 27 or other person supplies funds to or for the account of an employer for 28 the specific purpose of paying wages of the employees of such employer, 29 with actual notice or knowledge that such employer does not intend to or 30 will not be able to make timely payment or deposit of the amounts of tax 31 required by this chapter to be deducted and withheld by such employer 32 from such wages, such lender, surety or other person shall be liable for 33 the amount of the taxes, together with interest, which are not paid over 34 to the tax commission by such employer with respect to such wages.
35 However, the liability of such lender, surety or other person shall be 36 limited to an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the amount so 37 supplied to or for the account of such employer for such purpose.

38 (c) Effect of payment. Any amounts paid to the tax commission pursuant 39 to this section shall be credited against the liability of the employer.

41 PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

42 § 11-1781 Notice of deficiency. (a) General. If upon examination of a 43 taxpayer's return under this chapter the tax commission determines that 44 there is a deficiency of income tax, it may mail a notice of deficiency 45 to the taxpayer. If a taxpayer fails to file an income tax return 46 required under this chapter, the tax commission is authorized to esti-47 mate the taxpayer's city taxable income and tax thereon, from any infor-48 mation in its possession, and to mail a notice of deficiency to the 49 taxpayer. A notice of deficiency shall be mailed by certified or regis-50 tered mail to the taxpayer at his or her last known address in or out of 51 this state. If a husband and wife are jointly liable for tax, a notice 52 of deficiency may be a single joint notice, except that if the tax 53 commission has been notified by either spouse that separate residences 54 have been established, then, in lieu of the single joint notice, a 55 duplicate original of the joint notice shall be mailed to each spouse at 56 his or her last known address in or out of this state. If the taxpayer

1 is deceased or under a legal disability, a notice of deficiency may be 2 mailed to his or her last known address in or out of this state, unless 3 the tax commission has received notice of the existence of a fiduciary 4 relationship with respect to the taxpayer.

5 (b) Notice of deficiency as assessment. After ninety days from the 6 mailing of a notice of deficiency, such notice shall be an assessment of 7 the amount of tax specified in such notice, together with the interest, 8 additions to tax and penalties stated in such notice, except only for 9 any such tax or other amounts as to which the taxpayer has within such 10 ninety day period filed with the tax commission a petition under section 11 11-1789 of this subchapter. If the notice of deficiency is addressed to 12 a person outside of the United States, such period shall be one hundred 13 fifty days instead of ninety days.

14 (c) Restrictions on assessment and levy. No assessment of a deficiency 15 in tax and no levy or proceeding in court for its collection shall be 16 made, begun or prosecuted, except as otherwise provided in section
17 11-1794 of this subchapter, until a notice of deficiency has been mailed
18 to the taxpayer, nor until the expiration of the time for filing a peti-19 tion contesting such notice, nor, if a petition with respect to the 20 taxable year has been filed with the tax commission, until the decision 21 of the tax commission has become final. For exception in the case of 22 judicial review of the decision of the tax commission, see subdivision 23 (c) of section 11-1790 of this subchapter.

24 (d) Exceptions for mathematical errors. If a mathematical error
25 appears on a return, including an overstatement of the credit for income 26 tax withheld at the source, or of the amount paid as estimated income 27 tax, the tax commission shall notify the taxpayer that an amount of tax 28 in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that such excess has 29 been assessed. Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of defi-30 ciency for the purposes of this section, subdivision (f) of section 31 11-1787 of this subchapter, limiting credits or refunds after petition 32 to the tax commission, or subdivision (b) of section 11-1789 of this 33 subchapter, authorizing the filing of a petition with the tax commission 34 based on a notice of deficiency, nor shall such assessment or collection 35 be prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section.

36 (e) Exceptions where federal changes, corrections or disallowances are 37 not reported. (1) If the taxpayer or employer fails to comply with 38 section 11-1759 of this chapter, instead of the mode and time of assess-39 ment provided for in subdivision (b) of this section, the tax commission 40 may assess a deficiency based upon such federal change, correction or 41 disallowance by mailing to the taxpayer a notice of additional tax due 42 specifying the amount of the deficiency, and such deficiency, together 43 with the interest, additions to tax and penalties stated in such notice, 44 shall be deemed assessed on the date such notice is mailed unless within 45 thirty days after the mailing of such notice a report of the federal 46 change, correction or disallowance or an amended return, where such 47 return was required by section 11-1759 of this chapter, is filed accom-48 panied by a statement showing wherein such federal determination and 49 such notice of additional tax due are erroneous.

50 (2) Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency for 51 the purposes of this section, subdivision (f) of section 11-1787 of this 52 subchapter, limiting credits or refunds after petition to the tax 53 commission, or subdivision (b) of section 11-1789 of this subchapter, 54 authorizing the filing of a petition with the tax commission based on a 55 notice of deficiency, nor shall such assessment or the collection there-56 of be prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section.

1 (3) If a husband and wife are jointly liable for tax, a notice of 2 additional tax due may be a single joint notice, except that if the tax
3 commission has been notified by either spouse that separate residences
4 have been established, then, in lieu of the joint notice, a duplicate 5 original of the joint notice shall be mailed to each spouse at his or 6 her last known address in or out of this state. If the taxpayer is 7 deceased or under a legal disability, a notice of additional tax due may 8 be mailed to his or her last known address in or out of this state, 9 unless the tax commission has received notice of the existence of a 10 fiduciary relationship with respect to the taxpayer.

11 (f) Waiver of restrictions. The taxpayer shall at any time, whether or 12 not a notice of deficiency has been issued, have the right to waive the 13 restrictions on assessment and collection of the whole or any part of 14 the deficiency by a signed notice in writing filed with the tax commis-15 sion.

16 (g) Deficiency defined. For purposes of this chapter, a deficiency 17 means the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter, less (i) the amount 18 shown as the tax upon the taxpayer's return, whether the return was made 19 or the tax computed by such taxpayer or by the tax commission, and less 20 (ii) the amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, 21 as a deficiency and plus (iii) the amount of any rebates. For the 22 purpose of this definition, the tax imposed by this chapter and the tax 23 shown on the return shall both be determined without regard to payments 24 on account of estimated tax or the credit for withholding tax; and a 25 rebate means so much of an abatement, credit, refund or other repayment, 26 whether or not erroneous, made on the ground that the amounts entering 27 into the definition of a deficiency showed a balance in favor of the 28 taxpayer.

29 § 11-1782 Assessment. (a) Assessment date. The amount of tax which a 30 return shows to be due, or the amount of tax which a return would have 31 shown to be due but for a mathematical error, shall be deemed to be 32 assessed on the date of filing of the return, including any amended
33 return showing an increase of tax. In the case of a return properly 34 filed without computation of tax, the tax computed by the tax commission 35 shall be deemed to be assessed on the date on which payment is due. If 36 a notice of deficiency has been mailed, the amount of the deficiency 37 shall be deemed to be assessed on the date specified in subdivision (b) 38 of section 11-1781 of this subchapter if no petition to the tax commis-39 sion is filed, or if a petition is filed, then upon the date when a 40 decision of the tax commission establishing the amount of the deficiency 41 becomes final. If an amended return or report filed pursuant to section 42 11-1759 of this chapter concedes the accuracy of a federal change or 43 correction, any deficiency in tax under this chapter resulting therefrom 44 shall be deemed to be assessed on the date of filing such report or 45 amended return, and such assessment shall be timely notwithstanding 46 section 11-1783 of this subchapter. If a notice of additional tax due, 47 as prescribed in subdivision (e) of section 11-1781 of this subchapter, 48 has been mailed, the amount of the deficiency shall be deemed to be 49 assessed on the date specified in such subdivision unless within thirty 50 days after the mailing of such notice a report of the federal change or 51 correction or an amended return, where such return was required by 52 section 11-1759 of this chapter, is filed accompanied by a statement 53 showing wherein such federal determination and such notice of additional 54 tax due are erroneous. Any amount paid as a tax or in respect of a tax, 55 other than amounts withheld at the source or paid as estimated income

1 tax, shall be deemed to be assessed upon the date of receipt of payment, 2 notwithstanding any other provisions.

3 (b) Other assessment powers. If the mode or time for the assessment of 4 any tax under this chapter, including interest, additions to tax and 5 assessable penalties, is not otherwise provided for, the tax commission 6 may establish the same by regulations.

7 (c) Estimated income tax. No unpaid amount of estimated tax shall be 8 assessed.

9 (d) Omission of income, item of tax preference, total taxable amount 10 or ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution on return. The tax 11 may be assessed at any time within six years after the return was filed 12 if: (1) an individual omits from his city adjusted gross income, the 13 sum of his items of tax preference, or the total taxable amount or ordi-14 nary income portion of a lump sum distribution an amount properly inclu-15 dible therein which is in excess of twenty-five percent of the amount of 16 city adjusted gross income, the sum of the items of tax preference or 17 the total taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum 18 distribution stated in the return, or (2) an estate or trust omits from 19 its city adjusted gross income, the sum of its items of tax preference, 20 or the total taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum 21 distribution an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 22 twenty-five percent of the amount stated in the return of city adjusted 23 gross income, or the sum of the items of tax preference, or the total 24 taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution, 25 respectively. For purposes of this paragraph, city adjusted gross income 26 means New York adjusted gross income as determined under paragraph four 27 of subsection (e) of section six hundred one of the tax law.

28 For purposes of this subdivision there shall not be taken into account 29 any amount which is omitted in the return if such amount is disclosed in 30 the return, or in a statement attached to the return, in a manner 31 adequate to apprise the commissioner of the nature and amount of the 32 item of income, tax preference, the total taxable amount or ordinary 33 income portion of a lump sum distribution.

34 (e) Cross reference. For assessment in case of jeopardy, see section
35 11-1794 of this subchapter.

36 § 11-1783 Limitations on assessment. (a) General. Except as otherwise 37 provided in this section, any tax under this chapter shall be assessed 38 within three years after the return was filed, whether or not such 39 return was filed on or after the date prescribed.

40 (b) Time return deemed filed.

41 (1) Early return. For purposes of this section a return of income tax, 42 except withholding tax, filed before the last day prescribed by law or 43 by regulations promulgated pursuant to law for the filing thereof, shall 44 be deemed to be filed on such last day.

45 (2) Return of withholding tax. For purposes of this section, if a 46 return of withholding tax for any period ending with or within a calen-47 dar year is filed before April fifteenth of the succeeding calendar 48 year, such return shall be deemed to be filed on April fifteenth of such 49 succeeding calendar year.

50 (c) Exceptions.

51 (1) Assessment at any time. The tax may be assessed at any time if:

52 (A) no return is filed,

53 (B) a false or fraudulent return is filed with intent to evade tax, or 54 (C) the taxpayer or employer fails to comply with section 11-1759 of 55 this chapter.

1 (2) Extension by agreement. Where, before the expiration of the time
2 prescribed in this section for the assessment of tax, both the tax 3 commission and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment 4 after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expi-
5 ration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be 6 extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration 7 of the period previously agreed upon.

8 (3) Report of federal changes, corrections or disallowances. If the 9 taxpayer or employer complies with section 11-1759 of this chapter, the 10 assessment, if not deemed to have been made upon the filing of the 11 report or amended return, may be made at any time within two years after 12 such report or amended return was filed. The amount of such assessment
13 of tax shall not exceed the amount of the increase in city tax attribut-
14 able to such federal change or correction. The provisions of this para-15 graph shall not affect the time within which or the amount for which an 16 assessment may otherwise be made.

17 (4) Deficiency attributable to net operating loss carryback. If a 18 deficiency is attributable to the application to the taxpayer of a net 19 operating loss carryback, it may be assessed at any time that a defi-20 ciency for the taxable year of the loss may be assessed.

21 (5) Recovery of erroneous refund. An erroneous refund shall be consid-
22 ered an underpayment of tax on the date made, and an assessment of a 23 deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time 24 within two years from the making of the refund, except that the assess-
25 ment may be made within five years from the making of the refund if it
26 appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresen-
27 tation of a material fact.

28 (6) Request for prompt assessment. If a return is required for a dece-29 dent or for a decedent's estate during the period of administration, the 30 tax shall be assessed within eighteen months after written request
31 therefor, made after the return is filed, by the executor, administrator
32 or other person representing the estate of such decedent, but not more 33 than three years after the return was filed, except as otherwise 34 provided in this subdivision and subdivision (d) of this section.

35 (7) Report on use of certain property. Under the circumstances 36 described in paragraph two of subdivision (g) of section 11-1712 of this 37 chapter, the tax may be assessed within three years after the filing of 38 a return reporting that property has been used for purposes other than 39 research and development to a greater extent than originally reported.

40 (8) Report concerning waste treatment facility, air pollution control 41 facility or eligible business facility. Under the circumstances 42 described in paragraph three of subdivision (h) of section 11-1712 of 43 this chapter, the tax may be assessed within three years after filing of 44 the return containing the information required by such paragraph, or, if 45 a certificate of compliance in respect to an air pollution control 46 facility shall be revoked, within three years after the tax commission 47 shall receive notice of such revocation from the taxpayer or as required 48 by section 19-0309 of the environmental conservation law, whichever 49 notice is received earlier.

50 (9) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph three of this subdivi-51 sion, or as otherwise provided in this section where a longer period of 52 time may apply, if a taxpayer files an amended return, an assessment of 53 tax, if not deemed to have been made upon the filing of the amended 54 return, including recovery of a previously paid refund, attributable to 55 a change or correction on the amended return from a prior return may be 56 made at any time within one year after such amended return is filed.

1 (d) Omission of income, total taxable amount or ordinary income 2 portion of a lump sum distribution on return. The tax may be assessed at 3 any time within six years after the return was filed if:

4 (1) an individual omits from his city adjusted gross income the total 5 taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution an 6 amount properly includible therein which is in excess of twenty-five 7 percent of the amount of city adjusted gross income or the total taxable 8 amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution stated in 9 the return, or

10 (2) an estate or trust omits from its city adjusted gross income, or 11 the total taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a lump sum 12 distribution an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 13 twenty-five percent of the amount stated in the return of city adjusted 14 gross income, or the total taxable amount or ordinary income portion of 15 a lump sum distribution, respectively. For purposes of this paragraph, 16 city adjusted gross income means New York adjusted gross income as 17 determined under paragraph four of subsection (e) of section six hundred 18 one of the tax law.

19 For purposes of this subdivision there shall not be taken into account 20 any amount which is omitted in the return if such amount is disclosed in 21 the return, or in a statement attached to the return, in a manner
22 adequate to apprise the commissioner of the nature and amount of the 23 item of income, the total taxable amount or ordinary income portion of a 24 lump sum distribution.

25 (e) Suspension of running of period of limitation. The running of the 26 period of limitations on assessment or collection of tax or other
27 amount, or of a transferee's liability, shall, after the mailing of a 28 notice of deficiency, be suspended for the period during which the tax 29 commission is prohibited under subdivision (c) of section 11-1781 of 30 this subchapter from making the assessment or from collecting by levy.

31 § 11-1784 Interest on underpayment. (a) General. If any amount of 32 income tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed in this 33 chapter for payment, interest on such amount at the underpayment rate 34 set by the commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to section 35 11-1797 of this subchapter, or if no rate is set, at the rate of seven 36 and one-half percent per annum shall be paid for the period from such 37 last date to the date paid, whether or not any extension of time for 38 payment was granted. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid 39 if the amount thereof is less than one dollar. If the time for filing of 40 a return of tax withheld by an employer is extended, the employer shall 41 pay interest for the period for which the extension is granted and may 42 not charge such interest to the employee.

43 (b) Exception as to estimated tax. This section shall not apply to any 44 failure to pay estimated tax.

45 (c) Exception for mathematical error. No interest shall be imposed on 46 any underpayment of tax due solely to mathematical error if the taxpayer 47 files a return within the time prescribed in this chapter, including any 48 extension of time, and pays the amount of underpayment within three 49 months after the due date of such return, as it may be extended.

50 (d) Suspension of interest on deficiencies. If a waiver of 51 restrictions on assessment of a deficiency has been filed by the taxpay-52 er, and if notice and demand by the tax commission for payment of such 53 deficiency is not made within thirty days after the filing of such waiv-54 er, interest shall not be imposed on such deficiency for the period 55 beginning immediately after such thirtieth day and ending with the date 56 of notice and demand.

1 (e) Tax reduced by carryback. If the amount of tax for any taxable 2 year is reduced by reason of a carryback of a net operating loss, such 3 reduction in tax shall not affect the computation of interest under this 4 section for the period ending with the filing date for the taxable year
5 in which the net operating loss arises. Such filing date shall be deter-6 mined without regard to extensions of time to file.

7 (f) Interest treated as tax. Interest under this section shall be paid 8 upon notice and demand and shall be assessed, collected and paid in the 9 same manner as income tax. Any reference in this chapter to the tax
10 imposed by this chapter shall be deemed also to refer to interest
11 imposed by this section on such tax.

12 (g) Interest on penalties or additions to tax. Interest shall be 13 imposed under subdivision (a) of this section in respect of any assessa-14 ble penalty or addition to tax only if such assessable penalty or addi-15 tion to tax is not paid within twenty-one calendar days from the date of 16 the notice and demand therefor under subdivision (b) of section 11-1792 17 of this subchapter, ten business days if the amount for which such 18 notice and demand is made equals or exceeds one hundred thousand 19 dollars, and in such case interest shall be imposed only for the period 20 from such date of the notice and demand to the date of payment.

21 (h) Payment within specified period after notice and demand. If notice 22 and demand is made for payment of any amount under subdivision (b) of 23 section 11-1792 of this subchapter, and if such amount is paid within 24 twenty-one calendar days, ten business days if the amount for which such 25 notice and demand is made equals or exceeds one hundred thousand 26 dollars, after the date of such notice and demand, interest under this 27 section on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after 28 the date of such notice and demand.

29 (i) Limitation on assessment and collection. Interest prescribed under 30 this section may be assessed and collected, at any time during the peri-31 od within which the tax or other amount to which such interest relates 32 may be assessed and collected, respectively.

33 (j) Interest on erroneous refund. Any portion of tax or other amount 34 which has been erroneously refunded, and which is recoverable by the 35 commissioner of taxation and finance, shall bear interest at the under-36 payment rate set by such commissioner pursuant to section 11-1797 of 37 this subchapter, or if no rate is set, at the rate of seven and one-half 38 percent per annum from the date of the payment of the refund, but only 39 if it appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or a
40 misrepresentation of a material fact.

41 (k) Satisfaction by credits. If any portion of a tax is satisfied by 42 credit of an overpayment, then no interest shall be imposed under this 43 section on the portion of the tax so satisfied for any period during 44 which, if the credit had not been made, interest would have been allow-45 able with respect to such overpayment.

46 § 11-1785 Additions to tax and civil penalties. (a) (1) Failure to 47 file tax return. (A) In case of failure to file a tax return under this 48 chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any 49 extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such failure is 50 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be 51 added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such return five 52 percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than 53 one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or 54 fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 55 twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

1 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
2 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
3 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
4 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-5 tion to tax hereunder shall not be less than the lesser of one hundred 6 dollars or one hundred percent of the amount required to be shown as tax 7 on such return.

8 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 9 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 10 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 11 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed 12 upon the return.

13 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 14 amounts shown as tax on any return required to be filed under this chap-15 ter on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any 16 extension of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is 17 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be 18 added to the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent 19 of the amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, 20 with an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or 21 fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 22 twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the 23 addition for any month, the amount of tax shown on the return shall be 24 reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before 25 the beginning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the 26 tax which may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required 27 to be shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such 28 return, this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower 29 amount.

30 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 31 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 32 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown, 33 including an assessment made pursuant to subdivision (a) of section 34 11-1782 of this subchapter, within twenty-one calendar days of the date 35 of a notice and demand therefor, ten business days if the amount for 36 which such notice and demand is made equals or exceeds one hundred thou-37 sand dollars, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable 38 cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount 39 of tax stated in such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such 40 tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with an additional 41 one-half of one percent for each additional month or fraction thereof 42 during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent 43 in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition for any 44 month, the amount of tax stated in the notice and demand shall be 45 reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid before the 46 beginning of such month.

47 (4) Limitations on additions. (A) With respect to any return, the 48 amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision shall be 49 reduced by the amount of the addition under paragraph two of this subdivi-50 sion for any month to which an addition applies under both paragraphs 51 one and two of this subdivision. In any case described in subparagraph 52 (B) of such paragraph one of this subdivision, the amount of the addi-53 tion under such paragraph one shall not be reduced below the amount 54 provided in such subparagraph.

55 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition
56 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by

1 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
2 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph, which 3 is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made and 4 which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

5 (b) Deficiency due to negligence. (1) If any part of a deficiency is 6 due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or rules or 7 regulations established pursuant to such chapter, but without intent to 8 defraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to five percent 9 of the deficiency.

10 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
11 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 12 percent of the interest payable under section 11-1784 of this subchapter
13 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
14 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-15 gard referred to in such paragraph, for the period beginning on the last 16 date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
17 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
18 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

19 (3) If any payment is shown on a return made by a payor with respect 20 to dividends, patronage dividends and interest under subsection (a) of 21 section six thousand forty-two, subsection (a) of section six thousand 22 forty-four or subsection (a) of section six thousand forty-nine of the 23 internal revenue code, respectively, and the payee fails to include any 24 portion of such payment in city adjusted gross income, any portion of an 25 underpayment attributable to such failure shall be treated, for purposes 26 of this subdivision, as due to negligence in the absence of clear and 27 convincing evidence to the contrary. If any penalty is imposed under 28 this subdivision by reason of this paragraph, the amount of the penalty 29 imposed by paragraph one of this subdivision shall be five percent of 30 the portion of the underpayment which is attributable to the failure 31 described in this paragraph.

32 (c) Failure by individual to pay estimated income tax. (1) Addition 33 to the tax. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision and subdivi-34 sion (d) of this section, in the case of any underpayment of estimated 35 tax by an individual, there shall be added to the tax under this chapter 36 for the taxable year an amount determined by applying the underpayment 37 rate established under section 11-1797 of this subchapter, or if no rate 38 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, to the 39 amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment. Such 40 period shall run from the due date for the required installment to the 41 earlier of the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of 42 the taxable year or, with respect to any portion of the underpayment, 43 the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of determining such 44 date, a payment of estimated tax shall be credited against unpaid 45 required installments in the order in which such installments are 46 required to be paid. There shall be four required installments for each 47 taxable year, due on April fifteenth, June fifteenth and September 48 fifteenth of such taxable year and on January fifteenth of the following 49 taxable year.

50 (2) Amount of underpayment. For purposes of paragraph one of this 51 subdivision, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of the 52 required installment over the amount, if any, of the installment paid on 53 or before the due date for the installment.

54 (3) Required installment. (A) Except as provided in paragraph four of 55 this subdivision, the amount of any required installment shall be twenty-56 ty-five percent of the required annual payment.

1 (B) The required annual payment is the lesser of 2 (i) ninety percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable 3 year, or, if no return is filed, ninety percent of the tax for such 4 year, or
5 (ii) one hundred percent of the tax shown on the return of the indi-
6 vidual for the preceding taxable year. Provided, however, that the tax 7 shown on such return for taxable years beginning in two thousand eight 8 shall be calculated as if paragraph three of subdivision (f) of section 9 11-1715 of this chapter was in effect for taxable years beginning in two 10 thousand eight. Provided, however, that the tax shown on such return for 11 taxable years beginning in two thousand nine shall be calculated as if 12 paragraph two of subdivision (g) of section 11-1715 of this chapter was 13 in effect for taxable years beginning in two thousand nine.

14 Clause (ii) of this subparagraph shall not apply if the preceding 15 taxable year was not a taxable year of twelve months or if the individ-16 ual did not file a return for such preceding taxable year.

17 (C) Limitation on use of preceding year's tax.

18 (i) General. If the city adjusted gross income shown on the return of 19 the individual for the preceding taxable year exceeds one hundred fifty 20 thousand dollars, clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph 21 shall be applied by substituting "one hundred ten percent" for "one 22 hundred percent".

23 (ii) Separate returns. In the case of a husband and wife who file 24 separate returns pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 11-1751 of this 25 chapter for the taxable year for which the amount of the installment is 26 being determined, clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be applied by 27 substituting "seventy-five thousand dollars" for "one hundred fifty 28 thousand dollars".

29 (4) Annualized income installment. (A) In general. In the case of 30 any required installment, if the individual establishes that the annual-31 ized income installment determined under subparagraph (B) of this para-32 graph is less than the amount determined under paragraph three of this 33 subdivision, the annualized income installment shall be the required 34 installment. Any reduction in a required installment resulting from the 35 application of this subparagraph shall be recaptured by increasing the 36 amount of the next required installment determined under paragraph three 37 of this subdivision by the amount of such reduction, and by increasing 38 successive required installments as necessary to effect full recapture.

39 (B) Determination of annualized income installment. In the case of 40 any required installment, the annualized income installment is the 41 excess, if any, of an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the 42 tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the 43 taxable income for months in the taxable year ending before the due date 44 for the installment, over the aggregate amount of any prior required 45 installments for the taxable year. The applicable percentage of the tax 46 shall be twenty-two and one-half percent in the case of the first 47 installment, forty-five percent in the case of the second installment, 48 sixty-seven and one-half percent in the case of the third installment 49 and ninety percent in the case of the fourth installment, and shall be 50 computed without regard to any increase in the rates applicable to the 51 taxable year unless such increase was enacted at least thirty days prior 52 to the due date of the installment.

53 (5) Definitions and special rules. (A) Definition of the term tax 54 and application of credits against tax. For purposes of this subdivi-55 sion and subdivision (d) of this section, the term "tax" means the tax 56 imposed under this chapter minus the credits against tax allowed under

1 this chapter, other than the credit under section 11-1773 of this chap-2 ter, relating to tax withheld on wages. The credit allowed under 3 section 11-1773 of this chapter for the taxable year shall be deemed a 4 payment of estimated tax, and an equal part of such amount shall be 5 deemed paid on each installment due date for such taxable year, unless 6 the taxpayer establishes the dates on which all amounts were actually 7 withheld, in which case the amounts so withheld shall be deemed payments 8 of estimated tax on the dates on which such amounts were actually with-9 held.

10 (B) Special rule where return filed on or before January thirty-first.
11 If, on or before January thirty-first of the following taxable year, 12 the taxpayer files a return for the taxable year and pays in full the 13 amount computed on the return as payable, then no addition to tax shall 14 be imposed under paragraph one of this subdivision with respect to any 15 underpayment of the fourth required installment for the taxable year.

16 (C) Special rules for farmers and fishermen. For purposes of this 17 subdivision, if an individual is a farmer or fisherman for any taxable 18 year there shall be only one required installment for the taxable year, 19 due on January fifteenth of the following taxable year in an amount 20 equal to the required annual payment determined under paragraph three of 21 this subdivision by substituting sixty-six and two-thirds percent for 22 ninety percent and without regard to subparagraph (C) of paragraph three 23 of this subdivision. Subparagraph (B) of this paragraph shall be applied 24 by substituting March first for January thirty-first and by treating the 25 required installment under this subparagraph as the fourth required 26 installment. An individual is a farmer or fisherman for any taxable year 27 if the individual's federal gross income from farming or fishing, 28 including oyster farming, for the taxable year is at least two-thirds of 29 the total federal gross income from all sources for the taxable year or 30 if such individual's federal gross income from farming or fishing, 31 including oyster farming, shown on the return of the individual for the 32 preceding taxable year is at least two-thirds of the total federal gross 33 income from all sources shown on such return.

34 (D) Fiscal years. In applying this subdivision to a taxable year 35 beginning on any date other than January first, there shall be substi-36 tuted, for the months specified in this subdivision, the months which 37 correspond thereto.

38 (E) Short taxable year. This subdivision shall be applied to taxable 39 years of less than twelve months in accordance with regulations 40 prescribed by the tax commission.

41 (F) Joint estimated tax of husband and wife. A husband and wife may 42 make the required annual payment determined under paragraph three of 43 this subdivision as if they were one taxpayer, in which case the liabil-44 ity under paragraph one of this subdivision with respect to the esti-45 mated tax shall be joint and several. No such joint payment may be made 46 if husband and wife are separated under a decree of divorce or separate 47 maintenance, or if they have different taxable years. If a joint 48 payment is made but husband and wife determine their taxes under this 49 chapter separately, the estimated tax for such year may be treated as 50 the estimated tax of either husband or wife, or may be divided between 51 them, as they may elect.

52 (6) Trusts and certain estates. (A) General. This subdivision shall 53 apply to any trust or estate except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and 54 (C) of this paragraph.

55 (B) Exception for estates and certain trusts. This subdivision shall 56 not apply with respect to any taxable year ending before the date two

1 years after the date of the decedent's death to (i) the estate of such 2 decedent or (ii) any trust all of which was treated, under subpart E of 3 part I of subchapter J of chapter one of the internal revenue code, as 4 owned by the decedent and to which the residue of the decedent's estate 5 will pass under his will, or, if no will is admitted to probate, which 6 is the trust primarily responsible for paying debts, taxes and expenses 7 of administration.

8 (C) Special rule for annualizations. In the case of any estate or 9 trust, subparagraph (B) of paragraph four of this subdivision shall be 10 applied by substituting "ending before the date one month before the due 11 date for the installment" for "ending before the due date for the 12 installment".

13 (D) In the case of a trust, the trustee may elect to treat any portion 14 of a payment of estimated tax made by such trust for any taxable year of 15 the trust as a payment made by a beneficiary of such trust. Any amount 16 so treated shall be treated as paid or credited to the beneficiary on 17 the last day of such taxable year, and for purposes of this subdivision, 18 the amount so treated shall not be treated as a payment of estimated tax 19 made by the trust, but shall be treated as a payment of estimated tax 20 made by such beneficiary on the January fifteenth following the end of 21 the trust's taxable year.

22 (E) An election under subparagraph (D) of this paragraph shall be made 23 on or before the sixty-fifth day after the close of the taxable year and 24 in such manner as the commissioner of taxation and finance may 25 prescribe.

26 (F) Extension to last year of estate. In the case of a taxable year 27 reasonably expected to be the last taxable year of an estate, any refer-28 ence in subparagraph (D) of this paragraph to a trust shall be treated 29 as including a reference to an estate, and the fiduciary of the estate 30 shall be treated as the trustee.

31 (d) Exceptions to addition to tax for failure to pay estimated income 32 tax.

33 (1) Where tax is small amount. No addition to tax shall be imposed 34 under subdivision (c) of this section for any taxable year if the tax 35 shown on the return for such taxable year, or, if no return is filed, 36 the tax, reduced by the credit allowable under section 11-1773 of this 37 chapter, is less than one hundred dollars.

38 (2) Where no tax liability for preceding taxable year. No addition to 39 tax shall be imposed under subdivision (c) of this section for any taxa-40 ble year if the preceding taxable year was a taxable year of twelve 41 months, the individual did not have any liability for tax under this 42 chapter for the preceding taxable year and throughout the preceding 43 taxable year the individual was a resident of this city or a nonresident 44 who had city adjusted gross income.

45 (3) Installment due on or after individual's death. No addition to 46 tax shall be imposed under subdivision (c) of this section with respect 47 to any installment due on or after the individual's death.

48 (4) Waiver in certain cases. (A) In general. No addition to tax 49 shall be imposed under subdivision (c) of this section with respect to 50 any underpayment to the extent the tax commission determines that by 51 reason of casualty, disaster or other unusual circumstances the imposi-52 tion of such addition to tax would be against equity and good 53 conscience.

54 (B) Newly retired or disabled individuals. No addition to tax shall 55 be imposed under subdivision (c) of this section with respect to any 56 underpayment if the tax commission determines that in the taxable year

1 for which estimated payments were required to be made or in the taxable 2 year preceding such taxable year the taxpayer retired after having 3 attained age sixty-two or became disabled, and that such underpayment 4 was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

5 (e) Deficiency due to fraud. (1) If any part of a deficiency is due 6 to fraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to fifty 7 percent of the deficiency.

8 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
9 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 10 percent of the interest payable under section 11-1784 of this subchapter
11 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
12 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 13 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
14 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 15 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 16 tax.

17 (3) The addition to tax under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any 18 other addition to tax imposed by subdivision (a) or (b) of this section.

19 (4) In the case of a joint return under section 11-1751 of this chap-20 ter, this subdivision shall not apply with respect to the tax of a 21 spouse unless some part of the underpayment is due to the fraud of such 22 spouse.

23 (f) Non-willful failure to pay withholding tax. If any employer, 24 without intent to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter or the 25 payment thereof, shall fail to make a return and pay a tax withheld by 26 him or her at the time required by or under the provisions of section 27 11-1774 of this chapter, such employer shall be liable for such tax and 28 shall pay the same together with interest thereon and the addition to 29 tax provided in subdivision (a) of this section, and such interest and 30 addition to tax shall not be charged to or collected from the employee 31 by the employer. The tax commission shall have the same rights and 32 powers for the collection of such tax, interest and addition to tax 33 against such employer as are now prescribed by this chapter for the 34 collection of tax against an individual taxpayer.

35 (g) Willful failure to collect and pay over tax. Any person required 36 to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over the tax imposed by this 37 chapter who willfully fails to collect such tax or truthfully account 38 for and pay over such tax or willfully attempts in any manner to evade 39 or defeat the tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other 40 penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty equal to the total 41 amount of the tax evaded, or not collected, or not accounted for and 42 paid over. No addition to tax under subdivision (b) or (e) of this 43 section shall be imposed for any offense to which this subdivision 44 applies. The tax commission shall have the power, in its discretion, to 45 waive, reduce or compromise any penalty under this subdivision.

46 (h) Failure to file certain information returns. (1) Except as other-47 wise provided in this paragraph, in case of each failure to file a 48 statement of a payment to another person, required under authority of 49 subdivision (d) of section 11-1758 of this chapter, relating to informa-50 tion at source, including the duplicate statement of tax withheld on 51 wages, on the date prescribed therefor, determined with regard to any 52 extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such failure is 53 due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, there shall, upon 54 notice and demand by the tax commission and in the same manner as tax, 55 be paid by the person so failing to file the statement, a penalty of 56 fifty dollars for each statement not so filed, but the total amount

1 imposed on the delinquent person for all such failures during any calendar year shall not exceed ten thousand dollars.

2
3 (2) If any partnership or S corporation required to file a return or 4 report under subdivision (c) of section 11-1758 of this chapter or under 5 section 11-1759 of this chapter for any taxable year fails to file such 6 return or report at the time prescribed therefor, determined with regard 7 to any extension of time for filing, or files a return or report which 8 fails to show the information required under such subdivision (c) or 9 section 11-1759 of this chapter, unless it is shown that such failure is 10 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall, 11 upon notice and demand by the commissioner and in the same manner as 12 tax, be paid by the partnership or S corporation a penalty for each 13 month, or fraction thereof, during which such failure continues, but not 14 to exceed five months. The amount of such penalty for any month is the 15 product of fifty dollars, multiplied by the number of partners in the 16 partnership or shareholders in the S corporation during any part of the 17 taxable year who were subject to tax under this chapter during any part 18 of such taxable year.

19 (i) Additional penalty. Any person who with fraudulent intent shall 20 fail to pay, or to deduct or withhold and pay, any tax, or to make, 21 render, sign or certify any return, or to supply any information within 22 the time required by or under this chapter, shall be liable to penalty 23 of not more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts 24 required under this chapter, to be imposed, assessed and collected by 25 the tax commission. The tax commission shall have the power, in its 26 discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any penalty under this subdivision.
27

28 (j) Fraudulent statement or failure to furnish statement to employee.
29 In addition to any criminal penalties provided by law, any person 30 required under the provisions of section 11-1772 of this chapter to 31 furnish a statement to an employee, who willfully furnishes a false or 32 fraudulent statement, or who willfully fails to furnish a statement in 33 the manner, at the time, and showing the information required under 34 section 11-1772 of this chapter, or regulations prescribed thereunder, 35 shall for each such failure be subject to a penalty under this chapter 36 of fifty dollars.

37 (k) Failure to supply identifying numbers. If any person who is 38 required by regulations prescribed under subdivision (b) of section
39 11-1758 of this chapter:

40 (1) to include his or her identifying number in any return, statement, 41 or other document;

42 (2) to furnish his or her identifying number to another person; or 43 (3) to include in any return, statement or other document made with 44 respect to another person the identifying number of such other person, 45 fails to comply with such requirement at the time prescribed by such 46 regulations, such person shall, unless it is shown that such failure is 47 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, pay a penalty of 48 five dollars for each such failure described in paragraph one of this 49 subdivision and fifty dollars for each such failure described in paragraph 50 two of this subdivision, and this paragraph, except that the total 51 amount imposed on such person for all such failures during any calendar 52 year shall not exceed ten thousand dollars; except that for failure to 53 include his or her own identification number in any return, statement or 54 other document, such penalty shall not be imposed unless such person 55 shall have failed to supply his or her identification number to the tax 56 commission within thirty days after demand therefor.

1 (1) Additions treated as tax. The additions to tax and penalties
2 provided by this section shall be paid upon notice and demand and shall 3 be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as taxes, and any 4 reference in this chapter to income tax or tax imposed by this chapter, 5 shall be deemed also to refer to the additions to tax and penalties
6 provided by this section. For purposes of section 11-1781 of this 7 subchapter, this subdivision shall not apply to:

8 (1) any addition to tax under subdivision (a) of this section except 9 as to that portion attributable to a deficiency;

10 (2) any addition to tax under subdivision (c) of this section;

11 (3) any penalty under subdivision (h) of this section and any addi-12 tional penalty under subdivision (i) of this section; and 13 (4) any penalties under subdivisions (j), (k), (q), (r), (s) and (t) 14 of this section.

15 (m) Determination of deficiency. For purposes of subdivisions (b) and 16 (e) of this section, the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon 17 his or her return shall be taken into account in determining the amount 18 of the deficiency only if such return was filed on or before the last 19 day prescribed for the filing of such return, determined with regard to 20 any extension of time for such filing.

21 (n) Person defined. For purposes of subdivisions (g), (i), (o), (q) 22 and (r) of this section, the term person includes an individual, corpo-23 ration, partnership or limited liability company or an officer or 24 employee of any corporation, including a dissolved corporation, or a 25 member or employee of any partnership, or a member, manager or employee 26 of a limited liability company, who as such officer, employee, manager 27 or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the 28 violation occurs.

29 (o) Failure to make deposits of taxes. In case of failure by any 30 person required by this chapter, or by regulations of the tax commission 31 under this chapter, to deposit on the date prescribed therefor any 32 amount of tax imposed by this chapter in a depository authorized pursu-33 ant to subdivision (a) of section 11-1792 of this subchapter to receive 34 such deposits, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable 35 cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be imposed on such 36 person a penalty of five percent of the amount of the underpayment. For 37 purposes of this subdivision the term "underpayment" means the excess of 38 the amount of the tax required to be so deposited over the amount, if 39 any, thereof, deposited on or before the date prescribed therefor.

40 (p) Substantial understatement of liability. If there is a substantial 41 understatement of income tax for any taxable year, there shall be added 42 to the tax an amount equal to ten percent of the amount of any underpay-43 ment attributable to such understatement. For purposes of this subdivi-44 sion, there is a substantial understatement of income tax for any taxa-45 ble year if the amount of the understatement for the taxable year 46 exceeds the greater of ten percent of the tax required to be shown on 47 the return for the taxable year, or two thousand dollars. For purposes 48 of this subdivision, the term "understatement" means the excess of the 49 amount of the tax required to be shown on the return for the taxable 50 year, over the amount of the tax imposed which is shown on the return 51 reduced by any rebate, within the meaning of subdivision (g) of section 52 11-1781 of this subchapter. The amount of such understatement shall be 53 reduced by that portion of the understatement which is attributable to 54 the tax treatment of any item by the taxpayer if there is or was 55 substantial authority for such treatment, or any item with respect to 56 which the relevant facts affecting the item's tax treatment are

1 adequately disclosed in the return or in a statement attached to the 2 return. The tax commission may waive all or any part of the addition to 3 tax provided by this subdivision on a showing by the taxpayer that there 4 was reasonable cause for the understatement, or part thereof, and that 5 the taxpayer acted in good faith.

6 (q) Frivolous tax returns. If any individual files what purports to 7 be a return of any tax imposed by this chapter but which does not 8 contain information on which the substantial correctness of the self-as-9 sessment may be judged, or contains information that on its face indi-10 cates that the self-assessment is substantially incorrect; and such 11 conduct is due to a position which is frivolous, or an intent, which 12 appears on the purported return, to delay or impede the administration 13 of this chapter, then such individual shall pay a penalty not exceeding 14 five hundred dollars. This penalty shall be in addition to any other 15 penalty provided by law.

16 (r) Aiding or assisting in the giving of fraudulent returns, reports, 17 statements or other documents. (1) Any person who, with the intent that 18 tax be evaded, shall, for a fee or other compensation or as an incident
19 to the performance of other services for which such person receives
20 compensation, aid or assist in, or procure, counsel, or advise the prep-
21 aration or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising 22 under this chapter of any return, report, declaration, statement or 23 other document which is fraudulent or false as to any material matter, 24 or supply any false or fraudulent information, whether or not such 25 falsity of fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person author-26 ized or required to present such return, report, declaration, statement 27 or other document shall pay a penalty not exceeding one thousand
28 dollars.

29 (2) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, the term
30 "procures" includes ordering, or otherwise causing, a subordinate to do 31 an act, and knowing of, and not attempting to prevent, participation by 32 a subordinate in an act. The term "subordinate" means any other person, 33 whether or not a director, officer, employee, or agent of the taxpayer 34 involved, over whose activities the person has direction, supervision or 35 control.

36 (3) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, a person
37 furnishing typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance with 38 respect to a document shall not be treated as having aided or assisted 39 in the preparation of such document by reason of such assistance.

40 (4) The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be in addition to 41 any other penalty provided by law.

42 (s) False information with respect to withholding. In addition to any 43 criminal penalty provided by law, if any individual makes a statement 44 under section 11-1771 of this chapter which results in a decrease in the 45 amounts deducted and withheld under this chapter, and as of the time 46 such statement was made, there was no reasonable basis for such state-47 ment, such individual shall pay a penalty of five hundred dollars for 48 such statement. The tax commission shall waive the penalty imposed 49 under this subdivision if the taxes imposed with respect to the individ-50 ual under this chapter for the taxable year are equal to or less than 51 the sum of the credits against such taxes allowed by this chapter, and 52 the payments of estimated tax which are considered payments on account 53 of such taxes.

54 (t) Failure of tax return preparer to conform to certain requirements.
55 (1) Failure to sign return or claim for refund. Any individual who is a 56 tax return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund, who

1 is required pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision (g) of section 2 11-1758 of this chapter to sign such return or claim for refund, and who 3 fails to comply with such requirement with respect to such return or 4 claim for refund, shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars for 5 each such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 6 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. The maximum penalty 7 imposed under this paragraph on any person with respect to returns or 8 claims for refund filed during any calendar year shall not exceed twen-9 ty-five thousand dollars.

10 (2) Failure to furnish identifying number. If any identifying number 11 required to be included on any return or claim for refund pursuant to 12 paragraph two of subdivision (g) of section 11-1758 of this chapter is 13 not so included, the person who is the tax return preparer with respect 14 to such return or claim for refund shall be subject to a penalty of 15 fifty dollars with respect to such return or claim for refund unless it 16 is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful 17 neglect. For purposes of this paragraph, where an employer and one or 18 more employees of such employer are tax return preparers with respect to 19 the same return or claim for refund or where a partnership and one or 20 more partners in such partnership are tax return preparers with respect 21 to the same return or claim for refund, such employer or such partner-22 ship shall be deemed to be the sole tax return preparer with respect to 23 such return or claim for refund. The maximum penalty imposed under this 24 paragraph on any person with respect to returns or claims for refund 25 filed during any calendar year shall not exceed twenty-five thousand 26 dollars.

27 (3) Failure to furnish copy to taxpayer. Any person who is a tax 28 return preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund, who is 29 required under paragraph three of subdivision (g) of section 11-1758 of 30 this chapter to furnish a copy of such return or claim for refund to the 31 taxpayer, and who fails to comply with such provision with respect to 32 such return or claim for refund shall be subject to a penalty of fifty 33 dollars for each such failure, unless it is shown that such failure is 34 due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. The maximum 35 penalty imposed under this paragraph on any person with respect to 36 returns or claims for refund filed during any calendar year shall not 37 exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

38 (4) Failure to retain copy or list. Any person who is a tax return 39 preparer with respect to any return or claim for refund, who is required 40 under paragraph four of subdivision (g) of section 11-1758 of this chap-41 ter to: (i) retain a copy of such return or claim for refund or retain 42 on a list the name and taxpayer identifying number of the taxpayer for 43 whom such return or claim for refund was prepared and (ii) make such 44 copy or list available for inspection upon request by the commissioner 45 of taxation and finance, and who fails to comply with the retention 46 requirement or who complies with the retention requirement but fails to 47 comply with such request by the commissioner, shall be subject to a 48 penalty of fifty dollars for each such failure, unless it is shown that 49 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.
50 The maximum penalty imposed under this paragraph on any person with 51 respect to any calendar year shall not exceed twenty-five thousand
52 dollars.

53 (5) Failure to electronically file. If a tax return preparer is 54 required to file returns electronically pursuant to paragraph ten of 55 subdivision (g) of section 11-1758 of this chapter, and such preparer 56 fails to file one or more of such returns electronically, then such

1 preparer shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars for each such 2 failure to electronically file a return, unless it is shown that such 3 failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. For 4 purposes of this paragraph, reasonable cause shall include, but not be 5 limited to, a taxpayer's election not to electronically file his or her
6 return.

7 § 11-1786 Overpayment. (a) General. The state commissioner of taxation and finance, within the applicable period of limitations, may credit an overpayment of income tax and interest on such overpayment against any liability in respect of any tax imposed by this chapter or by chapter nineteen of this title on the person who made the overpayment or any other tax imposed on such person pursuant to the authority of the tax law or any other law if such tax is administered by the state commissioner of taxation and finance, against any liability in respect of any tax imposed on such person by the tax law and, as provided in sections one hundred seventy-one-c, one hundred seventy-one-d, one hundred seventy-one-e, one hundred seventy-one-f and one hundred seventy-one-l of the tax law, against past-due support, against a past-due legally enforceable debt, against a city of New York tax warrant judgment debt and against the amount of a default in repayment of a guaranteed student, state university or city university loan. The balance shall be refunded by the state comptroller out of the proceeds of the tax retained by him or her for such general purpose. Any refund under this section shall be made only upon the filing of a return and upon a certificate of the state commissioner of taxation and finance approved by the state comptroller. The state comptroller, as a condition precedent to the approval of such a certificate, may examine into the facts as disclosed by the return of the person who made the overpayment and other information and data available in the files of the state commissioner of taxation and finance.

31 (b) Excessive withholding. If the amount allowable as a credit for tax withheld from the taxpayer exceeds his or her tax to which the credit relates, the excess shall be considered an overpayment.

34 (c) Overpayment by employer. If there has been an overpayment of tax required to be deducted and withheld under section 11-1771 of this chapter, refund shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the amount of the overpayment was not deducted and withheld by the employer.

38 (d) Overpayment by a deceased person. Notwithstanding section thirteen hundred ten of the surrogate's court procedure act, any overpayment by a decedent not in excess of one thousand dollars may be refunded to the decedent's surviving spouse unless the return for the decedent was filed by his or her executor or administrator.

43 (e) Credits against estimated tax. The commissioner of taxation and finance may prescribe regulations providing for the crediting against the estimated income tax for any taxable year of the amount determined to be an overpayment of the income tax for a preceding taxable year. If any overpayment of income tax is so claimed as a credit against estimated tax for the succeeding taxable year, such amount shall be considered as a payment of the income tax for the succeeding taxable year, and no claim for credit or refund of such overpayment shall be allowed for the taxable year for which the overpayment arises, except upon request to the commissioner of taxation and finance on or before the last day prescribed for the filing of the return for the succeeding taxable year, determined with regard to any extension of time granted. If good cause is shown for reversing the credit, the commissioner of taxation and finance may, in his or her discretion, credit the overpayment against a

1 liability or refund the overpayment without interest. Provided, the 2 person who made the overpayment will not be relieved of liability for 3 any penalty imposed for a consequent underpayment of estimated tax for 4 the succeeding taxable year. The decision of the commissioner of taxa-5 tion and finance to grant or deny the request is final and not subject 6 to further administrative or judicial review.

7 (f) Rule where no tax liability. If there is no tax liability for a 8 period in respect of which an amount is paid as income tax, such amount 9 shall be considered an overpayment.

10 (g) Assessment and collection after limitation period. If any amount 11 of income tax is assessed or collected after the expiration of the peri-12 od of limitations properly applicable thereto, such amount shall be 13 considered an overpayment.

14 (h) Cross reference. For provision barring application of article 15 fifty-two of the civil practice law and rules to any amount to be 16 refunded or credited to a taxpayer, see section seven of the tax law.

17 § 11-1787 Limitations on credit or refund. (a) General. Claim for 18 credit or refund of an overpayment of income tax shall be filed by the 19 taxpayer within three years from the time the return was filed or two 20 years from the time the tax was paid, whichever of such periods expires 21 the later, or if no return was filed, within two years from the time the 22 tax was paid. If the claim is filed within the three year period, the 23 amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax 24 paid within the three years immediately preceding the filing of the 25 claim plus the period of any extension of time for filing the return.
26 If the claim is not filed within the three year period, but is filed 27 within the two year period, the amount of the credit or refund shall not 28 exceed the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately 29 preceding the filing of the claim. Except as otherwise provided in this 30 section, if no claim is filed, the amount of a credit or refund shall 31 not exceed the amount which would be allowable if a claim had been filed 32 on the date the credit or refund is allowed.

33 (b) Extension of time by agreement. If an agreement under the 34 provisions of paragraph two of subdivision (c) of section 11-1783 of 35 this subchapter, extending the period for assessment of income tax, is 36 made within the period prescribed in subdivision (a) of this section 37 for the filing of a claim for credit or refund, the period for filing a 38 claim for credit or refund, or for making credit or refund if no claim 39 is filed, shall not expire prior to six months after the expiration of 40 the period within which an assessment may be made pursuant to the agree-41 ment or any extension thereof. The amount of such credit or refund 42 shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid after the execution of the 43 agreement and before the filing of the claim or the making of the credit 44 or refund, as the case may be, plus the portion of the tax paid within 45 the period which would be applicable under subdivision (a) of this 46 section if a claim had been filed on the date the agreement was 47 executed.

48 (c) Notice of federal change or correction. A claim for credit or 49 refund of any overpayment of tax attributable to a federal change or 50 correction required to be reported pursuant to section 11-1759 of this 51 chapter shall be filed by the taxpayer within two years from the time 52 the notice of such change or correction or such amended return was 53 required to be filed with the commissioner of taxation and finance. If 54 the report or amended return required by section 11-1759 of this chapter 55 is not filed within the ninety day period therein specified, no interest 56 shall be payable on any claim for credit or refund of the overpayment

1 attributable to the federal change or correction. The amount of such 2 credit or refund shall not exceed the amount of the reduction in tax 3 attributable to such federal change, correction or items amended on the 4 taxpayer's amended federal income tax return. This subdivision shall 5 not affect the time within which or the amount for which a claim for 6 credit or refund may be filed apart from this subdivision.

7 (d) Overpayment attributable to net operating loss carryback. A claim 8 for credit or refund of so much of an overpayment as is attributable to 9 the application to the taxpayer of a net operating loss carryback shall 10 be filed within three years from the time the return was due, including 11 extensions thereof, for the taxable year of the loss, or within the 12 period prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section in respect of such 13 taxable year, or within the period prescribed in subdivision (c) of this 14 section, where applicable, in respect of the taxable year to which the 15 net operating loss is carried back, whichever expires the latest.

16 (e) Failure to file claim within prescribed period. No credit or 17 refund shall be allowed or made, except as provided in subdivision (f) 18 of this section or subdivision (d) of section 11-1790 of this subchap-
19 ter, after the expiration of the applicable period of limitation speci-20 fied in this chapter, unless a claim for credit or refund is filed by 21 the taxpayer within such period. Any later credit shall be void and any 22 later refund erroneous. No period of limitations specified in any other 23 law shall apply to the recovery by a taxpayer of moneys paid in respect 24 of taxes under this chapter.

25 (f) Effect of petition to tax commission. If a notice of deficiency 26 for a taxable year has been mailed to the taxpayer under section 11-1781 27 of this subchapter and if the taxpayer files a timely petition with the 28 tax commission under section 11-1789 of this subchapter, it may deter-29 mine that the taxpayer has made an overpayment for such year, whether or 30 not it also determines a deficiency for such a year. No separate claim 31 for credit or refund for such year shall be filed, and no credit or 32 refund for such year shall be allowed or made, except:

33 (1) as to overpayments determined by a decision of the tax commission 34 which has become final; and

35 (2) as to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in 36 accordance with the decision of the tax commission which has become 37 final; and

38 (3) as to any amount collected after the period of limitation upon the 39 making of levy for collection has expired; and

40 (4) as to any amount claimed as a result of a change or correction
41 described in subdivision (c) of this section.

42 (g) Limit on amount of credit or refund. The amount of overpayment 43 determined under subdivision (f) of this section shall, when the deci-44 sion of the tax commission has become final, be credited or refunded in 45 accordance with subdivision (a) of section 11-1786 of this subchapter
46 and shall not exceed the amount of tax which the tax commission deter-47 mines as part of its decision was paid:

48 (1) after the mailing of the notice of deficiency, or

49 (2) within the period which would be applicable under subdivision (a),
50 (b) or (c) of this section, if on the date of the mailing of the notice 51 of deficiency a claim had been filed, whether or not filed, stating the 52 grounds upon which the tax commission finds that there is an overpay-53 ment.

54 (h) Early return. For purposes of this section, any return filed
55 before the last day prescribed for the filing thereof shall be consid-

1 ered as filed on such last day, determined without regard to any exten-
2 sion of time granted the taxpayer.

3 (i) Prepaid income tax. For purposes of this section, any tax paid by 4 the taxpayer before the last day prescribed for its payment, any income 5 tax withheld from the taxpayer during any calendar year, and any amount 6 paid by the taxpayer as estimated income tax for a taxable year shall be 7 deemed to have been paid by him or her on the fifteenth day of the 8 fourth month following the close of his or her taxable year with respect 9 to which such amount constitutes a credit or payment.

10 (j) Return and payment of withholding tax. Notwithstanding subdivi-11 sion (h) of this section, for purposes of this section with respect to 12 any withholding tax:

13 (1) if a return for any period ending with or within a calendar year
14 is filed before April fifteenth of the succeeding calendar year, such 15 return shall be considered filed on April fifteenth of such succeeding 16 calendar year; and

17 (2) if a tax with respect to remuneration paid during any period
18 ending with or within a calendar year is paid before April fifteenth of 19 the succeeding calendar year, such tax shall be considered paid on April 20 fifteenth of such succeeding calendar year.

21 (k) Running of periods of limitation suspended while taxpayer is 22 unable to manage financial affairs due to disability. (1) In the case of 23 an individual taxpayer, the running of the periods specified in subdivi-24 sions (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be suspended during any 25 period of such individual's life that such individual is financially 26 disabled. For purposes of this subdivision, an individual taxpayer is an 27 individual who is subject to the tax imposed under this chapter.

28 (2) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, an individual 29 taxpayer is financially disabled if such individual is unable to manage 30 his or her financial affairs by reason of a medically determinable phys-31 ical or mental impairment of that individual which can be expected to 32 result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a 33 continuous period of not less than twelve months. An individual shall 34 not be considered to have such impairment unless proof of the existence 35 thereof is furnished in such form and manner as the commissioner of 36 taxation and finance may require.

37 (3) An individual taxpayer shall not be treated as financially disa-38 bled during any period that such individual's spouse or any other person 39 is authorized to act on behalf of such individual in financial matters.

40 (l) Cross reference. For provision barring refund of overpayment 41 credited against tax of a succeeding year, see subdivision (e) of 42 section 11-1786 of this subchapter.

43 § 11-1788 Interest on overpayment. (a) General. Notwithstanding the 44 provisions of section sixteen of the state finance law, interest shall 45 be allowed and paid as follows at the overpayment rate set by the 46 commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to section 11-1797 of this 47 subchapter, or if no rate is set, at the rate of six percent per annum 48 upon any overpayment in respect of the tax imposed by this chapter:

49 (1) from the date of the overpayment to the due date of an amount
50 against which a credit is taken;

51 (2) from the date of the overpayment to a date, to be determined by 52 the commissioner of taxation and finance, preceding the date of a refund 53 check by not more than thirty days, whether or not such refund check is 54 accepted by the taxpayer after tender of such check to the taxpayer. The 55 acceptance of such check shall be without prejudice to any right of the 56 taxpayer to claim any additional overpayment and interest thereon.

1 (3) Late and amended returns and claims for credit or refund.
2 Notwithstanding paragraph one or two of this subdivision, in the case of 3 an overpayment claimed on a return of tax which is filed after the last 4 date prescribed for filing such return, determined with regard to exten-
5 sions, or claimed on an amended return of tax or claimed on a claim for 6 credit or refund, no interest shall be allowed or paid for any day
7 before the date on which such return or claim is filed.

8 (4) Interest on certain refunds. To the extent provided for in regu-9 lations promulgated by the commissioner of taxation and finance, if an 10 item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit is changed from the 11 taxable year or period in which it is reported to the taxable year or 12 period in which it belongs and the change results in an underpayment in 13 a taxable year or period and an overpayment in some other taxable year 14 or period, the provisions of paragraph three of this subdivision with 15 respect to an overpayment shall not be applicable to the extent that the 16 limitation in such paragraph on the right to interest would result in a 17 taxpayer not being allowed interest for a length of time with respect to 18 an overpayment while being required to pay interest on an equivalent 19 amount of the related underpayment. However, this paragraph shall not be 20 construed as limiting or mitigating the effect of any statute of limita-21 tions or any other provision of law relating to the authority of such 22 commissioner to issue a notice of deficiency or to allow a credit or 23 refund on an overpayment.

24 (5) Amounts of less than one dollar. No interest shall be allowed or 25 paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

26 (b) Advance payment of tax, payment of estimated tax, and credit for 27 income tax withholding. The provisions of subdivisions (h) and (i) of 28 section 11-1787 of this subchapter applicable in determining the date of 29 payment of tax for purposes of determining the period of limitations on 30 credit or refund, shall be applicable in determining the date of payment 31 for purposes of this section.

32 (c) Income tax refund within forty-five days of claim for overpayment.
33 If any overpayment of tax imposed by this chapter is credited or 34 refunded within forty-five days after the last date prescribed, or 35 permitted by extension of time, for filing the return of such tax on 36 which such overpayment was claimed or within forty-five days after such 37 return was filed, whichever is later, or within forty-five days after an 38 amended return was filed claiming such overpayment or within forty-five 39 days after a claim for credit or refund was filed on which such overpay-40 ment was claimed, within six months after a demand is filed pursuant to 41 paragraph six of subsection (b) of section six hundred fifty-one of the 42 tax law, no interest shall be allowed under this section on any such 43 overpayment. For purposes of this subdivision, any amended return or 44 claim for credit or refund filed before the last day prescribed, or 45 permitted by extension of time, for the filing of the return of tax for 46 such year shall be considered as filed on such last day.

47 (d) Refund of income tax caused by carryback. For purposes of this 48 section, if any overpayment of tax imposed by this chapter results from 49 a carryback of a net operating loss, such overpayment shall be deemed 50 not to have been made prior to the filing date for the taxable year in 51 which such net operating loss arises. Such filing date shall be deter-52 mined without regard to extensions of time to file. For purposes of 53 subdivision (c) of this section any overpayment described herein shall 54 be treated as an overpayment for the loss year and such subdivision 55 shall be applied with respect to such overpayment by treating the return 56 for the loss year as not filed before claim for such overpayment is 1 filed. The term "loss year" means the taxable year in which such loss 2 arises.

3 (e) No interest until return in processible form.

4 (1) For purposes of subdivisions (a) and (c) of this section, a return 5 shall not be treated as filed until it is filed in processible form.

6 (2) For purposes of paragraph one of this subdivision, a return is in 7 a processible form if:

8 (A) such return is filed on a permitted form, and

9 (B) such return contains:

10 (i) the taxpayer's name, address, and identifying number and the 11 required signatures, and

12 (ii) sufficient required information, whether on the return or on 13 required attachments, to permit the mathematical verification of tax 14 liability shown on the return.

15 (f) Overpayment credited against past-due support, or against a past-
16 due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax warrant judgment 17 debt, or defaulted guaranteed student, state university or city univer-18 sity loans. If interest is payable pursuant to this section on that 19 portion of an overpayment of tax imposed by this chapter which is certi-20 fied by the state commissioner of taxation and finance to the state 21 comptroller as the amount to be credited against past-due support, or 22 against a past-due legally enforceable debt, or a city of New York tax 23 warrant judgment debt, or the amount of a default in repayment of a 24 guaranteed student, state university or city university loan, as the 25 case may be, pursuant to the provisions of sections one hundred seven-26 ty-one-c, one hundred seventy-one-d, one hundred seventy-one-e, one 27 hundred seventy-one-f and one hundred seventy-one-l of the tax law, such 28 portion of such an overpayment shall cease to bear interest on the date 29 of such certification.

30 (g) Cross-reference. For provision with respect to interest after 31 failure to file notice of federal change under section 11-1759 of this 32 chapter, see subdivision (c) of section 11-1787 of this subchapter.

33 § 11-1789 Petition to tax commission. (a) General. The form of a 34 petition to the tax commission, and further proceedings before the tax 35 commission in any case initiated by the filing of a petition, shall be 36 governed by such rules as the tax commission shall prescribe. No peti-37 tion shall be denied in whole or in part without opportunity for a hear-38 ing on reasonable prior notice. Such hearing shall be conducted by one 39 or more members of the tax commission, or by a hearing officer desig-40 nated by the tax commission to take evidence and report to the tax 41 commission. The tax commissioners shall, acting as a body, jointly 42 decide the case as quickly as practicable. Notice of the decision shall 43 be mailed promptly to the taxpayer by certified or registered mail at 44 his or her last known address, and such notice shall set forth the tax 45 commission's findings of fact and a brief statement of the grounds of 46 decision in each case decided in whole or in part adversely to the 47 taxpayer.

48 (b) Petition for redetermination of a deficiency. Within ninety days, 49 or one hundred fifty days if the notice is addressed to a person outside
50 of the United States, after the mailing of the notice of deficiency
51 authorized by section 11-1781 of this subchapter, the taxpayer may file 52 a petition with the tax commission for a redetermination of the defi-53 ciency. Such petition may also assert a claim for refund for the same 54 taxable year or years, subject to the limitations of subdivision (g) of 55 section 11-1787 of this subchapter.

1 (c) Petition for refund. A taxpayer may file a petition with the tax 2 commission for the amounts asserted in a claim for refund if:

3 (1) the taxpayer has filed a timely claim for refund with the tax 4 commission,

5 (2) the taxpayer has not previously filed with the tax commission a 6 timely petition under subdivision (b) of this section for the same
7 taxable year unless the petition under this subdivision relates to a 8 separate claim for credit or refund properly filed under subdivision (f) 9 of section 11-1787 of this subchapter, and

10 (3) either: (A) six months have expired since the claim was filed, or 11 (B) the tax commission has mailed to the taxpayer, by registered or 12 certified mail, a notice of disallowance of such claim in whole or in 13 part.

14 No petition under this subdivision shall be filed more than two years 15 after the date of mailing of a notice of disallowance, unless prior to 16 the expiration of such two year period it has been extended by written 17 agreement between the taxpayer and the tax commission. If a taxpayer 18 files a written waiver of the requirement that he or she be mailed a 19 notice of disallowance, the two year period prescribed by this subdivi-20 sion for filing a petition for refund shall begin on the date such waiv-
21 er is filed.

22 (d) Assertion of deficiency after filing petition.

23 (1) Petition for redetermination of deficiency. If a taxpayer files
24 with the tax commission, a petition for redetermination of a deficiency, 25 the tax commission shall have power to determine a greater deficiency 26 than asserted in the notice of deficiency and to determine if there 27 should be assessed any addition to tax or penalty provided in section 28 11-1785 of this subchapter, if claim therefor is asserted at or before 29 the hearing under rules of the tax commission.

30 (2) Petition for refund. If the taxpayer files with the tax commis-31 sion a petition for credit or refund for a taxable year, the tax commis-32 sion may:

33 (A) determine a deficiency for such year as to any amount of defi-34 ciency asserted at or before the hearing under rules of the tax commis-35 sion, and within the period in which an assessment would be timely under 36 section 11-1783 of this subchapter, or

37 (B) deny so much of the amount for which credit or refund is sought 38 in the petition, as is offset by other issues pertaining to the same 39 taxable year which are asserted at or before the hearing under rules of 40 the tax commission.

41 (3) Opportunity to respond. A taxpayer shall be given a reasonable 42 opportunity to respond to any matters asserted by the tax commission 43 under this subdivision.

44 (4) Restriction on further notices of deficiency. If the taxpayer
45 files a petition with the tax commission under this section, no notice 46 of deficiency under section 11-1781 of this subchapter may thereafter be 47 issued by the tax commission for the same taxable year, except in case 48 of fraud or with respect to a change or correction required to be 49 reported under section 11-1759 of this chapter.

50 (e) Burden of proof. In any case before the tax commission under this 51 chapter, the burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner except for the 52 following issues, as to which the burden of proof shall be upon the tax 53 commission:

54 (1) whether the petitioner has been guilty of fraud with intent to 55 evade tax;

1 (2) whether the petitioner is liable as the transferee of property of 2 a taxpayer, but not to show that the taxpayer was liable for the tax;

3 (3) whether the petitioner is liable for any increase in a deficiency
4 where such increase is asserted initially after a notice of deficiency
5 was mailed and a petition under this section filed, unless such increase 6 in deficiency is the result of a change or correction required to be 7 reported under section 11-1759 of this chapter, and of which change or 8 correction the tax commission had no notice at the time it mailed the 9 notice of deficiency; and 10 (4) whether any person is liable for a penalty under subdivision (q) 11 or (r) of section 11-1785 of this subchapter.

12 (f) Evidence of related federal determination. Evidence of a federal 13 determination relating to issues raised in a case before the tax commis-14 sion under this section shall be admissible, under rules established by 15 the tax commission.

16 (g) Jurisdiction over other years. The tax commission shall consider 17 such facts with relation to the taxes for other years as may be neces-
18 sary correctly to determine the tax for the taxable year, but in so 19 doing shall have no jurisdiction to determine whether or not the tax for 20 any other year has been overpaid or underpaid.

21 § 11-1790 Review of tax commission decision. (a) General. A decision 22 of the tax commission shall be subject to judicial review at the 23 instance of any taxpayer effected thereby in the manner provided by law 24 for the review of a final decision or action of administrative agencies 25 of the state. An application by a taxpayer for such review must be made 26 within four months after notice of the decision is sent by certified or 27 registered mail to the taxpayer.

28 (b) Judicial review exclusive remedy of taxpayer. The review of a 29 decision of the tax commission provided by this section shall be the 30 exclusive remedy available to any taxpayer for the judicial determi-31 nation of the liability of the taxpayer for the taxes imposed by this 32 chapter.

33 (c) Assessment pending review; review bond. Irrespective of any 34 restrictions on the assessment and collection of deficiencies, the tax 35 commission may assess a deficiency after the expiration of the period 36 specified in subdivision (a) of this section, notwithstanding that an 37 application for judicial review in respect of such deficiency has been 38 duly made by the taxpayer, unless the taxpayer, at or before the time 39 his or her application for review is made, has paid the deficiency, has 40 deposited with the tax commission the amount of the deficiency, or has 41 filed with the tax commission a bond, which may be a jeopardy bond under 42 subdivision (h) of section 11-1794 of this subchapter, in the amount of 43 the portion of the deficiency, including interest and other amounts, in 44 respect of which the application for review is made and all costs and 45 charges which may accrue against him or her in the prosecution of the 46 proceeding, including costs of all appeals, and with surety approved by 47 a justice of the supreme court of the state of New York, conditioned 48 upon the payment of the deficiency, including interest and other
49 amounts, as finally determined and such costs and charges. If as a
50 result of a waiver of the restrictions on the assessment and collection 51 of a deficiency any part of the amount determined by the tax commission 52 is paid after the filing of the review bond, such bond shall, at the 53 request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

54 (d) Credit, refund or abatement after review. If the amount of a 55 deficiency determined by the tax commission is disallowed in whole or in 56 part by the court of review, the amount so disallowed shall be credited

1 or refunded to the taxpayer, without the making of claim therefor, or,
2 if payment has not been made, shall be abated.

3 (e) Date of finality of tax commission decision. A decision of the 4 tax commission shall become final upon the expiration of the period 5 specified in subdivision (a) of this section for making an application 6 for review, if no such application has been duly made within such time, 7 or if such application has been duly made, upon expiration of the time 8 for all further judicial review, or upon the rendering by the tax 9 commission of a decision in accordance with the mandate of the court on 10 review, provided, however, for the purpose of making an application for 11 review, the decision of the tax commission shall be deemed final on the 12 date the notice of decision is sent by certified or registered mail to 13 the taxpayer.

14 § 11-1791 Mailing rules; holidays; miscellaneous. (a) Timely mail-15 ing. (1) If any return, claim, statement, notice, petition, or other 16 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
17 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
18 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date, 19 delivered by United States mail to the tax commission, bureau, office, 20 officer or person with which or with whom such document is required to 21 be filed, or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made,
22 the date of the United States postmark stamped on the envelope shall be 23 deemed to be the date of delivery. This subdivision shall apply only if 24 the postmark date falls within the prescribed period or on or before the 25 prescribed date for the filing of such document, or for making the 26 payment, including any extension granted for such filing or payment, and 27 only if such document or payment was deposited in the mail, postage
28 prepaid, properly addressed to the tax commission, bureau, office, offi-
29 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 30 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 31 document or payment is sent by United States registered mail, such 32 registration shall be prima facie evidence that such document or payment 33 was delivered to the tax commission, bureau, office, officer or person 34 to which or to whom addressed. To the extent that the tax commission 35 shall prescribe by regulation, certified mail may be used in lieu of 36 registered mail under this section. This subdivision shall apply in the 37 case of postmarks not made by the United States post office only if and 38 to the extent provided by regulations of the tax commission.

39 (2)(A) Any reference in paragraph one of this subdivision to the 40 United States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any 41 delivery service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the 42 United States pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the Inter-
43 nal Revenue Code and any reference in paragraph one of this subdivision 44 to a postmark by the United States mail shall be treated as including a 45 reference to any date recorded or marked in the manner described in 46 section seventy-five hundred two of the Internal Revenue Code by a 47 designated delivery service. If the commissioner of taxation and finance 48 finds that any delivery service designated by such secretary is inade-49 quate for the needs of the state, such commissioner may withdraw such 50 designation for purposes of this article. Such commissioner may also 51 designate additional delivery services meeting the criteria of section 52 seventy-five hundred two of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of 53 this article, or may withdraw any such designation if such commissioner 54 finds that a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs 55 of the state. Any reference in paragraph one of this subdivision to the 56 United States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any

1 delivery service designated by such commissioner and any reference in 2 paragraph one of this subdivision to a postmark by the United States 3 mail shall be treated as including a reference to any date recorded or 4 marked in the manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of 5 the Internal Revenue Code by a delivery service designated by the 6 commissioner.

7 (B) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 8 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 9 commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to the same criteria used 10 by the secretary for such designation pursuant to section seventy-five 11 hundred two of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be included within the 12 meaning of registered or certified mail as used in paragraph one of this 13 subdivision. If such commissioner finds that any equivalent of regis-14 tered or certified mail designated by such secretary or such commission-15 er is inadequate for the needs of the state, such commissioner may with-16 draw such designation for purposes of this article.

17 (b) Last known address. For purposes of this chapter, a taxpayer's
18 last known address shall be the address given in the last return filed 19 by such taxpayer, unless subsequent to the filing of such return the 20 taxpayer shall have notified the tax commission of a change of address.

21 (c) Last day a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. When the last day 22 prescribed under authority of this chapter, including any extension of 23 time, for performing any act falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holi-
24 day in the state of New York, the performance of such act shall be 25 considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding day which is 26 not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday.

27 (d) Certificate; unfiled return. For purposes of this chapter, the 28 certificate of the tax commission to the effect that a tax has not been 29 paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been 30 supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this chapter, shall 31 be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such 32 return has not been filed, or that such information has not been 33 supplied.

34 (e) Attorney general; jurisdiction. The attorney general shall have 35 concurrent jurisdiction with any district attorney in the prosecution of 36 any offenses arising under article thirty-seven of the tax law with 37 respect to the tax imposed under this chapter.

38 § 11-1792 Collection, levy and liens. (a) Collection procedures. The 39 taxes imposed by this chapter shall be collected by the tax commission, 40 and it may establish the mode or time for the collection of any amount 41 due it under this chapter if not otherwise specified. The tax commis-42 sion shall, upon request, give a receipt for any sum collected under 43 this chapter. The tax commission may authorize banks or trust companies 44 which are depositaries or financial agents of the state to receive and 45 give a receipt for any tax imposed under this chapter in such manner, at 46 such times, and under such conditions as the tax commission may 47 prescribe; and the tax commission shall prescribe the manner, times and 48 conditions under which the receipt of such tax by such banks and trust 49 companies is to be treated as payment of such tax to the tax commission.

50 (b) Notice and demand for tax. The tax commission shall as soon as 51 practicable give notice to each person liable for any amount of tax, 52 addition to tax, penalty or interest, which has been assessed but 53 remains unpaid, stating the amount and demanding payment thereof. Such 54 notice shall be left at the dwelling or usual place of business of such 55 person or shall be sent by mail to such person's last known address.
56 Except where the tax commission determines that collection would be

1 jeopardized by delay, if any tax is assessed prior to the last date, 2 including any date fixed by extension, prescribed for payment of such 3 tax, payment of such tax shall not be demanded until after such date.

4 (c) Issuance of warrant after notice and demand. If any person liable 5 under this chapter for the payment of any tax, addition to tax, penalty 6 or interest neglects or refuses to pay the same within twenty-one calen-7 dar days after notice and demand therefor is given to such person under 8 subdivision (b) of this section, ten business days if the amount for 9 which such notice and demand is made equals or exceeds one hundred thou-10 sand dollars, the commissioner of taxation and finance may within six 11 years after the date of such assessment issue a warrant under such 12 commissioner's official seal directed to the sheriff of any county of 13 the state, or to any officer or employee of the department of taxation 14 and finance, commanding him or her to levy upon and sell such person's 15 real and personal property for the payment of the amount assessed, with 16 the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to such 17 commissioner and pay to him or her the money collected by virtue thereof 18 within sixty days after the receipt of the warrant. If such commissioner 19 finds that the collection of the tax or other amount is in jeopardy, 20 notice and demand for immediate payment of such tax may be made by such 21 commissioner and upon failure or refusal to pay such tax or other amount 22 such commissioner may issue a warrant without regard to the twenty-one 23 day period, or ten-day period if applicable, provided in this subdivi-24 sion.

25 (d) Copy of warrant to be filed and lien to be created. Any sheriff 26 or officer or employee who receives a warrant under subdivision (c) of 27 this section shall within five days thereafter file a copy with the 28 clerk of the appropriate county. The clerk shall thereupon enter in the 29 judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the 30 taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns the tax or 31 other amounts for which the warrant is issued and the date when such 32 copy is filed; and such amount shall thereupon be a lien upon the title 33 to and interest in real, personal and other property of the taxpayer.
34 Such lien shall not apply to personal property unless such warrant is 35 filed in the department of state.

36 (e) Judgment. When a warrant has been filed with the county clerk 37 the tax commission shall, in the right of the city, be deemed to have 38 obtained judgment against the taxpayer for the tax or other amounts.

39 (f) Execution. The sheriff or officer or employee shall thereupon 40 proceed upon the warrant in all respects, with like effect, and in the 41 same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against 42 property upon judgments of a court of record, and a sheriff shall be 43 entitled to the same fees for his or her services in executing the 44 warrant, to be collected in the same manner. An officer or employee of 45 the department of taxation and finance may proceed in any county or 46 counties of this state and shall have all the powers of execution
47 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 48 compensation in excess of actual expenses paid in connection with the 49 execution of the warrant.

50 (g) Taxpayer not a resident. Where a notice and demand under subdivi-51 sion (b) of this section shall have been given to a taxpayer who is 52 not then a resident, and it appears to the tax commission that it is not 53 practicable to find in this state property of the taxpayer sufficient to 54 pay the entire balance of tax or other amount owing by such taxpayer who 55 is not then a resident, the tax commission may, in accordance with 56 subdivision (c) of this section, issue a warrant directed to an officer

1 or employee of the department of taxation and finance, a copy of which 2 warrant shall be mailed by certified or registered mail to the taxpayer 3 at his or her last known address, subject to the rules for mailing 4 provided in subdivision (a) of section 11-1781 of this subchapter. Such 5 warrant shall command the officer or employee to proceed in Albany coun-6 ty, and he or she shall, within five days after receipt of the warrant, 7 file the warrant and obtain a judgment in accordance with this section.
8 Thereupon the tax commission may authorize the institution of any action 9 or proceeding to collect or enforce the judgment in any place and by any 10 procedure that a civil judgment of the supreme court of the state of New 11 York could be collected or enforced. The tax commission may also, in 12 its discretion, designate agents or retain counsel for the purpose of 13 collecting, outside the state of New York, any unpaid taxes, additions 14 to tax, penalties or interest which have been assessed under this chap-15 ter against taxpayers who are not residents of this state, may fix the 16 compensation of such agents and counsel to be paid out of money appro-17 priated or otherwise lawfully available for payment thereof, and may 18 require of them bonds or other security for the faithful performance of 19 their duties, in such form and in such amount as the tax commission 20 shall deem proper and sufficient.

21 (h) Action by state for recovery of taxes. Action may be brought by 22 the attorney general at the instance of the tax commission in the name 23 of the city or both to recover the amount of any unpaid taxes, additions 24 to tax, penalties or interest which have been assessed under this chap-25 ter within six years prior to the date the action is commenced.

26 (i) Release of lien. The tax commission, if it finds that the inter-27 ests of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such condi-28 tions as it may require, may release any property from the lien of any 29 warrant for unpaid taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest filed 30 pursuant to this section, and such release may be recorded in the office
31 of any recording officer in which such warrant has been filed.

32 § 11-1793 Transferees. (a) General. The liability, at law or in 33 equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer for any tax, additions 34 to tax, penalty or interest due under this chapter, shall be assessed, 35 paid, and collected in the same manner and subject to the same 36 provisions and limitations as in the case of the tax to which the 37 liability relates, except that the period of limitations for assessment 38 against the transferee shall be extended by one year for each successive 39 transfer, in order, from the original taxpayer to the transferee 40 involved, but not by more than three years in the aggregate. The term 41 transferee includes donee, heir, legatee, devisee and distributee.

42 (b) Exceptions.

43 (1) If before the expiration of the period of limitations for assess-44 ment of liability of the transferee, a claim has been filed by the tax 45 commission in any court against the original taxpayer or the last 46 preceding transferee based upon the liability of the original taxpayer, 47 then the period of limitation for assessment of liability of the trans-48 feree shall in no event expire prior to one year after such claim has 49 been finally allowed, disallowed or otherwise disposed of.

50 (2) If, before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision 51 (a) or the immediately preceding paragraph of this subdivision for the 52 assessment of the liability, the tax commission and the transferee have 53 both consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the liabil-54 ity may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period 55 agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent 56 agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previous-

1 ly agreed upon. For the purpose of determining the period of limitation 2 on credit or refund to the transferee of overpayments of tax made by 3 such transferee or overpayments of tax made by the transferor as to 4 which the transferee is legally entitled to credit or refund, such 5 agreement and any extension thereof shall be deemed an agreement and 6 extension thereof referred to in subdivision (b) of section 11-1787 of 7 this subchapter. If the agreement is executed after the expiration of 8 the period of limitation for assessment against the original taxpayer, 9 then in applying the limitations under subdivision (b) of section 10 11-1787 of this subchapter on the amount of the credit or refund, the 11 periods specified in subdivision (a) of section 11-1787 of this subchap-12 ter shall be increased by the period from the date of such expiration to 13 the date of the agreement.

14 (c) Deceased transferor. If any person is deceased, the period of 15 limitation for assessment against such person shall be the period that 16 would be in effect if he or she had lived.

17 (d) Evidence. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (e) of 18 section 11-1797 of this subchapter the tax commission shall use its 19 powers to make available to the transferee evidence necessary to enable 20 the transferee to determine the liability of the original taxpayer and 21 of any preceding transferees, but without undue hardship to the original 22 taxpayer or preceding transferee. See subdivision (e) of section 23 11-1789 of this subchapter for rule as to burden of proof.

24 § 11-1794 Jeopardy assessment. (a) Authority for making. If the tax 25 commission believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency 26 will be jeopardized by delay, it shall, notwithstanding the provisions 27 of sections 11-1781 and 11-1796 of this subchapter, immediately assess 28 such deficiency, together with all interest, penalties and additions to 29 tax provided for by law, and notice and demand shall be made by the tax 30 commission for the payment thereof.

31 (b) Notice of deficiency. If the jeopardy assessment is made before 32 any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment
33 relates has been mailed under section 11-1781 of this subchapter, then 34 the tax commission shall mail a notice under such section within sixty 35 days after the making of the assessment.

36 (c) Amount assessable before decision of tax commission. The jeopardy 37 assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than 38 that of which notice is mailed to the taxpayer and whether or not the 39 taxpayer has theretofore filed a petition with the tax commission. The 40 tax commission may, at any time before rendering its decision, abate 41 such assessment, or any unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that it 42 believes the assessment to be excessive in amount. The tax commission 43 may in its decision redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and 44 of all amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

45 (d) Amount assessable after decision of tax commission. If the 46 jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the tax commission is 47 rendered, such assessment may be made only in respect of the deficiency 48 determined by the tax commission in its decision.

49 (e) Expiration of right to assess. A jeopardy assessment may not be 50 made after the decision of the tax commission has become final or after 51 the taxpayer has made an application for review of the decision of the 52 tax commission.

53 (f) Collection of unpaid amounts. When a petition has been filed with 54 the tax commission and when the amount which should have been assessed 55 has been determined by a decision of the tax commission which has become 56 final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed

1 by bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand 2 from the tax commission, and any remaining portion of the assessment
3 shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount 4 determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess 5 shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 6 11-1786 of this subchapter without the filing of claim therefor. If the 7 amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is 8 greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be 9 assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and 10 demand from the tax commission.

11 (g) Abatement if jeopardy does not exist. The tax commission may 12 abate the jeopardy assessment if it finds that jeopardy does not exist.
13 Such abatement may not be made after a decision of the tax commission in 14 respect of the deficiency has been rendered or, if no petition is filed 15 with the tax commission, after the expiration of the period for filing 16 such petition. The period of limitation on the making of assessments 17 and levy or a proceeding for collection, in respect of any deficiency, 18 shall be determined as if the jeopardy assessment so abated had not been 19 made, except that the running of such period shall in any event be 20 suspended for the period from the date of such jeopardy assessment until 21 the expiration of the tenth day after the day on which such jeopardy 22 assessment is abated.

23 (h) Bond to stay collection. The collection of the whole or any 24 amount of any jeopardy assessment may be stayed by filing with the tax 25 commission, within such time as may be fixed by regulation, a bond in an 26 amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired, conditioned 27 upon the payment of the amount, together with interest thereon, the 28 collection of which is stayed at the time at which, but for the making
29 of the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due. Upon the filing 30 of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is 31 covered by the bond shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the right 32 to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of 33 the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any 34 part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall at 35 the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion 36 of the jeopardy assessment is abated, or if a notice of deficiency under 37 section 11-1781 of this subchapter is mailed to the taxpayer in a lesser 38 amount, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportion-39 ately reduced.

40 (i) Petition to tax commission. If the bond is given before the 41 taxpayer has filed his or her petition under section 11-1789 of this 42 subchapter, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a peti-43 tion is not filed within the period provided in such section, then the 44 amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, will be paid on 45 notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, 46 together with interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and 47 demand to the date of notice and demand under this subdivision. The 48 bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of so much of such assess-49 ment, collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a 50 decision of the tax commission which has become final. If the tax 51 commission determines that the amount assessed is greater than the 52 amount which should have been assessed, then the bond shall, at the 53 request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced when the decision of 54 the tax commission is rendered.

1 (j) Stay of sale of seized property pending tax commission decision.
2 Where a jeopardy assessment is made, the property seized for the 3 collection of the tax shall not be sold:

4 (1) if subdivision (b) of this section is applicable, prior to the 5 issuance of the notice of deficiency and the expiration of the time
6 provided in section 11-1789 of this subchapter for filing a petition 7 with the tax commission, and 8 (2) if a petition is filed with the tax commission, whether before or 9 after the making of such jeopardy assessment, prior to the expiration of 10 the period during which the assessment of the deficiency would be 11 prohibited if subdivision (a) of this section were not applicable.

12 Such property may be sold if the taxpayer consents to the sale, or if 13 the tax commission determines that the expenses of conservation and 14 maintenance will greatly reduce the net proceeds, or if the property is 15 perishable.

16 (k) Interest. For the purpose of subdivision (a) of section 11-1784 17 of this subchapter, the last date prescribed for payment shall be deter-18 mined without regard to any notice and demand for payment issued under 19 this section prior to the last date otherwise prescribed for such 20 payment.

21 (l) Early termination of taxable year. If the tax commission finds 22 that a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from this state or to remove 23 his or her property therefrom, or to conceal himself or herself or his 24 or her property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or 25 to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the city 26 personal income tax for the current or the preceding taxable year unless 27 such proceedings be brought without delay, the tax commission shall 28 declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated, and 29 shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the 30 taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for 31 the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preced-32 ing taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the 33 time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has 34 expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and paya-35 ble. In any proceeding brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and 36 payable by virtue of the provisions of this subdivision, the finding of 37 the tax commission made as herein provided, whether made after notice to 38 the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of 39 jeopardy.

40 (m) Reopening of taxable period. Notwithstanding the termination of 41 the taxable period of the taxpayer by the tax commission, as provided in 42 subdivision (l) of this section, the tax commission may reopen such 43 taxable period each time the taxpayer is found by the tax commission to 44 have received income, within the current taxable year, since the termi-45 nation of such period. A taxable period so terminated by the tax 46 commission may be reopened by the taxpayer if he or she files with the 47 tax commission a true and accurate return of taxable income and credits 48 allowed under this chapter for such taxable period, together with such 49 other information as the tax commission may by regulations prescribe.

50 (n) Furnishing of bond where taxable year is closed by the tax 51 commission. Payment of taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings 52 under the provisions of subdivision (l) of this section prior to the 53 expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such taxes if the 54 taxpayer furnishes, under regulations prescribed by the tax commission, 55 a bond to insure the timely making of returns with respect to, and

1 payment of, such taxes or any city personal income taxes for prior 2 years.

3 § 11-1795 Criminal penalties; cross-reference. For criminal penal-4 ties, see article thirty-seven of the tax law.

5 § 11-1796 Income taxes of members of armed forces and victims of 6 certain terrorist attacks. (a) Time to be disregarded. In the case of 7 an individual serving in the armed forces of the United States, or serv-8 ing in support of such armed forces, in an area designated by the presi-9 dent of the United States by executive order as a "combat zone" at any 10 time during the period designated by the president by executive order as 11 the period of combatant activities in such zone, or hospitalized inside 12 or outside the state as a result of injury received while serving in 13 such an area during such time, the period of service in such area, plus 14 the period of continuous hospitalization inside or outside the state 15 attributable to such injury, and the next one hundred eighty days there-16 after, shall be disregarded in determining, under this chapter, in 17 respect of the city personal income tax liability, including any inter-18 est, penalty, or addition to the tax, of such individual:

19 (1) Whether any of the following acts was performed within the time
20 prescribed therefor:

21 (A) filing any return of income tax, except withholding tax;

22 (B) payment of any income tax, except withholding tax, or any install-23 ment thereof or of any other liability in respect thereof;

24 (C) filing a petition with the tax commission for credit or refund or 25 for redetermination of a deficiency, or application for review of a 26 decision rendered by the tax commission;

27 (D) allowance of a credit or refund of city personal income tax;

28 (E) filing a claim for credit or refund of city personal income tax;

29 (F) assessment of city personal income tax;

30 (G) giving or making any notice or demand for the payment of any city 31 personal income tax, or with respect to any liability to the city in 32 respect of such income tax;

33 (H) collection, by the tax commission, by levy or otherwise of the 34 amount of any liability in respect of such income tax;

35 (I) bringing suit by the city, the state, or any officer, on their 36 behalf, in respect of any liability in respect of such income tax; and 37 (J) any other act required or permitted under this chapter or speci-38 fied in regulations prescribed under this section by the tax commission.

39 (2) The amount of any credit or refund.

40 (b) Special rule for overpayments. (1) Subdivision (a) of this section 41 shall not apply for purposes of determining the amount of interest on 42 any overpayment of tax.

43 (2) If an individual is entitled to the benefits of subdivision (a) of 44 this section with respect to any return, amended return, or claim for 45 credit or refund, and such return, amended return or claim is timely 46 filed, determined after the application of such subdivision, paragraph 47 three of subdivision (a) and subdivision (c) of section 11-1788 of this 48 subchapter of this title shall not apply.

49 (c) Action taken before ascertainment of right to benefits. The 50 assessment or collection of the tax imposed by this chapter or of any 51 liability in respect of such tax, or any action or proceeding by or on 52 behalf of the city in connection therewith, may be made, taken, begun, 53 or prosecuted in accordance with law, without regard to the provisions 54 of subdivision (a) of this section, unless prior to such assessment, 55 collection, action, or proceeding it is ascertained that the person

1 concerned is entitled to the benefits of subdivision (a) of this
2 section.

3 (d) Members of armed forces dying in action. In the case of any person 4 who dies while in active service as a member of the armed forces of the 5 United States, if such death occurred while serving in a combat zone 6 during a period of combatant activities in such zone, as described in 7 subdivision (a) of this section, or as a result of wounds, disease or 8 injury incurred while so serving, the tax imposed by this chapter shall 9 not apply with respect to the taxable year in which falls the date of 10 his or her death, or with respect to any prior taxable year ending on or 11 after the first day so served in a combat zone, and no returns shall be 12 required in behalf of such person or his or her estate for such year; 13 and the tax for any such taxable year which is unpaid at the date of 14 death, including interest, additions to tax and penalties, if any, shall 15 not be assessed and, if assessed, the assessment shall be abated and, if 16 collected, shall be refunded to the legal representative of such estate 17 if one has been appointed and has qualified, or, if no legal represen-
18 tative has been appointed or has qualified, to the surviving spouse.

19 (e) Treatment of individuals performing Desert Shield services. (1) 20 Any individual who performed Desert Shield services shall be entitled to 21 the benefits of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section in the same 22 manner as if such services were services referred to in subdivision (a)
23 of this section.

24 (2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Desert Shield 25 services" means any services in the armed forces of the United States or 26 in support of such armed forces if

27 (A) such services are performed in the area designated by the presi-28 dent of the United States as the "Persian Gulf Desert Shield area", and 29 (B) such services are performed during the period beginning on August 30 second, nineteen hundred ninety, and ending on the date on which any 31 portion of the area referred to in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph is 32 designated by the president as a combat zone pursuant to section one 33 hundred twelve of the internal revenue code.

34 (f) Relief for personnel under hostile fire. For purposes of this 35 section, members of the armed forces of the United States who perform 36 military service in an area outside an area designated by the president 37 of the United States by executive order as a "combat zone", which 38 service is in direct support of military operations in such zone and is 39 performed under conditions which qualify such members for hostile fire 40 pay, as authorized under subdivision (a) of section nine of the federal 41 uniformed services pay act of nineteen hundred sixty-three, shall, 42 during the period of such qualifying service, be deemed to have served 43 in such combat zone.

44 (g) Application to spouse. The provisions of subdivisions (a), (b), 45 (c), (e) and (f) of this section shall apply to the spouse of any indi-46 vidual entitled to the benefits of subdivision (a) of this section; 47 provided, however, that such subdivisions shall not apply for any spouse 48 for any taxable year beginning more than two years after the date desig-49 nated under section one hundred twelve of the internal revenue code as 50 the date of termination of combatant activities in a combat zone.

51 (h) Individuals dying as a result of certain attacks. (1) General. In 52 the case of a specified terrorist victim, any tax imposed by this chap-53 ter shall not apply: (A) with respect to the taxable year in which 54 falls the date of death; and (B) with respect to any prior taxable year 55 in the period beginning with the last taxable year ending before the 1 taxable year in which the wounds or injury referred to in paragraph 2 three of this subdivision were incurred.

3 (2) Taxation of certain benefits. Paragraph one of this subdivision 4 shall not apply to the amount of any tax imposed by this chapter which 5 would be computed by only taking into account the items of income, gain, 6 or other amounts determined by the United States secretary of the treas-7 ury to be taxable pursuant to paragraph three of subdivision (d) of 8 section six hundred ninety-two of the internal revenue code.

9 (3) Specified terrorist victim. For purposes of this subdivision, the 10 term "specified terrorist victim" means any decedent who dies as a 11 result of wounds or injury incurred as a result of the terrorist attacks 12 against the United States on September eleventh, two thousand one, 13 provided, however, such term shall not include any individual identified 14 by the attorney general of the United States to have been a participant 15 or conspirator in any such attack or a representative of such an indi-16 vidual.

17 § 11-1797 General powers of tax commission. (a) General. The tax 18 commission shall administer and enforce the tax imposed by this chapter 19 and it is authorized to make such rules and regulations, and to require 20 such facts and information to be reported, as it may deem necessary to 21 enforce the provisions of this chapter.

22 (b) Examination of books and witnesses. (1) The tax commission for the 23 purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for the 24 purpose of making an estimate of taxable income of any person, shall 25 have power to examine or to cause to have examined, by any agent or 26 representative designated by it for that purpose, any books, papers, 27 records or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in 28 the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the 29 return or any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of 30 any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimo-31 ny and require proof material for its information, with power to admin-32 ister oaths to such person or persons.

33 (2) The tax commission may take any action under paragraph one of this 34 subdivision to inquire into the commission of any offense connected with 35 the administration or enforcement of this chapter, provided, however, 36 that notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-1774 of this chapter 37 no such action shall be taken after a referral by the department or the 38 tax commission to the attorney general, a district attorney or any other 39 prosecutorial agency is in effect.

40 (c) Abatement authority. The tax commission, of its own motion, may 41 abate any small unpaid balance of an assessment of city personal income 42 tax, or any liability in respect thereof, if the tax commission deter-43 mines under uniform rules prescribed by it that the administration and 44 collection costs involved would not warrant collection of the amount 45 due. It may also abate, of its own motion, the unpaid portion of the 46 assessment of any tax or any liability in respect thereof, which is 47 excessive in amount, or is assessed after the expiration of the period 48 of limitation properly applicable thereto, or is erroneously or illegal-49 ly assessed. No claim for abatement under this subdivision shall be 50 filed by a taxpayer.

51 (d) Special refund authority. Where no questions of fact or law are 52 involved and it appears from the records of the tax commission that any 53 moneys have been erroneously or illegally collected from any taxpayer or 54 other person, or paid by such taxpayer or other person under a mistake 55 of facts, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the tax commission 56 at any time, without regard to any period of limitations, shall have the

1 power, upon making a record of its reasons therefor in writing, to cause 2 such moneys so paid and being erroneously and illegally held to be 3 refunded and to issue therefor its certificate to the comptroller.

4 (e) Secrecy requirement and penalties for violation. (1) Except in 5 accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, 6 it shall be unlawful for the tax commission, any tax commissioner, any 7 officer or employee of the department of taxation and finance, any 8 person engaged or retained by such department on an independent contract 9 basis, any depository to which any return may be delivered as provided 10 in subdivision (h) or (i) of this section, any officer or employee of 11 such depository, or any person who, pursuant to this section, is permit-12 ted to inspect any report or return or to whom a copy, an abstract or a 13 portion of any report or return is furnished, or to whom any information 14 contained in any report or return is furnished, to divulge or make known 15 in any manner the amount of income or any particulars set forth or 16 disclosed in any report or return required under this chapter.

17 (2) The officers charged with the custody of such reports and returns
18 shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of anything 19 contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on 20 behalf of the tax commission in an action or proceeding under the 21 provisions of this chapter, the tax law or in any other action or 22 proceeding involving the collection of a tax due under this chapter or 23 such tax law to which the city, state or the tax commission is a party 24 or a claimant, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding 25 under the provisions of this chapter when the reports, returns or facts 26 shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, in any 27 of which events the court may require the production of, and may admit 28 in evidence, so much of said reports, returns or of the facts shown 29 thereby, as are pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. The 30 tax commission may, nevertheless, publish a copy or a summary of any 31 decision rendered after the hearing required under section 11-1789 of 32 this subchapter.

33 (3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the deliv-34 ery by the state commissioner of taxation and finance to the county
35 clerk of a county within the city of New York of a mailing list of indi-36 viduals to whom income tax forms are mailed by the state commissioner of 37 taxation and finance for the sole purpose of compiling a list of 38 prospective jurors as provided in article sixteen of the judiciary law.
39 Provided, however, such delivery shall only be made pursuant to an order 40 of the chief administrator of the courts, appointed pursuant to section 41 two hundred ten of such law. No such order may be issued unless such 42 chief administrator is satisfied that such mailing list is needed to 43 compile a proper list of prospective jurors for the county for which 44 such order is sought and that, in view of the responsibilities imposed 45 by the various laws of the state on the department of taxation and 46 finance, it is reasonable to require the state commissioner of taxation 47 and finance to furnish such list. Such order shall provide that such 48 list shall be used for the sole purpose of compiling a list of prospec-49 tive jurors and that such county clerk shall take all necessary steps to 50 insure that the list is kept confidential and that there is no unauthor-51 ized use or disclosure of such list. Furthermore, nothing in this 52 section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his 53 or her duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return 54 or report filed in connection with his or her tax or to prohibit the 55 publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification 56 of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the

1 inspection by the attorney general or other legal representatives of the 2 state or city of the report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring 3 action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an 4 action or proceeding under this chapter has been recommended by the 5 commissioner of taxation and finance, the corporation counsel or the 6 attorney general or has been instituted, or the inspection of the 7 reports or returns required under this chapter by the comptroller or 8 duly designated officer or employee of the state department of audit and 9 control, for purposes of the audit of a refund of any tax paid by a 10 taxpayer under this chapter, or the furnishing to the state department 11 of social services of the amount of an overpayment of tax and interest 12 thereon certified to the comptroller to be credited against past-due 13 support pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-c of the tax law and 14 of the name and social security number of the taxpayer who made such 15 overpayment or the furnishing to the New York state higher education 16 services corporation of the amount of an overpayment of tax and interest 17 thereon certified to the comptroller to be credited against the amount 18 of a default in repayment of a guaranteed student loan pursuant to 19 section one hundred seventy-one-d of the tax law and of the name and 20 social security number of the taxpayer who made such overpayment or the 21 furnishing to the state university of New York or the city university of 22 New York or the attorney general on behalf of such state or city univer-23 sity the amount of an overpayment of tax and interest thereon certified 24 to the comptroller to be credited against the amount of a default in 25 repayment of a state university loan or city university loan pursuant to 26 section one hundred seventy-one-e of the tax law and of the name and 27 social security number of the taxpayer who made such overpayment, or the 28 disclosing to a state agency, pursuant to section one hundred seventy-29 one-f of the tax law, of the amount of an overpayment and interest ther-30 eon certified to the comptroller to be credited against a past-due 31 legally enforceable debt owed to such agency and of the name and social 32 security number of the taxpayer who made such overpayment, or the 33 disclosing to the commissioner of finance of the city of New York, 34 pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-l of the tax law, of the 35 amount of an overpayment and interest thereon certified to the comp-
36 troller to be credited against a city of New York tax warrant judgment 37 debt and of the name and social security number of the taxpayer who made 38 such overpayment. Reports and returns shall be preserved for three years 39 and thereafter until the state commissioner of taxation and finance 40 orders them to be destroyed.

41 (3-a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph one of this subdivi-42 sion, the state commissioner of taxation and finance or the commissioner 43 of finance may disclose to a taxpayer or a taxpayer's related member, as 44 defined in subdivision (t) of section 11-1712 of this chapter, informa-45 tion relating to any royalty paid, incurred or received by such taxpayer 46 or related member to or from the other, including the treatment of such 47 payments by the taxpayer or the related member in any report or return 48 transmitted to the state commissioner of taxation and finance under this 49 chapter or the New York state tax law or the commissioner of finance 50 under this title.

51 (4) (A) Any officer or employee of the state, who willfully violates 52 the provisions of this subdivision shall be dismissed from office and be 53 incapable of holding any public office in this state for a period of 54 five years thereafter.

55 (B) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see article thirty-seven 56 of the tax law.

1 (f) Cooperation with the United States and other states. Notwith-
2 standing the provisions of subdivision (e) of this section, the tax 3 commission may permit the secretary of the treasury of the United States 4 or his or her delegates, or the proper tax officer of any state imposing 5 an income tax upon the incomes of individuals, or the authorized repre-6 sentative of either such officer, to inspect any return filed under this 7 chapter, or may furnish to such officer or his or her authorized repre-8 sentative an abstract of any such return or supply him or her with 9 information concerning an item contained in any such return, or 10 disclosed by any investigation of tax liability under this chapter, but 11 such permission shall be granted or such information furnished to such 12 officer or his or her representative only if the laws of the United 13 States or of such other state, as the case may be, grant substantially 14 similar privileges to the commission or officer of this state charged 15 with the administration of the tax imposed by this chapter and such 16 information is to be used for tax purposes only; and provided further 17 the commissioner of taxation and finance may furnish to the commissioner

42 such information furnished to such officer or his or her representative 43 only if the local laws of such city grant substantially similar privi-

46 be used for tax purposes only; and provided further the commissioner of 47 taxation and finance may furnish to such city officer or the legal 49 other tax information, as he or she may consider proper, for use in 50 court actions or proceedings under such local law, whether civil or 16 companies designated by the tax commission and to file reports and 17 returns with such banks, banking houses or trust companies as agents of 18 the tax commission, in lieu of making any such payment to the tax 19 commission. However, the tax commission shall designate only such banks, 20 banking houses or trust companies as are or shall be designated by the 21 comptroller as depositories pursuant to section 11-1798 of this subchap-

41 be deemed to be set at six percent per annum. Such rates shall be the 42 rates prescribed by paragraphs two and four of this subdivision, but the 43 underpayment rate shall not be less than six percent per annum. Any such 44 rates set by such commissioner shall apply to taxes, or any portion 45 thereof, which remain or become due or overpaid on or after the date on 46 which such rates become effective and shall apply only with respect to 47 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
48 occurring in the period during which such rates are in effect.

19 the taxable year shall also apply during the first fifteen days of the 20 fourth month following such taxable year.
- 21 (iii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-

- 34 (5) In computing the amount of any interest required to be paid under 35 this article by the commissioner of taxation and finance or by the 36 taxpayer, or any other amount determined by reference to such amount of 48 section one hundred two of the state administrative procedure act relat-

14 section 11-1785 of this subchapter with respect to any failure, upon 15 request in writing of such person, such commissioner shall disclose in 16 writing to such person (1) the name of any other person whom such 17 commissioner has determined to be liable for such penalty with respect 28 request that were filed under this article by the president of the 29 United States, vice-president of the United States, member of the United 33 of the president, or in an acting or confirmed capacity in a position 34 subject to confirmation by the United States senate; or, in New York 35 state: a statewide elected official, as defined in paragraph (a) of 49 federal return that is reflected on, such return, and any social securi-50 ty numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

51 (2) No returns shall be furnished pursuant to this subdivision unless 52 the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that 53 such returns have been requested related to, and in furtherance of, a 54 legitimate task of the Congress, that the requesting committee has made 55 a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for 56 related federal reports or returns or report or return information,

1 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and that if such requested 2 returns are inspected by and/or submitted to another committee, to the 3 United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate, 4 then such inspection and/or submission shall occur in a manner consist-

6 established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

7 § 11-1798 Deposit and disposition of revenues. All revenue collected 8 by the state commissioner of taxation and finance from the taxes imposed 9 pursuant to this chapter or chapter nineteen of this title shall be 10 deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust 11 companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the credit 12 of the comptroller, in trust for the city. Such deposits shall be kept 13 in trust and separate and apart from all other moneys in the possession 14 of the comptroller. The state comptroller shall require adequate securi-

17 in his or her hands such amounts as the commissioner of taxation and 18 finance may determine to be necessary for refunds in respect to the 19 taxes imposed by this chapter and such chapter nineteen and for reason-

31 and finance as the amount due such non-obligated spouse pursuant to 32 paragraph six of subsection (b) of section six hundred fifty-one of the 33 tax law, and he or she shall deduct a like amount which he shall pay 34 into the treasury to the credit of the general fund from amounts subse-35 quently payable to the department of social services, the state univer-36 sity of New York, the city university of New York, the higher education 37 services corporation, or to the revenue arrearage account or special

41 with respect to amounts originally withheld from such overpayment pursu-42 ant to section one hundred seventy-one-l of the tax law and paid to the 43 city of New York, the comptroller shall collect a like amount from the 44 city of New York. The state comptroller, after reserving such refund 45 fund and such costs shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month,

47 collected, to be paid into the treasury of the city to the credit of the 6 New York or the city university of New York, respectively, that amount 7 of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter or chapter 8 nineteen of this title and the interest on such amount which is certi-

10 the amount to be credited against the amount of defaults in repayment of 11 state university or city university loans pursuant to subdivision six of 12 section one hundred seventy-one-e of the tax law, and except further 14 to the revenue arrearage account, pursuant to section ninety-one-a of 15 the state finance law, that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed 16 pursuant to this chapter or chapter nineteen of this title and the 17 interest on such amount which is certified to him or her by the state 18 commissioner of taxation and finance as the amount to be credited 19 against a past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency 20 pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision six of section one hundred 21 seventy-one-f of the tax law, provided, however, he or she shall credit 22 to the special offset fiduciary account, pursuant to section 23 ninety-one-c of the state finance law, any such amount creditable as a 24 liability as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision six of section 25 one hundred seventy-one-f of the tax law, and except further that he or 26 she shall pay to the city of New York that amount of overpayments of tax 27 imposed pursuant to this chapter or chapter nineteen of this title and 28 the interest on such amount which is certified to him or her by the 29 state commissioner of taxation and finance as the amount to be credited 30 against city of New York tax warrant judgment debt pursuant to section 31 one hundred seventy-one-l of the tax law. The amount deducted for admin-32 istering, collecting and distributing such taxes during such monthly 33 period shall be paid by the state comptroller into the general fund of 34 the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes fund therein. The 35 first payment to such chief fiscal officer shall be made on or before 36 March fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six, which payment shall 37 represent the balance of revenue after provision for refund and such 38 reasonable costs, with respect to taxes collected from January first, 39 nineteen hundred seventy-six through February twenty-ninth, nineteen 40 hundred seventy-six. Subsequent payments shall be made on or before 41 April fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six and on or before the 42 fifteenth day of each succeeding month thereafter, and shall represent 43 the balance of revenue with respect to taxes collected the preceding 44 calendar month. The amounts so payable shall be certified to the state 45 comptroller by the state commissioner of taxation and finance or his or 46 her delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy 47 in such certificate. Where the amount so paid over to such chief fiscal 48 officer is more or less than the amount then due such city, the amount 49 of overpayment or underpayment shall be certified to the state comp-50 troller by the state commissioner of taxation and finance or his or her 51 delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in 52 such certificate. The amount of overpayment or underpayment shall be so 53 certified to the state comptroller as soon after the discovery of the 54 overpayment or underpayment as reasonably possible and subsequent 55 payments by the state comptroller to such chief fiscal officer shall be 56 adjusted by subtracting the amount of any such overpayment from, or by

1 adding the amount of any such underpayment to such number of subsequent 2 payments and distributions as the state comptroller and the state 3 commissioner of taxation and finance shall consider reasonable in view 4 of the amount of the overpayment or underpayment and all other facts and 5 circumstances.

6 § 11-1800 Enforcement with other taxes. (a) If there is assessed a 7 tax under this chapter and there is also assessed a tax or taxes against 8 the same taxpayer pursuant to article twenty-two of the tax law or under 9 chapter nineteen of this title and if the tax commission takes action 10 under such article twenty-two or under such chapter nineteen with 11 respect to the enforcement and collection of the tax or taxes assessed 12 under such articles or chapter, the tax commission shall, wherever 13 possible, accompany such action with a similar action under similar 14 enforcement and collection provisions of this chapter.

15 (b) Any moneys collected as a result of such joint action shall be 16 deemed to have been collected in proportion to the amounts due, includ-17 ing tax, penalties, interest and additions to tax, under article twen-18 ty-two of the tax law and this city income tax.

19 (c) Whenever the tax commission takes any action with respect to a 20 deficiency of income tax under article twenty-two of the tax law or 21 under chapter nineteen of this title, other than the action set forth in 22 subdivision (a) of this section, it may in its discretion accompany such 23 action with a similar action under such city income tax.

24 § 11-1801 Administration, collection and review. (a) Except as other-25 wise provided in this chapter, any tax imposed by this chapter shall be 26 administered and collected by the tax commission in the same manner as 27 the tax imposed by article twenty-two of the tax law is administered and 28 collected by such commission. Whenever there is joint collection of 29 state and city personal income taxes, it shall be deemed that such 30 collections shall represent proportionately the applicable state and 31 city personal income taxes in determining the amount to be remitted to 32 the city.

33 (b) The tax commission, in its discretion, may require or permit any 34 or all persons liable for any tax imposed by this chapter to make 35 payments on account of estimated tax and payment of any tax, penalty or 36 interest to such banks, banking houses or trust companies designated by 37 the tax commission and to file returns with such banks, banking houses 38 or trust companies, as agent of the tax commission, in lieu of paying a 39 tax imposed by this chapter directly to the tax commission. However, 40 the tax commission shall designate only such banks, banking houses or 41 trust companies which are designated by the comptroller as depositories 42 of the state.

43 (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the tax 44 commission may require:

45 (1) the filing of any or all of the following:

46 (A) a combined return which, in addition to the return provided for in 47 section 11-1751 of this chapter, may also include any or both of the 54 employer's returns required to be filed by the same employer pursuant to 55 the provisions of section six hundred seventy-four of such law and

1 required to be filed by such employer pursuant to such chapter nineteen 2 of this title and

3 (2) where a combined return or employer's return is required, and with 4 respect to the payment of estimated tax, the tax commission may also 5 require the payment to it of a single amount which shall equal the total 6 of the amounts which would have been required to be paid with the 7 returns or employer's returns or in payment of estimated tax pursuant to 8 the provisions of article twenty-two of the tax law, and the provisions 9 of this chapter as if no combined return or employer's return were 10 required.

11 § 11-1802 Construction. This chapter shall be construed and enforced 12 in conformity with article thirty of the tax law, as added to such law 13 by chapter eight hundred eighty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred 14 seventy-five, pursuant to which article it is enacted.

15 earnings from self-employment determined in the same manner as if it 16 were an individual subject to the tax on self-employment income imposed 17 by section fourteen hundred one of the internal revenue code diminished 18 by: (1) the amount of any deduction allowed by subsection (c) of 19 section six hundred forty-two of the internal revenue code and (2) the 20 deductions allowed by sections six hundred fifty-one and six hundred 21 sixty-one of such code to the extent that they represent distributions 22 or payments to a resident of the city. However, "trade or business" as 23 used in subsection (a) of section fourteen hundred two of such code 24 shall mean the same as trade or business as defined in subsection (c) of 25 section fourteen hundred two of such code, except that paragraphs four, 26 five and six of such subsection shall not apply in determining net earn-27 ings from self-employment taxable under this chapter. Provided, however, 28 in the case of a nonresident individual or partner of a partnership 29 doing an insurance business described in section six thousand two 30 hundred one of the insurance law, any item of income, gain, loss or 31 deduction of such business which is the individual's distributive or pro 32 rata share for federal income tax purposes or which the individual is 33 required to take into account separately for federal income tax purposes 34 shall not be considered to be "net earnings from self-employment".

35 (g) "Taxable year" means the taxpayer's taxable year for federal 36 income tax purposes.

37 (h) Resident individual. A resident individual means an individual:

38 (1) who is domiciled in the city, unless (A) he or she maintains no 39 permanent place of abode in the city, maintains a permanent place of 40 abode elsewhere, and spends in the aggregate not more than thirty days
41 of the taxable year in the city, or (B) (i) within any period of five 42 hundred forty-eight consecutive days he or she is present in a foreign 43 country or countries for at least four hundred fifty days, and (ii) 44 during such period of five hundred forty-eight consecutive days he or 45 she is not present in the city for more than ninety days and does not 46 maintain a permanent place of abode in the city at which his or her 47 spouse, unless such spouse is legally separated, or minor children are 48 present for more than ninety days, and (iii) during any period of less 49 than twelve months which would be treated as a separate taxable period 50 pursuant to section 11-1919 of this chapter, and which period is 51 contained within such period of five hundred forty-eight consecutive 52 days, he or she is present in the city for a number of days which does 53 not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to ninety as the number 54 of days contained in such period of less than twelve months bears to 55 five hundred forty-eight, or

1 (2) who is not domiciled in the city but maintains a permanent place 2 of abode in the city and spends in the aggregate more than one hundred 3 eighty-three days of the taxable year in the city, unless such individ-4 ual is in active service in the armed forces of the United States.

5 (i) Nonresident individual. A nonresident individual means an individ-6 ual who is not a resident.

7 (j) Resident estate or trust. A resident estate or trust means:

8 (1) the estate of a decedent who at his or her death was domiciled in 9 the city,

10 (2) a trust, or a portion of a trust, consisting of property trans-11 ferred by will of a decedent who at his or her death was domiciled in 12 the city, or

13 (3) a trust, or portion of a trust, consisting of the property of:

14 (A) a person domiciled in the city at the time such property was 15 transferred to the trust, if such trust or portion of a trust was then 16 irrevocable, or if it was then revocable and has not subsequently become 17 irrevocable; or

18 (B) a person domiciled in the city at the time such trust, or portion 19 of a trust, became irrevocable, if it was revocable when such property 20 was transferred to the trust but has subsequently become irrevocable.

21 For the purposes of this subdivision, a trust or portion of a trust is 22 revocable if it is subject to a power, exercisable immediately or at any 23 future time, to revest title in the person whose property constitutes 24 such trust or portion of a trust, and a trust or portion of a trust
25 becomes irrevocable when the possibility that such power may be exer-
26 cised has been terminated.

27 (k) Nonresident estate or trust. A nonresident estate or trust means 28 an estate or trust which is not a resident.

29 (l) Unless a different meaning is clearly required, any terms used in 30 this chapter shall have the same meaning as when used in a comparable 31 context in the laws of the United States relating to federal taxes but 32 such meaning shall be subject to the exceptions or modifications 33 prescribed in or pursuant to article two-E of the general city law or by 34 the laws of this state. Any reference in this chapter to the internal 35 revenue code, the internal revenue code of nineteen hundred eighty-six 36 or to the laws of the United States shall mean the provisions of the 37 internal revenue code of nineteen hundred eighty-six, unless a reference 38 to the internal revenue code of nineteen hundred fifty-four is clearly 39 intended, and amendments thereto, and other provisions of the laws of 40 the United States relating to federal taxes, as the same are included in 41 the appendix and supplement to the appendix to this chapter. The quota-42 tion of such laws of the United States is intended to make them a part 43 of this chapter and to avoid constitutional uncertainties which might 44 result if such laws were merely incorporated by reference. The quota-45 tion of a provision of the federal internal revenue code or of any other 46 law of the United States shall not necessarily mean that it is applica-47 ble to or has relevance to this chapter.

48 (m) With respect to any taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred 49 seventy, until and including the thirty-first day of December, nineteen 50 hundred seventy-one, "administrator" shall be read as "state tax commis-51 sion"; "administrative agencies of the city" shall be read as "adminis-52 trative agencies of the state"; "depositories or financial agents of the 53 city" shall be read as "depositories or financial agents of the state"; 54 "officers or employees of the department of finance of the city" shall 55 be read as "officers or employees of the state department of taxation 56 and finance"; in sections 11-1934, 11-1936, 11-1939, and 11-1942 of this

1 chapter "city" shall be read as "state"; "corporation counsel or other 2 appropriate officer of the city" or "corporation counsel of the city" 3 shall be read as "state attorney general"; and the words "it" or "its" 4 shall apply instead of the pronouns used where the reference is to tax 5 commission. Provided, however, with respect to declarations of estimated 6 tax and payments of such tax and the withholding tax requirements, until 7 and including the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred seven-8 ty-one, any such terms shall be so read with respect to any taxable year 9 or other period beginning in nineteen hundred seventy-one.

10 (n) The term "partnership" shall include, unless a different meaning 11 is clearly required, a subchapter K limited liability company. The term 12 "subchapter K limited liability company" shall mean a limited liability 13 company classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. The 14 term "limited liability company" means a domestic limited liability 15 company or a foreign limited liability company, as defined in section 16 one hundred two of the limited liability company law, a limited liabil-17 ity investment company formed pursuant to section five hundred seven of 18 the banking law, or a limited liability trust company formed pursuant to 19 section one hundred two-a of the banking law.

20 § 11-1902 Persons subject to tax. (a) Imposition of tax. (1) A tax is 21 hereby imposed for each taxable year ending on or after July first, 22 nineteen hundred sixty-six and on or before December thirty-first, nine-23 teen hundred seventy and for each taxable year beginning after December 24 thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, on the wages earned and net 25 earnings from self-employment, within the city, of every nonresident 26 individual, estate and trust which shall comprise: (i) A tax at the 27 rate of one-fourth of one percent on all wages.

28 (ii) A tax at the rate of three-eighths of one percent on all net 29 earnings from self-employment.

30 (2) For each taxable year beginning on or after January first, nine-31 teen hundred seventy-one and ending on or before December thirty-first, 32 nineteen hundred ninety-nine, a tax is hereby imposed on the wages 33 earned, and net earnings from self-employment, within the city, of every 34 nonresident individual, estate and trust which shall comprise: (i) A 35 tax at the rate of forty-five hundredths of one percent on all wages.

36 (ii) A tax at the rate of sixty-five hundredths of one percent on all 37 net earnings from self-employment.

38 (3) For each taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred seventy and 39 ending in nineteen hundred seventy-one, two tentative taxes shall be 40 computed, the first as provided in paragraph one of this subdivision and 41 the second as provided in paragraph two of this subdivision, and the tax 42 for each such year shall be the sum of that proportion of each tentative 43 tax which the number of days in nineteen hundred seventy and the number 44 of days in nineteen hundred seventy-one, respectively, bears to the 45 number of days in the entire taxable year.

46 (4) For each taxable year beginning in nineteen hundred ninety-nine 47 and ending in two thousand, two tentative taxes shall be computed, the 48 first as provided in paragraph two of this subdivision and the second as 49 provided in paragraph one of this subdivision, and the tax for each such 50 year shall be the sum of that proportion of each tentative tax which the 51 number of days in nineteen hundred ninety-nine and the number of days in 52 two thousand, respectively, bears to the number of days in the entire 53 taxable year.

54 (b) Exclusion. (1) In computing the amount of wages and net earnings 55 from self-employment taxable under subdivision (a) of this section,

1 there shall be allowed an exclusion against the total of wages and net 2 earnings from self-employment in accordance with the following table:

3 Total of wages and net earnings
4 from self-employment	Exclusion allowable
5 Not over $10,000	$3,000
6 Over $10,000 but not over $20,000	$2,000
7 Over $20,000 but not over $30,000	$1,000
8 Over $30,000	None

9 (2) The exclusion allowable shall be applied pro rata against wages 10 and net earnings from self-employment.

11 (3) For taxable periods of less than one year, the exclusion allowable 12 shall be prorated pursuant to regulations of the commissioner.

13 (c) Limitation. In no event shall a taxpayer be subject to the tax 14 under this chapter in an amount greater than such taxpayer would be 15 required to pay if such taxpayer were a resident of the city and subject 16 to a tax on personal income of residents of the city adopted by the city 17 pursuant to authority granted by the general city law or the tax law.

18 § 11-1903 Taxable years to which tax imposed by this chapter applies; 19 tax for taxable years beginning prior to and ending after July first, 20 nineteen hundred sixty-six. (a) General. The tax imposed by this chapter 21 is imposed for each taxable year beginning with taxable years ending on 22 or after July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six.

23 (b) Alternate methods for determining tax for taxable years ending on 24 or after July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six. (1) The tax for any 25 taxable year ending on or after July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six 26 and on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, shall be 27 the same part of the tax which would have been imposed had this chapter 28 been in effect for the entire taxable year as the number of months, or 29 major portions thereof, of the taxable year occurring after July first, 30 nineteen hundred sixty-six is of the number of months, or major portions 31 thereof, in the taxable year.

32 (2)(i) In lieu of the method of computation of tax prescribed in para-33 graph one of this subdivision, if the taxpayer maintains adequate 34 records for any taxable year ending on or after July first, nineteen 35 hundred sixty-six and on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred 36 sixty-seven, the tax for such taxable year, at the election of the 37 taxpayer, may be computed on the basis of the wages which the taxpayer 38 would have reported had he or she filed a federal income tax return for 39 a taxable year beginning July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six, and 40 ending with the close of such taxable year ending on or before June 41 thirtieth, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, and the net earnings from self-42 employment which the taxpayer would have reported for federal income tax 43 purposes had he or she filed a self-employment tax return for a taxable 44 year beginning July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six and ending with 45 the close of such taxable year ending on or before June thirtieth, nine-46 teen hundred sixty-seven.

47 (ii) For purposes of this paragraph, the exclusions allowable under 48 section 11-1902 of this subchapter shall be reduced by a fraction, the 49 numerator of which is the number of months, or major portions thereof, 50 of the taxable year occurring before July first, nineteen hundred 51 sixty-six, and the denominator of which is the number of months, or 52 major portions thereof, in the taxable year. Except as provided in this 53 paragraph, the tax for such period ending on or before June thirtieth,

1 nineteen hundred sixty-seven, shall be computed in accordance with the 2 other provisions of this chapter.

3 § 11-1904 Allocation to the city. (a) General. If net earnings from 4 self-employment are derived from services performed, or from sources, 5 within and without the city, there shall be allocated to the city a fair 6 and equitable portion of such earnings.

7 (b) Allocation of net earnings from self-employment.

8 (1) Place of business. If a taxpayer has no regular place of business 9 outside the city all of his or her net earnings from self-employment 10 shall be allocated to the city.

11 (2) Allocation by taxpayer's books. The portion of net earnings from 12 self-employment allocable to the city may be determined from the books 13 and records of a taxpayer's trade or business, if the methods used in 14 keeping such books and the accuracy thereof are approved by the commis-15 sioner as fairly and equitably reflecting net earnings from self-employ-16 ment within the city.

17 (3) Allocation by formula. If paragraph two of this subdivision does 18 not apply to the taxpayer, the portion of net earnings from self-employ-19 ment allocable to the city shall be determined by multiplying (A) net 20 earnings from self-employment within and without the city, by (B) the 21 average of the following three percentages:

22 (i) Property percentage. The percentage computed by dividing (A) the 23 average of the value, at the beginning and end of the taxable year, of 24 real and tangible personal property connected with net earnings from 25 self-employment and located within the city, by (B) the average of the 26 value, at the beginning and end of the taxable year, of all real and 27 tangible personal property connected with the net earnings from self-em-28 ployment and located both within and without the city. For this 29 purpose, real property shall include real property whether owned or 30 rented.

31 (ii) Payroll percentage. The percentage computed by dividing (A) the 32 total wages, salaries and other personal service compensation paid or 33 incurred during the taxable year to employees in connection with the net 34 earnings from self-employment derived from a trade or business carried 35 on within the city, by (B) the total of all wages, salaries and other 36 personal service compensation paid or incurred during the taxable year 37 to employees in connection with the net earnings from self-employment 38 derived from a trade or business carried on both within and without the 39 city.

40 (iii) Gross income percentage. The percentage computed by dividing 41 (A) the gross sales or charges for services performed by or through an 42 agency located within the city, by (B) the total of all gross sales or 43 charges for services performed within and without the city. The sales 44 or charges to be allocated to the city shall include all sales negoti-45 ated or consummated, and charges for services performed, by an employee, 46 agent, agency or independent contractor chiefly situated at, connected 47 by contract or otherwise with, or sent out from, offices or other agen-48 cies of the trade or business from which a taxpayer is deriving net 49 earnings from self-employment, situated within the city.

50 (c) Other allocation methods. The portion of net earnings from self-51 employment allocable to the city shall be determined in accordance with 52 rules and regulations of the commissioner if it shall appear to the 53 commissioner that the net earnings from self-employment are not fairly 54 and equitably reflected under the provisions of subdivision (b) of this 55 section.

1 (d) Special rules for real estate. Income and deductions from the 2 rental of real property and gain and loss from the sale, exchange or 3 other disposition of real property, shall not be subject to allocation 4 under subdivision (b) or (c) of this section, but shall be considered as 5 entirely derived from or connected with the place in which such property 6 is located.

7 § 11-1905 Accounting periods and methods. (a) Accounting periods. A 8 taxpayer's taxable year under this chapter shall be the same as his or 9 her taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

10 (b) Change of accounting periods. If a taxpayer's taxable year is 11 changed for federal income tax purposes, his or her taxable year for 12 purposes of this chapter shall be similarly changed. If a taxable peri-13 od of less than twelve months results from a change of taxable year, the 14 exclusion allowable under section 11-1902 of this subchapter shall be 15 prorated under regulations of the commissioner.

16 (c) Accounting methods. A taxpayer's method of accounting under this 17 chapter shall be the same as his or her method of accounting for federal 18 income tax purposes. In the absence of any method of accounting for 19 federal income tax purposes, net earnings from self-employment within 20 the city shall be computed under such method as in the opinion of the 21 commissioner clearly reflects net earnings from self-employment within 22 the city.

23 (d) Change of accounting methods. (1) If a taxpayer's method of 24 accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, his or her method
25 of accounting for purposes of this chapter shall be similarly changed.

26 (2) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed, other than from 27 an accrual to an installment method, any additional tax which results 28 from adjustments determined to be necessary solely by reason of the 29 change shall not be greater than if such adjustments were ratably allo-
30 cated and included for the taxable year of the change and the preceding 31 taxable years, beginning after July first, nineteen hundred sixty-six, 32 not in excess of two, during which the taxpayer used the method of 33 accounting from which the change is made.

34 (3) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed from an accrual to 35 an installment method, any additional tax for the year of such change of 36 method and for any subsequent year which is attributable to the receipt 37 of installment payments properly accrued in a prior year, shall be 38 reduced by the portion of tax for any prior taxable year attributable to 39 the accrual of such installment payments, in accordance with regulations 40 of the commissioner.

41 § 11-1908 Withholding of tax on wages. On or after the first payroll 42 period beginning August twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred sixty-six,
43 every employer maintaining an office or transacting business within this 44 state and making payment of any wages taxable under this chapter shall 45 deduct and withhold from such wages for each payroll period a tax 46 computed in such manner as to result, so far as practicable, in with-47 holding from the employee's wages during each calendar year an amount 48 substantially equivalent to the tax reasonably estimated to be due from 49 the employee under this chapter. The method of determining the amount to 50 be withheld shall be prescribed by regulations of the commissioner.

51 § 11-1909 Withholding of tax on wages for taxable periods commencing 52 on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-six. The provisions 53 contained in sections 11-1908, 11-1910, 11-1911, 11-1912, 11-1913 and 54 11-1914 of this subchapter shall not be applicable to taxes imposed for 55 taxable periods commencing on or after January first, nineteen hundred 56 seventy-six provided however, with respect to such periods, the 1 provisions contained in part V of article twenty-two of the tax law 2 shall be applicable with the same force and effect as if those 3 provisions had been incorporated in full in this section except that the 4 term "aggregate amount" contained in paragraphs one, two and three of 5 subsection (a) of section six hundred seventy-four of the tax law shall 6 mean the aggregate amounts of New York state personal income tax, city 7 earnings tax on nonresidents and city personal income tax on residents 8 authorized pursuant to article thirty of the tax law required to be 9 deducted and withheld and provided, however, that the provisions of such 10 paragraphs shall not be applicable to employer's returns required to be 11 filed with respect to taxes required to be deducted and withheld during 12 the calendar year nineteen hundred seventy-six, but such returns shall 13 be required to be filed with the tax commission at the times and in the 14 manner provided for in subdivision (a) of section 11-1912 of this 15 subchapter, except the term "commission" in such subdivision shall be 16 read as "tax commission." This section shall not apply to payments by 17 the United States for service in the armed forces of the United States 18 so long as the right to require deduction and withholding of tax from 19 such payments is prohibited by the laws of the United States. Service in 20 the armed forces of the United States shall have the same meaning as 21 when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States 22 relating to withholding of city income taxes.

23 § 11-1910 Information statement for employee. Every employer required 24 to deduct and withhold tax under this chapter from the wages of an 25 employee, shall furnish to each such employee in respect of the wages 26 paid by such employer to such employee during the calendar year on or 27 before February fifteenth of the succeeding year, or, if his or her 28 employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, within 29 thirty days from the date on which the last payment of the wages is 30 made, a written statement as prescribed by the commissioner showing the 31 total amount of wages paid by the employer to the employee, the amount 32 of wages paid for services performed within the city, the amount 33 deducted and withheld as tax, and such other information as the commis-34 sioner may prescribe. The written statement required under this 35 section may be furnished to such employee in an electronic format.

36 § 11-1911 Credit for tax withheld. Wages upon which tax is required to 37 be withheld shall be taxable under this chapter as if no withholding 38 were required, but any amount of tax actually deducted and withheld 39 under this chapter in any calendar year shall be deemed to have been 40 paid on behalf of the employee from whom withheld, and such employee 41 shall be credited with having paid that amount of tax in such calendar 42 year. For a taxable year of less than twelve months, the credit shall be 43 made under regulations of the commissioner.

44 § 11-1912 Employer's return and payment of withheld taxes. (a) Gener-
45 al. On or after the first payroll period beginning August twenty-sev-46 enth, nineteen hundred sixty-six, every employer required to deduct and 47 withhold tax under this chapter shall, for each calendar month, on or 48 before the fifteenth day of the month following the close of such calen-49 dar month file a withholding return as prescribed by the commissioner 50 and pay over to the commissioner or to the depository designated by the 51 commissioner, the taxes so required to be deducted and withheld, except 52 that for the month of December in any year the returns shall be filed 53 and the taxes paid on or before January thirty-first of the succeeding 54 year. Where the aggregate amount required to be deducted and withheld 55 by any employer under this chapter and under chapter seventeen of this 56 title is less than twenty-five dollars in a calendar month and the

1 aggregate of such taxes for the semi-annual period ending on June thir-
2 tieth and December thirty-first can reasonably be expected to be less 3 than one hundred fifty dollars, the commissioner may, by regulation, 4 permit an employer to file a return on or before July thirty-first for 5 the semi-annual period ending on June thirtieth and on or before January 6 thirty-first for the semi-annual period ending on December thirty-first.
7 The commissioner may, if he or she believes such action necessary for 8 the protection of the revenues, require any employer to make a return 9 and pay to him or her the tax deducted and withheld at any time, or from 10 time to time. Where the amount of wages paid by an employer is not 11 sufficient under this chapter and under chapter seventeen of this title 12 to require the withholding of tax from the wages of any of his or her 13 employees, the commissioner may, by regulation, permit such employer to 14 file an annual return on or before February twenty-eighth of the follow-15 ing calendar year.

16 (b) Combined returns. The commissioner may by regulation provide for 17 the filing of one return which shall include the return required to be 18 filed under this section, together with the employer's return required 19 to be filed under chapter seventeen of this title.

20 (c) Deposit in trust for city. Whenever any employer fails to collect, 21 truthfully account for, pay over the tax, or make returns of the tax as 22 required in this section, the commissioner may serve a notice requiring 23 such employer to collect the taxes which become collectible after 24 service of such notice, to deposit such taxes in a bank approved by the 25 commissioner, in a separate account, in trust for the city and payable 26 to the commissioner, and to keep the amount of such tax in such account 27 until payment over to the commissioner. Such notice shall remain in 28 effect until a notice of cancellation is served by the commissioner.

29 § 11-1913 Employer's liability for withheld taxes. Every employer 30 required to deduct and withhold the tax under this chapter is hereby 31 made liable for such tax. For purposes of assessment and collection, 32 any amount required to be withheld and paid over to the commissioner, 33 and any additions to tax, penalties and interest with respect thereto 34 shall be considered the tax of the employer. Any amount of tax actually 35 deducted and withheld under this chapter shall be held to be a special 36 fund in trust for the city. No employee shall have any right of action 37 against his or her employer in respect to any monies deducted and with-38 held from his or her wages and paid over to the commissioner in compli-39 ance or in intended compliance with this chapter.

40 § 11-1914 Employer's failure to withhold. If an employer fails to 41 deduct and withhold the tax, as required, and thereafter the tax against 42 which such tax may be credited is paid, the tax so required to be 43 deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer, but the 44 employer shall not be relieved from liability for any penalties, inter-45 est or additions to the tax otherwise applicable in respect of such 46 failure to deduct and withhold.

47 § 11-1915 Combined returns, employer's returns and payments. The 48 state tax commission may require:

49 (1) The filing of any or all of the following:

50 (A) A combined return which in addition to the return provided for in 51 this chapter may also include returns required to be filed under a law 52 authorized by article thirty of the tax law and under article twenty-two 53 of the tax law.

54 (B) A combined employer's return which in addition to the employer's 55 return provided for by this chapter may also include employer's returns

1 required to be filed under a law authorized by article thirty of the tax 2 law and under article twenty-two of the tax law.

3 (2) Where a combined return or employer's return is required, and 4 with respect to the payment of estimated tax, the state tax commission 5 may also require payment of a single amount which shall be the total of 6 the amounts, total taxes less any credits or refunds, required to be 7 paid with the returns or employer's returns or in payment of estimated 8 tax pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, a law authorized by 9 article thirty of the tax law and pursuant to the provisions of article 10 twenty-two of the tax law.

11 SUBCHAPTER 2

12 RETURNS AND PAYMENT OF TAX

13 § 11-1916 Returns and payment of tax. (a) General. On or before the 14 fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable 15 year, every person subject to the tax shall make and file a return and 16 any balance of the tax shown due on the face of such return shall be 17 paid therewith. The commissioner may, by regulation, provide for the 18 filing of returns and payment of the tax at such other times as he or 19 she deems necessary for the proper enforcement of this chapter. The 20 commissioner may also provide by regulation that any return otherwise 21 required to be made and filed under this chapter by any nonresident 22 individual need not be made and filed if such nonresident individual 23 had, during the taxable year to which the return would relate, no net 24 earnings from self-employment within the city. Any regulation allowing 25 such waiver of return may provide for additional limitations on and 26 conditions and prerequisites to the privilege of not filing a return.

27 (b) Decedents. The return for any deceased individual shall be made
28 and filed by his or her executor, administrator, or other person charged
29 with his or her property. If a final return of a decedent is for a 30 fractional part of a year, the due date of such return shall be the 31 fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the twelve-32 month period which began with the first day of such fractional part of 33 the year.

34 (c) Individuals under a disability. The return for an individual who 35 is unable to make a return by reason of minority or other disability 36 shall be made and filed by his or her guardian, committee, fiduciary or 37 other person charged with the care of his or her person or property, 38 other than a receiver in possession of only a part of his or her proper-39 ty, or by his or her duly authorized agent.

40 (d) Estates and trust. The return for an estate or trust shall be made 41 and filed by the fiduciary.

42 (e) Joint fiduciaries. If two or more fiduciaries are acting jointly, 43 the return may be made by any one of them.

44 (f) Cross reference. For provisions as to information returns by part-45 nerships, employers and other persons, see section 11-1921 of this
46 subchapter.

47 § 11-1917 Time and place for filing returns and paying tax. A person 48 required to make and file a return under this chapter shall, without 49 assessment, notice or demand, pay any tax due thereon to the commis-50 sioner on or before the date fixed for filing such return, determined with-51 out regard to any extension of time for filing the return. The commis-52 sioner shall prescribe by regulation the place for filing any return, 53 statement, or other document required pursuant to this chapter and for 54 payment of any tax.

1 § 11-1918 Signing of returns and other documents. (a) General. Any 2 return, statement or other document required to be made pursuant to this
3 chapter shall be signed in accordance with regulations or instructions 4 prescribed by the commissioner. The fact that an individual's name is 5 signed to a return, statement, or other document, shall be prima facie
6 evidence for all purposes that the return, statement or other document
7 was actually signed by such individual.

8 (b) Partnerships. Any return, statement or other document required of 9 a partnership shall be signed by one or more partners. The fact that a 10 partner's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document, 11 shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that such partner is 12 authorized to sign on behalf of the partnership.

13 (c) Certifications. The making or filing of any return, statement or 14 other document or copy thereof required to be made or filed pursuant to 15 this chapter, including a copy of a federal return, shall constitute a 16 certification by the person making or filing such return, statement or 17 other document or copy thereof that the statements contained therein are 18 true and that any copy filed is a true copy.

19 § 11-1919 Change of residence status during year. (a) General. If an 20 individual changes his or her status during his or her taxable year from 21 resident to nonresident, or from nonresident to resident, he or she 22 shall file a return as a nonresident for the portion of the year during 23 which he or she is a nonresident if he or she is subject to the tax 24 imposed by this chapter or, if not subject to such tax, an information 25 return for the portion of the year during which he or she is a nonresi-26 dent, subject to such exceptions as the commissioner may prescribe by 27 regulation. Such information return shall be due at the same time as 28 the return required by chapter seventeen of this title for the portion 29 of the year during which such individual is a resident.

30 (b) City taxable wages and net earnings from self-employment for 31 portion of year individual is a nonresident. The city taxable wages and 32 net earnings from self-employment for the portion of the year during 33 which he or she is a nonresident shall be determined, except as provided 34 in subdivision (c) of this section, under this chapter as if his or her 35 taxable year for federal income tax purposes were limited to the period 36 of his or her nonresident status.

37 (c) Special accruals. (1) If an individual changes his or her status 38 from resident to nonresident, he or she shall, regardless of his or her 39 method of accounting, accrue for the portion of the taxable year prior 40 to such change of status any items of income, gain, loss or deduction 41 accruing prior to the change of status, if not otherwise properly inclu-
42 dible, whether or not because of an election to report on an installment 43 basis, or allowable for city earnings tax purposes for such portion of 44 the taxable year for a prior taxable year. The amounts of such accrued 45 items shall be determined as if such accrued items were includible or 46 allowable for federal self-employment tax purposes.

47 (2) If an individual changes his or her status from nonresident to 48 resident, he or she shall, regardless of his or her method of account-49 ing, accrue for the portion of the taxable year prior to such change of 50 status any items of income, gain, loss or deduction accruing prior to 51 the change of status, if not otherwise properly includible, whether or 52 not because of an election to report on an installment basis, or allow-53 able for federal self-employment tax purposes for such portion of the 54 taxable year or for prior taxable year. The amounts of such accrued 55 items shall be determined if such accrued items were includible or 56 allowable for federal self-employment tax purposes.

1 (3) No item of income, gain, loss or deduction which is accrued under 2 this subdivision shall be taken into account in determining city 3 adjusted wages earned, or net earnings from self-employment, within the 4 city, for any subsequent taxable period.

5 (4) Where an individual changes his or her status from resident to 6 nonresident, the accruals under this subdivision shall not be required 7 if the individual files with the commissioner a bond or other security 8 acceptable to the commissioner, conditioned upon the inclusion of 9 amounts accruable under this subdivision in city adjusted gross income 10 under chapter seventeen of this title for one or more subsequent taxable 11 years as if the individual has not changed his or her resident status.
12 In such event, the tax under this chapter shall not apply to such 13 amounts.

14 (d) Prorations. Where an individual changes his or her status during 15 his or her taxable year from resident to nonresident or from nonresident 16 to resident, the exclusion allowable under subdivision (b) of section 17 11-1902 of this chapter shall be prorated, under regulations of the 18 commissioner, to reflect the portions of the entire taxable year during 19 which the individual was a resident and a nonresident.

20 § 11-1920 Extension of time. (a) General. The commissioner may grant a 21 reasonable extension of time for payment of tax or estimated tax, or any 22 installment, or for filing any return, statement, or other document 23 required pursuant to this chapter, on such terms and conditions as he or 24 she may require. Except for a taxpayer who is outside the United States 25 or who intends to claim nonresident status pursuant to subparagraphs 26 (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph one of subdivision (h) of section 27 11-1901 of this chapter, no such extension for filing any return, state-28 ment or other document, shall exceed six months.

29 (b) Furnishing of security. If any extension of time is granted for 30 payment of any amount of tax, the commissioner may require the taxpayer 31 to furnish a bond or other security in an amount not exceeding twice the 32 amount for which the extension of time for payment is granted, on such 33 terms and conditions as the commissioner may require.

34 § 11-1921 Requirements concerning returns, notices, records and state-35 ments. (a) General. The commissioner may prescribe regulations as to the 36 keeping of records, the content and form of returns and statements, and 37 the filing of copies of federal income tax returns and determinations.
38 The commissioner may require any person, by regulation or notice served 39 upon such person, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep 40 such records, as the commissioner may deem sufficient to show whether or 41 not such person is liable under this chapter for tax or for collection 42 of tax.

43 (b) Partnerships. Every partnership doing business in the city and 44 having no partners who are residents shall make a return for the taxable 45 year setting forth all items of income, gain, loss and deduction and 46 such other pertinent information as the commissioner may by regulations 47 and instructions prescribe. Such return shall be filed on or before the 48 fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of each taxable 49 year. For purposes of this subdivision, "taxable year" means year or 50 period which would be a taxable year of the partnership if it were 51 subject to tax under this chapter.

52 (c) Information at source. The commissioner may prescribe regulations 53 and instructions requiring returns of information to be made and filed 54 on or before February twenty-eighth of each year as to the payment or 55 crediting in any calendar year of amounts of six hundred dollars or more 56 to any taxpayer under this chapter. Such returns may be required of any

1 person, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, 2 fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of this state, or 3 any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state, having 4 the control, receipt, custody, disposal or payment of interest, rents, 5 salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, 6 emoluments or other fixed or determinable gains, profits or income, 7 except interest coupons payable to bearer. A duplicate of the statement 8 as to tax withheld on wages, required to be furnished by an employer to 9 an employee, shall constitute the return of information required to be 10 made under this section with respect to such wages.

11 (d) Notice of qualification as receiver, etc. Every receiver, trustee 12 in bankruptcy, assignee for benefit of creditors, or other like fiduci-13 ary shall give notice of his or her qualifications as such to the 14 commissioner, as may be required by regulation.

15 § 11-1922 Report of change in federal or New York state taxable 16 income. If the amount of a taxpayer's federal or New York state taxable 17 income or self-employment income reported on his or her federal or New 18 York state tax return for any taxable year is changed or corrected by 19 the United States internal revenue service or the New York state commis-20 sioner of taxation and finance or other competent authority, or as the 21 result of a renegotiation of a contract or subcontract with the United 22 States or New York state or if a taxpayer, pursuant to subsection (d) of 23 section six thousand two hundred thirteen of the internal revenue code, 24 executes a notice of waiver of the restrictions provided in subsection 25 (a) of said section or if a taxpayer, pursuant to subdivision (f) of 26 section six hundred eighty-one of the tax law executes a notice of waiv-27 er of the restrictions provided in subdivision (c) of said section, or 28 if any tax on self-employment income in addition to that shown on his or 29 her return is assessed, the taxpayer shall report such change or 30 correction in federal or New York state taxable income or such execution 31 of such notice of waiver or such assessment and the changes or 32 corrections of his or her federal or New York state taxable income or 33 self-employment income on which it is based, within ninety days after 34 the final determination of such change, correction, or renegotiation, or 35 such execution of such notice of waiver or the making of such assessment 36 as otherwise required by the commissioner, and shall concede the accura-37 cy of such determination or state wherein it is erroneous. Any taxpayer 38 filing an amended federal or New York state income or self-employment 39 income tax return shall also file within ninety days thereafter an 40 amended return under this chapter, and shall give such information as 41 the commissioner may require. The commissioner may by regulation 42 prescribe such exceptions to the requirements of this section as he or 43 she deems appropriate. For purposes of this section, (i) the term 44 "taxpayer" shall include a partnership having any income derived from 45 city sources, and (ii) the term "federal income tax return" shall 46 include the returns of income required under section six thousand thir-47 ty-one of the internal revenue code. Reports made under this section by 48 a partnership shall indicate the portion of the change in each item of 49 income, gain, loss or deduction allocable to each partner and shall set 50 forth such identifying information with respect to such partner as may 51 be prescribed by the commissioner.

PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

1 § 11-1923 Notice of deficiency. (a) General. If upon examination of a 2 taxpayer's return under this chapter the commissioner determines that 3 there is a deficiency of tax, he or she may mail a notice of deficiency 4 to the taxpayer. If a taxpayer fails to file a return required under 5 this chapter, the commissioner is authorized to estimate the taxpayer's 6 wages and net earnings from self-employment or the wages from which 7 taxes are required to be deducted and withheld and the tax thereon, from 8 any information in the commissioner's possession, and to mail a notice 9 of deficiency to the taxpayer. A notice of deficiency shall be mailed 10 by certified or registered mail to the taxpayer at such taxpayer's last 11 known address in or out of the city. If the taxpayer is deceased or 12 under a legal disability, a notice of deficiency may be mailed to his or 13 her last known address in or out of the city, unless the commissioner 14 has received notice of the existence of a fiduciary relationship with 15 respect to the taxpayer.

16 (b) Notice of deficiency as assessment. The notice of deficiency shall 17 be an assessment of the amount of tax specified in such notice, together 18 with the interest, additions to tax and penalties stated in such notice.

19 (c) Restrictions on collection and levy. No notice and demand for 20 payment of an assessment of a deficiency in tax made by a notice of 21 deficiency and no levy or proceeding in court for its collection shall 22 be made, begun or prosecuted, except as otherwise provided in section 23 11-1937 of this subchapter, until the expiration of the time for filing 24 a petition contesting such notice, nor, if a petition with respect to 25 the taxable year has been filed with the commissioner, until the deci-26 sion of the commissioner has become final. After a petition has been 27 filed the restriction provided herein shall not apply to such part of 28 the deficiency as is not contested by the petition. For exception in 29 the case of judicial review of the decision of the commissioner, see 30 subdivision (c) of section 11-1932 of this subchapter.

31 (d) Exceptions for mathematical errors. If a mathematical error
32 appears on a return, including an overstatement of the credit for tax 33 withheld at the source or of the amount paid as estimated tax, the 34 commissioner shall notify the taxpayer that an amount of tax in excess 35 of that shown upon the return is due, and that such excess has been 36 assessed. Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency 37 for the purposes of this section, subdivision (f) of section 11-1929 of 38 this subchapter, limiting credits or refunds after petition to the 39 commissioner, or subdivision (b) of section 11-1931 of this subchapter, 40 authorizing the filing of a petition with the commissioner based on a 41 notice of deficiency, nor shall collection of such assessment be prohib-42 ited by the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section.

43 (e) Exception where change in federal or New York state taxable income 44 is not reported (1) If the taxpayer fails to comply with section 11-1922 45 of this chapter in not reporting a change or correction increasing his 46 or her federal or New York state taxable income or self-employment 47 income as reported on such taxpayer's federal or New York state tax 48 return or in not reporting a change or correction which is treated in 49 the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New York state 50 tax purposes or in not filing an amended return or in not reporting the 51 execution of a notice of waiver or an assessment described in such 52 section, instead of the mode and time of assessment and collection 53 provided for in subdivision (b) of this section, the commissioner may 54 assess a deficiency based upon such changed or corrected federal or New 55 York state taxable income or self-employment income by mailing to the 56 taxpayer a notice of additional tax due specifying the amount of the

1 deficiency, and such deficiency, together with the interest, additions 2 to tax and penalties stated in such notice, shall be deemed assessed and 3 subject to collection procedures on the date such notice is mailed 4 unless within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a report of 5 the federal or New York state change or correction or an amended return, 6 where such return was required by section 11-1922 of this chapter is 7 filed accompanied by a statement showing wherein such federal or New 8 York state determination of such notice of additional tax due are erro-9 neous.

10 (2) Such notice shall not be considered as a notice of deficiency for 11 the purposes of this section, subdivision (f) of section 11-1929 of this 12 subchapter, limiting credits or refunds after petition to the commis-13 sioner, or subdivision (b) of section 11-1931 of this subchapter,
14 authorizing the filing of a petition with the commissioner based on a 15 notice of deficiency, nor shall the collection of such assessment be 16 prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section.

17 If the taxpayer is deceased or under a legal disability, a notice of 18 additional tax due may be mailed to his or her last known address in or 19 out of the city, unless the commissioner has received notice of the 20 existence of a fiduciary relationship with respect to the taxpayer.

21 (f) Waiver of restrictions. The taxpayer shall at any time have the 22 right to waive the mailing of a notice of deficiency or restriction on 23 collection of the whole or any part of the deficiency, or both, by a 24 signed notice in writing filed with the commissioner.

25 (g) Deficiency defined. For purposes of this chapter, a deficiency 26 means the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter, less (1) the amount 27 shown as the tax upon the taxpayer's return, whether the return was made 28 or the tax computed by the taxpayer or by the commissioner, and less, 29 (2) the amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, as 30 a deficiency and plus (3) the amount of any rebates. For the purpose of 31 this definition, the tax imposed by this chapter and the tax shown on 32 the return shall both be determined without regard to payments on 33 account of estimated tax or the credit for withholding tax; and a rebate 34 means so much of an abatement, refund or other repayment, whether or not 35 erroneous, made on the ground that the amounts entering into the defi-36 nition of a deficiency showed a balance in favor of the taxpayer.

37 § 11-1924 Assessment. (a) Assessment date. The amount of tax which a 38 return shows to be due, or the amount of tax which a return would have 39 shown to be due but for a mathematical error, shall be deemed to be 40 assessed on the date of filing of the return, including any amended
41 return showing an increase of tax. In the case of a return properly 42 filed without computation of tax, the tax computed by the commissioner 43 shall be deemed to be assessed on the date on which payment is due. If 44 a notice of deficiency has been mailed, the amount of the deficiency 45 shall be deemed to be assessed on the date on which it is mailed. If an 46 amended return or report filed pursuant to section 11-1922 of this chap-
47 ter concedes the accuracy of a federal or New York state adjustment, 48 change or correction, any deficiency in tax under this chapter resulting 49 therefrom shall be deemed to be assessed on the date of filing such 50 report or amended return, and such assessment shall be timely notwith-51 standing section 11-1925 of this subchapter. If a notice of additional 52 tax due, as prescribed in subdivision (e) of section 11-1923 of this 53 subchapter, has been mailed, the amount of the deficiency shall be 54 deemed to be assessed on the date specified in such subdivision unless 55 within thirty days after the mailing of such notice a report of the 56 federal or New York state change or correction or an amended return,

1 where such return was required by section 11-1922 of this chapter, is
2 filed accompanied by a statement showing wherein such federal or New 3 York state determination and such notice of additional tax due are erro-4 neous. Any amount paid as a tax or in respect of a tax, other than 5 amounts withheld at the source or paid as estimated income tax, shall be 6 deemed to be assessed upon the date of receipt of payment, notwithstand-7 ing any other provisions.

8 (b) Other assessment powers. If the mode or time for the assessment 9 of any tax under this chapter, including interest, additions to tax and 10 assessable penalties, is not otherwise provided for, the commissioner 11 may establish the same by regulations.

12 (d) Supplemental assessment. The commissioner may, at any time within 13 the period prescribed for assessment, make a supplemental assessment, 14 subject to the provisions of section 11-1923 of this subchapter where 15 applicable, whenever it is ascertained that any assessment is imperfect 16 or incomplete in any material respect.

17 (e) Cross reference. For assessment in case of jeopardy, see section
18 11-1937 of this subchapter.

19 § 11-1925 Limitations on assessment. (a) General. Except as otherwise
20 provided in this section, any tax under this chapter shall be assessed 21 within three years after the return was filed, whether or not such 22 return was filed on or after the date prescribed.

23 (b) Exceptions. (1) Assessment at any time. The tax may be assessed at 24 any time if:

25 (A) no return is filed,

26 (B) a false or fraudulent return is filed with intent to evade tax, or

27 (C) the taxpayer fails to comply with section 11-1922 of this chapter 28 in not reporting a change or correction increasing his or her federal or 29 New York state taxable income or self-employment income as reported on 30 the taxpayer's federal or New York state tax return, or the execution of 31 a notice of waiver and the changes or corrections on which it is based 32 or in not reporting an assessment or a change or correction which is 33 treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New 34 York state income tax purposes, or in not filing an amended return.

35 (2) Extension by agreement. Where, before the expiration of the time
36 prescribed in this section for the assessment of tax, both the commis-
37 sioner and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment
38 after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expi-
39 ration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be 40 extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration 41 of the period previously agreed upon.

42 (3) Report of changed or corrected federal or New York state income.
43 If the taxpayer shall, pursuant to section 11-1922 of this chapter, 44 report a change or correction or file an amended return increasing the 45 taxpayer's federal or New York state taxable income or earnings from 46 self-employment or report an assessment or a change or correction which 47 is treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or 48 New York state income tax purposes, the assessment, if not deemed to 49 have been made upon the filing of the report or amended return, may be 50 made at any time within two years after such report or amended return 51 was filed. The amount of such assessment of tax shall not exceed the 52 amount of the increase in city tax on earnings attributable to such 53 federal or New York state change or correction. The provisions of this 54 paragraph shall not affect the time within which or the amount for which 55 an assessment may otherwise be made.

1 (4) Recovery of erroneous refund. An erroneous refund shall be consid-
2 ered an underpayment of tax on the date made, and an assessment of a
3 deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time
4 within two years from the making of the refund, except that the assess-
5 ment may be made within five years from the making of the refund if it
6 appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresen-
7 tation of a material fact.

8 (5) Request for prompt assessment. If a return is required for a dece-9 dent or for the decedent's estate during the period of administration, 10 the tax shall be assessed within eighteen months after written request 11 therefor, made after the return is filed, by the executor, administrator
12 or other person representing the estate of such decedent, but not more 13 than three years after the return was filed, except as otherwise 14 provided in this subdivision and subdivision (c) of this section.

15 (c) Omission of income on return. The tax may be assessed at any time 16 within six years after the return was filed if a taxpayer omits from a 17 return an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of twen-18 ty-five per centum of the amount of the gross income derived by the 19 taxpayer from any trade or business.

20 For purposes of this subdivision there shall not be taken into account 21 any amount which is omitted in the return if such amount is disclosed in 22 the return, or in a statement attached to the return, in a manner 23 adequate to apprise the commissioner of the nature and amount of such 24 item.

25 (d) Suspension of running of period of limitation. The running of the 26 period of limitations on or collection of tax or other amount, or of a 27 transferee's liability, shall, after the mailing of a notice of defi-28 ciency, be suspended for the period during which the commissioner is 29 prohibited under subdivision (c) of section 11-1923 of this subchapter 30 collecting by levy or proceeding in court.

31 § 11-1926 Interest on underpayment. (a) General. If any amount of tax 32 is not paid on or before the last date prescribed in this chapter for 33 payment, interest on such amount at the appropriate rates prescribed for 34 underpayments of tax under chapter seventeen of this title shall be paid 35 for the period from such last date to the date paid, whether or not any 36 extension of time for payment was granted. Interest under this subdivi-37 sion shall not be paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.
38 If the time for filing a return of tax withheld by an employer is 39 extended, the employer shall pay interest for the period for which the 40 extension is granted and may not charge such interest to the employee.

41 (c) Exception for mathematical error. No interest shall be imposed on 42 any underpayment of tax due solely to mathematical error if the taxpayer 43 files a return within the time prescribed in this chapter, including any 44 extension of time, and pays the amount of underpayment within three 45 months after the due date of such return, as it may be extended.

46 (d) No interest on interest. No interest under this chapter shall be 47 imposed on any interest provided by this chapter.

48 (e) Suspension of interest on deficiencies. If a waiver of 49 restrictions on collection of an assessment of a deficiency has been 50 filed by the taxpayer, and if notice and demand by the commissioner for 51 payment of such assessed deficiency is not made within thirty days after 52 the filing of such waiver, interest shall not be imposed on such defi-53 ciency for the period beginning immediately after such thirtieth day and 54 ending with the date of notice and demand.

55 (f) Interest treated as tax. Interest under this section shall be 56 paid upon notice and demand and shall be assessed, collected and paid in

1 the same manner as tax. Any reference in this chapter to the tax
2 imposed by this chapter shall be deemed also to refer to interest
3 imposed by this section on such tax.

4 (g) Interest on penalties or additions to tax. Interest shall be 5 imposed under subdivision (a) of this section in respect of any assess-6 able penalty or addition to tax only if such assessable penalty or addi-7 tion to tax is not paid within ten days from the date of the notice and 8 demand therefor under subdivision (b) of section 11-1934 of this 9 subchapter, and in such case interest shall be imposed only for the 10 period from such date of the notice and demand to the date of payment.

11 (h) Payment prior to notice of deficiency. If, prior to the mailing 12 to the taxpayer of a notice of deficiency under subdivision (b) of 13 section 11-1923 of this subchapter, the commissioner mails to the 14 taxpayer a notice of proposed increase of tax and within thirty days 15 after the date of the notice of proposed increase the taxpayer pays all 16 amounts shown on the notice to be due to the commissioner, no interest 17 under this section on the amount so paid shall be imposed for the period 18 after the date of such notice of proposed increase.

19 (i) Payment within ninety days after notice of deficiency. If a 20 notice of deficiency under section 11-1923 of this subchapter is mailed 21 to the taxpayer, and the total amount specified in such notice is paid 22 on or before the ninetieth day after the date of mailing, interest under 23 this section shall not be imposed for the period after the date of the 24 notice.

25 (j) Payment within ten days after notice and demand. If notice and 26 demand is made for payment of any amount under subdivision (b) of 27 section 11-1934 of this subchapter, and if such amount is paid within 28 ten days after the date of such notice and demand, interest under this 29 section on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after 30 the date of such notice and demand.

31 (k) Limitation on assessment and collection. Interest prescribed 32 under this section may be assessed and collected at any time during the 33 period within which the tax or other amount to which such interest 34 relates may be assessed and collected, respectively.

35 (l) Interest on erroneous refund. Any portion of tax or other amount 36 which has been erroneously refunded, and which is recoverable by the 37 commissioner, shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per 38 annum from the date of the payment of the refund, but only if it appears 39 that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or a misrepresentation 40 of a material fact.

41 (m) Satisfaction by credits. If any portion of a tax is satisfied by 42 credit of an overpayment, then no interest shall be imposed under this 43 section on the portion of the tax so satisfied for any period during 44 which, if the credit had not been made, interest would have been allow-45 able with respect to such overpayment.

46 § 11-1927 Additions to tax and civil penalties. (a) Failure to file
47 tax return. In case of failure to file a tax return under this chapter
48 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-49 sion of time for filing, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 50 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 51 the amount required to be shown as tax on such return five percent of 52 the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than one month, 53 with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction 54 thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five 55 percent in the aggregate. For this purpose, the amount of tax required 56 to be shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of 1 the tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of 2 the tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be 3 claimed upon the return.

4 (b) Deficiency due to negligence. If any part of a deficiency is due 5 to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or rules or regu-6 lations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there shall be added 7 to the tax an amount equal to five percent of the deficiency.

8 (c) Failure to file declaration or underpayment of estimated tax. If 9 any taxpayer fails to file a declaration of estimated tax or fails to 10 pay all or any part of an installment of estimated tax, the taxpayer 11 shall be deemed to have made an underpayment of estimated tax. There 12 shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount at the rate of 13 six per centum upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the 14 underpayment but not beyond the fifteenth day of the fourth month 15 following the close of the taxable year. The amount of underpayment 16 shall be the excess of the amount of the installment which would be 17 required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to seventy percent 18 of the tax attributable to net earnings from self employment shown on 19 the tax return for the taxable year, or if no return was filed, of the 20 tax so attributable for such year, over the amount, if any, of the 21 installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for such payment.
22 No underpayment shall be deemed to exist with respect to a declaration 23 or installment otherwise due on or after the taxpayer's death.

24 (d) Exception to addition for underpayment of estimated tax. The addi-25 tion to tax under subdivision (c) of this section with respect to any 26 underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount 27 of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date 28 prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds which-29 ever of the following is the lesser:

30 (1) The amount which would have been required to be paid on or before 31 such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the 32 lesser:

33 (A) The tax attributable to net earnings from self-employment shown on 34 the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year, if a return 35 showing a liability for tax was filed by the individual for the preced-36 ing taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of twelve 37 months, or

38 (B) An amount equal to seventy percent of the tax so attributable for 39 the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable 40 net earnings from self-employment for the months in the taxable year 41 ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.
42 For purposes of this subparagraph, the taxable net earnings from self-43 employment shall be placed on an annualized basis by:

44 (i) multiplying by twelve, or, in the case of a taxable year of less 45 than twelve months, the number of months in the taxable year, the taxa-46 ble net earnings from self-employment for the months in the taxable year 47 ending before the month in which the installment is required to be 48 paid,

49 (ii) dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the 50 taxable year ending before the month in which such installment date 51 falls, and

52 (iii) deducting from such amount the proper proportion of the exclu-53 sion allowable for the taxable year by subdivision (b) of section 54 11-1902 of this chapter; or

55 (2) An amount equal to ninety percent of the tax computed, at the 56 rates applicable to the taxable year, on the basis of the actual taxable

1 net earnings from self-employment for the months in the taxable year
2 ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.

3 (e) Deficiency due to fraud. If any part of a deficiency is due to 4 fraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to fifty percent 5 of the deficiency. This amount shall be in lieu of any other addition 6 to tax imposed by subdivision (a) or (b) of this section.

7 (f) Non-willful failure to pay withholding tax. If any employer, with-8 out intent to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter or the 9 payment thereof, shall fail to make a return and pay a tax withheld by 10 him or her at the time required by or under provisions of section 11 11-1912 of this chapter, such employer shall be liable for such tax and 12 shall pay the same together with interest thereon and the addition to 13 tax provided in subdivision (a) of this section, and such interest and 14 addition to tax shall not be charged to or collected from the employee 15 by the employer. The commissioner shall have the same rights and powers 16 for the collection of such tax, interest and addition to tax against 17 such employer as are now prescribed by this chapter for the collection 18 of tax against an individual taxpayer.

19 (g) Willful failure to collect and pay over tax. Any person required 20 to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over the tax imposed by this 21 chapter who willfully fails to collect such tax or truthfully account 22 for and pay over such tax or willfully attempts in any manner to evade 23 or defeat the tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other 24 penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty equal to the total 25 amount of the tax evaded, or not collected, or not accounted for and 26 paid over. No addition to tax under subdivision (b) or (e) of this 27 section shall be imposed for any offense to which this subdivision
28 applies.

29 (h) Failure to file certain information returns. In case of each fail-30 ure to file a statement of a payment to another person, required under 31 authority of subdivision (c) of section 11-1921 of this chapter, relat-32 ing to information at source, including the duplicate statement of tax 33 withheld on wages, on the date prescribed therefor, determined with 34 regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such 35 failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect, there shall, 36 upon notice and demand by the commissioner and in the same manner as 37 tax, be paid by the person so failing to file the statement, a penalty 38 of one dollar for each statement not so filed, but the total amount 39 imposed on the delinquent person for all such failures during any calen-40 dar year shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

41 (i) Additional penalty. Any person who with fraudulent intent shall 42 fail to pay, or to deduct or withhold and pay, any tax, or to make, 43 render, sign or certify any return or declaration of estimated tax, or 44 to supply any information within the time required by or under this 45 chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than one thousand 46 dollars, in addition to any other amounts required under this chapter, 47 to be imposed, assessed and collected by the commissioner. The commis-48 sioner shall have the power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce 49 or compromise any penalty under this subdivision.

50 (j) Additions treated as tax. The additions to tax and penalties 51 provided by this section shall be paid upon notice and demand and shall 52 be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as taxes, and any 53 reference in this chapter to tax or tax imposed by this chapter, shall 54 be deemed also to refer to the additions to tax and penalties provided 55 by this section. For purposes of section 11-1923 of this subchapter, 56 this subdivision shall not apply to:

1 (1) any addition to tax under subdivision (a) of this section except 2 as to that portion attributable to a deficiency;

3 (2) any addition to tax under subdivision (c) of this section; and 4 (3) any additional penalty under subdivision (i) of this section.

5 (k) Determination of deficiency. For purposes of subdivisions (b) and 6 (e) of this section, the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon 7 his or her return shall be taken into account in determining the amount 8 of the deficiency only if such return was filed on or before the last 9 day prescribed for the filing of such return, determined with regard to 10 any extension of time for such filing.

11 (l) Person defined. For purposes of subdivisions (g) and (i) of this 12 section, the term "person" includes an individual, corporation or part-13 nership or an officer or employee of any corporation, including a 14 dissolved corporation, or a member or employee of any partnership, who 15 as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act
16 in respect of which the violation occurs.

17 § 11-1928 Overpayment. (a) General. The commissioner, within the 18 applicable period of limitations, may credit an overpayment of tax and 19 interest on such overpayment against any liability in respect of any tax 20 imposed by this chapter or by another chapter or chapters of this title 21 on the person who made the overpayment, and the balance shall be 22 refunded. Any refund under this section shall be made only upon the 23 filing of a return.

24 (b) Excessive withholding. If the amount allowable as a credit for tax 25 withheld from the taxpayer exceeds his or her tax to which the credit 26 relates, the excess shall be considered an overpayment.

27 (c) Overpayment by employer. If there has been an overpayment of tax 28 required to be deducted and withheld under section 11-1908 of this chap-29 ter, refund shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the 30 amount of the overpayment was not deducted and withheld by the employer.

31 (d) Credits against estimated tax. The commissioner may prescribe 32 regulations providing for the crediting against the estimated tax for 33 any taxable year of the amount determined to be an overpayment of the 34 tax for a preceding taxable year. If any overpayment of tax is so 35 claimed as a credit against estimated tax for the succeeding taxable 36 year, such amount shall be considered as a payment of the tax for the 37 succeeding taxable year, whether or not claimed as a credit in the 38 declaration of estimated tax for such succeeding taxable year, and no 39 claim for credit or refund of such overpayment shall be allowed for the 40 taxable year for which the overpayment arises.

41 (e) Rule where no tax liability. If there is no tax liability for a 42 period in respect of which an amount is paid as tax, such amount shall 43 be considered an overpayment.

44 (f) Assessment and collection after limitation period. If any amount 45 of tax is assessed or collected after the expiration of the period of 46 limitations properly applicable thereto, such amount shall be considered 47 an overpayment.

48 (g) Notwithstanding any provision of law in article fifty-two of the 49 civil practice law and rules to the contrary, the procedures for the 50 enforcement of money judgments shall not apply to the department of 51 finance, or to any officer or employee of the department of finance, as 52 a garnishee, with respect to any amount of money to be refunded or cred-53 ited to a taxpayer under this chapter.

54 § 11-1929 Limitations on credit or refund. (a) General. Claim for 55 credit or refund of an overpayment of tax shall be filed by the taxpayer 56 within three years from the time the return was filed or two years from

1 the time the tax was paid, whichever of such periods expires the later, 2 or if no return was filed, within two years from the time the tax was 3 paid. If the claim is filed within the three year period, the amount of 4 the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid within 5 the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim plus the 6 period of any extension of time for filing the return. If the claim is 7 not filed within the three year period, but is filed within the two year 8 period, the amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion 9 of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceding the filing of 10 the claim. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if no claim is 11 filed, the amount of a credit or refund shall not exceed the amount 12 which would be allowable if a claim had been filed on the date the cred-13 it or refund is allowed.

14 (b) Extension of time by agreement. If an agreement under the 15 provisions of paragraph two of subdivision (b) of section 11-1925 of 16 this subchapter, extending the period for assessment of tax, is made 17 within the period prescribed in subdivision (a) of this section for the 18 filing of a claim for credit or refund, the period for filing a claim 19 for credit or refund, or for making credit or refund if no claim is 20 filed, shall not expire prior to six months after the expiration of the 21 period within which an assessment may be made pursuant to the agreement
22 or any extension thereof. The amount of such credit or refund shall not 23 exceed the portion of the tax paid after the execution of the agreement 24 and before the filing of the claim or the making of the credit or 25 refund, as the case may be, plus the portion of the tax paid within the 26 period which would be applicable under subdivision (a) of this section 27 if a claim had been filed on the date the agreement was executed.

28 (c) Notice of change or correction of federal or New York state 29 income. If a taxpayer is required by section 11-1922 of this chapter to 30 report a change or correction in federal or New York state taxable
31 income or self-employment income reported on his or her federal or New 32 York state tax return, or to report an assessment or a change or 33 correction which is treated in the same manner as if it were an overpay-34 ment for federal or New York state income tax purposes, or to file an 35 amended return with the commissioner, claim for credit or refund of any 36 resulting overpayment of tax shall be filed by the taxpayer within two 37 years from the time the notice of such change or correction or such 38 amended return was required to be filed with the commissioner. If the 39 report or amended return required by section 11-1922 of this chapter is 40 not filed within the ninety day period therein specified, interest on 41 any resulting refund or credit shall cease to accrue after such nineti-42 eth day. The amount of such credit or refund shall not exceed the 43 amount of the reduction in tax attributable to such federal or New York 44 state change, correction or items amended on the taxpayer's amended 45 federal or New York state income tax or self-employment tax return.
46 This subdivision shall not affect the time within which or the amount 47 for which a claim for credit or refund may be filed apart from this 48 subdivision.

49 (d) Failure to file claim within prescribed period. No credit or 50 refund shall be allowed or made, except as provided in subdivision (e) 51 of this section or subdivision (d) of section 11-1932 of this subchapter 52 after the expiration of the applicable period of limitation specified in 53 this chapter unless a claim for credit or refund is filed by the taxpay-54 er within such period. Any later credit shall be void and any later 55 refund erroneous. No period of limitations specified in any other law

1 shall apply to the recovery by a taxpayer of moneys paid in respect of 2 taxes under this chapter.

3 (e) Effect of petition to commissioner. If a notice of deficiency for 4 a taxable year has been mailed to the taxpayer under section 11-1923 of 5 this subchapter and if the taxpayer files a timely petition with the 6 commissioner under section 11-1931 of this subchapter, the commissioner 7 may determine that the taxpayer has made an overpayment for such year, 8 whether or not the commissioner also determines a deficiency for such 9 year. No separate claim for credit or refund for such year shall be 10 filed, and no credit or refund for such year shall be allowed or made, 11 except:

12 (1) as to overpayments determined by a decision of the commissioner 13 which has become final;

14 (2) as to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in 15 accordance with the decision of the commissioner which has become final;

16 (3) as to any amount collected after the period of limitation upon the 17 making of levy for collection has expired; and

18 (4) as to any amount claimed as a result of a change or correction
19 described in subdivision (c) of this section.

20 (f) Limit on amount of credit or refund. The amount of overpayment 21 determined under subdivision (e) of this section shall, when the deci-22 sion of the commissioner has become final, be credited or refunded in 23 accordance with subdivision (a) of section 11-1928 of this subchapter 24 and shall not exceed the amount of tax which the commissioner determines 25 as part of his or her decision was paid:

26 (1) after the mailing of the notice of deficiency, or

27 (2) within the period which would be applicable under subdivision (a),
28 (b) or (c) of this section, if on the date of the mailing of the notice 29 of deficiency a claim has been filed, whether or not filed, stating the 30 grounds upon which the commissioner finds that there is an overpayment.

31 (g) Early return. For purposes of this section, any return filed
32 before the last day prescribed for the filing thereof shall be consid-
33 ered as filed on such last day, determined without regard to any exten-
34 sion of time granted the taxpayer.

35 (h) Prepaid tax. For purposes of this section, any tax paid by the 36 taxpayer before the last day prescribed for its payment, any tax with-37 held from the taxpayer during any calendar year, and any amount paid by 38 the taxpayer as estimated tax for a taxable year shall be deemed to have 39 been paid by the taxpayer on the fifteenth day of the fourth month 40 following the close of his or her taxable year with respect to which 41 such amount constitutes a credit or payment.

42 (i) Return and payment of withholding tax. Notwithstanding subdivision 43 (g) of this section, for purposes of this section with respect to any 44 withholding tax:

45 (1) if a return for any period ending with or within a calendar year
46 is filed before April fifteenth of the succeeding calendar year, such 47 return shall be considered filed on April fifteenth of such succeeding 48 calendar year; and

49 (2) if a tax with respect to remuneration paid during any period
50 ending with or within a calendar year is paid before April fifteenth of 51 the succeeding calendar year, such tax shall be considered paid on April 52 fifteenth of such succeeding calendar year.

53 (j) Cross reference. For provision barring refund of overpayment cred-54 ited against tax of a succeeding year, see subdivision (d) of section
55 11-1928 of this subchapter.

1 § 11-1930 Interest on overpayment. (a) General. Notwithstanding the 2 provisions of section three-a of the general municipal law, interest
3 shall be allowed and paid as follows at the appropriate rates prescribed 4 for overpayments of tax under chapter seventeen of this title upon any 5 overpayment in respect of the tax imposed by this chapter:

6 (1) from the date of the overpayment to the due date of an amount 7 against which a credit is taken; or

8 (2) from the date of the overpayment to a date, to be determined by 9 the commissioner, preceding the date of a refund check by not more than 10 thirty days, whether or not such refund check is accepted by the taxpay-11 er after tender of such check to the taxpayer. The acceptance of such 12 check shall be without prejudice to any right of the taxpayer to claim 13 any additional overpayment and interest thereon.

14 No interest shall be allowed or paid if the amount thereof is less 15 than one dollar.

16 (b) Advance payment of tax, payment of estimated tax, and credit for 17 tax withholding. The provisions of subdivisions (g), (h) and (i) of 18 section 11-1929 of this subchapter applicable in determining the date of 19 payment of tax for purposes of determining the period of limitations on 20 credit or refund, shall be applicable in determining the date of payment 21 for purposes of this section.

22 (c) Refund within three months of due date of tax. If any overpayment 23 of tax imposed by this chapter is refunded within three months after the 24 last date prescribed, or permitted by extension of time, for filing the 25 return of such tax or within three months after the return was filed, 26 whichever is later, no interest shall be allowed under this section on 27 such overpayment.

28 (d) Cross-reference. For provision terminating interest after failure 29 to file notice of federal or New York state change under section 11-1922 30 of this chapter, see subdivision (c) of 11-1929 of this subchapter.

31 § 11-1931 Petition to commissioner. (a) General. The form of a peti-32 tion to the commissioner, and further proceedings before the commission-33 er in any case initiated by the filing of a petition, shall be governed 34 by such rules as the commissioner shall prescribe. No petition shall be 35 denied in whole or in part without opportunity for a hearing on reason-36 able prior notice. Such hearing shall be conducted by the commissioner, 37 or by a hearing officer designated by the commissioner to take evidence 38 and report to the commissioner. The commissioner shall decide the case 39 as quickly as practicable. Notice of the decision shall be mailed 40 promptly to the taxpayer by certified or registered mail at his or her 41 last known address and such notice shall set forth the commissioner's 42 findings of fact and a brief statement of the grounds of decision in 43 each case decided in whole or in part adversely to the taxpayer. Any 44 portion of an assessment of a deficiency disallowed by the commission-45 er's decision, shall be forthwith abated, or if paid, credited or 46 refunded to the taxpayer without the making of a claim therefor.

47 (b) Petition for redetermination of a deficiency. Within ninety days,
48 or one hundred fifty days if the notice is addressed to a person outside
49 of the United States, after the mailing of the notice of deficiency
50 authorized by section 11-1923 of this subchapter, the taxpayer may file 51 a petition with the commissioner for a redetermination of the deficien-52 cy. Such petition may also assert a claim for refund for the same taxa-53 ble year or years, subject to the limitations of subdivision (f) of 54 section 11-1929 of this subchapter.

55 (c) Petition for refund. A taxpayer may file a petition with the 56 commissioner for the amounts asserted in a claim for refund if:

- 1 (1) the taxpayer has filed a timely claim for refund with the commis-
2 sioner,
- 3 (2) the taxpayer has not previously filed with the commissioner a 4 timely petition under subdivision (b) of this section for the same
5 taxable year unless the petition under this subdivision relates to a 6 separate claim for credit or refund properly filed under subdivision (e) 7 of section 11-1929 of this subchapter, and
- 8 (3) either: (A) six months have expired since the claim was filed, or 9 (B) the commissioner has mailed to the taxpayer, by registered or certi-10 fied mail, a notice of disallowance of such claim in whole or in part.
11 No petition under this subdivision shall be filed more than two years 12 after the date of mailing of a notice of disallowance, unless prior to 13 the expiration of such a two-year period it has been extended by writ-14 ten agreement between the taxpayer and the commissioner. If a taxpayer 15 files a written waiver of the requirement that he or she be mailed a 16 notice of disallowance, the two year period prescribed by this subdivi-
17 sion for filing a petition for refund shall begin on the date such waiv-
18 er is filed.
- 19 (d) Assertion and assessment of deficiency after filing petition.
- 20 (1) Petition for redetermination of deficiency. If a taxpayer files 21 with the commissioner a petition for redetermination of a deficiency, 22 the commissioner shall have power to determine and assess a greater 23 deficiency than asserted in the notice of deficiency and to determine 24 and assess any addition to tax or penalty provided in section 11-1927 of 25 this subchapter, if claim therefor is asserted at or before the hearing 26 and within the period in which an assessment would be timely under 27 section 11-1925 of this subchapter under the rules of the commissioner.
- 28 (2) Petition for refund. If the taxpayer files with the commissioner a 29 petition for credit or refund for a taxable year, the commissioner may:
30 (A) determine and assess a deficiency for such year as to any amount 31 of deficiency claim, which shall be an assessment, for which is asserted 32 at or before the hearing under rules of the commissioner, and within the 33 period in which an assessment would be timely under section 11-1925 of 34 this subchapter, or 35 (B) deny so much of the amount for which credit or refund is sought in 36 the petition, as is offset by other issues pertaining to the same taxa-37 ble year which are asserted at or before the hearing under rules of the 38 commissioner.
- 39 (3) Opportunity to respond. A taxpayer shall be given a reasonable 40 opportunity to respond to any matters asserted by the commissioner under 41 this subdivision.
- 42 (4) Restriction on further notices of deficiency. If the taxpayer 43 files a petition with the commissioner under this section, no notice of 44 deficiency under section 11-1923 of this subchapter may thereafter be 45 issued by the commissioner for the same taxable year, except in case of 46 fraud or with respect to a change or correction in federal or New York 47 state taxable income or self-employment income required to be reported 48 under section 11-1922 of this chapter.
- 49 (e) Burden of proof. In any case before the commissioner under this 50 chapter, the burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner except for the 51 following issues, as to which the burden of proof shall be upon the 52 commissioner:
- 53 (1) whether the petitioner has been guilty of fraud with intent to 54 evade tax;
- 55 (2) whether the petitioner is liable as the transferee of property of 56 a taxpayer, except where the petitioner's liability arises by reason of 1 section 11-1936 of this subchapter, but not to show that the taxpayer 2 was liable for the tax; and

3 (3) whether the petitioner is liable for any increase in a deficiency
4 where such increase is asserted initially after a notice of deficiency
5 was mailed and a petition under this section filed, unless such increase 6 in deficiency is the result of a change or correction of federal or New 7 York state taxable income or self-employment income required to be 8 reported under section 11-1922 of this chapter, and of which change or 9 correction the commissioner had no notice at the time he or she mailed 10 the notice of deficiency.

11 (f) Evidence of related federal determination. Evidence of a federal 12 determination relating to issues raised in a case before the commission-13 er under this section shall be admissible, under rules established by 14 the commissioner.

15 (g) Jurisdiction over other years. The commissioner shall consider 16 such facts with relation to the taxes for other years as may be neces-
17 sary correctly to determine the tax for the taxable year, but in so 18 doing shall have no jurisdiction to determine whether or not the tax for 19 any other year has been overpaid or underpaid.

20 § 11-1932 Review of commissioner's decision. (a) General. A decision 21 of the commissioner shall be subject to judicial review for error, ille-22 gality or unconstitutionality at the instance of any taxpayer affected 23 thereby in the manner provided by law for the review of a final decision 24 or action of administrative agencies of the city. An application by a 25 taxpayer for such review must be made within four months after notice of 26 the decision is sent by certified or registered mail to the taxpayer.

27 (b) Judicial review exclusive remedy of taxpayer. The review of a 28 decision of the commissioner provided by this section shall be exclusive 29 remedy available to any taxpayer for the judicial determination of the 30 liability of the taxpayer for the taxes imposed by this chapter.

31 (c) Collection pending review; review bond. Irrespective of any 32 restrictions on the collection of assessments for deficiencies, the 33 commissioner may collect by levy or, otherwise any assessment of a defi-34 ciency after the expiration of the period specified in subdivision (a) 35 of this section, notwithstanding that an application for judicial review 36 in respect of such deficiency has been duly made by the taxpayer, unless 37 the taxpayer, at or before the time his or her application for review is 38 made, has paid the assessed deficiency, has deposited with the commis-39 sioner the amount of the assessed deficiency, or has filed with the 40 commissioner a bond, which may be a jeopardy bond under subdivision (h) 41 of section 11-1937 of this subchapter, in the amount of the portion of 42 the assessed deficiency, including interest and other amounts, in 43 respect of which the application for review is made with surety approved 44 by a justice of the supreme court of the state of New York, conditioned 45 upon the payment of the assessed deficiency, including interest and 46 other amounts, as finally determined. If as a result of a waiver of the 47 restrictions on the collection of a deficiency any part of the amount 48 determined by the commissioner is paid after the filing of the review 49 bond, such bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionate-50 ly reduced. A similar bond for all costs and charges which may accrue 51 against the taxpayer in the prosecution of such judicial review proceed-52 ing must be filed with the commissioner before any such proceeding is 53 instituted.

54 (d) Credit, refund or abatement after review. If the amount of a defi-55 ciency assessed and determined by the commissioner is disallowed in 56 whole or in part by the court of review, the amount so disallowed shall

1 be credited or refunded to the taxpayer, without the making of claim 2 therefor, or, if payment has not been made, shall be abated.

3 (e) Date of finality of commissioner's decision. A decision of the 4 commissioner shall become final upon the expiration of the period speci-5 fied in subdivision (a) of this section for making an application for 6 review, if no such application has been duly made within such time, or 7 if such application has been duly made, upon expiration of the time for 8 all further judicial review, or upon the rendering by the commissioner 9 of a decision in accordance with the mandate of the court on review.
10 Provided, however, for the purpose of making an application for review, 11 the decision of the commissioner shall be deemed final on the date the 12 notice of decision is sent by certified or registered mail to the 13 taxpayer.

14 § 11-1933 Mailing rules; holidays. (a) Timely mailing. If any claim, 15 statement, notice, petition, or other document, including to the extent 16 authorized by the commissioner, a return or declaration of estimated 17 tax, required to be filed within a prescribed period or on or before a 18 prescribed date under authority of any provision of this chapter is, 19 after such period or such date, delivered by the United States mail to 20 the commissioner, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 21 whom such document is required to be filed, the date of the United 22 States postmark stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date 23 of delivery. This subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date 24 falls within the prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date 25 for the filing of such document, determined with regard to any extension 26 granted for such filing, and only if such document was deposited in the 27 mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the commissioner, bureau, 28 office, officer or person with which or with whom the document is 29 required to be filed. If any document is sent by United States regis-30 tered mail, such registration shall be prima facie evidence that such 31 document was delivered to the commissioner, bureau, office, officer or 32 person to which or to whom addressed. To the extent that the commis-33 sioner shall prescribe by regulation, certified mail may be used in lieu 34 of registered mail under this section. This subdivision shall apply in 35 the case of postmarks not made by the United States post office only if 36 and to the extent provided by regulations of the commissioner.

37 (b) Last known address. For purposes of this chapter, a taxpayer's
38 last known address shall be the address given in the last return filed 39 by the taxpayer, unless subsequent to the filing of such return the 40 taxpayer shall have notified the commissioner of a change of address.

41 (c) Last day a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. When the last day
42 prescribed under authority of this chapter, including any extension of 43 time, for performing any act falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holi-
44 day in the state of New York, the performance of such act shall be 45 considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding day which is 46 not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday.

47 § 11-1934 Collection, levy and liens. (a) Collection procedures. The 48 taxes imposed by this chapter shall be collected by the commissioner, 49 and he or she may establish the mode or time for the collection of any 50 amount due the commissioner under this chapter if not otherwise speci-51 fied. The commissioner shall, upon request, give a receipt for any sum 52 collected under this chapter. The commissioner may authorize banks or 53 trust companies which are depositories or financial agents of the city 54 to receive and give a receipt for any tax imposed under this chapter in 55 such manner, at such times, and under such conditions as the commis-56 sioner may prescribe; and the commissioner shall prescribe the manner, times

1 and conditions under which the receipt of such tax by such banks and 2 trust companies is to be treated as payment of such tax to the commis-
3 sioner.

4 (b) Notice and demand for tax. The commissioner shall as soon as prac-5 ticable and, in the case of an assessment the collection of which is 6 restricted by the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 11-1923 of 7 this subchapter, as soon as practicable after the expiration of such 8 restrictions give notice to each person liable for any amount of tax, 9 addition to tax, penalty or interest, which has been assessed but 10 remains unpaid, stating the amount and demanding payment thereof. Such 11 notice shall be left at the dwelling or usual place of business of such 12 person or shall be sent by mail to such person's last known address.
13 Except where the commissioner determines that collection would be jeop-14 ardized by delay, if any tax is assessed prior to the last date, includ-15 ing any date fixed by extension, prescribed for payment of such tax, 16 payment of such tax shall not be demanded until after such date.

17 (c) Issuance of warrant after notice and demand. If any person liable
18 under this chapter for the payment of any tax, addition to tax, penalty 19 or interest neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten days after 20 notice and demand therefor is given to such person under subdivision (b) 21 of this section, the commissioner may within six years after the date of 22 the expiration of the period of restriction on the collection of such 23 assessment issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the 24 state, or to any officer or employee of the department of finance of the 25 city, commanding the sheriff or such officer or employee to levy upon 26 and sell such person's real and personal property for the payment of the 27 amount assessed, with the cost of executing the warrant, and to return 28 such warrant to the commissioner and pay to him or her the money 29 collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of the 30 warrant. If the commissioner finds that the collection of tax or other 31 amount is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of such 32 tax may be made by the commissioner and upon failure or refusal to pay 33 such tax or other amount the commissioner may issue a warrant without 34 regard to the ten-day period provided in this subdivision.

35 (d) Copy of warrant to be filed and lien to be created. Any sheriff or 36 officer or employee who receives a warrant under subdivision (c) of this 37 section shall within five days thereafter file a copy with the clerk of 38 the appropriate county. The clerk shall thereupon enter in the judgment 39 docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the taxpayer 40 mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns the tax or other 41 amounts for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is 42 filed; and such amount shall thereupon be a binding lien upon the real, 43 personal and other property of the taxpayer.

44 (e) Judgment. When a warrant has been filed with the county clerk the 45 commissioner shall, on behalf of the city, be deemed to have obtained 46 judgment against the taxpayer for the tax or other amounts.

47 (f) Execution. The sheriff or officer or employee shall thereupon 48 proceed upon the judgment in all respects, with like effect, and in the 49 same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against 50 property upon judgments of a court of record, and a sheriff shall be 51 entitled to the same fees for such sheriff's services in executing the 52 warrant, to be collected in the same manner. An officer or employee of 53 the department of finance of the city may proceed in any county or coun-54 ties of this state and shall have all the powers of execution conferred 55 by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in 1 excess of actual expenses paid in connection with the execution of the 2 warrant.

3 (g) Taxpayer not then a resident. Where a notice and demand under 4 subdivision (b) of this section shall have been given to a taxpayer who 5 is not then a resident of this state, and it appears to the commissioner 6 that it is not practicable to find in this state property of the taxpay-7 er sufficient to pay the entire balance of tax or other amount owing by 8 such taxpayer who is not then a resident of this state, the commissioner 9 may, in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, issue a warrant 10 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance of the 11 city a copy of which warrant shall be mailed by certified or registered 12 mail to the taxpayer at his or her last known address, subject to the 13 rules for mailing provided in subdivision (a) of section 11-1933 of this 14 subchapter. Such warrant shall command the officer or employee to 15 proceed in the city, and such officer or employee shall, within five 16 days after receipt of the warrant, file the warrant and obtain a judg-
17 ment in accordance with this section. Thereupon the commissioner may 18 authorize the institution of any action or proceeding to collect or 19 enforce the judgment in any place and by any procedure where and by 20 which a civil judgment of the supreme court of the state of New York 21 could be collected or enforced. The commissioner may also, in his or 22 her discretion, designate agents or retain counsel for the purpose of 23 collecting, outside the state of New York, any unpaid taxes, additions
24 to tax, penalties or interest which have been assessed under this chap-25 ter against taxpayers who are not then residents of this state, may fix 26 the compensation of such agents and counsel to be paid out of money 27 appropriated or otherwise lawfully available for payment thereof, and 28 may require of them bonds or other security for the faithful performance 29 of their duties, in such form and in such amount as the commissioner 30 shall deem proper and sufficient.

31 (h) Action by the city for recovery of taxes. Action may be brought by 32 the corporation counsel or other appropriate officer of the city at the 33 insistence of the commissioner to recover the amount of any unpaid 34 taxes, additions to tax, penalties or interest which have been assessed 35 under this chapter within six years prior to the date the action is 36 commenced. The period during which collection of any assessment is 37 prohibited by subdivision (c) of section 11-1923 of this subchapter, 38 shall be added to such six years.

39 (i) Release of lien. The commissioner, if he or she finds that the 40 interest of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such 41 conditions as may require, may release any property from the lien of any 42 warrant for unpaid taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest filed
43 pursuant to this section, and such release may be recorded in the office
44 of any recording officer in which such warrant has been filed.

45 § 11-1935 Transferees. (a) General. The liability, at law or in equi-46 ty, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer for any tax, additions to 47 tax, penalty or interest due to the city under this chapter, shall be 48 assessed, paid, and collected in the same manner and subject to the same 49 provisions and limitations as in the case of the tax to which liability 50 relates, except that the period of limitations for assessment against 51 the transferee shall be extended by one year for each successive trans-52 fer, in order, from the original taxpayer to the transferee involved, 53 but not by more than three years in the aggregate. The term "transfer-54 ee" includes donee, heir, legatee, devisee and distributee; and also 55 includes a person liable for the amount of any tax, additions to tax,

1 penalty or interest under the provisions of section 11-1936 of this
2 subchapter.

3 (b) Exceptions. (1) If before the expiration of the period of limita-4 tions for assessment of liability of the transferee, a claim has been 5 filed by the commissioner in any court against the original taxpayer or 6 the last preceding transferee based upon the liability of the original 7 taxpayer, then the period of limitation for assessment of liability of 8 the transferee shall in no event expire prior to one year after such 9 claim has been finally allowed, disallowed or otherwise disposed of.

10 (2) If, before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision
11 (a) of this section or paragraph one of this subdivision for the assess-12 ment of the liability, the commissioner and the transferee have both 13 consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the liability
14 may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed
15 upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agree-16 ments in writing made before the expiration of the period previously
17 agreed upon. For the purpose of determining the period of limitation on 18 credit or refund to the transferee of overpayments of tax made by such 19 transferee or overpayments of tax made by the transferor as to which the 20 transferee is legally entitled to credit or refund, such agreement and 21 any extension thereof shall be deemed an agreement and extension thereof 22 referred to in subdivision (b) of section 11-1929 of this subchapter.
23 If the agreement is executed after the expiration of the period of limi-24 tation for assessment against the original taxpayer, then in applying 25 the limitations under subdivision (b) of section 11-1929 of this 26 subchapter on the amount of the credit or refund, the periods specified 27 in subdivision (a) of section 11-1929 of this subchapter shall be 28 increased by the period from the date of such expiration to the date of 29 the agreement.

30 (c) Deceased transferor. If any person is deceased, the period of 31 limitation for assessment against such person shall be the period that 32 would be in effect if he or she had lived.

33 (d) Evidence. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-1942 of 34 this subchapter, the commissioner shall use his or her powers to make 35 available to the transferee evidence necessary to enable the transferee 36 to determine the liability of the original taxpayer and of any preceding 37 transferees, but without undue hardship to the original taxpayer or 38 preceding transferee. See subdivision (e) of section 11-1931 of this 39 subchapter for rule as to burden of proof.

40 § 11-1936 Liability of bulk transferees. Whenever there is made a 41 sale, transfer or assignment in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock 42 of merchandise or of fixtures, or merchandise and of fixtures pertaining 43 to the conducting of the business of the seller, transferor or assignor, 44 otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade and in the regular prose-45 cution of said business, the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at 46 least ten days before taking possession of such merchandise, fixtures, 47 or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify the commissioner 48 by registered mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and 49 conditions thereof, whether or not the seller, transferor or assignor, 50 has represented to, or informed the purchaser, transferee or assignee, 51 that it owes any tax pursuant to this chapter, whether or not the 52 purchaser, transferee or assignee has knowledge that such taxes are 53 owing, and whether or not any such taxes are in fact owing.

54 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give the 55 notice to the commissioner required by this section, or whenever the 56 commissioner shall inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a

1 possible claim for such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property 2 or choses in action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, trans-3 feree or assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor 4 or assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 5 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-
6 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 7 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor 8 any such sums of money, property or choses in action to the extent of 9 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 10 provisions of this subdivision the purchaser, transferee or assignee, in 11 addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed under 12 the provisions of article six of the uniform commercial code, shall be 13 personally liable for the payment to the city of any such taxes, there-14 tofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city from the seller, 15 transferor or assignor and such liability may be assessed and enforced 16 in the same manner as the liability for tax is imposed under this chap-
17 ter.

18 § 11-1937 Jeopardy determination or assessment. (a) Authority for 19 making. If the commissioner believes that the assessment or collection 20 of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he or she shall, notwith-21 standing the provisions of sections 11-1923 and 11-1939 of this subchap-22 ter, immediately assess or proceed to collect such deficiency, together 23 with all interest, penalties and additions to tax provided for by law, 24 and notice and demand shall be made by the commissioner for the payment 25 thereof.

26 (b) Notice of deficiency. If the jeopardy assessment is made before
27 any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment
28 relates has been mailed under section 11-1923 of this subchapter, then 29 the commissioner shall mail a notice under such section within sixty 30 days after making of the assessment.

31 (c) Amount assessable before decision of commissioner. The jeopardy 32 assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than 33 that of which notice is mailed to the taxpayer and whether or not the 34 taxpayer has therefor filed a petition with the commissioner. The 35 commissioner may, at any time before rendering his or her decision, 36 abate such assessment or any unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that 37 he or she believes the assessment to be excessive in amount. The 38 commissioner may in his or her decision redetermine the entire amount of 39 the deficiency and of all amounts assessed at the same time in 40 connection therewith.

41 (d) Amount assessable after decision of commissioner. If the jeopardy 42 assessment of determination of jeopardy is made after the decision of 43 the commissioner is rendered, such assessment or determination may be 44 made only in respect of the deficiency determined by the commissioner in 45 his or her decision.

46 (e) Expiration of right to assess. A jeopardy determination may not be 47 made after the decision of the commissioner has become final or after 48 the taxpayer has made an application for review of the decision of the 49 commissioner.

50 (f) Collection of unpaid amounts. When a petition has been filed with 51 the commissioner and when the amount which should have been assessed has 52 been determined by a decision of the commissioner which has become 53 final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed 54 by bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand 55 from the commissioner, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall 56 be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount deter-

1 mined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall 2 be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 11-1928
3 of this subchapter without the filing of claim therefor. If the amount 4 determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than 5 the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and 6 shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the 7 commissioner.

8 (g) Abatement if jeopardy does not exist. The commissioner may abate 9 the jeopardy determination if he or she finds that jeopardy does not 10 exist. Such abatement may not be made after a decision of the commis-11 sioner in respect of the deficiency has been rendered or, if no petition 12 is filed with the commissioner, after the expiration of the period for 13 filing such petition. The period of limitation on the making of a levy 14 or a proceeding for collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall be 15 determined as if the jeopardy assessment so abated has not been made, 16 except that the running of such period shall in any event be suspended 17 for the period from the date of such jeopardy determination until the 18 expiration of the tenth day after the day on which such jeopardy deter-19 mination is abated.

20 (h) Bond to stay collection. The collection of the whole or any amount 21 of any assessment determined to be in jeopardy may be stayed by filing 22 with the commissioner, within such time as may be fixed by regulation, a 23 bond in an amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired 24 conditioned upon the payment of the amount, together with interest ther-25 eon, the collection of which is stayed at the time at which, but for the 26 making of the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due. Upon the 27 filing of the bond, the collection of so much of the amount assessed as 28 is covered by the bond shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the 29 right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part 30 of the amount covered by the bond and, if as a result of such waiver any 31 part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall, at 32 the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion 33 of the jeopardy assessment is abated, or if a notice of deficiency under 34 section 11-1923 of this subchapter is mailed to the taxpayer in a lesser 35 amount, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportion-36 ately reduced.

37 (i) Petition to commissioner. If the bond is given before the taxpayer 38 has filed his or her petition under section 11-1931 of this subchapter, 39 the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not 40 filed within the period provided in such section, then the amount, the 41 collection of which is stayed by the bond, will be paid on notice and 42 demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with 43 interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the 44 date of notice and demand under this subdivision. The bond shall be 45 conditioned upon the payment of so much of such assessment, collection 46 of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the 47 commissioner which has become final. If the commissioner determines 48 that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which should have 49 been assessed, then the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be 50 proportionately reduced when the decision of the commissioner is 51 rendered.

52 (j) Stay of sale of seized property pending commissioner's decision.
53 Where a jeopardy assessment or a determination of jeopardy is made, the 54 property seized for the collection of the tax shall not be sold:

55 (1) if subdivision (b) of this section is applicable, prior to the 56 issuance of the notice of deficiency and the expiration of the time

1 provided in section 11-1931 of this subchapter for filing a petition
2 with the commissioner, and

3 (2) if a petition is filed with the commissioner, whether before or 4 after the making of such jeopardy assessment or determination, prior to 5 the expiration of the period during which the collection of the defi-6 ciency assessed would be prohibited if subdivision (a) of this section 7 were not applicable.

8 Such property may be sold if the taxpayer consents to the sale, or if 9 the commissioner determines that the expenses of conservation and main-10 tenance will greatly reduce the net proceeds, or if the property is 11 perishable.

12 (k) Interest. For the purpose of subdivision (a) of section 11-1926 of 13 this subchapter, the last date prescribed for payment shall be deter-14 mined without regard to any notice and demand for payment issued under 15 this section prior to the last date otherwise prescribed for such 16 payment.

17 (l) Early termination of taxable year. If the commissioner finds that 18 a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from this state or to remove his or 19 her property therefrom, or to conceal himself or herself or his or her 20 property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to 21 render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the tax for 22 the current or the preceding taxable year unless such proceedings be 23 brought without delay, the commissioner shall declare the taxable period 24 for such taxpayer immediately terminated, and shall cause notice of such 25 finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand 26 for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared 27 terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of 28 such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law 29 for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall 30 thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding brought 31 to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the 32 provisions of this subdivision, the finding of the commissioner made as 33 herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall 34 be for all purposes presumptive evidence of jeopardy.

35 (m) Reopening of taxable period. Notwithstanding the termination of 36 the taxable period of the taxpayer with the commissioner as provided in 37 subdivision (1) of this section, the commissioner may reopen such taxa-38 ble period each time the taxpayer is found by the commissioner to have 39 received wages or net earnings from self-employment, within the current 40 taxable year, since the termination of such period. A taxable period so 41 terminated by the commissioner may be reopened by the taxpayer if he or 42 she files with the commissioner a true and accurate return of taxable 43 wages and net earnings from self-employment under this chapter for such 44 taxable period, together with such other information as the commissioner 45 may by regulation prescribe.

46 (n) Furnishing of bond where taxable year is closed by the commis-47 sioner. Payment of taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings under 48 the provisions of subdivision (1) of this section prior to the expira-49 tion of the time otherwise allowed for paying such taxes if the taxpayer 50 furnishes, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, a bond to 51 insure the timely making of returns with respect to, and payment of, 52 such taxes or any taxes for prior years.

53 § 11-1938 Criminal penalties. (a) Attempt to evade tax. Any individ-54 ual, corporation or partnership or any officer or employee of any corpo-55 ration, or member or employee of any partnership, who, with intent to 56 evade any tax or any requirement of this chapter or any lawful require-

1 ment of the commissioner thereunder, shall fail to pay the tax, or to 2 make, render, sign or certify any return or declaration of estimated 3 tax, or to supply any information within the time required by or under 4 the provisions of this chapter, or who, with like intent, shall make, 5 render, sign or certify any false or fraudulent return, declaration or 6 statement, or shall supply any false or fraudulent information, or who 7 shall fail to comply with the provisions of subdivision (b) of section 8 11-1912 of this chapter after the service of a notice by the commission-9 er thereunder, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon 10 conviction, be fined not to exceed five thousand dollars or be impri-11 soned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

12 (b) Limitations. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 30.10 of 13 the criminal procedure law or of any other law of this state, a prose-14 cution for any offense under this section may be commenced at any time 15 not later than three years after the commission of such offense provided 16 that, if such offense is the failure to do an act required by or under 17 any provision of this chapter to be done before a certain date, a prose-18 cution for such offense may be commenced not later than three years 19 after such date.

20 (c) Willful failure to withhold. Any individual, corporation or part-21 nership or any officer or employee of any corporation, including a 22 dissolved corporation, or member or employee of any partnership, who 23 willfully fails to collect or pay over any withholding tax as required, 24 shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a 25 misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not to exceed 26 five thousand dollars or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both.

27 (d) Two or more charges. In the prosecution of offenses under this 28 section, if there are two or more charges against any person or corpo-29 ration, involving a violation or violations of any provision or 30 provisions of this chapter, whether for the same or different taxable 31 years, instead of returning several indictments or filing several infor-32 mations, all of such charges may be joined in one indictment or informa-33 tion, in separate counts, and if two or more indictments are found, or 34 two or more informations are filed, the court may order them to be 35 consolidated. If a person or corporation shall be convicted of two or 36 more offenses constituting different crimes set forth in different 37 counts of one indictment or information, or in separate indictments or 38 informations consolidated as hereinbefore provided, the court may impose 39 a separate sentence for each offense, and if imprisonment is imposed, 40 the court may order any of such sentences to be served concurrently or 41 consecutively.

42 (e) Miscellaneous rules. Any prosecution under this section may be 43 conducted in any county where the person or corporation to whose tax 44 liability the proceeding relates resides, or has a place of business, or 45 in any county in which any such crime is committed. The corporation 46 counsel of the city shall have concurrent jurisdiction with any district 47 attorney in the prosecution of any offense under this section. If the 48 provisions of this section conflict with those contained in any other 49 law, this section shall control. The certificate of the commissioner to 50 the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return or declaration of 51 estimated tax has not been filed, or that information has not been 52 supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this chapter, shall 53 be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such 54 return or declaration has not been filed, or that such information has 55 not been supplied. All fines levied under this section shall be paid to

1 the commissioner and deposited in the same manner as revenues collected 2 or received under this chapter.

3 § 11-1939 Armed forces relief provisions. (a) Time to be disregarded.
4 In the case of an individual serving in the armed forces of the United 5 States or serving in support of such armed forces, in an area designated 6 by the president of the United States by executive order as a "combat 7 zone" at any time during the period designated by the president by exec-8 utive order as the period of combatant activities in such zone, or 9 hospitalized outside the state as a result of injury received while 10 serving in such an area during such time, the period of service in such 11 area, plus the period of continuous hospitalization outside the state 12 attributable to such injury, and the next one hundred eighty days there-13 after, shall be disregarded in determining, under this chapter in 14 respect of the tax liability, including any interest, penalty, or addi-15 tion to the tax, of such individual:

16 (1) Whether any of the following acts was performed within the time
17 prescribed therefor:

18 (A) filing any return of tax, except withholding tax;

19 (B) payment of any tax, except withholding tax, or any installment 20 thereof or of any other liability to the commissioner, in respect there-21 of;

22 (C) filing a petition with the commissioner for credit or refund or 23 for redetermination of a deficiency, or application for review of a 24 decision rendered by the commissioner;

25 (D) allowance of a credit or refund of tax;

26 (E) filing a claim for credit or refund of tax;

27 (F) giving or making any notice or demand for the payment of any tax, 28 or with respect to any liability to the commissioner in respect of tax;

29 (G) collection, by the commissioner, by levy or otherwise of the 30 amount of any liability in respect of tax;

31 (H) bringing suit by the city, or any officer, on its behalf, in 32 respect of any liability in respect of tax; and 33 (I) any other act required or permitted under this chapter or speci-34 fied in the regulations prescribed under this section by the commission-35 er.

36 (2) The amount of any credit or refund, including interest.

37 (b) Action taken before ascertainment of right to benefits. The 38 collection of the tax imposed by this chapter or of any liability to the 39 commissioner in respect of such tax, or any action or proceeding by or 40 on behalf of the commissioner in connection therewith, may be made, 41 taken, begun, or prosecuted in accordance with law, without regard to 42 the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, unless prior to such 43 collection, action, or proceeding it is ascertained that the person
44 concerned is entitled to the benefit of subdivision (a) of this section.

45 (c) Members of armed forces dying in action. In the case of any person 46 who dies while in active service as a member of the armed forces of the 47 United States, if such death occurred while serving in a combat zone 48 during a period of combatant activities in such zone, as described in 49 subdivision (a) of this section, or as a result of wounds, disease or 50 injury incurred while so serving, the tax imposed by this chapter shall 51 not apply with respect to the taxable year in which falls the date of 52 his or her death, or with respect to any prior taxable year ending on or 53 after the first day so served in a combat zone, and no returns shall be 54 required in behalf of such person or his or her estate for such year;
55 and the tax for any such taxable year which is unpaid at the date of 56 death, including interest, additions to tax and penalties, if any, shall

1 not be assessed and, if assessed, the assessment shall be abated and, if 2 collected, shall be refunded to the legal representative of such estate
3 if one has been appointed and has qualified, or, if no legal represen-
4 tative has been appointed or has qualified, to the surviving spouse.

5 § 11-1940 General powers of commissioner. (a) General. The commission-6 er shall administer and enforce the tax imposed by this chapter and the 7 commissioner is authorized to make such rules and regulations, and to 8 require such facts and information to be reported, as the commissioner 9 may deem necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter and the 10 commissioner may delegate his or her powers and functions under all 11 subchapters of this chapter to one of his or her deputies or to any 12 employee or employees of his or her department.

13 (b) Examination of books and witnesses. The commissioner for the 14 purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for the 15 purpose of making an estimate of taxable wages and net earnings from 16 self-employment of any person, shall have power to examine or to cause 17 to have examined, by any agent or representative designated by him or 18 her for that purpose, any books, papers, records or memoranda bearing 19 upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require 20 the attendance of the person rendering the return or any officer or 21 employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having 22 knowledge in the premises, may take testimony and require proof material 23 for the commissioner's information, with power to administer oaths to 24 such person or persons and may issue commissions for the examination of 25 witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before the 26 commissioner or excused from attendance, and for the production of 27 books, papers, records or memoranda.

28 (c) Abatement authority. The commissioner, of his or her own motion, 29 may abate any small unpaid balance of an assessment of tax, or any 30 liability in respect thereof, if the commissioner determines under 31 uniform rules prescribed by him or her that the administration and 32 collection costs involved would not warrant collection of the amount 33 due. The commissioner may also abate, of his or her own motion, the 34 unpaid portion of the assessment of any tax or any liability in respect 35 thereof, which is excessive in amount, or is assessed after the expira-36 tion of the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, or is 37 erroneously or illegally assessed. No claim for abatement under this 38 subdivision shall be filed by a taxpayer.

39 (d) Special refund authority. Where no questions of fact or law are 40 involved and it appears from the records of the commissioner that any 41 moneys have been erroneously or illegally collected from any taxpayer or 42 other person, or paid by such taxpayer or other person under a mistake 43 of facts, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner 44 at any time, without regard to any period of limitations, shall have the 45 power, upon making a record of his or her reasons therefor in writing, 46 to cause such moneys so paid and being erroneously and illegally held to 47 be refunded.

48 (e) Cooperation with the United States and other states. Notwith-49 standing the provisions of section 11-1942 of this subchapter, the 50 commissioner may permit the secretary of the treasury of the United 51 States or such secretary's delegates, or the proper tax officer of any 52 other state imposing an income tax upon the income of individuals, or 53 the authorized representative of either such officer, to inspect any 54 return filed under this chapter, or may furnish to such officer or his 55 or her authorized representative an abstract of any such return or 56 supply him or her with information concerning an item contained in any

1 such return, or disclosed by any investigation of tax liability under 2 this chapter, but such permission shall be granted or such information 3 furnished to such officer or his or her representative only if the laws
4 of the United States or of such state, as the case may be, grant 5 substantially similar privileges to the commissioner and such informa-6 tion is to be used for tax purposes only; and provided further the 7 commissioner may furnish to the commissioner of internal revenue or his 8 or her authorized representative such returns filed under this chapter 9 and other tax information as he or she may consider proper for the use 10 in court actions or proceedings under the internal revenue code, whether 11 civil or criminal, where a written request therefor has been made to the 12 commissioner by the secretary of the treasury of the United States or by 13 his or her delegates, provided the laws of the United States grant 14 substantially similar powers to the secretary of the treasury of the 15 United States or such secretary's delegates. Where the commissioner has 16 so authorized use of returns and other information in such actions or 17 proceedings, officers and employees of the department of taxation and 18 finance may testify in such actions or proceedings in respect to such 19 returns or other information.

20 § 11-1941 Joint enforcement. (1) If there is assessed a tax under this 21 chapter and there is also assessed a tax or taxes against the same 22 taxpayer pursuant to article twenty-two of the tax law and if the 23 commissioner of the tax imposed by this chapter takes action under the 24 tax law with respect to the enforcement and collection of the tax or 25 taxes assessed under such tax law, the commissioner shall, wherever 26 possible, accompany such action with a similar action under similar 27 enforcement and collection provisions of this chapter.

28 (2) Any monies collected as a result of such joint action shall be 29 deemed to have been collected in proportion in the amounts due, includ-30 ing tax, penalties, interest and additions to tax under article twenty-31 two of the tax law and under this chapter.

32 (3) Whenever the commissioner takes any action with respect to a defi-33 ciency of personal income tax, under article twenty-two of the tax law 34 other than the action set forth in subdivision one of this section the 35 commissioner may, in his or her discretion, accompany such action with a 36 similar action under this chapter.

37 § 11-1942 Secrecy requirement and penalties for violation. 1. Except 38 in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by 39 law, it shall be unlawful for the commissioner or any other officer or 40 employee of the department of finance of the city, any person engaged or 41 retained by such commissioner or department on an independent contract
42 basis, any depository to which any return may be delivered as provided 43 in subdivision two of this section, any officer or employee of such 44 depository, or any person who, pursuant to this section, is permitted to 45 inspect any report or return or to whom a copy, an abstract or a portion 46 of any report or return is furnished, or to whom any information
47 contained in any report or return is furnished, to divulge or make known 48 in any manner the amount of wages or earnings or any particulars set 49 forth or disclosed in any report or return required under this chapter.
50 The commissioner or any other officer and employee charged with the 51 custody of such reports and returns shall not be required to produce any 52 of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any action or 53 proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the city in an action or 54 proceeding under the provisions of this chapter or in any other action 55 or proceeding involving the collection of a tax due under this chapter 56 to which the city is a party or a claimant, or on behalf of any party to

1 any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the 2 reports, returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such 3 action or proceeding, in any of which events the court may require the 4 production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said reports, 5 returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action or 6 proceeding and no more; except as provided in subdivision (e) of section 7 11-1940 of this subchapter. The commissioner may, nevertheless, publish 8 a copy or a summary of any determination or decision rendered after the 9 hearing required under section 11-1931 of this subchapter of this chap-
10 ter. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the deliv-11 ery to a taxpayer or the taxpayer's duly authorized representative of a 12 certified copy of any return or report filed in connection with his or 13 her tax or to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to 14 prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the 15 items thereof, or the inspection by the legal representatives of the 16 city of the report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to 17 set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or 18 proceeding under this chapter has been recommended by the commissioner.
19 Reports and returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter 20 until the commissioner orders them to be destroyed. Any violation of 21 the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding 22 one thousand dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, 23 at the discretion of the court, and if the offender be the commissioner 24 or any other officer or employee of the city, he or she shall be 25 dismissed from office and be incapable of holding any public office in 26 the city or the state for a period of five years thereafter.

27 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 28 the commissioner of finance, in his or her discretion, may require or 29 permit any or all individuals, estates or trusts, liable for any tax 30 imposed by this chapter, to make payments on account of estimated tax 31 and payment of any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this chapter to 32 banks, banking houses or trust companies designated by the commissioner 33 of finance and to file declarations of estimated tax and reports and 34 returns with such banks, banking houses or trust companies as agents of 35 the commissioner of finance, in lieu of making any such payment directly 36 to the commissioner of finance. However, the commissioner of finance 37 shall designate only such banks, banking houses or trust companies as 38 are depositories or financial agents of Staten Island.

39 § 11-1943 Provisions not applicable. The provisions contained in this 40 subchapter shall not be applicable with respect to taxes imposed for 41 taxable periods commencing on or after January first, nineteen hundred 42 seventy-six but, with respect to the tax imposed for such periods the 43 provisions contained in part VI of article twenty-two of the tax law and 44 sections six hundred fifty-three, six hundred fifty-eight, six hundred 45 sixty-two and thirteen hundred eleven of the tax law including the 46 provisions of judicial review by a proceeding under article seventy-47 eight of the civil practice law and rules shall be applicable with the 48 same force and effect as if those provisions had been incorporated in 49 full in this section except where inconsistent with the provisions of 50 this chapter.

51 § 11-1944 Deposit and disposition of revenues by commissioner. All 52 taxes, penalties and interest imposed under this chapter which are paid 53 to or collected by the commissioner of finance shall be deposited by the 54 commissioner of finance in the general fund of the city.

55 § 11-1945 Effect of invalidity in part; inconsistencies with other 56 laws. (a) If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section,

1 provision or other portion of this chapter or the application thereof to 2 any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid, such holding 3 shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this chapter or 4 the application of such portion held invalid, to any other person or 5 circumstances, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, 6 sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, provision or other portion 7 thereof directly involved in such holding or to the person and circum-8 stances therein involved.

9 (b) If any provision of this chapter is inconsistent with, in conflict 10 with, or contrary to any other provision of law, such provision of this 11 chapter shall prevail over such other provision and such other provision 12 shall be deemed to have been amended, superseded or repealed to the 13 extent of such inconsistency, conflict or contrariety.

52 production of gas, electricity, refrigeration or steam; and (7) omits 53 the provision for refund or credit contained in clause six of subdivi-

5 in articles twenty-eight and twenty-nine of the tax law.

6 (e) The provisions of articles twenty-eight and twenty-nine of the tax 7 law relating or applicable to the taxes imposed by this section, includ-8 ing the applicable definitions, transitional provisions, limitations, 9 special provisions, exemptions, exclusions, refunds, credits and admin-

16 either inconsistent with or not relevant to the taxes imposed by this 17 section.

18 (f) Net collections from the taxes imposed by this section paid to 19 this city by the state comptroller shall be credited to and deposited in

26 provision thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such 27 judgment shall have been rendered and the application of such provision 28 to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

29 § 11-2002 Imposition of special sales taxes. (a) There are hereby 30 imposed and there shall be paid sales taxes at the rate of four and

55 to the taxes imposed by this section, shall apply to the taxes imposed 56 by this section with the same force and effect as if those provisions

 14 provision thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such 15 judgment shall have been rendered and the application of such provision 16 to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

23 ble to any period on or after September first, nineteen hundred seven-24 ty-five, and such charge shall be apportioned on the basis of the ratio 25 of the number of days falling within such period to the total number of 26 days in the full term or period.

27 § 11-2042 Exempt organizations. Except as otherwise provided in this 28 section, any sale by or to any of the following shall not be subject to 29 the taxes imposed by this subchapter:

30 (1) The state of New York, or any of its agencies, instrumentalities, 31 public corporations, including a public corporation created pursuant to 32 agreement or compact with another state or Canada, or political subdivi-

34 vendor of services or property of a kind not ordinarily sold by private 35 persons;

36 (2) The United States of America, and any of its agencies and instru-37 mentalities, insofar as it is immune from taxation where it is the 38 purchaser, user or consumer, or where it sells services or property of a 39 kind not ordinarily sold by private persons;

40 (3) The United Nations or any international organization of which the 41 United States of America is a member where it is the purchaser, user or 48 part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private 49 shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of 50 which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence

2 veterans and substantially all of the other members of which are indi-

4 spouses, widows or widowers of war veterans or such individuals, and

5 (C) no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any 6 private shareholder or individual.

7 § 11-2043 Refunds or credits based on proof of certain uses. A refund 8 or credit equal to the amount of the sales or compensating use tax 9 imposed by section eleven hundred seven of the tax law or by section 10 11-2001 of this chapter, as the case may be, and paid on the sale or use 11 of tangible personal property which is later used by such purchaser in 12 performing a service subject to tax under this subchapter shall be 13 allowed such purchaser against the tax imposed by this subchapter and 14 collected by such person on the sale of such services if such property 15 has become a physical component part of the property upon which the 16 service is performed or has been transferred to the purchaser of the 17 service in conjunction with the performance of the service subject to 18 tax; provided, however, that any such refund or credit shall be without 19 interest.

20 § 11-2044 Administration and collection. The taxes imposed by section 21 11-2040 of this subchapter shall be administered and collected by the 22 tax commission in the same manner as the taxes imposed by article twen-23 ty-eight of the tax law are administered and collected by such commis-24 sion. All of the provisions of such article relating to or applicable 25 to the administration and collection of the taxes imposed by that arti-26 cle shall apply to the taxes imposed by this subchapter, including 27 sections eleven hundred one, eleven hundred eleven, and sections eleven 28 hundred thirty-one through eleven hundred forty-seven inclusive, with 29 the same force and effect as if those provisions had been incorporated 30 in full into this subchapter and had expressly referred to the taxes 31 imposed by this subchapter, except as otherwise provided in section 32 twelve hundred fifty of the tax law. For purposes of this subchapter, 33 the term "tax" in part IV of such article twenty-eight of the tax law 34 shall include the taxes imposed by this subchapter.

35 § 11-2045 Deposit and disposition of revenue. (a) The tax commission
36 shall deposit daily to the credit of the comptroller of the state of New 37 York, all taxes, penalties and interest collected under this subchapter 38 in such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies as may be 39 designated by the comptroller. Such deposits shall be kept in trust for 40 the city and separate and apart from all other monies in the possession
41 of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security 42 from all such depositories. Of the revenue collected under this subchap-43 ter the comptroller shall retain in his or her hands such amount as the 44 commissioner of taxation and finance of the state of New York may deter-45 mine to be necessary for refunds under this subchapter and for reason-46 able costs of the tax commission in administering, collecting and 47 distributing the taxes under this subchapter, out of which the comp-
48 troller shall pay any refunds made under the provisions of this subchap-
49 ter. The comptroller, after reserving such refund fund and such costs, 50 shall on or before the twelfth day of each month, pay to the commission-51 er of finance of this city all taxes, interest and penalties collected 52 under this subchapter and remaining to the comptroller's credit in such 53 banks, banking houses or trust companies at the close of business on the 54 last day of the preceding month, provided, however, that the comptroller 55 shall on or before the last day of June and December make a partial 56 payment consisting of the collections made during and including the 1 first twenty-five days of said months to the commissioner of finance of 2 this city. The amount so payable shall be certified to the comptroller 3 by the president of the tax commission or such president's delegate, who 4 shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. Where 5 the amount so paid over in any such distribution is more or less than 6 the amount then due to this city, the amount of the overpayment or 7 underpayment shall be certified to the comptroller by the president of 8 the tax commission or such president's delegate, who shall not be held 9 liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. The amount of the over-10 payment shall be so certified to the comptroller as soon after the 11 discovery of the overpayment or underpayment as reasonably possible and 12 subsequent payments and distributions by the comptroller to this city 13 shall be adjusted by subtracting the amount of any such overpayment from 14 or by adding the amount of any such underpayment to such number of 15 subsequent payments and distributions as the comptroller and the presi-16 dent of the state tax commission shall consider reasonable in view of 17 the amount of the overpayment or underpayment and all other facts and 18 circumstances.

19 (b) All payments to the commissioner of finance pursuant to subdivi-20 sion (a) of this section shall be credited to and deposited in the 21 general fund of this city, but no part of such revenues may be expended 22 unless appropriated in the annual budget of this city.

23 § 11-2046 Construction and enforcement. This subchapter shall be 24 construed and enforced in conformity with articles twenty-eight and 25 twenty-nine of the tax law of the state of New York pursuant to which it 26 is enacted.

27 § 11-2047 Effective date. This subchapter shall take effect September 28 first, nineteen hundred seventy-five except that certificates of regis-29 tration may be filed with the state tax commission and certificates of 30 authority to collect tax may be issued by the state tax commission prior 31 to such date.

33 ADDITIONAL PARKING TAX

34 § 11-2048 Definitions. (a) "Person" includes an individual, partner-35 ship, society, association, joint-stock company, corporation, estate, 36 receiver, trustee, assignee, referee, and any other person acting in a 37 fiduciary or representative capacity, whether appointed by a court or 38 otherwise, and any combination of the foregoing.

39 (b) When used in this subchapter for the purpose of the taxes imposed 40 by this subchapter, the following terms shall mean:

41 (1) "Purchaser." A person who purchased property or to whom are 42 rendered services, the receipts from which are taxable under this 43 subchapter.

44 (2) "Receipt." The amount of the sale price of any property and the 45 charge for any service taxable under this subchapter, valued in money, 46 whether received in money or otherwise, including any amount for which 47 credit is allowed by the vendor to the purchaser, without any deduction 48 for expenses or early payment discounts, but excluding any credit for 49 tangible personal property accepted in part payment and intended for 50 resale.

51 (3) "Sale." Any transfer of title or possession or both, exchange or 52 barter, rental, lease or license to use or consume, conditional or 53 otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever for a consideration, 54 or any agreement therefor, including the rendering of any service, taxa-

1 ble under this subchapter, for a consideration or any agreement there-2 for.

3 (4) "Vendor." A person making sales of tangible personal property or 4 services, the receipts from which are taxed by this subchapter.

5 (5) "Tax commission." Tax commission of the state of New York.

6 (6) "Tax law." Tax law of the state of New York.

7 § 11-2049 Imposition of tax. On and after September first, nineteen 8 hundred eighty, there is hereby imposed within the city of New York, and 9 there shall be paid, a tax at the rate of eight percent on receipts from 10 every sale of the service of providing parking, garaging or storing for 11 motor vehicles by persons operating a garage, other than a garage which 12 is part of premises occupied solely as a private one or two family 13 dwelling, parking lot or other place of business engaged in providing 14 parking, garaging or storing for motor vehicles, in every county within 15 the city of New York with a population density in excess of fifty thou-16 sand persons per square mile, as determined by reference to the latest 17 federal census; provided, however, that receipts for such services paid 18 to a homeowner's association by its members or receipts paid by members 19 of a homeowner's association to a person leasing the parking facility 20 from the homeowner's association shall not be subject to the tax imposed 21 by this section. For purposes of this section, a homeowner's association 22 is an association, including a cooperative housing or apartment corpo-23 ration, (i) the membership of which is comprised exclusively of owners 24 or residents of residential dwelling units, including owners of units in 25 a condominium, and including shareholders in a cooperative housing or 26 apartment corporation, where such units are located in a defined 27 geographical area such as a housing development or subdivision; and (ii) 28 which owns or operates a garage, parking lot or other place of business 29 engaged in providing parking, garaging or storing for motor vehicles 30 located in such area for use, whether or not exclusive, by such owners 31 or residents. The tax imposed on the receipts described in this section 32 is in addition to the tax imposed on such receipts under subchapter one 33 of this chapter or section eleven hundred seven of the tax law, as the 34 case may be.

35 § 11-2050 Transitional provisions. The taxes imposed by this subchap-36 ter shall be paid with respect to receipts from all sales of services on 37 or after September first, nineteen hundred eighty although rendered or 38 agreed to be rendered under a prior contract. Where a service is sold 39 on a monthly, quarterly, yearly or other term basis, the charge for such 40 service shall be subject to tax under this subchapter to the extent that 41 such charge is applicable to any period on or after September first, 42 nineteen hundred eighty, and such charge shall be apportioned on the 43 basis of the ratio of the number of days falling within such period to 44 the total number of days in the full term or period.

45 § 11-2051 Exempt organizations and individuals. (a) Except as other-46 wise provided in this section, any sale by or to any of the following 47 shall not be subject to the taxes imposed by this subchapter:

48 (1) The state of New York, or any of its agencies, instrumentalities, 49 public corporations, including a public corporation created pursuant to 50 agreement or compact with another state or Canada, or political subdivi-51 sions where it is the purchaser, user or consumer, or where it is a 52 vendor of services of a kind not ordinarily sold by private persons;

53 (2) The United States of America, and any of its agencies and instru-
54 mentalities, insofar as it is immune from taxation where it is the 55 purchaser, user or consumer or where it sells services of a kind not 56 ordinarily sold by private persons;

1 (3) The United Nations or any international organization of which the 2 United States of America is a member where it is the purchaser, user or 3 consumer, or where it sells services of a kind not ordinarily sold by 4 private persons;

5 (4) Any corporation, association, trust, or community chest, fund or 6 foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charita-7 ble, scientific, testing for public safety, literary or educational 8 purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competi-9 tion, but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of 10 athletic facilities or equipment, or for the prevention of cruelty to 11 children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the 12 benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of 13 the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempt-14 ing to influence legislation, except as otherwise provided in subsection 15 (h) of section five hundred one of the United States internal revenue 16 code of nineteen hundred fifty-four, as amended, and which does not 17 participate in, or intervene in, including the publishing or distribut-18 ing of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for 19 public office;

20 (5) A post or organization of past or present members of the armed 21 forces of the United States, or an auxiliary unit or society of, or a 22 trust or foundation for, any such post or organization:

23 (A) organized in this state,

24 (B) at least seventy-five percent of the members of which are past or 25 present members of the armed forces of the United States and substan-26 tially all of the other members of which are individuals who are cadets 27 or are spouses, widows or widowers of past or present members of the 28 armed forces of the United States or of cadets, and

29 (C) no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any 30 private shareholder or individual;

31 (6) The following Indian nations or tribes residing in New York state:
32 Cayuga, Oneida, Onondaga, Poospatuck, Saint Regis Mohawk, Seneca, Shin-33 necock, Tonawanda and Tuscarora, where it is the purchaser, user or 34 consumer;

35 (7) A not-for-profit corporation operating as a health maintenance 36 organization subject to the provisions of article forty-four of the 37 public health law; and

38 (8) Cooperative and foreign corporations doing business in this state 39 pursuant to the rural electric cooperative law.

40 (b) Nothing in this section shall exempt sales of the service of 41 providing parking, garaging or storing for motor vehicles by an organ-42 ization described in paragraph four or paragraph five of subdivision (a) 43 of this section operating a garage, other than a garage which is part of 44 premises occupied solely as a private one-family or two-family dwelling, 45 parking lot or other place of business engaged in providing parking, 46 garaging or storing for motor vehicles.

47 (c) (1) For purposes of paragraph four of subdivision (a) of this 48 section, in the case of a qualified amateur sports organization (A) the 49 requirement of such paragraph that no part of its activities involve the 50 provision of athletic facilities or equipment shall not apply, and (B) 51 such organization shall not fail to meet the requirement of such para-52 graph merely because its membership is local or regional in nature.

53 (2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "qualified amateur 54 sports organization" means any organization organized and operated 55 exclusively to foster national or international amateur sports competi-56 tion if such organization is also organized and operated primarily to 1 conduct national or international competition in sports or to support 2 and develop amateur athletes for national or international competition 3 in sports.

4 (d) The tax imposed by this subchapter shall not apply to any sale of 5 services to an individual resident of the county in which such tax is 6 imposed when such services are rendered on a monthly or longer-term 7 basis at the principal location for the parking, garaging or storing of 8 a motor vehicle owned or leased, but only in the case of a lease for a 9 term of one year or more, by such individual resident. For purposes of 10 this subdivision, the term "individual resident" means a natural person 11 who maintains in such county a permanent place of abode which is such 12 person's primary residence; the term "motor vehicle" means a motor vehi-13 cle which is registered pursuant to the vehicle and traffic law at the 14 address of the primary residence referred to in this subdivision, or 15 which is registered pursuant to the vehicle and traffic law and leased 16 to an individual resident at the address of the primary residence 17 referred to in this subdivision, and which is not used in carrying on 18 any trade, business or commercial activity; and the term "lease for a 19 term of one year or more" shall not include any lease the term of which 20 is less than one year, irrespective of the fact that the cumulative 21 period for which such lease may be in effect is one year or more as the 22 result of the right to exercise an option to renew or other like 23 provision.

24 § 11-2052 Administration and collection; penalties; refunds. (a) The 25 taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be administered and collected by 26 the tax commission in the same manner as the taxes imposed by article 27 twenty-eight of the tax law are administered and collected by such 28 commission. All of the provisions of such article relating to or appli-29 cable to the administration and collection of the taxes imposed by that 30 article shall apply to the taxes imposed by this subchapter, including 31 section eleven hundred one and sections eleven hundred thirty-one 32 through eleven hundred forty-seven inclusive, with the same force and 33 effect as if those provisions had been incorporated in full into this 34 subchapter and had expressly referred to the taxes imposed by this 35 subchapter, except to the extent that any provisions of such article 36 twenty-eight are either inconsistent with a provision of this subchap-37 ter, or of article twenty-nine of the tax law, or are not relevant to 38 this subchapter or to article twenty-nine of the tax law. For purposes 39 of this subchapter, the term "tax" in part IV of such article twenty-40 eight of the tax law shall include the taxes imposed by this subchapter.

41 (b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of this section or any other 42 provision of law to the contrary, the tax commission shall, subject to 43 such terms and conditions as it may consider necessary, delegate to the 44 commissioner of finance the power and authority to develop and adminis-45 ter reasonable and necessary procedures, including the use of exemption 46 certificates for presentation to vendors, for determining entitlement to 47 exemption from tax under subdivision (d) of section 11-2051 of this 48 subchapter, and to prescribe, subject to the approval of the tax commis-49 sion, rules and regulations necessary and appropriate in carrying out 50 such responsibilities.

51 (c) Any person who, in violation of any provision of subdivision (d) 52 of section 11-2051 of this subchapter or any rule or regulation promul-53 gated thereunder, obtains or uses a certificate of exemption relating to 54 the exemption allowed by such subdivision, shall, if such violation was 55 due to negligence or intentional disregard of such provision or rule or 56 regulation, but without intent to defraud, be liable for a penalty of 1 not more than one hundred dollars for each such violation, and, if such 2 violation was due to fraud, be liable for a penalty of not more than 3 five hundred dollars for each such violation. The commissioner of 4 finance shall have the power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce 5 or compromise any penalty imposed pursuant to this subdivision. The 6 penalties authorized by this subdivision shall be in addition to any 7 penalty provided by section eleven hundred forty-five of the tax law, 8 and shall be paid and disposed of, and, if unpaid, shall be determined, 9 assessed, collected and enforced, in the same manner as the taxes 10 imposed by this subchapter.

11 (d) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of section 11-2051 of this 12 subchapter, section eleven hundred thirty-nine of the tax law or any 13 other provision of law to the contrary, an individual resident shall not 14 be entitled to a refund or credit with respect to any amount of tax 15 which was paid to a vendor prior to the date such individual resident 16 presented to the vendor a valid certificate of exemption from such tax.

17 § 11-2053 Deposit and disposition of revenue. (a) The tax commission
18 shall deposit daily to the credit of the comptroller of the state of New 19 York, all taxes, penalties and interest collected under this subchapter 20 in such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies as may be 21 designated by the comptroller. Such deposits shall be kept in trust for 22 the city and separate and apart from all other monies in the possession
23 of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security 24 from all such depositories. Of the revenue collected under this 25 subchapter the comptroller shall retain in his or her hands such amount 26 as the commissioner of taxation and finance of the state of New York may 27 determine to be necessary for refunds under this subchapter and for 28 reasonable costs of the tax commission in administering, collecting and 29 distributing the taxes under this subchapter, out of which the comp-
30 troller shall pay any refunds made under the provisions of this subchap-
31 ter. The comptroller, after reserving such refund fund and such costs 32 shall, on or before the twelfth day of each month, pay to the commis-33 sioner of finance of this city all taxes, interest and penalties 34 collected under this subchapter during the next preceding calendar month 35 and remaining to the comptroller's credit in such banks, banking houses 36 or trust companies at the close of business on the last day of such 37 preceding month, provided, however, that the comptroller shall on or 38 before the last day of June and December make a partial payment consist-39 ing of the collections made during and including the first twenty-five 40 days of said months to the commissioner of finance of this city. The 41 amount so payable shall be certified to the comptroller by the president 42 of the tax commission or such president's delegate, who shall not be 43 held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. Provided, however, 44 any such certification may be based on such information as may be avail-45 able to the tax commission at the time such certificate must be made 46 under this section and may be estimated on the basis of percentages or 47 other indices calculated from distributions for prior periods. Where the 48 amount so paid over in any such distribution is more or less than the 49 amount then due to this city, the amount of the overpayment or underpay-50 ment shall be certified to the comptroller by the president of the tax 51 commission or such president's delegate, who shall not be held liable 52 for any inaccuracy in such certificate. The amount of the overpayment or 53 underpayment shall be so certified to the comptroller as soon after the 54 discovery of the overpayment or underpayment as reasonably possible and 55 subsequent payments and distributions by the comptroller to this city 56 shall be adjusted by subtracting the amount of any such overpayment from

1 or by adding the amount of any such underpayment to such number of 2 subsequent payments and distributions as the comptroller and the presi-3 dent of the tax commission shall consider reasonable in view of the 4 amount of the overpayment or underpayment and all other facts and 5 circumstances.

6 (b) All payments to the commissioner of finance pursuant to subdivi-
7 sion (a) of this section shall be credited to and deposited in the 8 general fund of this city.

9 § 11-2054 Construction and enforcement. This subchapter shall be 10 construed and enforced in conformity with articles twenty-eight and 11 twenty-nine of the tax law of the state of New York pursuant to which it 12 is enacted.

23 holic beverages.

24 § 11-2056 Imposition of tax. (a) There are hereby imposed on a 25 distributor and a noncommercial importer excise taxes at the following 26 rates:

27 (1) twelve cents per gallon upon beers; and 28 (2) twenty-six and four-tenths cents per liter upon liquors, when sold 29 or used within this city, except when sold or used under such circum-30 stances that this city is without power to impose such tax or when sold 31 to the United States, and except beers when sold to or by a voluntary 32 unincorporated organization of the armed forces of the United States 33 operating a place for the sale of goods pursuant to regulations promul-34 gated by the appropriate executive agency of the United States, and 35 except when sold to professional foreign consuls-general, consuls and 36 vice-consuls who are nationals of the state appointing them and who are 37 assigned to foreign consulates in this city provided that American 38 consular officers of equal rank who are citizens of the United States 39 and who exercise their official functions at American consulates in such 40 foreign country are granted reciprocal exemptions; provided, however, 41 that the tax commission may permit the sale of alcohol without tax to a 42 holder of any industrial alcohol permit, alcohol permit or alcohol 43 distributor's permit, issued by the state liquor authority, and by the 44 holder of an alcohol distributor's permit, class A, issued by such 45 authority to a holder of a distiller's license, class B, or a winery 46 license, issued by such authority and may also permit the use of alcohol 47 for any purpose other than the production of alcoholic beverages by such 48 holders without tax.

49 Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, the tax 50 commission may permit the purchase of liquors without tax by a holder of 51 a distiller's license issued by the state liquor authority from another 52 holder of a distiller's license by such authority, in which event the 53 liquors so purchased shall be subject to the tax imposed by this 54 subchapter in the hands of the purchaser in the same manner and to the 55 same extent as if such purchaser had imported or caused the same to be

1 imported into this city or had produced, distilled, manufactured, 2 brewed, compounded, mixed or fermented the same within this city.

3 (b) There is also imposed on each person, other than a distributor
4 within the meaning of this subchapter, who, on August first, nineteen 5 hundred eighty, owns and possesses for the purposes of sale beers or 6 liquors, a floor tax at the rates applicable under subdivision (a) upon 7 such beer in excess of one hundred gallons and upon such liquor in 8 excess of four hundred liters. Such floor tax shall be due and payable 9 on the twentieth day of the month succeeding the month of August, nine-10 teen hundred eighty.

11 (c) If, prior to August first, nineteen hundred eighty, a contract of 12 sale of alcoholic beverages was made, and delivery thereof pursuant to 13 such contract is made within this city on or after August first, nine-14 teen hundred eighty, the vendor shall be deemed a distributor for the 15 purposes of this subchapter, and such alcoholic beverages shall be 16 deemed to be sold, and shall be subject to such taxes, at the time of 17 such delivery.

18 (d) In any case where the quantity of alcoholic beverages taxable 19 pursuant to this subchapter is a fractional part of one liter, or one 20 gallon in the case of beers, or an amount greater than a whole multiple 21 of liters, or gallons in the case of beers, the amount of tax levied and 22 imposed on such fractional part of one liter, or one gallon in the case 23 of beers, or fractional part of a liter, or gallon, in excess of a whole 24 multiple of liters or gallons shall be such fractional part of the rate 25 imposed by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section.

26 (e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subchapter, there 27 shall be exempt from the taxes imposed under this subchapter, per month, 28 one quart of alcoholic beverages, or one gallon of such beverages in the 29 case of a person arriving directly from American Samoa, Guam or the 30 Virgin Islands of the United States not more than one quart of which 31 shall have been acquired elsewhere than in such insular possessions:

32 (1) purchased outside this city as an incident to a journey from which 33 the purchaser is returning and

34 (2) not to be offered for sale or used for any commercial purpose, 35 provided such alcoholic beverages accompany such person on his or her 36 return to this city and provided, further, that in the case of a person 37 arriving in this city from other than a state of the United States, 38 including the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands of the United 39 States or a contiguous country maintaining a free zone or free port, 40 such person shall have remained beyond the territorial limits of the 41 United States for a period of not less than forty-eight hours.

42 Provided, however, where the amounts purchased outside the city or 43 brought in exceed the amounts specified in this subdivision but are not 44 in excess of one liter in the case of the references to one quart or 45 four liters in the case of the reference to one gallon, and where no 46 duty is required by the laws of the United States to be paid on such 47 amounts, such metric standards of fill shall be substituted for one 48 quart and one gallon, respectively, and such amounts shall be exempt 49 from tax under the conditions provided for in this subdivision.

50 § 11-2057 Manner of administration and collection. All the provisions 51 of article eighteen of the tax law shall apply to the taxes imposed by 52 subdivision (a) of section 11-2056 of this subchapter, and the 53 provisions of sections four hundred twenty, four hundred twenty-six, 54 four hundred twenty-nine through four hundred thirty-four, four hundred 55 thirty-six and four hundred thirty-seven of the tax law shall apply to 56 the tax imposed by subdivision (b) of section 11-2056 of this subchap-

1 ter, so far as such sections can be made applicable to the taxes imposed 2 by this subchapter with such limitations as set forth in section four 3 hundred forty-five of the tax law and such modifications as may be 4 necessary in order to adapt such language to the taxes imposed by this
5 subchapter.

6 § 11-2058 State tax commission; administration. The taxes imposed by 7 this subchapter shall be administered and collected by the tax commis-8 sion in the same manner as the taxes imposed under sections four hundred 9 twenty-four and four hundred twenty-five of the tax law subject to all 10 provisions of that article as may be applicable. The tax commission may 11 make such provisions as it deems necessary for the joint administration 12 and collection of the state and local taxes imposed and authorized by 13 article eighteen of the tax law and this subchapter. Nothing in such 14 article eighteen or this subchapter which requires payment of both state 15 and local taxes to the tax commission shall be construed as the payment 16 of either tax more than once.

17 § 11-2059 Disposition of revenues. All taxes, penalties and interest 18 imposed by this subchapter, which are collected by the tax commission, 19 shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or 20 trust companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the 21 credit of the comptroller, in trust for this city. Such deposits shall 22 be kept in trust and separate and apart from all other monies in the 23 possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate 24 security from all such depositories of such revenues collected by the 25 tax commission. The comptroller shall retain in his or her hands such 26 amount as the commissioner of taxation and finance may determine to be 27 necessary for refunds in respect of the taxes imposed by this subchap-28 ter, and for reasonable costs of the state tax commission in administer-29 ing, collecting and distributing such taxes, out of which the comp-30 troller shall pay any refunds of such taxes to which taxpayers shall be 31 entitled under the provisions of this subchapter. The comptroller, after 32 reserving such refund and such costs shall, on or before the twelfth day 33 of each month, pay to the commissioner of finance the taxes, penalties 34 and interest imposed by this subchapter, collected by the state tax 35 commission pursuant to this subchapter during the next preceding calen-36 dar month. The amount so payable shall be certified to the comptroller 37 by the president of the state tax commission or his or her delegate, who 38 shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. Where 39 the amount so paid over to the city in any such distribution is more or 40 less than the amount then due to the city, the amount of the overpayment 41 or underpayment shall be certified to the comptroller by the president 42 of the state tax commission or his or her delegate, who shall not be 43 held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. The amount of the 44 overpayment or underpayment shall be so certified to the comptroller as 45 soon after the discovery of the overpayment or underpayment as reason-46 ably possible and subsequent payments and distributions by the comp-47 troller to the city shall be adjusted by subtracting the amount of any 48 such overpayment from or by adding the amount of any such underpayment 49 to such number of subsequent payments and distributions as the comp-50 troller and the president of the state tax commission shall consider 51 reasonable in view of the amount of the overpayment or underpayment and 52 all other facts or circumstances.

53 § 11-2060 Construction. This subchapter shall be construed and 54 enforced in conformity with section four hundred forty-five of the tax 55 law, pursuant to which it is enacted.

12 the amount of any mortgage or other lien or encumbrance on the real

34 pendently of each other,

35 (ii) at the rate of one percent of the consideration with respect to 36 grants, assignments or surrenders of leasehold interests in real proper-

39 less than five hundred thousand dollars, or 40 (iii) at the rate of two percent of the consideration with respect to 44 five hundred thousand dollars or more;

45 (iv) provided, however, that for purposes of subparagraphs (i), (ii) 46 and (iii) of this paragraph, the amount subject to tax in the case of a 47 grant of a leasehold interest shall be only such amount as is not 48 considered rent for purposes of the tax imposed by chapter seven of this 49 title; and

50 (8) at the rate of two percent of the consideration with respect to 51 all other conveyances made on or after July first, nineteen hundred

53 (9) with respect to conveyances made on or after August first, nine-54 teen hundred eighty-nine, other than grants, assignments or surrenders

4 and at the rate of one and four hundred twenty-five thousandths of one 5 percent of the consideration for such conveyances where the consider-6 ation is more than five hundred thousand dollars, and

7 (ii) at the rate of one and four hundred twenty-five thousandths of 8 one percent of the consideration with respect to all other conveyances 9 where the consideration is five hundred thousand dollars or less, and at 10 the rate of two and six hundred twenty-five thousandths of one percent 11 where the consideration for such conveyances is more than five hundred 24 leasehold interest is more than five hundred thousand dollars; and

25 (ii) at the rate of one and four hundred twenty-five thousandths of 26 one percent of the consideration for the granting, assignment or surren-27 der of a leasehold interest in all other real property where the consid-28 eration is five hundred thousand dollars or less, and at the rate of two 29 and six hundred twenty-five thousandths of one percent of the consider-30 ation where the consideration for the granting, assignment or surrender 31 of such a leasehold interest is more than five hundred thousand dollars; 32 and

33 (iii) provided, however, that for purposes of subparagraphs (i) and 34 (ii) of this paragraph, the amount subject to tax in the case of a grant 35 of a leasehold interest shall be only such amount as is not considered 36 rent for purposes of the tax imposed by chapter seven of this title.

37 Where any real property is situated partly within and partly without 38 the boundaries of the city of Staten Island the consideration and net 39 consideration subject to tax shall be such part of the total consider-40 ation and total net consideration attributable to that portion of such 41 real property situated within the city of Staten Island or to the inter-42 est in such portion.

43 b. (1) In addition to the taxes imposed by subdivision a of this 44 section, there is hereby imposed a tax on each instrument or trans-45 action, unless evidenced by a deed subject to tax under subdivision a of 46 this section, at the time of the transfer, whereby any economic interest 47 in real property is transferred by a grantor to a grantee, where the 48 consideration exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars.

49 (A) With respect to such transfers made on or after July thirteenth, 50 nineteen hundred eighty-six and before August first, nineteen hundred 51 eighty-nine, the tax shall be (i) at the rate of one percent of the 52 consideration where the real property the economic interest in which is 53 transferred is a one, two or three-family house, an individual cooper-54 ative apartment, an individual residential condominium unit or an indi-55 vidual dwelling unit in a dwelling which is to be occupied or is occu-56 pied as the residence or home of four or more families living

1 independently of each other, or where the consideration for the transfer 2 is less than five hundred thousand dollars, and (ii) at the rate of two 3 percent of the consideration with respect to all other transfers.

4 (B) With respect to such transfers made on or after August first, 5 nineteen hundred eighty-nine, the tax shall be at the following rates:

6 (i) at the rate of one percent of the consideration where the real 7 property, the economic interest in which is transferred, is a one, two 8 or three-family house, an individual cooperative apartment, an individ-9 ual residential condominium unit or an individual dwelling unit in a 10 dwelling which is to be occupied or is occupied as the residence or home 11 of four or more families living independently of each other and where 12 the consideration for such transfer of an economic interest in such real 13 property is five hundred thousand dollars or less, and at the rate of 14 one and four hundred twenty-five thousandths of one percent of the 15 consideration where the consideration for such transfer of an economic 16 interest in such property is more than five hundred thousand dollars, 17 and

18 (ii) at the rate of one and four hundred twenty-five thousandths of 19 one percent of the consideration with respect to all other transfers of 20 an economic interest in real property where the consideration is five 21 hundred thousand dollars or less, and at the rate of two and six hundred 22 twenty-five thousandths of one percent of the consideration where the 23 consideration for such transfers is more than five hundred thousand
24 dollars.

25 (C) Where any real property, the economic interest in which is trans-26 ferred, is situated partly within and partly without the boundaries of 27 the city of Staten Island, the consideration subject to tax shall be 28 such part of the consideration as is attributable to that portion of 29 such real property which is situated within the city of Staten Island.

30 (2) Notwithstanding the definition of "controlling interest" contained 31 in subdivision eight of section 11-2101 of this chapter or anything to 32 the contrary contained in subdivision seven of such section, in the case 33 of any transfer of shares of stock in a cooperative housing corporation 34 in connection with the grant or transfer of a proprietary leasehold, the 35 tax imposed by this subdivision shall apply to (i) the original transfer 36 of such shares of stock by the cooperative corporation or cooperative 37 plan sponsor, and (ii) any subsequent transfer of such shares of stock 38 by the owner thereof. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to 39 the contrary, in the case of a transfer described in clause (ii) of this 40 subparagraph which relates to an individual residential unit, the 41 consideration for such transfer shall not include any portion of the 42 unpaid principal of any mortgage on the real property of the cooperative 43 housing corporation. In determining the tax on a transfer described in 44 clause (i) of this subparagraph, a credit shall be allowed for a propor-45 tionate part of the amount of any tax paid upon the conveyance to the 46 cooperative housing corporation of the land and building or buildings 47 comprising the cooperative dwelling or dwellings. Such proportionate 48 part shall be the amount determined by multiplying the amount of tax 49 paid upon the conveyance to the cooperative housing corporation by a 50 fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of stock 51 transferred in a transaction described in clause (i) of this subpara-52 graph and the denominator of which shall be the total number of 53 outstanding shares of stock of the cooperative housing corporation, 54 including any stock held by the corporation. In no event, however, shall 55 such credit reduce the tax on a transfer described in clause (i) of this 56 subparagraph below zero, nor shall any such credit be allowed for any

1 tax paid more than twenty-four months prior to the date on which occurs 2 the first in a series of transfers of shares of stock in an offering of 3 cooperative housing corporation shares described in clause (i) of this 4 subparagraph. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "cooperative 5 housing corporation" shall not include a housing company organized and 6 operating pursuant to the provisions of article two, four, five or elev-7 en of the private housing finance law.

8 (3) Notwithstanding the definition of "controlling interest" contained 9 in paragraph eight of section 11-2101 of this chapter or anything to the 10 contrary contained in paragraph seven of such section, in the case of a 11 corporation, other than a cooperative housing corporation, partnership, 12 association, trust or other entity formed for the purpose of cooperative 13 ownership of real property, the tax imposed by this subdivision shall 14 apply to each transfer of shares of stock in such corporation, interest 15 in such partnership, association or other entity or beneficial interest 16 in such trust, in connection with the grant or transfer of a proprietary 17 leasehold. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contra-18 ry, in the case of a transfer described in this paragraph which relates 19 to an individual residential unit, other than the original transfer of 20 such a unit by the cooperative entity or cooperative plan sponsor, the 21 consideration for such transfer shall not include any portion of the 22 unpaid principal of any mortgage on the real property of such corpo-23 ration, partnership, association, trust or other entity. Notwithstanding 24 any other provision of law to the contrary, all revenues arising from 25 the tax imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be credited to and 26 deposited in the general fund of the city, but no part of such revenues 27 may be expended unless appropriated in the annual budget of the city.

28 c. (1) Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, in the case of any 29 conveyance or transfer of real property or any economic interest therein 30 in complete or partial liquidation of a corporation, partnership, asso-31 ciation, trust or other entity, the taxes imposed by this section shall 32 be measured by (i) the consideration for such conveyance or transfer, or 33 (ii) the value of the real property or economic interest therein, which-34 ever is greater.

35 (2) If, within twenty-four months following the transfer of an econom-36 ic interest in real property which is subject to the tax imposed by this 37 chapter, the corporation, partnership, association, trust or other enti-38 ty owning the real property the economic interest in which was so trans-39 ferred, is liquidated, and such real property is conveyed to the grantee 40 or grantees of such economic interest, a credit shall be allowed against 41 the tax imposed by this chapter upon such conveyance in liquidation to 42 such grantee or grantees. The amount of such credit shall be equal to 43 the amount of the tax paid upon the prior transfer of the economic 44 interest in such real property, but shall in no event be greater than 45 the tax payable upon the conveyance in liquidation.

46 d. In the case of a transfer of an economic interest in any entity 47 that owns assets in addition to real property or interest therein, the 48 consideration subject to tax shall be deemed equal to the fair market 49 value of the real property or interest therein apportioned based on the 50 percentage of the ownership interest in the entity transferred.

51 e. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the tax 52 imposed under subdivisions a and b of this section on any deed or other 53 instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real property or an 54 economic interest therein, that qualifies as a real estate investment 55 trust transfer, as defined below, shall be imposed at a rate equal to 56 fifty percent of the otherwise applicable rate.

1 (2) For purposes of this subdivision, a real estate investment trust
2 transfer shall mean (A) any deed or other instrument or transaction
3 conveying or transferring real property or an economic interest therein 4 to a real estate investment trust as defined in section eight hundred 5 fifty-six of the internal revenue code (a "REIT") or to a partnership or 6 corporation in which a REIT owns a controlling interest immediately 7 following the transaction; and (B) any issuance or transfer of an inter-
8 est in a REIT, or in a partnership or corporation in which a REIT owns a 9 controlling interest immediately following the issuance or transfer in 10 connection with a transaction described in subparagraph (A) of this 11 paragraph.

12 Provided, however, a transaction described in the opening paragraph 13 of this paragraph shall not constitute a real estate investment trust 14 transfer unless (i) it occurs in connection with the initial formation 15 of the REIT and the conditions described in subparagraphs (C) and (D) of 16 this paragraph are satisfied, or (ii) in the case of any real estate 17 investment trust transfer occurring on or after July thirteenth, nine-18 teen hundred ninety-six and before September first, two thousand twenty-19 six, the transaction is described in subparagraph (E) of this para-20 graph in which case the provision of such subparagraph shall apply.

21 (C) The value of the ownership interests in the REIT, or in a partner-22 ship or corporation in which the REIT owns a controlling interest, 23 received by the grantor as consideration for such conveyance or transfer 24 must be equal to an amount not less than forty percent of the value of 25 the equity interest in the real property or economic interest therein 26 conveyed or transferred by the grantor to the grantee and such ownership 27 interests must be retained by the grantor or owners of the grantor for a 28 period of not less than two years following the date of such conveyance 29 or transfer; provided, however, that in the case of the death of the 30 grantor or an owner of the grantor within such two year period, this two 31 year retention requirement shall be deemed to be satisfied notwithstand-32 ing any conveyance or transfer of such ownership interests held by such 33 individual as a result of such death. The value of the equity interest 34 in such real property or economic interest therein shall be computed by 35 subtracting from the consideration for the conveyance or transfer of the 36 real property or economic interest therein the unpaid balance of any 37 loans secured by mortgages or other encumbrances which are liens on the 38 real property or economic interest therein immediately before the 39 conveyance or transfer. For purposes of this computation, in the case of 40 a conveyance or transfer of real property other than a conveyance or 41 transfer of an economic interest in real property, the amount of the 42 unpaid balance of any loans secured by mortgages or other encumbrances 43 to be subtracted from consideration is determined by multiplying the 44 total unpaid balance of any loans secured by mortgages or other encum-45 brances on the real property by the percentage of the ownership interest 46 in the real property being conveyed or transferred to the grantee. In 47 the case of a transfer of an economic interest in real property, such 48 amount to be subtracted is equal to the sum of the following amounts: 49 (i) a reasonable apportionment to the interests in real property owned 50 by the entity of the amount of any loans secured by encumbrances on the 51 ownership interests in the entity which are being conveyed or trans-52 ferred and (ii) the amount of any loans secured by mortgages or other 53 encumbrances on the real property of the entity multiplied by the 54 percentage interest in the entity which is being conveyed or trans-55 ferred.

1 Provided, however, that for purposes of the computation made pursuant 2 to this subparagraph, any mortgages or other encumbrances on the real 3 property or economic interest therein which are created in contemplation 4 of the initial formation of the REIT or in contemplation of the convey-5 ance or transfer of such real property or economic interest therein to 6 the REIT or to a partnership or corporation in which the REIT owns a 7 controlling interest immediately following the conveyance or transfer 8 shall not be considered.

9 (D) Seventy-five percent or more of the cash proceeds received by such 10 REIT from the sale of ownership interests in such REIT upon its initial 11 formation must be used: (i) to make payments on loans secured by any 12 interest in real property, including an ownership interest in an entity 13 owning real property, which is owned directly or indirectly by such 14 REIT; (ii) to pay for capital improvements to real property or any 15 interest therein owned directly or indirectly by such REIT; (iii) to pay 16 brokerage fees and commissions, professional fees and payments to or on 17 behalf of a tenant as an inducement to enter into a lease or sublease 18 incurred in connection with the creation of a leasehold or sublease 19 pertaining to real property or any interest therein owned directly or 20 indirectly by such REIT; (iv) to acquire any interest in real property, 21 including an ownership interest in any entity owning real property, 22 apart from any acquisition to which a reduced rate of tax is applicable 23 pursuant to this subdivision, without regard to this subparagraph; or 24 (v) for reserves established for any of the purposes described in clause 25 (i), (ii) or (iii) of this subparagraph. For purposes of this subpara-26 graph, the term real property shall include real property wherever 27 located.

28 (E) If a transaction otherwise described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of 29 this paragraph occurs other than in connection with the initial forma-30 tion of a REIT, the condition set forth in subparagraph (D) shall be 31 disregarded and such transaction shall constitute a "real estate invest-32 ment trust transfer" if the condition set forth in subparagraph (C) 33 would be satisfied if "fifty percent" is substituted for "forty percent" 34 therein.

35 (3) For purposes of determining the consideration for a real estate 36 investment trust transfer taxable under this subdivision the value of 37 the real property or interest therein shall be equal to the estimated 38 market value as determined by the commissioner of finance for real prop-39 erty tax purposes as reflected on the most recent notice of assessment 40 issued by such commissioner, or such other value as the taxpayer may 41 establish to the satisfaction of such commissioner.

42 (4) This subdivision shall only apply to real estate investment trust 43 transfers occurring on or after the effective date of this subdivision.

44 f. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in determining 45 the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to a deed, instrument or 46 transaction conveying or transferring a one, two or three-family house, 47 an individual residential condominium unit, an individual residential 48 cooperative apartment, or an interest therein, the consideration for 49 such conveyance or transfer shall exclude, to the extent otherwise 50 included therein, the amount of any mortgage or other lien or encum-51 brance on the real property or interest therein that existed before the 52 delivery of the deed or the transfer and remains thereon after the date 53 of delivery of the deed or the transfer, other than any mortgage, lien 54 or encumbrance placed on the property or interest in connection with, or 55 in anticipation of, the conveyance or transfer, or by reason of deferred 56 payments of the purchase price whether represented by notes or other-

1 wise. Provided, however, that this subdivision shall not apply to a 2 conveyance or transfer (1) to a mortgagee, lienor or encumbrancer, 3 regardless of whether the grantor or transferor is or was personally 4 liable for the indebtedness secured by the mortgage, lien or encumbrance 5 or whether the mortgage, lien or encumbrance is canceled of record, or 6 (2) which qualifies as a "real estate investment trust transfer" as 7 defined in subdivision e of this section.

8 § 11-2103 Presumptions and burden of proof. For the purpose of the 9 proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the tax 10 hereby imposed, it shall be presumed that all deeds and transfers of 11 economic interests in real property are taxable. Where the consider-12 ation includes property other than money, it shall be presumed that the 13 consideration is the value of the real property or interest therein.
14 Such presumptions shall prevail until the contrary is established and 15 the burden of proving the contrary shall be on the taxpayer. The burden 16 of proving that a lien or encumbrance existed on the real property or 17 interest therein before the delivery of the deed and remained thereon 18 thereafter and the burden of proving the amount of such lien or encum-19 brance at the time of the delivery of the deed shall be on the taxpayer.

20 § 11-2104 Payment. The tax imposed hereunder shall be paid by the 21 grantor to the commissioner of finance at the office of the register in 22 the county where the deed is or would be recorded within thirty days 23 after the delivery of the deed by the grantor to the grantee but before 24 the recording of such deed, or, in the case of a tax on the transfer of 25 an economic interest in real property, at such place as the commissioner 26 of finance shall designate, within thirty days after the transfer. The 27 grantee shall also be liable for the payment of such tax in the event 28 that the amount of tax due is not paid by the grantor or the grantor is 29 exempt from tax. All moneys received as such payments by the register 30 during the preceding month shall be transmitted to the commissioner of 31 finance on the first day of each month or on such other day as is mutu-32 ally agreeable to the commissioner of finance and the register. From the 33 moneys so received by him or her, the commissioner of finance shall set 34 said in a special account:

35 (1) the total amount of taxes imposed pursuant to the provisions of 36 paragraph three of subdivision a of section 11-2102 of this chapter 37 including any interest or penalties thereon;

38 (2) fifty percent of the total amount of taxes imposed pursuant to the 39 provisions of paragraph four of subdivision a of section 11-2102 of this 40 chapter, including fifty percent of any interest or penalties thereon, 41 provided, however, that where such tax is measured by the consideration 42 for a conveyance without deduction for the amount of any mortgage or 43 other lien or encumbrance on the real property or interest therein which 44 existed before the delivery of the deed and remains thereon after the 45 delivery of the deed, the entire amount of tax imposed at the rate of 46 one percent on the portion of the consideration ascribable to such 47 nondeductible mortgage, lien or other encumbrance, including any inter-48 est or penalties thereon, and fifty percent of the tax on the balance of 49 the consideration, including fifty percent of any interest or penalties 50 thereon, shall be set aside in such special account;

51 (3) fifty percent of the total amount of taxes imposed pursuant to the 52 provisions of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph seven of subdivision a of 53 section 11-2102 of this chapter, including fifty percent of any interest 54 or penalties thereon;

55 (4) fifty percent of the total amount of taxes imposed pursuant to the 56 provisions of paragraph eight of subdivision a of section 11-2102 of 1 this chapter, including fifty percent of any interest or penalties thereon;

2

3 (5) fifty percent of the total amount of taxes imposed at the rate of 4 two percent pursuant to the provisions of clause (ii) of subparagraph A 5 of paragraph one of subdivision b of section 11-2102 of this chapter 6 including fifty percent of any interest or penalties thereon;

7 (6) with respect to any conveyance of real property, transfer of an 8 economic interest therein, or any grant, assignment or surrender of a 9 leasehold interest in real property, made on or after August first, 10 nineteen hundred eighty-nine and taxable under this chapter, in each 11 instance where the tax rate is in excess of two percent, a portion of 12 the tax received equal to one percent of the consideration subject to 13 the tax plus any interest or penalty attributable to such portion of the 14 tax; and

15 (7) notwithstanding anything in subdivision six of this section to the 16 contrary, in each instance where the tax rate imposed pursuant to subdivision 17 e of section 11-2102 of this chapter is in excess of one percent, 18 a portion of the tax received equal to one-half of one percent of the 19 total consideration for the real property or economic interest therein 20 conveyed or transferred, plus any interest or penalty attributable to 21 such portion of the tax.

22 Moneys in such account shall be used for payment by such commissioner 23 to the state comptroller for deposit in the urban mass transit operating 24 assistance account of the mass transportation operating assistance fund 25 of any amount of insufficiency certified by the state comptroller pursuant 26 to the provisions of subdivision six of section eighty-eight-a of 27 the state finance law, and, on the fifteenth day of each month, the 28 commissioner of finance shall transmit all funds in such account on the 29 last day of the preceding month, except the amount required for the 30 payment of any amount of insufficiency certified by the state comptroller 31 and such amount as he or she deems necessary for refunds and 32 such other amounts necessary to finance the New York City transportation 33 disabled committee and the New York City paratransit system as established 34 by section fifteen-b of the transportation law, provided, however, 35 that such amounts shall not exceed six percent of the total funds in 36 the account but in no event be less than one hundred seventy-five thousand 37 dollars beginning April first, nineteen hundred eighty-six, and 38 further that beginning November fifteenth, nineteen hundred eighty-four 39 and during the entire period prior to operation of such system, the 40 total of such amounts shall not exceed three hundred seventy-five thousand 41 dollars for the administrative expenses of such committee and fifty 42 thousand dollars for the expenses of the agency designated pursuant to 43 paragraph b of subdivision five of such section, and other amounts 44 necessary to finance the operating needs of the private bus companies 45 franchised by the city of New York and eligible to receive state operating 46 assistance under section eighteen-b of the transportation law, 47 provided, however, that such amounts shall not exceed four percent of 48 the total funds in the account, to the New York city transit authority 49 for mass transit within the city.

50 § 11-2105 Returns. a. A joint return shall be filed by both the 51 grantor and the grantee for each deed whether or not a tax is due thereon.
52 Such return shall be filed with the commissioner of finance within 53 thirty days after the delivery of the deed by the grantor to the grantee 54 but before the recording of such deed. The commissioner of finance may, 55 by rule, require that such returns be filed electronically.

1 Filing shall be accomplished by delivering the return to the register 2 for transmittal to the commissioner of finance or, where required by the 3 commissioner of finance, by electronic filing of the return in a manner 4 designated by the commissioner of finance. In the case of a transfer of 5 an economic interest in real property, a joint return shall be filed in 6 the above manner by both the grantor and the grantee for each instrument 7 or transaction by which such transfer is effected, whether or not a tax 8 is due thereon. Such return shall be filed with the commissioner of 9 finance, at such place and in such manner as he or she may designate 10 within thirty days after the transfer. The commissioner of finance shall 11 prescribe the form of the return and the information which it shall 12 contain. The return shall be signed by both the grantor or the grantor's 13 agent and the grantee or the grantee's agent. Where the commissioner of 14 finance requires electronic filing, the return shall be signed electron-15 ically. Upon the filing of such return for a deed, evidence of the 16 filing shall be affixed to the deed by the register. The commissioner of 17 finance may provide for the use of stamps as evidence of payment and 18 that they shall be affixed to the deed before it is recorded. Where 19 either the grantor or grantee has failed to sign the return, it shall be 20 accepted as a return, but the party who has failed to sign the return or 21 file a separate return shall be subject to the penalties applicable to a 22 person who has failed to file a return and the period of limitations for 23 assessment of tax or of additional tax shall not apply to such party.
24 For good cause, the commissioner of finance may waive any rule requiring 25 electronic filing and may permit a return to be filed in such other 26 manner as the commissioner of finance may designate.

27 b. Returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until 28 the commissioner of finance permits them to be destroyed.

29 c. The commissioner of finance may require amended returns to be filed 30 within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified
31 in the notice.

32 d. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return 33 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face the commissioner of 34 finance shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a 35 return or of a corrected return.

36 e. Where a deed, or instrument or transaction has more than one gran-37 tor or more than one grantee, the return may be signed by any one of the 38 grantors and by any one of the grantees, provided, however, that those 39 not signing shall not be relieved of any liability for the tax imposed 40 by this chapter.

41 f. The payment of, and the filing of returns relating to, the taxes 42 imposed hereunder, shall be required as a condition precedent to the 43 recording or filing of a deed, lease, assignment or surrender of lease 44 or other instrument effecting a conveyance or transfer subject to such 45 taxes.

46 g. Every cooperative housing corporation shall be required to file an 47 information return with the commissioner of finance as follows: such 48 information return shall be filed by February fifteenth of the year two 49 thousand and of each year thereafter, covering the reporting period
50 beginning on January sixth of the year preceding the filing and ending 51 on January fifth of the year of the filing. For reporting periods begin-52 ning before January sixth, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, such informa-53 tion return shall be filed by July fifteenth of each year covering the 54 preceding period of January first through June thirtieth and by January 55 fifteenth of each year covering the preceding period of July first 56 through December thirty-first provided, however, that for the reporting

1 period from January first through June thirtieth, nineteen hundred 2 eighty-nine, such information return shall be filed by July thirty-3 first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine. The return shall contain such 4 information regarding the transfer of shares of stock in the cooperative 5 housing corporation as the commissioner may deem necessary, including 6 but not limited to, the names, addresses and employer identification 7 numbers or social security numbers of the grantor and the grantee, the 8 number of shares transferred, the date of the transfer and the consider-9 ation paid for such transfer, provided, however, that if such cooper-10 ative housing corporation elects that such information return be deemed 11 an application for an abatement pursuant to paragraph (f) of subdivision 12 three of section four hundred sixty-seven-a of the real property tax 13 law, such return shall contain the information required pursuant to 14 paragraph (d) of subdivision three of such section. The commissioner of 15 finance may enter into an agreement with the commissioner of taxation 16 and finance of the state of New York to provide that a single informa-17 tion return may be filed for purposes of the tax imposed by this chapter 18 and the real estate transfer tax imposed by article thirty-one of the 19 tax law.

20 h. Returns with respect to the conveyance of a one- or two-family 21 dwelling will not be accepted for filing unless accompanied by an affi-22 davit signed by the grantor and grantee indicating that the premises is 23 equipped with an approved and operational smoke detecting device as 24 provided in article six of subchapter seventeen of chapter one of title 25 twenty-seven of this code.

26 i. When the grantor or grantee of a deed for a building used as resi-27 dential real property containing up to four family dwelling units is a 28 limited liability company, the joint return shall not be accepted for 29 filing unless it is accompanied by a document which identifies the names 30 and business addresses of all members, managers, and any other author-31 ized persons, if any, of such limited liability company and the names 32 and business addresses or, if none, the business addresses of all share-33 holders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of any 34 limited liability company or other business entity that are to be the 35 members, managers or authorized persons, if any, of such limited liabil-36 ity company. The identification of such names and addresses shall not be 37 deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to article 38 six of the public officers law. If any such member, manager or author-39 ized person of the limited liability company is itself a limited liabil-40 ity company or other business entity other than a publicly traded enti-41 ty, a REIT, an UPREIT, or a mutual fund, the names and addresses of the 42 shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of the 43 limited liability company or other business entity shall also be 44 disclosed until full disclosure of ultimate ownership by natural persons 45 is achieved. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "members", 46 "managers", "authorized person", "limited liability company" and "other 47 business entity" shall have the same meaning as those terms are defined 48 in section one hundred two of the limited liability company law.

49 § 11-2106 Exemptions. a. The following shall be exempt from the 50 payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and from filing a return:

51 1. The state of New York, or any of its agencies, instrumentalities, 52 public corporations, including a public corporation created pursuant to 53 agreement or compact with another state or the Dominion of Canada, or 54 political subdivisions;

55 2. The United States of America, and any of its agencies and instru-
56 mentalities, insofar, as they are immune from taxation, provided, howev-

1 er, that the exemption of such governmental bodies or persons shall not 2 relieve a grantee from them of liability for the tax or from filing a 3 return.

4 b. The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to any of the 5 following deeds, instruments or transactions:

6 1. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 7 property or an economic interest therein by or to the United Nations or 8 other world-wide international organizations of which the United States 9 of America is a member;

10 2. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 11 property or an economic interest therein by or to any corporation, or 12 association, or trust, or community chest, fund or foundation, organized 13 or operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational 14 purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and 15 no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any 16 private shareholder or individual and no substantial part of the activ-17 ities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to 18 influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph 19 shall include an organization operated for the primary purpose of carry-20 ing on a trade or business for profit, whether or not all of its profits 21 are payable to one or more organizations described in this paragraph;

22 3. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 23 property or an economic interest therein to any governmental body or 24 person exempt from payment of the tax pursuant to subdivision a of this 25 section;

26 4. A deed delivered pursuant to a contract made prior to May first, 27 nineteen hundred fifty-nine;

28 5. A deed delivered by any governmental body or person exempt from 29 payment of the tax pursuant to subdivision a of this section as a result 30 of a sale at a public auction held in accordance with the provisions of 31 a contract made prior to May first, nineteen hundred fifty-nine;

32 6. A deed or instrument given solely as security for, or a transaction 33 the sole purpose of which is to secure, a debt or obligation or a deed 34 or instrument given, or a transaction entered into, solely for the 35 purpose of returning such security;

36 7. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 37 property or an economic interest therein from a mere agent, dummy, straw 38 man or conduit to his principal or a deed, instrument or transaction
39 conveying or transferring real property or an economic interest therein 40 from the principal to his agent, dummy, straw man or conduit.

41 8. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 42 property or an economic interest therein that effects a mere change of 43 identity or form of ownership or organization to the extent the benefi-44 cial ownership of such real property or economic interest therein 45 remains the same, other than a conveyance to a cooperative housing 46 corporation of the land and building or buildings comprising the cooper-47 ative dwelling or dwellings. For purposes of this paragraph, the term 48 "cooperative housing corporation" shall not include a housing company 49 organized and operating pursuant to the provisions of article two, four, 50 five or eleven of the private housing finance law.

51 9. A deed, instrument or transaction conveying or transferring real 52 property or an economic interest therein by or to any housing develop-53 ment fund company organized pursuant to article eleven of the private 54 housing finance law or to an entity, the controlling interest of which 55 is held by such a company, if at the time of such conveyance or trans-56 fer, such real property is subject to, or simultaneously with such

1 conveyance or transfer is made subject to, a regulatory agreement with 2 the state of New York, a municipal corporation or any other public 3 corporation created by or pursuant to any law of the state of New York 4 that: encumbers the real property for thirty years or more, requires 5 mutual consent for revocation or amendment, restricts more than fifty 6 percent of the floor area, other than common areas, to residential real 7 property, and restricts at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent of 8 such residential real property to purchase, lease, license or other use 9 by persons of low income and families of low income within the meaning 10 of section two of the private housing finance law; provided, however, 11 that if such regulatory agreement restricts less than one hundred 12 percent of the floor area, other than common areas, to purchase, lease, 13 license or other use by persons of low income and families of low income 14 within the meaning of section two of the private housing finance law, 15 the tax shall apply to the consideration less the product of the consid-16 eration and a fraction, the numerator of which is the floor area that 17 such regulatory agreement restricts to purchase, lease, license or other 18 use by persons of low income and families of low income within the mean-19 ing of section two of the private housing finance law and the denomina-20 tor of which is the entire floor area, minus the floor area of common 21 areas; provided further, that if such real property is made subject to a 22 regulatory agreement that meets the terms of this paragraph within two 23 years of the conveyance or transfer then the commissioner of finance may 24 issue a refund based on the application of this paragraph pursuant to 25 the provisions of section 11-2108 of this chapter, treating the transfer 26 or conveyance as if such real property were subject to such regulatory 27 agreement as of the date of such transfer or conveyance, if, notwith-28 standing any other time limitation set forth in section 11-2108 of this 29 chapter, application to the commissioner of finance for such refund is 30 made within twelve months of the effective date of such regulatory 31 agreement.

32 c. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, 33 where stock of a cooperative housing corporation and the appurtenant 34 proprietary leasehold are transferred to such cooperative housing corpo-35 ration or a wholly owned subsidiary of such housing corporation, or to 36 the holder of a mortgage on the real property of such cooperative hous-37 ing corporation or a wholly owned subsidiary of such holder of a mort-38 gage on the real property of such cooperative housing corporation, such 39 cooperative housing corporation or its wholly owned subsidiary, or such 40 mortgage holder or its wholly owned subsidiary, shall not be liable as 41 grantee for the tax determined to be due under this chapter from the 42 grantor in such transfer, provided that such transfer occurred pursuant 43 to, as the result of, or in connection with an action, proceeding, or 44 other procedure to which such cooperative housing corporation is a 45 party, to enforce a lien, security interest or other rights on or in 46 such stock and proprietary leasehold, including but not limited to 47 rights under the proprietary lease. This subdivision shall apply to 48 transfers occurring on or after June sixteenth, nineteen hundred nine-49 ty-two.

50 § 11-2107 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter
51 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient,
52 the amount of tax due shall be determined by the commissioner of finance 53 from such information as may be obtainable, including the assessed valu-54 ation of the real property or interest therein. Notice of such determi-55 nation shall be given to the person liable for the tax. Such determi-
56 nation shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person

1 against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after the giving of 2 notice of such determination, or, if the commissioner of finance has 3 established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the 4 code of the preceding municipality and the taxpayer has requested a
5 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 6 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's
7 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 8 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 9 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or, unless the 10 commissioner of finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the 11 same. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en 12 banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in 13 the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
14 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
15 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
16 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing 17 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person
18 against whom the tax is assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A 19 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable
20 for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatso-
21 ever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 22 law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by 23 the person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after 24 the giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision. A
25 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 26 rules shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless: (a) the amount of 27 any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest thereon, if 28 any, shall be first deposited with the commissioner of finance and there 29 shall be filed with the commissioner of finance an undertaking, issued 30 by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and 31 approved by the superintendent of insurance of this state as to solvency
32 and responsibility, in such amount and with such sureties as a justice
33 of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceed-
34 ing be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all costs 35 and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the proceeding; or 36 (b) at the option of the taxpayer such undertaking filed with the 37 commissioner of finance may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes,
38 penalties and interest thereon stated in such decision plus the costs 39 and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the 40 proceeding, in which event the taxpayer shall not be required to deposit 41 such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition precedent to the 42 application.

43 § 11-2108 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 44 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 45 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally 46 collected or paid if application to the commissioner of finance for such 47 refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever 48 a refund is made or denied by the commissioner of finance, the commis-49 sioner shall state his or her reason therefor and give notice thereof to 50 the taxpayer in writing. Such application may be made by the grantor, 51 grantee or other person who has actually paid the tax. The commissioner 52 of finance may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit 53 therefor on payments due from the applicant.

54 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund
55 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 56 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-

1 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the
2 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-3 ant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding municipality and the 4 applicant has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-
5 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 6 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 7 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commission-8 er of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 9 a hearing. Such petition for a refund or credit made as herein provided 10 shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty or 11 interest complained of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals 12 tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in such hearing 13 shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the requirements
14 prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred 15 sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter of the 16 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 17 ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax appeals tribunal shall give 18 notice of its decision to the applicant and the commissioner of finance.
19 The applicant shall be entitled to review such decision of the tax 20 appeals tribunal sitting en banc by a proceeding pursuant to article 21 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided such 22 proceeding is instituted within four months after the giving of notice 23 of such decision, and provided, in the case of an application by a 24 taxpayer, that a final determination of tax due was not previously made.
25 Such a proceeding shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless an under-26 taking is filed with the commissioner of finance in such amount and with 27 such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the 28 effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the 29 taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prose-
30 cution of such proceeding.

31 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
32 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
33 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2107 of this 34 chapter where he or she has had a hearing or an opportunity for a hear-35 ing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 36 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 37 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 38 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-2107 of this chapter 39 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 40 unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal 41 after a hearing, or on the commissioner of finance's own motion, or, if 42 such tax appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the determination 43 of the commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-44 eight of the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of 45 said section, in which event refund or credit without interest shall be 46 made of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

47 § 11-2109 Reserves. In cases where the grantor or grantee has 48 applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding under article
49 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to review a determi-50 nation adverse to him or her on his or her application for refund, the 51 comptroller shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision 52 adverse to the city.

53 § 11-2110 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
54 11-2107 and 11-2108 of this chapter shall be exclusive remedies avail-
55 able to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this chap-
56 ter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or determi-

1 nation on any application for refund shall be enjoined or reviewed by an 2 action for declaratory judgment, an action for money had and received or 3 by any action or proceeding other than a proceeding in the nature of a 4 certiorari proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 5 law and rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declar-6 atory judgment if he or she institutes suit within thirty days after a 7 deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency 8 assessment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of 9 such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-2107 of 10 this chapter.

11 § 11-2111 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any grantor or 12 grantee shall fail to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this 13 chapter as herein provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the 14 request of the commissioner of finance bring or cause to be brought an 15 action to enforce the payment of the same on behalf of the city of 16 Staten Island in any court of the state of New York or of any other
17 state or of the United States. If, however, the commissioner of finance 18 in his or her discretion believes that any such grantor or grantee 19 subject to the provisions of this chapter is about to cease business,
20 leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which the tax 21 or penalty might be satisfied, and that any such tax or penalty will not 22 be paid when due, such commissioner may declare such tax or penalty to 23 be immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

24 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance 25 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding him or her 26 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the grantor, 27 grantee or other person liable for the tax which may be found within the 28 city, for the payment of the amount thereof, with any penalty and inter-29 est, and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant 30 to the commissioner of finance and to pay to him or her the money 31 collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of such 32 warrant. The city sheriff shall within five days after the receipt of 33 the warrant file with the county clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon 34 such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person 35 mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax, penalty and interest 36 for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed.
37 Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien 38 upon the title to and the interest in real and personal property of the 39 person against whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then 40 proceed upon the warrant in the same manner, and with like effect, as 41 that provided by law in respect to executions issued against property 42 upon judgments of a court of record and for services in executing the 43 warrant he or she shall be entitled to the same fees, which such sheriff 44 may collect in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner 45 of finance a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and 46 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance, and in 47 the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
48 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 49 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 50 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-
51 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 52 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 53 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 54 returned unsatisfied.

55 c. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
56 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as

1 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from
2 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
3 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 4 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be
5 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
6 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 7 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

8 § 11-2112 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 9 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, he 10 or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

11 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 12 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

13 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 14 period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 15 connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

16 3. To request information from the tax commission of the state of New 17 York or the treasury department of the United States relative to any 18 person; and to afford returns, reports and other information to such tax 19 commission or such treasury department relative to any person, any other 20 provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

21 4. To delegate his or her functions under this section to a deputy 22 commissioner of finance or any employee or employees of the department 23 of finance;

24 5. To prescribe the methods for determining the consideration and net 25 consideration attributable to that portion of real property located 26 partly within and partly without the city of Staten Island which is 27 located within the city of Staten Island or any interest therein;

28 6. To require any grantor or grantee to keep such records, and for 29 such length of time as may be required for the proper administration of 30 this chapter and to furnish such records to the commissioner of finance 31 upon request;

32 7. To assess, determine, revise and adjust the taxes imposed under 33 this chapter.

34 § 11-2113 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 35 commissioner of finance, his or her employees or agents duly designated 36 and authorized by him or her, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its 37 duly designated and authorized employees or agents shall have power to 38 administer oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or 39 proceeding in the exercise of their powers and duties under this chap-40 ter. The commissioner of finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall have 41 power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the 42 production of books, papers and documents to secure information perti-43 nent to the performance of the duties of the commissioner or of the tax 44 appeals tribunal under this chapter and of the enforcement of this chap-
45 ter and to examine them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions 46 for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to 47 attend before such commissioner or the tax appeals tribunal or excused 48 from attendance.

49 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 50 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 51 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 52 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 53 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

54 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
55 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for

1 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
2 title.

3 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 4 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal and witnesses attending in 5 response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 6 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as 7 herein otherwise provided. Such officers shall be the city sheriff and 8 his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers or employees of the 9 department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, designated to serve 10 such process.

11 § 11-2114 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 12 any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 13 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment, 14 interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner of finance 15 pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate is set, at 16 the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be paid for the 17 period from such last date to the date of payment. In computing the 18 amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be compounded daily.
19 Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof
20 is less than one dollar.

21 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
22 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 23 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 24 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 25 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 26 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 27 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 28 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 29 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

30 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
31 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
32 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
33 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
34 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 35 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 36 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

37 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 38 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 39 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 40 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed 41 upon the return.

42 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 43 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
44 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
45 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 46 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 47 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 48 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 49 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-50 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
51 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 52 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 53 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-54 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 55 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be

1 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
2 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

3 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 4 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 5 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
6 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-2107 of this chap-
7 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless 8 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 9 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in 10 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
11 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one 12 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 13 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
14 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 15 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 16 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

17 (4) Limitations on additions.

18 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-
19 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 20 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 21 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two of this subdivi-
22 sion. In any case described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this 23 subdivision, the amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall 24 not be reduced below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

25 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition 26 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 27 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
28 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one,
29 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
30 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

31 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment
32 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 33 any rules or regulations hereunder, but without intent to defraud, there 34 shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the under-
35 payment.

36 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
37 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 38 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
39 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
40 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
41 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 42 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
43 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
44 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

45 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 46 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 47 fifty percent of the underpayment.

48 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty deter-
49 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty
50 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
51 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
52 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 53 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
54 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 55 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 56 tax.

1 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
2 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

3 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 4 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 5 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
6 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not
7 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts
8 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 9 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 10 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 11 penalty under this subdivision.

12 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
13 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
14 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 15 tax imposed by this chapter.

16 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance
17 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 18 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
19 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate 20 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 21 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 22 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 23 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 24 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 25 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
26 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

27 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
28 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 29 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

30 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

31 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
32 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
33 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
34 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 35 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 36 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 37 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
38 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

39 (B) Period during which rate applies.

40 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
41 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
42 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 43 such month.

44 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
45 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 46 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 47 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

48 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall
49 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
50 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
51 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
52 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 53 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-
54 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the
55 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 56 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

1 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner to the 2 effect that a tax has not been paid or that information has not been 3 supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be presumptive 4 evidence thereof.

5 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of 6 this title.

7 (i) Failure to file information return. If a cooperative housing 8 corporation fails to file an information return required under subdivi-9 sion g of section 11-2105 of this chapter on or before the prescribed 10 date, determined with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless 11 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 12 willful neglect, there shall be imposed on such cooperative housing 13 corporation a penalty of one hundred dollars for each such failure.

14 § 11-2115 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 15 judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful 16 for the commissioner of finance, register or tax appeals tribunal or any 17 officer or employee of the department of finance, register or tax
18 appeals tribunal to divulge or make known in any manner any information 19 contained in or relating to any return provided for by this chapter. The 20 officers charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required 21 to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any 22 action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner 23 of finance in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chap-24 ter, or on behalf of any party to an action or proceeding under the 25 provisions of this chapter when the returns or facts shown thereby are 26 directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which 27 events the court may require the production of, and may admit in 28 evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are 29 pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. Nothing in this 30 section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a grantor or 31 grantee of a deed or to any subsequent owner of the real property 32 conveyed by such deed or to the duly authorized representative of any of 33 them of a certified copy of any return filed in connection with the tax 34 on such deed; nor to prohibit the delivery of such a certified copy of 35 such return or of any information contained in or relating thereto to 36 the United States of America or any department thereof, the state of New 37 York or any department thereof, the city of Staten Island or any depart-38 ment thereof provided the same is required for official business; nor to 39 prohibit the inspection for official business of such returns by the 40 register, the corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the 41 city or by the district attorney of Richmond county; nor to prohibit the 42 publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification 43 of particular returns or items thereof.

44 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 45 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 46 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
47 period of five years thereafter.

48 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of 49 this title.

50 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
51 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
52 cers law.

53 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 54 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 55 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
56 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-

1 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
2 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
3 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be
4 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax
5 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 6 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the 7 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
8 teen hundred ninety-four.

9 e. This section shall not apply to any information contained in or 10 relating to a return filed on or after the first day of January, two 11 thousand three with respect to a transaction or transfer occurring on or 12 after that date; provided, however, that this section shall continue to 13 apply to any social security account number contained in any report or 14 return pursuant to this chapter.

15 § 11-2116 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized
16 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
17 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
18 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed 19 by him or her pursuant to the provisions of this chapter in any applica-20 tion made by him or her, or in any deed or instrument which is the 21 subject of the notice, or, if no return has been filed or application 22 made or address stated in the deed or instrument, then to such address 23 as may be obtainable. The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive 24 evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed.
25 Any period of time which is determined according to the provisions of 26 this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date 27 of mailing of such notice.

28 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
29 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
30 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy,
31 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 32 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a
33 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no
34 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more 35 than three years from the date of the filing of a return; provided,
36 however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax 37 may be assessed at any time.

38 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed in this 39 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has 40 consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such 41 additional tax due may be determined at any time within such extended 42 period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent 43 consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

44 d. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, if any return, 45 claim, statement, notice, application, or other document required to be 46 filed, or any payment required to be made, within a prescribed period or 47 on or before a prescribed date under authority of any provision of this 48 chapter is, after such period or such date, delivered by United States 49 mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, 50 office, officer or person with which or with whom such document is 51 required to be filed, or to which or to whom such payment is required to 52 be made, the date of the United States postmark stamped on the envelope 53 shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This subdivision shall apply 54 only if the postmark date falls within the prescribed period or on or 55 before the prescribed date for the filing of such document, or for 56 making the payment, including any extension granted for such filing or

1 payment, and only if such document or payment was deposited in the mail, 2 postage prepaid, properly addressed to the commissioner of finance, the 3 tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or 4 with whom the document is required to be filed or to which or to whom 5 such payment is required to be made. If any document is sent by United 6 States registered mail, such registration shall be prima facie evidence 7 that such document was delivered to the commissioner of finance, the tax 8 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person to which or to whom 9 addressed, and the date of registration shall be deemed the postmark
10 date. The commissioner of finance and, where relevant, the tax appeals 11 tribunal are authorized to provide by regulation the extent to which the 12 provisions of the preceding sentence with respect to prima facie
13 evidence of delivery and the postmark date shall apply to certified
14 mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this subdivi-
15 sion shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United States 16 postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation of the 17 commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal.
18 Any return filed electronically shall be deemed to be filed on the date 19 of issuance by the commissioner of finance of a confirmation.

20 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
21 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
22 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 23 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
24 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

25 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
26 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
27 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
28 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
29 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 30 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
31 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
32 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
33 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
34 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
35 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
36 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 37 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 38 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 39 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 40 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 41 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
42 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
43 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 44 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 45 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 46 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 47 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 48 finance, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 49 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 50 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 51 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 52 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

53 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 54 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 55 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 56 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred

1 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
2 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this
3 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 4 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
5 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
6 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 7 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 8 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 9 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 10 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 11 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

12 § 11-2117 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 13 construed and enforced in conformity with chapter ninety-three of the 14 laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, as amended.

15 § 11-2118 Disposition of revenues. Except as otherwise provided, all 16 revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under this chapter 17 shall be paid into the treasury of the city and shall be credited to and 18 deposited in the general fund of the city. Except as otherwise 19 provided, no part of such revenues may be expended unless appropriated 20 in the annual budget of the city.

21 § 11-2119 Foreclosure proceedings. Where the conveyance consists of a 22 transfer of property made as a result of an order of the court in a 23 foreclosure proceeding ordering the sale of such property, the referee 24 or sheriff effectuating the transfer shall not be liable for any inter-25 est or penalties authorized by this chapter or chapter forty of this 26 title.

37 section four hundred of the vehicle and traffic law and of subdivision 38 ten of section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law to the 39 contrary, a tax of fifteen dollars per annum is hereby imposed:

40 1. With respect to each motor vehicle registered or required to be 12 mentalities insofar as it is immune from taxation;

13 (5) the United Nations or other international organizations of which 14 the United States of America is a member;

15 (6) any corporation, or association, or trust, or community chest,

22 this subdivision shall include an organization operated for the primary 23 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 24 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 25 this subdivision.

26 § 11-2204 Payment of tax and evidence of tax payment. Every owner of 27 a motor vehicle subject to tax under this chapter shall pay the tax 28 thereon to the commissioner of motor vehicles of the state of New York 29 on or before the date upon which he or she registers or renews his or 30 her registration thereof or is required to register or renew his or her 31 registration thereof pursuant to section four hundred one of the vehicle 32 and traffic law.

33 Notwithstanding the provisions of section four hundred of the vehicle 34 and traffic law to the contrary, the payment of such tax shall be a 35 condition precedent to the registration or renewal thereof of such motor 36 vehicle and to the issuance of any certificate of registration and 37 plates or removable tag specified in subdivision three of section four 38 hundred one and in sections four hundred three and four hundred four of 39 the vehicle and traffic law, and no such certificate of registration, 40 plates or tag shall be issued unless such tax has been paid. The 41 commissioner of motor vehicles shall not issue a registration certifi-42 cate for any motor vehicle for which the registrant's address is with-43 in any such city, except upon proof, in a form approved by the commis-44 sioner of motor vehicles, that such tax has been paid, or is not due, 45 with respect to such motor vehicle. The commissioner of motor vehicles, 46 upon the payment of such tax or upon the application of any person 47 exempt therefrom, shall furnish to each taxpayer paying the tax a 48 receipt for such tax and to each such taxpayer or exempt person a state-49 ment, document or other form approved by the commissioner of motor vehi-50 cles, showing that such tax has been paid or is not due, with respect to 51 such motor vehicle.

52 § 11-2205 Returns. a. At the time the payment of the tax imposed by 53 this chapter becomes due, every person subject to tax under this chapter 54 shall file a return with the commissioner of motor vehicles in form and 55 containing such information as may be prescribed by such commissioner of 56 motor vehicles. The taxpayer's application for registration or the 1 renewal of registration shall constitute the return required under this 2 chapter, unless the commissioner of motor vehicles, by regulation, shall 3 otherwise provide.

4 b. Returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until 5 the commissioner of motor vehicles permits them to be destroyed.

6 c. The commissioner of motor vehicles may require amended returns or 7 certificates of facts to be filed within twenty days after notice and to 8 contain the information specified in the notice. Any such certificate 9 shall be deemed to be part of the return required to be filed.

10 d. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return 11 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face the commissioner of 12 motor vehicles or the commissioner of finance if designated as his or 13 her agent shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a 14 return or of a corrected return.

15 § 11-2206 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter 16 is not filed or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, or 17 if a tax or any part thereof due pursuant to this chapter be not paid 18 when required, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the commis-19 sioner of motor vehicles or by the commissioner of finance if designated 20 as his or her agent, from such information as may be obtainable, includ-21 ing motor vehicle registration with the department of motor vehicles of 22 the state of New York or other factors. Notice of such determination 23 shall be given to the person liable for the tax. Such a determination by 24 the commissioner of motor vehicles shall finally and irrevocably fix the 25 tax unless the person against whom it is assessed, within ninety days 26 after the giving of notice of such determination, shall apply to the 27 commissioner of motor vehicles for a hearing, or unless such commis-
28 sioner of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same. If the commis-29 sioner of finance is designated as the agent of the commissioner of 30 motor vehicles, such a determination by the commissioner of finance 31 shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom 32 it is assessed, within ninety days after the giving of such determi-
33 nation, or, if the commissioner of finance has established a concil-34 iation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding 35 municipality and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in 36 accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing of a concil-37 iation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the 38 discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a peti-
39 tion upon the commissioner of finance and (2) applies to the tax appeals 40 tribunal for a hearing by filing a petition, or unless the commissioner 41 of finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same. A hear-42 ing following a petition to the tax appeals tribunal and any appeal to 43 the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in 44 such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the 45 requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections
46 one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter
47 of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen 48 hundred ninety-four. After such hearing by the commissioner of motor 49 vehicles or the tax appeals tribunal, the commissioner of motor vehi-50 cles, if he or she holds the hearing, or the tax appeals tribunal if the 51 tax appeals tribunal holds the hearing, shall give notice of the deter-52 mination or decision to the person against whom the tax is assessed and 53 in the case of a tax appeals tribunal decision, to the commissioner of 54 finance. Such determination by the commissioner of motor vehicles, or a 55 decision of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable
56 for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatso-

1 ever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice 2 law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by 3 the person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after 4 the giving of the notice of such determination or tax appeals tribunal
5 decision. A proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-6 tice law and rules shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless (a) the 7 amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest 8 thereon, if any, shall be first deposited with the commissioner of motor 9 vehicles and there shall be filed with the commissioner of motor vehi-10 cles an undertaking, issued by a surety company authorized to transact 11 business in this state and approved by the superintendent of insurance 12 of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as a 13 justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such 14 proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer will pay all 15 costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of the proceeding; 16 or (b) at the option of the taxpayer such undertaking filed with the 17 commissioner of motor vehicles may be in a sum sufficient to cover the 18 taxes, penalties and interest thereon stated in such determination or 19 decision, plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the 20 prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the taxpayer shall not be 21 required to deposit such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition
22 precedent to the application.

23 § 11-2207 Refunds for certain unused registrations. Whenever any fee 24 or portion of a fee paid for the registration of a motor vehicle under 25 the provisions of the vehicle and traffic law is refunded pursuant to 26 the provisions of subdivision one of section four hundred twenty-eight 27 of the vehicle and traffic law, the amount of any tax paid pursuant to 28 this chapter upon such registration shall also be refunded by the 29 commissioner.

30 § 11-2208 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 31 commissioner of motor vehicles shall refund or credit, without interest, 32 any tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitu-33 tionally collected or paid if application for such refund shall be made 34 within one year from the payment thereof to the commissioner of motor 35 vehicles or to the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her 36 agent. Whenever a refund is made or denied, the reasons therefor shall 37 be stated in writing by the commissioner of motor vehicles or by the 38 commissioner of finance, as the case may be, who in lieu of any refund, 39 may allow credit therefor on payments due from the applicant.

40 b. (1) If the commissioner of motor vehicles has not designated the 41 commissioner of finance as his or her agent, application for a refund or 42 credit made as provided under this section shall be deemed an applica-43 tion for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained of and 44 the commissioner of motor vehicles shall hold a hearing and receive 45 evidence with respect thereto. After such hearing, the commissioner of 46 motor vehicles shall give notice of the determination of such applica-47 tion to the applicant who shall be entitled to review such determination 48 by a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice 49 law and rules, provided such proceeding is instituted within four months 50 after the giving of notice of such determination, and provided that a 51 final determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a proceed-52 ing shall not be instituted unless an undertaking is filed with the 53 commissioner of motor vehicles in such amount and with such sureties as 54 a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such 55 proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the petitioner will pay

1 all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such 2 proceeding.

3 (2) If the commissioner of motor vehicles has designated the commis-4 sioner of finance as his or her agent, a determination of the commis-5 sioner of finance denying a refund or credit pursuant to subdivision a 6 of this section shall be final and irrevocable unless the applicant for 7 such refund or credit, within ninety days from the mailing of notice of 8 such determination, or, if the commissioner of finance has established a 9 conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the code of the 10 preceding municipality and the applicant has requested a conciliation
11 conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing
12 of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirma-
13 tion of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1)
14 serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a peti-
15 tion with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing. Such petition for a 16 refund or credit, made as provided under this section, shall be deemed 17 an application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained
18 of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en 19 banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in 20 the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals
21 tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one
22 hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it
23 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, 24 the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the appli-
25 cant and to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall be entitled 26 to institute a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 27 practice law and rules to review a decision of the tax appeals tribunal
28 sitting en banc if application to the supreme court be made therefor 29 within four months after the giving of notice of such decision, and 30 provided, in the case of an application by a taxpayer, that a final
31 determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a proceeding
32 shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless an undertaking shall first 33 be filed with the commissioner of motor vehicles, in such amount and 34 with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to 35 the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, 36 the taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the 37 prosecution of such proceeding.

38 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
39 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which has been deter-
40 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2206 of this 41 chapter where he or she has had a hearing or an opportunity for a hear-42 ing, as provided in such section, or has failed to avail himself or 43 herself of the remedies provided in such section. No refund or credit 44 shall be made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination 45 made pursuant to section 11-2206 of this chapter, unless it be found 46 that such determination was erroneous, illegal or unconstitutional or 47 otherwise improper after a hearing, or on his or her own motion, by the 48 commissioner of motor vehicles or after a hearing by the tax appeals 49 tribunal, or on his or her own motion by the commissioner of finance, as 50 the case may be, or in a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the 51 civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of said
52 section, in which event refund or credit without interest shall be made
53 of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

54 § 11-2209 Reserves. In cases where a taxpayer has applied for a
55 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 56 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 1 such taxpayer on his or her application for refund, the commissioner of 2 motor vehicles shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision 3 adverse to the city.

4 § 11-2210 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
5 11-2206 and 11-2208 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies
6 available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this 7 chapter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or deter-8 mination on any application for refund by the commissioner of motor 9 vehicles or by the commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax 10 appeals tribunal or any of its administrative law judges, shall be 11 enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 12 for money had and received or by any action or proceeding other than, in 13 the case of a final determination by the commissioner of motor vehicles 14 or a decision by the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding 15 in the nature of a certiorari proceeding under article seventy-eight of 16 the civil practice law and rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may 17 proceed by declaratory judgment if he or she institutes suit within 18 thirty days after a deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of 19 the deficiency assessment to the commissioner of motor vehicles prior to 20 the institution of such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in 21 section 11-2206 of this chapter.

22 § 11-2211 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 23 fail to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this chapter, the 24 corporation counsel, upon the request of the commissioner of motor vehi-25 cles or of the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her 26 agent, shall bring or cause to be brought an action to enforce the 27 payment of the same on behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court 28 of the state of New York or of any other state of the United States.
29 However, if in his or her discretion the commissioner of motor vehicles, 30 or the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her agent, 31 believes that any such person subject to the provisions of this chapter 32 is about to cease business, leave the state or remove or dissipate the 33 assets out of which the tax or penalty might be satisfied, and that any 34 such tax or penalty will not be paid when due, he or she may declare 35 such tax or penalty to be immediately due and payable and may issue a 36 warrant immediately.

37 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of motor 38 vehicles, or the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her 39 agent, may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding him 40 or her to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the 41 person liable for the tax which may be found within the city, for the 42 payment of the amount thereof, with any penalty and interest, and the 43 cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the person 44 who issued it and to pay to him or her the money collected by virtue 45 thereof within sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The city 46 sheriff shall within five days after the receipt of the warrant file 47 with the county clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall 48 enter in the judgment docket the name of the person mentioned in the 49 warrant and the amount of the tax, penalty and interest for which the 50 warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereupon the 51 amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to 52 and the interest in real and personal property of the person against 53 whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed upon 54 the warrant in the same manner, and with like effect, as that provided 55 by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments 56 of a court of record and for services in executing the warrant such

1 sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees, which he or she may collect 2 in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of motor 3 vehicles, or of the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her 4 agent, a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and 5 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance of the 6 city, and in the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have 7 all the powers conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to 8 no fee or compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the 9 performance of such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in 10 full, the commissioner of motor vehicles or the commissioner of finance, 11 as the case may be, may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 12 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 13 he or she had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 14 returned unsatisfied.

15 c. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
16 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 17 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 18 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
19 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 20 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 21 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
22 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 23 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

24 § 11-2212 General powers of the commissioner of motor vehicles. In 25 addition to the powers granted to the commissioner of motor vehicles in 26 this chapter, he or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

27 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 28 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

29 2. For cause shown, to remit penalties; and to compromise disputed 30 claims in connection with the taxes imposed under this chapter;

31 3. To request information concerning motor vehicles and persons
32 subject to the provisions of this chapter from the department of motor 33 vehicles of any other state or the treasury department of the United 34 States, or any city or county of the state of New York; and to afford 35 such information to such other state, treasury department, city or coun-
36 ty, any provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

37 4. To delegate his or her functions under this section to a deputy 38 commissioner in the department of motor vehicles or any employee or 39 employees of his or her department or to any county clerk or other offi-40 cer who acts as the agent of such commissioner in the registration of 41 motor vehicles;

42 5. To prescribe methods for determining the tax;

43 6. To require all persons owning motor vehicles subject to tax to 44 keep such records as he or she may prescribe and to furnish such infor-45 mation upon his or her request;

46 7. To request the police department of the city to assist in the 47 enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

48 § 11-2213 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 49 commissioner of motor vehicles or his or her employees or agents duly 50 designated and authorized by such commissioner, and the tax appeals 51 tribunal, shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits in 52 relation to any matter or proceeding in the exercise of the powers and 53 duties under this chapter. The commissioner of motor vehicles, or the 54 commissioner of finance if designated as his or her agent or the tax 55 appeals tribunal, shall have the power to subpoena and require the 56 attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and docu-

1 ments to secure information pertinent to the performance of the duties 2 of the commissioner of motor vehicles, the commissioner of finance or 3 the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to this chapter and of the enforcement 4 of this chapter and to examine them in relation thereto, and to issue 5 commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or 6 unable to attend before him or her or the tax appeals tribunal or 7 excused from attendance.

8 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 9 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 10 testimony of witnesses and production and examination of books, papers 11 and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of motor 12 vehicles, or, if the commissioner of finance is designated as his or her 13 agent under this chapter, of the commissioner of finance and the tax 14 appeals tribunal.

15 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas 16 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 17 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
18 title.

19 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 20 of motor vehicles, or the commissioner of finance if designated as his 21 or her agent, or the tax appeals tribunal if the commissioner of finance 22 is designated as the agent of the commissioner of motor vehicles, and 23 witnesses attending in response thereto shall be entitled to the same 24 fees as are allowed to officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts 25 of record, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such officers 26 shall be the city sheriff and his or her duly appointed deputies, or any 27 officers or employees of the department of motor vehicles designated by 28 the commissioner of motor vehicles to serve such process or any officers 29 or employees of the department of finance of the city designated by the 30 commissioner of finance to serve such process or any officers or employ-31 ees of the tax appeals tribunal designated to serve such process.

32 § 11-2214 Penalties and interest. a. Any person failing to file a 33 return or to pay any tax or any portion thereof within the time required 34 by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of five times the amount 35 of the tax due, plus interest of five percent of such tax for each month 36 of delay or fraction thereof, but the commissioner of motor vehicles, or 37 the commissioner of finance if designated as his or her agent, if satis-38 fied that the delay was excusable, may remit all or any part of such 39 penalty, but not interest at the rate of six percent per year. Penal-40 ties and interest shall be paid and disposed of in the same manner as 41 other revenues under this chapter. Unpaid penalties and interest may be 42 enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter.

43 b. The certificate of the commissioner of motor vehicles or of the 44 commissioner of finance if designated as his or her agent to the effect 45 that a tax has not been paid, or that a return required by this chapter 46 has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant 47 to the provisions of this chapter shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

48 c. Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this 49 title.

50 § 11-2215 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 51 judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for 52 the commissioner of motor vehicles, any officer or employee of the 53 department of motor vehicles, the commissioner of finance, any officer 54 or employee of the department of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, any 55 commissioner or employee of such tribunal, any agent of the commissioner 56 of motor vehicles, or any person who, pursuant to this section, is

1 permitted to inspect any return or to whom a copy, an abstract or 2 portion of any return is furnished, or to whom any information contained 3 in any return is furnished to divulge or make known in any manner any 4 information contained in or relating to any return provided for by this 5 chapter. The officers charged with the custody of such returns shall 6 not be required to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained 7 in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of 8 the commissioner of motor vehicles or the commissioner of finance in an 9 action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter, or on behalf 10 of any party to an action or proceeding under the provisions of this 11 chapter when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in 12 such action or proceeding, in either of which events the court may 13 require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said 14 returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action or 15 proceeding and no more. The commissioner of motor vehicles may, never-16 theless, publish a copy or a summary of any determination or decision 17 rendered after a formal hearing held pursuant to section 11-2206 or 18 11-2208 of this chapter. Nothing under this section shall be construed 19 to prohibit the delivery to a person or his or her duly authorized 20 representative of a certified copy of any return filed by him or her 21 pursuant to this chapter, or of the receipt, document or other form 22 issued pursuant to section 11-2204 of this chapter, or a duplicate copy 23 thereof; nor to prohibit the delivery of such a certified copy of such 24 return or of any information contained in or relating thereto, to the 25 United States of America or any department thereof, the state of New 26 York or any department thereof, the city of Staten Island or any depart-27 ment thereof provided the same is required for official business; nor to 28 prohibit the inspection for official business of such returns by the 29 corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city or by the 30 district attorney of Richmond county; nor to prohibit the publication of 31 statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular 32 returns or items thereof.

33 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the state of New York or the city
34 who willfully violates the provisions of subdivision a of this section 35 shall be dismissed from office and be incapable of holding any public 36 office in the state of New York or this city for a period of five years 37 thereafter.

38 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
39 title.

40 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
41 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
42 cers law.

43 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 44 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 45 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
46 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
47 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-48 ized to present to the tax appeals tribunal any report or return of such 49 taxpayer, or any information contained therein or relating thereto, 50 which may be material or relevant to the proceeding before the tax 51 appeals tribunal. The tax appeals tribunal shall be authorized to 52 publish a copy or a summary of any decision rendered pursuant to section 53 one hundred seventy-one of the charter of the preceding municipality as 54 it existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four.

55 § 11-2216 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized or 56 required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing

1 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
2 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed 3 by him or her pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, in any appli-4 cation made by him or her, or in any application for registration made 5 by him or her pursuant to section four hundred one of the vehicle and 6 traffic law or, if no return has been filed or application made, then to 7 such address as may be obtainable. The mailing of such notice shall be 8 presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom 9 addressed. Any period of time which is determined according to the 10 provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run 11 from the date of mailing of such notice.

12 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
13 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy 14 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the commissioner of 15 motor vehicles, or the commissioner of finance if designated as his or 16 her agent, to levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the 17 collection of any tax or penalty provided by this chapter. However, 18 except in the case of a wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent 19 to evade the tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after 20 the expiration of more than three years from the date of the filing of a 21 return; provided, however, that where no return has been filed as 22 provided by law the tax may be assessed at any time.

23 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed under this 24 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has 25 consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such 26 additional tax may be determined at any time within such extended peri-27 od. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent 28 consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

29 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other
30 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
31 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority 32 of any provision of this title is, after such period or such date, 33 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of motor vehicles,
34 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-35 cer or person with which or with whom such document is required to be 36 filed, or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made, the 37 date of the United States postmark stamped on the envelope shall be 38 deemed to be the date of delivery. This subdivision shall apply only if 39 the postmark date falls within the prescribed period or on or before the 40 prescribed date for the filing of such document, or for making the 41 payment, including any extension granted for such filing or payment, and 42 only if such document or payment was deposited in the mail, postage
43 prepaid, properly addressed to the commissioner of motor vehicles,
44 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
45 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 46 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 47 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 48 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the 49 commissioner of motor vehicles, commissioner of finance, the tax appeals 50 tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person to which or to whom 51 addressed, and the date of registration shall be deemed the postmark 52 date. The commissioner of motor vehicles is authorized to provide by 53 regulation the extent to which, such provisions with respect to prima
54 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date, shall apply to certi-
55 fied mail. This subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not

1 made by the United States Postal Service only if and to the extent 2 provided by regulation of the commissioner of motor vehicles.

3 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this title, includ-
4 ing any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a Saturday, 5 Sunday or legal holiday in the state of New York, the performance of 6 such act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next 7 succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

8 § 11-2217 Commissioner of finance as agent. The commissioner of motor 9 vehicles is hereby authorized to designate the commissioner of finance 10 as his or her agent to exercise any or all of his or her functions and 11 powers specified or provided for in subdivision (d) of section 11-2205 12 and in sections 11-2206, 11-2208, 11-2211, 11-2213, 11-2214 and 11-2216
13 of this chapter. Where the commissioner of finance has been so desig-14 nated as agent, the commissioner of finance, in addition to the powers 15 elsewhere granted to him or her in this chapter, is hereby authorized 16 and empowered:

17 1. To delegate such functions and powers to a commissioner or deputy 18 commissioner in the department of finance or to any employee or employ-19 ees of the department of finance;

20 2. For cause shown, to remit penalties and to compromise disputed 21 claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

22 3. To request information concerning motor vehicles and persons
23 subject to the provisions of this chapter from the department of motor 24 vehicles of any other state or the treasury department of the United 25 States, or any city or county of the state of New York; and to afford 26 such information to such other state, treasury department, city or coun-
27 ty, any provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

28 4. To request the police department of the city to assist in the 29 enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

30 § 11-2218 Agreement between commissioner of finance and commissioner 31 of motor vehicles. The commissioner of finance is hereby authorized and 32 empowered to enter into an agreement with the commissioner of motor 33 vehicles to govern the administration and collection of the taxes 34 imposed by this chapter, which agreement shall provide for the exclusive 35 method of collection of such taxes, custody and remittal of the proceeds 36 of such tax; for the payment by the city of the reasonable expenses 37 incurred by the department of motor vehicles in collecting and adminis-38 tering such tax; and for the audit, upon request of the commissioner of 39 finance or his or her delegate, of the accuracy of the payments, 40 distributions and remittances to the commissioner of finance pursuant to 41 the provisions of this chapter, to be conducted at a time agreed upon by 42 the state comptroller and to be allowed not more frequently than once in 43 each calendar year. Such agreement shall have the force and effect of a 44 rule or regulation of the commissioner of motor vehicles, and shall be 45 filed and published in accordance with any statutory requirements relat-46 ing thereto.

47 § 11-2219 Notification to corporation counsel. The commissioner of 48 motor vehicles shall promptly notify the corporation counsel of the city 49 of any litigation instituted against him or her which challenges the 50 constitutionality or validity of any provision of this chapter, or of 51 the enabling act pursuant to which it was adopted, or which attempts to 52 limit or question the applicability of either such law, and such notifi-53 cation shall include a copy of the papers served upon him or her.

54 § 11-2220 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 55 construed and enforced in conformity with subdivisions (g) and (h) of 1 section twelve hundred one of the tax law, pursuant to which it is 2 enacted.

3 § 11-2221 Disposition of revenues. All revenues resulting from the 4 imposition of the tax under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury
5 of the city and shall be credited to and deposited in the general fund
6 of the city, but no part of such revenues may be expended unless appro-
7 priated in the annual budget of the city.

8 CHAPTER 23-A
9 ENHANCED 911 TELEPHONE SURCHARGE

10 § 11-2321 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as 12 § 11-2322 Definitions. When used in this chapter the following terms 13 shall mean:

14 (a) "E911 system" means an enhanced emergency telephone service which 15 automatically connects a person dialing the digits 9-1-1 to the answer-

37 costs and the telephone services costs necessary to establish and 38 provide an E911 system.

39 (i) "Voice over internet protocol service" or "VOIP service" shall 40 mean any service that (1) enables real-time, two-way voice communi-41 cations; (2) requires a broadband connection from the user's location; 42 (3) requires internet protocol compatible customer premises equipment 43 (CPE); and (4) permits users generally to receive calls that originate 44 on the public switched telephone network and to terminate calls to the 45 public switched telephone network.

46 § 11-2323 Establishment of surcharge for E911 system. (a) In accord-47 ance with the provisions of article six of the county law, as amended, 48 there is hereby established a surcharge of one dollar per telephone 49 access line, or equivalent, per month on the customers of every service 50 supplier within the city of New York.

51 (b) The surcharge imposed by subdivision (a) of this section shall be 52 used to pay for the costs associated with obtaining, operating and main-53 taining the telecommunication equipment and telephone services needed to 1 provide an enhanced 911 emergency telephone system to serve the city of 2 New York.

3 (c) All service suppliers that provide local access service within the 4 911 service area in the city of New York shall begin to add the monthly 5 surcharge of one dollar per telephone access line per month as provided 6 in subdivision (a) of this section to all service bills no later than 7 the forty-fifth day after the effective date of the local law that 8 increased such surcharge to one dollar per telephone access line per 9 month. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, all provid-10 ers of voice over internet protocol service that provide such service 11 within the 911 service area shall begin to add the monthly surcharge of 12 one dollar per telephone access line, or equivalent, per month as 13 provided in subdivision (a) of this section to all service bills no 14 later than September fifth, two thousand ten.

15 § 11-2324 Application; limitations; exemptions. (a) The surcharge 16 established pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2323 of this chap-17 ter shall be imposed on a per access line basis on all current bills 18 rendered for local exchange access service within the 911 service area.

19 (b) No such surcharge shall be imposed upon:

20 (1) more than seventy-five exchange access lines per customer per 21 location;

22 (2) any lifeline customers of a local telephone service supplier; or 23 (3) a public safety agency; or

24 (4) any municipality, as defined in subdivision (e) of section 11-2322
25 of this chapter.

26 § 11-2325 Collection of surcharge. (a) The appropriate service suppli-27 er or suppliers serving the city of Staten Island 911 service area shall 28 act as collection agents for the city and shall remit the funds 29 collected as the surcharge to the commissioner of finance each month.
30 Such funds shall be remitted no later than thirty days after the last 31 business day of such period.

32 (b) The service supplier shall be entitled to retain as an administra-33 tive fee an amount equal to two per cent of its collections of the 34 surcharge.

35 (c) The surcharge required to be collected by the service supplier 36 shall be added to and stated separately in its billings to the customer.

37 (d) The service supplier shall annually provide to the commissioner of 38 finance an accounting of the surcharge amounts billed and collected.

39 § 11-2326 Liability for surcharge. (a) Each service supplier who is 40 subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be liable to the city 41 for the surcharge until it has been paid to the city, except that 42 payment to a service supplier is sufficient to relieve the customer from 43 further liability for such surcharge.

44 (b) The service supplier customer shall have no obligation to take any 45 legal action to enforce the collection of any surcharge. However, when-46 ever the service supplier remits the funds collected as the surcharge to 47 the city, it shall also provide the city with the name and address of 48 any customer refusing or failing to pay the surcharge imposed by this 49 chapter and shall state the amount of such surcharge remaining unpaid.

50 § 11-2327 System revenues; adjustment of surcharge. (a) All surcharge 51 monies remitted to the commissioner of finance by a service supplier and 52 all other monies dedicated to the payment of system costs from whatever 53 source derived or received by the city of Staten Island shall be 54 expended only upon authorization of the council, and only for payment of 55 system costs as permitted by this chapter. The finance commissioner and 56 the director of the office of management and budget shall separately

1 account for and keep adequate records of the amount and source of all 2 such revenues and of the amount and object or purpose of all expendi-3 tures thereof.

4 (b) If at the end of any fiscal year the total amount of all such 5 revenues exceeds the amount necessary for payment of system costs in 6 such fiscal year, such excess shall be reserved and carried over for the 7 payment of system costs in the following fiscal year. However, if at the 8 end of any fiscal year in conformance with applicable law, such E911 9 reserved fund balance exceeds an amount equal to five per cent of that 10 necessary for the payment of system costs in such fiscal year, the coun-11 cil shall by local law reduce the surcharge for the following fiscal 12 year to a level that more adequately reflects the system cost require-13 ments of its E911 system. The council may also reestablish or increase 14 such surcharge, subject to the provisions of section three hundred three 15 of the county law, if the revenues generated by such surcharge and by 16 any other source are not adequate to pay for system costs.

17 CHAPTER 23-B

28 geographic area specialized and enhanced specialized mobile radio

35 (d) "Place of primary use" means the street address that is represen-

39 and within the licensed service area of the wireless communications 40 service provider.

41 § 11-2343 Establishment of surcharge for wireless communications 42 devices. (a) In accordance with the provisions of article six of the 43 county law, as amended, there is hereby established a surcharge of thir-44 ty cents per month on wireless communications service in the city of New 45 York. The surcharge shall be imposed on each wireless communications 46 device and shall be reflected and made payable on bills rendered for 47 wireless communications service that is provided to a customer whose 48 place of primary use is within the city of New York.

49 (b) The surcharge imposed by subdivision (a) of this section shall be 50 used to pay for the costs associated with the design, construction, 51 operation, maintenance, and administration of public safety communi-52 cations networks serving the city of New York.

53 (c) All wireless communications service suppliers that provide service 54 to customers whose place of primary use is within the city of New York 55 shall begin to add the monthly surcharge as provided in subdivision (a)

1 of this section to all service bills no later than the forty-fifth day 2 after the effective date of the local law that added this chapter.

3 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no surcharge 4 shall be imposed pursuant to this chapter on or after December first, 5 two thousand seventeen.

6 § 11-2344 Collection of surcharge. (a) Each wireless communications 7 service supplier serving the city of New York shall act as collection 8 agent for the city of Staten Island and shall remit the funds collected 9 pursuant to the surcharge imposed under the provisions of this chapter 10 to the commissioner of finance each month. Such funds shall be remitted 11 no later than thirty days after the last business day of the month.

12 (b) Each wireless communications service supplier shall be entitled to 13 retain, as an administrative fee, an amount equal to two per cent of its 14 collections of the surcharge.

15 (c) The surcharge required to be collected by the wireless communi-16 cations service supplier shall be added to and stated separately in its 17 billings to customers.

18 (d) Each wireless communications service supplier shall annually
19 provide to the city of Staten Island an accounting of the surcharge 20 amounts billed and collected.

21 § 11-2345 Liability for surcharge. (a) Each wireless communications 22 service customer who is subject to the provisions of this chapter shall 23 be liable to the city of Staten Island for the surcharge until it has 24 been paid to the city except that payment to a wireless communications 25 service supplier is sufficient to relieve the customer from further 26 liability for such surcharge.

27 (b) No wireless communications service supplier shall have a legal 28 obligation to enforce the collection of any surcharge imposed under the 29 provisions of this chapter, provided, however, that whenever the wire-30 less communications service supplier remits the funds collected to the 31 city of Staten Island, it shall also provide the city with the name and 32 address of any customer refusing or failing to pay the surcharge and 33 shall state the amount of such surcharge remaining unpaid.

34 § 11-2346 Systems revenues; adjustment of surcharge. (a) All surcharge
35 monies remitted to the city of Staten Island by a wireless communi-36 cations service supplier shall be expended only upon authorization of 37 the council and only for payment of system costs or other costs associ-38 ated with the design, construction, operation, maintenance, and adminis-39 tration of public safety communications networks serving the city of 40 Staten Island. The finance commissioner and the director of the office 41 of management and budget shall separately account for and keep adequate 42 books and records of the amount and source of all such monies and of the 43 amount and object or purpose of all expenditures thereof.

44 (b) If, at the end of any fiscal year, the total amount of all such 45 monies exceeds the amount necessary for payment of the above mentioned 46 costs in such fiscal year, such excess shall be reserved and carried 47 over for the payment of those costs in the following fiscal year.

46 wine or beer at retail, for on or off premises consumption, within the 47 city of Staten Island, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid 48 annually for each tax year, commencing with the tax year beginning June 49 first, nineteen hundred eighty, a tax to be paid by each retail licensee 50 in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the license fees payable 51 under the state alcoholic beverage control law by such retail licensee 52 for the license year in effect at the commencement of the tax year under 53 this chapter. A retail licensee who obtains a license subsequent to the 54 commencement of a tax year shall pay the tax based upon fees payable

1 under the state alcoholic beverage control law by such licensee for the 2 license year in effect at the time such license is issued. This tax 3 shall be in addition to any and all other taxes paid by such retail 4 licensee.

5 § 11-2403 Exemptions. The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply 6 to the following:

7 (a) The state of New York, or any of its agencies, instrumentalities, 8 public corporations, including a public corporation created pursuant to 9 agreement or compact with another state or Canada, or political subdivi-10 sions;

11 (b) The United States of America, and any of its agencies and instru-

13 (c) The United Nations or other international organizations of which 14 the United States of America is a member; and

15 (d) Any corporation, or association, or trust, or community chest,
16 fund or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious,

18 children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to 19 the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial 20 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 21 attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in 22 this paragraph shall include an organization operated for the primary 23 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 24 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 25 this subdivision.

26 § 11-2404 Records to be kept. Every retail licensee shall keep such 27 records of its business and in such form as the commissioner may by 28 regulation require. Such records shall be offered for inspection and 29 examination at any time upon demand by the commissioner or his or her 30 duly authorized agent or employee and shall be preserved for a period of 31 three years, except that the commissioner may consent to their 32 destruction within that period or may require that they be kept longer.

33 § 11-2405 Returns. a. On or before the twenty-fifth day of June in 34 each tax year, every person subject to tax under this chapter shall file 35 a return with the commissioner on a form prescribed by the commissioner.
36 A retail licensee who obtains a license subsequent to the commencement 37 of a tax year shall file a return for such tax year on or before the 38 twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which such license 39 was obtained.

40 b. The return shall state the amount of license fees paid to the 41 state under the alcoholic beverage control law and the date when a 42 license under such law was issued to the retail licensee and shall 43 contain any other information which the commissioner may deem necessary 44 for the proper administration of this chapter. The commissioner may 45 require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and 46 to contain the information specified in the notice.

47 c. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return
48 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face, the commissioner 49 shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a return or 50 of a corrected return.

51 d. The return otherwise required to be filed on or before June twen-52 ty-fifth, nineteen hundred eighty under the provisions of subdivision a 53 of this section, shall be made and filed on or before August twenty-54 fifth, nineteen hundred eighty.

55 § 11-2406 Payment of tax. At the time of filing a return each person 56 shall pay to the commissioner the tax imposed under this chapter. Such

1 tax shall be due and payable on the last day on which such return is 2 required to be filed, regardless of whether a return is filed or whether 3 the return which is filed correctly indicates the amount of tax due.

4 § 11-2407 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter
5 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, 6 the commissioner shall determine the amount of tax due from such infor-7 mation as may be obtainable and, if necessary, may estimate the tax on 8 the basis of external indices. Notice of such determination shall be 9 given to the person liable for the payment of the tax. Such determi-
10 nation shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person 11 against whom it is assessed, within ninety days after the giving of 12 notice of such determination, or, if the commissioner of finance has 13 established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the 14 code of the preceding municipality and the taxpayer has requested a
15 conciliation conference in accordance therewith, within ninety days from 16 the mailing of a conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's 17 confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both 18 (1) serves a petition upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a 19 petition with the tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the 20 commissioner of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same. Such 21 hearing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from 22 the decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner
23 and subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal
24 pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seven-
25 ty-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed Janu-
26 ary first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing the tax 27 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person against 28 whom the tax is assessed and to the commissioner of finance. A decision 29 of the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc shall be reviewable for 30 error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever 31 by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law 32 and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court by the 33 person against whom the tax was assessed within four months after the 34 giving of the notice of such tax appeals tribunal decision. A proceed-35 ing under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules 36 shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless: (a) the amount of any tax 37 sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest thereon, if any, 38 shall be first deposited with the commissioner and there shall be filed 39 with the commissioner an undertaking issued by a surety company author-40 ized to transact business in this state and approved by the superinten-41 dent of insurance of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in 42 such amount as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the 43 effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the 44 taxpayer will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prose-45 cution of the proceedings or (b) at the option of the taxpayer, such 46 undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, interest and 47 penalties stated in such decision, plus the costs and charges which may 48 accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event 49 the taxpayer shall not be required to pay such taxes, interest or penal-
50 ties as a condition precedent to the application.

51 § 11-2408 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section, the 52 commissioner shall refund or credit, without interest, any tax, penalty 53 or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected or 54 paid, if written application to the commissioner for such refund shall 55 be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever a refund or 56 credit is made or denied, the commissioner shall state his or her reason

1 therefor and give notice thereof to the taxpayer in writing. The commis-2 sioner may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit
3 therefor on payments due from the applicant.

4 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund
5 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 6 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-7 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 8 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-9 ant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding municipality and the 10 applicant has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-11 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 12 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 13 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commis-14 sioner of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 15 a hearing. Such petition for a refund or credit made as provided in this 16 section shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penal-17 ty or interest complained of. Such hearing and any appeal to the tribu-18 nal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in such hearing shall be 19 conducted in the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by 20 the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight 21 through one hundred seventy-two of the charter of the preceding munici-22 pality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After 23 such hearing, the tax appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision 24 to the applicant and to the commissioner of finance. The applicant shall 25 be entitled to institute a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight 26 of the civil practice law and rules to review a decision of the tax 27 appeals tribunal sitting en banc if application to the supreme court be 28 made therefor within four months after the giving of notice of such 29 decision, and provided, in the case of an application by a taxpayer, 30 that a final determination of tax due was not previously made. Such a 31 proceeding shall not be instituted by a taxpayer unless an undertaking 32 shall first be filed with the commissioner, in such amount and with such 33 sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the effect
34 that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the taxpayer 35 will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of 36 the proceeding.

37 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
38 under this section, of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
39 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2407 of this 40 chapter where such person has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 41 hearing, as provided in such section or has failed to avail himself or 42 herself of the remedies as provided in such section. No refund or cred-43 it shall be made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determi-44 nation by the commissioner made pursuant to section 11-2407 of this 45 chapter unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, ille-46 gal or unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribu-47 nal after a hearing or of the commissioner's own motion, or, if such tax 48 appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the determination of the 49 commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 50 the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provisions of said
51 section in which event refund or credit without interest shall be made 52 of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

53 § 11-2409 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by this chapter
54 shall be the exclusive remedies available to any person for the review 55 of tax liability imposed by this chapter; and no determination or 56 proposed determination of tax or determination on any application for

1 refund by the commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax
2 appeals tribunal or any of its administrative law judges, shall be
3 enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action 4 for money had and received or by any action or proceeding other than, in 5 the case of a decision by the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a
6 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 7 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory
8 judgment if such taxpayer institutes suit within thirty days after a
9 deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency 10 assessment to the commissioner prior to the institution of such suit and 11 posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-2407 of this chapter.

12 § 11-2410 Reserves. In cases where the taxpayer has applied for a 13 refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of 14 the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to 15 such taxpayer on his or her application for refund, the city comptroller 16 shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the 17 city.

18 § 11-2411 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any person shall 19 fail to pay any tax or penalty or interest imposed by this chapter, the 20 corporation counsel shall, upon the request of the commissioner, bring 21 or cause to be brought an action to enforce payment of the same against 22 the person liable for the same on behalf of the city of Staten Island in 23 any court of the state of New York or of any other state or of the 24 United States. If, however, the commissioner in his or her discretion 25 believes that a taxpayer subject to the provisions of this chapter is 26 about to cease business, leave the state or remove or dissipate the 27 assets out of which tax or penalties or interest might be satisfied and 28 that any such tax or penalty or interest will not be paid when due, he 29 or she may declare such tax or penalty or interest to be immediately due 30 and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

31 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commission may issue a 32 warrant, directed to the city sheriff, commanding such sheriff to levy 33 upon and sell the real and personal property of such person which may be 34 found within the city, for the payment of the amount thereof, with any 35 penalties and interest, and the cost of executing the warrant, and to 36 return such warrant to the commissioner and to pay to him or her the 37 money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after receipt of 38 such warrant. The city sheriff shall, within five days after the 39 receipt of the warrant, file with the county clerk a copy thereof, and 40 thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the 41 person mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax, penalties and 42 interest for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is 43 filed. Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a 44 lien upon the title to and interest in real and personal property of the 45 person against whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then 46 proceed upon the warrant in the same manner and with like effect as that 47 provided by law in respect to executions issued against property upon 48 judgments of a court of record, and for services in executing the 49 warrant such sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees which he or she 50 may collect in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner a 51 warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to 52 any officer or employee of the department of finance, and in the 53 execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
54 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but he or she shall be entitled to no 55 fee for compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the 56 performance of such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in

1 full, the commissioner may from time to time issue new warrants and 2 shall also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder 3 as if the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had 4 been returned unsatisfied.

5 c. Whenever there is made a sale, transfer or assignment in bulk of 6 any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or 7 merchandise and of fixtures pertaining to the conducting of the business
8 of the seller, transferor or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary 9 course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the 10 purchaser, transferee or assignee shall at least ten days before taking 11 possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures, 12 or paying therefor, notify the commissioner by registered mail of the 13 proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof whether or 14 not the seller, transferor or assignor, has represented to, or informed 15 the purchaser, transferee or assignee that it owes any tax pursuant to 16 this chapter and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or assignee 17 has knowledge that such taxes are owing, and whether any such taxes are 18 in fact owing.

19 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 20 notice to the commissioner as required by the opening paragraph of this 21 subdivision, or whenever the commissioner shall inform the purchaser, 22 transferee or assignee that a possible claim for such tax or taxes 23 exists, any sums of money, property or choses in action, or other 24 consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or assignee is required 25 to transfer over to the seller, transferor or assignor shall be subject 26 to a first priority right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or 27 thereafter determined to be due from the seller, transferor or assignor 28 to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or assignee is forbidden to 29 transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor any such sums of money, 30 property or choses in action to the extent of the amount of the city's 31 claim. For failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision, 32 the purchaser, transferee or assignee, in addition to being subject to 33 the liabilities and remedies imposed under the provisions of article six 34 of the uniform commercial code, shall be personally liable for the 35 payment to the city of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter deter-36 mined to be due to the city from the seller, transferor or assignor, and 37 such liability may be assessed and enforced in the same manner as the 38 liability for tax under this chapter.

39 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
40 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 41 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 42 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
43 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 44 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be 45 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
46 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 47 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

48 § 11-2412 General powers of the commissioner. In addition to all 49 other powers granted to the commissioner in this chapter, he or she is 50 hereby authorized and empowered:

51 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 52 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof; and to prescribe 53 the form of blanks, reports and other records relating to the enforce-
54 ment and administration of this chapter;

1 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a
2 period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 3 connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

4 3. To request information from the department of taxation and finance
5 of the state of New York or the state liquor authority or the officials 6 of any political subdivision of this state or the treasury department of 7 the United States relative to any person; and to afford information to 8 such department of taxation and finance, liquor authority, officials or 9 treasury department relative to any person, any other provision of this 10 chapter to the contrary notwithstanding;

11 4. To delegate his or her functions under this section to a deputy or 12 assistant or other employee or employees of his or her department;

13 5. To assess, reassess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes
14 imposed under this chapter;

15 6. To provide by regulation for granting a refund of an appropriate 16 portion of the tax where the retail licensee ceases to do business 17 during the course of the tax year under circumstances which result in, 18 or would entitle such licensee to, a refund of license fee by the state 19 liquor authority. The provisions of section 11-2408 of this chapter 20 shall be applicable to such refunds.

21 § 11-2413 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 22 commissioner, his or her employees duly designated and authorized by the 23 commissioner, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its duly designated 24 and authorized employees shall have power to administer oaths and take 25 affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding in the exercise of 26 their powers and duties under this chapter. The commissioner and the tax 27 appeals tribunal shall have power to subpoena and require the attendance 28 of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents to secure 29 information pertinent to the performance of the duties of the commis-30 sioner or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter and of the 31 enforcement of this chapter and to examine them in relation thereto, and 32 to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the 33 state or unable to attend before the commissioner or the tax appeals 34 tribunal or excused from attendance.

35 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 36 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 37 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 38 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner or 39 the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

40 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
41 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 42 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
43 title.

44 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 45 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter and witnesses 46 attending in response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are 47 allowed to officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, 48 except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Such officers shall be 49 the city sheriff, and his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers 50 or employees of the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal,
51 designated to serve such process.

52 § 11-2414 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 53 any amount of tax is not paid on or before the last date prescribed for 54 payment, without regard to any extension of time granted for payment,
55 interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner of finance 56 pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate is set, at

1 the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be paid for the 2 period from such last date to the date of payment. In computing the 3 amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be compounded daily.
4 Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if the amount thereof
5 is less than one dollar.

6 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
7 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined
8 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 9 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect,
10 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 11 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 12 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 13 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 14 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

15 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
16 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
17 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
18 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
19 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 20 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 21 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

22 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 23 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 24 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 25 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed
26 upon the return.

27 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 28 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
29 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
30 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 31 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 32 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 33 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 34 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-
35 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
36 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 37 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 38 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-39 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 40 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be 41 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
42 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

43 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 44 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 45 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
46 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-2407 of this chap-
47 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless 48 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to 49 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in
50 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
51 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one 52 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 53 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
54 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 55 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 56 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

1 (4) Limitations on additions.

2 (A) With respect to any return the amount of the addition under para-
3 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 4 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 5 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two. In any case
6 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 7 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced
8 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

9 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition
10 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 11 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
12 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one,
13 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
14 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

15 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpay-
16 ment of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chap-17 ter or any rules or regulations relating thereto, but without intent to 18 defraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent 19 of the underpayment.

20 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
21 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 22 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
23 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
24 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
25 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 26 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
27 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
28 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

29 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 30 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 31 fifty percent of the underpayment.

32 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the penalty deter-
33 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 34 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
35 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
36 graph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period beginning on 37 the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, deter-
38 mined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the 39 assessment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the 40 tax.

41 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
42 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

43 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 44 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 45 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
46 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 47 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts
48 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 49 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 50 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 51 penalty under this subdivision.

52 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
53 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
54 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 55 tax imposed by this chapter.

1 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance
2 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 3 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
4 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate
5 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 6 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 7 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 8 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 9 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 10 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
11 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

12 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
13 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 14 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

15 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

16 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
17 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
18 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
19 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 20 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 21 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 22 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
23 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

24 (B) Period during which rate applies.

25 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
26 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar 27 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 28 such month.

29 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
30 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 31 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 32 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

33 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 34 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
35 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
36 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
37 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 38 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-
39 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the 40 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 41 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

42 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 43 to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been 44 filed, that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions 45 of this chapter or that records have not been retained pursuant to the 46 provisions of this chapter shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

47 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
48 title.

49 § 11-2415 Returns to be secret. (a) Except in accordance with proper 50 judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful 51 for the commissioner, the tax appeals tribunal or any officer or employ-52 ee of the city to divulge or make known in any manner any information 53 relating to the business of a taxpayer contained in any return required 54 under this chapter. The officers charged with the custody of such 55 returns shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of 56 anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court,

1 except on behalf of the commissioner in an action or proceeding under 2 the provisions of this chapter, or on behalf of any party to any action
3 or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the returns or 4 facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, 5 in either of which events the court may require the production of, and 6 may admit in evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown
7 thereby, as are pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more.
8 Nothing under this section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery
9 to a taxpayer or the taxpayer's duly authorized representative of a 10 certified copy of any return filed in connection with his or her tax nor 11 to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent 12 the identification of particular returns and the items thereof, or the 13 inspection by the corporation counsel or other legal representatives of 14 the city, or by the district attorney of Richmond county, of the return 15 of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax 16 based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding under this chap-17 ter may be instituted. Returns shall be preserved for three years and 18 thereafter until the commissioner permits them to be destroyed.

19 (b) (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 20 provisions of subdivision (a) of this section shall be dismissed from 21 office and be incapable of holding any public office in this city for a
22 period of five years thereafter.

23 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
24 title.

25 (c) This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of 26 paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public 27 officers law.

28 (d) Notwithstanding anything in subdivision (a) of this section to the 29 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 30 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the
31 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
32 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
33 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
34 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be 35 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax 36 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 37 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
38 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
39 teen hundred ninety-four.

40 § 11-2416 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized
41 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
42 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
43 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed 44 by him or her pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or in any 45 application made by him or her, or, if no return has been filed or 46 application made, then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing 47 of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same
48 by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined 49 according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice
50 shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

51 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
52 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
53 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy,
54 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 55 penalty or interest provided by this chapter. However, except in the 56 case of a wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the

1 tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration
2 of more than three years from the date of the filing of a return, 3 provided, however, that where no return has been filed as provided by 4 law the tax may be assessed at any time.

5 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed in this 6 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has 7 consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such 8 additional tax due may be determined at any time within such extended
9 period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent 10 consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

11 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other
12 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
13 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
14 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
15 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 16 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 17 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such
18 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
19 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 20 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 21 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 22 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-23 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 24 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the
25 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
26 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 27 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 28 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 29 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
30 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
31 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
32 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance and,
33 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal are authorized to provide by 34 regulation the extent to which, such provisions with respect to prima
35 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date, shall apply to certi-
36 fied mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this 37 subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United 38 States postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation
39 of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals
40 tribunal.

41 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
42 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
43 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 44 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
45 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

46 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
47 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
48 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
49 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
50 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 51 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
52 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
53 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
54 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
55 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,
56 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes

1 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 2 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred
3 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 4 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 5 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 6 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
7 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
8 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 9 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 10 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 11 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 12 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 13 finance, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 14 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 15 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 16 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 17 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

18 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 19 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 20 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 21 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 22 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
23 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 24 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 25 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
26 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
27 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 28 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 29 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 30 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 31 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 32 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

33 § 11-2417 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 34 construed and enforced in conformity with article twenty-nine of the tax 35 law, pursuant to which it is enacted.

6 subdivision twelve of this section.

19 occupancy, and also any amount for which credit is allowed by the opera-

35 person's ability or authority to reserve, arrange for, convey, or 36 furnish occupancy, directly or indirectly, and to determine rent there-37 for, shall be the "rights of a room remarketer". A room remarketer is 38 not a permanent resident with respect to a room for which such person 39 has the rights of a room remarketer.

40 § 11-2502 Imposition of tax. a. (1) On and after July first, nineteen 41 hundred seventy until and including August thirty-first, nineteen 42 hundred eighty, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid a tax 43 for every occupancy of each room in a hotel in the city of Staten Island 44 at the rates set forth in, and determined in accordance with the follow-45 ing table:

46 If the rent per day for the room is:	The tax is:
47 Less than $10	$.25 per day
48 $10 or more, but less than $15	$.50 per day
49 $15 or more, but less than $20	$.75 per day
50 $20 or more	$1.00 per day

51 (2) On and after September first, nineteen hundred eighty, there is 52 hereby imposed and there shall be paid a tax for every occupancy of each 53 room in a hotel in the city of Staten Island at the rates set forth in, 54 and determined in accordance with, the following table:

55 If the rent per day for the room is:	The tax is:
56 $10 or more, but less than $20	$.50 per day

1 $20 or more, but less than $30 $1.00 per day
 2 $30 or more, but less than $40 $1.50 per day
 3 $40 or more $2.00 per day
 4 Where a person occupies a room for less than a full day and pays less 5 than the rent for a full day, the tax shall nevertheless be the same 6 amount as would be due had such person occupied the room for a full day 7 at the rent for a full day.

8 (3) In addition to the tax imposed by paragraph two of this subdivi-9 sion, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid a tax for every 10 occupancy of each room in a hotel in the city (A) at the rate of five 11 percent of the rent or charge per day for each such room up to and 12 including August thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety, (B) at the rate 13 of six percent of the rent or charge per day for each such room on and 14 after September first, nineteen hundred ninety and before December 15 first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, (C) at the rate of five percent of 16 the rent or charge per day for each such room on and after December 17 first, nineteen hundred ninety-four and before March first, two thousand 18 nine, (D) at the rate of five and seven-eighths percent of the rent or 19 charge per day for each such room on and after March first, two thousand 20 nine and before December first, two thousand thirteen, (E) at the rate 21 of five percent of the rent or charge per day for each such room on and

 26 thousand twenty-three, and (G) at the rate of five percent of the rent 27 or charge per day for each such room on and after December first, two 28 thousand twenty-three.

29 (4) (A) When occupancy is provided, for a single consideration, with 30 property, services, amusement charges, or any other items, the separate 31 sale of which is not subject to tax under this chapter, and the rent 32 paid for such occupancy does not qualify for the exemption in this 33 subdivision, the entire consideration shall be treated as rent subject 34 to tax under paragraph one of this subdivision; provided, however, that 35 where the amount of the rent for occupancy is stated separately from the 36 price of such property, services, amusement charges or other items on 37 any sales slip, invoice, receipt, or other statement given the occupant 38 and such rent is reasonable in relation to the value of such property, 39 services, amusement charges, or other items, only such separately stated 40 rent will be subject to tax under this subdivision. (B) In regard to 41 the collection of tax on occupancies by remarketers, when occupancy is 42 provided, for a single consideration, with property, services, amusement 43 charges, or any other items, whether or not such other items are taxa-44 ble, the rent portion of the consideration for such sale shall be 45 computed as follows: the total consideration for the sale multiplied by 46 a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the consideration paid to 47 the hotel for the occupancy and the denominator of which shall be the 48 consideration paid to the hotel for the occupancy plus the consideration 49 paid to the providers of the other items being sold, or by any other 50 reasonable method pursuant to which the rent portion of consideration 51 would be no less than the computation of rent portion of consideration 52 under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph. Nothing in this subdivision 53 shall be construed to subject to tax or exempt from tax any service or 54 property or amusement charge or other items otherwise subject to tax or 55 exempt from tax under this chapter.

1 (5) A room remarketer shall be allowed a refund or credit against the 2 taxes collected and required to be remitted pursuant to section 11-2505 3 of this chapter in the amount of the tax it paid to the operator of the 4 hotel or another room remarketer under this subdivision. Provided, 5 however, that in order to qualify for a refund or credit under this 6 paragraph with respect to any quarterly period, as described in subdivi-7 sion a of section 11-2504 of this chapter, the room remarketer must, 8 with respect to such quarter, (A) be registered for hotel room occupancy 9 tax purposes under section 11-2514 of this chapter, and (B) collect the 10 taxes imposed by paragraphs two and three of this subdivision. Subject 11 to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, the provisions of 12 section 11-2507 of this chapter shall apply to refunds or credits under 13 this paragraph.

14 (6) Where the rent is paid or charged or billed, or falls due on 15 either a weekly, monthly or other term basis, the daily rent upon which 16 the tax is determined shall be the result obtained by dividing the rent 17 for such term by the number of days in such term. Where the rent is for 18 more than one room, including but not limited to a suite of rooms, the 19 daily rent per room upon which tax is determined shall be calculated by 20 multiplying the daily rent for the group of rooms by a fraction, the 21 numerator of which shall be the daily rent for the particular room, or a 22 similar room, when such room is rented alone with similar bath facili-23 ties, and the denominator of which shall be the total of the daily rent 24 for the individual rooms in the group of rooms, or similar rooms, when 25 such rooms are rented alone with similar bath facilities. In any case in 26 which it is not possible to determine the daily rent per room in the 27 manner described under this paragraph, the commissioner of finance shall 28 prescribe methods for making such determination.

29 b. (1) No tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon a permanent 30 resident.

31 (2) For purposes of this subdivision, an occupant who is eligible to 32 request and has requested a lease pursuant to the provisions of para-33 graph two of subdivision (a) of section 2522.5 of the rent stabilization 34 regulations promulgated by the division of housing and community renewal 35 of the state of New York, shall tentatively be accorded the status of 36 permanent resident as of the date of such request, notwithstanding that 37 such occupant has not met the one hundred eighty-consecutive-day 38 requirement contained in subdivision eight of section 11-2501 of this 39 chapter as of such date. In the case of such an occupant, the operator 40 or room remarketer shall not collect the taxes imposed by this chapter 41 for any day, commencing with the date such lease is requested, which 42 falls within a period of continuous occupancy by such occupant of a room 43 or rooms in the hotel. Provided, however, if such occupant ceases to 44 occupy a room or rooms in the hotel prior to the completion of one 45 hundred eighty consecutive days of occupancy, any taxes not collected 46 theretofore by reason of the provisions of this paragraph shall become 47 immediately due and payable on the date of cessation of occupancy and 48 shall be collected by the operator or room remarketer from such occu-49 pant. In the event, however, that the operator or room remarketer is 50 unable to collect such taxes from the occupant, the operator or room 51 remarketer shall not be liable to the city for such taxes. The 52 provisions of this paragraph shall apply with respect to leases 53 requested on or after September first, nineteen hundred ninety.

54 c. No tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any organization 55 described in subdivision (a) of section eleven hundred sixteen of the 56 tax law to the extent such organization is not subject to the tax

1 imposed under subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred five of the tax 2 law.

3 d. (1) No tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any person 4 occupying any room or rooms in a hotel solely and directly as a result 5 of such person's involuntary displacement from premises by the attack on 6 the World Trade Center on September eleventh, two thousand one, provided 7 such premises were not subject to the tax imposed by this section or the 8 tax imposed under section eleven hundred seven of the tax law.

9 (2) Where an occupant claims exemption from the tax under the 10 provisions of paragraph one of this subdivision, the rent shall be 11 deemed taxable under this chapter unless the operator shall receive from 12 the occupant claiming such exemption a signed written statement describ-13 ing the specific circumstances providing the basis for such claim and 14 containing such other information as the commissioner of finance may 15 require. The operator shall retain such statement and provide it to the 16 commissioner of finance upon request.

17 e. Where any corporation, or association, or trust, or community 18 chest, fund or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for reli-19 gious, charitable, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of 20 cruelty to children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which 21 inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no 22 substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, 23 or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, carries on its activ-24 ities in furtherance of any of the purposes for which it was organized, 25 in premises in which, as part of said activities, it operates a hotel, 26 occupancy of rooms in said premises and rents therefrom received by such 27 corporation or association shall not be subject to tax under this chap-28 ter. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to include an organ-29 ization operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or busi-30 ness for profit, whether or not all of its profits are payable to one or 31 more organizations described in this subdivision.

32 f. The tax to be collected shall be stated and charged separately from 33 the rent and shown separately on any record thereof, at the time when 34 the occupancy is arranged or contracted for and charged for and upon 35 every evidence of occupancy or any bill or statement or charge made for 36 said occupancy issued or delivered by the operator or room remarketer.

37 (1) Where an occupant rents a room directly from an operator, the tax 38 shall be paid by the occupant to the operator as trustee for and on 39 account of the city, and the operator shall be liable for the collection 40 of the tax on the rent and for the payment of the tax on the rent.

41 (2) The operator or room remarketer and any officer of any corporate 42 operator or room remarketer shall be personally liable for the portion 43 of the tax collected or required to be collected under this chapter, and 44 the operator shall have the same right in respect to collecting the tax 45 from the occupant, or in respect to nonpayment of the tax by the occu-46 pant as if the tax were a part of the rent for the occupancy payable at 47 the time such tax shall become due and owing, including all rights of 48 eviction, dispossession, repossession and enforcement of any innkeeper's 49 lien that he or she may have in the event of nonpayment of rent by the 50 occupant; provided however, that the commissioner of finance shall be 51 joined as a party in any action or proceeding brought by the operator to 52 collect or enforce collection of the tax.

53 g. Where the occupant has failed to pay and the operator or room 54 remarketer has failed to collect a tax as imposed by this chapter, then 55 in addition to all other rights, obligations and remedies provided, such 56 tax shall be payable by the occupant directly to the commissioner of 1 finance, and it shall be the duty of the occupant to file a return ther-2 eof with the commissioner of finance and to pay the tax imposed therein 3 to the commissioner of finance within fifteen days after such tax was 4 due.

5 h. The commissioner of finance may, wherever he or she deems it neces-6 sary for the proper enforcement of this chapter, provide by regulation 7 that the occupant shall file returns and pay directly to the commis-8 sioner of finance the tax imposed by this chapter, at such times as returns 9 are required to be filed and payment over made by the operator or room 10 remarketer.

11 i. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid upon any occupancy on 12 and after July first, nineteen hundred seventy, although such occupancy 13 is had pursuant to a contract, lease or other arrangement made prior to 14 such effective date. Where rent is paid, or charged or billed, or falls 15 due on either a weekly, monthly, or other term basis, the rent so paid, 16 charged, billed or falling due shall be subject to the tax imposed by 17 this chapter to the extent that it covers any portion of the period on 18 and after July first, nineteen hundred seventy, and such payment, bill, 19 charge or rent due shall be apportioned on the basis of the ratio of the 20 number of days falling within said period, to the total number of days 21 covered thereby. Where any tax has been paid pursuant to this chapter 22 upon any rent which has been ascertained to be worthless, the commis-23 sioner of finance may by regulation provide for credit or refund of the 24 amount of such tax upon application therefor as provided in section
25 11-2507 of this chapter.

26 j. For the purpose of the proper administration of this chapter and to 27 prevent evasion of the tax hereby imposed, it shall be presumed that all 28 rents are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the 29 burden of proving that a rent for occupancy is not taxable under this 30 chapter shall be upon the operator, the room remarketer, or the occu-31 pant. Where an occupant claims exemption from the tax under the 32 provisions of subdivision c of this section, the rent shall be deemed 33 taxable under this chapter unless the operator or room remarketer shall 34 receive from the occupant claiming such exemption a copy of the exempt 35 organization certificate that is necessary to obtain exemption from the 36 tax imposed under subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred five of the 37 tax law, together with a certificate duly executed by the organization 38 named in such certificate certifying that the occupant is its agent, 39 representative or employee and that his or her occupancy is paid or to 40 be paid by, and is necessary or required in the course of or in 41 connection with the affairs of said organization.

42 k. No operator or room remarketer shall advertise or hold out to the 43 public in any manner, directly or indirectly, that the tax imposed by 44 this chapter is not considered as a mandatory addition to the rent 45 charged to the occupant.

46 l. An occupancy that an operator conveys or furnishes to a room 47 remarketer that the room remarketer intends to convey or furnish, 48 directly or indirectly, to an occupant for rent shall be exempt from the 49 taxes imposed by this section, provided that such room remarketer 50 furnishes the operator with a certificate in such form and containing 51 such information as may be prescribed by the commissioner of finance.
52 The operator shall retain such statement and provide it to the commis-53 sioner of finance upon request.

54 § 11-2503 Records to be kept. a. Every operator and every room
55 remarketer shall keep records of every occupancy and of all rent paid, 56 charged or due thereon and of the tax payable thereon, in such form as

1 the commissioner of finance may by regulation require. Such records 2 shall be available for inspection and examination at any time upon 3 demand by the commissioner of finance or his or her duly authorized 4 agent or employee and shall be preserved for a period of three years, 5 except that the commissioner of finance may consent to their destruction 6 within that period or may require that they be kept longer.

7 b. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections three hundred five and 8 three hundred nine of the state technology law or any other law, the 9 commissioner may require any person who has elected to maintain in an 10 electronic format any portion of the records required to be maintained 11 by that person under this chapter, to make the electronic records avail-12 able and accessible to the commissioner, notwithstanding that the 13 records are also maintained in a hard copy format.

14 § 11-2504 Returns. a. Every operator and every room remarketer shall 15 file with the commissioner of finance a return of occupancy and of 16 rents, and of the taxes payable thereon, for the quarterly periods 17 ending on the last day of February, May, August and November of each 18 year. Such returns shall be filed within twenty days after the end of 19 the quarterly period covered thereby. The commissioner of finance may 20 permit or require returns to be made by other periods and upon such 21 dates as he or she may specify. If the commissioner of finance deems it 22 necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this 23 chapter, he or she may require returns to be made for shorter periods 24 than those prescribed pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision and 25 upon such dates as he or she may specify.

26 b. The forms of returns shall be prescribed by the commissioner of 27 finance and shall contain such information as he or she may deem neces-28 sary for the proper administration of this chapter. The commissioner of 29 finance may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after 30 notice and to contain the information specified in the notice.

31 c. If a return required by this chapter is not filed or if a return 32 when filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face the commissioner of 33 finance shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a 34 return or a corrected return.

35 § 11-2505 Payment of tax. At the time of filing a return of occupancy 36 and of rents each operator and room remarketer shall pay to the commis-37 sioner of finance the taxes imposed by this chapter upon the rents 38 required to be included in such return, as well as all other moneys 39 collected by the operator or room remarketer acting or purporting to act 40 under the provisions of this chapter, even though it be judicially 41 determined that the tax collected is invalidly imposed. All the taxes 42 for the period for which a return is required to be filed shall be due 43 from the operator or room remarketer and payable to the commissioner of 44 finance on the date limited for the filing of the return for such peri-45 od, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return 46 which is filed correctly shows the amount of rents and the taxes due 47 thereon. Where the commissioner of finance in his or her discretion 48 deems it necessary to protect revenues to be obtained under this chapter 49 he or she may require any operator or room remarketer required to 50 collect the tax imposed by this chapter to file with him or her a bond, 51 issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state 52 and approved by the superintendent of insurance of this state as to 53 solvency and responsibility, in such amount as the commissioner of 54 finance may fix, to secure the payment of any tax or penalties and 55 interest due or which may become due from such operator or room remark-56 eter. In the event that the commissioner of finance determines that an

1 operator or room remarketer is to file such bond he or she shall give 2 notice to such operator or room remarketer to that effect specifying the 3 amount of the bond required. The operator or room remarketer shall file 4 such bond within five days after the giving of such notice unless within 5 such five days the operator or room remarketer shall request in writing 6 a hearing before the commissioner of finance at which the necessity, 7 propriety and amount of the bond shall be determined by the commissioner 8 of finance. Such determination shall be final and shall be complied with 9 within fifteen days after the giving of notice thereof. In lieu of such 10 bond, securities approved by the commissioner of finance or cash in such 11 amount as he or she may prescribe, may be deposited which shall be kept 12 in the custody of the commissioner of finance who may at any time with-13 out notice to the depositor apply them to any tax or interest or penal-14 ties due, and for that purpose the securities may be sold by him or her 15 at public or private sale without notice to the depositor thereof.

16 § 11-2506 Determination of tax. If a return required by this chapter 17 is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient,
18 the amount of tax due shall be determined by the commissioner of finance 19 from such information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, the tax 20 may be estimated on the basis of external indices, such as number of 21 rooms, location, scale of rents, comparable rents, type of accommo-22 dations and service, number of employees or other factors. Notice of 23 such determination shall be given to the person liable for the 24 collection and/or payment of the tax. Such determination shall finally 25 and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is 26 assessed, within ninety days after giving of notice of such determi-
27 nation, or, if the commissioner of finance has established a concil-
28 iation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding 29 municipality and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in 30 accordance therewith, within ninety days from the mailing of a concil-31 iation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the 32 discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a peti-33 tion upon the commissioner of finance and (2) files a petition with the 34 tax appeals tribunal for a hearing, or unless the commissioner of 35 finance of his or her own motion shall redetermine the same. Such hear-36 ing and any appeal to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the 37 decision rendered in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and 38 subject to the requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal
39 pursuant to sections one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seven-
40 ty-two of the charter of the preceding municipality as it existed Janu-
41 ary first, nineteen hundred ninety-four. After such hearing the tax 42 appeals tribunal shall give notice of its decision to the person against 43 whom the tax is assessed. A decision of the tax appeals tribunal
44 sitting en banc shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitu-
45 tionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article 46 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application there-47 for is made to the supreme court by the person against whom the tax was 48 assessed, within four months after the giving of the notice of such tax
49 appeals tribunal decision. A proceeding under article seventy-eight of 50 the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted by a person 51 liable for the tax unless: (a) the amount of any tax sought to be 52 reviewed, with penalties and interest thereon, if any, shall be first 53 deposited with the commissioner of finance and there shall be filed with 54 the commissioner of finance an undertaking, issued by a surety company 55 authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the super-
56 intendent of insurance of this state as to solvency and responsibility,

1 in such amount as a justice of the supreme court shall approve, to the 2 effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, such 3 person will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prose-4 cution of the proceeding; or (b) at the option of such person such 5 undertaking filed with the commissioner of finance may be in a sum 6 sufficient to cover the taxes, penalties and interest thereon stated in 7 such decision plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in 8 the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event such person shall not 9 be required to deposit such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition 10 precedent to the application.

11 § 11-2507 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section the 12 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 13 tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally
14 collected or paid if written application to the commissioner of finance 15 for such refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof.
16 Whenever a refund or credit is made or denied by the commissioner of 17 finance, he or she shall state his or her reasons therefor and give 18 notice thereof to the taxpayer in writing. Such application may be made 19 by the occupant, operator, room remarketer or other person who has actu-20 ally paid the tax to the commissioner of finance. Such application may 21 also be made by an operator or room remarketer who has collected and 22 paid over such tax to the commissioner of finance provided that the 23 application is made within one year of the payment by the occupant to 24 the operator or room remarketer, but no actual refund of moneys shall be 25 made to such operator or room remarketer until he or she shall first 26 establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner of finance, under such 27 regulations as the commissioner of finance may prescribe, that he or she 28 has repaid to the occupant the amount for which the application for 29 refund is made. The commissioner of finance may, in lieu of any refund 30 required to be made, allow credit therefor on payments due from the 31 applicant.

32 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund
33 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 34 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-35 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 36 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-37 ant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding municipality and the 38 applicant has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-
39 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 40 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 41 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commission-42 er of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 43 a hearing. Such petition for a refund or credit, made as provided in 44 this section, shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, 45 penalty or interest complained of. Such hearing and any appeal to the 46 tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered in such 47 hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the requirements
48 prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections one hundred 49 sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter of the
50 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 51 ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax appeals tribunal shall give 52 notice of its decision to the applicant and to the commissioner of 53 finance. The applicant shall be entitled to review such decision of the 54 tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc by a proceeding pursuant to article 55 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided such 56 proceeding is instituted within four months after the giving of the

1 notice of such decision, and provided, in the case of an application by 2 a person liable for the tax, that a final determination of tax was not 3 previously made. Such a proceeding shall not be instituted by a person 4 liable for the tax unless an undertaking is filed with the commissioner 5 of finance in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the 6 supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be 7 dismissed or the tax confirmed, such person will pay all costs and 8 charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

9 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit
10 under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been deter-
11 mined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2506 of this 12 chapter where he or she has had a hearing or an opportunity for a hear-13 ing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 14 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 15 made of a tax, interest or penalty paid after a determination by the 16 commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-2506 of this chapter
17 unless it be found that such determination was erroneous, illegal or 18 unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax appeals tribunal 19 after a hearing or of the commissioner of finance's own motion, or, if 20 such tax appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the determination 21 of the commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article seventy-22 eight of the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the provision of 23 said section, in which event refund or credit without interest shall be 24 made of the tax, interest or penalty found to have been overpaid.

25 § 11-2508 Reserves. In cases where the occupant, operator or room 26 remarketer has applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding 27 under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to 28 review a determination adverse to such occupant, operator or room 29 remarketer on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall 30 set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

31 § 11-2509 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
32 11-2506 and 11-2507 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies
33 available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this 34 chapter; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or deter-
35 mination on any application for refund by the commissioner of finance,
36 nor any decision by the tax appeals tribunal or any of its administra-
37 tive law judges, shall be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declara-38 tory judgment, and action for money had and received or by any action or 39 proceeding other than, in the case of a decision by the tax appeals
40 tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding in the nature of a certiorari
41 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 42 rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory
43 judgment if he or she institutes suit within thirty days after a defi-
44 ciency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency assess-45 ment to the commissioner of finance prior to the institution of such 46 suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in section 11-2506 of this
47 chapter.

48 § 11-2510 Proceedings to recover tax. a. Whenever any operator or room 49 remarketer or any officer of a corporate operator or room remarketer or 50 any occupant or other person shall fail to collect and pay over any tax 51 and/or to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this chapter as 52 provided, the corporation counsel shall, upon the request of the commis-53 sioner of finance bring or cause to be brought an action to enforce the 54 payment of the same on behalf of the city of Staten Island in any court 55 of the state of New York or of any other state or of the United States.
56 If, however, the commissioner of finance in his or her discretion

1 believes that any such operator, or room remarketer, officer, occupant 2 or other person is about to cease business, leave the state or remove or 3 dissipate the assets out of which the tax, penalties or interest might 4 be satisfied, and that any such tax, penalty or interest will not be 5 paid when due, he or she may declare such tax, penalty or interest to be 6 immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately.

7 b. As an additional or alternate remedy, the commissioner of finance
8 may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff commanding him or her 9 to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the operator or 10 room remarketer or officer of a corporate operator or room remarketer or 11 of the occupant or other person liable for the tax, which may be found 12 within the city for the payment of the amount thereof, with any penal-13 ties and interest, and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return 14 such warrant to the commissioner of finance and to pay to him or her the 15 money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of 16 such warrant. The city sheriff shall within five days after the receipt 17 of the warrant file with the county clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon 18 such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person 19 mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax, penalties and inter-20 est for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is 21 filed. Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a 22 lien upon the title to and interest in real and personal property of the 23 person against whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then 24 proceed upon the warrant, in the same manner, and with like effect, as 25 that provided by law in respect to executions issued against property 26 upon judgments of a court of record, and for services in executing the 27 warrant such sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees, which he or she 28 may collect in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of 29 finance a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and 30 directed to any officer or employee of the department of finance, and in 31 the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
32 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 33 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 34 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-
35 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 36 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 37 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 38 returned unsatisfied.

39 c. Whenever an operator shall make a sale, transfer, or assignment in 40 bulk of any part or the whole of such operator's hotel or of his or her 41 lease, license or other agreement or right to possess or operate such 42 hotel, or of the equipment, furnishings, fixtures, supplies or stock of 43 merchandise, or of the said premises or lease, license or other agree-44 ment or right to possess or operate such hotel and the equipment, 45 furnishings, fixtures, supplies and stock of merchandise pertaining to 46 the conduct or operation of said hotel, otherwise than in the ordinary 47 and regular prosecution of business, the purchaser, transferee or assign-48 nee shall at least ten days before taking possession of the subject of 49 said sale, transfer or assignment, or paying therefor, notify the 50 commissioner of finance by registered mail of the proposed sale and of 51 the price, terms and conditions thereof whether or not the seller,
52 transferor or assignor, has represented to, or informed the purchaser, 53 transferee or assignee that it owes any tax pursuant to this chapter, 54 and whether or not the purchaser, transferee or assignee has knowledge 55 that such taxes are owing, and whether any such taxes are in fact owing.

1 Whenever the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall fail to give 2 notice to the commissioner of finance as required by the opening para-
3 graph of this subdivision, or whenever the commissioner of finance shall 4 inform the purchaser, transferee or assignee that a possible claim for 5 such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property or choses in 6 action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee or 7 assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor or 8 assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any 9 such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the sell-
10 er, transferor or assignor to the city, and the purchaser, transferee or 11 assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor or assignor 12 any such sums of money, property or choses in action to the extent of 13 the amount of the city's claim. For failure to comply with the 14 provisions of this subdivision, the purchaser, transferee or assignee,
15 in addition to being subject to the liabilities and remedies imposed
16 under the provisions of article six of the uniform commercial code,
17 shall be personally liable for the payment to the city of any such taxes 18 theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the city from the 19 seller, transferor or assignor, and such liability may be assessed and 20 enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this chapter.

21 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
22 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 23 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 24 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid taxes, addi-
25 tions to tax, penalties and interest filed pursuant to subdivision b of 26 this section, and such release or vacating of the warrant may be
27 recorded in the office of any recording officer in which such warrant
28 has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and discharge as of the 29 original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

30 § 11-2511 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 31 to the powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chapter, he 32 or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

33 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 34 carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof;

35 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 36 period not exceeding thirty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 37 connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

38 3. To request information from the tax commission of the state of New 39 York or the treasury department of the United States relative to any 40 person; and to afford information to such tax commission or such treas-
41 ury department relative to any person, any other provision of this chap-
42 ter to the contrary notwithstanding;

43 4. To delegate his or her functions under this section to a commis-44 sioner or deputy commissioner in the department of finance or to any 45 employee or employees of the department of finance;

46 5. To prescribe methods for determining the rents for occupancy and to 47 determine the taxable and non-taxable rents;

48 6. To require any operator within the city to keep detailed records of 49 the nature and type of hotel maintained and the nature and type of 50 service rendered, and to require any operator or room remarketer to keep 51 detailed records of the rooms available and rooms occupied daily, leases 52 or occupancy contracts or arrangements, rents received, charged and 53 accrued, the names and addresses of the occupants, whether or not any 54 occupancy is claimed to be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, 55 and to furnish such information upon request to the commissioner of 56 finance;

1 7. To assess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes imposed under
2 this chapter.

3 § 11-2512 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 4 commissioner of finance, his or her employees or agents duly designated 5 and authorized by him or her, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its 6 duly designated and authorized employees or agents shall have power to 7 administer oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or 8 proceeding in the exercise of their powers and duties under this chap-9 ter. The commissioner of finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall 10 have power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the 11 production of books, papers and documents to secure information perti-12 nent to the performance of the duties of the commissioner or the tax 13 appeals tribunal under this chapter and of the enforcement of this chap-
14 ter and to examine them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions 15 for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to 16 attend before such commissioner or tax appeals tribunal or excused from 17 attendance.

18 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 19 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 20 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, 21 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 22 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

23 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
24 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 25 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
26 title.

27 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 28 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal and witnesses attending in 29 response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to 30 officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as 31 otherwise provided under this section. Such officers shall be the city 32 sheriff and his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers or 33 employees of the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal, 34 designated to serve such process.

35 § 11-2513 Reference to tax. Whenever reference is made in placards 36 or advertisements or in any other publication to this tax, such refer-37 ence shall be substantially in the following form: "city tax on occupan-38 cy of hotel rooms", except that in any bill, receipt, statement or other 39 evidence or memorandum of occupancy or rent charge issued or employed by 40 the operator the words "city tax" will suffice.

41 § 11-2514 Registration. By June thirtieth, nineteen hundred seventy, 42 or in the case of operators or room remarketers commencing business or 43 opening new hotels after such date, within three days after such 44 commencement or opening, every operator or room remarketer shall file 45 with the commissioner of finance a certificate of registration in a form 46 prescribed by the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance 47 shall within five days after such registration issue without charge to 48 each operator or room remarketer a certificate of authority empowering 49 such operator or room remarketer to collect the tax from the occupant 50 and duplicate thereof for each additional hotel of such operator or room 51 remarketer. Each certificate or duplicate shall state the hotel to 52 which it is applicable. Such certificates of authority shall be promi-53 nently displayed by the operator or room remarketer in such manner that 54 it may be seen and come to the notice of all occupants and persons seek-55 ing occupancy. Such certificates shall be non-assignable and nontrans-56 ferable and shall be surrendered immediately to the commissioner of 1 finance upon the cessation of business at the hotel named or upon its 2 sale or transfer, or upon cessation of business of the named room

3 remarketer.

4 § 11-2515 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 5 any amount of tax is not paid or paid over on or before the last date
6 prescribed for payment, without regard to any extension of time granted
7 for payment, interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner 8 of finance pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate 9 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be 10 paid for the period from such last date to the date of payment. In 11 computing the amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be 12 compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if 13 the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

14 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
15 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 16 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 17 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 18 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such 19 return five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not 20 more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional 21 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 22 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

23 (B) In the case of a failure to file a return of tax within sixty days
24 of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined with regard
25 to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that such fail-
26 ure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the addi-
27 tion to tax under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not be less 28 than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one hundred percent of the 29 amount required to be shown as tax on such return.

30 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax required to be 31 shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the 32 tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the 33 tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed 34 upon the return.

35 (2) Failure to pay tax shown on return. In case of failure to pay the 36 amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed under this chapter
37 on or before the prescribed date, determined with regard to any exten-
38 sion of time for payment, unless it is shown that such failure is due to 39 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 40 the amount shown as tax on such return one-half of one percent of the 41 amount of such tax if the failure is not for more than one month, with 42 an additional one-half of one percent for each additional month or frac-
43 tion thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-
44 five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of computing the addition 45 for any month the amount of tax shown on the return shall be reduced by 46 the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the begin-47 ning of such month and by the amount of any credit against the tax which 48 may be claimed upon the return. If the amount of tax required to be 49 shown on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return,
50 this paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

51 (3) Failure to pay tax required to be shown on return. In case of 52 failure to pay any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on 53 a return required to be filed under this chapter which is not so shown,
54 including a determination made pursuant to section 11-2506 of this chap-
55 ter, within ten days of the date of a notice and demand therefor, unless 56 it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to

1 willful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax stated in
2 such notice and demand one-half of one percent of such tax if the fail-
3 ure is not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one
4 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such 5 failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.
6 For the purpose of computing the addition for any month, the amount of 7 tax stated in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of 8 any part of the tax which is paid before the beginning of such month.

9 (4) Limitations on additions.

10 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-11 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 12 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 13 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two. In any case
14 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 15 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced 16 below the amount provided in such paragraph.

17 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition
18 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 19 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
20 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one,
21 which is attributable to the tax for which the notice and demand is made
22 and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

23 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment
24 of tax is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or 25 any rules or regulations related thereto, but without intent to defraud, 26 there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to five percent of the 27 underpayment.

28 (2) There shall be added to the tax, in addition to the amount deter-
29 mined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to fifty 30 percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this section
31 with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in such para-
32 graph one which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disre-
33 gard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period beginning on the 34 last date prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, determined
35 without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of the assess-
36 ment of the tax, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax.

37 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of 38 tax is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to 39 two times of the underpayment.

40 (2) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other
41 addition to tax imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

42 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 43 fail to pay any tax imposed by this chapter, or to make, render, sign or 44 certify any return, or to supply any information within the time
45 required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penalty of not 46 more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other amounts
47 required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and collected by the 48 commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall have the 49 power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or compromise any 50 penalty under this subdivision.

51 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
52 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
53 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 54 tax imposed by this chapter.

55 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance
56 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of

1 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
2 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate
3 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 4 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 5 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to taxes, or any 6 portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 7 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 8 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
9 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

10 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
11 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 12 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) seven percentage points.

13 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

14 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal 15 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
16 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
17 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 18 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 19 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 20 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
21 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

22 (B) Period during which rate applies.

23 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
24 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
25 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 26 such month.

27 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
28 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 29 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 30 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

31 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 32 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
33 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
34 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
35 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 36 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-
37 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the
38 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 39 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

40 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) Officers of a corporate operator or room 41 remarketer and partners in a partnership which is an operator or room 42 remarketer shall be personally liable for the tax collected or required 43 to be collected by such corporation or partnership under this chapter, 44 and subject to the penalties and interest imposed by this section.

45 (2) The certificate of the commissioner of finance to the effect that 46 a tax has not been paid, that a return, bond or registration certificate 47 has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant 48 to the provisions of this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence there-49 of.

50 (3) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
51 title.

52 (i) Any person required to make or maintain records under this chapter 53 who fails to make or maintain or make available to the commissioner 54 these records is subject to a penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars 55 for the first quarterly period or part thereof for which the failure 56 occurs and not to exceed five thousand dollars for each additional quar-

1 terly period or part thereof for which the failure occurs. This penalty 2 is in addition to any other penalty provided for in this chapter but may 3 not be imposed and collected more than once for failures for the same
4 quarterly period or part thereof. If the commissioner determines that a 5 failure to make or maintain or make available records in any quarterly 6 period was entirely due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, 7 the commissioner must remit the penalty imposed for that quarterly peri-8 od. These penalties will be paid and disposed of in the same manner as 9 other revenues from this chapter. These penalties will be determined, 10 assessed, collected, paid and enforced in the same manner as the tax 11 imposed by this chapter, and all the provisions of this chapter relating 12 to tax will be deemed also to apply to the penalties imposed by this 13 subdivision. For purposes of the penalty imposed by this subdivision, a 14 person will be considered to have failed to make or maintain the 15 required records when the commissioner of finance determines that the 16 records made or maintained by that person for a quarterly period do not 17 enable the commissioner to verify occupancy or the amounts received for 18 such occupancy or the taxability of that occupancy and to conduct a 19 complete audit.

20 (j) Any person required to make or maintain records under this chapter 21 who fails to present and make available these records in an auditable 22 form is subject to a penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each 23 quarterly period or part thereof for which records maintained by that 24 person are not presented and made available by that person in auditable 25 form, even if these records are adequate to verify credits, receipts, 26 and the taxability thereof and to perform a complete audit. This penal-27 ty is in addition to any other penalty provided for in this chapter, but 28 will not be imposed and collected more than once for these failures for 29 the same quarterly period or part thereof. If the commissioner deter-30 mines that any failure described in this subdivision for a quarterly 31 period was entirely due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, 32 the commissioner must remit the penalty imposed for that quarter. The 33 penalties imposed by this subdivision will be paid and disposed of in 34 the same manner as other revenues from this chapter. These penalties 35 will be determined, assessed, collected, paid and enforced in the same 36 manner as the tax imposed by this chapter, and all the provisions of 37 this chapter relating to tax will be deemed also to apply to the penal-38 ties imposed by this subdivision. For purposes of the penalty imposed by 39 this subdivision, a person will be considered to have failed to present 40 and make records available in auditable form when the records presented 41 by that person for that quarter lack sufficient organization, such as by 42 date, invoice number, sales receipts, or sequential numbering, or are 43 otherwise inadequate, without reorganizing, reordering or otherwise 44 rearranging the records into an auditable form, to permit direct recon-45 ciliation of the receipts, invoices or other source documents with the 46 entries for the quarterly period in the books and records and on the 47 returns of that person.

48 (k) Any person who, having elected to maintain in an electronic format 49 any portion or all of the records he or she is required to make and 50 maintain by this chapter, fails to present and make these records avail-51 able and accessible to the commissioner in electronic format, is subject 52 to a penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each quarterly 53 period or part thereof for which these electronic records are not 54 presented and made available and accessible upon request, notwithstand-55 ing that the records may also be maintained and available in hard copy 56 format. This penalty is in addition to any other penalty provided for in

1 this chapter, but may not be imposed and collected more than once for a 2 failure for the same quarterly period or part thereof. Provided, howev-3 er, nothing in this subdivision will prevent the separate imposition, if 4 applicable, of any penalty imposed by subdivision (i) or (j) of this 5 section for the same quarterly period or part thereof. If the commis-6 sioner determines that the failure to present and make electronically 7 maintained records available and accessible for a quarterly period was 8 entirely due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, the commis-
9 sioner must remit the penalty imposed for that quarter. These penalties 10 will be paid and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from 11 this chapter. These penalties will be determined, assessed, collected, 12 paid and enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter, 13 and all the provisions of this chapter relating to tax will be deemed 14 also to apply to the penalty imposed by this subdivision. For purposes 15 of the penalty imposed by this subdivision, a failure to present and 16 make available and accessible a record maintained in electronic format 17 includes not only the denial of access to the requested records that 18 were maintained electronically, but also the failure to make available 19 to the commissioner the information, knowledge, or means necessary to 20 access and otherwise use the electronically maintained records in the 21 inspection and examination of these records.

22 (l) Aiding or assisting in the giving of fraudulent returns, reports, 23 statements or other documents. Any person who, with the intent that tax 24 be evaded, for a fee or other compensation or as an incident to the 25 performance of other services for which that person receives compen-26 sation, aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the prepa-27 ration or presentation under this chapter, or in connection with any 28 matter arising under this chapter, of any return, report, declaration, 29 statement or other document that is fraudulent or false as to any mate-30 rial matter, or supplies any false or fraudulent information, whether or 31 not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person 32 authorized or required to present that return, report, declaration, 33 statement or other document, will pay a penalty not exceeding five thou-34 sand dollars. The definitions in subsection (l) of section one thousand 35 eighty-five of the tax law apply for the purposes of this penalty.

36 (m) False or fraudulent document penalty. Any taxpayer that submits a 37 false or fraudulent document to the department will be subject to a 38 penalty of one hundred dollars per document submitted, or five hundred 39 dollars per tax return submitted. This penalty will be in addition to 40 any other penalty provided by law.

41 § 11-2516 Returns to be secret. a. Except in accordance with proper 42 judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful 43 for the commissioner of finance, any officer or employee of the depart-44 ment of finance, any person engaged or retained on an independent 45 contract basis, the tax appeals tribunal, any commissioner or employee 46 of such tribunal, or any person who, pursuant to this section, is 47 permitted to inspect any return or to whom a copy, an abstract or a 48 portion of any return is furnished, or to whom any information contained 49 in any return is furnished, to divulge or make known in any manner the 50 rents or other information relating to the business of a taxpayer
51 contained in any return required under this chapter. The officers 52 charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to 53 produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any 54 action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner
55 of finance in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chap-
56 ter or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the

1 provisions of this chapter when the returns or facts shown thereby are 2 directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which 3 events the court may require the production of, and may admit in 4 evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are 5 pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. Nothing in this 6 section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his 7 or her duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return 8 filed in connection with his or her tax; nor to prohibit the delivery of 9 such a certified copy of such return or of any information contained in 10 or relating thereto, to the United States of America or any department 11 thereof, to the state of New York or any department thereof, or to any 12 agency or department of the city of Staten Island, provided the same is 13 requested for official business; nor to prohibit the inspection for 14 official business of such returns by the corporation counsel or other 15 legal representatives of the city or by the district attorney of any 16 county within the city; nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so 17 classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and 18 the items thereof. Returns shall be preserved for three years and ther-19 eafter until the commissioner of finance permits them to be destroyed.

20 b. (1) Any officer or employee of the city who willfully violates the 21 provisions of subdivision a of this section shall be dismissed from 22 office and be incapable of holding any public office for a period of 23 five years thereafter.

24 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
25 title.

26 c. This section shall be deemed a state statute for purposes of para-
27 graph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public offi-
28 cers law.

29 d. Notwithstanding anything in subdivision a of this section to the 30 contrary, if a taxpayer has petitioned the tax appeals tribunal for 31 administrative review as provided in section one hundred seventy of the 32 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
33 teen hundred ninety-four, the commissioner of finance shall be author-
34 ized to present to the tribunal any report or return of such taxpayer,
35 or any information contained therein or relating thereto, which may be 36 material or relevant to the proceeding before the tribunal. The tax
37 appeals tribunal shall be authorized to publish a copy or a summary of 38 any decision rendered pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one of the
39 charter of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nine-
40 teen hundred ninety-four.

41 § 11-2517 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized or 42 required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing
43 the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope
44 addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed 45 by him or her pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or in any 46 application made by him or her or, if no return has been filed or appli-47 cation made, then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing of 48 such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by 49 the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined 50 according to the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice
51 shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

52 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
53 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy
54 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to levy,
55 appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or 56 penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case of a

1 wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no
2 assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more
3 than three years from the date of the filing of a return; provided,
4 however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax
5 may be assessed at any time.

6 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed in this 7 section for the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has 8 consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such 9 additional tax due may be determined at any time within such extended
10 period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent 11 consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period.

12 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other
13 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
14 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
15 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
16 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 17 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 18 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such 19 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark
20 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery. This 21 subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 22 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 23 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-24 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 25 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the
26 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
27 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 28 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 29 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 30 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
31 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
32 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-33 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance and,
34 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal are authorized to provide by 35 regulation the extent to which, such provisions with respect to prima
36 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date, shall apply to certi-
37 fied mail. Except as provided in subdivision f of this section, this 38 subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not made by the United 39 States postal service only if and to the extent provided by regulation 40 of the commissioner of finance or, where relevant, the tax appeals 41 tribunal.

42 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
43 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
44 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 45 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
46 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

47 f. (1) Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
48 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
49 service designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States
50 pursuant to section seventy-five hundred two of the internal revenue
51 code and any reference in subdivision d of this section to a United 52 States postmark shall be treated as including a reference to any date
53 recorded or marked in the manner described in section seventy-five
54 hundred two of the internal revenue code by a designated delivery
55 service. If the commissioner of finance finds that any delivery service
56 designated by such secretary is inadequate for the needs of the city,

1 the commissioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes
2 of this title. The commissioner of finance may also designate additional 3 delivery services meeting the criteria of section seventy-five hundred 4 two of the internal revenue code for purposes of this title, or may 5 withdraw any such designation if the commissioner of finance finds that 6 a delivery service so designated is inadequate for the needs of the 7 city. Any reference in subdivision d of this section to the United
8 States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any delivery
9 service designated by the commissioner of finance and any reference in 10 subdivision d of this section to a United States postmark shall be 11 treated as including a reference to any date recorded or marked in the 12 manner described in section seventy-five hundred two of the internal 13 revenue code by a delivery service designated by the commissioner of 14 finance, provided, however any withdrawal of designation or additional 15 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 16 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 17 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 18 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

19 (2) Any equivalent of registered or certified mail designated by the 20 United States secretary of the treasury, or as may be designated by the 21 commissioner of finance pursuant to the same criteria used by such 22 secretary for such designations pursuant to section seventy-five hundred 23 two of the internal revenue code, shall be included within the meaning
24 of registered or certified mail as used in subdivision d of this 25 section. If the commissioner of finance finds that any equivalent of 26 registered or certified mail designated by such secretary or the commis-
27 sioner of finance is inadequate for the needs of the city, the commis-
28 sioner of finance may withdraw such designation for purposes of this 29 title, provided, however, any withdrawal of designation or additional 30 designation by the commissioner of finance shall not be effective for 31 purposes of service upon the tax appeals tribunal, unless and until such 32 withdrawal of designation or additional designation is ratified by the 33 president of the tax appeals tribunal.

34 § 11-2518 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 35 construed and enforced in conformity with chapter one hundred sixty-one 36 of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy, as amended by chapter one 37 hundred sixty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy, pursuant to 38 which it is enacted.

39 § 11-2519 Tourism and convention fund. Notwithstanding any provision 40 of law to the contrary, with respect to the additional tax imposed at 41 the rate of six percent on and after September first, nineteen hundred 42 ninety and before December first, nineteen hundred ninety-four pursuant 43 to subparagraph (B) of paragraph three of subdivision a of section 44 11-2502 of this chapter, four and one-sixth percent of the total reven-45 ues resulting from the imposition of such tax, including four and one-46 sixth percent of any interest or penalties thereon, shall be credited to 47 and deposited in a special tourism and convention fund, which shall be 48 used solely for the purpose of promoting tourism and conventions in the 49 city. Seven-eighths of the moneys in such fund shall be made available 50 to the New York Convention and Visitor's Bureau, Inc. pursuant to an 51 annual contract with the city which may specify, among other things, the 52 services which shall be provided by such bureau with such moneys and the 53 content and number of reports which will have to be provided by such 54 bureau to the city concerning the expenditure of such moneys, and 55 provided that the annual budget and business plan of such bureau is 56 approved by the mayor of the city or his or her designee. The remaining

1 one-eighth of the fund shall be spent for promoting tourism and 2 conventions which may include, at the mayor's discretion, moneys spent 3 in connection with additional contracts made with the New York Conven-
4 tion and Visitor's Bureau, Inc. For purposes of this section, the term 5 "promoting tourism and conventions" shall mean developing, placing and 6 purchasing advertising promoting the city, and engaging in such other 7 efforts as are designed to attract tourists and conventions to the city.

CHAPTER 26

10 § 11-2601 Imposition of tax. a. A tax of fifty cents for each one 11 hundred dollars and each remaining major fraction thereof of principal 12 debt or obligation which is, or under any contingency may be secured at 13 the date of execution thereof or at any time thereafter by a mortgage on 14 real property situated within the city and recorded on or after August 15 first, nineteen hundred seventy-one and prior to February first, nine-16 teen hundred eighty-two, is hereby imposed on each such mortgage and 17 shall be collected and paid as provided in this chapter. If the princi-18 pal debt or obligation which is or by any contingency may be secured by 19 such mortgage is less than one hundred dollars, a tax of fifty cents is 20 hereby imposed on such mortgage, and shall be collected and paid as 21 provided in this chapter.

22 b. With respect to: (1) one, two or three-family houses, individual 23 cooperative apartments and individual residential condominium units, and 24 (2) real property securing a principal debt or obligation of less than 25 five hundred thousand dollars, a tax of fifty cents, and with respect to 26 all other real property a tax of one dollar and twelve and one-half 27 cents, for each one hundred dollars and each remaining major fraction 28 thereof of principal debt or obligation which is, or under any contin-29 gency may be secured at the date of execution thereof or at any time 30 thereafter by a mortgage on such real property situated within the city 31 and recorded on or after February first, nineteen hundred eighty-two and 32 before July first, nineteen hundred eighty-two, is hereby imposed on 33 each such mortgage and shall be collected and paid as provided in this 34 chapter. If the principal debt or obligation which is or by any contin-35 gency may be secured by such mortgage is less than one hundred dollars, 36 a tax of one dollar is hereby imposed on such mortgage, and shall be 37 collected and paid as provided in this chapter.

38 c. With respect to: (1) real property securing a principal debt or 39 obligation of less than five hundred thousand dollars, a tax of fifty 40 cents, (2) with respect to one, two or three-family houses, individual 41 cooperative apartments and individual residential condominium units 42 securing a principal debt or obligation of five hundred thousand dollars 43 or more, a tax of sixty-two and one-half cents, and (3) with respect to 44 all other real property, a tax of one dollar and twenty-five cents, for 45 each one hundred dollars and each remaining major fraction thereof of 46 principal debt or obligation which is, or under any contingency may be 47 secured at the date of execution thereof or at any time thereafter by a 48 mortgage on such real property situated within the city and recorded on 49 or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-two and before August
50 first, nineteen hundred ninety, is hereby imposed on each such mortgage 51 and shall be collected and paid as provided in this chapter. If the 52 principal debt or obligation which is or by any contingency may be 53 secured by such mortgage is less than one hundred dollars, a tax of one

1 dollar is hereby imposed on such mortgage and shall be collected and 2 paid as provided in this chapter.

3 d. With respect to: (1) real property securing a principal debt or 4 obligation of less than five hundred thousand dollars, a tax of one 5 dollar, (2) with respect to one, two or three-family houses and individ-6 ual residential condominium units securing a principal debt or obli-7 gation of five hundred thousand dollars or more, a tax of one dollar and 8 twelve and one-half cents, and (3) with respect to all other real prop-9 erty, a tax of one dollar and seventy-five cents, for each one hundred 10 dollars and each remaining major fraction thereof of principal debt or 11 obligation which is, or under any contingency may be secured at the date 12 of execution thereof, or at anytime thereafter by a mortgage on such 13 real property situated within the city and recorded on or after August 14 first, nineteen hundred ninety, is hereby imposed on each such mortgage
15 and shall be collected and paid as provided in this chapter. If the 16 principal debt or obligation which is or by any contingency may be 17 secured by such mortgage is less than one hundred dollars, a tax of one 18 dollar is hereby imposed on such mortgage and shall be collected and 19 paid as provided in this chapter.

20 e. (1) For the purpose of determining whether a mortgage is subject to 21 the tax imposed by subdivision b or c of this section at a rate in 22 excess of fifty cents, or by subdivision d of this section at a rate in 23 excess of one dollar, for each one hundred dollars and each remaining 24 major fraction thereof of principal debt or obligation, the principal 25 debt or obligation which is or under any contingency may be secured at 26 the date of execution thereof, or at any time thereafter, by such mort-27 gage shall be aggregated with the principal debt or obligation which is 28 or under any contingency may be secured at the date of execution there-29 of, or at any time thereafter, by any other mortgage, where such mort-30 gages form part of the same or related transactions and have the same or 31 related mortgagors. If the commissioner of taxation and finance finds 32 that a mortgage transaction or mortgage transactions have been formu-33 lated for the purpose of avoiding or evading a rate of tax imposed under 34 this section in excess of the lowest such rate, rather than solely for 35 an independent business or financial purpose, such commissioner shall 36 treat all of the mortgages forming part of such transaction or trans-37 actions as a single mortgage for the purpose of determining the applica-38 ble rate of tax. For the purposes of this subdivision, all mortgages 39 having the same or related mortgagors offered for recording within a 40 period of twelve consecutive months shall be presumed to form part of a 41 related transaction, unless clear and convincing evidence is offered to 42 the contrary. The commissioner of taxation and finance may require such 43 affidavits and forms, and may prescribe such rules and regulations, as 44 he or she determines to be necessary to enforce the provisions of this 45 subdivision.

46 (2) The term "related", when used in this subdivision with reference 47 to mortgagors, shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following 48 relationships:

49 (i) members of a family, including spouses, ancestors, lineal descend-50 ants, and brothers and sisters, whether by the whole or half blood;

51 (ii) a shareholder and a corporation more than fifty percent of the 52 value of the outstanding stock of which is owned or controlled directly 53 or indirectly by such shareholder;

54 (iii) a partner and a partnership more than fifty percent of the capi-55 tal or profits interest in which is owned or controlled directly or 56 indirectly by such partner;

1 (iv) a beneficiary and a trust more than fifty percent of the benefi-2 cial interest in which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by 3 such beneficiary;

4 (v) two or more corporations, partnerships, associations, or trusts, 5 or any combination thereof, which are owned or controlled, either 6 directly or indirectly, by the same person, corporation or other entity, 7 or interests; and 8 (vi) a grantor of a trust and such trust.

9 f. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in paragraph (a) of 10 subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-five of the tax law, the 11 taxes imposed by subdivision c or d of this section shall also apply to 12 principal indebtedness or obligation secured by or which under any 13 contingency may be secured by a supplemental instrument or additional 14 mortgage, whether or not there is any new or further indebtedness or 15 obligation other than the principal indebtedness or obligation secured 16 by a recorded primary mortgage, where (1) the supplemental instrument or 17 additional mortgage imposes the lien of a recorded mortgage upon real 18 property situated within the city not previously subject to the mortgage 19 or where an additional mortgage upon such additional property is 20 recorded as additional or substitute security for indebtedness or obli-21 gation already secured by a recorded mortgage and (2) the recorded 22 primary mortgage was on real property outside the city and recorded 23 without payment of the city tax.

24 § 11-2602 Payment and payment over of taxes. The taxes imposed by 25 this chapter shall be payable on the recording of each mortgage of real 26 property subject to taxes pursuant to such chapter. Such taxes shall be 27 paid to the recording officer of the county in which the real property 28 or any part thereof is situated, except where real property is situated 29 within and without the city, the recording officer of the county in 30 which the mortgage is first recorded shall collect the tax imposed by 31 this chapter, as required by subdivision three of section two hundred 32 fifty-three-a of the tax law. It shall be the duty of such recording 33 officer to indorse upon each mortgage a receipt for the amount of the 34 tax so paid. Any mortgage so endorsed may thereupon or thereafter be 35 recorded by any recording officer and the receipt for such tax indorsed 36 upon each mortgage shall be recorded therewith. The record of such 37 receipt shall be conclusive proof that the amount of tax stated therein 38 has been paid upon such mortgage. Upon the first day of each month the 39 city register and the recording officer of Richmond county shall pay 40 over to the commissioner of finance of the city for credit to the gener-41 al fund of such city, the balance of the moneys received during the 42 preceding month upon account of taxes paid to him or her as prescribed 43 in this section, after deducting the necessary expenses of his or her 44 office as provided in section two hundred sixty-two of the tax law, 45 except taxes paid upon mortgages which are first to be apportioned by 46 the commissioner of taxation and finance, which taxes and money shall be 47 paid over by him or her as provided by the determination of the said 48 commissioner of taxation and finance, provided, however, in each 49 instance where the tax imposed pursuant to section 11-2601 of this chap-50 ter is one dollar and twenty-five cents for each one hundred dollars and 51 each remaining major fraction thereof of such principal debt or obli-52 gation, fifty percent of the total amount of such tax, including fifty 53 percent of any interest or penalties thereon, shall be set aside in a 54 special account by the commissioner of finance, and in each instance 55 where the tax imposed pursuant to that section is one dollar and seven-56 ty-five cents for each one hundred dollars and each remaining major

1 fraction thereof of such principal debt or obligation, thirty-five and 2 seven-tenths percent of the total amount of such tax, including thirty-3 five and seven-tenths percent of any interest or penalties thereon, 4 shall also be set aside in such special account. Moneys in such account 5 shall be used for payment by such commissioner to the state comptroller 6 for deposit in the urban mass transit operating assistance account of 7 the mass transportation operating assistance fund of any amount of 8 insufficiency certified by the state comptroller pursuant to the 9 provisions of subdivision six of section eighty-eight-a of the state 10 finance law, and on the fifteenth day of each month, such commissioner 11 shall transmit all funds in such account at the end of the preceding 12 month, except the amount required for the payment of any amount of 13 insufficiency certified by the state comptroller and such amount as he 14 or she deems necessary for refunds and such other amounts necessary to 15 finance the city transportation disabled committee and the city para-16 transit system as established by section fifteen-b of the transportation 17 law, provided, however, that such amounts shall not exceed six percent 18 of the total funds in the account but in no event be less than two 19 hundred twenty-five thousand dollars beginning April first, nineteen 20 hundred eighty-six, and further that beginning November fifteenth, nine-21 teen hundred eighty-four and during the entire period prior to operation 22 of such system, the total of such amounts shall not exceed three hundred 23 seventy-five thousand dollars for the administrative expenses of such 24 committee and fifty thousand dollars for the expenses of the agency 25 designated pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision five of such section, 26 and other amounts necessary to finance the operating needs of the 27 private bus companies franchised by the city of Staten Island and eligi-28 ble to receive state operating assistance under section eighteen-b of 29 the transportation law, provided, however, that such amounts shall not 30 exceed four percent of the total funds in the account, to the New York 31 city transit authority for mass transit within the city.

32 § 11-2603 Manner of administration and collection. The taxes imposed 33 under this chapter shall be administered and collected in the same 34 manner as the taxes imposed under subdivision one of section two hundred 35 fifty-three and subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-five of the 36 tax law. All the provisions of article eleven of the tax law relating 37 to or applicable to the administration and collection of the taxes 38 imposed by subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-three and subdivi-39 sion one of section two hundred fifty-five of the tax law shall apply 40 to the taxes imposed under this chapter with the same force and effect 41 as if those provisions had been set forth in full in this chapter except 42 to the extent that any such provision is either inconsistent with a 43 provision of this chapter or not relevant to the tax imposed by this 44 chapter. For purposes of this chapter any reference in article eleven 45 of the tax law to the tax or taxes imposed by such article shall be 46 deemed to refer to a tax imposed by this chapter, and any reference to 47 the phrase "within this state" shall be read as "within this city" 48 unless a different meaning is clearly required. Whenever real property 49 covered by the mortgage is partly within and partly without the city of 50 Staten Island, the portion of the mortgage taxable under this chapter 51 shall be determined in the manner prescribed in the first paragraph of 52 section two hundred sixty of the tax law where the property without the 53 city is located within the state and, in the manner prescribed in the 54 second paragraph of such section of the tax law, where the property 55 without the city is located without the state.

1 § 11-2604 Tax additional. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be 2 in addition to any taxes imposed by section two hundred fifty-three of 3 the tax law.

23 and furnishing of such proof as the commissioner of finance may require.
24 Where such closing is limited to a part of a vault, such a refund shall 25 be granted only to the extent that the closing reduces the area of the 26 vault and thereby the amount of the charge for the vault.

27 § 11-2703 Exemptions. The charges imposed by this chapter shall not 28 apply to the following:

29 1. The state of New York, or any public corporation, including a
30 public corporation created pursuant to agreement or compact with another
31 state or the Dominion of Canada, improvement district or other political 32 subdivision of the state;

33 2. The United States of America, insofar as it is immune from taxa-
34 tion;

35 3. The United Nations or other world-wide international organizations
36 of which the United States of America is a member;

37 4. Any corporation, or association, or trust, or community chest, fund
38 or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, chari-39 table, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to 40 children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to 41 the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no substantial 42 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 43 attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in 44 this subdivision shall include an organization operated for the primary 45 purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not 46 all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in 47 this subdivision.

48 5. Any vault constituting property defined as a special franchise in 49 section one hundred two of the real property tax law or assessed as such 50 pursuant to article six of such law.

51 6. Any vault to the extent that it is used, occupied or maintained 52 pursuant to a revocable consent granted pursuant to section three 53 hundred seventy-four of the charter of the preceding municipality as it 54 existed January first, nineteen hundred ninety-four.

55 7. Any vault immediately adjoining a building or structure designed 56 for and used exclusively as a single-family or a two-family dwelling

1 house or any other real property which is classified as class one real 2 property pursuant to section eighteen hundred two of the real property 3 tax law.

4 8. Any street occupancy usable solely and exclusively for the melting 5 of snow and ice, or for delivery into the immediately adjoining prem-6 ises, of coal, oil or other fuel for the heating thereof.

7 9. Any vault occupying no more than thirty-six square feet in plane or 8 surface area, irrespective of the depth of such vault.

9 § 11-2704 Filing of returns. a. Every person subject to the annual 10 vault charge under this chapter shall, on or before the first day of 11 August, nineteen hundred sixty-two, and on or before the fifteenth day 12 of July of every year thereafter, file with the commissioner of finance 13 a return showing the dimensions of the vault as to length, width and 14 depth, except that the return required to be filed on or before July 15 fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-two shall be filed on or before June 16 fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-two and those due in later years 17 shall be required to be filed on or before June fifteenth of such years.
18 The commissioner of finance, if he or she deems it necessary to insure 19 adequate information with regard to the proper charge to be imposed, may 20 require information returns from other persons, including the owners of 21 real property regardless of whether a vault has been extended therefrom, 22 the users or lessees of the vault or lessees or tenants of the property 23 adjoining the vault.

24 b. The forms of returns shall be prescribed by the commissioner of 25 finance and shall contain such information as he or she may deem neces-26 sary for the proper administration of this chapter; and the commissioner 27 of finance or his or her duly authorized agents or employees shall be 28 empowered to require supplemental returns. If a return required by this 29 chapter is not filed or if the return when filed is incorrect or insuf-30 ficient on its face, the commissioner of finance shall take the neces-31 sary steps to enforce the filing of such a return or of a corrected 32 return. Upon failure to comply with a notice to furnish a return or a 33 sufficient return, the commissioner of finance may require the filing of 34 a certificate signed by a city surveyor specifying the dimensions of the 35 vault.

36 c. For each annual vault charge year beginning on or after June first, 37 nineteen hundred eighty-nine, the commissioner of finance shall, at 38 least thirty days prior to the commencement of such year, mail to each 39 person who has filed an annual vault charge return for the immediately 40 preceding year an annual vault charge return form on which shall be 41 shown the amount of the charge for such immediately preceding year. Such 42 return form shall be accompanied by instructions which explain in clear 43 and simple terms how to determine the dimensions and extent of street 44 occupancy of a vault, how to calculate the amount of the charge, and 45 such other matters as the commissioner considers necessary or helpful to 46 an understanding of the requirements of this chapter, provided, however, 47 neither the failure of the commissioner to mail such return form and 48 instructions nor the failure of any person to receive the same shall 49 relieve any person of the obligation to file any return required under 50 this section or of liability for the charge, interest or penalties 51 imposed by this chapter.

52 d. If no form or other notice has previously been sent to a person 53 subject to the annual vault charge with respect to the amount of vault 54 charge owed for any year, the commissioner of finance shall notify such 55 person of the amount owed as soon as practicable after discovering that 56 such amount is owed.

1 § 11-2705 Payment of vault charges. a. At the time of filing a return 2 as required by this chapter the person subject to the annual vault 3 charge shall pay to the commissioner of finance the charge imposed by 4 this chapter. Such charge shall be due and payable on the last day on 5 which such return is required to be filed, without regard to whether a 6 return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the 7 amount due.

8 b. The charge otherwise required to be paid with the return due on or 9 before June fifteenth, nineteen hundred eighty shall be paid in two 10 equal installments as follows: one-half of the charge shall be paid with 11 the return on or before June fifteenth, nineteen hundred eighty, and 12 one-half of the charge shall be paid on or before September fifteenth, 13 nineteen hundred eighty.

14 § 11-2706 Presumption and burden of proof. For the purpose of the 15 proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the 16 annual vault charge hereby imposed, it shall be presumed, except where 17 the depth of a vault exceeds twelve feet, that the size of the vault as 18 indicated upon the license therefor originally issued by the former 19 borough president of Staten Island up to and including December thirty-20 first, nineteen hundred sixty-two, and the commissioner of transporta-21 tion thereafter is a proper measure of the charge until the contrary is 22 established, and the burden of proving that the size of the vault is not 23 accurately stated upon the license shall be upon the person so claiming.
24 In cases where no license of record has been issued for a vault or where 25 the depth of a vault exceeds twelve feet, the burden of proving the 26 actual size of the vault shall be upon the person liable for the vault 27 charge.

28 § 11-2707 Determination of vault charge. If a return required by this 29 chapter is not filed or if a return when filed is incorrect or insuffi-30 cient, the amount of the vault charge due shall be determined by the 31 commissioner of finance from such information as may be obtainable and, 32 if necessary, the charge may be estimated on the basis of external 33 indices, including but not limited to the records of the department of 34 transportation, the reports of tax assessors, the reports of inspectors 35 and investigators in the offices of the commissioner of finance and 36 commissioner of transportation, or other information or factors. Notice 37 of such determination shall be given to the person liable for the 38 payment thereof. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix 39 the vault charge unless the person against whom it is assessed shall, 40 within ninety days after the giving of notice of such determination, or, 41 if the commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure 42 pursuant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding municipality and 43 such person has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-44 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 45 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 46 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commission-47 er of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal, or 48 unless the commissioner of finance of his or her own motion shall rede-49 termine the same. Upon such hearing the tax appeals tribunal may 50 require the filing of a certificate signed by a city surveyor specifying 51 the dimensions of the vault. After such hearing the tax appeals tribu-52 nal shall give notice of its decision to the person against whom the 53 vault charge is assessed. A decision of the tax appeals tribunal
54 sitting en banc shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitu-55 tionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article 56 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application there-

1 for is made to the supreme court by the person against whom the vault 2 charge was assessed within four months after the giving of the notice of 3 such tax appeals tribunal decision. A proceeding under article seventy-4 eight of the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted by a 5 person against whom the vault charge is assessed unless (a) the amount 6 of any vault charge sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest 7 thereon, if any, shall be first deposited with the commissioner of 8 finance and there shall be filed with the commissioner of finance an 9 undertaking in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the 10 supreme court shall approve, to the effect that if such proceeding be 11 dismissed or the vault charge confirmed the person against whom the 12 vault charge is assessed will pay all costs and charges which may accrue 13 in the prosecution of the proceeding, or (b) at the option of such 14 person, such undertaking filed with the commissioner of finance may be 15 in a sum sufficient to cover the vault charge, penalties and interest 16 thereon stated in such decision plus the costs and charges which may 17 accrue against him or her in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which 18 event such person shall not be required to deposit such vault charge, 19 penalties and interest as a condition precedent to the application.

20 § 11-2708 Refunds. a. In the manner provided in this section, the 21 commissioner of finance shall refund or credit, without interest, any 22 vault charge, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitu-23 tionally collected or paid if application to the commissioner of finance 24 for such refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof.
25 Whenever a refund is made or denied by the commissioner of finance, he 26 or she shall state his or her reason therefor and give notice thereof to 27 the applicant in writing. Such application may be made by the owner of 28 the premises, or other person, who has actually paid the vault charge.
29 The commissioner of finance may, in lieu of any refund required to be 30 made, allow credit therefor on payments due from the applicant.

31 b. Any determination of the commissioner of finance denying a refund
32 or credit pursuant to subdivision a of this section shall be final and 33 irrevocable unless the applicant for such refund or credit, within nine-34 ty days from the mailing of notice of such determination, or, if the 35 commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursu-36 ant to section 11-124 of the code of the preceding municipality and the 37 applicant has requested a conciliation conference in accordance there-
38 with, within ninety days from the mailing of a conciliation decision or 39 the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the 40 conciliation proceeding, both (1) serves a petition upon the commission-41 er of finance and (2) files a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for 42 a hearing. Such petition for a refund or credit, made as provided in 43 this section, shall be deemed an application for a revision of any vault 44 charge, penalty or interest complained of. Such hearing and any appeal 45 to the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc from the decision rendered 46 in such hearing shall be conducted in the manner and subject to the 47 requirements prescribed by the tax appeals tribunal pursuant to sections 48 one hundred sixty-eight through one hundred seventy-two of the charter
49 of the preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen 50 hundred ninety-four. After such hearing, the tax appeals tribunal shall 51 give notice of its decision to the applicant and to the commissioner of 52 finance. The applicant shall be entitled to review such decision of the 53 tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc by a proceeding pursuant to article 54 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided such 55 proceeding is instituted within four months after the giving of the 56 notice of such decision, and provided, in the case of an application by

1 a person against whom the vault charge is assessed, that a final deter-
2 mination of the vault charge due was not previously made. Such a 3 proceeding shall not be instituted by a person against whom the vault 4 charge is assessed unless an undertaking is filed with the commissioner 5 of finance in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the 6 supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be 7 dismissed or the vault charge confirmed, such person will pay all costs 8 and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

9 c. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit 10 under this section of a vault charge, interest or penalty which had been 11 determined to be due pursuant to the provisions of section 11-2707 of 12 this chapter where he or she has had a hearing or an opportunity for a 13 hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail himself or 14 herself of the remedies therein provided. No refund or credit shall be 15 made of annual vault charge, interest or penalty paid after a determi-16 nation by the commissioner of finance made pursuant to section 11-2707 17 of this chapter unless it be found that such determination was errone-18 ous, illegal or unconstitutional or otherwise improper, by the tax 19 appeals tribunal after a hearing or on the commissioner's own motion, 20 or, if such tax appeals tribunal affirms in whole or in part the deter-
21 mination of the commissioner of finance, in a proceeding under article 22 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, pursuant to the 23 provisions of said section, in which event refund or credit without 24 interest shall be made of the vault charge, interest or penalty found to 25 have been overpaid.

26 § 11-2709 Reserves. In cases where the person or persons liable for 27 the vault charge imposed by this chapter has applied for a refund and 28 has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil 29 practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to him or her 30 on his or her application for refund, the comptroller shall set up 31 appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the city.

32 § 11-2710 Remedies exclusive. The remedies provided by sections
33 11-2707 and 11-2708 of this chapter shall be the exclusive remedies 34 available to any person for the review of the liability imposed under 35 this chapter, and no determination or proposed determination of an annu-36 al vault charge or determination on any application for refund by the 37 commissioner of finance, nor any decision by the tax appeals tribunal or 38 any of its administrative law judges, shall be enjoined or reviewed by 39 an action for declaratory judgment, an action for money had and received 40 or by any action or proceeding other than, in the case of a decision by 41 the tax appeals tribunal sitting en banc, a proceeding in the nature of 42 a certiorari proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil prac-43 tice law and rules; provided, however, that a person liable for the 44 annual vault charge may proceed by declaratory judgment if he or she 45 institutes suit within thirty days after a deficiency assessment is made 46 and pays the amount of the deficiency assessment to the commissioner of 47 finance prior to the institution of such suit and posts a bond for costs
48 as provided in section 11-2707 of this chapter.

49 § 11-2711 Proceedings to recover annual vault charge. a. Whenever any 50 person shall fail to pay any vault charge, penalty or interest imposed 51 by this chapter as provided in this chapter, the corporation counsel 52 shall, upon the request of the commissioner of finance bring, or cause 53 to be brought, an action to enforce the payment of the same on behalf of 54 the city of Staten Island in any court of the state of New York or of 55 any other state or of the United States.

1 b. As an additional remedy or as an alternate remedy, the commissioner 2 of finance may issue a warrant, directed to the city sheriff, commanding 3 him or her to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the 4 person liable for vault charges which may be found within the city for 5 the payment of the amount thereof, with any penalties and interest, and 6 the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the 7 commissioner of finance and to pay to him or her the money collected by 8 virtue thereof within sixty days after the receipt of such warrant. The 9 city sheriff shall within five days after the receipt of the warrant
10 file with the county clerk a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk 11 shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person mentioned in 12 the warrant and the amount of the vault charge, penalty and interest for 13 which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed. There-14 upon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon 15 the title to and interest in real and personal property of the person 16 against whom the warrant is issued. The city sheriff shall then proceed 17 upon the warrant in the same manner, and with like effect, as that 18 provided by law in respect to executions issued against property upon 19 judgments of a court of record and for services in executing the warrant 20 he or she shall be entitled to the same fees, which he or she may 21 collect in the same manner. In the discretion of the commissioner of 22 finance a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and 23 directed to an officer or employee of the department of finance, and in 24 the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the powers
25 conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or 26 compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of 27 such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the commis-
28 sioner of finance may from time to time issue new warrants and shall 29 also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if 30 the city had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been 31 returned unsatisfied.

32 c. In addition to any other lien provided for in this section, the 33 annual vault charge imposed by this chapter shall become a lien, binding 34 upon the premises immediately adjoining such vault, on the date such 35 charge is required to be paid until the same is paid in full.

36 d. The commissioner of finance, if he or she finds that the interests
37 of the city will not thereby be jeopardized, and upon such conditions as 38 the commissioner of finance may require, may release any property from 39 the lien of any warrant or vacate such warrant for unpaid vault charges, 40 additions to vault charges, penalties and interest filed pursuant to 41 subdivision b of this section, and such release or vacating of the 42 warrant may be recorded in the office of any recording officer in which 43 such warrant has been filed. The clerk shall thereupon cancel and 44 discharge as of the original date of docketing the vacated warrant.

45 § 11-2712 General powers of the commissioner of finance. In addition 46 to all other powers granted to the commissioner of finance in this chap-47 ter, he or she is hereby authorized and empowered:

48 1. To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the 49 carrying out of this chapter and the purpose thereof;

50 2. To extend, for cause shown, the time for filing any return for a 51 period not exceeding sixty days; and to compromise disputed claims in 52 connection with the vault charges imposed under this chapter;

53 3. To delegate his or her functions under this chapter to a deputy 54 commissioner of finance or any employee or employees of the department
55 of finance;

1 4. To prescribe methods for determining the size, dimensions, depth 2 and extent of street occupancy of a vault; to set forth the manner of 3 computing the vault charges under this chapter; to prescribe standards 4 or methods, by regulation or otherwise, for determining whether a vault 5 has been made unavailable for use or occupancy; and the commissioner of 6 finance or his or her designated employees or agents shall have power to 7 inspect premises for the purpose of determining the extent, if any, of 8 liability imposed by this chapter.

9 5. To require any owner of premises or licensee or other person using, 10 occupying or maintaining a vault to obtain from the commissioner of 11 finance a certificate stating the dimensions and depth of the vault and 12 that the vault charge thereon has been paid and to exhibit the same to 13 duly authorized employees at the premises or real property adjoining the 14 said vault, and to keep such records, and for such length of time, as 15 may be required for the proper administration of this chapter, and to 16 furnish such records to the commissioner of finance upon request;

17 6. To assess, reassess, determine, revise and readjust the vault 18 charges imposed under this chapter;

19 7. Where he or she has exercised his or her authorized power to 20 require the filing of a certificate signed by a city surveyor specifying 21 the dimensions of a vault and the owner of the premises has failed to 22 comply, he or she may obtain such certificate and, in such situation, 23 the necessary expense of obtaining such certificate shall constitute a 24 lien against such premises until paid.

25 8. The commissioner of finance or his or her designated employees or 26 agents shall have power to inspect premises for the purpose of determin-27 ing the extent, if any, of liability imposed by this chapter.

28 § 11-2713 Administration of oaths and compelling testimony. a. The 29 commissioner of finance, his or her employees duly designated and 30 authorized by the commissioner, the tax appeals tribunal and any of its 31 duly designated and authorized employees shall have power to administer 32 oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding in the 33 exercise of their powers and duties under this chapter. The commissioner 34 of finance and the tax appeals tribunal shall have power to subpoena and 35 require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers 36 and documents to secure information pertinent to the performance of the 37 duties of the commissioner or of the tax appeals tribunal under this 38 chapter and of the enforcement of this chapter and to examine them in 39 relation thereto, and to issue commissions for the examination of 40 witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before such 41 commissioner or the tax appeals tribunal or excused from attendance.

42 b. A justice of the supreme court either in court or at chambers shall 43 have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and 44 testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books,
45 papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the commissioner of 46 finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter.

47 c. Cross-reference; criminal penalties. For failure to obey subpoenas
48 or for testifying falsely, see section 11-4007 of this title; for 49 supplying false or fraudulent information, see section 11-4009 of this
50 title.

51 d. The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the commissioner 52 of finance or the tax appeals tribunal under this chapter and witnesses 53 attending in response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are 54 allowed to officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, 55 except as otherwise provided under this chapter. Such officers shall be 56 the city sheriff and his or her duly appointed deputies or any officers

1 or employees of the department of finance or the tax appeals tribunal,
2 designated to serve such process.

3 § 11-2714 Interest and penalties. (a) Interest on underpayments. If 4 any annual vault charge is not paid on or before the last date
5 prescribed for payment, without regard to any extension of time granted
6 for payment, interest on such amount at the rate set by the commissioner 7 of finance pursuant to subdivision (g) of this section, or, if no rate 8 is set, at the rate of seven and one-half percent per annum, shall be 9 paid for the period from such last date to the date of payment. In 10 computing the amount of interest to be paid, such interest shall be 11 compounded daily. Interest under this subdivision shall not be paid if 12 the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

13 (b) (1) Failure to file return. (A) In case of failure to file a
14 return under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined 15 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 16 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 17 there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as vault charge 18 on such return five percent of the amount of such charge if the failure 19 is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each
20 additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure contin-21 ues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate.

22 (B) In the case of a failure to file a vault charge return within 23 sixty days of the date prescribed for filing of such return, determined 24 with regard to any extension of time for filing, unless it is shown that 25 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 26 the addition to the vault charge under subparagraph (A) of this para-27 graph shall not be less than the lesser of one hundred dollars or one 28 hundred percent of the amount required to be shown as vault charge on 29 such return.

30 (C) For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of vault charge 31 required to be shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any 32 part of the charge which is paid on or before the date prescribed for 33 payment of the charge and by the amount of any credit against the charge 34 which may be claimed upon the return.

35 (2) Failure to pay vault charge shown on return. In case of failure to 36 pay the amount shown as vault charge on a return required to be filed 37 under this chapter on or before the prescribed date, determined with 38 regard to any extension of time for payment, unless it is shown that 39 such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, 40 there shall be added to the amount shown as vault charge on such return 41 one-half of one percent of the amount of such charge if the failure is 42 not for more than one month, with an additional one-half of one percent 43 for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure 44 continues, not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the 45 purpose of computing the addition for any month the amount of vault 46 charge shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of 47 the charge which is paid on or before the beginning of such month and by 48 the amount of any credit against the charge which may be claimed upon 49 the return. If the amount of vault charge required to be shown on a 50 return is less than the amount shown as such charge on such return, this 51 paragraph shall be applied by substituting such lower amount.

52 (3) Failure to pay vault charge required to be shown on return. In 53 case of failure to pay any amount in respect of any vault charge 54 required to be shown on a return required to be filed under this chapter 55 which is not so shown, including a determination made pursuant to 56 section 11-1106 of this title, within ten days of the date of a notice

1 and demand therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due to
2 reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be added to 3 the amount of vault charge stated in such notice and demand one-half of 4 one percent of such charge if the failure is not for more than one 5 month, with an additional one-half of one percent for each additional 6 month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not 7 exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. For the purpose of 8 computing the addition for any month, the amount of vault charge stated 9 in the notice and demand shall be reduced by the amount of any part of 10 the charge which is paid before the beginning of such month.

11 (4) Limitations on additions.

12 (A) With respect to any return, the amount of the addition under para-
13 graph one of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the 14 addition under paragraph two of this subdivision for any month to which 15 an addition applies under both paragraphs one and two. In any case
16 described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the 17 amount of the addition under such paragraph one shall not be reduced
18 below the amount provided in such subparagraph.

19 (B) With respect to any return, the maximum amount of the addition 20 permitted under paragraph three of this subdivision shall be reduced by 21 the amount of the addition under paragraph one of this subdivision,
22 determined without regard to subparagraph (B) of such paragraph one, 23 which is attributable to the charge for which the notice and demand is 24 made and which is not paid within ten days of such notice and demand.

25 (c) Underpayment due to negligence. (1) If any part of an underpayment 26 of a vault charge is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this 27 chapter or any rules or regulations pursuant thereto, but without intent 28 to defraud, there shall be added to the charge a penalty equal to five 29 percent of the underpayment.

30 (2) There shall be added to the charge, in addition to the amount 31 determined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to 32 fifty percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this 33 section with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in 34 such paragraph one which is attributable to the negligence or inten-35 tional disregard referred to in such paragraph one, for the period 36 beginning on the last date prescribed by law for payment of such under-37 payment, determined without regard to any extension, and ending on the 38 date of the assessment of the charge, or, if earlier, the date of the 39 payment of the charge.

40 (d) Underpayment due to fraud. (1) If any part of an underpayment of a 41 vault charge is due to fraud, there shall be added to the charge a 42 penalty equal to fifty percent of the underpayment.

43 (2) There shall be added to the charge, in addition to the penalty
44 determined under paragraph one of this subdivision, an amount equal to 45 fifty percent of the interest payable under subdivision (a) of this 46 section with respect to the portion of the underpayment described in 47 such paragraph one which is attributable to fraud, for the period begin-48 ning on the last day prescribed by law for payment of such underpayment, 49 determined without regard to any extension, and ending on the date of 50 the assessment of the charge, or, if earlier, the date of the payment of 51 the charge.

52 (3) The penalty under this subdivision shall be in lieu of any other 53 addition to the vault charge imposed by subdivision (b) or (c) of this
54 section.

55 (e) Additional penalty. Any person who, with fraudulent intent, shall 56 fail to pay any vault charge imposed by this chapter, or to make,

1 render, sign or certify any return, or to supply any information within 2 the time required by or under this chapter, shall be liable for a penal-3 ty of not more than one thousand dollars, in addition to any other 4 amounts required under this chapter to be imposed, assessed and 5 collected by the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance 6 shall have the power, in his or her discretion, to waive, reduce or 7 compromise any penalty under this subdivision.

8 (f) The interest and penalties imposed by this section shall be paid
9 and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this chapter.
10 Unpaid interest and penalties may be enforced in the same manner as the 11 vault charge imposed by this chapter.

12 (g)(1) Authority to set interest rates. The commissioner of finance, 13 shall set the rate of interest to be paid pursuant to subdivision (a) of 14 this section, but if no such rate of interest is set, such rate shall be
15 deemed to be set at seven and one-half percent per annum. Such rate 16 shall be the rate prescribed in paragraph two of this subdivision but 17 shall not be less than seven and one-half percent per annum. Any such 18 rate set by the commissioner of finance shall apply to vault charges, or 19 any portion thereof, which remain or become due on or after the date on 20 which such rate becomes effective and shall apply only with respect to 21 interest computed or computable for periods or portions of periods
22 occurring in the period in which such rate is in effect.

23 (2) General rule. The rate of interest set under this subdivision
24 shall be the sum of (i) the federal short-term rate as provided under 25 paragraph three of this subdivision, plus (ii) five percentage points.

26 (3) Federal short-term rate. For purposes of this subdivision:

27 (A) The federal short-term rate for any month shall be the federal
28 short-term rate determined by the United States secretary of the treas-
29 ury during such month in accordance with subsection (d) of section
30 twelve hundred seventy-four of the internal revenue code for use in 31 connection with section six thousand six hundred twenty-one of the 32 internal revenue code. Any such rate shall be rounded to the nearest 33 full percent, or, if a multiple of one-half of one percent, such rate
34 shall be increased to the next highest full percent.

35 (B) Period during which rate applies.

36 (i) In general. Except as provided in clause (ii) of this subpara-
37 graph, the federal short-term rate for the first month in each calendar
38 quarter shall apply during the first calendar quarter beginning after 39 such month.

40 (ii) Special rule for the month of September, nineteen hundred eight-
41 y-nine. The federal short-term rate for the month of April, nineteen 42 hundred eighty-nine shall apply with respect to setting the rate of 43 interest for the month of September, nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

44 (4) Publication of interest rate. The commissioner of finance shall 45 cause to be published in the City Record, and give other appropriate
46 general notice of, the interest rate to be set under this subdivision no
47 later than twenty days preceding the first day of the calendar quarter
48 during which such interest rate applies. The setting and publication of 49 such interest rate shall not be included within paragraph (a) of subdi-
50 vision five of section one thousand forty-one of the city charter of the 51 preceding municipality as it existed January first, nineteen hundred 52 ninety-four relating to the definition of a rule.

53 (h) Miscellaneous. (1) The certificate of the commissioner of finance 54 to the effect that a vault charge has not been paid, that a vault has 55 not been licensed, that a return has not been filed, that access has not

1 been allowed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the 2 provisions of this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

3 (2) Cross-reference: For criminal penalties, see chapter forty of this
4 title.

5 § 11-2715 Notices and limitations of time. a. Any notice authorized 6 or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given to the 7 person for whom it is intended by mailing it in a postpaid envelope 8 addressed to such person at the address given in the return filed by him 9 or her pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or in any application 10 made by him or her or, if no such return has been filed or application 11 made, then to the address of the premises immediately adjoining the 12 vault. The mailing of a notice as in this subdivision provided, shall 13 be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom 14 addressed. Any period of time which is determined according to the 15 provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run 16 from the date of mailing of such notice as in this subdivision provided.

17 b. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law
18 relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy 19 shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the city to 20 appraise, assess, determine, levy or enforce the collection of any vault 21 charge or penalty provided by this chapter. However, except in the case 22 of a wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the vault 23 charge, no assessment shall be made after the expiration of more than 24 three years from the date of such return; provided, however, that where 25 no return has been filed as provided by law, the annual vault charge may 26 be assessed at any time.

27 c. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed in this 28 section for the assessment of an additional vault charge, a person has 29 consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such 30 additional vault charge due may be determined at any time within such 31 extended period. The period so extended may be further extended by 32 subsequent consents in writing made before the expiration of the 33 extended period.

34 d. If any return, claim, statement, notice, application, or other 35 document required to be filed, or any payment required to be made, with-
36 in a prescribed period or on or before a prescribed date under authority
37 of any provision of this chapter is, after such period or such date,
38 delivered by United States mail to the commissioner of finance, the tax 39 appeals tribunal, bureau, office, officer or person with which or with 40 whom such document is required to be filed, or to which or to whom such
41 payment is required to be made, the date of the United States postmark 42 stamped on the envelope shall be deemed to be the date of delivery.
43 This subdivision shall apply only if the postmark date falls within the 44 prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date for the filing of 45 such document, or for making the payment, including any extension grant-46 ed for such filing or payment, and only if such document or payment was 47 deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the
48 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
49 cer or person with which or with whom the document is required to be 50 filed or to which or to whom such payment is required to be made. If any 51 document is sent by United States registered mail, such registration 52 shall be prima facie evidence that such document was delivered to the
53 commissioner of finance, the tax appeals tribunal, bureau, office, offi-
54 cer or person to which or to whom addressed, and the date of registra-
55 tion shall be deemed the postmark date. The commissioner of finance and,
56 where relevant, the tax appeals tribunal are authorized to provide by

1 regulation the extent to which, such provisions with respect to prima
2 facie evidence of delivery and the postmark date, shall apply to certi-
3 fied mail. This subdivision shall apply in the case of postmarks not
4 made by the United States postal service only if and to the extent
5 provided by regulation of the commissioner of finance or, where rele-6 vant, the tax appeals tribunal.

7 e. When the last day prescribed under authority of this chapter,
8 including any extension of time, for performing any act falls on a
9 Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the state, the performance of such 10 act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding
11 day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

12 § 11-2715.1 Vault charge amnesty program. a. Notwithstanding any other 13 provision of law to the contrary, there is hereby established a nine-14 month amnesty program, beginning January first, nineteen hundred eight-15 y-nine and ending September thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-nine 16 (hereinafter referred to as the "amnesty period"), for all persons owing 17 the annual vault charge imposed by this chapter. Such amnesty program 18 shall be administered by the commissioner of finance and shall apply to 19 liabilities for annual vault charge years ending prior to June first,
20 nineteen hundred eighty-nine.

21 b. (1) A person seeking amnesty pursuant to this section must, during 22 the amnesty period, file a written application therefor with the commis-23 sioner of finance, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, and must 24 provide such information as the commissioner may require. In order to 25 qualify for amnesty, such person must pay all annual vault charges for 26 which he or she is liable. Upon payment by such person to the commis-27 sioner of all such charges as provided in this subdivision, the commis-28 sioner shall waive any applicable penalties and interest, and no civil, 29 administrative or criminal action or proceeding shall be brought against 30 such person with respect to the charges so paid. In addition, the 31 commissioner shall release the lien binding upon the premises immedi-32 ately adjoining the vault pursuant to subdivision c of section 11-2711 of 33 this chapter for charges which became payable prior to the time such 34 person acquired title to the premises. Failure to pay all charges as 35 provided in this subdivision shall invalidate any amnesty granted pursu-36 ant to this section.

37 (2) In the case of any vault adjoining premises owned by a person who 38 (A) prior to January first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine, paid all annu-39 al vault charges and interest and penalties for which he or she was 40 liable, and (B) is otherwise in full compliance with this chapter, the 41 commissioner of finance shall release the lien binding upon the premises 42 immediately adjoining the vault pursuant to subdivision c of section 43 11-2711 of this chapter for charges which became payable prior to the 44 time such person acquired title to the premises.

45 c. Amnesty shall not be granted to any person subject to the annual 46 vault charge who is a party to any civil litigation which is pending on 47 the date of such person's application in any court of this state or the 48 United States for nonpayment or other delinquency in relation to the 49 annual vault charge. A civil litigation shall not be deemed to be pend-50 ing if such person withdraws from such litigation prior to the granting 51 of amnesty.

52 d. No refund or credit shall be granted of any penalty or interest 53 paid prior to the time the person subject to the annual vault charge 54 makes a request for amnesty pursuant to subdivision b of this section.

1 e. Unless the commissioner of finance on his or her own motion rede-
2 termines the amount of the annual vault charge, no refund or credit 3 shall be granted of any charges paid under this section.

4 f. The commissioner of finance shall formulate such regulations as are 5 necessary, issue forms and instructions, and take any and all other 6 actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section. Further-7 more, prior to and throughout the duration of the amnesty period, the 8 commissioner of finance shall implement a plan for prominently announc-9 ing and explaining the amnesty program. Such plan shall be reasonably 10 calculated to inform all property owners who may be liable for vault 11 charges and may include written announcements sent in tax bills and 12 other mailings done by the city of Staten Island to property owners, 13 public service announcements, advertisements in newspapers of general 14 circulation and notification of community boards. The plan shall 15 include, but not be limited to, information which explains the determi-16 nation of vault size and charge.

17 § 11-2715.3 Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section 18 or part of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or 19 circumstance shall for any reason be adjudged by a court of competent 20 jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or 21 invalidate the remainder of this chapter or the application thereof to 22 other persons or circumstances, but shall be confined in its operation 23 to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly 24 involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been 25 rendered and to the person or circumstance involved.

26 § 11-2716 Construction and enforcement. This chapter shall be 27 construed and enforced in conformity with chapter nine hundred forty-28 nine of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-two, pursuant to which it is 29 enacted.

30 § 11-2717 Effective date. This chapter shall take effect July first, 31 nineteen hundred sixty-two and shall remain in effect so long as the 32 power of the city to adopt such laws for revenue purposes shall exist.

33 CHAPTER 28

40 residential, commercial or industrial building or structure except a one 41 or two family residential structure.

42 (c) "Lien" means any lien including liens for taxes, special ad valo-43 rem levies, special assessments and municipal charges arising by opera-

53 2. The commissioner shall file a notice of intention to claim against 54 the proceeds of fire insurance policies pursuant to section twenty-two

1 of the general municipal law with the state superintendent of insurance 2 for entry in the index of liens maintained by him or her as provided in 3 section three hundred thirty-one of the insurance law.

4 3. Prior to the payment of any proceeds of a policy of insurance for 5 damages caused by fire to real property, which policy insures the inter-6 est of an owner and is issued on real property located within the city, 7 and following notification to the commissioner by an insurer of the 8 filing of a claim for payment of such proceeds, the commissioner shall 9 claim, by serving a certificate of lien, against such proceeds to the 10 extent of any lien, including interest and penalties to the date of the 11 claim, thereon, which claim when made and perfected in the manner 12 provided for in section twenty-two of the general municipal law and 13 section three hundred thirty-one of the insurance law, shall constitute 14 a special lien against such proceeds and shall, as to such proceeds, be 15 prior to all other liens and claims except the claim of a mortgagee of 16 record named in such policy. Notice of the service of the certificate 17 of the special lien shall be given to the insured by certified mail.

18 4. The provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed or construed to 19 alter or impair the right of the city to acquire or enforce any lien 20 against property but shall be in addition to any other power provided by 21 law to acquire or enforce such right.

22 5. The fire insurance proceeds claims board is hereby established to 23 administer the provisions of subdivisions six through thirteen of this 24 section. The board shall consist of the first deputy mayor, who shall 25 be chairperson, the commissioner of buildings, the commissioner of hous-26 ing preservation and development, and the commissioner of finance, each 27 of whom shall have the power to designate an alternate to represent him 28 or her at board meetings with all the rights and powers, including the 29 right to vote, reserved to all board members, provided that such desig-30 nation shall be in writing to the chairperson. So far as practicable and 31 subject to the approval of the mayor, the services of all other city 32 departments and agencies shall be made available by their respective 33 heads to the board for the carrying out of its functions. Each member 34 shall serve without additional compensation except for expenses actually 35 incurred.

36 6. Whenever the proceeds of policy of fire insurance which will be or 37 has been paid to the city instead of an insured, all or part of such 38 proceeds may be paid or released to the insured if the insured satisfies 39 the board that the affected premises have been or will be repaired or 40 restored, that such repairs or restoration are in the public interest, 41 and the insured is issued and complies with a certificate of the board 42 pursuant to this chapter. To secure such payment or release of proceeds 43 the insured must notify the board within forty-five days after the mail-44 ing to the insured of a notice of the service of the certificate of 45 special lien pursuant to subdivision three of this section, of the 46 intention to restore or repair the affected premises and must file with 47 the board a completed application with all required supporting documen-48 tation pursuant to subdivision seven of this section within sixty days 49 thereafter, unless the board grants an extension for a stated period of 50 time.

51 7. The release or return to the insured of any amounts to which he or 52 she or it would otherwise be entitled to claim shall be subject to the 53 following conditions:

54 (a) Such release or return shall be subject to the repair or restora-55 tion of the affected premises, in accordance with applicable building

1 laws, to the condition it was in prior to the time the lien of the city 2 arose, or to an improved condition.

3 (b) The insured shall file with the board an application in affidavit 4 form, with such supporting documentation as the board shall require, 5 containing the following:

6 (i) A complete description of the nature and extent of the damage to 7 the insured premises and of the condition of the premises prior to the 8 time the lien of the city arose;

9 (ii) A complete description of the nature of the repairs or restora-10 tion to be undertaken and the cost thereof;

11 (iii) A statement as to the source of funds needed to complete such 12 repairs or restoration if the insurance proceeds are not sufficient 13 therefor;

14 (iv) The name and address of each contractor who will effect such 15 repairs or restoration;

16 (v) An estimated time schedule showing how long the repairs or resto-17 ration, and each phase thereof, will take; and 18 (vi) Such other information as may be required by the board to enable 19 it to determine whether the repairs or restoration are in the public 20 interest and will be or have been timely and properly made.

21 (c) Upon a preliminary approval by the board of an application pursu-22 ant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the board may issue a certif-23 icate, to be signed by the chairperson or his or her designee; evidenc-24 ing the right of release to the insured of amounts representing 25 insurance proceeds, upon such conditions as may be set forth therein.
26 The repairs or restoration required by the board shall be completed in 27 compliance with the terms and conditions of the certificate prior to the 28 release or return of any part of the insurance proceeds, provided howev-29 er that the board may, upon the written request of the insured and in 30 its sole discretion, approve a prior release of such proceeds or a 31 portion thereof, in a lump sum or in installments, where the insured 32 certifies and demonstrates that such release is required to permit such 33 repairs or restoration to go forward. Any such insurance proceeds 34 released or returned prior to the completion of the repairs or restora-35 tion required by the board may be paid directly to the contractor or 36 contractors responsible for making such repairs or restoration. Such 37 payment shall, to the extent thereof, release the board from further 38 liability to the insured.

39 8. If the insured: (i) fails to notify the city of his or her or its 40 intention to repair or restore the affected premises as required in 41 subdivision six of this section, (ii) fails to file a completed applica-42 tion pursuant to this chapter, or (iii) fails to obtain a certificate 43 from the board or comply therewith within the time set forth, the right 44 of the insured to assert a claim against the insurance proceeds, except 45 to the extent they exceed the amount of the lien, shall terminate.

46 9. Until such termination, any insurance proceeds received by the city 47 shall be deposited in a special fund and shall be retained therein.
48 Upon termination of the insured's right to claim against the proceeds, 49 the proceeds and any interest accrued thereon shall be applied to the 50 liens affecting the premises in a manner determined by the board and may 51 be transferred to the general fund.

52 10. There shall be established in the office of the commissioner a 53 fund for the deposit of fire insurance proceeds to be held and applied 54 in accordance with this chapter. Such funds shall not be held together 55 with the general tax levies in the general fund.

1 11. The lien or liens against the affected premises upon which the 2 special lien against proceeds is based shall continue in full force and 3 effect except to the extent that such lien or liens are or have been 4 paid.

5 12. The board may, pursuant to this chapter, release, compromise or 6 adjust the special lien upon insurance proceeds created by this chapter.
7 Any certificate issued by such board pursuant to this chapter shall be 8 for the purpose of preserving and evidencing the right of release of the 9 special lien created by this chapter, shall be subject solely to the 10 provisions of this chapter, and shall not be deemed to be a contract 11 subject to city regulation. Any repair or restoration performed in 12 anticipation of a release of insurance proceeds shall not be deemed to 13 be a public work or municipal project nor to have been done pursuant to 14 a municipal contract.

15 13. The board shall be empowered to promulgate rules and regulations 16 and to adopt approved forms to be used by applicants.

33 together with any vending machine or receptacle in which they are held 34 for sale. Such cigarettes, vending machine or receptacle seized by a 35 police officer or such peace officer shall be turned over to the commis-

37 (b) The seized cigarettes and any vending machine or receptacle seized

46 After such hearing the commissioner of finance shall give notice of his 47 or her decision to the petitioner. The decision of the commissioner 48 shall be reviewable for error, illegality, unconstitutionality or any 29 such cigarettes.

30 (d) In the alternative, the commissioner of finance, on reasonable 31 notice by mail or otherwise, may permit the person from whom said ciga-32 rettes were seized to redeem the said cigarettes, and any vending 33 machine or receptacle seized therewith, or may permit the owner of any 34 such cigarettes, vending machine or receptacle to redeem the same, by 35 the payment of the tax due, plus a penalty of fifty percent thereof, 36 plus interest on the amount of tax due for each month or fraction there-

38 of time for filing or paying, at the rate applicable under subdivision d 39 of section 11-1317 of this title and the costs incurred in such proceed-40 ing, which total payment shall not be less than five dollars; provided, 41 however, that such seizure and sale or redemption shall not be deemed to 42 relieve any person from fine or imprisonment provided for in this chap-43 ter for violation of any provisions of this chapter or chapter thirteen 44 of this title.

45 (e) In the alternative, the commissioner of finance may dispose of any 46 cigarettes seized pursuant to this section, except those that violate,

48 transferring them to the department of correction for sale to or use by 49 incarcerated individuals in such institutions.

50 § 11-4022 Filing of documents. For purposes of the prosecution of 51 offenses under the provisions of this title, reports, returns, state-

34 (3) Any devices, items or goods removed pursuant to this section, 35 shall be stored in a garage, pound or other place of safety and the 36 owner or other person lawfully entitled to the possession of such 37 devices, items or goods may be charged with reasonable costs for removal 38 and storage payable prior to the release of such devices, items or goods 39 to such owner or such other person.

40 (4) The owner or other person lawfully entitled to reclaim the 41 devices, items or goods described in paragraph three of this subdivision 42 shall reclaim such devices, items or goods. If such owner or such other 43 person does not reclaim such devices, items or goods within ninety days 44 of their removal, such devices, items or goods shall be subject to 45 forfeiture upon notice and judicial determination in accordance with 46 provisions of law. Upon forfeiture the department shall, upon a public 47 notice of at least five days, sell such forfeited devices, items or 2 all reasonable costs for removal and storage; and 3 (2) the expiration of a period of time from the date of enforcement of 4 the order to be determined by the commissioner not to exceed sixty days.

6 may seek judicial review of such order through a proceeding pursuant to 7 article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

8 (f) Removal of seal. Any person who removes the seal on any premises

50 Chapter 3

51 CITYWIDE RECYCLING PROGRAM

52 § 16-305 Recycling of department-managed solid waste. 1. a. The 53 following recycling percentage goals are established for the recycling 54 of department-managed solid waste:

- 1 i. by July first, two thousand eleven, sixteen percent of department-
- 2 managed solid waste;
- 3 ii. by July first, two thousand thirteen, nineteen percent of depart-
- 4 ment-managed solid waste;
- 5 iii. by July first, two thousand fourteen, twenty-one percent of
- 6 department-managed solid waste;
- 7 iv. by July first, two thousand sixteen, twenty-four percent of
- 8 department-managed solid waste;
- 9 v. by July first, two thousand eighteen, twenty-seven percent of
- 10 department-managed solid waste;
- 11 vi. by July first, two thousand nineteen, thirty percent of depart-
- 12 ment-managed solid waste; and
- 13 vii. by July first, two thousand twenty, thirty-three percent of
- 14 department-managed solid waste.
- 15 b. In addition, the following recycling goals are established for
- 16 curbside and containerized waste collected by the department:
- 17 i. By July first, two thousand eleven, sixteen percent of curbside and
- 18 containerized waste collected by the department;
- 19 ii. By July first, two thousand thirteen, eighteen percent of curbside
- 20 and containerized waste collected by the department;
- 21 iii. By July first, two thousand fourteen, nineteen percent of curb-
- 22 side and containerized waste collected by the department;
- 23 iv. By July first, two thousand sixteen, twenty-one percent of curb-
- 24 side and containerized waste collected by the department;
- 25 v. By July first, two thousand eighteen, twenty-three percent of curb-
- 26 side and containerized waste collected by the department;
- 27 vi. By July first, two thousand nineteen, twenty-four percent of curb-
- 28 side and containerized waste collected by the department; and
- 29 vii. By July first, two thousand twenty, twenty-five percent of curb-
- 30 side and containerized waste collected by the department.
- 31 2. The commissioner shall adopt and implement rules designating at
- 32 least six recyclable materials, including plastics to the extent
- 33 required in subdivision three of this section and yard waste to the
- 34 extent required in section 16-308 of this chapter and organic waste to
- 35 the extent required in section 16-308.1 of this chapter, contained in
- 36 department-managed solid waste and requiring households to source sepa-
- 37 rate such designated materials.
- 38 3. a. Prior to commencing delivery of department-managed recyclable
- 39 materials to the designated recycling processing facility at the South
- 40 Brooklyn Marine Terminal, the commissioner shall designate as recyclable
- 41 materials, and require the source separation of, rigid plastic contain-
- 42 ers.
- 43 b. If the commissioner, in his or her discretion, determines that the
- 44 cost to the city of recycling rigid plastic containers required to be
- 45 designated as recyclable materials pursuant to paragraph a of this
- 46 subdivision is not reasonable in comparison with the cost of recycling
- 47 only metal, glass and plastic and have been designated as recyclable
- 48 materials, the commissioner shall within ten business days notify and
- 49 provide documentation to the council of the factors relied upon to make
- 50 such determination and shall not be required to designate any such rigid
- 51 plastic containers as recyclable materials.
- 52 c. If the commissioner determines that the cost to the city of recycl-
- 53 ing rigid plastic containers is not reasonable in comparison with the
- 54 cost of recycling only metal, glass and plastic that have been desig-
- 55 nated as recyclable materials, the commissioner shall annually reevalua-
- 56 te the cost to the city of designating such rigid plastic containers as

1 recyclable materials, and shall annually make a new determination as to 2 whether the cost of designating such containers as recyclable materials 3 is reasonable in comparison with the cost of recycling only metal, glass 4 and plastic that have been designated as recyclable materials and shall 5 report such evaluations to the council. The department shall not 6 promulgate rules designating rigid plastic containers as recyclable 7 materials, and need not conduct outreach or education relating thereto 8 if, pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision, the commissioner deter-9 mines that the cost to the city of recycling rigid plastic containers is 10 not reasonable in comparison with the cost of recycling only metal, 11 glass and plastic that have been designated as recyclable materials.

12 d. Immediately following the promulgation of rules designating rigid 13 plastic containers as recyclable materials, the department shall under-14 take outreach and education, in cooperation with any other agency or 15 entity designated for that purpose by the commissioner, to inform resi-16 dents of such new designation and to provide instruction on compliance 17 with the requirements of this subdivision and the rules promulgated 18 pursuant thereto.

19 4. The commissioner shall adopt and implement rules establishing 20 procedures requiring the placement of the designated materials at the 21 curbside, in specialized containers, or in any other manner the commis-22 sioner determines, to facilitate the collection of such materials in a 23 manner that enables them to be recycled. Under such rules, no person 24 shall be liable for incorrectly placing a non-designated rigid plastic 25 container in the recycling stream.

26 5. Where the department provides solid waste collection services to a 27 building containing at least four and no more than eight dwelling units, 28 the commissioner shall adopt and implement rules requiring the owner, 29 net lessee or person in charge of such building to:

30 a. provide for the residents, where practicable, a designated area 31 and, where appropriate, containers in which to store the source sepa-32 rated or other designated recyclable materials to be collected by the 33 department; and

34 b. inform all residents of the requirements of this chapter and the 35 rules promulgated pursuant thereto by, at a minimum, posting
36 instructions on source separation in or near the designated recycling 37 area and making available to each resident at the inception of a lease, 38 where applicable, a department-issued guide to recycling, which shall be 39 made available to the owner, net lessee or person in charge of such 40 building by the department pursuant to section 16-315 of this chapter in 41 print form or on the department's website, or in an alternative guide 42 containing similar information to the guide required by section 16-315
43 of this chapter.

44 If reasonably accessible space for the storage of source separated or 45 other designated recyclable materials is not available in such building, 46 and such space is available behind the building's property line, such 47 space behind the property line may be designated as the area for the 48 storage of source separated or other designated recyclable materials. If 49 no such space is available, the owner, net lessee or person in charge of 50 such building shall post instructions on recycling and source separation 51 in or near a designated area that is visible to all residents in the 52 building.

53 With respect to solid waste generated by households in the aforesaid
54 buildings, the obligations of an owner, net lessee or person in charge 55 of such building under this chapter shall be limited to those set forth

1 in this subdivision and subdivisions four and seven of this section or 2 rules promulgated pursuant to such subdivisions.

3 6. Where the department provides solid waste collection services to a 4 building containing nine or more dwelling units, the commissioner shall 5 adopt and implement rules requiring the owner, net lessee or person in 6 charge of such building to:

7 a. provide for the residents a designated area and, where appropriate, 8 containers in which to store the source separated or other designated 9 recyclable materials to be collected by the department;

10 b. inform all residents of the requirements of this chapter and the 11 rules promulgated pursuant thereto by, at a minimum, posting
12 instructions on source separation in or near the designated recycling
13 area, and making available to each resident at the inception of a lease, 14 a department-issued guide to recycling, which shall be made available to 15 the owner, net lessee or person in charge of such building by the 16 department pursuant to section 16-315 of this chapter in print form or 17 on the department's website, or in an alternative guide containing simi-18 lar information to the guide required by section 16-315 of this chapter; 19 and

20 c. remove non-designated materials from the containers of designated 21 source separated recyclable materials before such containers are placed 22 at the curbside for collection and ensure that the designated materials 23 are placed at the curbside in the manner prescribed by the department.

24 With respect to solid waste generated by households in the aforesaid
25 buildings, the obligations of an owner, net lessee or person in charge
26 of such building under this chapter shall be limited to those set forth 27 in this subdivision and subdivisions four and seven of this section or 28 rules promulgated pursuant to such subdivisions.

29 7. The commissioner shall adopt and implement rules for any building 30 containing four or more dwelling units in which the amount of designated 31 materials placed out for collection is significantly less than what can 32 reasonably be expected from such building. These rules shall require 33 residential generators, including tenants, owners, net lessees or 34 persons in charge of such building to use transparent bags or such other 35 means of disposal the commissioner deems appropriate to dispose of solid 36 waste other than the designated recyclable materials. Upon request of 37 the owner, net lessee or person in charge of such building, and if the 38 commissioner determines that such owner, net lessee or person in charge 39 of such building has complied with this subdivision, subdivision four of 40 this section and, as applicable, subdivision five or subdivision six of 41 this section or rules promulgated pursuant to such subdivisions and that 42 the amount of designated materials placed out for collection remains 43 significantly less than what can reasonably be expected from such build-44 ing, the department may develop a schedule to conduct random inspections 45 to facilitate compliance with the provisions of this chapter by tenants 46 of such building, provided that lawful inspections may occur at reason-47 able times without notice to ensure compliance by the tenants, owner, 48 net lessee or person in charge of such building.

49 8. a. In calculating the extent to which the department has met the 50 recycling percentage goals set forth in paragraph a of subdivision one 51 of this section, the department shall include in its calculations all 52 curbside and institutional recycling it collects, including materials 53 collected from households, schools, not-for-profit institutions and city
54 agencies, and all recyclable materials collected as part of the public 55 space recycling program pursuant to section 16-310 of this chapter, and 56 may include yard waste collected pursuant to section 16-308 of this

1 chapter and any other material collected for composting pursuant to this 2 chapter, Christmas trees collected pursuant to section 16-309 of this 3 chapter, clothing and textiles donated or collected pursuant to section 4 16-310.1 of this chapter, household hazardous waste diverted pursuant to 5 section 16-310.3 of this chapter, rechargeable batteries collected 6 pursuant to chapter four of title eleven of the code of the preceding 7 municipality, beverage containers returned within the city pursuant to 8 title ten of article twenty-seven of the environmental conservation law, 9 electronic waste collected within the city or otherwise diverted from 10 the city's waste stream, including such waste collected or diverted 11 pursuant to title twenty-six of article twenty-seven of the environ-12 mental conservation law, and plastic bags collected within the city or 13 otherwise diverted from the city's waste stream, including such plastic 14 bags collected or diverted pursuant to title twenty-seven of article 15 twenty-seven of the environmental conservation law. Only recyclable 16 materials specifically enumerated in this paragraph shall be counted for 17 purposes of calculating the extent to which the department has met the 18 recycling percentage goals set forth in paragraph a of subdivision one 19 of this section.

20 b. In calculating the extent to which the department has met the recy-21 cling percentage goals set forth in paragraph b of subdivision one of 22 this section, the department shall include in its calculations all curb-23 side and institutional recycling it collects, including materials
24 collected from households, schools, not-for-profit institutions and city
25 agencies, and all recyclable materials collected as part of the public 26 space recycling program pursuant to section 16-310 of this chapter.

27 c. In calculating the extent to which the department has met the recy-28 cling percentage goals set forth in paragraphs a and b of subdivision 29 one of this section, the department shall not include recycling of aban-30 doned vehicles or recycling from lot cleaning operations, asphalt and 31 mill tailings, construction and demolition debris or other commercial 32 recycling programs. The commissioner shall not designate any such mate-33 rials as recyclable materials under this section for purposes of calcu-34 lating the extent to which the department has met such recycling 35 percentage goals.

36 d. In calculating the percent of the department-managed solid waste 37 stream recycled in connection with the percentage goals set forth in 38 paragraph a of subdivision one of this section, the department shall 39 ensure that any quantity of material counted as recycled must be fully 40 included in the calculation of the city's total department-managed solid 41 waste stream.

42 e. All data used to make calculations pursuant to paragraphs a and b 43 of this subdivision shall be made available on the department's website 44 in raw form disaggregated by material type and using a non-proprietary 45 format on a monthly basis, or, if such data is not generated by the 46 department, within one month from the date that the department receives 47 reports of such information.

48 9. In the event that the department does not meet any recycling 49 percentage goal set forth in paragraphs a or b of subdivision one of 50 this section by the dates specified therein, the department shall, with-51 in sixty days of the date for meeting such goal, expand recycling 52 outreach and education and shall take such other appropriate measures 53 including, but not limited to, directing such outreach and education to 54 the neighborhoods and community districts in which recycling diversion 55 rates fall below the median city recycling diversion rate and consulting 56 with the council to explore additional measures to meet the recycling

1 percentage goals set forth in such subdivision. In expanding recycling 2 outreach and education, the department may work with other agencies or 3 entities designated for that purpose by the commissioner.

4 10. In the event that the department is unable to achieve two consec-5 utive recycling percentage goals set forth in paragraphs a and b of 6 subdivision one of this section by the dates specified therein, in addi-7 tion to the requirements of subdivision nine of this section, the 8 commissioner shall retain a special advisor, who shall be selected by 9 the mayor and the speaker, provided that the commissioner need not 10 retain such special advisor more than once every three years. Within one 11 hundred twenty days of such retention, such adviser shall submit a 12 report to the mayor and council recommending additional measures that 13 may be taken by the city following such report in order to meet such 14 recycling percentage goals.

15 § 16-305.1 Weekly collection of designated recyclable materials. 1.
16 Weekly collection of designated recyclable materials shall be maintained 17 in all local service delivery districts.

18 2. Effective July first, two thousand nine, and notwithstanding any 19 inconsistent provision of this chapter, the department shall be author-20 ized, by written order of the commissioner, to implement and maintain 21 alternate week collection of designated recyclable materials in all 22 local service delivery districts, provided that the department may, by 23 written order of the commissioner, provide for more frequent collection 24 of designated recyclable materials in designated local service delivery 25 districts. Any such written order of the commissioner implementing 26 alternate week collection shall expire no later than March thirty-first, 27 two thousand ten.

28 3. For purposes of this section "designated recyclable materials" 29 shall mean solid waste that has been designated by the commissioner as 30 recyclable pursuant to section 16-305, section 16-307, or section
31 16-308.1 of this chapter.

32 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require collection of 33 designated recyclable materials in such parts of the city or during such 34 times of the year that such materials are not otherwise collected.

35 § 16-306 Private carter-collected waste. 1. The commissioner shall 36 adopt and implement rules designating recyclable materials that consti-37 tute in the aggregate at least one-half of all solid waste collected by 38 private carters, and additional materials if the commissioner determines 39 that economic markets exist for them. Pursuant to subdivision two of 40 this section, such rules shall require generators of private carter-col-41 lected waste to source separate some or all of the designated materials 42 and to arrange for lawful collection for recycling, reuse or sale for 43 reuse by private carters or persons other than private carters of such 44 source separated materials. With regard to designated materials that are 45 not required by such rules to be source separated, generators of private 46 carter-collected waste may source separate these designated materials 47 and, in any event, shall arrange for their lawful collection for recycl-48 ing, reuse or sale for reuse by private carters or persons other than 49 private carters. If a generator of private carter-collected waste has 50 source separated the designated materials in accordance with the rules 51 and arranged for the lawful collection for recycling, reuse or sale for 52 reuse by private carters or persons other than private carters of such 53 source separated materials and, with regard to designated materials that 54 are not required by such rules to be source separated, arranged for 55 lawful collection for recycling, reuse or sale for reuse by private 56 carters or persons other than private carters, such arrangement shall 1 constitute an affirmative defense to any proceeding brought against the 2 generator pursuant to section 16-324 of this title.

3 2. (a) The rules promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this 4 section shall require that generators of waste collected by businesses 5 required to be licensed pursuant to section 16-505 of the code of the 6 preceding municipality source separate the designated materials in such 7 manner and to such extent as the commissioner determines to be necessary 8 to minimize contamination and maximize the marketability of such materi-9 als. However, in promulgating such rules the commissioner shall not 10 require source separation of a material unless the commissioner has 11 determined that an economic market exists for such material. For the 12 purpose of this section, the term "economic market" refers to instances 13 in which the full avoided costs of proper collection, transportation and 14 disposal of source separated materials are equal to or greater than the 15 cost of collection, transportation and sale of said materials less the 16 amount received from the sale of said materials.

17 (b) (i) Any designated carter that collects source separated desig-18 nated materials in a commercial waste zone pursuant to section 16-1002 19 of the code of the preceding municipality shall provide for the 20 collection of, and ensure the continued separation of, designated mate-21 rials that have been source separated, provide for the separation of all 22 other designated materials, and provide for recycling of all the desig-23 nated materials in accordance with the rules of the department and the 24 terms of any agreement entered into pursuant to section 16-1002 of the 25 code of the preceding municipality under which such designated carter is 26 providing such service.

27 (ii) Any person registered by the business integrity commission to 28 remove, collect, or dispose of trade waste generated in the course of 29 operation of such person's business pursuant to subdivision b of section 30 16-505 of the code of the preceding municipality shall provide for the 31 collection of, and ensure the continued separation of, designated mate-
32 rials that have been source separated, provide for the separation of all
33 other designated materials, and provide for recycling of all the desig-34 nated materials in accordance with the rules promulgated by the business 35 integrity commission pursuant to this section and subject to the penal-36 ties provided in subdivision a of section 16-515 of the code of the 37 preceding municipality.

38 (c) The commissioner and the chair of the business integrity commis-39 sion shall have the authority to issue notices of violation for any 40 violation of any rules promulgated pursuant to this section and such 41 notices of violation shall be returnable in a civil action brought in 42 the name of the commissioner or the chair of the business integrity 43 commission before the environmental control board which shall impose a 44 penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each such violation.

45 3. The department shall complete a study of commercial recycling in 46 the city no later than January first, two thousand twelve. Such commer-47 cial recycling study shall focus on the putrescible portion of the 48 commercial waste stream, and shall include, but need not be limited to, 49 the following: (a) an integration of all data on commercial waste in the 50 city collected and transported through transfer stations and recycling 51 processors; (b) an assessment of current practices, operations and 52 compliance with applicable local laws and rules, consistent with the 53 scope of study set forth in the two thousand six Solid Waste Management 54 Plan; (c) estimates of waste composition and recycling diversion rates 55 from research conducted with respect to other jurisdictions; (d) a

10 in accordance with clause one or two of this subparagraph;

11 (ii) post a sign, which shall be in addition to any other sign 12 required to be posted pursuant to this code, that states clearly and 13 legibly the trade or business name, address, and telephone number of, 14 and the day and time of pickup by, the private carter that collects the 15 covered establishment's organic waste, that such covered establishment 16 transports its own organic waste, or that such covered establishment 17 provides for on-site processing for all of the organic waste it gener-18 ates on its premises, provided that:

19 (1) such sign shall be prominently displayed by affixing it to a 20 window near the principal entrance to the covered establishment so as to 21 be easily visible from outside the building or, if this is not possible, 22 prominently displayed inside the covered establishment near the princi-23 pal entrance;

32 such instructions will be visible to persons who are disposing of organ-33 ic waste, provided that this subparagraph shall not apply to sponsors of 34 temporary public events.

35 b. Any covered establishment that arranges for the collection by a 36 private carter of its organic waste pursuant to this subdivision shall 39 waste out for collection by a private carter in a container or contain-40 ers that (i) has a lid and a latch that keeps the lid closed and is 41 resistant to tampering by rodents or other wildlife, (ii) has the capac-42 ity that meets the disposal needs of the covered establishment and its 45 placed out for collection.

46 4. Any private carter that collects source separated organic waste 47 shall either:

48 a. deliver collected organic waste to a transfer station that has 51 method of processing organic waste that the department approves by rule; 52 or

53 b. deliver such organic waste directly to a facility for purposes of 55 essing organic waste that the department approves by rule.

1 5. Any transfer station that receives source separated organic waste 2 pursuant to this section shall deliver or have delivered such organic 3 waste directly to a facility that accepts organic waste for purposes of 4 composting, aerobic or anaerobic digestion, or any other method of proc-
5 essing organic waste that the department approves by rule. This subdivi-

7 waste processing facility.

8 6. The provisions of this section relating to private carters shall be 9 enforced by the business integrity commission and the department. The 10 provisions of this section relating to covered establishments shall be 11 enforced by the department, the department of health and mental hygiene, 12 and the department of consumer and worker protection.

13 7. The department, the business integrity commission, the department 14 of health and mental hygiene, and the department of consumer affairs may 15 promulgate any rules necessary to implement this section, including, but 24 "covered establishment" set forth in subdivision one of this section; 25 and c. the owner or operator establishes that such food service estab-

36 term is defined in section 1-112 of the code of the preceding munici-37 pality.

38 2. Every agency shall, no later than July first, two thousand eleven, 39 prepare and submit to the commissioner for approval, a waste prevention, 40 reuse and recycling plan. Such plan shall provide for the source sepa-41 ration of designated metal, glass, plastic and paper, and such other 42 designated recyclable materials as the commissioner deems appropriate, 43 in all offices and buildings occupied by agencies that receive 44 collection service from the department and, to the extent practicable, 45 in those that receive private carter collection. Such plans shall 46 provide for the source separation of designated recyclable materials in 47 the lobbies of such offices or buildings that receive department 48 collection, unless the placement of bins for the source separation of 49 designated recyclable materials would be in violation of any other 50 provision of law, and, to the extent practicable, in the lobbies of such 51 offices or buildings that receive private carter collection. Each agency 52 shall designate a lead recycling or sustainability coordinator to over-53 see implementation of such plans. If an agency has offices in more than 20 school locations, office buildings, and any other facilities under the 21 jurisdiction of the department of education that receive department 22 collection service.

23 2. The chancellor of the department of education shall promulgate such 24 rules as may be necessary to require that each school building, charter 25 school location, office building, and any other facility under the 26 jurisdiction of the department of education that receives department 27 collection service, develop a site-specific waste prevention, reuse and 28 recycling plan. Each such plan shall be implemented by January first, 29 two thousand eleven. Such plan shall include, at a minimum, a require-30 ment that each classroom maintain a separate receptacle, container or 31 bin for the collection of designated recyclable paper, and that such 32 receptacle, container or bin be appropriately labeled or decorated with 33 recycling information. Such plan shall also provide that separate recep-34 tacles, containers or bins for the collection of designated metal, glass 35 and plastic be appropriately labeled or decorated with recycling infor-36 mation and be placed as close as practicable to school entrances, unless 37 the placement of such bins would be in violation of any other provision 38 of law, and in locations within schools where food and beverages are 39 routinely consumed.

40 3. The principal of each school under the jurisdiction of the depart-41 ment of education shall designate a sustainability coordinator for his 42 or her school who shall be responsible for implementing his or her 43 school's waste prevention, reuse and recycling plan. The principal or 44 the sustainability coordinator shall complete, and submit to the depart-45 ment of education sustainability director and to the chancellor, an 46 annual survey regarding such school's compliance with its waste 47 prevention, reuse and recycling plan.

48 4. The chancellor shall submit a report to the commissioner by January 49 first of each year regarding compliance with the requirements of this 50 section for the preceding July first through June thirtieth. The depart-51 ment shall include the chancellor's report as part of the department's 52 annual zero waste report required pursuant to subdivision b of section 53 16-316.5 of the code of the preceding municipality.

54 5. The department shall distribute a model school waste prevention, 55 reuse and recycling plan to all primary and secondary schools not under 56 the jurisdiction of the department of education that receive department

1 collection service. All such primary and secondary schools shall desig-2 nate a sustainability coordinator for each such school, and develop a 3 site-specific waste prevention, reuse and recycling plan. Each such plan 4 shall be implemented by January first, two thousand eleven. Such plan 5 shall include, at a minimum, a requirement that each room used primarily 6 as a classroom for students between kindergarten and the twelfth grade 7 maintain a separate receptacle, container or bin for the collection of 8 designated recyclable paper, and that such receptacle, container or bin 9 be appropriately labeled or decorated with recycling information. Such 10 plan shall also provide that separate receptacles, containers or bins 11 for the collection of designated metal, glass and plastic be appropri-12 ately labeled or decorated with recycling information and be placed as 13 close as practicable to school entrances, unless the placement of such 14 bins would be in violation of any other provision of law. Such bins 15 shall also be placed in centralized locations within such schools where 16 food and beverages are routinely consumed, other than classrooms, such 17 as cafeterias and lunchrooms, or, if such school lacks a cafeteria or 18 lunchroom, in a location readily accessible to all students in such 19 school.

48 leave such yard waste for collection by the department, or disperse such 49 yard waste in or about the curb or street. Any person engaged in a busi-

51 of such yard waste at a permitted composting facility; provided, howev-52 er, that if the department, by written order of the commissioner, deter-53 mines that there is insufficient capacity at permitted composting facil-

55 appropriately permitted solid waste management facility.

1 7. Each permitted composting facility within the city, including those 2 operated by city agencies, shall annually report to the commissioner the 3 amount of yard waste and any other organic waste collected and disposed 4 of by weight at such composting facility. All such reports shall be 5 submitted prior to February first of each calendar year and shall 6 contain the amount collected and disposed of for the previous calendar 7 year. The department shall consolidate the information contained in all 8 reports prepared pursuant to this subdivision and include such informa-

17 outreach and education to inform residents within such districts of the 18 dates when it will conduct yard waste composting collection. No person 19 residing in a district where the department provides residential yard 20 waste composting collection shall be held liable for a violation of this 21 subdivision during the first year the department provides such residen-22 tial yard waste composting collection.

23 § 16-308.1 Curbside organics collection. 1. Organics collection
24 program. The department shall establish a mandatory citywide curbside 25 organics collection program for the diversion of organic waste in 26 accordance with this section. Such program shall be implemented by no 27 later than:

28 a. October second, two thousand twenty-three, for residential proper-29 ties in no less than thirty sanitation districts, as determined by the 30 commissioner by rule.

31 b. October seventh, two thousand twenty-four, for residential proper-

39 b. The education and outreach program required pursuant to subdivision 40 five of this section; and

41 c. How the department will distribute necessary materials, including 42 rodent-proof organics collection bins, at no cost to residential build-43 ing owners, and a timeline for such distribution.

44 3. End use of collected organic waste. In the next solid waste manage-45 ment plan prepared pursuant to section 27-0107 of the environmental 46 conservation law and presented to the council pursuant to section 16-140 47 of the code of the preceding municipality following the effective date 48 of this section, the department shall include a plan to maximize the 49 usable composting of organic waste collected pursuant to this section.
50 Such plan for the usable composting of organic waste shall describe the 51 amount of organic waste collected and sent to composting facilities to 52 be processed into usable compost pursuant to this section.

53 4. Reporting. The department shall report by weight the total amount 54 of organic waste diverted pursuant to this section during the previous 55 year, disaggregated by sanitation district. Such report shall be

1 included as part of the department's annual zero waste report required 2 pursuant to section 16-316.5 of the code of the preceding municipality.

3 5. Education and outreach. The department shall develop an outreach 4 and education program to educate residents, building owners, and staff 5 of residential buildings on the curbside organics collection program 6 established pursuant to this section. Materials used for such outreach 7 and education program shall be available in all designated citywide 8 languages, as defined in section 23-1101 of the code of the preceding 9 municipality, and any additional languages as determined by the depart-10 ment in consultation with local community organizations. No later than 11 two months prior to the implementation of the curbside organics 12 collection program for residential properties in a sanitation district 13 pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the department shall 14 distribute such materials to residents, building owners, and community 15 based organizations in such district. Such materials shall also be made 16 available on the department's website. Such materials shall include:

17 a. A detailed explanation of organic waste and the benefits of curb-18 side organics collection;

19 b. Information on how the curbside organics collection program will be 20 implemented and instructions for how to properly source separate organic 21 waste; and

22 c. Any other information as determined by the commissioner.

23 6. Rules. The commissioner shall adopt and implement rules as neces-24 sary to effectuate this section. Such rules may include, but need not be 26 pursuant to subdivision two of section 16-305 of this chapter, proce-27 dures requiring the placement of organic waste at the curbside, in 28 specialized containers or in another manner determined by the commis-29 sioner pursuant to subdivision four of such section, and the implementa-30 tion and enforcement of this section and such rules in buildings 31 containing four or more dwelling units pursuant to subdivisions five, 32 six and seven of section 16-305 of this chapter.

33 7. Penalty. A residential building owner who violates this section 34 shall be liable for a civil penalty as set forth in section 16-324 of 35 this title, except that prior to April first, two thousand twenty-five, 36 a residential building owner who violates this section shall be issued a 37 written warning that a violation has been observed, provided that noth-38 ing in this subdivision shall preclude the department from enforcing any 39 rules relating to yard waste separation promulgated pursuant to section
40 16-308 of this chapter.

41 § 16-308.2 Organic waste drop off sites. 1. Definitions. As used in 42 this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

43 a. Community partner. The term "community partner" means a not-for-44 profit organization, community garden or other similar organization that 45 operates or makes available to the public an organic waste drop off 46 site.

47 b. Community scale composting facility. The term "community scale 48 composting facility" means a physical location operated by a not-for-49 profit organization that engages in composting, through a registration 50 or agreement with the department, but that is not of sufficient size so 51 as to be required to obtain a permit for the operation of such facility 52 from the New York state department of environmental conservation.

53 c. Organic waste drop off site. The term "organic waste drop off site" 54 means a physical location for the collection of organic waste from 55 members of the public.

1 2. Except as provided in subdivision three of this section, no later
2 than April first, two thousand twenty-four, the department, in consulta-3 tion with community partners, shall ensure that no less than thirty 4 organic waste drop off sites are established and operational throughout 5 the city, provided that no less than three such sites are established in 6 each borough. Each such site shall have a minimum of twenty hours avail-7 able per week for individuals to drop off organic waste, except that 8 organic waste drop off sites operated by community partners shall be 9 open for a minimum of five hours per week, and each such organic waste 10 drop off site shall be located in a geographic area that is easily 11 accessible, including for persons with disabilities, and in close prox-12 imity to public transportation, provided, however, an organic waste drop 13 off site operated by a community partner may be operated on a seasonal 14 basis.

15 3. For the purposes of subdivision two of this section, an organic 16 waste drop off site may be a community scale composting facility or a 17 drop off site operated by the department, including co-location with a

19 ter.

20 4. No later than January first, two thousand twenty-six, the depart-21 ment shall review the requirements of subdivision two of this section 22 and submit to the mayor and the speaker of the council a recommendation 23 as to whether such drop off sites should be continued.

24 5. Site information. The department shall post on its website informa-25 tion about each organic waste drop off site established pursuant to this 26 section. Such information shall include each such site's address, 27 contact information, hours of operation and services provided. Where 28 applicable, such information shall also be clearly posted in a publicly 29 visible location at the entrance to each such site.

30 6. Education and outreach. The department, in consultation with any 31 agency or office designated by the mayor, shall develop an education and 32 outreach program to inform residents about the organic waste drop off 33 sites and community scale composting facilities established pursuant to 34 this section. Such education and outreach shall include the information 35 set forth in subdivision five of this section. Any educational or 36 outreach materials developed pursuant to this section, as well as any 37 other educational materials on recycling that the commissioner deems 38 relevant, shall be available in all designated citywide languages, as 39 defined in section 23-1101 of the code of the preceding municipality, 40 and supplied to each organic waste drop off site. The department shall 41 also perform outreach to community partners and other not-for-profit 42 organizations to provide them with information on how the public can 43 engage in opportunities to work with the department to open and operate 44 organic waste drop off sites and community scale composting facilities.

45 7. Reporting. The department shall report annually on the operation of 46 organic waste drop off sites. Such report shall be included as part of 47 the department's annual zero waste report required pursuant to section 48 16-316.5 of the code of the preceding municipality. Such report shall 49 include, at a minimum, the following information, disaggregated by 50 organic waste drop off site where feasible:

- 51 a. The total amount of material collected at such site;
- 52 b. The number of individuals who used such site during the reporting 53 period;
- 54 c. The number of full-time and part-time staff members working at such 55 site, if any; and

1 d. Where the organic waste collected at such site was processed 2 following collection.

3 § 16-309 Christmas trees. The commissioner shall establish and imple-
4 ment a curbside collection system for Christmas trees during a minimum 5 of two weeks in January of each year and provide for the composting or 6 recycling of the Christmas trees the department collects or receives for 7 disposal.

8 § 16-310 Public space recycling. 1. The department shall expand its 9 public space recycling program by increasing the number of public space 10 recycling receptacles for the collection of recyclable materials includ-11 ing, but not limited to, metal, glass, plastic and paper designated as 12 recyclable materials by the commissioner, to a cumulative total of at 13 least five hundred public space recycling receptacles, and to a cumula-14 tive total of at least one thousand public space recycling receptacles, 15 at public locations in the city, which shall be in or near public parks, 16 transit hubs, or commercial locations with high-pedestrian traffic. As 17 part of such expansion, the department shall place public space recycl-18 ing receptacles in all business improvement districts that provide 19 public litter basket maintenance. Whenever practicable, public space 20 recycling receptacles placed pursuant to this section shall be placed 21 adjacent to public litter baskets.

22 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 23 the department shall not be required to expand the public space recycl-24 ing program beyond existing or newly-established collection routes that 25 can be efficiently serviced by the department. The commissioner shall 26 have the authority to remove any public space recycling receptacle 27 placed pursuant to this section, provided that the department replaces 28 any such public space recycling receptacle, within thirty days of 29 removal, with additional public space recycling receptacles at the same 30 or in a different location on a one-to-one basis.

31 3. No person responsible for removing or transporting recyclable mate-

33 recyclable materials with non-recyclable materials or otherwise improv-34 properly dispose of such recyclable materials.

35 4. The department shall report the total number of public space recy-36 cling receptacles added during the relevant reporting year, and the 37 locations in which they were placed. Such report shall be included as 38 part of the department's annual zero waste report required pursuant to 39 subdivision b of section 16-316.5 of the code of the preceding municipi-40 pality.

41 5. The department may enter into sponsorship or partnership agreements 42 with entities such as for-profit and not-for-profit corporations and 43 district management associations established in accordance with section

47 ary first, two thousand eleven, the department shall establish a city-48 wide textile reuse and recycling program that shall, at a minimum, 49 provide for the recovery of textiles by placing department-approved 50 publicly accessible textile drop-off bins at appropriate locations on 51 city property or property maintained by the city and organizing public 52 textile reuse and recycling sites throughout the city that provide 53 convenient drop-off locations for all city residents. In addition, the 54 commissioner shall explore opportunities to work cooperatively with 55 private entities, including, but not limited to, not-for-profit corpo-56 rations and religious institutions, to promote expanded siting of 1 publicly accessible textile drop-off bins on private property throughout 2 the city. The department shall consider using department personnel or 3 facilities in order to implement the provisions of this section.

4 2. No publicly accessible textile drop-off bin placed pursuant to this 5 section shall be placed on city property or property maintained by the 6 city, or on a public sidewalk or roadway, unless otherwise authorized by 7 the city. No publicly accessible textile drop-off bin shall be placed on 8 private property without the written permission of the property owner or 9 the property owner's authorized agent. The owner or other person respon-10 sible for each such bin shall report at least every three months to the 11 department the amount of textiles collected in such bin by weight. Each 12 publicly accessible textile drop-off bin shall prominently display on 13 the front and on at least one other side of the bin, the name, address 14 and telephone number of the owner or other person responsible for the 15 bin. This information shall be printed in characters that are plainly 16 visible. In no event shall a post office box be considered an acceptable 17 address for purposes of this subdivision.

18 3. The department shall report by weight the amount of textiles 19 collected in publicly accessible textile drop-off bins located on city 20 property or property maintained by the city, through public textile 21 reuse and recycling sites pursuant to subdivision one of this section 22 and in publicly accessible textile drop-off bins maintained on private 23 property. Such report shall be included as part of the department's 27 lish a voluntary paint stewardship program under which manufacturers of 28 architectural paint, in cooperation with distributors of architectural 29 paint and retail establishments that sell, or offer for sale, architec-30 tural paint in the city, may establish a collection or other reclamation 31 system to collect architectural paint from consumers for reuse, recycl-32 ing or environmentally sound disposal.

33 2. The commissioner shall provide assistance or guidance to partic-34 ipating architectural paint manufacturers, distributors and retail 35 establishments in developing and implementing strategies to reduce the 36 quantity of architectural paint in the waste stream, promote the reuse 37 of architectural paint that would otherwise be discarded and disseminate 38 information regarding options to recycle architectural paint including, 39 but not limited to, posting information regarding the voluntary paint 40 stewardship program on the department's website.

41 § 16-310.3 Community recycling. 1. Community recycling centers. No
42 later than December thirty-first, two thousand twenty-four, the depart-43 ment shall ensure that at least two community recycling centers are 44 established and operational in each borough. Each such center shall be 45 available for drop offs at least twenty-four hours per week, including 46 weekends. Such centers shall be located in geographic areas that are 47 easily accessible, including for persons with disabilities, and shall be 48 in close proximity to public transportation and public housing develop-49 ments, where practicable. Any organic waste drop off site provided for 50 by local law may be co-located within such a center.

51 2. Community recycling events. No later than September thirtieth, two 52 thousand twenty-three, and annually thereafter, the department shall 53 host no less than one community recycling event in each community 54 district. Each such event shall be located in a geographic area that is 55 easily accessible, including for persons with disabilities, and in close 56 proximity to public transportation and public housing developments,

1 where practicable. Such events may be co-located with other sanitation 2 services. Community recycling events required by this subdivision shall 3 be in addition to any recycling event operated by an entity or organiza-4 tion other than the department, provided that any recycling event oper-

6 be hosted by the department for purposes of this section.

7 3. Materials collected. Each community recycling center and community 8 recycling event shall accept, to the extent practicable, inorganic mate-9 rial that is not collected through regular curbside collection but that 10 can be recycled or reused. One community recycling center per borough 11 shall also accept hazardous material, as practicable and as defined by 12 the department, that should not be disposed of as curbside waste.

13 4. Community recycling center and event information. The department 14 shall make available on the department's website, and distribute to each 15 local community board, the following information about the community 16 recycling centers and community recycling events required by this 17 section:

- 21 d. Services provided.

22 5. Education and outreach. The department, in consultation with any 23 agency identified by the mayor, shall develop an outreach and education 24 program to inform residents about community recycling centers and commu-

26 hours of operation, and the services they provide.

27 6. Reporting. The department shall report annually on the operation 28 community recycling centers and community recycling events required 29 pursuant to this section. Such report shall be included as part of the 30 department's annual waste diversion report required pursuant to section 31 16-316.5 of the code of the preceding municipality. Such report shall 32 include, but need not be limited to, the following information, disag-33 gregated by community recycling center and community recycling event, 34 where feasible:

- 36 b. The material collected at each such center and event, disaggregated 37 by material type;
- 38 c. The number of full-time and part-time staff persons working at each 39 such center and event;
- 40 d. Where each type of material collected is sent; and
- 41 e. A description of the education programs offered to the public.

42 § 16-311. Recycling outreach and education. 1. The department shall 43 provide instruction and materials for residential building owners, net

52 provide instructional workshops, training curricula, and other relevant 53 material to employees of city agencies, including a leaf and yard waste 54 training program for employees of any such agencies that generate 55 significant leaf and yard waste. The commissioner may utilize a private 1 entity or not-for-profit corporation to assist with the establishment or 2 performance of such program.

4 establish procedures and standards for processing recyclable materials 5 designated pursuant to section 16-305 of this chapter in city owned or 6 operated recycling centers, city owned or operated transfer stations or 7 any city owned or operated facility that renders recyclable materials 8 suitable for reuse or marketing and sale. The commissioner shall annu-9 ally review such procedures and standards and make any changes necessary 10 to conform to the requirements of the marketplace.

11 § 16-313 Marketing recyclable materials. The department shall estab-12 lish procedures, standards and strategies to market the recyclable mate-13 rials designated pursuant to section 16-305 of this chapter, including 14 but not limited to maintaining a list of prospective buyers, establish-15 ing contact with prospective buyers, entering into contracts with 16 buyers, and reviewing and making any necessary changes in collecting or 17 processing the materials to improve their marketability.

18 § 16-314 Recycling program revisions. The commissioner shall annually 19 review the recycling program and all rules promulgated thereunder, and 20 shall make the necessary revisions to improve the efficiency of collect-21 ing, processing, marketing and selling the materials recycled pursuant 22 to this title. These revisions may include designating additional 23 recyclable materials. The commissioner shall not delete designated mate-24 rials without designating additional materials so that the total quanti-25 ty, by weight, of all designated recyclable materials collected, proc-26 essed, marketed and sold does not decrease.

27 Where the commissioner determines that it is appropriate to delete a 28 designated material, the department shall provide notice of such 29 deletion to the mayor and the council, including the reason for such 30 deletion, and shall provide any relevant data supporting such decision.

31 § 16-315 Notice, education and research programs. 1. In addition to 32 the notice requirements of this code, within thirty days of the effec-33 tive date of any rules promulgated pursuant to this title, and as 34 frequently thereafter as the commissioner deems necessary, the depart-35 ment shall notify all persons occupying residential, commercial and 36 industrial premises affected by the rules, of the requirements of the 37 rules, by posting notices containing recycling information in public 38 places where such notices are customarily placed and, in the commission-39 er's discretion, employing any other means of notification deemed neces-40 sary and appropriate.

41 2. The commissioner shall compile relevant recycling, reuse and 42 composting information, including material available on the department's 43 website, to create and make available a guide to the city's residential 44 recycling program. Such guide shall, at a minimum, summarize and explain 45 the laws and rules governing curbside recycling, list the collection 46 locations and collection dates for non-curbside collected recyclable 47 materials such as household hazardous waste and textiles, and provide 48 detailed information and instructions on how to recycle any materials 49 not collected by the department for which non-city or non-department 50 recycling programs exist. Such guide shall be made available to resi-51 dential building owners, or the net lessees or persons in charge of such 52 buildings, community boards, not-for-profit organizations, public 53 schools, and other relevant agencies and entities, and shall also be 54 made available on the department website. The commissioner shall update 55 the recycling guide biennially, or as necessary, based on changes to 3 3. The department shall develop and implement an educational program, 4 in conjunction with the department of education, private schools, labor

12 products, and participation in city and private recycling activities.

13 4. The department shall perform such research and development activ-

18 programs, material recovery facilities, recycling as an economic devel-19 opment tool, export promotion, tax credits and exemptions for market 20 promotion.

13 council and shall not be published in the city record before the thir-14 ty-first day after such submission, unless the speaker of the council 15 authorizes earlier publication.

16 § 16-324 Enforcement. 1. Subject to the provisions of subdivision two 17 of this section, any person who violates this chapter, except section 18 16-306.1 of this title, subdivision seven of section 16-308 of this 19 title, section 16-310.1 of this title or section 16-329 of the code of 20 the preceding municipality, or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, 21 shall be liable for a civil penalty recoverable in a civil action 22 brought in the name of the commissioner or in a proceeding returnable 23 before the environmental control board, as follows:

24 a. For residential buildings containing fewer than nine dwelling 25 units, the civil penalty shall be in an amount of twenty-five dollars 26 for the first violation, fifty dollars for the second violation commit-27 ted on a different day within a period of twelve months, and one hundred 28 dollars for the third and each subsequent violation committed on a 29 different day within a period of twelve months, provided that the court 30 before which such civil action is brought or such board may waive the 31 penalty for the first violation upon a showing of good cause.

32 b. For residential buildings containing nine or more dwelling units 33 and commercial, manufacturing or industrial buildings, the civil penalty 34 shall be in an amount of one hundred dollars for the first violation, 35 two hundred dollars for the second violation committed on a different 36 day within a period of twelve months, and four hundred dollars for the 45 c. For persistent violators only, each container or bag containing 47 collection in accordance with the rules promulgated by the commissioner 48 pursuant to this chapter shall constitute a separate violation, provided 49 that no more than twenty separate violations are issued on a per bag or

1 ing for which the notice of violation was issued. Where such presumption 2 is rebutted, the number of dwelling units on such notice of violation 3 shall be deemed modified accordingly, and in no event shall such notice 4 of violation be dismissed solely on the ground that the number of dwell-5 ing units on the original notice of violation was incorrectly stated.

6 e. The commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall establish a 7 recycling training program for owners or employees of residential build-8 ings of nine or more dwelling units for which at least three notices of 16 practices at such building and a fee may be imposed on any owner or 17 employee who participates in such training program. Such training 45 designated time period will result in the removal and disposal of the 46 publicly accessible textile drop-off bin by the department. This notice 47 shall also state that if the owner or other responsible person objects 48 to removal on the grounds that the publicly accessible textile drop-off 49 bin is not on city property, or property maintained by the city, or on 50 any public sidewalk or roadway, such owner or other responsible person 51 may send written objection to the department at the address indicated on 52 the notice within twenty days from the mailing of such notice or, if the 53 address of such owner or other responsible person is not ascertainable 54 and notice is not mailed by the department, within twenty days from the 55 affixing of such notice, with proof that the publicly accessible textile 56 drop-off bin is not on city property, or property maintained by the 1 city, or on any public sidewalk or roadway. Proof that the publicly 2 accessible textile drop-off bin is not on city property, or property 3 maintained by the city, or on any public sidewalk or roadway shall
