39 privileges, or remedies of any employee under any collective bargaining
40 agreement or employment contract.

41 § 4. Section 203-b of the workers' compensation law, as added by 42 section 4 of part SS of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to

52 Nothing in this section shall be construed to entitle any restored 53 employee to the accrual of any seniority or employment benefits during 54 any period of leave, or any right, benefit or position to which the 55 employee would have been entitled had the employee not taken the leave.

1 § 5. Section 203-c of the workers' compensation law, as added by 21 in force for the duration of family or disability leave as if the 22 construction employee had continued to work from the date they commenced 23 family or disability leave until the date the construction employee 24 returns to employment. Nothing herein prevents parties to a collective 25 bargaining agreement for construction employees from providing addi-26 tional terms including, but not limited to, payment of health contrib-27 utions for such employees on leave time, whether leave time is consid-28 ered hours worked for purposes of eligibility in the health plan or 29 fund, or other terms that do not conflict with this section.

38 this section and in sections two hundred five and two hundred six of 39 this article. Family leave benefits shall be payable to an eligible 40 employee for the first full day when family leave is required and there-41 after during the continuance of the need for family leave, subject to 42 the limitations as to maximum and minimum amounts and duration and other 43 conditions and limitations in this section and in sections two hundred 44 five and two hundred six of this article. Successive periods of disabil-45 ity or family leave caused by the same or related injury or sickness or 46 qualifying event shall be deemed a single period of disability or family 47 leave only if separated by less than three months.

48 2. (a) The weekly benefit for family leave that occurs (i) on or after

6 percent of the employee's average weekly wage but shall not exceed 7 sixty-seven percent of the New York state average weekly wage in effect.
8 The superintendent of financial services shall have discretion to delay 9 the increases in the family leave benefit level provided in subpara-
10 graphs (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this paragraph by one or more calendar
11 years. In determining whether to delay the increase in the family leave 12 benefit for any year, the superintendent of financial services shall 13 consider: (1) the current cost to employees of the family leave benefit 14 and any expected change in the cost after the benefit increase; (2) the 15 current number of insurers issuing insurance policies with a family 16 leave benefit and any expected change in the number of insurers issuing 17 such policies after the benefit increase; (3) the impact of the benefit 18 increase on employers' business and the overall stability of the program 19 to the extent that information is readily available; (4) the impact of 20 the benefit increase on the financial stability of the disability and 21 family leave insurance market and carriers; and (5) any additional 22 factors that the superintendent of financial services deems relevant. If 23 the superintendent of financial services delays the increase in the 24 family leave benefit level for one or more calendar years, the family

40 first, two thousand twenty-nine shall be sixty percent of the employee's 41 average weekly wage but shall not exceed fifty-five percent of the state
42 average weekly wage; (iii) on or after January first, two thousand thir-
43 ty shall be sixty-seven percent of the employee's weekly average wage 44 but shall not exceed sixty percent of the state average weekly wage; and 45 (iv) on or after January first of each succeeding year, shall be sixty-46 seven percent of the employee's average weekly wage but shall not exceed 47 sixty-seven percent of the state average weekly wage. The weekly bene-
48 fit which the disabled employee is entitled to receive for the periods
49 of disability after the twelfth week of disability and through the twen-
50 ty-sixth week of disability on or after January first, two thousand 51 twenty-eight and each succeeding year shall be thirty percent of the 52 employee's average weekly wage but shall not exceed thirty percent of 55 shall have discretion to increase the benefit level for the period of 56 disability after the twelfth week of disability through the twenty-sixth

1 week of disability, provided that such benefit shall not exceed sixty-2 seven percent of the state average weekly wage. In determining whether 3 to increase the disability benefit for any year, the chair of the work-4 ers' compensation board in consultation with the superintendent of 5 financial services shall consider factors including but not limited to 6 utilization of the current benefit, the expected utilization of any 7 increase, the need for a benefit increase, the current contribution cost 8 to employees and employers and the expected cost after any such benefit 9 increase; the current number of insurers issuing insurance policies 10 with a disability benefit and any expected change in the number of 11 insurers issuing such policies after the benefit increase; and any 12 additional factors that the chair of the workers' compensation board and 13 the superintendent of financial services deems relevant. The weekly 14 benefit which the disabled employee is entitled to receive for disabili-15 ty leave that occurs on or after January first, two thousand twenty-16 eight shall not be less than one hundred dollars per week except that if 17 the employee's wages at the time of disability leave are less than one 18 hundred dollars per week, the employee shall receive the employee's full 19 wages. The weekly benefit which the disabled employee is entitled to 20 receive for disability commencing on or after May first, nineteen 21 hundred eighty-nine and prior to January first, two thousand twenty-22 eight shall be one-half of the employee's weekly wage, but in no case 23 shall such benefit exceed one hundred seventy dollars; except that if 24 the employee's average weekly wage is less than twenty dollars, the 25 benefit shall be such average weekly wage. The weekly benefit which the 26 disabled employee is entitled to receive for disability commencing on or 27 after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-four shall be one-half of the 28 employee's weekly wage, but in no case shall such benefit exceed one

31 weekly wage. The weekly benefit which the disabled employee is entitled 32 to receive for disability commencing on or after July first, nineteen 33 hundred eighty-three and prior to July first, nineteen hundred eighty-34 four shall be one-half of the employee's average weekly wage, but in no 35 case shall such benefit exceed one hundred thirty-five dollars nor be 36 less than twenty dollars; except that if the employee's average weekly 37 wage is less than twenty dollars the benefit shall be such average week-38 ly wage. The weekly benefit which the disabled employee is entitled to 39 receive for disability commencing on or after July first, nineteen

43 twenty dollars; except that if the employee's average weekly wage is 44 less than twenty dollars, the benefit shall be such average weekly wage.
45 The weekly benefit which the disabled employee is entitled to receive

52 ~~period of disability less than a full week, the benefits payable shall~~ 53 ~~be calculated by dividing the weekly benefit by the number of the~~

55 ~~number of normal work days in such period of disability.] Benefits may 56 be payable to employees for disability leave taken intermittently or for~~

1 less than a full work week in increments of one full day or one-fifth of 2 the weekly benefit. The weekly benefit for a disabled employee who is 3 concurrently eligible for benefits in the employment of more than one

6 from all such covered employers, and shall be allocated in the propor-7 tion of [~~their~~] the employee's respective average weekly payments.

8 (c) Provided that the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision
9 concerning benefits on or after January first, two thousand twenty-eight 10 and subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision three of 11 section two hundred nine of this article may be waived by a covered 12 employer subject to a collective bargaining agreement with a bona fide 13 labor organization in effect on January first, two thousand twenty-eight 14 for employees subject to such collective bargaining agreement for a 15 disability commencing between January first, two thousand twenty-eight 16 and until January first, two thousand thirty-one; and provided that for 17 such waiver to be valid, it shall explicitly reference this section and 18 be agreed to by the bona fide labor organization. Nothing herein shall 19 prevent a collective bargaining agreement from providing temporary disa-20 bility benefits greater than the benefits required herein.

21 § 8. Subdivision 2 of section 206 of the workers' compensation law, as 22 amended by section 7 of part SS of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is
