AN ACT to amend the state administrative procedure act, in relation to requiring regulating bodies provide certain businesses with notice of new rules and regulations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 202 of the state administrative 2 procedure act is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as 3 follows:

4 (d) Within sixty days of an agency filing a rule or regulation with 5 the secretary of state, the agency shall make publicly available the 6 notice of adoption for such rule or regulation to each relevant business
7 effected by such rule or regulation. Notice shall be by the most cost-8 effective means possible, including, but not limited to, an easily
9 accessible public-facing website, electronic mail, or by letter. Notice 10 can also be provided to a trade association or group for distribution.
11 If a business was registered with the department of state, notice shall 12 be considered constructive notice. Where a business receives proper 13 actual notice or constructive notice, a business shall be granted a 14 one-hundred-eighty-day grace period to implement such new rule or regu-
15 lation. During this grace period, no fines or punishment shall be 16 imposed. Where such proper actual notice was not provided, the rule or 17 regulation shall be unenforceable upon such business until one hundred 18 eighty days after such notice is actually provided.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any 20 rules or regulations filed with the secretary of state on and after such 21 date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
