STATE OF NEW YORK

10422

IN SENATE

May 15, 2026

Introduced by Sens. MARTINEZ, BYNOE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to care for retired law enforcement and fire investigation dogs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 844 to read as follows:

§ 844. Care for retired law enforcement and fire investigation dogs. 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Retired law enforcement dog" shall mean a dog that was previously in the service of or utilized by a law enforcement agency or a correctional agency in this state for the principal purpose of aiding in the detection of criminal activity, enforcement of laws, or apprehension of offenders and that received certification issued by the division or by the division of state police attesting to the satisfactory completion of a police canine training program.

(b) "Retired fire investigation dog" shall mean a dog previously in the service of or utilized by a fire department as an ignitable liquid detection canine or otherwise trained to assist in fire investigation and that received certification issued by the office of fire prevention and control within the division of homeland security and emergency services or through another recognized fire investigation canine training program attesting to the satisfactory completion of such training.

(c) "Law enforcement agency" shall mean any agency or department of any municipality, any police district, or any agency, department, commission, authority or public benefit corporation in the state employing a police officer or police officers as that term is defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

(d) "Correctional agency" shall mean any agency or department operated by the state, a county, municipality, or city of New York having primary responsibility for the supervision, protection, care, custody, control, or investigation of incarcerated individuals in the state employing EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD15170-04-6

police officers as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law or peace officers as that term is defined in subdivision twenty-five of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law.

(e) "Fire department" shall mean any department, agency, or unit of a county, city, town, village, or fire district providing fire protection or fire investigation services in this state, whether composed of paid or volunteer firefighters, and may be composed of one or more fire companies as defined in section three of the volunteer firefighters' benefit law.

(f) "Veterinary care" shall mean the practice, by a veterinarian, of veterinary medicine as defined in article one hundred thirty-five of the education law. The term shall also include but not be limited to annual wellness examinations, vaccinations, internal and external parasite prevention treatments, testing and treatment of illnesses and diseases, medications, emergency care and surgeries, physical therapy, veterinary oncology or other specialty care, euthanasia, and cremation.

2. The division shall establish a veterinary care program for the care of retired law enforcement and fire investigation dogs and shall promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate such program.

3. The program shall cover the cost of veterinary care for retired law enforcement and fire investigation dogs for the remainder of the lifetime of such dogs provided the law enforcement agency, correctional agency, or fire department elects to participate in such program.

4. The law enforcement agency, correctional agency or fire department where such retired law enforcement or fire investigation dog served or was utilized shall elect to participate in the program established pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

5. In order to be eligible for such program, the handler or adopter of such retired law enforcement or fire investigation dog shall provide proof that the dog was in service as a law enforcement or fire investigation dog for at least:

(a) five years; or

(b) was taken out of service due to an injury to the dog; or

(c) was taken out of service due to the dog being trained in THC detection as a law enforcement dog.

6. A handler or adopter of an eligible law enforcement or fire investigation dog shall be entitled to be reimbursed for the cost of veterinary care upon submission of a valid invoice from a veterinarian.

§ 2. The program established by section 844 of the executive law, as added by section one of this act shall be subject to an appropriation to the division of criminal justice services out of any moneys in the state treasury in the general fund.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.