2 lative law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2005, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 (4) Such biennial filings shall be completed on or before January
5 first of the first year of a biennial cycle commencing in calendar year 6 two thousand five and thereafter, by those persons who have been 7 retained, employed or designated as lobbyist on or before December 8 fifteenth of the previous calendar year and who reasonably anticipate 9 that in the coming year they will expend, incur or receive combined 10 reportable compensation and expenses in an amount in excess of two thou-11 sand dollars in years prior to calendar year two thousand six and five 12 thousand dollars commencing in two thousand six or, where such lobbyist
13 is qualified as an exempt organization or entity by the United States 14 department of the treasury under section 501(c)(3) of the internal 15 revenue code, ten thousand dollars commencing in two thousand 16 twenty-six; for those lobbyists retained, employed or designated after 17 the previous December fifteenth, and for those lobbyists who subsequent 18 to their retainer, employment or designation reasonably anticipate 19 combined reportable compensation and expenses in excess of such amount, 20 such filing must be completed within fifteen days thereafter, but in no 21 event later than ten days after the actual incurring or receiving of 22 such reportable compensation and expenses.

§ 2. Paragraphs (iii) and (iv) of subdivision (e) of section 1-e of the legislative law, as amended by section 1 of part S of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as follows:

(iii) The first statement of registration filed biennially by each lobbyist for the first biennial registration requirements for calendar years between two thousand five and two thousand ~~[six and thereafter]~~ twenty-five, shall be accompanied by a registration fee of two hundred dollars except that no registration fee shall be required from any lobbyist who in any year does not expend, incur or receive an amount in excess of five thousand dollars of reportable compensation and expenses, as provided in paragraph five of subdivision (b) of section one-h of this article, for the purposes of lobbying or of a public corporation. A fee of two hundred dollars shall be required for any subsequent statement of registration filed by a lobbyist during the same biennial period; (iv) The first statement of registration filed biennially by each lobbyist for the first biennial registration requirements for calendar year two thousand twenty-six and thereafter, shall be accompanied by a registration fee of two hundred dollars except that no registration fee shall be required from any lobbyist who is qualified as an exempt organization or entity by the United States department of the treasury under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code and in any year does not expend, incur or receive an amount in excess of ten thousand dollars of reportable compensation and expenses, as provided in paragraph five of subdivision (b) of section one-h of this article, for the purposes of lobbying or of a public corporation. A fee of two hundred dollars shall be required for any subsequent statement of registration filed by a lobbyist during the same biennial period; (v) The statement of registration filed after the due date of a biennial registration shall be accompanied by a registration fee that is prorated to one hundred dollars for any registration filed after January first of the second calendar year covered by the biennial reporting requirement. In addition to the fees authorized by this section, the commission may impose a fee for late filing of a registration statement required by this section not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day that the statement required to be filed is late, except that if the lobbyist making a late filing has not previously been required by statute to file such a statement, the fee for late filing shall not exceed ten dollars for each day that the statement required to be filed is late.

§ 3. Subdivision (a) of section 1-h of the legislative law, as amended by chapter 14 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Any lobbyist required to file a statement of registration pursuant to section one-e of this article who in any lobbying year reasonably anticipates that during the year such lobbyist will expend, incur or receive combined reportable compensation and expenses in an amount in excess of five thousand dollars, or ten thousand dollars where such lobbyist is qualified as an exempt organization or entity by the United States department of the treasury under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code as provided in paragraph five of subdivision (b) of this section, for the purpose of lobbying, shall file with the commission a bi-monthly written report, on forms supplied by the commission, by the fifteenth day next succeeding the end of the reporting period in which the lobbyist was first required to file a statement of registration. Such reporting periods shall be the period of January first to the last day of February, March first to April thirtieth, May first to June thirtieth, July first to August thirty-first, September first to October thirty-first and November first to December thirty-first.

§ 4. Subdivision (a) of section 1-j of the legislative law, as amended by chapter 14 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Semi-annual reports shall be filed by any client retaining, employing or designating a lobbyist or lobbyists, whether or not any such lobbyist was required to file a bi-monthly report, if such client reasonably anticipates that during the year such client will expend or incur an amount in excess of five thousand dollars, or ten thousand dollars where such lobbyist is qualified as an exempt organization or entity by the United States department of the treasury under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code of combined reportable compensation and expenses, as provided in paragraph five of subdivision ~~(a)~~ (b) of this section, for the purposes of lobbying.

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.
