AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to allocating the Amistad commission to work alongside the department of education and on behalf of students in New York state; and to repeal certain provisions of the arts and cultural affairs law relating to the Amistad commission

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 57-B of the arts and cultural affairs law is 2 REPEALED.

3 § 2. The education law is amended by adding a new article 25 to read
4 as follows:

ARTICLE 25

THE AMISTAD COMMISSION

5
6
7 Section 1301. Legislative findings.

8 1302. Definitions

9 1303. Commission established.

10 1304. Commission duties and responsibilities.

11 1305. Curriculum.

12 1306. Authorization.

13 § 1301. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares that:

14 1. During the period beginning late in the fifteenth century through 15 the nineteenth century, millions of persons of African origin were 16 enslaved and brought to the Western Hemisphere, including the United 17 States of America; of the 12.5 million enslaved Africans brought, 10.7 18 million survived the middle passage or approximately 20% perished during 19 their journey to the Western hemisphere. The enslavement of Africans and 20 their descendants was part of a concerted effort of physical and psycho-21 logical terror that deprived groups of people of African descent the 22 opportunity to preserve many of their economic, social, religious, poli-

1 tical and other customs; the vestiges of slavery in this country contin-
2 ued with the legalization of second class citizenship status for Afri-
3 can-Americans through from the end of Reconstruction in 1876 until the 4 Civil Rights Era that spanned the 1950s through 1968, including Jim Crow 5 laws, segregation and other similar practices; the legacy of slavery has 6 pervaded the fabric of our society; and in spite of these events there 7 are endless examples of the influence of the history of Africans on the 8 cultural, economic, political and social foundation of the United 9 States, the Americas and the economies, politics and societies of Europe
10 and beyond. The enduring legacy of chattel slavery in the United States 11 and the Americas, including the social construct created and cemented by 12 the biological myth of race and the resulting inequities and injustices
13 stemming from racism. That was challenged by the perseverance, activism 14 and aforementioned contributions of the enslaved Africans, their 15 descendants and stakeholders, throughout history.

16 2. We should know of and remember the human carnage and dehumanizing 17 atrocities committed during the period of the African slave trade and 18 slavery in America and of the vestiges of slavery in this country; and 19 it is in fact vital to educate our citizens on these events, the legacy
20 of slavery, the sad history of racism in this country, and on the prin-
21 ciples of human rights and dignity in a civilized society.

22 3. It is the policy of the state of New York that Black history, 23 including the history of Africa, the trans-Atlantic slave trade, the 24 African diaspora, chattel slavery, the African slave trade, slavery in 25 America, the legacy of slavery on our society, the depth of their impact 26 in our society, and the triumphs of Africans and their descendants and 27 their significant contributions to the development of this country is 28 the proper concern of all people, particularly students enrolled in the 29 schools of the state of New York.

30 4. There is a need for education reform from preschool through college 31 in order to mitigate the devastating effect of racism in education and 32 the complete miseducation of our population around Black history.

33 5. It is therefore desirable to create a state-level commission, which 34 shall oversee the budget and operation of the Amistad commission as it
35 seeks to provide the students of New York with a more adequate inclu-
36 sion of the history of Africa, chattel slavery, the African diaspora, 37 the legacy of slavery and the contributions of African-Americans in 38 building our country.

39 § 1302. Definitions. For the purposes of this article:

26 4. Each public member of the commission shall serve for a term of four 27 years. Public members shall be eligible for reappointment. They shall 28 serve until their successors are appointed and qualified, and the term

30 tion of the term of that incumbent. A vacancy occurring other than by 31 expiration of term shall be filled in the same manner as the original
