31 (viii) persons in a position with regular duties that allow the 32 employee to modify digital security systems established to prevent the 33 unauthorized use of the employer's or client's networks or databases.

34 (3) As used in this subdivision the following terms shall have the 35 following meanings:

36 (i) "intelligence information" means records and data compiled for the 37 purpose of criminal investigation or counterterrorism, including records
38 and data relating to the order or security of a correctional facility,
39 reports of informants, investigators or other persons, or from any type 40 of surveillance associated with an identifiable individual, or investi-
41 gation or analysis of potential terrorist threats;

42 (ii) "national security information" means any knowledge relating to 43 the national defense or foreign relations of the United States, regard-44 less of its physical form or characteristics, that is owned by, produced 45 by or for, or is under the control of the United States government and 46 is defined as such by the United States government and its agencies and 47 departments; and

48 (iii) "trade secrets" means information that: (A) derives independent 49 economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to,
50 and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who 51 can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; (B) is the subject 52 of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its 53 secrecy; and (C) can reasonably be said to be the end product of signif-
54 icant innovation. The term "trade secrets" does not include general
55 proprietary company information such as handbooks and policies. The term

1 "regular access to trade secrets" does not include access to or the use
2 of client, customer or mailing lists.

3 (4) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude an employer from 4 requesting or receiving consumer credit history information pursuant to 5 a lawful subpoena, court order or law enforcement investigation.

6 (5) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not be construed to affect 7 the obligations of persons required by state or local law relating to 8 disclosures by public employees of conflicts of interest.

9 (e) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, it shall be 10 an unlawful discriminatory practice for any state or municipal agency to 11 request or use for licensing or permitting purposes information
12 contained in the consumer credit history of an applicant, licensee or 13 permittee for licensing or permitting purposes.

14 (2) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not apply to an agency
15 required by state or federal law to use an individual's consumer credit 16 history for licensing or permitting purposes.

17 (3) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not be construed to affect 18 the ability of an agency to consider an applicant's, licensee's, regis-19 trant's or permittee's failure to pay any tax, fine, penalty or fee for 20 which liability has been admitted by the person liable therefor, or for 21 which judgment has been entered by a court or administrative tribunal of 22 competent jurisdiction, or any tax for which a government agency has 23 issued a warrant, or a lien or levy on property.

24 (4) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a licensing agency from 25 requesting, receiving, or using consumer credit history information
26 obtained pursuant to a lawful subpoena, court order or specific law
27 enforcement investigation.

28 (f) This section does not annul, alter, affect or exempt any employer, 29 labor organization, employment agency or any agent thereof subject to 30 the provisions of this section from complying with any local law, ordi-
31 nance or regulation with respect to the use of consumer credit history
32 for employment purposes except to the extent that those laws are incon-
33 sistent with any provision of this section, and then only to the extent 34 of such inconsistency. For purposes of this subdivision, a local law, 35 ordinance or regulation is not inconsistent with this section if the 36 protection such law or regulation affords an employee or job applicant
37 is greater than the protection provided by this section.

38 § 3. The division of human rights shall request information from state 39 and local agencies and non-governmental employers regarding the agen-
40 cies' and employers' use of the exemptions established in subdivision
41 (d) of section 380-b of the general business law for purposes of hiring 42 and employment. Within two years of the effective date of this act, the 43 division of human rights shall submit to the legislature a report 44 concerning the results of such request and any relevant feedback from 45 agencies and employers.

53 consumer, or (ii) for employment purposes, except that a consumer report
54 may be furnished for such purposes only if such report excludes informa-
55 tion that bears on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing,
56 credit capacity or credit history and is based on the consumer's finan-

1 cial transactions, except that such information is permitted to be 2 disseminated to employers or persons set forth in paragraph two of 3 subdivision (d) of this section, or (iii) in connection with the under-4 writing of insurance involving the consumer, or (iv) in connection with 5 a determination of the consumer's eligibility for a license or other 6 benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality required by law to 7 consider an applicant's financial responsibility or status, or (v) to a 8 person in connection with a business transaction involving the consumer 9 where the user has a legitimate business need for such information, or 12 it shall have become a law.
