standing to another lane, provided that such movement otherwise complies with the requirements of this chapter including, but not limited to, the provisions of sections eleven hundred ten and eleven hundred twenty-eight of this title.

~~[(d)]~~ 4. Every operator of a motor vehicle on a parkway and on a controlled-access highway shall exercise due care to avoid colliding with a motor vehicle which is parked, stopped or standing on the shoulder or any portion of such parkway or controlled-access highway. For the purposes of this subdivision, such due care shall include, but not be limited to, moving from a lane which contains or is immediately adjacent to the shoulder where such motor vehicle is parked, stopped or standing to another lane, provided that such movement otherwise complies with the requirements of this chapter including, but not limited to, the provisions of sections eleven hundred ten and eleven hundred twenty-eight of this title.

(b) 1. An operator of a motor vehicle who causes physical injury as defined under article ten of the penal law as a result of recklessly failing to exercise due care in violation of subdivision (a) of this section shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars in addition to any other penalties provided by law. A conviction for a second or any subsequent violation, any of which were committed within a period of eighteen months, shall constitute a class E felony, punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

2. An operator of a motor vehicle (i) who causes serious physical injury as defined under article ten of the penal law as a result of recklessly failing to exercise due care in violation of subdivision (a) of this section shall be guilty of a class D felony punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars in addition to any other penalty provided by law, or (ii) who causes death as a result of recklessly failing to exercise due care in violation of subdivision (a) of this section shall be guilty of a class C felony punishable by a fine of not less than two thousand nor more than five thousand dollars in addition to any other penalties provided by law, and by suspension of a license or registration pursuant to subparagraph (xviii) of paragraph b of subdivision two of section five hundred ten of this chapter.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the term "recklessly" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 15.05 of the penal law.

(xviii) for a period of six months where the holder is convicted of a violation of paragraph two of subdivision (b) of section eleven hundred forty-four-a of this chapter and the commission of such violation caused serious physical injury to or death of another person.

§ 3. The division of criminal justice services shall establish a public information campaign to instruct the public that operating a motor vehicle when approaching a parked, stopped or standing authorized emergency vehicle or hazard vehicle or vehicle displaying a blue or green light that results in physical injury, serious physical injury or death as a result of the operator recklessly failing to exercise due care to avoid a collision can result in serious criminal penalties.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
