(2) If a taxpayer receives a real property tax exemption relating to such service under title two of article four of the real property tax law, such taxpayer shall not be eligible for this credit; provided, however (A) if the taxpayer receives such real property tax exemption in the two thousand seven taxable year as a result of making application therefor in a prior year or (B) if the taxpayer notifies ~~[his or her]~~ their assessor in writing by December thirty-first, two thousand seven of the taxpayer's intent to discontinue such real property tax exemption by not re-applying for such real property tax exemption by the next taxable status date, such taxpayer shall be eligible for this credit for the two thousand seven taxable year.

(3) In the case of ~~[a husband and wife]~~ spouses who file a joint return and who both individually qualify for the credit under this subsection for taxable years beginning on and after January first, two thousand seven and before January first, two thousand twenty-six, the amount of the credit allowed shall be four hundred dollars. For taxable years beginning on and after January first, two thousand twenty-six, the amount of the credit shall be one thousand dollars.

(4) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
