AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to authorizing the public service commission to establish rules to limit a utility's ability to recover certain operating expenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 12 of section 66 of the public service law is amended by adding a new paragraph (n) to read as follows:

(n) (i) The commission is authorized and directed to, no later than January first, two thousand twenty-seven, establish rules to limit a utility's ability to recover its direct or indirect costs associated with its attendance in, participation in, preparation for, or appeal of any rate proceeding conducted before the commission. Such costs shall include, but need not be limited to, attorneys' fees, fees to engage expert witnesses or consultants, the portion of employee salaries associated with such attendance, participation, preparation or appeal of a rate proceeding and related costs identified by the commission.

(ii) In establishing such rules the commission may consider: (A) setting an overall percentage of the utility's expenses in a rate case that are not recoverable; (B) setting a baseline of the reasonable cost of participation in a rate case; and (C) establishing discovery parameters and what information in a proceeding must be disclosed to interven-
