- (iii) the adoption or repeal of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law;
 - (iv) the obtaining of grants of money or loans;
- (v) licensing. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "licensing" shall mean any city agency activity respecting the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, enforcement, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, recall, cancellation or amendment of a license, permit or other form of permission conferring the right or privilege to engage in (i) a profession, trade, or occupation or (ii) any business or activity regulated by a regulatory agency of a city agency which in the absence of such license, permit or other form of permission would be prohibited; [and]
 - (vi) any proceeding relating to a franchise[→]; and
- (vii) legal services, consulting, or any other contractual expenditure for services, whether actually performed or not from a state or local authority if such political party chair: (A) is directly contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; (B) owns or controls directly or indirectly ten per centum or more of stock in a corporation that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; or (C) owns or controls ten per centum or more of the capital, profits, or beneficial interest in a firm or association that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services.
- 2. Subdivision 1 of section 2825 of the public authorities law, as amended by chapter 766 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment as a trustee or member of the governing body of a state or local authority, as defined in section two of this chapter, and any public officer or employee may accept such appointment and serve as such trustee or member without forfeiture of any other public office or position of public employment by reason thereof. Provided, no statewide elected 51 52 official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature, legislative employee or political party chair as defined in sections seventy-53 54 three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall receive 55 compensation for legal fees, consulting, or any other contractual 56 expenditure for services, whether actually performed or not, from a state or local authority if such statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature, legislative employee or political party chair: (i) is directly contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; (ii) owns or controls directly or indirectly ten per centum or more of stock in a corporation or that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; or (iii) owns or controls ten per centum or more of the capital, profits, or beneficial interest in a firm or association that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services.

§ 3. Section 801 of the general municipal law, as amended by chapter 1043 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

§ 801. Conflicts of interest prohibited. Except as provided in section eight hundred two of this chapter, (1) no municipal officer or employee shall have an interest in any contract with the municipality of which [he is] they are an officer or employee, when such officer or employee, individually or as a member of a board, has the power or duty to (a) negotiate, prepare, authorize or approve the contract or authorize or approve payment thereunder (b) audit bills or claims under the contract, or (c) appoint an officer or employee who has any of the powers or duties set forth above [and], (2) no chief fiscal officer, treasurer, or [his] their deputy or employee, shall have an interest in a bank or trust company designated as a depository, paying agent, registration agent or for investment of funds of the municipality of which [he is] they are an officer or employee, and (3) no municipal officer shall receive compensation for legal fees, consulting, or any other contractual expenditure for services, whether actually performed or not, from a state or local authority if such municipal officer: (a) is directly contracted by a state or local authority for the related services, (b) owns or controls directly or indirectly ten percent or more of stock in a corporation that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services, or (c) owns or controls ten percent or more of the capital, profits, or beneficial interest in a firm or association that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services. The provisions of this section shall in no event be construed to 35 preclude the payment of lawful compensation and necessary expenses of any municipal officer or employee in one or more positions of public employment, the holding of which is not prohibited by law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately, and apply to contracts entered into on or after such effective date.
