AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to the establishment of visiting policies for incarcerated individuals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 138-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 138-b. Visiting policies for the incarcerated. 1. State and local 4 correctional facilities shall establish visiting policies which give 5 incarcerated individuals opportunities for in-person contact with their 6 relatives, children, friends, clergy, volunteers and other persons to 7 promote individual transformation, better institutional adjustment and 8 better community adjustment upon release. Such program shall include, 9 but not be limited to, (a) visiting hours that are reasonably likely to 10 accommodate persons traveling from within the state, including evening 11 hours starting at six o'clock p.m. and/or weekend hours, (b) visits of 12 sufficient duration, including a minimum of one hour at local correc-13 tional facilities so that visitors and incarcerated individuals will be 14 able to maintain relationship bonds, and (c) a published overcrowding 15 policy that is equitable with due consideration to the distance traveled 16 by the visitor, the frequency of the visitor's visits, the most recent 17 occasion that the incarcerated individual's visit was terminated due to 18 overcrowding, and any other individual circumstances that limit in-per-19 son visits between the incarcerated individuals and the visitor.

20 2. Video conferencing may supplement, but shall not take the place of, 21 in-person visits. For the purposes of this section, video conferencing 22 or other technologies that enable remote visitation shall not count
