AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to increasing the mandatory retirement age for New York police department members

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 15 of section 501 of the retirement and social 2 security law, as added by chapter 890 of the laws of 1976, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 15. "Mandatory retirement age" shall mean age seventy, for general 5 members, and age sixty-two, for police/fire members, and age sixty-five,
6 for police members who become subject to the provisions of this article 7 on or after July first, two thousand twenty-five.

8 § 2. Subdivision d of section 503 of the retirement and social securi-
9 ty law, as amended by chapter 18 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read 10 as follows:

11 d. The normal service retirement benefit specified in section five 12 hundred five of this article shall be paid to police/fire members, New 13 York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members and 14 investigator revised plan members without regard to age upon retirement 15 after twenty-two years of service. Early service retirement shall be 16 permitted upon retirement after twenty years of credited service or 17 attainment of age sixty-two or attainment of age sixty-five for police 18 members who become subject to the provisions of this article on or after 19 July first, two thousand twenty-five, provided, however, that New York
20 city police/fire revised plan members, New York city uniformed
21 correction/sanitation revised plan members and investigator revised plan 22 members shall not be eligible to retire for service prior to the attain-23 ment of twenty years of credited service.

24 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
