Introduced by Sens. SEPULVEDA, HOYLMAN-SIGAL, PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing excelsior scholarships for low-income law students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 669-h of the education law, as 2 amended by section 1 of part T of chapter 56 of the laws of 2018, is 3 amended to read as follows:
4 1. Eligibility. An excelsior scholarship award shall be made to an 5 applicant who: (a) is matriculated in an approved program leading to an
6 undergraduate degree, juris doctor, or master of laws at a New York
7 state public institution of higher education; (b) if enrolled in (i) a 8 public institution of higher education prior to application, has 9 completed at least thirty combined credits per year following the 10 student's start date, or its equivalent, applicable to ~~[his or her]~~ such 11 applicant's program or programs of study or (ii) an institution of high-12 er education prior to application, has completed at least thirty 13 combined credits per year following the student's start date, or its 14 equivalent, applicable to ~~[his or her]~~ such applicant's program or 15 programs of study and which were accepted upon transfer to a public
16 institution of higher education; (c) enrolls in at least twelve credits
17 per semester and completes at least thirty combined credits per year 18 following the student's start date, or its equivalent, applicable to 19 ~~[his or her]~~ such applicant's program or programs of study except in 20 limited circumstances as prescribed by the corporation in regulation.
21 Notwithstanding, in the student's last semester, the student may take at 22 least one course needed to meet ~~[his or her]~~ graduation requirements and 23 enroll in and complete at least twelve credit hours or its equivalent.

ties Act of 1990, 42 USC 12101, the corporation shall prescribe rules and regulations that allow applicants who are disabled to be eligible for an award pursuant to this section based on modified criteria; (d) has an adjusted gross income for the qualifying year, as such terms are defined in this subdivision, equal to or less than: (i) one hundred thousand dollars for recipients receiving an award in the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen academic year; (ii) one hundred ten thousand dollars for recipients receiving an award in the two thousand eighteen--two thousand nineteen academic year; and (iii) one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars for recipients receiving an award in the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty academic year and thereafter; and (e) complies with the applicable provisions of this article and all requirements promulgated by the corporation for the administration of the program. Adjusted gross income shall be the total of the combined adjusted gross income of the applicant and the applicant's parents or the applicant and the applicant's spouse, if married. Qualifying year shall be the adjusted gross income as reported on the federal income tax return, or as otherwise obtained by the corporation, for the calendar year coinciding with the tax year established by the U.S. department of education to qualify applicants for federal student financial aid programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education Act of nineteen hundred sixty-five, as amended, for the school year in which application for assistance is made. Provided, however, if an applicant demonstrates to the corporation that there has been a change in such applicant's adjusted gross income in the year(s) subsequent to the qualifying year which would qualify such applicant for an award, the corporation shall review and make a determination as to whether such applicant meets the requirement set forth in paragraph (d) of this subdivision based on such year. Provided, further that such change was caused by the death, permanent and total physical or mental disability, divorce, or separation by judicial decree or pursuant to an agreement of separation which is filed with a court of competent jurisdiction of any person whose income was required to be used to compute the applicant's total adjusted gross income.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 669-h of the education law, as amended by section 1 of part G of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

2. Amount. Within amounts appropriated therefor and based on availability of funds, awards shall be granted beginning with the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen academic year and thereafter to applicants that the corporation has determined are eligible to receive such awards. The corporation shall grant such awards in an amount up to five thousand five hundred dollars or actual tuition, whichever is less; provided, however, (a) a student who receives educational grants and/or scholarships that cover the student's full cost of attendance shall not be eligible for an award under this program; and (b) an award under this program shall be applied to tuition after the application of payments received under the tuition assistance program pursuant to section six hundred sixty-seven of this subpart, tuition credits pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this article, federal Pell grant pursuant to section one thousand seventy of title twenty of the United States code, et seq., and any other program that covers the cost of attendance unless exclusively for non-tuition expenses, and the award under this program shall be reduced in the amount equal to such payments, provided that the combined benefits do not exceed five thousand five hundred dollars. Upon notification of an award under this program, the institution shall defer the amount of tuition. Notwithstanding paragraph h of subdivision two of section three hundred fifty-five and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section six thousand two hundred six of this chapter, and any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the [~~undergraduate~~] tuition charged by the institution to recipients of an award shall not exceed the tuition rate established by the institution for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year provided, however, that in the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three academic year and every year thereafter, the [~~undergraduate~~] tuition charged by the institution to recipients of an award shall be reset to equal the tuition rate established by the institution for the forthcoming academic year, provided further that the tuition credit calculated pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this article shall be applied toward the tuition rate charged for recipients of an award under this program. Provided further that the state university of New York and the city university of New York shall provide an additional tuition credit to students receiving an award to cover the remaining cost of tuition.

§ 3. Subdivision 3 of section 669-h of the education law, as added by section 1 of part HHH of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

3. Duration. An eligible recipient shall not receive an award for more than four academic years of full-time undergraduate study or five academic years if the program of study normally requires five years. An eligible recipient enrolled in an eligible two year program of study shall not receive an award for more than two academic years. An eligible recipient enrolled in a juris doctor or master of laws program shall not receive an award for longer than the duration required to complete such program. Notwithstanding, such duration may be extended for an allowable interruption of study including, but not limited to, death of a family member, medical leave, military service, and parental leave, as established by the corporation in regulation.

§ 4. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 of section 669-h of the education law, as added by section 1 of part HHH of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

(b) An applicant who has earned a bachelor's degree is ineligible to receive an award pursuant to this section unless such applicant is enrolled in a juris doctor or master of laws program.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
