March 4, 2025

Introduced by Sen. FERNANDEZ -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to requiring employers to include an opioid antagonist in first aid supplies required by federal law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 27-f to read as follows:

§ 27-f. Requiring first aid materials in a workplace to include an opioid antagonist. All employers that are federally mandated to have first aid supplies readily available for the treatment of all injured employees must include an opioid antagonist in such first aid supplies. For the purposes of this section, "employer" includes any person, corporation, limited liability company, or association employing any individual in any occupation, industry, trade, business, or service. The term "employer" shall not include a governmental agency.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
