AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law and the family court act, in relation to establishing "Kyra's Law"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 "Kyra's Law".
- 3 § 2. Legislative intent. The legislature recognizes that the safety 4 of children is of paramount importance and is an integral element of 5 their best interests. To that end, the legislature finds that judicial 6 decisions regarding custody of, and access to, children shall promote 7 the safety of children as a threshold issue.
- 8 § 3. Paragraphs (a) and (a-1) of subdivision 1 of section 240 of the 9 domestic relations law, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 567 of the 11 of 2009, are amended to read as follows:

- 12 (a) In any action or proceeding brought (1) to annul a marriage or to 13 declare the nullity of a void marriage, or (2) for a separation, or (3)

1 any child of a marriage, the court shall require verification of the 2 status of any child of the marriage with respect to such child's custody 3 and support, including any prior orders, and shall enter orders for 4 custody and support as, in the court's discretion, justice requires, 5 having regard to the circumstances of the case and of the respective 6 parties and to the best interests of the child and subject to the 7 provisions of subdivision one-c of this section. When the parties first 8 appear in court, the court shall advise the parties before proceeding of 9 the right to be represented by counsel of their own choosing, of the 10 right to an adjournment of no longer than thirty days to confer with 11 counsel, and the right to seek counsel fees and expenses, pursuant to 12 section two hundred thirty-seven of this article. The court shall assign 13 counsel to the eligible parties and children, pursuant to article two of 14 the family court act and subdivisions seven and eight of section thir-
15 ty-five of the judiciary law. Where either party to an action concerning 16 custody of or a right to visitation with a child alleges in a sworn 17 petition or complaint or sworn answer, cross-petition, counterclaim or 18 other sworn responsive pleading that the other party has committed an 19 act of domestic violence against the party making the allegation or a 20 family or household member of either party, as such family or household 21 member is defined in article eight of the family court act, and such 22 allegations are proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the court 23 [~~must~~] shall consider the effect of such domestic violence upon the best 24 interests of the child, together with such other facts and circumstances 25 as the court deems relevant in making a direction pursuant to this 26 section and state on the record how such findings, facts and circum-
27 stances factored into the direction. If a parent makes a good faith 28 allegation based on a reasonable belief supported by facts that the 29 child is the victim of child abuse, child neglect, or the effects of 30 domestic violence, and if that parent acts lawfully and in good faith in 31 response to that reasonable belief to protect the child or seek treat-32 ment for the child, then that parent shall not be deprived of custody, 33 visitation or contact with the child, or restricted in custody, visita-
34 tion or contact, based solely on that belief or the reasonable actions 35 taken based on that belief. If an allegation that a child is abused is 36 supported by a preponderance of the evidence, then the court shall 37 consider such evidence of abuse in determining the visitation arrange-38 ment that is in the best interest of the child, and the court shall not 39 place a child in the custody of a parent who presents a substantial risk 40 of harm to that child, and shall state on the record how such findings 41 were factored into the determination. Where a proceeding filed pursuant 42 to article ten or ten-A of the family court act is pending at the same 43 time as a proceeding brought in the supreme court involving the custody 44 of, or right to visitation with, any child of a marriage, the court
45 presiding over the proceeding under article ten or ten-A of the family 46 court act may jointly hear the dispositional hearing on the petition 47 under article ten or the permanency hearing under article ten-A of the 48 family court act and, upon referral from the supreme court, the hearing 49 to resolve the matter of custody or visitation in the proceeding pending 50 in the supreme court; provided however, the court [~~must~~] shall determine 51 custody or visitation in accordance with the terms of this section.

52 An order directing the payment of child support shall contain the 53 social security numbers of the named parties. In all cases there shall 54 be no prima facie right to the custody of the child in either parent.
55 Such direction shall make provision for child support out of the proper-56 ty of either or both parents. The court shall make its award for child

1 support pursuant to subdivision one-b of this section. Such direction 2 may provide for reasonable visitation rights to the [~~maternal and/or~~ 3 ~~paternal~~] grandparents of any child of the parties. Such direction as it 4 applies to rights of visitation with a child remanded or placed in the 5 care of a person, official, agency or institution pursuant to article 6 ten of the family court act, or pursuant to an instrument approved under 7 section three hundred fifty-eight-a of the social services law, shall be 8 enforceable pursuant to part eight of article ten of the family court 9 act and sections three hundred fifty-eight-a and three hundred eighty-10 four-a of the social services law and other applicable provisions of law 11 against any person having care and custody, or temporary care and custo-12 dy, of the child. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any writ-13 ten application or motion to the court for the establishment, modifica-14 tion or enforcement of a child support obligation for persons not in 15 receipt of public assistance and care [~~must~~] shall contain either a 16 request for child support enforcement services which would authorize the 17 collection of the support obligation by the immediate issuance of an 18 income execution for support enforcement as provided for by this chap-19 ter, completed in the manner specified in section one hundred eleven-g 20 of the social services law; or a statement that the applicant has 21 applied for or is in receipt of such services; or a statement that the 22 applicant knows of the availability of such services, has declined them 23 at this time and where support enforcement services pursuant to section 24 one hundred eleven-g of the social services law have been declined that 25 the applicant understands that an income deduction order may be issued 26 pursuant to subdivision (c) of section fifty-two hundred forty-two of 27 the civil practice law and rules without other child support enforcement 28 services and that payment of an administrative fee may be required. The 29 court shall provide a copy of any such request for child support 30 enforcement services to the support collection unit of the appropriate 31 social services district any time it directs payments to be made to such 32 support collection unit. Additionally, the copy of any such request 33 shall be accompanied by the name, address and social security number of 34 the parties; the date and place of the parties' marriage; the name and 35 date of birth of the child or children; and the name and address of the 36 employers and income payors of the party from whom child support is 37 sought or from the party ordered to pay child support to the other 38 party. Such direction may require the payment of a sum or sums of money 39 either directly to the custodial parent or to third persons for goods or 40 services furnished for such child, or for both payments to the custodial 41 parent and to such third persons; provided, however, that unless the 42 party seeking or receiving child support has applied for or is receiving 43 such services, the court shall not direct such payments to be made to 44 the support collection unit, as established in section one hundred 45 eleven-h of the social services law. Every order directing the payment 46 of support shall require that if either parent currently, or at any time 47 in the future, has health insurance benefits available that may be 48 extended or obtained to cover the child, such parent is required to 49 exercise the option of additional coverage in favor of such child and 50 execute and deliver to such person any forms, notices, documents or 51 instruments necessary to assure timely payment of any health insurance 52 claims for such child.

53 (a-1)(1) [~~Permanent and initial temporary orders of custody or visita-~~
54 ~~tion. Prior to the issuance of any permanent or initial temporary order~~
55 ~~of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of the deci-~~
56 ~~sions and reports listed in subparagraph three of this paragraph.~~

~~(2) Successive temporary orders of custody or visitation. Prior to the issuance of any successive temporary order of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of the decisions and reports listed in subparagraph three of this paragraph, unless such a review has been conducted within ninety days prior to the issuance of such order.~~

~~(3) Decisions and reports for review. The court shall conduct a review of the following:]~~ Decisions and reports for review. Prior to the issuance of any permanent or temporary order of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of the following:

(i) related decisions in court proceedings initiated pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and all warrants issued under the family court act; and

(ii) reports of the statewide computerized registry of orders of protection established and maintained pursuant to section two hundred twenty-one-a of the executive law, and reports of the sex offender registry established and maintained pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-b of the correction law.

(2) Information to review. The court shall consider:

(i) any party's history of domestic violence or child abuse or incidents involving harm to a child;

(ii) police reports, including domestic violence incident reports or reporting of incidents involving child abuse or domestic violence by a party; and

(iii) evidence and prior judicial findings of child abuse or domestic violence including but not limited to:

(A) an increase in frequency or severity of domestic violence;

(B) use or threats to use a weapon or dangerous instrument, or unlawful possession of firearms;

(C) threats to harm or kill the child, the other party, the other party's children, self or others, or companion animals;

(D) sexual abuse or other sexual offenses against the child or the other party;

(E) unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate image, pursuant to section 245.15 of the penal law;

(F) incidents involving obstruction of breathing or strangulation;

(G) any party's pattern of alcohol or substance abuse that threatens the child's safety;

(H) incidents of violence during pregnancy;

(I) incidents of stalking or cyber stalking;

(J) coercive control, as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section two hundred forty-e of this article; and

(K) any other considerations the court deems appropriate.

(3) Conditions of custody or visitation. After conducting such review the court may set forth limitations or conditions on a party's custody, visitation or contact with a child in a temporary order of custody or visitation.

(i) If the court sets forth limitations or conditions on a party's custody, visitation or contact with a child the court shall consider such limitation or conditions as a significant factor when determining a temporary order of custody or visitation, sole or joint custody or visitation that is unsupervised or without sufficient protections of the child's safety to a party against whom such limitations or conditions apply. Supervision in such cases may also be provided by a relative or other resource deemed appropriate by the court.

1 (ii) The court shall state in writing or on the record the consider-2 ations it reviewed to set forth conditions of custody or visitation in a 3 temporary order of custody.

4 (iii) Nothing contained in this subparagraph shall be deemed in any 5 way to limit, restrict, expand or impair the rights of any party to file 6 for a modification of a temporary order as is otherwise provided by law.

7 (4) Notifying counsel and issuing orders. Upon consideration of deci-8 sions pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and registry 9 reports and notifying counsel involved in the proceeding, or in the 10 event of a self-represented party, notifying such party of the results 11 thereof, including any court appointed attorney for children, the court 12 may issue a temporary, successive temporary or final order of custody or 13 visitation.

14 (5) Temporary emergency order. Notwithstanding any other provision of 15 the law, upon emergency situations, including computer malfunctions, to 16 serve the best interest of the child, the court may issue a temporary 17 emergency order for custody or visitation in the event that it is not 18 possible to timely review decisions and reports on registries as 19 required pursuant to subparagraph [~~three~~] one of this paragraph.

20 (6) After issuing a temporary emergency order. After issuing a tempo-21 rary emergency order of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct 22 reviews of the decisions and reports on registries as required pursuant 23 to subparagraph [~~three~~] one of this paragraph within twenty-four hours 24 of the issuance of such temporary emergency order. Should such twenty-25 four hour period fall on a day when court is not in session, then the 26 required reviews shall take place the next day the court is in session.
27 Upon reviewing decisions and reports the court shall notify associated 28 counsel, self-represented parties and attorneys for children pursuant to 29 subparagraph four of this paragraph and may issue temporary or permanent 30 custody or visitation orders.

31 (7) Expedited hearing request. Nothing in this paragraph shall be 32 construed to limit the ability of a party or the child's attorney to 33 request, or the ability of the court to hold, an expedited hearing to 34 address other new matters that affect the child's well-being.

35 (8) Feasibility study. The commissioner of the office of children and 36 family services, in conjunction with the office of court administration, 37 is hereby authorized and directed to examine, study, evaluate and make 38 recommendations concerning the feasibility of the utilization of comput-39 ers in courts which are connected to the statewide central register of 40 child abuse and maltreatment established and maintained pursuant to 41 section four hundred twenty-two of the social services law, as a means 42 of providing courts with information regarding parties requesting orders 43 of custody or visitation. Such commissioner shall make a preliminary 44 report to the governor and the legislature of findings, conclusions and 45 recommendations not later than January first, two thousand nine, and a 46 final report of findings, conclusions and recommendations not later than 47 June first, two thousand nine, and shall submit with the reports such 48 legislative proposals as are deemed necessary to implement the commis-49 sioner's recommendations.

50 § 4. The domestic relations law is amended by adding a new section 51 240-e to read as follows:

52 § 240-e. Custody and visitation; safety of the child. 1. For the 53 purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following 54 meanings:

55 (a) "Victim of domestic violence" shall have the same meaning as 56 defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law.

1 (b) "Coercive control" means a pattern of behavior that unreasonably 2 restricts a party's safety or autonomy through threats, or intimidation, 3 or by compelling compliance. This conduct includes, but is not limited 4 to:

5 (i) isolating the other party from friends, family or other sources of 6 support;

7 (ii) interfering with a party's freedom of movement;

8 (iii) depriving the other party of basic necessities such as food, 9 sleep, clothing, housing, medication or medical care;

10 (iv) controlling, regulating, surveilling or monitoring the other 11 party's movements, communications, daily behavior, appearance, finances, 12 economic resources or access to services;

13 (v) compelling the other party by force, threat of force or intim-14 idation, including but not limited to threats based on actual or 15 suspected immigration status, to engage in conduct from which the other 16 party has a right to abstain or to abstain from conduct in which the 17 other party has a right to engage;

18 (vi) interfering with the other party's education or employment;

19 (vii) forcing or compelling the other party to perform sex acts, or 20 threats of a sexual nature, including but not limited to threatened acts 21 of sexual conduct, threats based on a person's sexuality or threats to 22 release intimate images; or

23 (viii) cleaning, accessing, displaying, using or wearing a firearm or 24 other dangerous weapon in an intimidating or threatening manner.

25 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, before 26 a court makes a final determination of custody or visitation based on 27 the best interests of a child pursuant to the provisions of this chap-28 ter, such court shall conduct a review of any allegations of domestic 29 violence or child abuse made by either party against the other party, 30 including, but not limited to:

31 (a) whether any party to the proceeding has committed, or has threat-32 ened to commit an act of child abuse against the child, or has committed 33 or threatened to commit an act of domestic violence against the party 34 making the allegation, or a family or household member of either party 35 as such family or household member is defined in article eight of the 36 family court act;

37 (b) any party's history of domestic violence, child abuse or incidents 38 involving harm to a child;

39 (c) police reports, including domestic violence incident reports or 40 reporting of incidents involving child abuse or domestic violence by a 41 party;

42 (d) incidents of child abuse or domestic violence, including but not 43 limited to:

44 (i) an increase in frequency or severity of domestic violence;

45 (ii) use or threats to use a weapon or dangerous instrument, or unlaw-46 ful possession of firearms;

47 (iii) threats to harm or kill the child, the other party, the other 48 party's children, self or others, or companion animals;

49 (iv) sexual abuse or other sexual offenses against the child or other 50 party;

51 (v) unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate image, pursu-52 ant to section 245.15 of the penal law;

53 (vi) incidents involving obstruction of breathing or strangulation;

54 (vii) any party's pattern of alcohol or substance abuse that threatens 55 the child's safety;

56 (viii) incidents of violence during pregnancy;

1 (ix) incidents of stalking or cyber stalking; and 2 (x) coercive control, as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivision one 3 of this section;

4 (e) whether any party has been found to have committed an act pursuant 5 to section eight hundred twelve of the family court act between spouses 6 or former spouses, or between parent and child or between members of the 7 same family or household;

8 (f) whether any party has used or threatened to use a dangerous
9 instrument to harm the other party, child, or a third party, including a 10 firearm, except in incidents involving self-defense, or has unlawfully 11 possessed a weapon or firearm, or has been convicted of criminal 12 possession of a weapon or criminal use of a firearm pursuant to article 13 two hundred sixty-five of the penal law, or is or has been subject to an 14 extreme risk protection order, pursuant to article sixty-three-A of the 15 civil practice law and rules; and 16 (g) any other considerations the court deems appropriate.

17 3. If the court sets forth limitations or conditions on a party's 18 custody, visitation or contact with a child, the court shall consider 19 such limitation or conditions as a significant factor in determining a 20 temporary order of custody or visitation, sole or joint custody or visi-21 tation that is unsupervised or without sufficient protections of the 22 child's safety to a party against whom such limitations or conditions 23 apply. Supervision in such cases may also be provided by a relative or 24 other resource deemed appropriate by the court.

25 4. (a) In any proceeding for custody or visitation where a party 26 asserts allegations of domestic violence, or child abuse, the court 27 shall not find that protective behaviors to safeguard the child which 28 were engaged in by the party who has made such allegations constitute 29 failure to support the child's relationship with the other party.

30 (b) The court shall not presume that a child's reluctance to interact 31 with a party was caused by the other party, nor shall a party be given 32 custody for the sole purpose of improving a relationship between the 33 child and such party or in an attempt to address the child's reluctance 34 to interact with such party. Where appropriate, however, the court may 35 enter an order directing one or more parties to refrain from disparaging 36 the other party or parties in the presence of the child or children.

37 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create an exception 38 to section seven hundred fifty-three of the judiciary law, or any other 39 enforcement provision, such that a party may seek to enforce any proper 40 ruling of the court, unless stayed, concerning access to the child or 41 conditions of access to the child.

42 5. The chief administrator of the courts shall promulgate comprehen-43 sive training on topics necessary to conduct a review of allegations of 44 domestic violence, child abuse and child neglect to judges, referees, 45 and other hearing officers presiding over child custody proceedings.
46 This comprehensive training shall be part of the mandatory annual train-47 ing administered by the office of court administration.

48 § 5. Section 70 of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 49 457 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:

50 § 70. Habeas corpus for child detained by parent. (a) (i) Where a 51 minor child is residing within this state, either parent may apply to 52 the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to have such minor child 53 brought before such court; and on the return thereof, the court, on due 54 consideration, may award the natural guardianship, charge and custody of 55 such child to either parent for such time, under such regulations and 56 restrictions, and with such provisions and directions, as the case may

1 require, and may at any time thereafter vacate or modify such order. In 2 all cases there shall be no prima facie right to the custody of the 3 child in either parent, but the court shall determine solely what is for 4 the best interest of the child, and what will best promote its welfare 5 and happiness, and make award accordingly. Where the court issues any 6 initial or successive temporary order of custody or visitation or perma-7 nent order of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of 8 the decisions and reports listed in subparagraph two of paragraph (a-1) 9 of subdivision one of section two hundred forty of this chapter, unless 10 such a review has been conducted within ninety days prior to the issu-11 ance of such order.

12 (ii) When issuing any temporary order of custody or visitation, or 13 denying an application for a temporary order after conducting a review 14 of allegations of domestic violence or child abuse, the court shall 15 state in writing or on the record the considerations it reviewed to set 16 forth any limitations or conditions placed on a party's custody, visita-17 tion or contact with such child.

18 (iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a 19 court making a final determination of custody or visitation based on the 20 best interests of a child pursuant to the provisions of this chapter 21 shall conduct a review of any allegations of domestic violence or child 22 abuse made by either party against the other party, pursuant to para-23 graph (a) of subdivision one of section two hundred forty of this chap-24 ter. Such review shall include decisions and reports identified in 25 subparagraph two of paragraph (a-1) of subdivision one of section two 26 hundred forty of this chapter.

27 (iv) In making a decision pursuant to paragraph (i) of this subdivi-28 sion, the court shall be bound by the presumptions and admissibility 29 described pursuant to section two hundred forty of this chapter.

30 (v) Before judges, referees and other hearing officers preside over 31 child custody proceedings in which one or more parties have alleged 32 domestic violence or child abuse, they shall complete initial training 33 for the handling of such cases as described pursuant to paragraph (a) of 34 subdivision six of section two hundred forty-e of this chapter and in 35 accordance with the rules of the chief administrator of the courts. Once 36 initial training requirements have been met, judges, referees and other 37 hearing officers shall complete additional training every two years 38 thereafter to remain eligible to preside over such proceedings as 39 described pursuant to subdivision five of section two hundred forty-e of 40 this chapter and in accordance with such rules.

41 (b) Any order under this section which applies to rights of visitation 42 with a child remanded or placed in the care of a person, official, agen-43 cy or institution pursuant to article ten of the family court act or 44 pursuant to an instrument approved under section three hundred fifty-45 eight-a of the social services law, shall be enforceable pursuant to the 46 provisions of part eight of article ten of such act, sections three 47 hundred fifty-eight-a and three hundred eighty-four-a of the social 48 services law and other applicable provisions of law against any person 49 or official having care and custody, or temporary care and custody, of 50 such child.

51 § 6. Subdivision (b) of section 651 of the family court act, as 52 amended by chapter 657 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as 53 follows:

54 (b) (i) When initiated in the family court, the family court has 55 jurisdiction to determine, in accordance with subdivision one of section 56 two hundred forty of the domestic relations law and with the same powers

1 possessed by the supreme court in addition to its own powers, habeas 2 corpus proceedings and proceedings brought by petition and order to show 3 cause, for the determination of the custody or visitation of minors, 4 including applications by a grandparent or grandparents for visitation 5 or custody rights pursuant to section seventy-two or two hundred forty 6 of the domestic relations law.

7 (ii) The family court shall update its petition used by parties to 8 initiate child custody and visitation proceedings in a manner to permit 9 petitioners to specify allegations of child abuse or domestic violence.

10 § 7. Subdivision (e) of section 651 of the family court act, as 11 amended by chapter 295 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 12 follows:

13 (e) 1. Permanent and initial temporary orders of custody or visita-
14 tion. Prior to the issuance of any permanent or initial temporary order
15 of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of [~~the deci-~~ 16 ~~sions and reports listed in paragraph three of this subdivision.~~] any 17 allegations of domestic violence or child abuse made by either party to
